AT the Court at Balmoral, the 30th day of August, 1873.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the thirty-sixth and thirty-seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the law relating to the appointment of Revising Barristers and the holding of Revision Courts," it is enacted, that :

Her Majesty, by Order in Council, may vary from time to time, either by way of increase or decrease, the number of Revising Barristers to be appointed for any counties, cities, boroughs, or places, in pursuance of section twenty-eight of the Parliamentary Electors Registration Act, 1843; and the number fixed by such Order shall be substituted for the number fixed by the said section, or by any previous Order in Council made under this or any other Act.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Merchant Shipping (Colonial) Act, 1869," it is (among other things) enacted, that where the legislature of any British provision provides for the examination of and grant of certificates of competency to persons intending to act as masters, mates, or engineers on board British ships, and the Board of Trade reports to Her Majesty that they are satisfied that the examinations are so conducted, as to be equally efficient as the examinations for the same purpose in the United Kingdom under the Acts relating to Merchant Shipping, and that the certificates are granted on such principles as to show the like qualifications and competency as those granted under the said Acts, and are liable to be forfeited for the like reasons, and in the like manner it shall be lawful for Her Majesty by Order in Council—

1. To declare that the said certificates shall be of the same force as if they had been granted under the said Acts :
2. To declare that all or any of the provisions of the said Acts which relate to certificates of competency granted under those Acts, shall apply to the certificates referred to in the said Order :
3. To impose such conditions, and to make such regulations with respect to the said certificates, and to the use, issue, delivery, cancellation, and suspension thereof, as to Her Majesty may seem fit, and to impose penalties not exceeding fifty pounds for the breach of such conditions and regulations.

And that upon the publication in the London Gazette of any such Order in Council as last aforesaid, the provisions therein contained shall, from a date to be mentioned for the purpose in such Order, take effect as if they had been contained in the Act; and that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to revoke any order made under this section.

And whereas the Legislature of the British Possession of New South Wales has provided for the examination of, and grant of certificates of competency for foreign-going ships, to persons intending to act as masters, first mates, or second mates, or as first-class engineers, or second-class engineers, on board British ships, which certificates are hereinafter denominated Colonial Certificates of Competency, and the Board of Trade have reported to Her Majesty that they are satisfied that the said examinations are so conducted as to be equally efficient as the examinations for the same purpose in the United Kingdom, under the Acts relating to Merchant Shipping, and that the certificates are granted on such principles as to show the like qualifications and competency as those granted under the said Acts, and are liable to be forfeited for the like reasons and in the like manner.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the power vested in Her by the said recited Act, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased—

- (1.) To declare that the said colonial certificates of competency granted by the Marine Board of the said possession of New South Wales shall be of the same force as if they had been granted under the said Acts.
- (2.) To declare that all the provisions of the said Acts which relate to certificates of competency for the foreign trade granted under those Acts, except so much of the one hundred and thirty-ninth section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," and the tenth section of "The Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862," as requires the delivery by the Board of Trade to any master, mate, or engineer, or a copy of any certificate to which he appears to be entitled as therein mentioned; so much of the third paragraph of the twenty-third section of the said last-mentioned Act, as requires at the conclusion of a case relating to the cancelling or suspending of a certificate, such certificate, if cancelled or suspended, to be forwarded to the Board of Trade, and the whole of the provisions of the fourth paragraph of the same section shall apply to such colonial certificates of competency.
- (3.) To impose and make the conditions and regulations following, numbered 1 to 10 respectively, with respect to the said Colonial certificates of competency, and to the use, issue, delivery, cancellation, and suspension thereof, and to impose for the breach of such conditions and regulations, the penalties therein mentioned.

Certificates not to be granted when former are cancelled.

6. Such Colonial Certificates of Competency shall not be granted to any person who may have had a certificate, whether granted by the Board of Trade or by the Government of a British possession, cancelled or suspended under the provisions of the said Acts, or of any Act for the time being in force, in any part of Her Majesty's dominions, unless the period of suspension has expired, or unless intimation has been received from the Board of Trade, or the Government by whom the cancelled or suspended certificate was originally granted, to the effect that no objection to the grant of such Colonial Certificate is known to exist, or unless a new certificate has been granted to him by such Board or Government, and in the last-named event no such Colonial Certificate of Competency shall be for a higher grade than the certificate so last granted as aforesaid. Colonial Certificates of Competency granted contrary to this regulation shall be regarded as improperly granted.

