WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for Amending the Law relating to the Extradition of Criminals," it was, amongst other things, enacted, that where an arrangement has been made with any foreign State with respect to the surrender to such State of any fugitive criminals, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, direct that the said Act shall apply in the case of such foreign State; and that Her Majesty may, by the same or any subsequent Order, limit the operation of the Order, and restrict the same to fugitive criminals who are in or suspected of being in the part of Her Majesty's dominions specified in the Order, and render the operation thereof subject to such conditions, exceptions, and qualifications as may be deemed expedient:

And whereas a Treaty was concluded on the twenty-sixth day of June last between Her Majesty and the King of Sweden and Norway for the mutual extradition of fugitive criminals, which Treaty is in the terms following:—

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and His Majesty the King of Sweden and Norway, having judged it expedient, with a view to the better administration of justice, and to the more complete prevention of crime within the respective countries, that persons charged with or convicted of the crimes hereinafter enumerated, and being fugitives from justice, should, under certain circumstances, be reciprocally delivered up; their said Majesties have named as their Plenipotentiaries to conclude a Treaty for this purpose; that is to say:—

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the Honourable Edward Morris Erskine, a Companion of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Her Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to His Majesty the King of Sweden and Norway;

And His Majesty the King of Sweden and Norway, Henrick Wilhelm Bredberg, Grand Cross of the Order of the Polar Star, His Majesty's Councillor of State and Acting Minister for Foreign Affairs;

Who, after having communicated to each other their respective full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed upon and concluded the following Articles:—

ARTICLE I.

The High Contracting Parties engage to deliver up to each other those persons who, being accused or convicted of a crime committed in the territory of the one Party, shall be found within the territory of the other Party, under the circumstances and conditions stated in the present Treaty.

ARTICLE II.

The crimes for which the extradition is to be granted are the following:—

2. Manslaughter.
3. Counterfeiting or altering money, uttering or bringing into circulation knowingly counterfeit or altered money.

7. Crimes by bankrupts against bankruptcy law.
8. Fraud by a bailee, banker, agent, factor, trustee, or director, or member or public officer of any company, made criminal by any law for the time being in force.
9. Rape.
10. Abduction.
11. Child stealing.
12. Burglary or housebreaking.

18. Revolt, or conspiracy to revolt, by two or more persons on board a ship on the high seas against the authority of the master; except, as regards Norway, conspiracy to revolt.

The extradition is also to take place for participation in any of the aforesaid crimes, provided such participation be punishable by the laws of both the Contracting Parties.

ARTICLE III.

No Swedish or Norwegian subject shall be delivered up to the Government of the United Kingdom; and no subject of the United Kingdom shall be delivered up to the Swedish or Norwegian Government.

ARTICLE IV.

The extradition shall not take place if the person claimed has already been tried and discharged or punished, or is still under trial in the country where he has taken refuge, for the crime for which his extradition is demanded.

If the person claimed should be under examination for any other crime in the country where he has taken refuge, his extradition shall be deferred until the conclusion of the trial, and the full execution of any punishment awarded to him.

ARTICLE V.

The extradition shall not take place if, subsequently to the commission of the crime, or the institution of the penal prosecution, or the conviction thereon, exemption from prosecution or punishment has been acquired by lapse of time, according to the laws of the country where the criminal has taken refuge.

ARTICLE VI.

A fugitive criminal shall not be surrendered if the offence in respect of which his surrender is demanded, is one of a political character, or if he prove that the requisition for his surrender has in fact been made with a view to try or punish him for an offence of a political character.

ARTICLE VII.

A person surrendered by either of the High Contracting Parties to the other, cannot, until he has been restored or had an opportunity of returning to the country from whence he was surrendered, be triable or tried for any crime committed in the other country other than that on account of which the extradition shall have taken place.

This stipulation does not apply to crimes committed after the extradition.

ARTICLE VIII.

The requisitions for extradition shall be made through the Diplomatic Agents of the High Contracting Parties respectively.

The requisition for the extradition of an accused person must be accompanied by a warrant of arrest issued by the competent authority of the State requiring the extradition, and by such evidence as, according to the laws of the place where the accused is found, would justify his arrest if the crime had been committed there.

If the requisition relates to a person already convicted, it must be accompanied by the sentence of condemnation passed against the convicted person by the competent Court of the State that makes the requisition for extradition.

