*Board of Trade, Harbour Department,
Whitehall Gardens, S.W., January 9, 1874.*

THE Board of Trade have received through the Secretary of State for the Colonies a copy of a Despatch from the Governor of the Straits Settlements, stating that owing to the prevalence of cholera in a malignant form in Batavia, ships arriving from that port were detained subject to quarantine, by an Order of the Governor in Council, dated 7th November last. A copy of the regulations as embodied in the Order in Council is subjoined :—

1. Every vessel arriving at any of the ports of the colony from Batavia, shall hoist the usual quarantine or yellow flag at the main-masthead, and shall remain outside the limits of the port till visited by the Health Officer and admitted to communicate with the port.

2. On the arrival of every such vessel the Health Officer of the Port, or his Deputy, shall forthwith proceed on board, and shall examine into the state of health of the passengers and crew ; and, if it shall appear to him after enquiry, that no case of cholera has occurred on board the vessel within ten days, he may, after twenty-four hours' observation, and subject to the control of the Governor, admit such vessel to free communication with the port and Settlement.

If it shall appear that any case of cholera has occurred on board any such vessel within ten days the vessel shall be taken to the quarantine anchorage and there detained without communication with the shore or with other vessels till ten days after the latest case may have happened on board.

3. In all cases the Post Office packets and mails in any such vessels shall be forthwith delivered, and subjected to such fumigation or other prevention process as the Health Officer of the Port may (sic).

4. Coals and cargo may be shipped on and landed from vessels, immediately on their arrival, in which no case of cholera may have occurred within ten days.

5. The quarantine burial ground will be Peak Island.

By command,
(Signed) E. A. IRVING,
Clerk of the Councils.

Alteration in Breakwater Lights, Port Said.

THE Egyptian Government has given notice, that from the 5th January, 1874, the following alteration will be made in the breakwater lights at Port Said.

The fixed red and green lights which now indicate the extremes of the breakwaters will be replaced by floating lights of the same colour.

The entrance and the channel between the breakwaters to Port Said will be marked by two lines of floating lights, red lights on the western side, and green lights on the eastern side. The line of red lights commences at the extremity of the western breakwater, now in course of extension, and the green lights from a floating light placed N.N.E. $\frac{3}{4}$ E., distant $\frac{1}{10}$ of a mile from the end of the eastern breakwater.

NOTE.—Vessels entering Port Said, should steer for the directing light on Lake Menzaleh, as heretofore, keeping the red lights on the starboard hand and the green lights on the port hand.

(1.) Alternate Fixed and Flashing Light on Le Four Rock.

THE French Government has given notice, that from the 15th March, 1874, a light will be exhibited from a lighthouse recently erected on Le Four Rock, north-entrance of Chenal du Four.

The light is a fixed and flashing white light to show a fixed light during thirty seconds, and a flashing light of eight distinct flashes, followed by eclipses, during thirty seconds; thus the light will be alternately fixed and flashing every half minute. It is elevated 92 feet above the level of high water, and in clear weather should be seen from a distance of 15 miles.

The illuminating apparatus is dioptric or by lenses, of the third order.

The lighthouse is 22 feet high, and is built of stone. Position, lat. $48^{\circ} 31' 20''$ N., long. $4^{\circ} 47' 30''$ W.

A steam fog trumpet will be attached to the lighthouse, but the interval of blasts has not yet been decided on.

Revolving Light on West End of Sable Island.

THE Government of the Dominion of Canada has given notice, that a light is now exhibited from a lighthouse recently erected on the west end of Sable Island, Nova Scotia.

The light is a revolving white light, making a revolution in three minutes, and showing three distinct flashes at intervals of half a minute, and then eclipsed during one and a half minutes, thus completing the three minutes. It is elevated 123 feet above high water, and in clear weather should be seen from a distance of 17 miles.

The illuminating apparatus is catoptric or by reflectors.

The tower is an octagonal wooden building, 98 feet high, and painted white. Position, lat. $43^{\circ} 57'$ N., long. $60^{\circ} 8'$ W.

The distance from this light to the fixed white light on the east end of the island, is 17 miles.

A steam fog whistle has been erected in the vicinity of the lighthouse, which in thick or foggy weather or snow storms will sound eight seconds in each minute, leaving an interval of fifty-two seconds between each blast.

The whistle will probably be heard, in calm weather or with the wind, from 10 to 15 miles, and in stormy weather or against the wind, from 3 to 6 miles.

In the Matter of Letters Patent granted to Wilhelm Radeke, late of 24, Buckingham Palace-road, in the county of Middlesex, but now of 28, Gracechurch-street, in the city of London, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of balls or blocks of artificial fuel for heating or burning purposes only," bearing date the 24th day of May, 1873, No. 1877.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application has been made by the above-named Wilhelm Radeke to the Commissioners of Patents for leave to file Disclaimers and Memoranda of Alterations of certain parts of the said specification; and any person or persons intending to oppose such application must leave notice to that effect at the office of Her Majesty's Attorney-General, No. 1, New-court, Temple, within ten days from the date hereof.—Dated the 18th day of January, 1874.