Certificates improperly granted, may be cancelled without formal investigation.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventeenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish or parochial chapelry of Burton-upon-Trent, out of the district parish of the Holy Trinity, Burton-upon-Trent, and out of the new parish of Christ Church, Burton-upon-Trent, all in the county of Stafford, and in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said parish or parochial chapelry of Burton-upon-Trent, of the said district parish of the Holy Trinity, Burton-upon-Trent, and of the said new parish of Christ Church, Burton-upon-Trent, which said portions are hereinafter mentioned and described (such portions not at present containing within their limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship), should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas Michael Thomas Bass, of Rangemore House, Burton-upon-Trent, Esquire, has transferred into our name in the books of the Midland Railway Company a sum of three thousand pounds four pounds per centum debenture stock of such Company, to be held in trust by us as and for a permanent endowment of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and for the maintenance of the minister thereof for the time being, upon the understanding that the amount of the annual interest and dividends to accrue due on account of the said sum of stock shall be receivable by the said incumbent for the time being when duly licensed, in accordance with the provisions of the herein secondly-mentioned Act, and upon the understanding that we should also make and pay out of the common fund created by the firstly herein named Act to the minister for the time being of the said district, when duly licensed as before mentioned, a grant of fifty pounds per annum, and upon the further understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said district, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, should be assigned in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas we have undertaken and agreed to make the said grant of fifty pounds per annum as aforesaid, by an instrument, to be executed by us under our common seal, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend George Augustus, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said parish or parochial chapelry of Burton-upon-Trent, of the said district parish of the Holy Trinity, Burton-upon-Trent, and of the said new parish of Christ Church, Burton-upon-Trent, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Paul, Burton-upon-Trent.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to, and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Michael Thomas Bass, and by his heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"All those several contiguous portions of the parish or parochial chapelry of Burton-upon-Trent, of the district parish of the Holy Trinity, Burton-upon-Trent, and of the new parish of Christ Church, Burton-upon-Trent, all in the county of Stafford, and in the diocese of Lichfield, which said portions of such cures are comprised within, and are bounded by, an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish or parochial chapelry of Burton-upon-Trent from the new parish of Christ Church, Burton-upon-Trent aforesaid, at a point near the south-western end of the Burton-upon-Trent Railway Station, in the middle of the line of the West Branch of the Midland Railway, at the point where Borough-road crosses the said line of railway; and extending thence, south-westward, along the middle of the same line of railway for a distance of eighteen chains, or thereabouts, to the point where it crosses Shobnall-road; and extending thence, north-westward, for a distance of thirty-eight chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named road, to the centre of the bridge which carries such road over the Grand Trunk Canal, otherwise called or known as the Trent and Mersey Canal; and extending thence, north-eastward, for a distance of eleven and a half chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said canal, to the point where the boundary which divides the said new parish of Christ Church, Burton-upon-Trent from the district parish of the Holy Trinity, Burton-upon-Trent aforesaid, meets the boundary which divides the last-named district parish from the new parish of Saint John, Horninglow, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and continuing thence, still north-eastward, along the last-described boundary (thereby following the middle of the same canal), to the centre of the bridge which carries Dallow-lane over the same canal; and extending thence, south-eastward, along the said last-described boundary (thereby following the middle of the said Dallow-lane and of Victoria-road, and crossing Derby-street), to a point in the middle of the line of the West Branch of the Midland Railway aforesaid; and extending thence, south-westward, from the said last-described boundary, along the middle of the said line of railway, for a distance of thirty-one chains, or thereabouts (thereby crossing the boundary which divides the said district parish of the Holy Trinity, Burton-upon-Trent, from the parish or parochial chapelry of Burton-upon-Trent aforesaid, and passing through the Burton-upon-Trent Railway Station aforesaid), to the first-described point, near the south-western end of the same railway station, upon the boundary which divides the said parish or parochial chapelry of Burton-upon-Trent from the new parish of Christ Church, Burton-upon-Trent, as aforesaid, at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly-mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the cures out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and such patrons and incumbents have respectively signified their assent to the said scheme:

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lichfield.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 30th day of August, 1873.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of your Majesty, chapter eighty-two; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Mary, situate at Towyn, in the parish of Abergele, in the county of Denbigh, and in the diocese of Saint Asaph.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Abergele, and of the parish of Kegidog, otherwise Saint George, in the said county of Denbigh, and in the said diocese of Saint Asaph, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Abergele, and of the said parish of Kegidog, otherwise Saint George, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Mary, situate at Towyn as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Joshua, Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Asaph, as such Bishop, and also as the patron in right of his see of the vicarage of the said parish of Abergele, and with the consent of Hugh Robert Hughes, of Kimmel Park, near Kegidog, otherwise Saint George aforesaid, Esquire, the patron of the rectory of the said parish of Kegidog, otherwise Saint George (in testimony whereof they, the said consenting parties, have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Abergele, and of the said parish of Kegidog, otherwise Saint George, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Mary, situate at Towyn as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Mary, Towyn.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Mary, Towyn, being:—