The requisition ought, as far as possible, to be accompanied by a description of the person accused or convicted, in order to identify him.

A requisition for extradition cannot be founded on sentences passed in contumaciam.

ARTICLE IX.

If the requisition for extradition be in accordance with the foregoing stipulations, the compete. authorities of the State applied to shall proceed to the arrest of the fugitive.

The prisoner is then to be brought before a competent Magistrate, who is to examine him and to conduct the preliminary investigation of the case, just as if the apprehension had taken place for a crime committed in the same country.

The extradition shall not take place before the expiration of fifteen days from the apprehension, and then only if the evidence be found sufficient, according to the laws of the State applied to, either to justify the committal of the prisoner for trial, or to prove that the prisoner is the identical person convicted by the Courts of the State which makes the requisition.

ARTICLE X.

In the examinations which they have to make, in accordance with the foregoing stipulations, the authorities of the State applied to shall admit as entirely valid evidence the sworn depositions or statements of witnesses taken in the other State, or copies thereof, and likewise the warrants and sentences issued therein, provided such documents are signed or certified by a Judge, Magistrate, or Officer of such State, and are authenticated by the oath of some witness, or by being sealed with the official seal of the Minister of Justice, or some other Minister of State.

ARTICLE XI.

If sufficient evidence for the extradition be not produced within two months from the date of the apprehension of the fugitive, he shall be set at liberty.

ARTICLE XII.

All articles seized, which were in the possession of the person to be surrendered at the time of his apprehension shall, if the competent authority of the State applied to for the extradition has ordered the delivery thereof, be given up when the extradition takes place; and the said delivery shall extend not merely to the stolen articles, but to everything that may serve as a proof of the crime.

ARTICLE XIII.

Each of the High Contracting Parties shall defray and bear expenses incurred by it in the arrest, maintenance, and conveyance of the individual to be surrendered till placed on board ship, as well as in keeping and conveying the articles which are to be delivered up in conformity with the stipulations of the preceding Article.

The individual to be surrendered shall be conveyed to the port specified by the applying Government, at whose expense he shall be taken on board the ship to convey him away.

If it be necessary to convey the individual claimed through the territories of another State, the expenses incurred thereby shall be defrayed by the applying State.

ARTICLE XIV.

The stipulations of the present Treaty shall be applicable to the Colonies and foreign possessions of the two High Contracting Parties.

The requisition for the surrender of a fugitive criminal who has taken refuge in a Colony or Foreign Possession of either Party, shall be made to the Governor or Chief Authority of such Colony or Possession by the Chief Consular Officer of the other in such Colony or Possession; or, if the fugitive has escaped from a Colony or Foreign Possession of the Party on whose behalf the requisition is made, by the Governor or Chief Authority of such Colony or Possession.

Such requisitions may be disposed of, subject always, as nearly as may be, to the provisions of this Treaty, by the respective Governors or Chief Authorities, who, however, shall be at liberty either to grant the surrender, or to refer the matter to their Government.

Her Britannic Majesty shall, however, be at liberty to make special arrangements in the British Colonies and Foreign Possessions for the surrender of Swedish and Norwegian criminals who may there take refuge, on the basis, as nearly as may be, of the provisions of the present Treaty.

ARTICLE XV.

The present Treaty shall come into force ten days after its publication, in conformity with the forms prescribed by the laws of the High Contracting Parties. It may be terminated by either of the High Contracting Parties, but shall remain in force for six months after notice has been given for its termination.

ARTICLE XVI.

The present Treaty shall be ratified, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at Stockholm, as as soon as may be possible.

In witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the same, and have affixed thereto their seals.

Done at Stockholm, the twenty-sixth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

And whereas the ratifications of the said Treaty were exchanged at Stockholm on the twenty-eighth ultimo.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and in virtue of the authority committed to Her by the said recited Act, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the seventeenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, the said Act shall apply in the case of the said Treaty with the King of Sweden and Norway.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 30th day of September, 1873.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862," it is enacted, that whenever it is made to appear to Her Majesty that the rules concerning the measurement of tonnage of merchant ships, for the time being in force under the principal Act, have been adopted by the Government of any foreign country and are in force in that country, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Order in Council, to direct that the ships of such foreign country shall be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in their certificate of registry or other national papers, and thereupon it shall no longer be necessary for such ships to be re-measured in any port or place in Her Majesty's dominions, but such ships shall be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in their certificate of registry or other papers, in the same manner, to the same extent, and for the same purposes in, to, and for which the tonnage denoted in the certificate of registry of British ships is to be deemed the tonnage of such ships:

