Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, MARCH 20, 1874.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
March 3, 1874.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that The Queen will hold a Drawing Room at Buckingham Palace, on Wednesday, the 25th of March next, at three o'clock.

N.B. The Knights of the several Orders are to appear in their Collars at the Drawing Room, it being a Collar-Day.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOM AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Ladies, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Room, at Buckingham Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented to The Queen must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Drawing Room, a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Lady who is to make the presentation, of her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's Command, that no presentations shall be made at the Drawing Room, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to the Queen.

It is not expected that Gentleman will present themselves at Drawing Rooms, except in attendance on the Ladies of their families.

Any Gentleman who under these circumstances should desire to be presented to The Queen, will observe the same regulations as are in force, for Her Majesty's Levees.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at two o'clock.

HERTFORD,

Lord Chamberlain.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
March 13, 1874.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Thursday, the 26th of March next, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at the Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulations that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, of his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is

Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at the Levee, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

HERTFORD,
Lord Chamberlain.

Her Majesty's Most Gracious Speech, delivered by the Lords Commissioners, to both Houses of Parliament, on Thursday, March 19, 1874.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I RECUR to your advice at the earliest period permitted by the arrangements consequent on the retirement of the late Administration.

My relations with all foreign Powers continue to be most friendly. I shall not fail to exercise the influence arising from these cordial relations for the maintenance of European peace, and the faithful observance of international obligations.

The marriage of my son, the Duke of Edinburgh, with the Grand Duchess Marie Alexandrovna of Russia, is at once a source of happiness to myself and a pledge of friendship between two great Empires.

The war with the King of Ashantee has terminated in the capture and destruction of his capital, and in negotiations which, I trust, may lead to a more satisfactory condition of affairs than has hitherto prevailed on the West Coast of Africa.

The courage, discipline, and endurance displayed by my forces, both of the land and sea service, together with the energy and skill evinced in the conduct of the expedition, have brilliantly maintained, under the most trying circumstances, the traditionary reputation of the British arms.

I deeply regret that the drought of last summer has affected the most populous provinces of my Indian Empire, and has produced extreme scarcity, in some parts amounting to actual famine, over an area inhabited by many millions. I have directed the Governor-General of India to spare no cost in striving to mitigate this terrible calamity.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

The estimates for the expenditure of the coming financial year will be forthwith submitted to you.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

The delay and expense attending the transfer of land in England have long been felt to be a reproach to our system of law, and a serious obstacle to dealings in real property. This subject has, in former sessions, occupied the attention of Parliament, and I trust that the measures which will now be submitted for your consideration will be found calculated to remove much of the evil of which complaint has been made.

You will probably be of opinion that the re-arrangement of the Judicature, and the blending of the administration of law and equity, which were effected for England by the enactment of last session, ought, on the same principles, to be extended to Ireland, and you will be asked to devote some part of your time to the accomplishment of this object.

The greater part of these changes would be inapplicable to the tribunals of Scotland; but you will be invited, as to that part of my Kingdom, to consider the most satisfactory mode of bringing the procedure upon appeals into harmony with recent legislation, and, among other measures relating to her special interests, a Bill for amending the law relating to Land Rights and for facilitating the Transfer of Land will be laid before you.

Serious differences have arisen, and remonstrances been made by large classes of the community, as to the working of the recent Act of Parliament affecting the relationship of Master and Servant, of the Act of 1871, which deals with offences connected with trade, and of the law of conspiracy, more especially as connected with these offences. On these subjects I am desirous that, before attempting any fresh legislation, you should be in possession of all material facts, and of the precise questions in controversy, and for this purpose I have issued a Royal Commission to inquire into the state and working of the present law with a view to its early amendment, if it should be found necessary.

A Bill will be introduced dealing with such parts of the Acts regulating the sale of intoxicating liquors as have given rise to complaints which appear to deserve the interference of Parliament.

Your attention will also be directed to the laws affecting Friendly and Provident Societies.

All these matters will require your grave consideration, and I pray that the Almighty may guide your deliberations for the welfare of my realm.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of March, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day, Edward Strathearn Gordon, Esquire, was, by Her Majesty's command, sworn of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his place at the Board accordingly.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of March, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HER Majesty in Council was this day pleased to appoint the Lord President of the Council, the Vice-President of the Committee of Council on Education, the Right Honourable Benjamin Disraeli, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, and the Right Honourable Edward Strathearn Gordon (Lord Advocate), to be a Committee of Council on Education in Scotland.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of March, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HER Majesty in Council was this day pleased, on a representation of the Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Council on Education, to appoint Ellis Ashmead Bartlett, Esquire, B.A. of Christ Church, Oxford; James Hamilton Wylie, Esquire, B.A. of Pembroke College, Oxford; and John Bailey Haslam, Esquire, M.A., Fellow of Saint John's College, Cambridge, to be three of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of March, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for amending the law relating to the Extradition of Criminals," it was amongst other things enacted, that where an arrangement has been made with any foreign State with respect to the surrender to such State of any fugitive criminals, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, direct that the said Act shall apply in the case of such foreign State; and that Her Majesty may, by the same or any subsequent Order, limit the operation of the Order, and restrict the same to fugitive criminals who are in or suspected of being in the part of Her Majesty's dominions specified in the Order, and render the operation thereof subject to such conditions, exceptions, and qualifications as may be deemed expedient:

And whereas a Treaty was concluded on the third day of December last between Her Majesty and the Emperor of Austria, King of Bohemia, &c., &c., and Apostolic King of Hungary, for the Mutual Extradition of Fugitive Criminals, which Treaty is in the terms following:—

HER Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and His Majesty the Emperor of Austria, King of Bohemia, &c., &c., and Apostolic King of Hungary, having judged it expedient, with a view to the better administration of justice and to the prevention of crime within the two countries and their jurisdictions that persons charged with or convicted of the crimes hereinafter enumerated, and being fugitives from justice, should, under certain circumstances, be reciprocally delivered up; Their said Majesties have named as their Plenipotentiaries to conclude a Treaty for this purpose, that is to say:

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the Right Honourable Sir Andrew Buchanan, a member of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Her Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to His Imperial and Royal Apostolic Majesty;

And His Imperial and Royal Apostolic Majesty, the Count Julius Andrassy, of Csik-Szent-Király, and Kraszna Horka, His Imperial and Royal Majesty's Privy Councillor, Minister of the Imperial House and of Foreign Affairs, Grand Cross of the Order of St. Stephen, &c.;

Who, after having communicated to each other their respective full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed upon and concluded the following Articles:—

NACHDEM Ihre Majestät die Königin des Vereinigten Königreiches von Grossbritannien und Irland, und Seine Majestät der Kaiser von Oesterreich König von Böhmen U. S. W. und Apostolischer König von Ungarn behufs besserer Verwaltung der Rechtspflege und zur Verhütung von Verbrechen innerhalb der beiden Reiche und deren Gerichtsbarkeiten so für zweckmässig befunden haben, dass Personen, welche der in diesem Vertrage aufgeführten strafbaren Handlungen beschuldigt oder wegen solcher Handlungen verurtheilt und vor der Justiz flüchtig geworden sind, unter bestimmten Umständen gegenseitig ausgeliefert werden sollen; so haben Ihre eben gedachten Majestäten behufs Abschlüssung eines solchen Vertrages zu Ihren Bevollmächtigten ernannt nämlich:

Ihre Majestät die Königin des Vereinigten Königreiches von Grossbritannien und Irland den Sehr Ehrenwerthen Sir Andrew Buchanan, Mitglied Ihrer Majestät Höchste Ehrenwerthen Geheimen Rathes, Grosskreuz des Höchste Ehrenwerthen Bath-Ordens, Allerhöchstihren ausserordentlichen und bevollmächtigten Botschafter bei Seiner kaiserlichen und königlich apostolischen Majestät;

Und Seine Kaiserliche und Königlich Apostolische Majestät, den Herrn Julius Grafen Andrassy von Csik-Szent-Király und Kraszna Horka, Allerhöchstihren wirklichen geheimen Rath, Minister des Kaiserlichen Hauses und des Aeussern, Grosskreuz des St. Stefan-Ordens, etc.;

Welche, nachdem sie sich gegenseitig ihre Vollmachten mitgetheilt und dieselben in guter und gehöriger Form befunden, die folgenden Artikel vereinbart und abgeschlossen haben:—

O FELSEGE Nagybritannia és Irhon egyesült Királyságának Királynéja és Ő Felsége Ausztria császára, Csehország királya s. a. t., és Magyarország apostoli Királya az igazságszolgáltatás jobb kezelése, és államaik valamint ezek hatóságának területén, a büntettek elkövetésének megakadályozása végett czélszerűnek látván, hogy oly személyek, a kik az ezen szerződésben elősorolt valamely büntetendő cselekmény elkövetésével vádoltatnak, vagy amiatt elítéltettek, és az igazság kiszolgáltatása elől megszöktek, határozott körülmények közt kölcsönösen kiadassanak; ezen czélból a most említett Felségek erre vonatkozó szerződés megkötésére teljhatamazottakul ki-neveztek, —névszerint:

Ő Felsége Nagybritannia és Irland egyesült Királyságok Királynéja:

Igen tisztelt Sir Andrew Buchanan, Ő Felsége nagyon tisztelt titkos tanácsának tagját, a nagyon tisztelt Bathrend nagykeresztését, Ő császári és apostoli királyi Felsége udvaránál rendkívüli és meghatalmazott nagykövetét; és

Ő császári és apostoli királyi Felsége:

Csikszentkirályi és krasznaorkai Gróf Andrassy Gyula urat, valóságos belső titkos tanácsosát, az uralkodó ház és a külügyek ministerét, a Szt. István rend nagykeresztését vitézét, s. a. t.

A kik, miután teljhatalmazványaikat egymással közölték s miután azokat helyeseknek s kellő alakban kiállítottaknak találták volna, a következő czikkeket állapították, illetőleg kötötték meg:—

ARTICLE I.

The High Contracting Parties engage to deliver up to each other those persons who, being accused or convicted of a crime committed in the territory of the one Party, shall be found within the territory of the other Party under the circumstances and conditions stated in the present Treaty.

ARTICLE II.

The crimes for which the extradition is to be granted are the following:—

1. Murder, or attempt to murder.
 2. Manslaughter.
 3. Counterfeiting or altering money, uttering or bringing into circulation counterfeit or altered money.
 4. Forgery or counterfeiting, or altering or uttering what is forged or counterfeited or altered; comprehending the crimes designated in the Austrian Penal Laws or in the Hungarian Penal Laws and Customs as counterfeiting or falsification of paper money, bank notes, or other securities, forgery or falsification of other public or private documents, likewise the uttering or bringing into circulation, or wilfully using such counterfeited, forged, or falsified papers.
- The definition is to be determined accordingly with the Austrian Penal Laws if the extradition shall take place from Austria, and accordingly with the Hungarian Penal Laws and Customs if the extradition shall take place from Hungary.