"All that portion of the parish of Abergele, in the county of Denbigh, and in the diocese of Saint Asaph, and also all that contiguous portion of the parish of Kegidog, otherwise Saint George, in the same county and diocese, which said portions of such parishes taken together are bounded on the north-west by the Irish Sea, on the east by the boundary dividing the said county of Denbigh from the county of Flint, or, in other words, on the east partly by the new parish of Rhyl, partly by the parish of Rhyddlan, and partly by the new parish of Bodelwyddan, all in the said county of Flint, and in the diocese of Saint Asaph aforesaid, and upon all other sides, that is to say, upon the south, and on the west, by an imaginary line, commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Abergele, from the new parish of Bodelwyddan aforesaid, at a point in the middle of the road leading from Rhyddlan to Abergele, a little to the west of its junction with the road leading to Plas Lloyd; and extending thence, generally westward, for a distance of one hundred and forty chains or thereabouts, along the middle of the first-described road (thereby crossing and re-crossing the boundary which divides the said parish of Abergele, from the parish of Kegidog, otherwise Saint George aforesaid), to the junction of the said last-described road, with the occupation road leading to the close numbered 402 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Abergele, and upon the map hereunto annexed; and extending thence, north-eastward, along the middle of the said occupation road to its north-eastern end at the south-western angle of the close numbered 402 as aforesaid; and extending thence, first north-eastward, and then generally north-westward, to and along the line of fences or water courses which divide the said close numbered 402, and the closes numbered respectively 398 and 397 upon the maps aforesaid, on the one side from the closes numbered respectively 392, 393, and 396 upon the same maps, on the other side to the Abergele River; and extending thence, first northward to, and then westward for, a distance of three chains or thereabouts, along the middle of the said river, to a point opposite to the southern end of the line of fences or water courses which divides the closes numbered respectively 242, 243, 246, and 273 upon the said maps on the one side from the closes numbered respectively 244, 245, and 274, upon the same maps on the other side; and extending thence, generally north-westward, to and along the said line of fences or water courses, to the south-western end of the occupation road, leading from the close numbered 274 as aforesaid, into the road which leads from Pensarn to Rhyl; and extending thence, first northward, to a point in the middle of the last-described occupation road, and then eastward and northward along the middle of the same occupation road, to its junction near Ty-Gwyn, with the road leading from Pensarn to Rhyl as aforesaid, and with the road which leads direct to the seashore; and continuing thence, still northward, along the middle of the last-described road (thereby passing to the west of Ty-Gwyn aforesaid), to the northern end of the same road on the seashore, and continuing thence, in the same direction, and in a straight line to the sea, which here forms the north-western boundary of the parish of Abergele as aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of St. Asaph.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme or representation, bearing date the thirty-first day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting under the provisions of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Saint Luke, Cheetham Hill, and of the new parish of Saint Thomas, Lower Crumpsall, both which new parishes are situate within the original limits of the parish of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas by the authority of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, and published in the London Gazette upon the first day of July in the same year, a separate district was set out and constituted for and annexed to the church of Saint Luke, situate at Cheetham Hill, within the original limits of the said parish of Manchester, and such separate district was named 'The District of Saint Luke, Cheetham Hill.'

"And whereas by the authority of another Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the tenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and published in the London Gazette upon the fourteenth day of the same month, a separate district was set out and constituted for and annexed to the church of Saint Thomas, situate at Lower Crumpsall, within the original limits of the said parish of Manchester, and such separate district was named 'The District of Saint Thomas, Lower Crumpsall.'

"And whereas both the said district of Saint Luke, Cheetham Hill, and the said district of Saint Thomas, Lower Crumpsall, have become new parishes of the character contemplated by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, by the Act of the nineteenth and twenty years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, and by the said above-mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas it has been represented to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint Luke, Cheetham Hill, should be altered so as to dis sever therefrom a certain part; and that the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint Thomas, Lower Crumpsall, should be altered by way of extension, so that they shall include the above-mentioned part to be dis severed from the new parish of Saint Luke, Cheetham Hill, as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, recommend, and propose, that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation, and without any assurance in the law other than such gazetted Order, all that part of the said new parish of Saint Luke, Cheetham Hill, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto appended, and is thereon coloured pink, shall be dis severed from such new parish, and shall be annexed to, and shall form part of, and shall become and be, and be deemed to be, within the limits of the said new parish of Saint Thomas, Lower Crumpsall.