And whereas it has been made to appear Her Majesty that the rules concerning the measurement of tonnage of merchant ships now in force under "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," have been adopted by the Government of His Majesty the King of Italy, and such rules are now in force in that country, having come into operation on the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

Her Majesty is hereby pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to direct as follows:—

1. As regards sailing ships—That merchant sailing ships of the said Kingdom of Italy, the measurement whereof, after the said first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, has been ascertained and denoted in the registers and other national papers of such sailing ships, testified by the date thereof, shall be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in such registers and other national papers, in the same manner, and to the same extent, and for the same purpose, in, to, and for which the tonnage denoted in the certificate of registry of British sailing ships is deemed to be the tonnage of such ships.

2. As regards steam ships—That merchant ships belonging to the said Kingdom of Italy which are propelled by steam or any other power requiring engine-room, the measurement whereof shall, after the said first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, have been ascertained and denoted in the registers and other national papers of such steam ships, testified by the dates thereof, shall be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in such registers or other national papers, in the same manner, and to the same extent, and for the same purposes, in, to, and for which the tonnage denoted in the certificate of registry of British ships is deemed to be the tonnage of such ships; provided, nevertheless, that if the owner or master of any such Italian steam ship desires the deduction for engine-room in his ships to be estimated under the rules for engine-room measurement and deduction applicable to British ships, instead of under the Italian rule, the engine-room shall be measured, and the deduction calculated according to the British rules.

And whereas it is expedient, that from the time of the erection of the said steam fog whistle the due now leviable in respect of the Cape Race Lighthouse under the Order in Council of the sixteenth of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, should cease, and that one due at the rate of one-twelfth of a penny a ton should be levied in respect of both the said lighthouse upon Cape Race and the said steam fog whistle:

But no such dues as aforesaid shall be levied in any Colony unless and until the Legislative Authority in such Colony has, either by address to the Crown, or by an Act or Ordinance duly passed, signified its opinion that the same ought to be levied in such Colony.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 30th day of September, 1873.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Henry Frederick Gibbons, Esq., Barrister-at-Law, duly appointed in pursuance of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1859, and the Municipal Corporations Act, 1859, Amendment Act, for the purpose of determining the boundaries of the Wards of the borough of Grimsby, and of apportioning the Councillors thereto, transmitted to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State his determination and apportionment, in the following terms :—

"Whereas, by an Act passed in the twenty-second year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled

'An Act to amend the Law relating to Municipal Elections,' it was enacted (among other things) that if two-thirds in number of the Council of any borough should agree to petition, and the Council should thereupon petition, Her Majesty for the division of such borough into wards, it should be lawful for Her Majesty, if She should think fit, by advice of Her Privy Council, to fix the number of wards into which such borough should be divided: Provided, nevertheless, that notice of such petition, and of the time when it should please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by Her Privy Council, should be published in the London Gazette one month at least before such petition should be so considered. And whereas, after the passing of the said Act, two-thirds in number of the Council of the borough of Grimsby, in the county of Lincoln, agreed to petition, and did, on the thirty-first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, petition Her Majesty for division of the said borough into wards, pursuant to the said Act, and that Her Majesty, by advice of Her Privy Council, would fix the number of wards into which the said borough should be divided, and authorize and direct all necessary proceedings to be taken for effecting that object.

"And whereas Her Majesty was thereupon graciously pleased to order that the said petition should be taken into consideration by Her Privy Council on the eleventh day of September, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

"And whereas notice of the said petition and of the time when it so pleased Her Majesty to order that the same should be taken into consideration, was published in the London Gazette of the ninth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, being one month at least before such petition was so taken into consideration. And whereas Her Majesty, in pursuance and exercise of the power in Her Majesty by the said Act in that behalf vested, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, was, on the fifteenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, pleased to fix the number of wards into which the said borough should be divided, and to order and direct that such borough should be divided into four wards. And whereas by the said Act it was further enacted, that the copy of the particulars of such division should be transmitted to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and, if Her Majesty, by advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council, should approve, such determination should be published in the London Gazette, and another copy of such particulars should be delivered to the Town Clerk of the said borough, to be by him safely kept among the public documents of such borough, and the said borough should, after such publication as aforesaid, be deemed to be divided into such wards as should be so determined and set out as aforesaid, and such division should continue and be in force until the same should be altered by authority of Parliament: Provided always, that if Her Majesty, by advice of Her Privy Council, should not approve such determination, such publication as aforesaid should nevertheless be made, and such division be in force for the purpose of any election under the provisions of the said Act, and until such time as Her Majesty should, by advice of Her Privy Council, upon further information and report from such Barrister, definitely approve the division of such borough into wards in manner hereinbefore mentioned.