5. Embezzlement or larceny.
6. Obtaining money or goods by false pretences.
7. Crimes against bankruptcy law: comprehending the crimes considered as frauds committed by the bankrupt in connection with the bankruptcy, according with the Austrian Penal Laws if the extradition shall take place from Austria, and with the Hungarian Penal Laws if the extradition shall take place from Hungary.
8. Fraud by a bailee, banker, agent, factor, trustee, or director or member or public officer of any company, made criminal by any law for the time being in force.

ARTIKEL I.

Die hohen vertragschliessenden Theile verpflichten sich einander diejenigen Personen auszuliefern, welche wegen eines, auf dem Gebiete des einen Theiles begangenen strafbaren Handlung beschuldigt oder verurtheilt sind und in dem Gebiete des anderen Theiles aufgefunden werden, sofern die in dem gegenwärtigen Verträge angegebenen Fälle und Voraussetzungen vorhanden sind.

ARTIKEL II.

Die strafbaren Handlungen, wegen deren die Auslieferung zu gewähren ist, sind folgende:—

- (1.) Mord, Mordversuch.
- (2.) Todtschlag.
- (3.) Nachmachen oder Verfälschen von Metallgeld, Verausgabung oder Inverkehrbringen nachgemachten oder verfälschten Metallgeldes.
- (4.) Fälschen oder nachmachen oder Verändern, oder Inverkehrbringen von Getäuschem oder Nachgemachtem oder Verändertem umfassend alle Verbrechen, welche nach den oesterreichischen Strafgesetzen oder nach den ungarischen Strafgesetzen und Gewohnheiten als Nachmachen oder Verfälschen von Papiergeld, Banknoten oder anderen Werthpapieren, Nachmachung oder Verfälschung anderer öffentlichen oder Privat-Urkunden, imgleichen Verausgabung oder Inverkehrbringen oder wissentliches Gebrauchen solcher nachgemachten oder gefälschten Papiere bezeichnet sind. Der Begriff ist nach den oesterreichischen Strafgesetzen festzustellen, wenn die Auslieferung aus Oesterreich erfolgen soll, und nach ungarischen Strafgesetzen und Gewohnheiten wenn die Auslieferung aus Ungarn erfolgen soll.
- (5.) Diebstahl und Unterschlagung (Veruntreuung).
- (6.) Erlangung von Geld oder andern Sachen durch falsche Vorspiegelungen (Betrug).
- (7.) Betrügerischer Bankerott, umfassend die Verbrechen, welche, wenn die Auslieferung aus Oesterreich Platz greifen soll, nach den oesterreichischen Strafgesetzen, und wenn die Auslieferung aus Ungarn Platz greifen soll, nach den ungarischen Strafgesetzen als ein, von dem Gemeinschuldner in Zusammenhang mit dem Bankerott verübter Betrug anzusehen sind.
- (8.) Untreue Seitens eines Verwalters und Beauftragten, Banquiers, Agenten, Prokuristen, Vormundes oder Curators, Vorstandes, Mitgliedes oder Beamten irgend einen Gesell-

I. CZIKK.

Kötelezik magukat a magas szerződő felek, hogy az ezen szerződésben meghatározott esetekben és feltételek alatt egymásnak kölcsönösen kiadják azon személyeket, a kik az egyik fél országainak területén elkövetett büntetendő cselekmény elkövetésével vádoltatnak, vagy annak elkövetése miatt elítéltettek, s a másik félnek államterületén feltalátatnak.

II. CZIKK.

Azon büntetendő cselekmények, melyek miatt a kiadás engedélyezendő, a következők:

- 1.) Gyilkosság, a gyilkosság kísérlete.
 - 2.) Emberölés.
 - 3.) Hamis fémpénz készítése vagy valódi fémpénznek meghamisítása, hamis vagy hamisított fémpénznek kiadása vagy forgalomba hozatala.
 - 4.) Hamisítás, utánzás vagy megváltoztatás, vagy a hamisított, utánzott, vagy megváltoztatott tárgynak forgalomba hozatala, a mi alatt értetnek mindazon büntények, melyek az ausztriai büntető törvények vagy pedig a magyar büntető törvények és gyakorlatok szerint a papírpénz vagy bankjegy vagy más értékpapír utánzásának vagy meghamisításának, úgyszintén másnemű, hamis, köz- vagy magán okiratok készítésének, vagy a valódiak meghamisításának, hasonlóképen ily utánzott, hamis, vagy hamisított okiratok szándékos használatának v. forgalombahozatalának bünteteteit képezik.
- Ezen büntettek létezése, a mennyiben a kiadás Ausztriából kívántatnék, az ausztriai büntetőtörvénykönyv, a mennyiben pedig Magyarországból kívántatnék, a Magyarorszában hatályban levő törvények és gyakorlat szerint állapítandó meg.
- 5.) Lopás és sikkasztás.
 - 6.) Pénznek vagy egyéb dolgoknak álnok ámitgatasok (csalás) általi szerzése.
 - 7.) Csalárd bukás, mely magában foglalja azon cselekményeket, melyek, ha a kiadás Ausztriából kívántatnék, az ausztriai büntető törvénykönyv szerint csalást, ha pedig Magyarországból kívántatnék a kiadás, a magyar törvények szerint hamissággal párosult bukást képeznek.
 - 8.) Kezelők, megbízottak, bankárok, ügynökök, cégvezetők, gyámok gondnokok társulati előjárók, tagok, vagy hivatalnokok által elkövetett hűtlen eljárás, amennyiben ezen

9. Rape.
10. Abduction.
11. Child stealing, kidnapping, and false imprisonment.

12. Burglary or housebreaking.

13. Arson.

14. Robbery with violence or with menaces.

15. Threats by letter or otherwise with intent to extort.

16. Sinking or destroying a vessel at sea, or attempting to do so.

17. Assaults on board a ship on the high seas, with intent to destroy life, or to do grievous bodily harm.

18. Revolt, or conspiracy to revolt, by two or more persons on board a ship on the high seas, against the authority of the master.

19. Perjury or subornation of perjury.

20. Malicious injury to property, if the offence be indictable.

The extradition is also to take place for participation in any of the aforesaid crimes, as accessory either before or after the fact, provided such participation be punishable by the laws of both the Contracting Parties.

In all these cases the extradition will only take place from the Austro-Hungarian States when the crimes, if committed in Austria, would, according to Austrian law, constitute a "Verbrechen," or, if committed in Hungary, would, according to the laws and customs being in force in Hungary, constitute a crime ("buntett"); the extradition from Great Britain only when the crimes, if committed in England, or within English jurisdiction, would constitute an extradition crime, as described in the Extradition Acts of 1870 and 1873.

schaft, soweit diese Untreue nach den bestehenden Gesetzen mit Strafe bedroht ist.

(9.) Nothzucht.

(10.) Entführung.

(11.) Kinderraub, Menschenraub, unbefugte Einschränkung der persönlichen Freiheit eines Menschen.

(12.) Einbrechen und Eindringen in ein Wohnhaus oder dazu gehöriges Nebengebäude mit der Absicht, ein Verbrechen zu begehen, zur Tageszeit (housebreaking) oder Nachtzeit (burglary).

(13.) Vorsätzliche Brandstiftung (Brandlegung).

(14.) Raub mit Anwendung von Gewaltthätigkeiten oder Drossungen.

(15.) Erpressungen.

(16.) Vorsätzliche Versenkung oder Zerstörung eines Schiffes zur See, oder Versuch dieses Verbrechens.

(17.) Angriffe auf Personen an Bord eines Schiffes auf hoher See in der Absicht zu tödten oder eine schwere Körperverletzung zu verüben.

(18.) Widerstand mit Thatlichkeiten (revolt) gegen den Schiffsführer an Bord eines Schiffes auf hoher See, wenn dieser von zwei oder mehreren Personen verübt wird, oder Verschwörung zu einem solchen Widerstande.

(19.) Falsche eidliche Aussage, Verleitung zu derselben.

(20.) Boshafte Beschädigung fremden Eigenthums, insofern sie nicht blos als Uebertretung strafbar ist.

Die Auslieferung findet auch wegen Betheiligung an einer der vorbezeichneten strafbaren Handlungen statt, ohne Unterschied, ob die Betheiligung vor oder nach der That erfolgte, jedoch nur unter der Voraussetzung, dass sie nach den Gesetzen beider vertragschliessenden Theile als Verbrechen strafbar sei.

In allen diesen Fällen findet die Auslieferung aus den oesterreichisch-ungarischen Staaten nur dann Statt, wenn die strafbaren Handlungen, falls sie in Oesterreich begangen worden wären, nach dem oesterreichischen Gesetze ein Verbrechen begründen, oder falls sie in Ungarn begangen worden wären, nach den in Ungarn in Geltung stehenden Gesetzen und Gewohnheiten ein Verbrechen (buntett) begründen, die Auslieferung aus Grossbritannien aber nur dann, wenn die strafbare Handlung, falls sie in England oder innerhalb der Englischen Jurisdiktion begangen worden wäre, ein Auslieferungsverbrechen in Sinne der Extraditionsakte von 1870 und 1873 begründen würde.

hüttelség a fennálló törvények szerint büntetendő cselekményt képez.

9.) Erőszakos nemi közösiség.

10.) Elragadás.

11.) Gyermekrablás, emberrablás és törvénytelen letartóztatás.

18.) Lakházba vagy ahhoz tartozó melléképületbe, büntett elkövetésének szándékával való betörés vagy behatolás akár nappal ("house-breaking") akár éjnek idején ("burglary.")

13.) Szándékos gyújtogatás.

14.) Rablás, erőszak vagy fenyegetés alkalmazásával.

15.) Zsarolás.

16.) A tengeren levő hajónak szándékos elsüllyesztése vagy elpusztítása, ezen büntett elkövetésének kísérlete.

17.) Nyílt tengeren levő hajón létező személyeknek megtámadása, ölési vagy súlyos testi sértési szándékkal.

18.) Tettelegességgel járó ellenszegülés ("revolt") a nyílt tengeren levő hajónak vezetője ellen, ha két vagy több személy által követtetik el, úgyszintén ily ellenszegülésre való szövetkezés.

19.) Hamis eskü, és hamis esküre csábítás.

20.) Idegen tulajdon gonosz akaratú megsértése, mennyiben mint büntett üldözendő.

Az elősorolt büntetendő cselekményekben tett előtti vagy utáni részesség miatt, a kiadásnak szintén van helye, ha a részességre mindkét szerződő fél törvényei büntetést állapítanak meg.