"And we further represent, recommend, and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing, recommending, and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts, or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference.

"The territory proposed to be dis severed from the new parish of Saint Luke, Cheetham Hill, within the original limits of the parish of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, and to be annexed to the new parish of Saint Thomas, Lower Crumpsall, also within the original limits of the said parish of Manchester, being:—

"All that part of the said new parish of Saint Luke, Cheetham Hill, which is bounded on the north-east partly by the new parish of Saint Mark, Cheetham Hill (also within the original limits of the said parish of Manchester), and partly by the new parish of Saint Thomas, Lower Crumpsall aforesaid, on the east by the last-named new parish; and on the remaining sides, that is to say, on the south-east and on the south-west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Thomas, Lower Crumpsall, from the new parish of Saint Luke, Cheetham Hill aforesaid, at a point opposite to the entrance-gate to Smedley Old Hall, where Smedley-lane is joined by Hazelbottom-road; and extending thence south-westward for a distance of four and a half chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said lane to its junction with Woodlands-road; and extending thence north-westward for a distance of twenty-four chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named road, to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Luke, Cheetham Hill, from the new parish of Saint Mark, Cheetham Hill aforesaid."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme or representation have been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the two cures affected by the arrangements which are contemplated by such scheme or representation, and such patrons and incumbents have respectively signified their assent to the said scheme or representation.

And whereas the said scheme or representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme or representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-four; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirty-first day of July; in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parochial chapelry of Tanfield, out of the district parish of Collierley, and out of the parish of Lanchester, all in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said parochial chapelry of Tanfield, of the said district parish of Collierley, and of the said parish of Lanchester, which are hereinafter mentioned and described (such portions not at present containing within their limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship), should be constituted a separate district in the manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas certain hereditaments and premises situate within the limits of some or one of the cures aforesaid have become vested in us under the provisions of, and for the purposes of the herein-mentioned Acts, or of some of them, and we have in respect of such hereditaments and premises agreed to make and pay out of the common fund created by the firstly herein-mentioned Act to the minister of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted when he shall have been duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the secondly herein-mentioned Act, and to his successors; a grant of two hundred pounds per annum; and also so soon as a church shall have been erected within and for such district, and shall have been approved by us, and shall have been consecrated as the church of such district, and such district shall have thereupon become a new parish within the meaning of the secondly herein-mentioned Act, to make and pay such further grant from the said fund as will suffice to raise the income of the incumbent of such new parish to three hundred pounds per annum.

"And whereas such grants as aforesaid will be made by an instrument or instruments to be executed by us under our common seal in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said parochial chapelry of Tanfield, of the said district parish of Collierley, and of the said parish of Lanchester, which are mentioned and described in the schedule hereunder written, and which are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Beamish.'

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"All those several contiguous portions of the parochial chapelry of Tanfield, of the district parish of Collierley, and of the parish of Lanchester, all in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham, which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said district parish of Collierley from the new parish of Holmside, in the said county and diocese, meets the boundary dividing the last-named cure from the parochial chapelry of Tanfield aforesaid, such point being at the junction of Shieldrow-lane with Southmoor-lane, and extending thence first generally southward and then generally eastward along the last-described boundary to its junction, at the eastern end of Stanley Wood with the boundary which divides the said parochial chapelry of Tanfield from the new parish of Pelton, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and extending thence generally northward along the last-described boundary to a point near Mutton House in the middle of the stream called or known as Beamish Burn, and extending thence from the same boundary first north-westward, then south-westward, and then again north-westward along the middle of the said stream for a distance of nearly one mile (thereby passing through Beamish Park) to the centre of Beamishburn Bridge which carries the road leading from Surniside to Shieldrow over the same stream, and extending thence south-westward for a distance of half a mile or thereabouts along the middle of the last-described road to its junction at Kip Hill with the road which leads from Shield-row aforesaid to Tanfield, and extending thence north-westward for a distance of rather more than half a mile along the middle of the last-described road to the centre of the bridge which carries the same road over the stream called or known as Houghwell Burn, and extending thence generally south-westward for a distance of nearly two miles along the middle of the last-named stream, and along the middle of the stream called or known as Kyo Burn (thereby following in part the boundary which divides the said parochial chapelry of Tanfield from the district parish of Collierley aforesaid) to the centre of Harperley Bridge which carries Kyo-lane over the last-named stream, such bridge being at or near to the point where the same stream is joined by the watercourse flowing from the western side of South Tanfield Colliery, and extending thence, i. e. from the last-named bridge generally southward for a distance of rather more than half a mile along the middle of the said watercourse (thereby passing to the west of the houses called or known as Kyo) to a point in the middle of the line of the Pontop and South Shields Branch of the North-Eastern Railway, and extending thence south-westward for a distance of twenty-four chains or thereabouts along the middle of the said branch line of railway to the point where it crosses the foot-path leading from West Kyo past the house called or known as Kyo Laws into Shieldrow-lane aforesaid, and extending thence south-eastward for a distance of thirty-one chains or thereabouts along the middle of the last-described footpath to the boundary at the junction of the same footpath and Shieldrow-lane aforesaid, which boundary divides the said district parish of Collierley from the new parish of Holmside as aforesaid, and extending thence north-eastward for a distance of three quarters of a mile or thereabouts along the last-described boundary (thereby following the course of the last-named lane) to the first-described point at the junction of the said Shieldrow-lane with Southmoor-lane aforesaid, where the said last-described boundary meets the boundary dividing the said new parish of Holmside from the parochial chapelry of Tanfield aforesaid, at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the herein-before secondly-mentioned Act been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the cures out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and such patrons and incumbents have respectively signified their assent to the said scheme:

