MINERAL OILS CLAIMS IN FRANCE.

THE following Notice has been adopted by the Mixed Commission appointed under Article IV, of the Treaty of Commerce and Navigation, of the 23rd of July, 1873, between Great Britain and France:—

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Mixed Commission appointed under Article IV of the Treaty of Commerce and Navigation concluded on the 23rd of July, 1873, between Great Britain and France has resumed its sittings, and is about to settle finally, in the terms of that Article, claims preferred in regard to duties levied in France on British mineral oils. All parties who have already preferred such claims, and who may desire or intend to make further representations, are hereby required to address the same to the Secretaries to the Mixed Commission, at the Ministry of Agriculture and Commerce, Paris, within fourteen days from the first publication of this notice; and all parties who have not yet preferred claims, and who intend to do so, are hereby required to prefer the same within the said period of fourteen days, by letter to the Secretaries at the Ministry of Agriculture and Commerce, Paris. Claims or further representations not preferred within the period specified in this notice will not be entertained by the Commission, and the parties interested will lose the benefit of the stipulations of the Treaty in regard to them.

Copy of Article IV of the Treaty above referred to:—

Mineral oils of British origin shall be admitted into France and Algeria from the 1st of January, 1874, or sooner, if possible, at a Customs duty of 5 per cent., that is to say, at the rate of duty levied previously to the passing of the Law of the 8th of July, 1871. It is, nevertheless, agreed that the said oils shall, in conformity with the stipulations of Article IX of the Treaty of the 23rd of January, 1860, again put into force by Article I of the present Treaty, be likewise subject to the duty of 5 fr. or 8 fr. per 100 kilog., established on crude or refined oils by the Law of the 16th of September, 1871, or that which may be hereafter levied on the like oils manufactured in France.

A Commission, consisting of one member on the part of each Government, shall meet at Paris immediately after the ratification of the present Treaty, in order to settle, as hereinafter directed, questions concerning duties levied in France on British mineral oils, as well as to consider and report on any other questions which the High Contracting Parties agree, or shall agree to refer to it.

The benefit of the above provisions shall be extended to British mineral oils, to be supplied to persons in France under contracts entered into before the promulgation of the Law of the 8th of July, 1871.

The Commission shall examine how far it would be possible to effect reimbursement of duties levied in excess of the duty of 5 per cent., and the tax of 5 fr. or 8 fr. per 100 kilog. above referred to, in the case of British mineral oils introduced into France since the promulgation of the Law of the 8th of July, 1871, otherwise than in pursuance of contracts previously entered into.

In regard to the contracts above referred to, the settlement shall include indemnification for actions for breaches of contracts entered into before the enforcement of the Law of the 8th of July, 1871.

The High Contracting Parties, before the exchange of the ratifications of the present Treaty, shall name some third person to act as Arbitrator in regard to any points in connection with the questions above referred to which relate to mineral oils and on which the Commissioners may themselves differ in opinion. The Commission shall refer any such points to the Arbitrator, whose decision shall be binding on the Commissioners, and shall be reported by them accordingly.

The High Contracting Parties shall forthwith carry out the decision come to by the Commission or by the Arbitrator.

*Civil Service Commission,
November 10, 1873.*

THE Civil Service Commissioners, with the concurrence of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, are pleased, in execution of their powers under the Order in Council of the 19th August, 1871, and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, to issue the following further Regulations respecting Temporary Writers in Public Departments.

REGULATIONS RESPECTING TEMPORARY WRITERS IN PUBLIC DEPARTMENTS.

* * Revised Regulations may at any time be issued, which will apply to every Writer who may accept or renew an engagement after their publication in the London Gazette.

*Civil Service Commission,
November, 1873.*

1. A register of Writers for temporary employment in Public Departments will be kept by the Civil Service Commissioners. Candidates must satisfy the Commissioners that they are of good health and character, and that they are duly qualified under the following regulations 2 and 3.

2. The limits of age will be—

(a) For Men Writers,—over 18.

(b) For Boy Writers,—14 to 18.

3. The subjects in which Candidates will be tested are :—

MEN WRITERS:

OBLIGATORY*

1. Handwriting.
2. Orthography.
3. Copying Manuscript.
4. Copying Figures and Tabular Statements.

OPTIONAL.

5. Arithmetic.

BOY WRITERS:

1. Handwriting.
2. Orthography.
3. Elementary Arithmetic.

4. Examinations, for the purpose of testing the qualifications of Candidates in the above-mentioned subjects, will be held by the Civil Service Commissioners from time to time as may be necessary, and a certain number, regulated by the probable demand from the Public Departments, of those who display the requisite amount of proficiency, will be placed upon the Register kept by the Commissioners.

5. The fee payable by persons attending these examinations will be 5s. for each person in class (a), and 2s. 6d. for each person in class (b).

