Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 2nd day of February, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fifteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty, King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church called Christ Church, situate at Saint Helen's, in the parish of Swansea, in the county of Glamorgan, and in the diocese of Saint David's.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church called Christ Church, situate at Saint Helen's as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Connop, Bishop of the said diocese of Saint David's (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Swansea, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed; should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church called Christ Church, situate at Saint Helen's as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Christ Church, Swansea.'

"And with the like consent of the said Connop, Bishop, of the said diocese of Saint David's (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church called Christ Church, situate at Saint Helen's as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that so long as the Reverend Edward Burnard Squire, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Swansea, shall continue to be such vicar or incumbent, all the fees which may be received in respect of such publication, solemnization, or performance at the said church called Christ Church, situate at Saint Helen's as aforesaid, shall be paid over by the minister thereof to the said Edward Burnard Squire; and, provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Christ Church, Swansea, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Swansea, in the county of Glamorgan, and in the diocese of Saint David's, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which comprises generally that suburb of Swansea which is called or known as Saint Helen's, all which said part of such parish is bounded on the south by Swansea Bay, and upon all other sides, that is to say, on the north-west and on the east, by an imaginary line, commencing upon the southern boundary of the said parish of Swansea, upon the shore of Swansea Bay aforesaid, at a point due south of, and opposite to the junction of Oystermouth-road with Saint Helen's-road; and extending thence, that is, from the shore of Swansea Bay aforesaid, northward, and in a direct line for a distance of three chains or thereabouts, to the said point of junction; and extending thence, north-eastward, for a distance of half a mile or thereabouts, along the middle of the said Saint Helen's-road, to its junction with Richardson-street; and extending thence, southward, along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Little Madoc-street; and extending thence, westward, along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Argyle-street; and extending thence, southward, along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Oystermouth-road aforesaid, and continuing thence, still southward, and in a direct line for a distance of seven chains or thereabouts, thereby passing to the west of the building known as the Old Swansea Infirmary, to the southern boundary of the parish of Swansea aforesaid, on the shore of Swansea Bay aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council, now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Saint David's.
