Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 20, 1874.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, February 6, 1874.

NOTICE is hereby given, that The Queen will hold Drawing Rooms at Buckingham Palace, on Thursday, the 26th of February, and on Wednesday, the 25th of March next, at three o'clock.

N.B. The Knights of the several Orders are to appear in their Collars at the Drawing Room on the 25th of March, it being a Collar-Day.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOMS AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Ladies, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Rooms, at Buckingham Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented to The Queen must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Drawing Room, a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Lady who is to make the presentation, of her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's Command, that no presentations shall be made at the Drawing Room, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to the Queen.

It is not expected that Gentleman will present themselves at Drawing Rooms, except in attendance on the Ladies of their families.

Any Gentleman who under these circumstances should desire to be presented to The Queen, will observe the same regulations as are in force, for Her Majesty's Levees.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at two o'clock.

SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

THE Board of Trade have received through the Foreign Office a Despatch from Her Majesty's Minister at Madrid, enclosing the following translation of a communication addressed by the Spanish Minister of Finance to the Director-General of Customs relative to the Decree of the 30th May, 1873:—

(Translation).

SIR, Ministry of Finance.

It having been shown by experience that the captains of ships coming from the Pacific have not been able, from causes over which they had no control, to have their manifests "visés" by the Consular Agents or Local Authorities, the Government of the Republic, in accordance with your proposal, has resolved to prorogue until the 31st of next May the previously fixed date on which it will be necessary to present the manifests "visés," in accordance with the Decree of the 30th of May of last year, for captains proceeding from ports situated in the Pacific and Indian Seas, and others lying between these, notwithstanding that they may have passed through the Suez Canal.

I inform, &c.,

(Signed) ECHEGARAY.

To the Director-General of Customs.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Burton-in-Lonsdale, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and thirty-two pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the twenty-fifth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twelfth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter-mentioned, grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Leadgate, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, all our estate and interest in the messuage or dwelling-house, parcels of land, and hereditaments, with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and now vested in us (subject to certain reservations and conditions), under and by virtue of a deed of conveyance, bearing date the thirteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and made between the Reverend George James Dunn, of Sunderland, in the said county of Durham, Clerk, of the one part, and us, the said Commissioners, of the other part, which said deed of conveyance is intended to be deposited in the Registry of the said diocese of Durham immediately after the publication of these presents, in the London Gazette: to have and to hold the said messuage or dwelling-house, parcels of land, and hereditaments, with their appurtenances, to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever: Provided always, that the Incumbent for the time being of the same vicarage shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said messuage or dwelling-house, lands, and hereditaments for and in respect of the period intervening between the thirteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette.

Schedule.

All that messuage or dwelling-house, with the yard, gardens, outbuildings, and appurtenances, and the several pieces or parcels of land thereto adjoining and belonging, situate and being in the district of Leadgate, in the county of Durham, containing in the whole three acres and one rood or thereabouts, bounded on the north-west by the road leading from Leadgate to Newcastle, on the east by property of Mr. Reed, on the west by the site of the church of Leadgate, and on all other sides thereof by property belonging to the said Reverend George James Dunn, Clerk, of Sunderland, in the said county of Durham; and which said messuage or dwelling-house, land, and hereditaments are more particularly delineated on the plan hereunto annexed, and are thereon coloured round with a blue line.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Thornton-in-Lonsdale, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and four pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the twenty-fifth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twelfth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the district chapelry or benefice of Saint Matthew, Yiewsley, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, one capital sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said district chapelry or benefice, according to plans and a specification to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said district chapelry or benefice of Saint Matthew, Yiewsley.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twelfth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.
