WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the nineteenth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words and figures following, viz. :—

"Whereas your Majesty was graciously pleased, by your Order in Council, dated the seventh day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, to establish certain regulations for the admission of Seamen and Marines to the benefits of Greenwich Hospital, under the provisions of the third and fourth and fifth Sections of "The Greenwich Hospital Act, 1869"; and

"Whereas, we are humbly of opinion, from the experience which we have had of the working of the said regulations, that it would be expedient to limit the benefits of Greenwich Hospital to such men as have served not less than five years in your Majesty's Navy or Royal Marines, and have, within five years of their discharge, applied for the benefits of Greenwich Hospital; exception being made in the cases of men who do not fulfil those conditions, but whose existing disability arises from the effects of wounds, or disease, clearly attributable to the service; and of men who contributed to the funds of Greenwich Hospital, before the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and thirty.

"We do, therefore, beg leave to recommend that your Majesty will be graciously pleased, by your Order in Council, to repeal the Rules numbered 3 and 4, in your Majesty's said Order in Council, of the seventh day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, and to substitute the following, namely:—

"3. All petty officers and seamen of your Majesty's Navy, and all non-commissioned officers and privates of your Majesty's Corps of Royal Marines, who, having served for not less than five years, have, within five years of their application, been discharged or invalidated from your Majesty's service on account of disease or wounds contracted or received in or by the service of the Crown, and who are infirm and helpless, or permanently or temporarily unable to maintain themselves, from disability clearly the result of such disease or wounds.

"4. All petty officers and seamen of your Majesty's Navy, and all non-commissioned officers and privates of your Majesty's Corps of Royal Marines, who, having served for less than five years, have, within five years of their application, been discharged or invalidated from your Majesty's service on account of disease or wounds clearly attributable to the service of the Crown, and who are infirm and helpless, or permanently or temporarily unable to maintain themselves, from disability clearly the result of such disease or wounds.

"The following classes of men to be specially considered under Rule 5 of your Majesty's said Order in Council of the seventh day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, petty officers and seamen of your Majesty's Navy, and non-commissioned officers and privates of your Majesty's Corps of Royal Marines, who, having served for less than ten years, have been, at any date, discharged or invalidated from your Majesty's service on account of disease or wounds clearly attributable to the service of the Crown, who are infirm and helpless, or permanently or temporarily unable to maintain themselves, from disability clearly the result of such disease or wounds.

"Men who contributed to the funds of Greenwich Hospital before the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and thirty, if infirm and helpless, or permanently or temporarily unable to maintain themselves."

At the Court at Windsor, the 21st day of February, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted that Her Majesty may, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time reduce all or any of the dues for the time being payable in respect of existing or future lighthouses, buoys, or beacons for the time being under the management of the General Lighthouse Authorities therein mentioned (that is to say), the Corporation of Trinity House of Deptford Strond, the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses, and the Port of Dublin Corporation, now called the Commissioners of Irish Lights; and may also, by and with the like advice, from time to time increase or vary any of such dues, so that no dues payable in respect of any lighthouse, buoy, or beacon existing at the time when the said Act came into operation should be made to exceed the amount which had at any period previous to such time been received in respect thereof, or to which the said dues might during any part of such period as last aforesaid lawfully have been raised:

And whereas by Order in Council, dated the twenty-fourth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy (which came into operation on the first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy), Her Majesty was pleased to approve certain revised and amended New Consolidated Tables of Light Duties (Oversea Section) levied by the said General Lighthouse Authorities respectively in the form thereunto annexed, together with the several reductions, variations, abatements, regulations, and exemptions therein contained:

And whereas by Order in Council, dated the sixteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, Her Majesty was pleased to approve certain New Consolidated Tables of Light Duties (Coast Section) levied as aforesaid in the form thereunto annexed, together with the several reductions, variations, abatements, regulations, and exceptions therein contained:

"And whereas by Order in Council, dated the ninth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, Her Majesty was pleased to direct that, on and after the first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, the duties for all general passing lights, under the management of the said three General Lighthouse Authorities should be payable by coasting vessels once only for the whole voyage, out and home, subject, however, to the abatement or discount thereinafter mentioned; and also, that on and after the said first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, the abatement or discount to be allowed upon the amount of light duties should be fifty-five per centum and no more:

And whereas by various Orders in Council since made in pursuance of the said Act, in respect of certain new lights, certain tolls have been directed to be paid for oversea vessels, and for coasting vessels respectively, subject to the abatement or discount of fifty-five per centum, and the regulations and exemptions mentioned in the said New Consolidated Table of Light Duties, and the said Order in Council of the ninth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two:

And whereas, among the regulations and exemptions in the Oversea Section of the said New Consolidated Tables of Light Duties, it is provided that all vessels trading between ports in the United Kingdom and ports in Europe (excepting ports in the Mediterranean) should, in respect of every light passed on the whole voyage, out and at home, be liable to only one payment of dues for each general passing light:

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that it is expedient that all coasting vessels, and all vessels trading between ports in the United Kingdom and ports in Europe (excepting ports in the Mediterranean) should, instead of making one payment of dues for the voyage out and home, pay a moiety of dues for each light they pass or from which they derive benefit, whether on their voyage out or on their voyage home:

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that it is expedient that the said abatement or discount of fifty-five per centum on the amount of tolls hereinbefore referred to should be varied in manner hereinafter mentioned.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Her by the said recited Act, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to direct as follows, viz. :—

1. That on and after the first day of April, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, all coasting vessels, and all vessels trading between ports in the United Kingdom and ports in Europe (excepting ports in the Mediterranean) shall, in respect of every light passed or from which benefit may be derived, either on the voyage out or on the voyage home, be liable to one moiety of the duties as provided in the said New Consolidated Tables of Light Duties for each general passing light and for each local light under the management of the said General Lighthouse Authorities, subject, however, to the abatement or discount hereinafter mentioned.

2. That on and after the first day of April, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, the abatement or discount to be allowed upon the amount of tolls specified in the said New Consolidated Tables of Light Duties mentioned in the said Orders in Council of the twenty-fourth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, and the sixteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, and upon the amount of tolls specified in the said other Orders in Council hereinbefore referred to and in this Order in Council, shall, in the case of every oversea vessel and of every coasting vessel, be sixty per centum and no more.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 21st day of February, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the three hundred and thirty-third section of the "Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for every Pilotage Authority, by bye-laws made with the consent of Her Majesty in Council, from time to time to do within its district all or any of the things specified in that behalf in the said section :

And whereas the Pilot Commissioners of the Port of King's Lynn, being the Pilotage Authority for the Port of King's Lynn within the meaning of the said Act, have, in exercise of the powers in them vested by that Act, made and submitted for the consent of Her Majesty various bye-laws and regulations which have been approved by two Orders in Council, dated respectively the first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and the fourteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine :

And whereas the said Pilot Commissioners have made and submitted for the consent of Her Majesty, certain alterations of, and additions to, the existing bye-laws and regulations of the Pilot Commissioners with respect to Pilots, Pilotage, and Pilotage Dues within their district and under their jurisdiction (a copy whereof as altered is set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed) :

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that the said bye-laws and regulations so set forth as aforesaid are reasonable and proper, and that the rates therein set forth do not exceed the rates specified in an Act of Parliament (13 George III, c. 30), intituled "An Act for the better Regulation and Government of the Pilots conducting Ships and Vessels to and out of the Port of King's Lynn, and of the Bridgemen conducting gangs of lighters or barges to and from the same ; and for laying down moorings in the Harbour of the said Port, and for preventing mischiefs by Fire therein."

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in Her by the said Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to approve of and signify Her consent to the said bye-laws and regulations of the said Pilot Commissioners with respect to Pilotage within their district and under their jurisdiction, in lieu of the existing bye laws and regulations.

BYE-LAWS FOR THE REGULATION OF PILOTS AND PILOTAGE AT THE PORT OF KING'S LYNN.

Duties of Headsman.

1. The Headsman shall have the whole control of the pilotage in the channel, subject to the Merchant Shipping Acts, the Local Act of Parliament, the bye-laws, and the Board of Commissioners.

2. He shall attend at the Pilot Office at all reasonable hours, and shall always meet the person in charge of the pilot cutter or the tender whenever either vessel comes up. He is to provide for the inward and outward service in the most efficient manner, taking especial care that the roadstead is left without pilots as seldom as possible. He will be held responsible for the due carrying out of Rule 32, and it shall be his duty to report, in writing, to the Clerk of the Commissioners any case in which the pilot cutter shall be absent from the roads without sufficient cause.

3. He shall keep proper books and entries of pilot earnings, and distribute the same monthly, as directed by the Commissioners.

4. He shall keep a register of all ships arriving at and leaving the port, and a journal, in which shall be entered all accidents to vessels (however occurring) while in charge of a pilot, and lay them before the Board of Commissioners at every meeting.

