THE Board of Trade have received through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs a Despatch from Her Majesty's Minister at Caracas, containing a copy of a Resolution of the President of the Republic of Venezuela, relative to a tax to be levied on ships arriving at Barcelona, for the maintenance of a Light Apparatus at that Port. A translation of the Resolution is appended.

(Translation.)

*United States of Venezuela,
Ministry of Finance, 4th Section,
Caracas, November 27th, 1873.*

The National Executive taking into consideration:—

1st. That the establishment of lighthouses at those points of the coast which are dangerous for ships making the land, is expedient for the interests of maritime commerce.

2nd. That although the law relating to the subject now in force does not include Barcelona amongst the ports designated for the levying of the tax for lighthouses, a small apparatus intended for affording provisionally that service has just been established there, the payment of the monthly expense which it occasions having been simultaneously ordered; and

3rd. That the general Government proposes to construct at the said port, as soon as possible, a permanent lighthouse with the dimensions and solidity which the importance of its object requires.

Resolves:

Native as well as foreign vessels which enter the port of Barcelona, with or without cargo, arriving from abroad, shall pay the tax for lighthouses established by the Law XXIII of the Code of Finance.

This resolution shall begin to take effect from the day the Custom House of Barcelona receives it.

That it be communicated and published.

For the President of the Republic,

(Signed) GOITICOA.

A true copy, the Provisional Secretary,

(Signed) LUIS GERÓNIMO ALFONZO.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall Gardens,
January 8, 1874.*

BY a Decree of the French Government, published in the Journal Officiel of the 31st December last, additional duties are imposed on certain imported articles, as follows:—

1. The duty on sugar is increased by 4 per cent.

2. The Customs tariff as regards petroleum and similar mineral oils, is thus fixed:—Refined oil, of 800 degrees of density or more, at a temperature of 15 degrees (Centigrade), 37 francs per 100 kilogrammes; essence, of 700 degrees of density or less, at a temperature of 15 degrees (Centigrade), 47 francs per 100 kilogrammes. As regards such oils imported in a raw state, the duties will be levied on each of the constituent quantities of pure oil and of essence as follows:—For 100 kilogrammes of pure oil, of 800 degrees of density at a temperature of 15 degrees (Centigrade), 37 francs; for 100 kilogrammes of essence, of 700 degrees of density at a temperature of 15 degrees (Centigrade), 40 francs. When the density of oils imported otherwise than in a raw condition is found to be between 800 and 700 degrees, the duty of 37 francs will be augmented by 10 centimes per degree under 800 degrees.

3. In consequence of the imposition of an excise duty on soap of home production, foreign soap will be subject on importation to an equivalent compensatory duty of 5 francs per 100 kilogrammes. Duty will be returned on soap exported.

4. The import duty on stearic acid is fixed at 5 per cent. on the value, and on tapers and candles with twisted or plaited wicks, which have undergone chemical preparation, 10 per cent. A compensatory duty of 25 francs per 100 kilogrammes will be levied on the same articles in addition to the import duty. An equivalent drawback will be allowed on these articles upon exportation.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

WEDNESBURY FAIR.

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Local Board of Health for the District of Wednesbury, as owners, that a Fair has been annually held on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday in the week following after the 4th of September, in the town of Wednesbury, in the said district, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

And whereas notice of the said representation, and of the time when I should take the same into consideration, has been duly published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1871:"

And whereas on such representation and consideration it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

Now, therefore, I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1871," do hereby order that the Fair which has been annually held on the Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday in the week following after the 4th September, in the town and district of the Local Board of Health of Wednesbury, shall be abolished as from the date of this order.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 7th day of January, 1874.

(Signed) R. Lowe.

In the Matter of the Court of Chancery (Officers' Act, 1867 (30th and 31st Victoria, chapter 87); and in the Matter of the Courts of Justice (Salaries and Funds) Act, 1869 (32nd and 33rd Victoria, chapter 91).