"And whereas it was further enacted, on the division of the borough into wards the said Barrister should apportion all the Councillors for such borough amongst the wards into which it should have been so divided.

"And whereas, by an Act passed in the thirty-second year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled 'An Act to confer powers upon the Corporation of Grimsby, as to the West Marshes, and the construction of a bridge over the Old Dock and of other works at Grimsby, and for other purposes,' it was enacted (among other things), that if upon the petition of the Council of the borough under the powers of 'The Municipal Corporation Act, 1859,' the borough should be thereafter divided into wards, each of the wards should return and have six Councillors and two Assessors, and two Aldermen should be elected in respect of each such ward, and that the Barrister who should determine the boundaries of such wards should cause a map to be prepared, upon which the names and boundaries of the wards as fixed by him should be shown, and such map should be signed by the Barrister, and be thereupon deposited at the office of the Town Clerk of the borough.

"And whereas, by the hereinbefore first recited Act, it was further enacted (among other things), that the Senior Judge in the Commission of Assize for the Summer Circuit next after such Order in Council should have been made, should appoint a Barrister for the purpose of determining the boundaries of such wards, and apportioning the number of Councillors of the borough among such wards under the powers of the said Act.

"And whereas, the Honourable Sir Charles Edward Pollock, Knight, one of the Barons of Her Majesty's Court of Exchequer of Pleas, at Westminster, then being the Senior Judge, in the Commission of Assize for the Summer Midland Circuit, did, on the thirtieth day of July, one thousand eight hundred seventy-three, appoint Henry Frederick Gibbons, Esq., Barrister-at-Law, for the purpose of determining the boundaries of such wards, and apportioning the number of Councillors of the said borough of Grimsby, among such wards under the powers of the said recited Acts. And whereas the said Henry Frederick Gibbons, in pursuance of the said statutes, did, on the twenty-first day of August, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, and certain subsequent days, at the said borough of Grimsby, proceed to determine the boundaries of the said wards, and did cause a map to be prepared upon which the names and boundaries of the wards as fixed by him were shown, and which said map was signed by him, and was thereupon deposited at the office of the Town Clerk of the said borough, and did proceed to apportion the Councillors for such borough amongst the wards so divided, and did determine that the said four wards should be respectively bounded and described as follows:—

"The North-east Ward to be and include that part of the municipal borough of Grimsby, which is bounded on the east by the boundary line between the municipal borough of Grimsby, and the parish of Clee, commencing at the kerb-stone on the east side of Humber-street, at the point where the line of boundary between lands belonging to the Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway Company and George Tomline, Esq., produced eastward in a straight line would meet the boundary line between the said municipal borough of Grimsby and the parish of Clee; thence proceeding, southward, along the line of the said boundary in Humber-street, crossing Cleethorpe-road and Bath-street, to the east branch of the Clee Drain, now covered in; thence westward, along the south side of the said branch drain, to its junction with the Clee Drain, and thence southward, along the centre line of the Cleo Drain to the point where a line along the centre of New Market-street produced eastward across Albion-street and the intervening space meets the line along the centre of the said Cleo Drain; on the south by a line drawn from the point last mentioned, across Albion-street, along the centre of New Market-street and the centre of the public footway bridge crossing the Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway, to the footway over the covered-in East Marsh Drain, at the west end of the said footway bridge; on the west by a line drawn from the point last mentioned, northward, along the course of the said footway over the covered-in East Marsh Drain, to the north end thereof, and continuing the same straight line to the Cleethorpe-road; thence, eastward, along the centre of the said Cleethorpe-road, to the east side of the level crossing of the Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway over the said Cleethorpe-road; and thence, north-eastward, to the point of junction of the boundary line between lands belonging to the Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway Company and George Tomline, Esq., produced westward in a straight line; on the north by a line drawn from the point last mentioned, eastward, in direction for and along the course of the last-described boundary line, between lands of the Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway Company and George Tomline, Esq., to the kerb-stone on the east side of Humber-street, at the boundary between the said municipal borough and the said parish of Cleo. The boundaries of the North-east Ward are coloured yellow on the map.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme or representation bearing date the thirty-first day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting under the provisions of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Seacroft, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon, and of the new parish of Manston, in the same county and diocese.