Mindezen esetekben a kiadásnak az osztrák-magyar államokból csak azon föltétel alatt lesz helye, ha a büntettek, mennyiben Ausztriában követtetek el, az ausztriai büntető törvénykönyv szerint, ha pedig Magyarországon követtetek volna el, a Magyarországon hatályban levő törvények és gyakorlat szerint büntettet képeznek, Nagybritanniából azonban a kiadásnak csak azon föltétel alatt lesz helye, ha a büntettek, a mennyiben azok Angolországban vagy az angol hatóság területén követtetek volna el, az 1870^{ik} és 1873^{ik} évi kiadási törvény értelmében kiadási büntettet képeznének.

ARTICLE III.

In no case and on no grounds whatever shall the High Contracting Parties be held to concede the extradition of their own subjects.

ARTIKEL III.

In keinem Falle und aus keinem Grunde sollen die hohen Vertragschliessenden Theile gehalten sein, die Auslieferung der eigenen Unterthanen zuzugestehen.

III. CZIKK.

A magas szerződőfelek soha és semmi szin alatt sem köteleztetnek, saját alattvalóik kiadásának engedélyezésére.

ARTICLE IV.

The extradition shall not take place if the person claimed on the part of the Government of the United Kingdom, or the person claimed on the part of the Government of Austria-Hungary, has already been tried and discharged or punished, or is still under trial, in the Austro-Hungarian dominions, or in the United Kingdom respectively, for the crime for which his extradition is demanded.

ARTIKEL IV.

Die Auslieferung soll nicht stattfinden wenn die Person, deren Auslieferung aus Oesterreich-Ungarn verlangt wird, in einem der Länder der Oesterreichisch-ungarischen Monarchie, oder die Person, deren Auslieferung aus Grossbritannien verlangt wird, im vereinigten Königreiche, wegen derselben strafbaren Handlung, wegen deren die Auslieferung beantragt wird, in Untersuchung gewesen und ausser Verfolgung gesetzt worden, oder sich noch in Untersuchung befindet, oder bereits bestraft worden ist.

IV. CZIKK.

Nincs helye a kiadásnak, ha azon személy, a kinek Ausztriából vagy Magyarországból való kiadása kívántatik, az osztrákmagyar monarchia valamelyik országában, vagy pedig azon személy, a kinek kiadása Nagybritanniából kívántatik, az egyesült királyságban, ugyanazon büntetendő cselekmény miatt, mely miatt kiadása kívántatik, vizsgálat alatt állott, és azon eljárás meg lett szüntetve, vagy az illető egyén még vizsgálat alatt áll, vagy már megbüntetve lett.

If the person claimed on the part of the Government of the United Kingdom, or if the person claimed on the part of the Government of Austria-Hungary, should be under examination for any other crime in the Austro-Hungarian dominions, or in the United Kingdom respectively, his extradition shall be deferred until the conclusion of the trial, and the full execution of any punishment awarded to him.

Wenn die Person deren Auslieferung begehrt wird, in dem Staatsgebiete, wo sie sich befindet, wegen einer anderen strafbaren Handlung in Untersuchung oder Strafe ist, so soll ihre Auslieferung bis zur Beendigung dieser Untersuchung und vollendeter Vollstreckung der etwa gegen sie erkannten Strafe aufgeschoben werden.

Ha a személy, a kinek kiadása kívántatik, azon államterületen, a melyen tartózkodik, valamely más büntetendő cselekmény miatt vizsgálat vagy büntetés alatt áll, ezen esetben kiadása azon időre halasztandó, midőn ellene a vizsgálat befejeztetett, vagy midőn büntetését kiállotta.

Should an individual whose extradition is demanded be at litigation, or be detained in the country on account of private obligations, his surrender shall nevertheless be made, the injured party retaining the right to prosecute his claims before the competent authority.

Sollte ein Individuum dessen Auslieferung begehrt wird, wegen privatrechtlicher Verpflichtungen in Prozess stehen oder zurückgehalten werden, so soll dessen Auslieferung nichts-destowenger stattfinden; die verletzte Person behält jedoch das Recht ihre Ansprüche vor der zuständigen Behörde zu verfolgen.

Ha az egyén, a kinek kiadása kéretik, magánjogi kötelezettségek miatt perben állana, vagy visszatartatnék, kiadása ennek ellenére is eszközendő, fennmaradván a sértett félnek abbéli joga, hogy követelését az illetékes hatóság előtt érvényesítse.

ARTICLE V.

The extradition shall not take place if, with respect to the crime for which it is demanded, and according to the laws of the country applied to, criminal prosecution and punishment has lapsed.

ARTIKEL V.

Die Auslieferung soll nicht stattfinden, wenn in Betreff des Verbrechens, wegen dessen die Auslieferung begehrt wird, nach den Gesetzen des um die Auslieferung angegangenen Staates, die Strafverfolgung oder die Strafvollstreckung durch Verjährung erloschen ist.

V. CZIKK.

A kiadás nem eszközendő, ha azon büntetendő cselekményre nézve, mely miatt a kiadás kívántatik, az erre megkeresett állam törvényei szerint a bűnvádi eljárás elévülése folytán nem indítható meg, vagy a büntetés ugyanezen okból nem hajtható végre.

ARTICLE VI.

A fugitive criminal shall not be surrendered if the offence in respect of which his surrender is demanded is one of a political character, or if he prove that the requisition for his surrender has, in fact, been made with a view to try or punish him for an offence of a political character.

ARTIKEL VI.

Ein flüchtiger Verbrecher soll nicht ausgeliefert werden, wenn die strafbare Handlung, wegen deren seine Auslieferung begehrt wird, einen politischen Character an sich trägt, oder wenn er darthut, dass der Antrag auf seine Auslieferung in Wirklichkeit mit der Absicht gestellt worden ist, ihn wegen eines Verbrechens oder Vergehens politischer Natur zu verfolgen oder zu bestrafen.

VI. CZIKK.

A menekült büntetett nem adandó ki, ha a büntetendő cselekmény mely miatt kiadása kívántatik politikai jelleggel bírna, vagy ha igazoljai azt, hogy kiadása valósággal politikai természetű büntett vagy vétség miatti üldöztetése vagy megbüntetése céljából kívántatik.

ARTICLE VII.

If an individual whose extradition is demanded by either of the High Contracting Parties, in accordance with the terms of this Treaty, be also claimed by one or several other Powers on account of other crimes committed on their territory, he shall be surrendered to the Government in whose territory his gravest crime was committed; and if his crimes are all of the same gravity, or a doubt exists as to which is the gravest, to the Government which first made application for his surrender.

ARTIKEL VII.

Wenn ein Individuum dessen Auslieferung in Gemässheit dieses Vertrages von einer der beiden Vertragsmächte begehrt wird, noch von einer oder mehreren anderen Mächten wegen anderer Verbrechen, die in deren Gebiete begangen wurden, reklamirt wird, so ist dasselbe der Regierung, in deren Gebiete die schwerere Gesetzesübertretung begangen wurde, und wenn die von ihm verübten strafbaren Handlungen gleich schwer wären, oder wenn es zweifelhaft bleibe, welche die schwerere sei, derjenigen Regierung auszuliefern, welche zuerst das Ersuchen um die Auslieferung gestellt hat.

VII. CZIKK.

Ha azon egyén, kinek kiadása a szerződőfelek egyike által a jelen szerződés értelmében kívántatik, egy vagy több más állam által is, az ezek területén elkövetett más bűntettek miatt szintén kiadatni kívántatik, ez esetben az azon kormány-nak adandó ki, a melynek területén a súlyosb törvényszegést követte el, ha pedig az általa elkövetett büntetendő cselekmények súlyossága között nem lenne különbség vagy végre, ha kétes lenne, hogy melyik a súlyosabb büntetendő cselekmény, azon kormánynak adandó ki, mely legelőbb intézte a kiadás iránti megkeresést.

ARTICLE VIII.

A surrendered person shall in no case be kept in arrest or subjected to examination in the State to which he has been surrendered on account of another previous crime, or any other grounds than those of his surrender, unless such person has, after his surrender, had an opportunity of returning to the country whence he was surrendered, and has not made use of this opportunity, or unless he, after having returned there, reappears in the country to which he has already been surrendered.

ARTIKEL VIII.

Die ausgelieferte Person darf in dem Staate an welchen die Auslieferung erfolgt ist, keinenfalls wegen einer anderen früher begangenen strafbaren Handlung, oder auf Grund anderer Thatfachen als derjenigen, wegen deren die Auslieferung erfolgt ist, in Haft gehalten oder zur Untersuchung gezogen werden, es wäre denn, dass sie nach der Auslieferung Gelegenheit gehabt hätte, in das Land zurückzukehren, aus welchem sie ausgeliefert wurde, und diese Gelegenheit nicht benützt hätte, oder dass sie, nachdem sie dahin zurückgekehrt war, freiwillig in dem Land wieder erschienen wäre, an das sie schon einmal ausgeliefert wurde.

VIII. CZIKK.

A kiadott személy azon államban, melynek kiadatott, a kiadását megelőző időben elkövetett más büntetendő cselekmény miatt, vagy más tények alapján, mint azok, a melyek miatt kiadatott, semmi szín alatt sem tartható fogságban, vagy vonható vizsgálat alá, kivéven, ha kiadása után alkalma volt azon országba visszatérni, a melyből kiadatott 's ezen alkalmat nem használta fel, vagy ha visszatért ugyan, de önként ismét azon országba ment, a melynek egyszer már kiadva lett.

This stipulation does not refer to crimes committed after surrender.

Auf strafbare Handlungen, welche nach erfolgter Auslieferung verübt sind, findet diese Bestimmung keine Anwendung.

A kiadás után elkövetett büntetendő cselekményekre ezen határozat nem alkalmazható.

ARTICLE IX.

Requisitions for surrender shall be made by the Diplomatic Agents of the High Contracting Parties.

To the requisition for the surrender of an accused person there must be attached a warrant issued by the competent authorities of the State which demands extradition, and such proofs as would, according to the laws of the place where the accused was found, justify his arrest if the crime had been committed there.

If the requisition refers to a person already convicted, the sentence passed by the competent Tribunal of State demanding his surrender must be produced.

No requisition for surrender can

ARTIKEL IX.

Die Anträge auf Auslieferung sollen durch die diplomatischen Agenten der hohen vertragenden Theile gestellt werden.

Mit dem Antrage auf Auslieferung eines Beschuldigten müssen ein Haftbefehl, welcher von der zuständigen Behörde des die Auslieferung begehrenden Staates erlassen ist, und solche Beweise beigebracht werden, welche nach den Gesetzen des Ortes, wo der Beschuldigte aufgefunden wird, dessen Verhaftung rechtfertigen würden, wenn die strafbare Handlung dort begangen wäre.

Betrifft der Antrag eine bereits verurtheilte Person, so muss das Straf-urtheil beigebracht werden, welches von dem zuständigen Gericht des die Auslieferung begehrenden Staates gegen den Verurtheilten erlassen ist.