6. Registered Writers will be summoned for employment in any of the Public Departments as they are wanted. When not wanted, they will have no claim to employment. Refusing to serve when called upon, except for reasons satisfactory to the Civil Service Commissioners, they will be removed from the Register. The order in which they may be employed, the Departments to which they may be assigned, and their retention generally on the Register, will be determined by the Civil Service Commissioners; but they will be subject to the orders of the Departments in which they are serving during the time of their actual employment, and will be liable to dismissal from them by the authorities thereof, without notice, for inefficiency or misconduct.

7. Writers may be engaged by the hour, day, or week, or by the piece. The engagement will terminate without notice after each payment made, unless it is renewed. Writers engaged for a day or upwards will ordinarily be employed for the number of hours constituting the official day in the Department to which they are attached, but if they are required to give their services after official hours, they must do so, and they will be paid at the same rate, whether by the hour or by the piece, as in the official hours. A Writer refusing to work after official hours on these terms without an excuse satisfactory to the authorities of the Department will be liable to dismissal by them without notice.

8. Men Writers will be paid either at the rate of 10d. per hour, or at the rate of 1½d. for every hundred words well and correctly copied, as the authorities of the Department for which they are required may determine. Other rates for special kinds of work may be determined by the Civil Service Commissioners, with the previous approval of the Commissioners of the Treasury; but Writers, as a rule, are not meant to be employed upon any work, except copying, or the simpler forms of registration and calculation, under the direction and in relief of established officers.

9. No service, however much it may happen to be prolonged, will confer any claim to superannuation or compensation allowance.

10. The pay of Boy Writers will commence at the rate of 4d. per hour; an addition of ½d. per hour may be allowed by the Civil Service Commissioners at the end of each year of approved service. Should any Boy Writers be engaged by the piece they will be paid at such rates as may be fixed by the Civil Service Commissioners, with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury. Boy Writers will not be retained as such after they shall have reached the age of 19.

11. If a public holiday, on which the office is closed, fall within the period of a Writer's engagement, he may be paid in respect of it as for a working day. Writers may, with the consent of the Department in which they are serving, or, if not at the time serving, with the consent of the Civil Service Commissioners, be allowed holidays, with pay, at the rate for the official day, in the proportion of one day for every twenty-four full days of actual and approved service previously rendered by them as registered Writers; provided (1) that, after the 1st of January, 1874, no Writer shall be allowed to take more than twelve days' leave under these conditions, between the 1st of January and the 31st of December, both days inclusive, in any one year, and (2) that in calculating the leave to be allowed, no service be counted previous to the 1st of January of the preceding year.

12. Writers who may fall ill while serving in any Department, and whose illness may be attested by medical certificate to the satisfaction of the authorities of such Department, may be allowed sick-leave, receiving three-fourths of the rate of pay for the official day; provided such Writers have been borne on the Register one year or upwards, and provided that no Writer shall be paid for holidays and sick-leave, taken together, for more than twenty-eight days within any one year.

13. Except in conformity with Regulations 11 and 12, Writers will only receive pay for the hours, or parts of hours, during which they actually attend.

14. No person who has been trained, either wholly or partially, at the public expense, for the occupation of a teacher in schools in connection with the Committee of Council for Education, or the Board of National Education, Ireland, is eligible for employment as a Writer, until the consent of those Departments, given in conformity with rules sanctioned by the Lords of the Treasury, has been notified to the Civil Service Commissioners.

15. Writers are not intended to travel during an engagement, nor will they, as a rule, be required to accept engagements at a distance from their residence; but any Writer who may be ordered to travel, will be allowed such reasonable and customary expenses as the Lords of the Treasury may in each case approve.

* Candidates should fully understand that only those who show themselves proficient in the obligatory subjects can be placed upon the Register, and that those who do not pass in arithmetic will be excluded from employment where Writers are required for arithmetical work.

Board of Trade.—Session 1874.

Bristol Corporation Tramways.

Further Powers for Construction of Tramways in Bristol by the Corporation; Increase of Borrowing Powers of the Corporation.

APPPLICATION is intended to be made by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the City of Bristol (hereinafter called "the Corporation") to the Board of Trade for a Provisional Order to amend the Bristol Corporation Tramways Order, 1872, which was confirmed by "The Tramways Orders Confirmation Act, 1872" (35 and 36 Vict., cap. 158).

The objects of the proposed Provisional Order are:—

To extend the time for the construction of the tramways authorised by the said Order, and to amend, extend, or vary the said Order, and to confer upon the Corporation new powers for the construction and maintenance of the tramways described in the said Order, or some of them.

To authorise the Corporation "to make, form, lay down, and maintain with all proper rails, plates, offices, stables, carriage-houses, warehouses, works, and conveniences connected therewith the tramways hereinafter described, or some of them (that is to say):—

A Tramway (No. 1) commencing in the In-parish of Saint Philip and Jacob, in Old Market-street, opposite No. 3, Old Market-street, passing up Old Market-street, along West-street, Clarence-road, and Lawrence-hill, in the In-parish of Saint Philip and Jacob, and the Out-parish of Saint Philip and Jacob, along the centre lines of the said streets respectively, except opposite to Mr. Scull's premises in West-street, for the length of the said premises, and opposite Messrs. Garton's premises in Lawrence-hill, for a distance of about 315 feet, and also opposite the public-house called "The Glass House," in Lawrence-hill, for a distance of about 190 feet, in each of which cases the tramway is intended to diverge to the northward of the centre line of the street, and to the extent of about one yard therefrom.