5. He shall report to the Commissioners any case of misconduct or insubordination on the part of the pilots.

6. He shall every fortnight appoint a qualified pilot to take the command of the pilot cutter for the ensuing fortnight, and shall see that the rules regulating the turns of vessels for pilots are strictly carried out.

7. He shall, whenever necessary, cause signals to be displayed by flags at the Pilot Office to indicate the number of pilots required to go down with the pilot cutter or tender.

8. He shall personally survey the channel at least once in every month, and at such other times as he may consider necessary, keeping a record of such surveys for the information of the Commissioners, to be laid before them at every meeting.

9. He shall, on the first notice of any vessel or vessels being on shore and in distress within the port (in preference to all other things), send all the assistance in his power to such vessel or vessels. And all pilots having knowledge of such matters whilst in the channel, shall do their utmost to relieve such vessel or vessels without first coming up to town for the Headsman's orders for that purpose, but no proceedings shall be taken in the Admiralty Court or otherwise by the pilots for recovery of salvage without the consent of the Commissioners being first had and obtained.

10. He shall, in all cases where it shall appear to him that keels or barges coming up the channel can get into town the same tide, and do not proceed thither, discharge the pilot or pilots from the said keels or barges, unless sufficient cause be assigned to him for the delay.

Duties of the Master of the Pilot Cutter.

11. The Master of the Pilot Cutter for the time being shall, whenever the cutter comes up to town, report himself to the Headsman at the Pilot Office for instructions, and strictly adhere to them, as well as to any other orders he may from time to time receive from that officer by letter or otherwise.

12. He shall be responsible for the due performance of Rule 32, so far as relates to the cutter, for the orderly conduct of the pilots while on board the cutter, and for the proper boarding of vessels. He shall see that the requisite signals are hoisted, a proper watch kept, and generally that the bye-laws are enforced so far as relates to matters in the channel.

13. He shall report any instance of improper conduct on the part of any of the pilots to the Headsman.

14. He shall not leave the pilot cutter while down the channel except in cases of urgent necessity, and then only to take charge of a vessel.

Duties of Mates.

15. The Mates of the Pilot Cutter shall be appointed by, and hold office during the pleasure of, the Commissioners, and they must have served at sea at least three years immediately preceding their appointment. They must have attained the age of 18 years and must not exceed 25 years.

16. They shall carry out the instructions from time to time received from the Headsman and the Master of the Pilot Cutter, and shall take charge of the cutter in the absence of the master.

Duties of Pilots.

17. The Pilots shall strictly conform to the instructions of the Headsman while on shore, and when on board the pilot cutter or tender, of the pilot in command.

18. They shall severally report any accident occurring to any vessel in their charge to the Headsman immediately on their arrival at Lynn.

19. They shall always, on arrival at Lynn, report immediately to the Headsman what ship they have been on board, and where they have left her.

20. They shall take their regular turns in piloting ships or vessels either down or up the channel, as the Headsman or the Master of the Pilot Cutter for the time being shall direct.

21. They shall attend every day at the Pilot Office, when not employed in piloting, from the beginning of flood until high water, and at such other times of the day as are necessary, there to receive the orders and directions of their Headsman.

22. The pilot who shall have the charge of any ship or vessel lying in the roads, or at any place between the roads and the town, either inward or outward bound, shall not leave such ship or vessel, and go on shore, without first obtaining permission from the master of such ship or vessel.

23. Pilots appointed to pilot ships or vessels down the channel, shall on no account whatever, except by permission of the masters of such ships or vessels, leave or quit them (by allowing themselves to be put ashore), before their arrival at the Bell Buoy.

24. When any pilot shall, by accident or otherwise, lay any ship or vessel aground which he shall have in charge, such pilot shall not of his own accord, under any pretence whatever, leave the ship until she shall be afloat and in safety.

25. The pilots shall at all times board ships and vessels bound to Lynn, in preference to boarding vessels (being strangers) which may be in the roads, bound to any other port; and they shall, if on board any vessel not bound to Lynn, quit such vessel immediately on the arrival in the roads of any vessel wanting a pilot bound to Lynn.

26. They shall not on any account anchor Humber keels or other vessels so as to obstruct the free navigation of ships or vessels going up and down the channel.

27. Whenever any buoy or beacon shall be lost or out of its place, the pilots shall forthwith acquaint the Headsman with the circumstance, in order that it may be replaced with as little delay as possible.

28. All the pilots, but especially the Master of the Pilot Cutter for the time being, shall observe particularly any alteration which may take place in the channel, and report from time to time such alteration to the Headsman.