A kiadás iránti megkeresések a magas szerződőfelek diplomatai ügy-nökei által terjesztendők elő.

A kiadás iránti megkereséssel előterjesztendők a kiadást szorgalmazó állam illetékes hatósága által kibocsátott elfogatási parancs, és oly bizonyítékok, melyek, ha a büntetendő cselekmény ott követettett volna el, a hol a vádlott feltaláltatik, ezen helynek törvényei szerint vádlottnak elfogatását igazolnák.

Ha a kiadás iránti megkeresés már elítélt személyre vonatkozik: előterjesztendő a kiadást szorgalmazó állam illetékes bírósága által az elítélt ellen hozott büntető ítélet.

lott meg nem jelenése folytán hozott ítéletre (in contumaciam) nem alapítható.

ARTICLE X.

If the requisition for extradition be in accordance with the foregoing stipulations, the competent authorities of the State applied to shall proceed to the arrest of the fugitive.

The prisoner is then to be brought before a competent Magistrate, who is to examine him and to conduct the preliminary investigation of the case, just as if the apprehension had had taken place for a crime committed in the same country.

ARTIKEL X.

Wenn das Auslieferungs begehren nach den vorstehenden Bestimmungen begründet ist, so sollen die zuständigen Behörden des ersuchten Staates zur Festnahme des Flüchtlings schreiten.

Der Ergriffene wird sodann vor den dazu gesetzlich berufenen richterlichen Beamten gebracht, welcher ihn ebenso zu verhören und den Straffall verläufig zu untersuchen hat, als wenn die Ergreifung wegen einer im Inlande begangenen strafbaren Handlung erfolgt wäre.

X. CZIKK.

Ha a kiadatás iránti megkeresés, a fentebbi határozványok értelmében alapos, a megkeresett állam illetékes hatóságai kötelesek, a szökevény letartóztatása iránt intézkedni.

Ezután a letartóztatott egyén az illetékes bíró elé vezettetik, ki akképen köteles őt kihallgatni, és az eset előzetes vizsgálatát teljesíteni, mintha az elfogatás belföldön elkövetett büntetendő cselekmény miatt történt volna.

ARTICLE XI.

A fugitive criminal may, however, in urgent cases be arrested under a warrant of a Police Magistrate, Judge of the Peace, or of any other competent authority in either country, on such information or complaint, or such evidence as would, in the opinion of the person issuing the warrant, justify the issue of a warrant if the crime had been committed or the prisoner convicted in the district in which the authority happens to be; provided, however, that he shall be discharged if, within the shortest time possible, and at the utmost within fourteen days, a requisition for his surrender in accordance with the terms of Article IX of this Treaty is not made by the Diplomatic Agent of the State which demands his extradition.

ARTIKEL XI.

Ein flüchtiger Verbrecher kann ausserdem in dringenden Fällen in folge eines Verhaftsbefehles eines Polizeirichters, eines Friedensrichters, oder einer anderen in jedem der beiden Staaten hiezu berufenen Behörde, auf Grund solcher Anzeigen oder Beschwerden und solcher Nachweisungen oder nach solchen Erhebungen verhaftet werden welche nach dem Dafürhalten der Person, welche den Verhaftsbefehl ausstellt, die Ausfertigung eines Verhaftsbefehles rechtfertigen wurden wenn die Verübung der That oder die Verurtheilung des Gefangenen in dem Gebiete, in welchem sich diese Obrigkeit befindet, erfolgt wäre.

Vorausgesetzt wird übrigens, dass in der kürzesten Frist und zwar längstens binnen 14 Tagen bei sonstiger Entlassung des Verhafteten, durch den diplomatischen Vertreter des um die Auslieferung ersuchenden Staates, eine Requisition wegen der Auslieferung in der dem Artikel IX dieses Vertrages entsprechenden Weise erhoben wird.

XI. CZIKK.

A menekült büntettes azonfelül sürgős esetekben elfogható rendőrbíró, békebíró, vagy a szerződő államok bármelyikében erre illetékes más hatóság által, oly feljelentések, panaszok, bizonyítékok alapján, vagy oly nyomozások után kibocsátott elfogatási parancsra, melyek az elfogatási parancsot kibocsátó személynek véleménye szerint, a menekültnek elfogatását azon esetben indokolná, ha a cselekmény azon helyen követett volna el, vagy az ítélet ott hozott volna, a hol ezer felsőbbség létezik.

Feltételeztetik azonban, hogy a kiadatás iránti megkeresés a megkereső állam diplomatai képviselője által, az ezen szerződés IX. cikkének megfelelő módon, a legrovidebb idő's legfőlebb 14 nap alatt, elő fog terjesztetni, ellenkező esetben az elfogatott szabadon bocsátatik.

ARTICLE XII.

The extradition shall not take place before the expiration of fifteen days from the apprehension, and then only if the evidence be found sufficient, according to the laws of the State applied to, either to justify the committal of the prisoner for trial, in case the crime had been committed in the territory of the said State, or to prove that the prisoner is the identical person convicted by the Courts of the State which makes the requisition.

ARTIKEL XII.

Die Auslieferung erfolgt nicht vor Ablauf von fünfzehn Tagen seit der Ergreifung und nur dann, wenn die Beweise für genügend befunden worden sind, um nach den Gesetzen des ersuchten Staates entweder die Verweisung des Ergriffenen zur Hauptuntersuchung zu rechtfertigen, falls die strafbare Handlung im Gebiete dieses Staates begangen wäre, oder darzuthun, dass der Ergriffene mit der von den Gerichten des ersuchenden Staates verurtheilten Person identische ist.

XII. CZIKK.

A kiadás csak az elfogatás utáni 15 nap lejártával és csak az esetben eszközölhető, ha a bizonyítékok elegendőnek találattak arra, hogy az elfogott elleni fővizsgálatnak elrendelését, ha a büntetendő cselekmény a megkeresett állam területén követett volna el, ezen állam törvényei szerint indokolják, vagy azt bizonyítsák, hogy az elfogott egyén ugyanaz azzal, a ki a megkereső állam bíróságai által elítéltetett.

ARTICLE XIII.

In the examinations which they have to make in accordance with the foregoing stipulations, the authorities of the State applied to shall admit as entirely valid evidence the sworn depositions or statements of witnesses taken in the other State, or copies thereof, and likewise the warrants and sentences issued therein, provided such documents are signed or certified by a Judge, Magistrate, or Officer of such State, and are authenticated by the oath of some witness, or by being sealed with the official seal of the Minister of Justice, or some other Minister of State.

ARTIKEL XIII.

Die Behörden des ersuchten Staates haben bei der Prüfung, welche ihnen nach den vorstehenden Bestimmungen obliegt, den beeideten Zeugenaussagen, welche in dem anderen Staate zu Protokoll genommen sind, ingleichen den Abschriften solcher Original-Zeugenaussagen, und ebenso den Haftbefehlen und Strafurtheilen volle Beweiskraft beizulegen, vorausgesetzt dass diese Schriftstücke durch einen Richter, eine obrigkeitliche Person oder einen anderen Beamten dieses Staates unterzeichnet oder bescheinigt und durch einen beeidigten Zeugen oder durch Beidrückung des Amtssiegels des Justiz- oder eines anderen Staatsministers beglaubigt sind.

XIII. CZIKK.

A megkeresett állam hatóságai kötelesek a fennebbi határozatok szerint általuk teljesítendő bírálatnál, a másik államban jegyzőkönyvbe vett eskü alatti tanuvallomásoknak, úgyszintén ily eredeti tanuvallomási jegyzőkönyvek másolatainak, valamint az elfogatási parancsoknak és büntető ítéleteknek teljes bizonyító erőt tulajdonítani: föltéve, hogy ezen iratok azon állam valamelyik bírása, felsőségi személye vagy hivatalnok által irattak alá, és megeskütett tanu által, vagy az igazságügyminister vagy más államminister hivatali pecsétével hitelesítettek.

ARTICLE XIV.

If sufficient evidence for the extradition be not produced within two months from the date of the apprehension of the fugitive, he shall be set at liberty.

ARTIKEL XIV.

Wenn zur Auslieferung genügende Beweise nicht binnen zwei Monaten von dem Tage der Ergreifung des Flüchtligen an beigebracht werden, so ist der Ergriffene auf freien Fuss zu setzen.

XIV. CZIKK.

Ha a menekült letartóztatásától számított két hó alatt a kiadás engedélyezésére szükségelt bizonyítékok nem közöltetnének: a letartóztatott egyén szabad lábra helyezendő.

ARTICLE XV.

All articles seized, which were in the possession of the person to be surrendered at the time of his apprehension, shall, if the competent authority of the State applied to for extradition has ordered the delivery thereof, be given up when the extradition takes place; and this delivery shall extend not only to property of the accused, and to the stolen articles, but also to everything which may serve as a proof of the crime. If the extradition cannot be carried out in consequence of the flight or death of the individual who is claimed, the delivery of the above-mentioned objects shall take place nevertheless.

ARTIKEL XV.

Alle in Beschlag genommenen Gegenstände, welche sich zur Zeit der Ergreifung im Besitze des Auszuliefernden befinden, sollen, wenn die zuständige Behörde des um die des Auslieferung ersuchten Staates die Ausantwortung derselben angeordnet hat, bei Vollziehung der Auslieferung mit übergeben werden, und es soll sich diese Ueberlieferung nicht bloß auf die Habe des Verfolgten und auf die entfremdeten Gegenstände, sondern auf Alles erstrecken, was zum Beweise der strafbaren Handlung dienen kann.

XV. CZIKK.

Mindazon zár alá vett tárgyak, melyek a kiadandó egyén elfogatásakor ennek birtokában találtattak, ha azoknak kiadását a megkeresett állam illetékes hatóságai elrendelték, a büntetéssel együtt szolgáltatandók ki, 's ezen kiszolgáltatás nem csupán vádlott vagyónára 's az általa eltulajdonított tárgyakra, hanem mind azon dolgokra kiterjed, a melyek a büntetendő cselekmény bebizonyítására szolgálhatnak.

Wenn die Auslieferung, nachdem sie angeordnet worden ist, wegen Flucht oder Tod der reklamirten Individuums nicht mehr vollzogen werden kann, soll dennoch die Uebergabe der oberwähnten Gegenstände stattfinden.

Ha a már engedélyezett kiadás, a kiadatni kívánt egyén szökése vagy halála miatt nem is hajtható végre, a fentérintett tárgyak mégis kiadandók.

ARTICLE XVI.

Each of the Contracting Parties shall defray the expenses occasioned by the arrest within its territories, the detention, and the conveyance to its frontier, of the persons to be surrendered, in pursuance of this Treaty.

ARTIKEL XVI.

Jeder der vertragenden Theile wird die Kosten tragen, welche durch die Festnahme und Anhaltung der auf Grund dieses Vertrages auszuliefernden Personen innerhalb seiner Staatsgebiete und deren Transport bis an seine Grenzen verursacht werden.

