To the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the town of Brighton, in the county of Sussex;—
And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS by "The Brighton Borough Extension Act, 1873," it is enacted that on and from the 1st day of November, 1873, the borough of Brighton, as thereby extended, shall be divided into seven wards, the names and boundaries of which shall be fixed and determined by the Local Government Board, upon the report of a Commissioner to be for that purpose appointed by them within two weeks after the passing of that Act, and that the Commissioner shall make his report to the Local Government Board before the 1st day of September, 1873, and that such report shall be subject to revision by the Local Government Board, who shall make such Order therein as they think fit;

And whereas it is thereby further enacted that the said Order shall be published before the end of September in the London Gazette, and in a newspaper circulating in the town of Brighton, and that after such publication the names and boundaries of the wards, as set forth in such Order, shall be the names and boundaries thereof for all purposes as if they had been specially set forth in that Act;

And whereas the said Act received the Royal assent on the 7th day of July, 1873; and on the 19th day of July, 1873, the Local Government Board appointed Ponsonby Cox, of Sloane-street, in the county of Middlesex, Major in the Royal Engineers, to be the Commissioner for the purpose above-mentioned; and the said Commissioner made his report to the Local Government Board before the 1st day of September, 1873, namely, on the 21st day of August, 1873:

Now, therefore, we, the Local Government Board, having duly considered the report so made to us, do hereby, under the authority of the above-mentioned Act, and of the several other Statutes in that behalf, order that the seven wards into which the borough of Brighton, as extended by the said Act, is to be divided on and from the 1st day of November, 1873, shall be named respectively the Pavilion Ward, the Pier Ward, the Park Ward, the Saint Peter's Ward, the Saint Nicholas Ward, the West Ward, and the Preston Ward, and that the boundaries of the said Wards respectively shall be those set forth in the schedule to this Order.
