FRIDAY, AUGUST 8, 1873.

Her Majesty's Most Gracious Speech, delivered by the Lords Commissioners to both Houses of Parliament, on Tuesday, August 5, 1873.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I AM now released from the necessity of calling upon you for the further prosecution of your arduous occupations.

In bidding you farewell for the recess, I make it my first duty to thank you for the loyal promptitude with which you have made further provision for my son the Duke of Edinburgh on the occasion of his approaching marriage with the Grand Duchess Marie Alexandrovna of Russia.

This marriage will, I trust, form a new tie of amity between two great Empires.

The best relations continue to subsist between myself and all foreign Powers.

I am able to announce the successful termination of the Mission to Zanzibar, made known to you at the beginning of the Session. Treaties have been concluded with the Sultan of Zanzibar, with the Imaum of Muscat, and with other native Powers, which will provide means for the more effectual repression of the Slave Trade on the East Coast of Africa.

I have been enabled to bring to a satisfactory issue the commercial negotiations with France, in which my Government has been for some time engaged. Under the provisions of an instrument signed on the 23rd of July, and awaiting ratification, the Treaties of 1860 are again put in force, with a comprehensive engagement contracted between the two countries for mutual treatment on the footing of the most favoured nation; and the differential tax on the British flag has been removed. Separate provisions are contained in the Treaty for the adjustment of the question of mineral oils, and otherwise for the relief and extension of trade.

I have likewise concluded Treaties of Extradition with Italy, Denmark, Sweden, and Brazil. The ratifications of the two last-named Treaties have not yet been exchanged, but I anticipate no difficulty in this final step: and I am engaged in negotiations for agreements of a similar character with other States both in Europe and beyond it.

I am still occupied in giving effect to those provisions of the Treaty of Washington, which relate to British claims against the Government of the United States, and to the interests of my possessions in North America.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I am very sensible of the liberality with which you have provided for the various charges of the State; and have likewise enabled me promptly to meet the obligations imposed upon me by the award of the Arbitrators at Geneva during the past year.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I have observed with satisfaction the progress you have been enabled to make in the remission of public burdens; by reducing both the Sugar Duties and the Income Tax to points lower than any at which they have previously stood.

The Act for the establishment of the Supreme Court of Judicature forms a distinguished record of your persevering labour, and will be found, as I hope, to confer corresponding benefits on the country in the more cheap, certain, expeditious, and effectual administration of justice.

The Acts for the Amendment of the Education Act, 1870, and of the Endowed Schools Act of 1869, will, as I trust, tend to accelerate the attainment of solid national advantages through the extension of education both in the middle and the most numerous classes of the community.

The Act relating to the Regulation of Railways and Canals promises to conduce to the more harmonious working of the railway system of the country.

I have with pleasure assented to the Act relating to Merchant Shipping, from which, and from the labours of the Commission recently appointed, I hope for a diminution of the risks to which the seafaring population are exposed.

The revenue has, up to this time, fully answered my expectations; and, although the activity of trade in some of its branches may have been somewhat restrained by a variety of causes, the general condition of the people continues to exhibit evidences of improvement.

These, and all mercies of Divine Providence will, I trust, find their suitable acknowledgment alike in our words and in our hearts.

Then a Commission for proroguing the Parliament was read; after which the Lord Chancellor said:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

By virtue of Her Majesty's Commission, under the Great Seal, to us and other Lords directed, and now read, we do, in Her Majesty's name, and in obedience to Her commands, prorogue this Parliament to Wednesday, the twenty-second day of October next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Wednesday, the twenty-second day of October next.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 4th day of August, 1873.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the second of August, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, in the words following, viz. :—

“Whereas Officers of your Majesty's Naval and Marine Forces who may be allowed by us to take employment under foreign and friendly Governments as Instructors or otherwise, are at present debarred by His late Majesty's Order in Council of fourth of February, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, from receiving their half-pay while so employed, except in the proportions, and under the circumstances, allowed in the said Order in Council. And whereas this said Order in Council of fourth of February, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, was framed to apply to the Naval and Marine Forces, the Regulations then in force in regard to the Land Forces.

“And whereas Officers of your Majesty's Land Forces who may take employment under foreign Governments are now allowed the unrestricted receipt of their half-pay, we, therefore, beg leave most humbly to submit that your Majesty will be most graciously pleased by your Order in Council to direct that, from the first of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, Officers of your Majesty's Naval and Marine Forces may also be allowed the unrestricted receipt of their half-pay during the time they may be, with our consent, in the employment of foreign Governments. The Lords Commissioners of your Majesty's Treasury have expressed their approval hereto.”

