quarantine officers have been recently ordered to resume the execution of the old regulations, and to detain all vessels from England without clean bills of health certified by the proper French Consular authority.

(M. 14092.)

Marine Department, Board of Trade, Whitehall Gardens, September 30, 1873.

THE Board of Trade have received through the Foreign Office a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul-General at Tunis, forwarding a copy of some additional regulations issued by the Sanitary Board at that port, of which the following is a translation :—

I.

Every vessel coming from an infected port will be subjected to a rigorous quarantine in the Lazaret of Porto-Farina. This quarantine will last fifteen full days for every vessel having no medical officer on board, and only twelve full days for vessels having a medical officer on board.

II.

Vessels arriving with a clean bill of health from a healthy port which has not taken any precaution against infected countries, will be subjected to a quarantine of observation of ten full days.

III.

Vessels arriving with a clean bill of health from a healthy port of the continent which has taken precautions against countries infected, but only from the seaside, will be subjected to a quarantine of observation of five full days.

IV.

Arrivals from islands which have taken precautions against countries infected, but not against the ports of the continent comprised in paragraph 3, will be subjected to three full days of observation.

V.

The quarantines of observation may be undergone everywhere where a sanitary agency exists.

VI.

Vessels of war coming from a port subjected to observation are admitted to free pratique.

VII.

Vessels arriving in ballast, or which do not want to unload, may load or complete their cargo in quarantine—

1st. At Porto Farina, La Goulette, Souse, and Sfax, if the vessel arrive from an infected port.

2nd. Everywhere where a sanitary agency exists, if the vessel arrives from a port subjected to observation.

Tunis, 1st September, 1873.

The Secretary of the Council,
ADM. DEVAUX.
