

II.

OFFICERS OF THE GOVERNING BODY.

The Governing Body may appoint a Secretary or Clerk, and may from time to time create any other offices that they may think necessary for the more efficient management of the affairs of the school. Such offices may be suppressed or the duties thereof may be varied by the Governing Body from time to time, and the holders thereof shall be removable at the pleasure of the Governing Body, and shall not be entitled to claim compensation on account of such suppression or removal.

III.

RELIGIOUS SERVICE.

The Chaplain shall be paid out of the income of the school such salary as the Governing Body may from time to time determine. The Head Master may take this office himself; if not, the Chaplain shall be appointed by and hold his office at the pleasure of the Head Master.

IV.

Such salaries as the Governing Body may from time to time determine shall be paid out of the income of the school to the Organist, Chapel Clerk, and Verger. These officers shall be appointed by and hold their offices at the pleasure of the Head Master.

V.

THE FELLOWS.

The emoluments of the existing Fellows shall be paid out of the income of the school. No person shall hereafter be appointed to a Fellowship.

VI.

THE HEAD MASTER.

1. The Head Master shall be appointed by and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the Governing Body.

2. He shall be qualified and shall perform the duties of his office in manner heretofore required by the Statutes in force regarding Rugby School; viz. :—

I. He shall be a Protestant of the Church of England as by law established.

II. He shall have taken the degree of a Master of Arts, or some equal or superior degree.

III. He shall take care to instruct the boys resorting to the school in the principles of the Christian religion, morality, and good manners, and thereby qualify them to become useful members of the community.

3. He shall be continually resident in the School House, except during the school holidays, or for some urgent cause to be signified by him in writing to the Governing Body, and approved by them.

4. He shall have for his use the School House, free of rent, rates, taxes, and repairs, and shall reside therein so long as he shall hold his office, and on ceasing to hold such office, shall deliver up possession to the Governing Body or to such person as they may direct.

5. He shall superintend and be responsible for the general discipline and instruction of all boys admitted to the school, whether on the foundation or otherwise.

VII.

THE ASSISTANT MASTERS.

1. The number, rank, position, and emoluments of the Assistant Masters shall be subject to the directions from time to time of the Governing Body.

2. Subject as aforesaid, the Assistant Masters shall be appointed by and hold their offices at the pleasure of the Head Master; but in case he dismiss a Master, he shall forthwith notify the fact and also the grounds of dismissal to the Governing Body.

3. No Master hereafter to be appointed shall receive any salary or payment directly out of the income of the school.

4. The emoluments of Masters appointed before the passing of "The Public Schools Act, 1864," shall in future be paid out of the tuition fund to be established by regulation; but the income of the school shall be answerable to make up any deficiency in the said fund for that purpose.

5. The word "Masters," in these Statutes, and in the Statute constituting the Governing Body, shall be taken to mean all those who take part in the regular instruction of the school, and are also entrusted with powers of correction for the maintenance of discipline.

VIII.

THE FOUNDATION.

Persons who were residing in or within five miles of Rugby on 31st July, 1868, shall be entitled to send their sons, if of good character, and able to read English, and capable of being taught the first elements of Grammar, to enter the school as Foundationers, and to receive the instruction of the school free of all charge. There shall be paid out of the income of the school to the tuition fund, in respect of every such Foundationer, a sum equal to one half of the fees required by the regulations to be paid on behalf of a day-boy. Boys admitted as aforesaid are hereinafter termed Old Foundationers.

IX.

Persons residing in or within five miles of Rugby, but who were not so residing on 31st July, 1868, shall be entitled to have their sons admitted as Foundationers, under the conditions hereinafter specified. Boys so admitted shall be distinguished as Major Foundationers and Minor Foundationers.

X.

Every Major Foundationer shall have the instruction of the school free of all charge, and all the fees required by the regulations from a day-boy shall be paid to the tuition fund on his behalf out of the income of the school.

XI.

Every Minor Foundationer shall pay half the fees required by the regulations from a day-boy, and the other half shall be paid to the tuition fund on his behalf out of the income of the school.

XII.

The number of Major Foundationers shall be limited to 12, and of Minor Foundationers to 24, except in cases where two Minor Foundationers shall have been appointed instead of one Major Foundationer, as hereinafter provided.

XIII.

The number of Major and Minor Foundationers shall be filled up by degrees as the number of Old Foundationers diminishes, that is to say, when the number of Old Foundationers shall have fallen below 60, two Major and four Minor Foundationers shall be appointed if there be a sufficient number of qualified candidates; when the number of Old Foundationers shall have fallen below 50, two