Her Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 4th day of August, 1873.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the tenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, in the words following; that is to say:

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Stephen and All Martyrs, situate at Lower Moor, in the new parish of Saint James, Oldham, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester.

“Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Stephen and All Martyrs, situate at Lower Moor as aforesaid.

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of Saint James, Oldham, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Stephen and All Martyrs, situate at Lower Moor as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘The District Chapelry of Saint Stephen and All Martyrs, Lower Moor.’

“And, with the like consent of the said James, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Stephen and All Martyrs, situate at Lower Moor as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that so long as the Reverend Robert Septimus Gooday, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint James, Oldham, shall continue to be such vicar or incumbent, all the fees which may be received in respect of such publication, solemnization, or performance at the said church of Saint Stephen and All Martyrs, situate at Lower Moor as aforesaid, shall be paid over by the minister thereof to the said Robert Septimus Gooday; and provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

“We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“The District Chapelry of Saint Stephen and All Martyrs, Lower Moor, being:—

“All that part of the new parish of Saint James, Oldham, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, wherein the present incumbent of such new parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the north-west by the new parish of Royton, on the west by the new parish of Saint Mary, Oldham, on the south by the new parish of Glodwick; all in the county and diocese aforesaid, and on the remaining side, that is to say, on the east, by an imaginary line, commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Glodwick from the new parish of Saint James, Oldham aforesaid, at the centre of the bridge which carries the line of the Oldham and Rochdale Branch of the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway, over the street or road, called or known as Mumps; and extending thence, northward, for a distance of sixty-eight chains or thereabouts, along the middle of the said branch line of railway, and along the middle of the line of the Royton Branch of the said Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway (thereby passing through Royton Junction Station), to the boundary on the north of the Windsor Cotton Mills, which divides the said new parish of Saint James, Oldham, from the new parish of Royton aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette; pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 4th day of August, 1873.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventeenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the Prebend of Ilton, in the Cathedral Church of Wells, and now vested in us.

"Whereas, under an Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of another Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and by virtue of an Order of your Majesty in Council, made under the provisions of the said Acts, and bearing date the fifteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, and duly published in the London Gazette on the nineteenth day of the same month, all lands, tithes, and other hereditaments whatsoever (except any right of patronage) then belonging to the said Prebend, became absolutely vested in us, for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

And whereas a portion of the tithes which so became vested in us as aforesaid have been annexed to the vicarage of Saint Mary, Bevington, in the county of Somerset, and the remainder of the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments are now in our possession, and are not subject to any outstanding lease or grant; but some portions thereof, on account of their character or situation, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments so in our possession as aforesaid, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such lands, tithes, and hereditaments, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable:

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, all or any of the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments heretofore belonging to the said Prebend, and so in our possession as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable; it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale, from time to time, as occasion may arise, in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or hereditaments, or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the proceeds in some Government or parliamentary stock or other public securities in England.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Bath and Wells.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 4th day of August, 1873.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of "The Ecclesiastical Commission Act, 1868," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventeenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of 'The Ecclesiastical Commission Act, 1868,' section three, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme relating to the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Rochester:—

"Whereas under the provisions of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the ninth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and duly published in the London Gazette of the tenth day of the same month, the annual sum of nine thousand eight hundred and sixty pounds is payable by us to the said Dean and Chapter.

And whereas the said Dean and Chapter have agreed with us that a scheme should be laid before your Majesty in Council for transferring to them in lieu of the said annual sum so payable to them by us, the lands and hereditaments which are particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, which lands and hereditaments are vested in us in fee simple, and are sufficient to secure to the said Dean and Chapter a clear annual income therefrom, after deducting rates, taxes, and other outgoings, of nine thousand eight hundred and sixty pounds.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Rochester, and with the consent of the Right Reverend Thomas Legh, Bishop of Rochester, as Visitor of the said Dean and Chapter (testified by their having hereunto affixed their respective corporate seals), we humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any further conveyance or Act in the law, the lands and hereditaments comprised in the schedule hereunto annexed shall, together with the benefit of the perpetual land tax charged thereon, which has been redeemed, be transferred to the said Dean and Chapter, in the manner contemplated by the said Act, in lieu of the annual sum of nine thousand eight hundred and sixty pounds so paid to them by us as aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the said Dean and Chapter shall be entitled to the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said property as from the twenty-fifth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, and that the payment to them by us of the said annual sum of nine thousand eight hundred and sixty pounds shall cease as from the same date.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or of any other Act of Parliament.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, in the words following; that is to say:

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for assigning the right of patronage of the district of Saint John the Divine, Kennington, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Winchester.

"Whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the nineteenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, and published in the London Gazette, on the twenty-second day of the same month, the district of Saint John the Divine, Kennington, was, under the Act hereinbefore mentioned, and certain other Acts in the said Order of your Majesty in Council specified, constituted out of certain cures (all of them in the county and diocese aforesaid) which in the same Order are mentioned and described, and the same district has not yet become a new parish under the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Act.

"And whereas, no specific assignment of the whole or any part of the right of patronage of the said district of Saint John the Divine, Kennington, or of the nomination of the minister thereof, has been made by any Order of your Majesty in Council, and such right of patronage and nomination has hitherto continued to be exercised in accordance with the directions in that behalf contained in the hereinbefore mentioned Act.

"And whereas a sum of five thousand pounds sterling has been contributed and paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England, by the Reverend Charles Edward Brooke, of Vassal-road, Kennington, in the said county of Surrey, Clerk in Holy Orders, towards providing a church for the use of the inhabitants of the said district of Saint John the Divine, Kennington, and we have in respect of the said sum agreed with the said Charles Edward Brooke, and have undertaken that the said sum of five thousand pounds shall be disbursed and expended by us in or towards defraying the cost of such church accordingly, the same church to be satisfactory to us, and to be approved by us in due course, as by the hereinbefore mentioned Act is provided.

"And whereas the said sum of five thousand pounds sterling was so contributed and paid by the said Charles Edward Brooke as aforesaid, upon the understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said district of Saint John the Divine, Kennington, and of the new parish of Saint John the Divine, Kennington, when the said district shall have become a new parish, and the whole right of nomination of the minister of the same district, or (as the case may be) of the vicar or incumbent of the same new parish should be assigned to the said Charles Edward Brooke, and his heirs and assigns, in the manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the district (or, as the case may be, of the new parish) of Saint John the Divine, Kennington aforesaid, and the whole right of nomination of the minister of the same district (or, as the case may be) of the vicar or incumbent of the same new parish, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to, and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the said Charles Edward Brooke, and his heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Act or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the first session of the Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to abridge the holding of benefices in plurality, and to make better provision for the residence of the clergy," after reciting that "Whereas, in some instances, tithings, hamlets, chapeltries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may in some instances with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "That when, with respect to his own diocese, it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said archbishop that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district within the diocese of such archbishop, or the diocese of such bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church, and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-

"parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes; and the said archbishop or bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such bishop to be transmitted to the said archbishop for his consideration), describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent-charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested; and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modification thereof as the said Archbishop may approve, and the said Archbishop shall, on full consideration and inquiry, be satisfied with any such scheme, or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid, by his report to Her Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make an Order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect."

And whereas the Lord Bishop of Norwich hath, by a representation under his hand, dated the twenty-first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, represented to the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

To the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Archibald Campbell, Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury.

"I, John Thomas, by Divine permission, Lord Bishop of Norwich, do hereby represent to your Grace, that there is in the county of Norfolk, and within my diocese of Norwich, the vicarage and parish church of Wymondham, the parish whereof comprises (amongst other places) a district known by the name of Kimberley Hall Park and Gardens, which consists of a territory of two hundred and seventy-eight acres three roods and twenty-three perches of land, according to the tithe apportionment of the said parish, and is distinguished on the tithe commutation map of the said parish, with the numbers 541 to 551, both inclusive, including the outer fences thereof, and such part of the lake, together with such parts of the river (if any) adjoining thereto, as are within the said parish.

"That the said district of Kimberley Hall Park and Gardens adjoins the parish of Carleton Forehoe, in the said county and diocese, to which parish the said district may be more conveniently annexed for ecclesiastical purposes.

"That the said parish church of Carleton Forehoe is conveniently situated for, and adapted to, the accommodation of the inhabitants of the said district, who are accustomed to attend there for the purpose of Divine worship, the most distant part of the said district being about one mile from the parish church of Carleton Forehoe, and the nearest house in the said district to the parish church of Wymondham is distant about three miles from such last-mentioned church.

"That it does not appear that any of the inhabitants, or the Right Honourable John, Earl of Kimberley, the sole landowner of the said district, possess any legal right by faculty or otherwise to the exclusive use of any pews or sittings in the said parish church of Wymondham.