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial ground or places of burial should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require), that after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish:

Board of Trade (Harbour Department), Whitehall Gardens, S. W., September 2, 1873.

THE Board of Trade have received through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs Despatches from Her Majesty's Minister at Copenhagen, announcing the settlement of the question which had arisen between Sweden and Denmark with regard to the rights of Pilotage in the Sound, and forwarding a copy of the Declaration lately signed by Sweden and Denmark for the purpose of Pilotage regulation.

A translation of the Declaration is subjoined:—

NOTICE respecting a Declaration between Denmark and Sweden with regard to Pilotage in the Sound.

On the 14th of August of this year, the following Declaration was drawn up in the Ministry for Foreign Affairs.

In order to determine more precisely the rights of Danish and Swedish subjects with regard to pilotage in the Sound, His Majesty the King of Denmark, and His Majesty the King of Sweden, have authorised the undersigned to agree to the following Declaration :—

ART. 1. In those parts of the Sound which are bounded on the one side by Danish, on the other side by Swedish land, the right of pilotage belongs equally to both nations in accordance with the rules specified below, and each nation shall make the arrangements which may concern itself.

Where both coasts belong to the same country, the right of pilotage belongs exclusively to such country, and is subject to the regulations laid down by its authorities.

Each State reserves to itself the right of pilotage into and out of its own harbours.

The regulations laid down by either of the two Governments respecting the system of pilotage in the Sound, must not, in any respect, be at variance with the rules contained in the Treaty of March 14, 1857.

The pilots of both countries shall, in every case, enjoy in the above-mentioned waters the same rights as those of the most favoured nation.

ART. 2. With respect to the foregoing regulations the Drogden is considered as an exclusively Danish water. It is bounded on the north by a line drawn from the middle of the Charlottenlund, through the Stubbe buoy and the northern buoy of the middle ground, to the broom to the north of Saltholm's most northern point; and on the south by a line from the most southern broom off Armage, through the Drogden fireship, to the most southern point of Saltholm.

Swedish pilots shall, however, be permitted to pilot vessels north of Saltholm into the outer roadstead of Copenhagen, which is bounded on the north by the northern boundary of the Drogden, on the east by the middle ground, on the south by a line from St. John's Church, across the middle of the Island of Refshale, and on the west by a line from the east side of Frekroner to the south-east beacon off Stubbe, and from there to the Stubbe buoy. So also shall Swedish pilots who, in accordance with the above, have taken a ship into the Copenhagen outer roadstead, be permitted, if the Captain of the vessel should wish it, and the ship should not enter the inner roadstead, to remain on board the ship, and pilot it out again north of Saltholm. On the other hand, Swedish pilots in the outer roadstead are not allowed to take the pilotage of any ship other than the one in which they arrived in the manner above-mentioned, nor may Swedish pilot-boats lie off in the outer roadstead under the pretence of taking off Swedish pilots who may have arrived.

ART. 3. The two Governments engage to assist each other with all the means at their disposal to maintain the foregoing regulations.

ART. 4. As this agreement refers exclusively to the right of pilotage in the Sound, and therefore does not in any respect restrict the jurisdiction which, according to the principles of International Law, appertains to each of the two States in their maritime territories as far as they may extend, the Danish Government especially reserves to itself the right of excluding Swedish pilots from the Copenhagen outer roadstead, if such should be considered necessary in consequence of warlike eventualities.

ART. 5. The above regulations shall come into force from and on the 21st instant.

In confirmation whereof, the undersigned have signed this Declaration in duplicate, and affixed to it their seals, which was done in Copenhagen, the 14th of August, 1873.