Geo. Downing, No. 8, Quality-court,
London, Agent for the Petitioner.

Patent Law Amendment Act, 1852.

Office of the Commissioners of Patents for Inventions.

NOTICE is hereby given, that—

2841. Edward Henry Leveaux, of Brook Green, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, has given notice at the Office of the Commissioners of his intention to proceed with his application for letters patent for the invention of "an improved method of connecting various metropolitan railways by means of a central station with each other, and with the water traffic on navigable rivers."

As set forth in his petition, recorded in the said office on the 28th day of August, 1873.

2845. And Christopher Cross, of the city of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of velvets, corded velours, and other pile fabrics."

2848. And James Harrison, of Tattenhall, in the county of Chester, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in apparatus for sharpening and gulleting the teeth of saws, which apparatus is also applicable for other similar purposes."

As set forth in their respective petitions, both recorded in the said office on the 29th day of August, 1873.

2869. And James Shanks, of the firm of Alexander Shanks and Son, of Arbroath, North Britain, and John Thyne, of Arbroath, North Britain, Manager to the said Alexander Shanks and Son, have given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in steam boilers."

As set forth in their petition, recorded in the said office on the 30th day of August, 1873.

2879. And William Walker, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Consulting Engineer, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "an improved system of, and apparatus for, treating flax, hemp, jute, rheea, and other fibrous materials, whether the same have or have not been previously prepared or manufactured."

As set forth in his petition, recorded in the said office on the 2nd day of September, 1873.

2894. And Duncan Mackay, Doctor of Medicine, of 1, Inglis-street, Inverness, in the county of Inverness, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "a new or improved manufacture of omphalic blisters."

The Bankruptcy Act, 1861.

Notice of Dividend Meeting.

A Meeting of the Creditors of the Bankrupt hereinafter named will be held, pursuant to the 174th section of the said Act, at the time and place hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:—

At the Court of Bankruptcy, Basinghall-street, in the city of London, before James Rigg Brougham, Esq., a Registrar:

William Francis Kiddle, of Hope Cottage, Atkinson place, Brixton-road, in the county of Surrey, late Clerk in the Commander-in-Chief's Office, Horse Guards, but now of no occupation, adjudicated bankrupt on the 13th day of August, 1866. A Dividend Meeting will be held on the 23rd day of January next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon precisely.

At the said Meeting the Assignee will, in pursuance of the 174th section of the said Act, submit statements of the Bankrupt's estate recovered and outstanding, and of all receipts and of all payments made or to be made thereout; and the creditors at the said meeting will, in pursuance of the said section, declare whether any and what allowance shall be paid to the said bankrupt. Proofs of Debts will be received, and creditors who have not proved, or do not then prove, will be excluded the benefit of the Dividend. And all claims not proved will be disallowed.

THIS is to give notice, that the Court acting in the prosecution of an adjudication of Bankruptcy, made on the 21st day of May, 1866, against Harvey Hall Adam (auct. as H. H. Adam), of No. 23, Grafton-street, Mile End-road, and also of No. 57, Cannon-street-road, St. George's-in-the-East, both in the county of Middlesex, Surgeon, Chemist and Druggist, did, on the 20th day of July, 1866, grant the Discharge of the said bankrupt; and that such Discharge will be delivered to the bankrupt, unless an appeal be duly entered against the judgment of the Court, and notice thereof be given to the Court.

THIS is to give notice, that the Court acting in the prosecution of a Petition for adjudication of Bankruptcy, was filed on the 2nd day of August, 1858, against Sydney Hodgkinson, of No. 3, Queenhithe, Upper Thames-street, in the city of London, and of No. 2, Albion-terrace, High-street, Peckham, in the county of Surrey, Wholesale Stationer and Commission Agent, will sit on the 4th day of January, 1874, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon precisely, at the London Bankruptcy Court, Basing hall-street, in the city of London, in order to make a Dividend of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt; when and where the creditors who have not already proved their debts are to come prepared to prove the same, or they will be excluded the benefit of the said Dividend. And all claims not then proved will be disallowed.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the London Bankruptcy Court, in the Matter of Elizabeth Moyes, of the Crown Office, House of Lords, Westminster, in the county of Middlesex, Widow, Housekeeper of the said Office, a Bankrupt.

UPON reading a report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 25th day of October, 1873, reporting that the bankrupt had no property at the date of adjudication, nor had it come to his knowledge that she had become possessed of any property since that date, and upon hearing Mr. William Smith, a creditor in person, in opposition to the order for closing the bankruptcy, and upon reading the report of the Official Assignee, the Court, being satisfied, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said Elizabeth Moyes has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court, this 25th day of November, 1873.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.