XVI. CZIKK.

A szerződő felek mindegyike viseli azon költségeket, melyek az ezen szerződés értelmében kiadandó egyéneknek a kiadó állam területén eszközölt elfogatása, letartóztatása és saját határáig való elszállítása által okozatnak.

ARTICLE XVII.

The stipulations of the present Treaty shall be applicable to the Colonies and foreign possessions of Her Britannic Majesty.

The requisition for the surrender of a fugitive criminal who has taken refuge in any of such Colonies or foreign possessions shall be made to the Governor or chief authority of such Colony or possession by the chief Consular Officer of Austria-Hungary in such Colony or possession.

Such requisitions may be disposed of, subject always, as nearly as may be, to the provisions of this Treaty, by the said Governor or chief authority, who, however, shall be at liberty either to grant the surrender, or to refer the matter to his Government.

Her Britannic Majesty shall, however, be at liberty to make special arrangements in the British Colonies and foreign possessions for the surrender of Austro-Hungarian criminals, who may take refuge within such Colonies and foreign possessions, on the basis as nearly as may be, of the provisions of the present Treaty.

The requisition for the surrender of a fugitive criminal from any Colony or foreign possession of Her Britannic Majesty shall be governed by the rules laid down in the preceding Articles of the present Treaty.

ARTICLE XVIII.

The present Treaty shall come into force ten days after its publication, in conformity with the forms prescribed by the laws of the High Contracting Parties. It may be terminated by either of the High Contracting Parties, but shall remain in force for six months after notice has been given for its termination.

The Treaty shall be ratified, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at Vienna as soon as possible.

In witness whereof, the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the same, and have affixed thereto the seal of their arms.

ARTIKEL XVII.

Die Bestimmungen des gegenwärtigen Vertrages sollen auf die Colonien und auswärtigen Besitzungen Ihrer Grossbritannischen Majestät Anwendung finden.

Der Antrag auf Auslieferung eines flüchtigen Verbrechers, welcher in einer dieser Colonien oder auswärtigen Besitzungen Zuflucht gefunden hat, soll an den Statthalter oder die oberste Behörde dieser Colonie oder Besitzungen durch den obersten Consular Beamten der oesterreichisch-ungarischen Monarchie in dieser Colonie oder Besitzung gerichtet werden.

Ueber solche Anträge soll der gedachte Statthalter oder die gedachte oberste Behörde so viel als möglich nach den Bestimmungen des gegenwärtigen Vertrages vorgehen, jedoch soll denselben freistehen, entweder die Auslieferung zu bewilligen oder über den Fall an ihre Regierung zu berichten.

Ihre Grossbritannischen Majestät soll es jedoch freistehen, in den Britischen Colonien und auswärtigen Besitzungen über die Auslieferung von Staatsangehörigen der oesterreichisch-ungarischen Monarchie, welche innerhalb dieser Colonien und auswärtigen Besitzungen Zuflucht gefunden haben, auf möglichst gleicher Grundlage mit den Bestimmungen des gegenwärtigen Vertrages besondere Anordnungen zu treffen.

Anträge betreffend die Auslieferung von Verbrechern, welche aus einer Colonie oder auswärtigen Besitzung Ihrer Grossbritannischen Majestät geflüchtet sind, sollen nach den Bestimmungen der vorstehenden Artikel des gegenwärtigen Vertrages behandelt werden.

ARTIKEL XVIII.

Der gegenwärtige Vertrag soll zehn Tage nach seiner, in Gemässheit der durch die Gesetzgebung der hohen Vertragenden Theile vorgeschriebenen Formen erfolgten Veröffentlichung in Kraft treten. Der Vertrag kann von jedem der beiden hohen vertragenden Theile aufgekündigt werden, bleibt jedoch nach erfolgter Aufkündigung noch sechs Monate in Kraft.

Der Vertrag wird ratifizirt und die Ratifikationen werden so bald wie möglich, in Wien ausgewechselt werden.

Zu Urkund dessen haben die beiderseitigen Bevollmächtigten die gegenwärtige Uibereinkunft unterzeichnet und mit ihren Wappen untersiegelt.

XVII. CZIKK.

A jelen szerződés határozatai érvénnyel birnak Ő Nagybritanniai Felségének gyarmataiban és kültartományáiban is.

Az ezen gyarmatok vagy kültartományok valamelyikébe menekült büntettes kiadatása iránti megkeresés, az osztrák-magyar monarchia Consulságának az illető gyarmatban vagy kültartományban székelő legfőbb hivatalnoka által, a gyarmat vagy tartomány helytartójához, vagy legfőbb hatóságához intézendő.

A helytartó vagy az illető legfőbb hatóság köteles ily megkeresésre lehetőleg a jelen szerződés határozatai szerint eljárni, szabadságában álland azonban a kiadást vagy eszközölni, vagy pedig a felmerült esetről saját kormányához jelentést tenni.

Ő Nagybritanniai Felségének mindezenáltal szabadságában áll, gyarmataiban és kültartományáiban az osztrák-magyar monarchia oda menekült alattvalóinak kiadását a jelen szerződés határozataival lehetőleg azonos alapon külön intézkedések által szabályozni.

Oly megkeresések elintézésénél, melyek Ő Nagybritanniai Felségének valamely gyarmatából vagy kültartományából megmenekült büntettek kiadatására vonatkoznak, a jelen szerződés fentebbi cikkeinek határozatai alkalmazandók.

XVIII. CZIKK.

A jelen szerződés tíz nappal a magas szerződőfelek törvényei által megszabott módon eszközölt kihirdetése után lép hatályba.

Ezen szerződés a magas szerződőfelek bármelyike által felmondása után még hat hónapig érvényben marad.

E szerződés megerősítendő, s a megerősítések a lehető legrövidebb idő alatt kölcsönösen Bécsben kicserélendők.

Minek hiteül a jelen szerződést a mindkét rész teljhatalmazottai aláírták és pecsétjükkel ellátták.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and in virtue of the authority committed to Her by the said recited Act, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the thirtieth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, the said Act shall apply in the case of the said Treaty with the Emperor of Austria.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of March, 1874.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the first session of the Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to abridge the holding of benefices in plurality, and to make better provision for the residence of the clergy," after reciting that "Whereas, in some instances, tithings, hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong, with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may in some instances with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted "That when, with respect to his own diocese, it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said archbishop that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place or district within the diocese of such archbishop, or the diocese of such bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church, and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes; and the said archbishop or bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such bishop to be transmitted to the said archbishop for his consideration), describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent-charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested; and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by "such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modification thereof as the said archbishop may approve, and the said archbishop shall, on full consideration and inquiry, be satisfied with any such scheme, or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid, by his report to Her Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make an Order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect."

And whereas by another Act of Parliament, passed in the second and third years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne; and for other purposes," it is, amongst other things, further enacted, "That when, by any Order of Her Majesty in Council as aforesaid, a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes is constituted, the same shall, on registration thereof, and with the consent in writing of the incumbent or incumbents of the benefice or benefices to be thereby affected, become a perpetual curacy and benefice, and the minister thereof, duly nominated and licensed thereto, and his successors, shall be a body politic and corporate, with perpetual succession, and may receive and take to himself and his successor all such lands, tenements, tithes, rent-charges and hereditaments as shall be granted unto him or them, and such perpetual curate shall thenceforth have, within the limits of the district parish formed under the Church Building Acts, for the church of such perpetual curacy, sole and exclusive cure of souls, and shall not in anywise be subject to the control or interference of the incumbent or incumbents of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such Order, if he or they shall have consented to such Order as aforesaid; but if such incumbent or incumbents shall not have so consented thereto, this last-mentioned provision shall not come into operation until the next avoidance of the benefice by the incumbent objecting thereto, or by the surviving incumbent objecting, if more than one shall object thereto, and in such case the last-mentioned provision shall forthwith after such avoidance come into operation, and shall be binding on all persons whatsoever."

And whereas the Lord Bishop of Lincoln hath made a representation to his Grace the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, and hath drawn up a scheme, in writing, bearing date the seventeenth day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, and hath transmitted the said scheme to his said Grace, such representation and scheme, with the consent, in writing, of the said Bishop of Lincoln and the Reverend G. Harpur, Clerk, vicar of the vicarage of North Clifton, being in the words and figures following:—

"To the Most Reverend Archibald Campbell, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury.

"I, the Right Reverend Christopher, Lord Bishop of Lincoln, do hereby represent to your Grace that there is in the county of Nottingham, and diocese of Lincoln, the vicarage and parish church of North Clifton, to which belongs, amongst other places, the ancient parochial chapelry of Harby, the boundaries whereof are well known and defined.

"That the population of the parish of North Clifton, according to the census of 1871, exclusive of the said chapelry of Harby, amounts to 549 persons.

"That there is one church in the parish of North Clifton, affording accommodation for 280 persons or thereabouts.

"That the parish church of North Clifton is distant from the chapel of Harby about five miles.

"That the annual value of the said vicarage of North Clifton, after deducting a permanent drainage rate, and exclusive of a grant from the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of £120 per annum, as a stipend for a curate, is £286 4s. 2d.; arising from land, £221 14s. 4d.; tithe rent charge, £21 19s. 10d.; reserved rent, £22; and a grant of £20 10s. from the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England.

"That the said vicarage of North Clifton is in my patronage by virtue of my bishoprick.

"That the population of the said chapelry of Harby, according to the census of 1871, amounts to 370 persons.

"That there is one chapel or church in the said chapelry of Harby affording accommodation for about 150 persons, and that the sum of £1,800 has been contributed for the rebuilding of the same.

"That the said chapelry of Harby is treated as a separate parish for all civil purposes, and baptisms and churchings have been from time immemorial, and are now, solemnized in the chapel of the said chapelry. That since the 8th day of March, 1867, marriages have been solemnized in the chapel of the said chapelry, under a licence granted by the then Lord Bishop of Lincoln, under the provisions of an Act of Parliament made and passed in the 6th and 7th years of his late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter 85, intituled "An Act for Marriages in England." That the inhabitants of the said chapelry have from time immemorial buried their dead in the burial ground surrounding the said chapel, situate in the said chapelry.

"That there is in the county of Lincoln, and within the said diocese of Lincoln, and contiguous and adjoining to the said chapelry of Harby, an extra-parochial place, known by the name of Swinethorpe.

"That the population of the said extra-parochial place of Swinethorpe, according to the census of 1871, amounts to 56 persons.

"That there is no church or chapel within the limits of the said extra-parochial place.

"That the inhabitants thereof have no right to any pew or sitting in any church or chapel.