"That the patronage of the said vicarage and parish church of Wymondham belongs to me, the said John Thomas, Lord Bishop of Norwich, by virtue of my bishoprick, and the Reverend Robert Eden is the incumbent of such vicarage and parish church, and the patronage of the rectory and parish church of Carleton Forehoe belongs to the said John, Earl of Kimberley, and the Reverend Francis Raikes is the incumbent of such rectory and parish church.

"That it appears to me, that under the provisions of the Acts of Parliament of the first and second years of Her present Majesty, chapter 106, and of the second and third years of the same reign, chapter 49, the said district of Kimberley Hall Park and Gardens may be advantageously separated from the said vicarage and parish church of Wymondham, and be united to and be deemed part of the rectory and parish church of Carleton Forehoe for ecclesiastical purposes.

"That pursuant to the directions contained in the twenty-sixth section of the said first-mentioned Act, I have prepared the following scheme, which, together with the consents thereto of the patrons and incumbents of the said vicarage of Wymondham and of the said rectory of Carleton Forehoe, I do submit to your Grace to the intent that your Grace may, if on full consideration and enquiry you shall be satisfied with such scheme, certify the same and such consent by your report to Her Majesty in Council.

"That the said district shall be subject to the same ecclesiastical jurisdiction as the said rectory of Carleton Forehoe, and the incumbent of Carleton Forehoe shall have exclusive cure of souls within the limits of the same district.

"That all tithe, rent-charges, or other payments in lieu or commutation of tithe belonging to the said vicarage of Wymondham arising, and from time to time hereafter to arise, or become due or payable within the limits of the same district, shall from henceforth continue to belong to, and be received and enjoyed by, the incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Wymondham for ever.

"That all fees and other ecclesiastical dues and payments for churchings, marriages, burials, and other ecclesiastical offices solemnized and performed within the parish or parish church of Carleton Forehoe in respect of the said district of Kimberley Hall Park and Gardens, shall from henceforth belong to the incumbent, clerk, and sexton of Carleton Forehoe.

"That the parishioners of and residing within the said district shall not hereafter be entitled to accommodation in the church of Wymondham, but shall be entitled in common with the parishioners of Carleton Forehoe to accommodation in the church of Carleton Forehoe.

"Given under my hand this twenty-first day of July, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

"John T. Norwich.

"Consents.

"Given under our hands this twenty-first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three."

"John T. Norwich,
"Robert Eden,
"Kimberley,
"Francis Raikes."

And whereas the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury hath duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a report, in writing, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"We, the undersigned, Archibald Campbell, Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury, do hereby report to your Majesty in Council, that the Honourable and Right Reverend John Thomas, Lord Bishop of Norwich, has represented unto us (amongst other things): that there is in the county of Norfolk, and diocese of Norwich, the vicarage and parish church of Wymondham, the parish whereof comprises, amongst other places, a district known by the name of Kimberley Hall Park and Gardens, which consists of a territory of two hundred and seventy-eight acres three roods and twenty-three perches of land, according to the tithe apportionment of the said parish, and is distinguished on the tithe commutation map of the said parish with the numbers 541 to 551 both inclusive, including the outer fences thereof, and such part of the lake, together with such parts of the river (if any) adjoining thereto, as are within the said parish. That the said district adjoins the parish of Carleton Forehoe, in the same county and diocese, and is distant from the church of that parish about one mile, and from the parish church of Wymondham about three miles. That it appears to the said Lord Bishop that, under the provisions of the Acts of Parliament of the first and second years of your Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and six, and of the second and third years of your Majesty's said reign, chapter forty-nine, the district referred to in the said representation may be advantageously separated from the said parish of Wymondham, and be united for ecclesiastical purposes to the parish of Carleton Forehoe. That the said Lord Bishop has drawn up a scheme in writing describing the mode in which it appears to him the proposed alterations may best be effected, and how the changes consequent upon such alterations in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews may be made with justice to all parties interested, which scheme, together with the consents thereto of the patrons and incumbents of the said benefices of Wymondham and Carleton Forehoe, has been transmitted by the said Lord Bishop to us, for our consideration. The representation and scheme of the said Lord Bishop, and the consents before referred to, are hereunto annexed. And we, the said Archbishop, being, on full consideration and enquiry, satisfied with the said scheme, do hereby, pursuant to the said Act of the first and second years of your Majesty's reign, certify the same and such consents as aforesaid, to the intent that your Majesty in Council may, in case your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do, make and issue an Order for carrying the said scheme into effect. As witness our hand this twenty-fourth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

"A. C. Cantuar."

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said scheme be carried into effect.