“Whereas by the authority of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, and published in the London Gazette on the thirtieth day of the same month, a part of the parish of Whitkirk, situate in the said county of York, and in the said diocese of Ripon, was assigned as a chapelry district to the church of Saint James, situate at Seacroft, within the limits of the same parish, and was named ‘The Chapelry District of Seacroft.’

“And whereas it has been represented to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that the boundaries of the said new parish of Seacroft and of the said new parish of Manston, should be altered so as to admit of an exchange of territory between the said new parishes in the manner hereinafter set forth.

“Now, therefore; with the consent of the Right Reverend Robert, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly represent, recommend, and propose, that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation, all those portions of the said new parish of Seacroft, which are described in the first schedule hereunder written, and are delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto appended, and are thereon coloured pink, shall be dissevered from such new parish, and shall be annexed to, and shall become and be and be deemed to be, within the limits, and form portions of the said new parish of Manston; and also that from the same day and date all that portion of the said new parish of Manston, which is described in the second schedule hereunder written, and is delineated and set forth upon the said map or plan hereunto appended, and is thereon coloured green, shall be dissevered from such new parish, and shall be annexed to and shall become and be, and be deemed to be, within the limits, and form part of the said new parish of Seacroft.

“And we further represent, recommend, and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing, recommending, or proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore-mentioned Acts or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 30th day of September, 1873.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of

Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirty-first day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and to the church and cure (which said church and cure are hereinafter called the said benefice) of Saint James, Walthamstow, in the county of Essex, and in the diocese of Rochester.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of the said benefice of Saint James, Walthamstow, is vested in the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the parish of Walthamstow, in the said county of Essex, and in the said diocese of Rochester.

"And whereas a certain benefaction has been made in augmentation of the endowment of the said benefice of Saint James, Walthamstow, partly upon the understanding and condition that a transfer of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of the same benefice from the said vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the parish of Walthamstow aforesaid, and from his successors, vicars or incumbents of the same vicarage, to the bishop for the time being of the diocese within which the said benefice of Saint James, Walthamstow, shall from time to time be situate, shall be effected by the agency of us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and partly upon the understanding and condition that we should make a certain grant in further augmentation of the endowment of the said benefice of Saint James, Walthamstow, which grant we have agreed to make accordingly.

"And whereas the Reverend Thomas Parry, now vicar or incumbent of the said vicarage of the parish of Walthamstow aforesaid, and Edward Warner, of Highams, Woodford, in the said county of Essex, Esquire, the patron of the same vicarage, are willing that the transfer of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of the said benefice of Saint James, Walthamstow, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed should be effected.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Thomas Legh, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester (being the diocese within which the said benefice of Saint James, Walthamstow, is now situate as aforesaid), is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness, and also in token of his consent as diocesan to the said proposed transfer (which consent is by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act mentioned, or by some or one of them made necessary), he, the said Thomas Legh, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas it appears to us that the transfer of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of the said benefice of Saint James, Walthamstow, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will, under and in consequence of the circumstances hereinbefore set forth, tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the district or parish, in or in respect of which the same right of patronage or advowson arises or exists, that is to say in the new parish of Saint James, Walthamstow.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Thomas Parry, vicar or incumbent of the said vicarage of the parish of Walthamstow aforesaid, acting as such vicar or incumbent (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said Edward Warner, patron of the lastly-mentioned vicarage (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said Thomas Legh, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme, and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of the said benefice of Saint James, Walthamstow, now vested in him, the said Thomas Parry, as such vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Walthamstow as aforesaid, shall be transferred from him, the said Thomas Parry, and from his successors, vicars or incumbents of the same vicarage, to the Bishop for the time being of the diocese within which the said benefice of Saint James, Walthamstow, shall from time to time be situate, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the Bishop for the time being of the diocese within which the said benefice of Saint James, Walthamstow, shall from time to time be situate.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Rochester.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 30th day of September, 1873.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirty-first day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said new parish of Esh, which is hereinafter mentioned and described (such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship) should be constituted a separate district in the manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas certain hereditaments and premises, situate within the said new parish of Esh, have become vested in us under the provisions of and for the purposes of the herein mentioned Acts, or of some of them, and we have in respect of such hereditaments and premises agreed to make and pay out of the common fund created by the firstly herein mentioned Act to the minister of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, when he shall have been duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the secondly herein mentioned Act, and to his successors, a grant of two hundred pounds per annum, and also so soon as a church shall have been erected within and for such district, and shall have been approved by us, and shall have been consecrated as the church of such district, and such district shall have thereupon become a new parish within the meaning of the secondly herein mentioned Act, to make and pay such further grant from the said fund as will suffice to raise the income of the incumbent of such new parish to three hundred pounds per annum.

Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said new parish of Esh, which is mentioned and described in the schedule hereunder written, and which is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint John the Baptist, Hamsteels.'

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"Whereas by the authority of an instrument, bearing date on or about the fourth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, a part of the parish of Old Swinford, in the said county of Worcester, and in the said diocese of Worcester, was assigned as a particular district to the church called Christ Church, situate at Lye, within the limits of the same parish, and the incumbent of such particular district was empowered to solemnize and perform baptisms, churchings, and burials at the church thereof.

"And whereas by the authority of another instrument, bearing date on or about the thirtieth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, the incumbent of the said particular district of Christ Church, Lye, was empowered to solemnize and perform marriages at the church of the same particular district.

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Henry, Bishop of the said diocese of Worcester, (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, recommend, and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying this scheme or representation, all that part of the said parish of Old Swinford, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto appended, and is thereon coloured pink, shall be dis severed from such parish, and shall be annexed to, and shall become and be and form part of, and be deemed to be within the limits of the said new parish of Christ Church, Lye.

“And we further represent, recommend, and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing, recommending, or proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference.

“The territory proposed to be annexed to the new parish of Christ Church, Lye, in the county of Worcester, and in the diocese of Worcester, being :—

“All that portion of the parish of Old Swinford, in the said county and diocese, which comprises that part of the hamlet of Wollascote, wherein the mansion house, called or known as Wollascote Hall, is situate, all which said portion of such parish is bounded on the south by the parish of Pedmore, in the county and diocese aforesaid; on the east partly by the last named parish, and partly by the new parish of Christ Church, Lye aforesaid; and on the remaining sides, that is to say, on the north and on the west, by the consolidated chapelry of Saint Mark, Stamber Mill, in the county and diocese aforesaid.”

And whereas drafts of the said scheme or representation have been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the two cures affected by the arrangements which are contemplated by such scheme or representation, and such patrons and incumbents have respectively signified their assent to the said scheme or representation.

And whereas the said scheme or representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme or representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-four; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Worcester.

Vice-Chancellor Wickens.—Wednesday, the 9th day of July, 1873.—Between Edwin Bassett Walker Parnaby, an infant under the age of twenty-one years, by Eliza Parnaby, his next friend, Plaintiff; Henry Edwards, Defendant.

UPON motion this day made unto this Court by Counsel for the plaintiff, who alleged that the plaintiff filed his Bill in this Court against the defendant, having an endorsement thereon in the form prescribed by the Act of Parliament in that behalf made, requiring the said defendant to appear thereto, and that it appears by the affidavit of Trueman Waller Graham, filed the 7th July, 1873, that the defendant has been within the jurisdiction of this Court within two years next before the filing of the said Bill, and that all due diligence has been used to serve the said last-named defendant with a printed copy of the said Bill, but without success, and the said defendant cannot be found, so as to be served with process, and from enquiries at the last known place of abode of the said defendant, and at other places where it was probable the said defendant might be found, there is just ground to believe that the said defendant has absconded and gone out of the realm, or otherwise absconded to avoid being served with process, and upon reading the said affidavit, this Court doth order that the defendant do appear to the plaintiff's Bill on or before the 5th day of December, 1873; and the plaintiff is to cause a copy of this Order, together with a notice thereof to the effect set forth at the foot of the 10th of the Consolidated Orders, Rule 6, to be inserted in the London Gazette and in two newspapers published in the county of Lancaster, on or before the 15th day of October next.

Notice.—Henry Edwards, Take notice, that if you do not appear, pursuant to the above Order, the plaintiff may enter an appearance for you, and the Court may afterwards grant to the plaintiff such relief as he may appear to be entitled to on his own showing.