"That it appears to me, that the said chapelry of Harby, may, under the provisions of the Acts of the first and second years of Her present Majesty, chapter 106, and the second and third years of Her said Majesty, chapter 49, be advantageously separated from the said parish and parish church of North Clifton, and that the said chapelry of Harby, and the said extra-parochial place called Swinethorpe, may be advantageously united together and constituted a separate and distinct parish or benefice for ecclesiastical purposes.

"That if the said chapelry of Harby be separated from the said vicarage of North Clifton, and with the said extra-parochial place called Swinethorpe, constituted a separate benefice by the name and style of the perpetual curacy of Harby with Swinethorpe, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have decided to secure to the said perpetual curacy, as from the date of the Order in Council constituting the same, the grant of £120 per annum, which they now make towards the stipend of a curate for the parish of North Clifton with Harby. They also propose to annex to the new cure, a house and eight acres of land, adjoining the said chapel at Harby, which they have before proposed to make over to the said vicarage of North Clifton, and which may be taken as representing an income of £22 10s. per annum, and to make a further grant of £58 per annum, in augmentation of the income of the new benefice, thus raising the total income of the new benefice to £200 per annum. As by the foregoing arrangement, the house and eight acres of land, which it was previously proposed should be annexed to the vicarage of North Clifton, will be made over to Harby, the said Commissioners, will, when the formation of Harby into a separate benefice shall have been completed, secure to the said vicarage of North Clifton, a further grant of £22 10s. per annum.

"That pursuant to the direction contained in the 26th section of the said first-mentioned Act of Parliament, I, the said Lord Bishop, have drawn up a scheme, in writing, appended to this representation, describing the mode in which it appears to me that the alterations above proposed may be best effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration, in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews may be made with justice to all parties interested. And I do submit the same to your Grace, together with the consent, in writing, of me, the said Christopher, Lord Bishop, of Lincoln, the patron in right of my said bishoprick of the said vicarage of North Clifton, and of the Reverend George Harpur, Clerk, the vicar of the said vicarage of North Clifton, to the intent that your Grace may, if on full consideration and enquiry, you shall be satisfied with the said scheme, certify the same, and such consent to Her Majesty in Council.

"Scheme.

"That the chapelry of Harby be separated from the said vicarage and parish church of North Clifton aforesaid, and that the said chapelry of Harby, and that the said extra-parochial place called Swinethorpe, be united together and be constituted a separate and distinct benefice for all ecclesiastical purposes, by the name or style of the perpetual curacy of Harby with Swinethorpe, of which the said chapel in the said chapelry of Harby shall be the parish church and be and remain under the same ecclesiastical jurisdiction as the said vicarage of North Clifton now is :

That the incumbent of Harby with Swinethorpe shall have exclusive cure of souls within the limits of the said proposed separate parish and benefice :

"That baptisms, churchings, marriages, and burials arising, happening, or accruing within the said proposed separate parish and benefice of Harby with Swinethorpe shall be performed, celebrated, and take place in the church or chapel of Harby, and that the fees for all such and other ecclesiastical offices and all ecclesiastical dues, offerings, and other emoluments arising from or in respect of the said separate parish and benefice, and usually payable to the incumbent of a benefice shall belong and be paid to the incumbent thereof :

"That the inhabitants of the said chapelry of Harby shall be exonerated from all liability to repair the parish church of North Clifton, or any other church or chapel now or hereafter to be erected in the said parish, but shall, with the inhabitants of the said extra-parochial place called Swinethorpe, be liable, subject to the provisions of 'The Compulsory Church Rate Abolition Act, 1868,' to repair the said church or chapel of Harby, and the vicar of North Clifton shall henceforth cease to be liable to repair or to contribute to the repair of the chancel of the church or chapel of Harby.

"That the said inhabitants of Harby with Swinethorpe shall be entitled to resort to and attend the said church or chapel at Harby aforesaid as their parish church, and to be accommodated with sittings therein, but shall not henceforth be entitled to any accommodation in the parish church of North Clifton.

"That nothing herein contained shall affect or be construed to affect the right of patronage to the said benefice of North Clifton, but that the same shall remain, continue, and be, as it now is, and that the patronage of the said benefice of Harby with Swinethorpe shall also be vested in the said Lord Bishop and his successors for ever.

"Given under my hand the 17th day of February, in the year of our Lord 1874.

"C. Lincoln."

"Consent.

"I, the Right Reverend Christopher, Lord Bishop of Lincoln, in right of my bishoprick the patron or person entitled to present to the vicarage of North Clifton in case the same were now vacant, and I, the Reverend George Harpur, Clerk, the vicar of the said vicarage of North Clifton, do hereby severally and respectively signify our consent to the scheme above proposed, and to every matter and thing therein contained.

"Witness our hands the seventeenth of February, in the year of our Lord 1874.

"C. Lincoln.

"G. Harpur."

And whereas his said Grace, the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, hath, pursuant to the provisions of the said Acts, certified the said scheme and such consents as aforesaid by his report to Her Majesty in Council, bearing date the seventh day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words and figures following ; that is to say :—

"To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"We, the undersigned, Archibald Campbell, Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury, do hereby report to your Majesty in Council, that the Right Reverend Christopher, Lord Bishop of Lincoln, has represented unto us (amongst other things) that there is in the county of Nottingham, and diocese of Lincoln, the vicarage and parish church of North Clifton to which belongs, amongst other places, the ancient parochial chapelry of Harby, the boundaries whereof are well known and defined. That the parish church of North Clifton is distant from the chapelry of Harby about five miles. That there is in the county of Lincoln, and diocese of Lincoln, and contiguous and adjoining to the said chapelry of Harby, an extra-parochial place known by the name of Swinethorpe, the inhabitants whereof have no right to any pew or sitting in any church or chapel. That it appears to the said Lord Bishop, that under the provisions of the Acts of Parliament of the first and second years of your Majesty's reign, chapter 106, and of the second and third years of your Majesty's said reign, chapter 49, the said parochial chapelry of Harby may be advantageously separated from the said vicarage and parish church of North Clifton, and that the said chapelry of Harby and the said extra-parochial place called Swinethorpe may be advantageously united together, so as to form a separate parish or benefice for ecclesiastical purposes, of which the church or chapel in the said chapelry of Harby shall be the parish church. That the said Lord Bishop has drawn up a scheme, in writing, describing the mode in which it appears to him the proposed alterations may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alterations in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested, which scheme, together with the consents thereto of the patron of the said vicarage and parish church of North Clifton with the said chapelry of Harby, and of the incumbent of the said parish church, has been transmitted by the said Lord Bishop to us for our consideration. The representation and scheme of the said Lord Bishop and the consents before referred to are hereunto annexed. And we, the said Archbishop, being, on full consideration and inquiry, satisfied with the said scheme, do hereby, pursuant to the said Act of the first and second years of your Majesty's reign, certify the same and such consents as aforesaid, to the intent that your Majesty in Council may, in case your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do, make and issue an Order for carrying the said scheme into effect. As witness our hands this twenty-seventh day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

"A. C. Cantuar."

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of Her Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said scheme of the said Lord Bishop of Lincoln be carried into effect.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of March, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the nineteenth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty, King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church called or known as Charles Chapel, situate within the limits of the parish of Charles, Plymouth, in the county of Devon, and in the diocese of Exeter.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church called or known as Charles Chapel, situate within the limits of the parish of Charles, Plymouth as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Frederick, Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Charles, Plymouth, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church called or known as Charles Chapel, situate within the limits of the parish of Charles, Plymouth as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Luke, Plymouth.'

"And with the like consent of the said Frederick, Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church called or known as Charles Chapel, and situate as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that so long as the Reverend Henry Addington Greaves, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Charles, Plymouth, shall continue to be such vicar or incumbent, all the fees which may be received in respect of such publication, solemnization, or performance at the said church called or known as Charles Chapel, and situate as aforesaid, shall be paid over by the minister thereof to the said Henry Addington Greaves; and, provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Luke, Plymouth, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Charles, Plymouth, in the county of Devon, and in the diocese of Exeter, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the south-west, partly by the new parish of Christ Church, Plymouth, and partly by the parish of Saint Andrew, Plymouth, both in the county and diocese aforesaid, and upon all other sides, that is to say, on the south-east, on the east, and on the north, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Andrew, Plymouth, from the parish of Charles, Plymouth aforesaid, at the point where Old Town-street, Saltash-street, and Tavistock-street all meet; and extending thence, north-eastward, along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with the street or road called or known as Tavistock-place; and continuing thence, still north-eastward, for a distance of three chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named street or road, to a point opposite to the north-western end of the wall or fence forming the south-western boundary of the site of the building called or known as Charles Chapel (the said Charles Chapel being the consecrated church to which the district chapelry herein described is to be assigned); and extending thence, south-eastward, to and along the said wall or fence to its junction with the wall or fence forming the south-eastern boundary of the said site; and extending thence, north-eastward, along the last-described wall or fence to its junction with the wall or fence forming the north-eastern boundary of the same site; and extending thence, north-westward, along the last described wall or fence, to its north-western end on the south-eastern side of the street or road called or known as Tavistock-place aforesaid; and continuing thence, still north-westward, and in a direct line, to a point in the middle of the last-named street or road; and extending thence, north-eastward, for a distance of six chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the same street or road, to its junction with Gibbons-lane; and extending thence, first eastward and then south-eastward, along the middle of the last-named lane, to its junction with Gilwell-street; and extending thence, north-eastward, along the middle of the last-named street, to its junction with Camden-street; and extending thence, eastward, along the middle of the last-named street, to its junction with Prospect-street; and extending thence, northward, along the middle of the last-named street, and across Armada-street, and along the middle of Nelson-street, to the junction of the last-named street with Almond-street; and extending thence, north-westward, along the middle of the last-named street, to its junction with the street or road called or known as Amity-place; and extending thence, southward, along the middle of the last-named street or road, to its junction with the street or road called or known as Bedford-place; and extending thence, north-westward, along the middle of the last-named street or road, to its junction with Tavistock-road; and extending thence, south-westward, along the middle of the last-named road, to its junction with the street or road called or known as Portland-place; and extending thence, westward, along the middle of the last-named street or road, to its junction with a certain lane or passage leading into Victoria-street; and extending thence, southward, along the middle of the last-described lane or assage, to its junction with Victoria-street aforesaid; and extending thence, westward, along the middle of the last-named street, to its junction with James-street; and extending thence, northward, along the middle of the last-named street, to its junction with John-lane; and extending thence, westward, along the middle of the last-named lane, to its junction with John-street, with Albany-place, and with a certain lane or passage leading into Cobourg-street; and extending thence, south-westward, along the middle of the last-described lane or passage, to the boundary at the junction of the same lane or passage with Cobourg-street aforesaid; which boundary divides the said parish of Charles, Plymouth, from the new parish of Christ Church, Plymouth aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council, now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Exeter.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Paul, situate at Cliftonville, in the new parish of The Trinity, Margate, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Paul, situate at Cliftonville as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Archibald Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we,

the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of The Trinity, Margate, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Paul, situate at Cliftonville as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Paul, Cliftonville.'