29. Each pilot shall be allowed a fortnight's leave of absence in every year at the discretion of the Headsman as to time; such leave, however, shall not be granted between the 1st October and 31st May, and any pilot having leave granted other than as above, shall pay to the earnings account 3s. 6d. per day during his absence.

30. If any pilot when in charge of any ship, by wilful breach of duty, or by neglect of duty, or by reason of drunkenness, does any act tending to the immediate loss, destruction, or serious damage of such ship, or tending immediately to endanger the life or limb of any person on board such ship; or if any pilot, by wilful breach of duty or by neglect of duty, or by reason of drunkenness, refuses or omits to do any lawful act proper and requisite to be done by him for preserving such ship from loss, destruction, or serious damage, or for preserving any person belonging to or on board of such ship from danger to life or limb, the pilot so offending shall, for each such offence, be liable to suspension or dismissal by the Commissioners.

The Pilot Vessels.

31. The pilot cutter and her tender shall always be at the disposal of the Headsman for the purpose of carrying on the pilot service generally, and for buoying, beaconing, and surveying in the channel, subject to the special orders of the Commissioners.

32. The pilot cutter, when in the roads, shall be either cruising or at anchor as near the Roadstead Buoy as circumstances will allow, the conveyance of the pilots not having vessels in their charge between the roadstead and the town, and vice versa, being performed under the direction of the Headsman by the cutter and tender conjointly. The cutter shall never be absent from the roads longer than is absolutely necessary, and she shall on no account leave the roads when any inward bound vessels shall be in sight with a probability of getting to Lynn on that tide without first providing them with pilots.

33. The pilot cutter shall be distinguished by the characteristics and signals following, that is to say :—

- (a.) A black colour painted or tarred outside, with the exception of such names and numbers as are hereinafter mentioned.
- (b.) On her stern the name of the owner thereof, and the port to which she belongs painted in white letters, at least one inch broad and three inches long, and on each bow the number of the license of such boat or ship.
- (c.) When afloat a flag at the mast head or on a spit, or staff, or in some other equally conspicuous situation, such flag to be of large dimensions compared with the size of the vessel carrying the same, and to be of two colours, the upper horizontal half white, and the lower horizontal half red.
- (d.) From sunset to sunrise a white light at the masthead visible all round the horizon, and a flare up light exhibited every fifteen minutes.
- (e.) In the daytime one black ball at the masthead in the place of the ordinary signal, to indicate that all the pilots have been boarded and a second black ball that more are required.

34. The pilot cutter and tender shall at all times when in town lie afloat, if possible, on the west side of the channel.

The Superannuation of Pilots.

35. Each pilot when superannuated shall receive twenty pounds per annum, to be paid by the Headsman of the pilots out of the aggregate earnings of the pilots in twelve equal monthly instalments.

36. No pilot licensed after the 1st day of March, 1864, shall be entitled to superannuation until he shall have served twenty-five years as working pilot.

General Regulations.

37. The pilots hereafter licensed shall be divided into second and first class pilots, but all the present pilots shall be of the first class.

- (a.) A candidate for the office of a pilot of the second class must have been employed for two years immediately preceding his appointment as mate of the pilot cutter, or five years at sea, two of which he must have served in the capacity of able seaman and chiefly on board vessels trading to this port. He must have attained the age of 21 years, and must not exceed 30 years.
- (b.) He will have to pass an examination before the Commissioners, and, if approved, he will be recommended to the Town Council as a proper person to become a licensed pilot.
- (c.) On receiving his license the Headsman may authorize him to conduct any vessels, not exceeding ten feet draft of water, into and out of this port.
- (d.) He will be entitled to participate in the monthly net earning of the pilots to the extent of two-thirds of the share of a first class pilot.
- (e.) A candidate for the office of a pilot of the first class must have been a second class pilot for two years, during which time his conduct must have been in all respects satisfactory. He will be required to pass a further examination before the Commissioners, and if approved will be admitted as a first class pilot, and authorized to conduct vessels of every description into and out of this port, and will be entitled to receive monthly a full share of the net earnings of the pilots.

38. The Headsman shall not excuse any pilot from the exercise of his duty on account of, or under any pretence of, illness, unless such illness shall be certified in writing under the hand of some known physician, surgeon, or apothecary.

39. Any pilot being excused as above, shall produce a similar certificate monthly, and at the end of three months from the date of the first certificate he shall, if still unable to discharge his ordinary duty, be put upon half-pay, and at the end of six months he shall, if eligible, be put on superannuation allowance.