WHEREAS William Edward Church was appointed, on the 1st day of December, 1873, to be the fifteenth Clerk to the Registrars of the High Court of Chancery, at an annual salary of £300; and whereas such appointment was made and accepted upon the terms and conditions hereinafter appearing: now, therefore, we, Fulke Greville and W. H. Gladstone, being two of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, with the concurrence of the Right Honourable Roundell, Baron Selborne, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, testified by his signature hereto, in pursuance and by the authority of the Courts of Justice (Salaries and Funds) Act, 1869, do hereby order that, for the present, and until further order be made to the contrary, the said William Edward Church be entitled to and be paid the yearly salary of £300, and shall hold his office of fifteenth Clerk to the Registrars of the High Court of Chancery, and discharge provisionally the duties attaching thereto, subject to any order to be hereafter made, under section 14 of the Courts of Justice (Salaries and Funds) Act, 1869, in relation to the abolition or modification of the said office, or to the amount of the salary to be received by him as such Clerk, and that he have no vested, or other legal right of succession to any other clerkship in the Registrar's office, unless in any Order to be hereafter made it be so determined. And we do also order, that the said salary be paid to the said William Edward Church by equal quarterly payments, on the 16th day of March, the 16th day of June, the 16th day of September, and the 16th day of December, so long as it shall continue to be payable, the first quarterly payment to be made on the 16th day of March, 1874; and that the proportionate part of the said salary, amounting to the sum of £12 7s. 3d., which accrued from and inclusive of the 1st day of December, 1873, the date of his appointment to the 16th day of December, 1873, be paid to him forthwith.

Dated this nineteenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

Fulke Greville.

W. H. Gladstone.

I concur in the above Order.

In the Matter of the Court of Chancery (Officers' Act, 1867 (30th and 31st Victoria, chapter 87); and in the Matter of the Courts of Justice (Salaries and Funds) Act, 1869 (32nd and 33rd Victoria, chapter 91).

WHEREAS, in consequence of the death of Frederick Bennell, a vacancy has occurred in the office of Junior Clerk, attached to the Court of his Honour the Vice-Chancellor Sir Charles Hall; and whereas, by an Order of Court, dated the 11th day of November, 1873, made in pursuance of the firstly above-mentioned Act, it was declared necessary to supply such vacancy; and whereas, William Henry Hopkins was appointed on the said 11th day of November, 1873, to fill the said vacancy, and he has agreed to accept his office upon terms and conditions hereinafter mentioned: therefore, we, Fulke Greville and William H. Gladstone, being two of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, with the concurrence of the Right Honourable Roundell, Baron Selborne, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, testified by his signature hereto, in pursuance and by the authority of the Courts of Justice (Salaries and Funds) Act, 1869, do hereby order that the said William Henry Hopkins be entitled to, and be paid, the annual salary of four hundred pounds, such salary to increase after five years' service by the said William Henry Hopkins, by annual increments of twenty pounds, until the maximum salary of five hundred pounds per annum is reached, and thenceforward to continue at that amount; and that the said William Henry Hopkins shall hold his said office without any claim to compensation, in the event of the abolition thereof or any modification of the duties therein resulting from the operation of The Supreme Court of Judicature Act, 1873, or any rule to be made thereunder. And we do also order, that the said salary be paid to the said William Henry Hopkins by equal quarterly payments, on the 16th day of March, the 16th day of June, the 16th day of September, and the 16th day of December, so long as it shall continue to be payable, and that the proportionate part thereof, amounting to £38 9s. 2d., which accrued from and inclusive of the 11th day of November, 1873, the date of his appointment, to the 16th day of December, 1873, be paid to him forthwith.

Dated this nineteenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

In Chancery.—Between William Gribble and John Beveridge Gribble, Plaintiffs; and Robert Coad Tucker, Edward Athelston Worthy (sometimes and in the Bill of Complaint called Edward Worthy) and Annie, his Wife, and Andrew Tucker Squarey and James Thurston Shorto, Defendants.—1872, G. No. 155.