"And with the like consent of the said Archibald Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Paul, situate at Cliftonville as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always that so long as the Reverend Samuel Prosser, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said new parish of The Trinity, Margate, shall continue to be such vicar or incumbent, all the fees which may be received in respect of such publication, solemnization, or performance at the said church of Saint Paul, situate at Cliftonville as aforesaid, shall be paid over by the minister thereof to the said Samuel Prosser; and provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Paul, Cliftonville, being:

"All that part of the new parish of The Trinity, Margate, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury, which is bounded on the north by the sea, and upon all other sides, that is to say, on the west, on the south-west, on the south-east, and on the east by an imaginary line commencing upon the northern boundary of the said new parish, at a point on the sea shore at or near to the northern end of the iron fence which forms the eastern boundary of the buildings and premises called or known as the Clifton Baths, and extending thence southward to and along the said fence to its southern end, on the northern side of the street or road called or known as Ethelbert-terrace, and a little to the west of Athelston-road, and continuing thence still southward, and in a direct line to a point in the middle of the said street or road called or known as Ethelbert-terrace, and extending thence westward for a distance of sixty-seven yards or thereabouts along the middle of the same street or road to its junction with Ethelbert-road, and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-named road, and along the middle of Bath-road, to the boundary at the junction of the last-named road with the Dane-road, which divides the said new parish of The Trinity, Margate, from the parish of Saint John the Baptist, Thanet, otherwise called Margate, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and extending thence for a distance of seven hundred and forty-six yards or thereabouts, first eastward and thence south-eastward, along the last-mentioned boundary, thereby following the course of the last-named road to the junction of the same road with the carriage road leading to Northdown and extending thence, that is from the said last mentioned boundary, north-eastward along the middle of the last-described road to its junction with the Northdown footpath and extending thence north-eastward and in a direct line for a distance of three hundred and sixty-three yards or thereabouts, to the point where Northdown-road is joined by a certain cross road leading to Hodge's Bridge, otherwise called Second Gateway, and extending thence generally northward along the middle of the said cross road to the northern boundary of the said new parish of The Trinity, Margate, at or near to the northern end of the same road upon the sea shore aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Canterbury.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of March, 1874.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fifth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes, to be taken out of the new parish of Saint Paul, Newington, sometime part of the parish of Saint Mary, Newington, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said new parish of Saint Paul, Newington, which is hereinafter mentioned and described (such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship) should be constituted a separate district in the manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas certain hereditaments and premises situate within the said parish of Saint Mary, Newington, have become vested in us under the provisions of, and for the purposes of, the herein-mentioned Acts, or of some of them, and we have, in respect of such hereditaments and premises, agreed to make and pay out of the common fund created by the firstly herein-mentioned Act to the minister or incumbent of the district hereinafter mentioned to be constituted, so soon as such minister shall have been appointed and licensed in accordance with the provisions of the secondly herein-mentioned Act, and to his successors, a grant of two hundred pounds per annum; and also, so soon as a church shall have been erected within and for such district, and shall have been approved by us, and shall have been consecrated as the church of such district, and such district shall have thereupon become a new parish within the meaning of the secondly hereinbefore-mentioned Act, to make and pay out of the same fund such further grant as will suffice to raise the income of the incumbent of such new parish to three hundred pounds per annum.

"And whereas such grants as aforesaid will be made by an instrument or instruments, to be executed by us under our common seal, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

"And whereas a sum of three thousand pounds sterling has been contributed, and paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England by certain persons, to be applied in and towards the provision of a church for the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted.

"And whereas the said sum of three thousand pounds sterling has been so paid to us as aforesaid, upon the understanding and condition that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) we should recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council that the whole right of patronage of the said district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereto, or (as the case may be) of the incumbent of the new parish which such district will, or may hereafter become as aforesaid, should be assigned in manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of London (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said new parish of Saint Paul, Newington, which is mentioned and described in the schedule hereunder written, and which is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Agnes, Kennington Park.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereto, or (as the case may be) of the incumbent of the new parish, which such district will or may hereafter become, shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to, and be vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised jointly by, the Reverend Henry Parry Liddon, Canon of the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul, in the said diocese of London, Doctor in Divinity, the Reverend Edward King, Canon of the Cathedral Church of Christ, Oxford, Doctor in Divinity, the Reverend Charles Edward Brooke, of No. 123, Vassall-road, Kennington, in the said county of Surrey, Clerk in Holy Orders, Charles Lindley Wood, of No. 32, Lowndes-square, in the county of Middlesex, Esquire, commonly called the Honourable Charles Lindley Wood, and John Archibald Shaw Stewart, of No. 13, Queen's-gate, Kensington, in the said county of Middlesex, Esquire, and their heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Agnes, Kennington Park, being:—

"All that part of the new parish of Saint Paul, Newington, sometime part of the parish of Saint Mary, Newington, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of London, which is bounded on the south-east by the new parish of All Souls, Grosvenor Park, in the said county and diocese, on the south-west partly by the district of Saint John the Divine, Kennington, and partly by the district parish of Saint Mark, Kennington, both in the said county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Winchester, on the north-west, partly by the said district parish of Saint Mark, Kennington, and partly by the parish of Saint Mary, Newington aforesaid, and on the remaining side, that is to say, on the north-east, partly by the last-named parish and partly by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said last-named parish from the new parish of Saint Paul, Newington aforesaid, at the point near the eastern angle of Kennington Park, where the street or road called or known as South-place is joined by the street or road called or known as Doddington-grove and by Cook's-road; and extending thence, south-eastward, along the middle of the last-named road to its intersection by Lorrimore-road; and extending thence, north-eastward, along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with Hieron-street; and extending thence, south-eastward, along the middle of the last-named street (thereby crossing Hill-street), to the boundary (midway between Hill-street aforesaid and Beresford-street), which boundary divides the said new parish of Saint Paul, Newington, from the new parish of All Souls, Grosvenor Park aforesaid."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly-mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patron and to the incumbent of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Paul, Newington, out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and such patron and incumbent have respectively signified their assent to the said scheme:

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of March, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parochial chapelry of Holdenhurst, annexed to the parish of Christ Church, in the county of Southampton, and in the diocese of Winchester, and out of the new parish of Saint Peter, Bournemouth, sometime part of the said parish of Christ Church.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said parochial chapelry of Holdenhurst, and of the said new parish of Saint Peter, Bournemouth, which are hereinafter mentioned and described (such portions not at present containing within their limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship), should be constituted a separate district, in manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas, for the purpose of providing an endowment for the said proposed district, certain persons have caused a sum of six hundred and fifty pounds Four Pounds per centum Debenture Stock of the Midland Railway Company to be transferred into our name in the books of the same Company, to be held in trust by us as and for a permanent endowment for the incumbent for the time being of the said district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and the amount of the annual interest and dividends to accrue due on account of the said sum of stock to be receivable by the said incumbent for the time being, when he shall have been duly licensed.

"And whereas, for the purpose of providing a further endowment for the same district, certain persons have subscribed a sum of one thousand five hundred and sixty-five pounds and eleven shillings sterling, and have caused the same to be expended in the purchase of the several pieces or parcels of land, messuages, hereditaments, and premises hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas by a certain deed or indenture, bearing date on or about the eleventh day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, and made under the provisions of The New Parishes Acts, 1843, 1844, and 1856, or some or one of them, between John Bayfield Clark, of Trowbridge, in the county of Wilts, Esquire, of the first part, Samuel Wray, formerly of Lincoln's-inn-fields, in the county of Middlesex, but now of Balham, in the county of Surrey, Surveyor, of the second part, the Reverend Alexander Morden Bennett, Clerk, vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Peter, Bournemouth, of the third part, Edward Tylee, of Essex-street, Strand, in the said county of Middlesex, Gentleman, of the fourth part, and us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the fifth part (which deed is intended to be enrolled in your Majesty's High Court of Chancery at Westminster), in consideration of the said sum of one thousand five hundred and sixty-five pounds and eleven shillings sterling, paid as in the same deed is mentioned, the said John Bayfield Clark did, as therein mentioned, grant, and the said Samuel Wray did, as therein mentioned, grant and confirm, and the said Alexander Morden Bennett did release and confirm unto the said Edward Tylee and his heirs certain pieces or parcels of land situate at Balham, in the said county of Surrey, fronting a road formerly called Balham-grove, but now called Merivale-street, leading from and out of the high road from London to Tooting, which said pieces or parcels of land, with the abutments and boundaries thereof, are more particularly delineated in the plan drawn in the margin of the said deed or indenture, and are thereon coloured pink, and also the ten messuages or tenements or other buildings erected and standing on the said pieces or parcels of land, to have and to hold the said pieces or parcels of land, messuages, and hereditaments, and all and singular other the premises expressed to be granted and released unto the said Edward Tylee and his heirs, to the use of the said Alexander Morden Bennett and his heirs and assigns, until an incumbent shall have been appointed and licensed to the said district hereinafter recommended to be constituted; and when and so soon as such incumbent shall have been appointed and licensed, then to the use of the incumbent of the said district, and his successors, incumbents thereof for the time being for ever; subject, nevertheless, to several indentures of lease (the particulars whereof, and the yearly rents, amounting together to the yearly sum of seventy-four pounds and eleven shillings, or thereabouts, which are reserved thereby, are set forth in the first schedule appended to such deed or indenture), and subject to a declaration in the same indenture contained, that no use should arise in favour of any incumbent under the limitation thereinbefore contained and hereinbefore mentioned, unless he should be appointed and licensed before the expiration of twenty-one years from the date of the same indenture.