40. If the pilot be not eligible to superannuation allowance, he shall remain on half-pay for twelve months, after which his pay shall cease, and if he shall be unable to resume his duties within two years after the date of his first certificate his name shall then be erased, and he shall cease to be a pilot of the port, but in any case in which the incapacity arises from injuries or illness sustained in the exercise of his duty as pilot, it shall be at the discretion of the Commissioners to award him any sum not exceeding £15 per annum.

41. Not more than one pilot shall be put on board any foreign or other ship or vessel, unless such ship or vessel shall have a signal of distress flying.

42. All masters of ships and vessels wanting pilots shall apply to the Headsman, at the Pilot Office, and there pay what shall be due for their pilotage both inward and outward, and for tides-works previous to a pilot being appointed to such ship or vessel.

43. Every master of a ship or vessel wanting pilot shall produce to the Headsman the meter's or other officer's certificate of clearance or discharge of the ship or vessel for which he applies for a pilot, and unless such certificate be produced to the Headsman, or he is otherwise satisfied that the ship or vessel has discharged her cargo, he is not to appoint a pilot to such ship or vessel; and the turns of outward bound vessels shall be regulated by the time of the inward cargo being discharge, or of their arrival if in refuge or ballast, no preference being given to any description of vessel.

44. The pilots shall (unless impracticable) board inward bound vessels at the Bell Buoy. The first ship or vessel arriving at the Bell Buoy (such buoy bearing north-west), shall be entitled to the first pilot, and every ship or vessel so arriving, and which cannot from her large burden or other unavoidable cause proceed up the channel immediately, shall be boarded in her turn, and the pilot shall remain on board till the vessel can proceed to town.

45. All vessels, whether inward or outward bound to or from Lynn, shall be free from the payment of pilotage in the event of such vessels not being able to obtain the services of a pilot, and in the event of any vessel inward bound arriving without a pilot within the Marsh Cut Banks, the employment of a pilot shall be entirely optional with the master of the vessel so arriving.

46. The shipowners of this port are requested to give strict charge to their several masters of ships or vessels to make a true report to the pilot, when boarded, of the time of their arrival at the Bell Buoy (such buoy bearing north-west), in order that the proper turns of their several vessels may be attended to.

47. When any ships or vessels are coming up the channel into town, and there are others in the harbour outward bound, wanting pilots, the first ship or vessel in turn shall claim the first pilot coming into town, and so on in turn as pilots may afterwards come in with ships and vessels.

48. All letters required to be delivered by the pilots on board ships in the roads shall be sent to the Pilot Office, and the Headsman shall provide a proper bag for the same to be kept under lock and key, and shall be answerable for the custody of such bag, and for proper steps being taken to secure the correct delivery of all letters placed in his charge; and a register shall be kept at the Pilot Office of all letters received by the Headsman, the date of receipt, and the date and mode of their delivery. In case of the non-delivery of any such letters within a reasonable time the cause shall be stated in the register, and the Headsman shall not communicate to any person (other than the pilots), the address of any letter received by him.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the fourth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of your Majesty, chapter eighty-two; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity, situate at Charing Heath, in the parish of Charing, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Charing, and of the parish of Lenham, in the said county of Kent, and in the said diocese of Canterbury, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Charing, and of the said parish of Lenham, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of the Holy Trinity, situate at Charing Heath as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Archibald Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation), with the consent of the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul, in the city and diocese of London, the patrons of the vicarage of the said parish of Charing (in testimony of which consent they the said Dean and Chapter have affixed their common or corporate seal to this representation), and with the consent of Aretas Akers, of Hayes Common, Beckenham, in the said county of Kent, and of Malling Abbey, in the same county, Esq., the patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Lenham (in testimony whereof he, the said Aretas Akers, has signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Charing, and of the said parish of Lenham, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of the Holy Trinity, situate at Charing Heath as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Charing Heath.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property now vested in us in the parish of Saint John the Baptist, in Peterborough, in the county of Northampton. Whereas, under and by virtue of a certain indenture, bearing date the thirtieth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and made or expressed to be made between the Reverend William Hill, Clerk, Vicar of the Vicarage of Saint John the Baptist, in Peterborough, in the county of Northampton, of the first part, us, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the second part, the Right Reverend Francis, Lord Bishop of Peterborough, patron of the said vicarage, of the third part, and us, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the fourth part, the lands and hereditaments described in the schedule hereto annexed, situate in the said parish of Saint John the Baptist, became and are now vested in us. And whereas the said lands and hereditaments are not subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant, but are now in our possession; but some portions thereof, on account of their character and situation, are unsuitable and inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time, and from time to time, think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly, that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such lands and hereditaments, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments, in writing, duly executed according to law from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the lands and hereditaments so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, or otherwise, as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale, from time to time, as occasion may arise, in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or hereditaments, or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some Government or parliamentary stock, or other public securities in England.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district, for spiritual purposes, out of the new parish of Saint Peter, Bournemouth, sometime part of the parish of Christ Church with Holdenhurst, in the county of Southampton, and in the diocese of Winchester.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portion of the said new parish of Saint Peter, Bournemouth, which is hereinafter mentioned and described (such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship), should be constituted a separate district, for spiritual purposes, in the manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas a sum of two thousand five hundred pounds of Four Pounds per centum Debenture Stock of the London and North-Western Railway Company has been contributed by certain persons, and transferred to our name, in the books of the said Company, to be held in trust by us, as and for a permanent endowment for the incumbent for the time being of the said district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, upon the understanding that the amount of the annual interest and dividends to accrue due on account of the said sum of stock shall be receivable by the said incumbent for the time being, when he shall have been duly licensed, and upon the further understanding that we should pay, out of the common fund created by the firstly herein-named Act, to the said incumbent for the time being of the said district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, when such incumbent shall have been duly licensed as before mentioned, the annual sum of fifty pounds, and upon the further understanding and condition that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said district, and of the nomination of the incumbent thereof, should be assigned in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas we have agreed and undertaken to make such grant of fifty pounds per annum as aforesaid, by an instrument to be executed by us under our common seal, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Harold, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that all that portion of the said new parish of Saint Peter, Bournemouth, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, and which is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named the district of Saint Michael, Bournemouth.