This tramway is proposed to be so laid that a less space than 9 feet 6 inches will intervene between the nearest rail of the tramway and the footpath in front of Mr. Scull's premises in West-street, in Lawrence-hill, from Messrs. Garton's premises, for a distance of about 315 feet in an easterly direction, and also at the upper end of Lawrence-hill, for a length of about 190 feet in front of the public-house called "The Glass House."

A Tramway (No. 1a) wholly situate in the In-parish of Saint Philip and Jacob, commencing by a junction with the aforesaid Tramway No. 1, in Old Market-street, at a point about 820 feet eastward of the commencement of the said tramway, and diverging thence southward for a distance of about 50 feet until it becomes distant about 9 feet from the said centre line, continuing along the said Old Market-street at the same distance of about 9 feet from the centre line thereof, for a further length of 60 feet, converging thence towards the centre line of the said street for an additional length of about 50 feet, and terminating by a junction with the said Tramway No. 1 in the said Old Market-street.

A Tramway (No. 1b) wholly situate in the Out-parish of St. Philip and Jacob, commencing by a junction with the aforesaid Tramway No. 1 in the centre of West-street, at a point about 90 feet eastward of the intersection of Gloucester-lane with West-street, from which point it commences to diverge to the south of the centre line for a distance of about 50 feet, until it becomes distant about 9 feet from the said centre line, continuing along the said West-street at the same distance of 9 feet from the centre line thereof for a further length of 60 feet, converging thence towards the centre line of the said street for an additional length of 50 feet, and terminating by a junction with the said Tramway No. 1 in the said West-street.

A Tramway (No. 1c) wholly situate in the Out-parish of Saint Philip and Jacob, commencing by a junction with the aforesaid Tramway No. 1, in the centre of Clarence road, at a point 75 feet eastward of th-entrance to Clarence-place, from which point it commences to diverge to the south of the centre line for about 110 feet, until it becomes distant 9 feet from the said centre line, continuing along the said Clarence-road at the same distance of 9 feet from the centre line thereof for a further length of 60 feet, converging thence towards the centre line of the said street for an additional length of 70 feet, and terminating by a junction with the said Tramway No. 1, in the said Clarence-road.

The said Tramways will be entirely within the city and county of Bristol.

The expression "centre line," used with reference to any street or road, is intended to mean an imaginary line drawn along the centre of the street or road.

Where in the description of the said tramways any distances are given with reference to any street which intersects or joins the streets in which any of the tramways are to be laid, the distance is to be taken as measured from the point at which lines drawn along the centres of the two streets and continued would intersect each other.

Each of the said last-mentioned tramways is intended to consist of a single pair of rails of the gauge of 4 feet 8 inches and a half, and is to be laid, unless otherwise specified, along the centre of the street by which it is meant that the imaginary centre line between the two rails of the tramway is to coincide as nearly as possible with the imaginary centre line of the street.

To enable the Corporation to borrow an additional sum of money for the purposes of the said tramways, and to levy tolls and charges for the use of the same tramways, and to exercise the other powers granted by the Tramways Act, 1870, to parties who are therein called "the promoters," and especially the power of granting a lease of the said tramways or any parts thereof, or of granting licences to use the same, and to extend and make applicable to the same tramways all the powers and provisions of the said Bristol Corporation Tramways Order, 1872, relating to the tramways thereby authorised.

A plan and section of the said Tramways and Works, and a copy of this advertisement, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited before the 30th day of November instant for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the City and County of Bristol, at his office in Baldwin-street, in Bristol; at the office of the Board of Trade, Whitehall; at the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons; and at the office of the Clerk of the Parliaments, House of Lords; and at the office of the Sanitary Authority for the City of Bristol, No. 13, Prince-street, Bristol; and also with the Parish Clerks of the In-parish of Saint Philip and Jacob, and the Out-parish of Saint Philip and Jacob respectively.

On and after the 23rd December, 1873, printed copies of the Draft Provisional Order may be obtained at the offices of Mr. John Gyde Heaven, Clerk to the Sanitary Authority for the City of Bristol, No. 13, Prince-street, Bristol; and of Messrs. Dyson and Co., 24, Parliament-street, Westminster, on payment of one shilling for each copy; and printed copies of the said Provisional Order, when settled and made by the Board of Trade will be deposited at the office of the said Board, in Whitehall, and also with the said Clerk to the Sanitary Authority, and at the office of Messrs. Dyson and Co., and will at the two latter places be furnished to all persons applying for them at the price of one shilling each.

All persons desirous of making any representations to the Board of Trade, or of bringing before them any objection respecting this application, may do so by letter, addressed to the Assistant Secretary of the Railway Department of the Board of Trade, on or before the 15th day of January, 1874.

Dated this 4th day of November, 1873.
