Schedule.

All that messuage or dwelling-house, with the yard, gardens, outbuildings, and appurtenances, and the several pieces or parcels of land thereto adjoining and belonging, situate and being in the district of Leadgate, in the county of Durham, containing in the whole three acres and one rood or thereabouts, bounded on the north-west by the road leading from Leadgate to Newcastle, on the east by property of Mr. Reed, on the west by the site of the church of Leadgate, and on all other sides thereof by property belonging to the said Reverend George James Dunn, Clerk, of Sunderland, in the said county of Durham; and which said messuage or dwelling-house, land, and hereditaments are more particularly delineated on the plan hereunto annexed, and are thereon coloured round with a blue line.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Thornton-in-Lonsdale, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and four pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the twenty-fifth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twelfth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the district chapelry or benefice of Saint Matthew, Yiewsley, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, one capital sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the of cost providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said district chapelry or benefice, according to plans and a specification to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said district chapelry or benefice of Saint Matthew, Yiewsley.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twelfth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

In the Court of the Vice-Warden of the Stannaries.
Stannaries of Cornwall:

In the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1862 and 1867, and of the Fortescue Tin Mining Company Limited.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition for the winding up of the above-named Company by the Court, was on the 18th day of February instant, presented to the Vice-Warden of the Stannaries by Zacharias Treganowan Williams, of Liskeard, within the said Stannaries, Ironfounder and Merchant, a creditor of the said Company; and that the said petition is directed to be heard before the Vice-Warden, at the Prince's Hall, in Truro, in the county of Cornwall, on Saturday, the 28th day of February instant, at ten o'clock in the forenoon. Any contributory or creditor of the Company may appear at the hearing and oppose the same, provided he has given at least two clear days' notice to the petitioner, his Solicitors, or their Agents, of his intention to do so, such notice to be forthwith forwarded to P. P. Smith, Esq., Secretary of the Vice-Warden, Truro. Every such contributory or creditor is entitled to a copy of the petition and affidavit verifying the same, from the petitioner, his Solicitors or their Agents, within twenty-four hours after requiring the same, on payment of the regulated charge per folio. Affidavits intended to be used at the hearing, in opposition to the petition, must be filed at the Registrar's Office, Truro, on or before the 26th day of February instant, and notice thereof must at the same time be given to the petitioner, his Solicitors or their Agents.—Dated Truro, February 18, 1874.

Hodge, Hochin, and Marrack, Truro,
Cornwall, Petitioner's Solicitors.

Gregory, Rowcliffes, and Rawle, 1, Bedford-row, London, Agents of the said Solicitors.