"And we further recommend and propose that the right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the incumbent thereof, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to, and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may, from time to time, be exercised alternately by Maria Helen Wanklyn, of Cheam, in the county of Surrey, Widow, and her heirs and assigns, and George Durrant, of the city of Norwich, Esquire, and his heirs and assigns, for ever, the first and every other alternate turn of nomination being vested in the said Maria Helen Wanklyn, and her heirs and assigns, and the remaining turns of nomination being vested in the said George Durrant, and his heirs and assigns.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Michael, Bournemouth, being:—

"All that portion of the new parish of Saint Peter, Bournemouth, some time part of the parish of Christ Church with Holdenhurst, in the county of Southampton, and in the diocese of Winchester, which is bounded on the south by the sea, and upon all other sides, that is to say, on the west, on the north, and on the east, by an imaginary line commencing upon the southern boundary of the said new parish, on the scashore at a point opposite to the southern end of Durley Chine-road; and extending thence, northward, for a distance of half a mile or thereabouts, to and along the middle of the said road to its junction with the Pool-road; and extending thence, north-westward, for a distance of ten chains or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named road to its junction at or near to the house called or known as Kurnella, with Queen's-road; and extending thence, north-eastward, for a distance of about a quarter of a mile, along the middle of the last-named road, to the centre of Queen's Bridge, which carries the same road over the stream called or known as the Bourne; and extending thence, south-eastward, for a distance of eighteen chains or thereabouts, along the middle of the said stream, to the centre of Astney Bridge, which carries Cambridge-road over the same stream; and extending thence, south-westward, for a distance of three chains or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with Crescent-road; and extending thence, generally south-eastward, for a distance of twenty-chains or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named road to its junction on the eastern side of the houses called or known as Branksome-chambers, with the Commercial-road; and extending thence, south-westward, for a distance of three chains or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with Victoria-road; and extending thence, for a distance of twenty-two chains or thereabouts, first south-eastward, then southward, and then eastward, along the middle of the last-named road to its junction at or near to the house called or known as Ottershaw, with the footpath which leads past the western side of the last-named house, and past the eastern side of the house called or known as 'The Beacon,' into the occupation road leading from the last-named house into the Exeter-road; and extending thence, south-eastward, for a distance of eight chains or thereabouts, along the middle of the said footpath, to its junction with the occupation road aforesaid, and continuing thence, still south-eastward, and in a direct line across the last-named road, and over the cliff, to the southern boundary of the said new parish of Saint Peter Bournemouth, upon the seashore as aforesaid."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the herein-before secondly mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patron and to the incumbent of the cure out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and such patron and incumbent have respectively signified their assent to the said scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.
