MEMORANDUM.

Her Majesty has been graciously pleased to command that the 79th Regiment of Foot (Cameron Highlanders) be in future designated "The 79th Queen's Own Cameron Highlanders."

ORDER issued by the Local Government Board under "The Public Health Act, 1872," investing Rural Sanitary Authorities with Urban Powers:—

Leighton Buzzard Union.—Parts of Leighton Buzzard and Linslade Parishes.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the Leighton Buzzard Union, in the Counties of Bedford and Buckingham, being the Sanitary Authority for the Rural Sanitary District of that Union;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS by Section 23 of the Public Health Act, 1872, it is enacted that the Local Government Board may, on the application of the authority of any Rural Sanitary District, by Order, to be published in the London Gazette, or in such other manner as they may direct, invest such authority with all or any of the powers, rights, duties, capacities, liabilities, and obligations of an Urban Sanitary Authority, and that such investment may be made subject to any conditions to be specified by the said Board as to the time at which and the portion of the District in which such powers, rights, duties, capacities, liabilities, and obligations are to be exercised and attached;

And whereas the Guardians of the Poor of the Leighton Buzzard Union, in the counties of Bedford and Buckingham, as the Sanitary Authority for the Rural Sanitary District of that Union, have applied to the Local Government Board to invest them with all the powers, rights, duties, capacities, liabilities, and obligations of an Urban Sanitary Authority with respect to the laying-out of streets and the regulation of buildings within certain parts of their district:

Now therefore, We, the Local Government Board, having duly considered the said application, and acting under the authority of the several Statutes in that behalf, do hereby invest the Guardians of the Poor of the Leighton Buzzard Union, in the counties of Bedford and Buckingham, as such Sanitary Authority as aforesaid, from and after the 1st day of August, 1873, in respect of the portion of their district described in the Schedule to this Order, with the power of making Bye-laws with regard to all the several matters provided for in the 34th Section of the Local Government Act, 1858, such Bye-laws to be made, confirmed, and enforced in the manner provided by the Public Health Act, 1848, and the Public Health Act, 1872.

And We do hereby direct the said Guardians to cause this our Order to be published in some newspaper circulated within their district before the expiration of one calendar month from the date hereof.

The SCHEDULE above referred to.

All those parts of the parish of Leighton Buzzard, in the county of Bedford, and the parish of Linslade, in the county of Bucks, which are comprised within a line commencing from the Shaft in the Linslade Tunnel on the Main Line of the London and North-Western Railway, and running southwards along the western boundary fence of the said railway, for a distance of one thousand one hundred and twenty yards or thereabouts; thence across such railway and along the southern boundary fence of the Dunstable Branch of the said railway, for the distance of two thousand seven hundred and thirty yards, or thereabouts; thence across the said Dunstable Branch, and running northwards to a point in the centre of Capshill Bridge; thence across such bridge, and running northwards to a point eight hundred and seventy-five yards or thereabouts north of the said bridge, and two thousand three hundred and fifty yards or thereabouts east of the said shaft; thence westwards in a straight line to the said shaft to the point where the said boundary line commences.

Given under our Seal of Office, this thirtieth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

(Signed) James Stansfeld,
President.

John T. Hibbert, Secretary.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction consisting of certain tithe commutation rent-charges amounting to fifty-two pounds sixteen shillings and sixpence, which have been permanently secured to the rectory of Saint Nicholas, Droitwich, in the county of Worcester, and in the diocese of Worcester, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said rectory of Saint Nicholas, Droitwich, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one yearly sum or stipend of thirty-nine pounds fifteen shillings and fourpence such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said rectory, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-fourth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund, to the rectory of Shincliffe, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, one capital sum of five hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of enlarging and otherwise improving the parsonage or house of residence belonging to the said rectory, according to plans and a specification to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said rectory of Shincliffe.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-fourth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of a piece or parcel of land comprising one thousand five hundred and eighty-eight square yards which has been permanently secured to the vicarage of Saint Andrew, Wolverhampton, in the county of Stafford, and in the diocese of Lichfield, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Saint Andrew, Wolverhampton, to meet such benefaction one capital sum of three hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage according to plans and a specification to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Saint Andrew, Wolverhampton.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-fourth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of a clear annual rent-charge of twenty-five pounds, and of a further benefaction consisting of certain tithe commutation rent-charges, both of which benefactions have been permanently secured to the vicarage of Treales, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Treales, and to his successors, to meet such benefactions, one yearly sum or stipend of fifty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-fourth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of a clear annual rent-charge of sixty pounds on the revenues of the rectory of Withyham, in the county of Sussex, and in the diocese of Chichester, which has been permanently secured to the vicarage of Saint John, Withyham, in the same county and diocese, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Saint John, Withyham, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one yearly sum or stipend of fourteen pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-fourth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

Hoylake and Birkenhead Rail and Tramway Company.

Bye-Laws and Regulations of the Hoylake and Birkenhead Rail and Tramway Company.

WHEREAS by Section 46 of the Tramways Act, 1870, it is enacted that the promoters of any tramway may, from time to time, make regulations for preventing the commission of any nuisance in or upon any carriage, or in or against any premises belonging to them, and for regulating the travelling in or upon any carriage belonging to them; and whereas by the said 46th section it is further enacted, that for better enforcing the observance of all or any such regulations, it shall be lawful for such promoters to make bye-laws for all or any of the aforesaid purposes, and from time to time to repeal or alter such bye-laws, and make new bye-laws, provided that such bye-laws be not repugnant to the laws of that part of the United Kingdom where the same are to have effect.