WHEREAS the plaintiffs' Bill of Complaint in the above suit was duly filed on the 11th December, 1872, and whereas, pursuant to an Order made in the said suit, dated the 19th December, 1872, the defendants, Edward Athelston Worthy (or Edward Worthy) and Annie, his wife, were, on the 12th March, 1873, served at Christchurch, in the Province of Canterbury, in the Colony of New Zealand, with a printed copy of the said Bill, and with a copy of the interrogatories filed in this suit for the examination of such defendants, together with a copy of the said Order; and whereas the last-named defendants did not enter an appearance to the said Bill, as by the said Order directed; and whereas by an Order dated the 3rd November, 1873, it was ordered that the plaintiffs be at liberty to enter an appearance to their said Bill for the said defendants, Edward Athelston Worthy (in the Bill called Edward Worthy) and Annie, his wife, and such appearance was accordingly entered by the plaintiffs on the 17th day of November, 1873. Now notice is hereby given to the last-named defendant, and all others whom it may concern, that the Court of Chancery will be moved before His Honour the Vice-Chancellor Sir Richard Malins, on the 12th day of January next, or as soon thereafter as Counsel can be heard, by Counsel on the part of the plaintiffs, that their Bill may be taken pro confesso against Edward Athelston Worthy (sometimes and in the said Bill called Edward Worthy) and Annie, his wife.—Dated this 9th day of December, 1873.

TORR and CO., 38, Bedford-row, Plaintiffs' Solicitors.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in the matter of the estate of John Barry, deceased, Barry v. Barry, 1870, B., 30, with the approbation of His Honour the Vice-Chancellor Sir Charles Hall, by Mr. A. M. Yette, the person appointed by the said Judge to sell the same, at the Guildhall Coffee-house, Gresham-street, in the city of London, on Thursday, the 5th day of February, 1874, at twelve o'clock at noon, in two lots:—

Two policies of assurance for £500 and £200 respectively, effected in the years 1860 and 1844, with the Economic Life Assurance Society, on the life of a gentleman now in the sixty-first year of his age, at the respective annual premiums of £20 4s. 7d. and £5, payable on the 10th day of November and the 13th day of January.

Particulars and conditions of sale may be had (gratis) of Messrs. Cowdell, Grundy, and Browne, Solicitors, 26, Budge-row, Cannon-street, London, E.C.; John Thomas Roumieu, Esq., Solicitor, 10, Austin Friars, E.C.; and of Mr. A. J. M. Yette, No. 54, Cannon-street, London, E.C.

PURSUANT to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in the matter of the estate of George Gilliat, and in a cause Allison v. Gilliat, the creditors of George Gilliat, late of Horncastle, in the county of Lincoln, who died in or about the month of September, 1873, are, on or before the 31st day of January, 1874, to send by post, prepaid, to Charles Gilliat, of No. 57, Lincoln's-inn-fields, London, the Solicitor of the defendants, William Jollands Gilliat and Clement Conington, the executors of the will of the deceased, their Christian and surnames, addresses and descriptions, the full particulars of their claims, a statement of their accounts, and the nature of the securities (if any) held by them, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said Order. Every creditor holding any security is to produce the same before the Vice-Chancellor Sir Charles Hall, at his chambers, situated at No. 12, Old-square, Lincoln's-inn, in the county of Middlesex, on the 16th day of February, at twelve o'clock at noon, being the time appointed for adjudicating upon the claims.—Dated this 7th day of January, 1874.

COUNTY COURTS' EQUITABLE JURISDICTION.

No. of Plaintiff, 17.

In the County Court of Norfolk, holden at Great Yarmouth.

In the suit of William Wortley v. William Moore.

NOTICE is hereby given to the above-named defendant, William Moore, formerly of Great Yarmouth, but whose present address is unknown, that a plaint has been filed in this Court by William Wortley, of Repps-with-Bastwick, Farmer, against him, the said defendant, whereby the plaintiff prays that the Court will declare that, by virtue of an agreement, memorandum, and indenture in the plaint mentioned, the defendant became and now is a trustee of the legal estate in the tithe barn, homestead, and premises situate at Repps-with-Bastwick, in the county of Norfolk, for Charles Moore, in the said plaint mentioned, and those claiming under him, and therefore, in the events which have happened, for the plaintiff; and that the Court will order the defendant to convey the said legal estate to the plaintiff, or will make an Order vesting the said legal estate in the plaintiff; and the Court has ordered that publication of this notice once in the London Gazette, the Norfolk News, and the Yarmouth Independent, shall be deemed to be service of such plaint, and the summons granted thereon, upon the said defendant.

NOTICE is hereby further given, that by the said summons, the defendant is required to appear at a County Court to be holden at the Toll House Hall, Great Yarmouth, on Thursday, the 26th day of February, 1874, at three o'clock in the afternoon, to show cause why the relief prayed for in the said plaint should not be granted.

Dated this 7th day of January, 1874.