And whereas by Section 47 of the said Tramways Act, 1870, it is enacted that any such bye-law may impose reasonable penalties for offences against the same, not exceeding forty shillings for each offence, with or without further penalties for continuing offences, not exceeding, for any continuing offence, ten shillings for every day during which the offence continues; but all bye-laws shall be so framed, as to allow, in every case, part only of the maximum penalty being ordered to be paid.

Now, in exercise of the said powers so given by the said Act, and with the approval of the Board of Trade, the Hoylake and Birkenhead Rail and Tramway Company make and ordain the following bye-laws and regulations:—

BYE-LAWS and REGULATIONS made by the Hoylake and Birkenhead Rail and Tramway Company, under the powers conferred on the Company by the Tramways Act, 1870, for regulating the travelling in or upon any tramway carriage belonging to the Company.

1. The bye-laws and regulations hereinafter set forth shall extend and apply to all tramway carriages of the Company, and to all places with respect to which the Company have power to make bye-laws or regulations with respect to their tramways.

2. Every passenger shall enter or depart from a carriage as directed by the conductor, and not otherwise.

3. No passenger shall smoke inside any carriage.

4. No passenger or other person shall, while riding in or upon any carriage, play or perform upon any musical instrument.

5. A person in a state of intoxication shall not be allowed to enter or mount upon any carriage, and if found in or upon any carriage shall be immediately removed by or under the direction of the conductor.

6. No person shall swear or use obscene or offensive language whilst in or upon any carriage, or commit any nuisance in or upon or against any carriage, or wilfully interfere with the comfort of any passenger.

7. No person shall wilfully cut, tear, soil, or damage the cushions or the linings, or remove or deface any number plate, printed notice, or writing on the panels, or break or scratch any window of, or otherwise wilfully damage any carriage. Any person acting in contravention of this regulation shall be liable to the penalty prescribed by these bye-laws and regulations, in addition to the liability to pay the amount of any damage done.

8. A person whose dress or clothing might, in the opinion of the conductor of a carriage, soil or injure the linings or cushions of the carriage, or the dress or clothing of any passenger, or a person who, in the opinion of the conductor, might for any other reason be offensive to passengers, shall not be entitled to enter or remain in the interior of any carriage, and may be prevented from entering the interior of any carriage, and shall not enter the interior of any carriage after having been requested not to do so by the conductor, and if found in the interior of any carriage shall, on request of the conductor, leave the interior of the carriage upon the fare, if previously paid, being returned.

9. Each passenger shall, upon demand, pay to the conductor or other duly authorised officer of the Company, the fare legally demandable for the journey.

10. Each passenger shall show his ticket (if any) when required so to do to the conductor or any duly authorised servant of the Company, and shall also, when required so to do, either deliver up his ticket or pay the fare legally demandable for the distance travelled over by such passenger.

11. A passenger not being an artisan, mechanic, or daily labourer, within the true intent and meaning of the Act of Parliament relating to the Company, shall not use, or attempt to use, any ticket intended only for such artisans, mechanics, or daily labourers.

12. Personal or other luggage (including the tools of artisans, mechanics, and daily labourers) shall, unless otherwise permitted by the conductor, be placed on the front or driver's platform, and not in the interior or on the roof of any carriage.

13. No passenger or other person not being a servant of the Company shall be permitted to travel on the steps or platforms of any carriage, or stand either on the roof or in the interior, or sit on the outside rail on the roof of any carriage, and shall cease to do so immediately on request by the conductor.

14. No person except a passenger or intending passenger shall enter or mount any carriage, and no person shall hold or hang on by or to any part of any carriage or travel therein, otherwise than on a seat provided for passengers.

15. When any carriage contains a full number of passengers which it is licensed to contain, no additional person shall enter, mount, or remain in or on any such carriage when warned by the conductor not to do so.

16. When a carriage contains the full licensed number of passengers a notice to that effect shall be placed in conspicuous letters and in a conspicuous position on the carriage.

17. The conductor shall not permit any passenger beyond the licensed number to enter or mount or remain in or upon any part of a carriage.

18. No person shall enter, mount, or leave, or attempt to enter, mount, or leave any carriage whilst in motion.

19. No dog or other animal shall be allowed in or on any carriage except by permission of the conductor, nor in any case in which the annoyance of such dog or other animal might be offensive or an annoyance to passengers. No person shall take a dog or other animal into a carriage after having been requested not to do so by the conductor. Any dog or other animal taken into or on any carriage in breach of this regulation shall be removed by the person in charge thereof from the carriage immediately upon request by the conductor, and in default of compliance with such request may be removed by or under the direction of the conductor.

20. No person shall travel in or on any carriage of the Company with loaded fire-arms.

21. No passenger shall wilfully obstruct or impede any officer or servant of the Company in the execution of his duty upon or in connection with any carriage or tramway of the Company.

22. The conductor of each carriage shall enforce these bye-laws and regulations to the best of his ability, and if any such conductor fails to enforce the same as aforesaid, he shall be deemed to have committed a breach of these bye-laws and regulations.

23. Any person offending against or committing a breach of any of these bye-laws or regulations shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings.

24. The expression "conductor" shall include any officer or servant in the employment of the Company and having charge of a carriage.

25. There shall be placed and kept placed in a conspicuous position inside of each carriage in use a printed copy of these bye-laws and regulations.

26. These bye-laws shall come into force on the 1st day of October, 1873.

27. These bye-laws shall not apply to the railway carriages of the Company.