"And whereas the said debenture stock of the Midland Railway Company, and the messuages, hereditaments, and premises hereinbefore referred to; have been so provided as aforesaid, upon the understanding that we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, should, out of our common fund created by the firstly hereinbefore-mentioned Act, pay to the incumbent for the time being of the said district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act, a grant of fifty pounds per annum, and upon the further understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient), the whole right of patronage of the said district, and of the nomination of the incumbent thereto, should be assigned in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas we have agreed and undertaken to make such grant of fifty pounds per annum as aforesaid, by an instrument to be executed by us under our common seal in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Harold, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said parochial chapelry of Holdenhurst and of the said new parish of Saint Peter, Bournemouth, which are described in the schedule hereunder written (all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed), shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint John, Moordown.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the incumbent thereof, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and become absolutely vested in and shall and may be exercised by the said Edward Harold, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, and his successors, bishops of the same diocese, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or to any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference:—

"The District of Saint John, Moordown, being;—

"All that portion of the parochial chapelry of Holdenhurst annexed to the parish of Christ Church, in the county of Southampton, and in the diocese of Winchester, and also all that contiguous portion of the new parish of Saint Peter, Bournemouth, sometime part of the said parish of Christ Church, which said portions of such parochial chapelry, and of such new parish, are bounded on the north-west by the county of Dorset, and upon all other sides, that is to say, on the south-west, on the south-east, on the north-east, and on the north, by an imaginary line commencing upon the said county boundary at a point on the western boundary of the new parish of Saint Peter, Bournemouth aforesaid, in the middle of New Talbot-road; and extending thence south-eastward for a distance of rather more than half a mile along the middle of the said road to its junction, at Malmesbury Farm with the Wimborne-road; and extending thence for a distance of fifty-two chains or thereabouts, first south-westward and then south-eastward along the middle of the last-named road to the boundary at the junction of the said last-named road with Throop-road, which divides the said new parish of Saint Peter, Bournemouth, from the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Bournemouth, in the first-named county and diocese; and extending thence north-eastward for a distance of one mile and three quarters or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named road (thereby following in part the last-described boundary) to the junction of the same road with the Christ Church and Wimborne-road; and extending thence north-westward for a distance of fifty-five chains or thereabouts along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with the Muscliff-road; and extending thence north-eastward for a distance of thirty-five chains or thereabouts along the middle of the last-named road to its junction at Muscliff with the road which leads past the eastern side of Muscliff aforesaid to the River Stour; and extending thence north-westward for a distance of eleven chains or thereabouts along the middle of the last-described road to the southern bank of the said river; and continuing thence still north-westward, and in a direct line to a point in the middle of the same river; and extending thence westward for a distance of thirty-five chains or thereabouts along the middle of the said river to the county boundary aforesaid, which at this point forms the western boundary of the said parochial chapelry of Holdenhurst."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly-mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patrons and incumbents of the cures out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and such patrons and incumbents have respectively signified their assent to the said scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of March, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King

George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Paul, commonly called Peel Chapel, situate in the township of Little Hulton, in the parish of Deane, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Paul, situate in the township of Little Hulton as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Deane, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Paul, commonly called Peel Chapel, situate in the township of Little Hulton as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Paul, Peel.' And, with the like consent of the said James, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Paul, situate in the township of Little Hulton as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received, in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that so long as the Reverend William Bashall, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Deane, shall continue to be such vicar or incumbent, all the fees which may be received in respect of such publication, solemnization, or performance at the said church of Saint Paul, situate as aforesaid, shall be paid over by the minister thereof to the said William Bashall; and provided also that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference :—

"The District Chapelry of Saint Paul, Peel, being :—

"All that part of the parish of Deane, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which consists of a portion of the township of Little Hulton, and is comprised within, and is bounded by, an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the new parish of Saint James, New Bury, in the said county and diocese, from the parish of Deane, aforesaid, at the point at Buckley-lane End, where Buckley-lane, Spa-lane, and Clegg's-lane all meet; and extending thence south-westward for a distance of forty-seven chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named lane to the centre of the bridge which carries the same lane over the line of the Little Hulton Extension Branch of the London and North-Western Railway; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said branch line of railway to a point at the centre of the bridge which carries Hulton or Hilton-lane over the same branch line of railway, upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Deane from the consolidated chapelry of Saint Paul, Walkden Moor, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and extending thence first south-westward, and then south-eastward along the last-described boundary (thereby following the course of Hulton or Hilton-lane aforesaid) to the point at or near to Burgess's Farm, where the same boundary is joined by the boundary which divides the said parish of Deane from the new parish of Saint Mark, Worsley, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and extending thence, first south-westward, and then generally westward along the last-described boundary to its junction near Shude Hill with the boundary which divides the said parish of Deane from the district parish of Tyldesley-cum-Shakerley, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and extending thence generally north-westward along the last-described boundary to its junction, a little to the north of the house called or known as Hurst's, with the boundary which divides the township of Little Hulton, in the said parish of Deane, from the township of Middle Hulton, in the same parish; and extending thence, first generally north-eastward, and then eastward along the said township boundary to its junction with the boundary which divides the said parish of Deane from the new parish of Saint James, New Bury, aforesaid; and continuing thence generally eastward along the last-described boundary, to the first-described point at Buckley-lane End, where Buckley-lane, Spa-lane, and Clegg's-lane all meet as aforesaid, at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church situate within the limits of the ancient chapelry of Hollinfare, in the parish of Warrington, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Chester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church, situate within the limits of the said ancient chapelry of Hollinfare.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend William, Bishop of the said diocese of Chester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Warrington, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church, situate within the limits of the ancient chapelry of Hollinfare as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Hollinfare.'

"And with the like consent of the said William, Bishop of the said diocese of Chester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being; Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference :—

"The District Chapelry of Hollinfare being :—

"All that part of the parish of Warrington, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Chester, which is comprised within, and is co-extensive with, the limits of the ancient chapelry of Hollinfare, which said ancient chapelry is co-extensive with and consists of the two hamlets of Rixton and Glazebrook, which together constitute the township of Rixton-cum-Glazebrook."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council : now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chester.

Arthur Helps.

At the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of March, 1874.

PRESENT;

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-ground or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time, as circumstances may require ; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered ; provided also that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish :

And whereas the Right Honourable Robert Lowe, late one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous consent of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein with the modifications hereinafter specified :

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the twenty-sixth day of January last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the ninth day of March one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any of the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials in the said parishes shall be discontinued (except as herein otherwise directed), as follows : viz. :—

ST. MARGARET'S, LEE, KENT.—Forthwith wholly in the old and new churchyards, except in now existing family vaults and walled graves, in which each coffin shall be separately enclosed in an airtight manner ; and except also in now purchased family earthen grave spaces, in which coffins can be buried not less than four feet below the surface without the exposure of other coffins, or the disturbance of remains ; such grave spaces to be used only for the burial of their owners, or the wives, parents, children, brothers or sisters of such owners.

LLANGYNWYD, GLAMORGANSHIRE.—Forthwith wholly in the burial grounds of Saron, Salem, Herman, and Bethama Chapels, in Maesteg, in the parish of Llangynwyd, except for the burial of members of the families of the respective congregations, and of those who have been buried in these burial grounds ; no grave to be used unless it can be opened without exposing coffins or disturbing remains.

LOPEN, SOMERSETSHIRE.—In Lopen Churchyard after the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, except in now existing vaults and walled graves, in which each coffin shall be separately enclosed by brickwork or stonework properly cemented, and except also in earthen graves for the burial of the widowers and widows of those already interred therein.

ST. JOHN'S, YEADON, GUSELEY.—Forthwith wholly in St. John's Churchyard, and in the burial grounds of the Wesleyan and Primitive Methodist Chapels, Yeadon, except in vaults which are free from water, each coffin buried in which shall be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented ; and except in earthen graves, not less than four feet deep, which are free from water, and can be opened without exposure of coffins or disturbance of remains. Also that no new grave be made within one foot of any other grave; and that burials in the church and chapels be wholly discontinued.

SUTTON, SURREY.—Forthwith wholly in the churchyard of St. Nicholas, Sutton, Surrey, except in existing vaults or walled graves, and in such as can be constructed, or in earthen graves which can be opened, without exposing coffins or disturbing buried remains, that every coffin buried in vaults or walled graves be separately enclosed in stonework or brickwork properly cemented, and that burial in the church be wholly discontinued.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the School Board of Horley, appointed under "The Elementary Education Act, 1870," have, in virtue of the powers conferred upon them by the seventy-fourth section of that Act, with the approval of the Education Department, made certain Bye-laws, bearing date the twelfth of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, numbered 277:

And whereas all the conditions in regard to the said Bye-laws, which are required to be fulfilled by the said Act, have been fulfilled, and the said Bye-laws have been submitted for the sanction of Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said Bye-laws (copy whereof is hereunto annexed) into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to declare, and doth hereby declare, Her sanction of the same.

Arthur Helps.

Bye-Laws referred to in the foregoing Order.

No. CCLXXVII.

THE ELEMENTARY EDUCATION ACT,
1870.

Parish of Horley.

PROPOSED BYE-LAWS OF THE SCHOOL BOARD,

As passed by the Board on the 12th day of January, 1874.

Interpretation of Terms.

I. In these Bye-laws—

Terms importing males include females.

The terms used when they are the same as those defined in the third section of the Elementary Education Act, 1870, shall have the same definition as therein given to each of them respectively.

The term "School" or "Public Elementary School" shall mean a Public Elementary School as defined by the said Act.

Requiring Parents to cause Children to attend School.

II. Subject to the provisions of the Elementary Education Act, 1870, and of these Bye-laws, the parent of every child not less than five years of age, nor more than thirteen years of age, residing within the parish of Horley, in the county of Surrey, shall cause such child (unless there is some reasonable excuse) to attend school.

Determining Time during which Children shall attend School.

III. The time during which every child shall attend school, shall be the whole time for which the school shall be open for the instruction of children of similar age: provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent the withdrawal of any child during the time or times in which any religious observance is practised, or instruction in religious subjects is given, and that no child shall be required to attend school on any day exclusively set apart for religious observance by the religious body to which his parent belongs, or on Sunday, Christmas Day, Good Friday, or any day set apart for a day of Public Fast or Thanksgiving, or to attend school if such requirement would be contrary to any thing contained in any Act for regulating the education of children employed in labour.

Provision for Total or Partial Exemption from Attendance, if Child has reached a certain Standard.

IV. In case one of Her Majesty's Inspectors shall certify that any child between ten and thirteen years of age has reached the fifth standard of education mentioned in the New Code of Regulations of the Education Department, made on the 7th day of February, 1871, such child shall be totally exempt from the obligation to attend school; and any such child who has been so certified to have reached the fourth standard of education mentioned in the said Code, shall be exempt from the obligation to attend school more than fifteen hours in any one week.

Defining reasonable Excuses for Non-attendance.

V. Any of the following reasons shall be a reasonable excuse, namely:—

- (1.) That the child is under efficient instruction in some other manner.
- (2.) That the child has been prevented from attending school by sickness or any unavoidable cause; or any cause which to the School Board shall seem satisfactory.
- (3.) That there is no Public Elementary School open which the child can attend within two miles and a half, measured according to the nearest road, from the residence of such child.

Providing for the Remission of School Fees in case of Poverty.

VI. When the parent of any child satisfies the said Board that he is unable from poverty to pay the whole, or any part of the school fees of such child, the said Board will, in the case of a school provided by the said Board, remit the whole, or such part of the fees, as in the opinion of the said Board the parent is unable to pay, for a renewable period to be fixed by the Board, not exceeding six calendar months.

Penalty for Breach of Bye-laws.

VII. Any person committing a breach of these Bye-laws, or any of them, shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding 2s. 6d.; provided that all breaches of these Bye-laws by a parent in one and the same week, shall be deemed one offence, and that no penalty imposed for the breach of any Bye-law shall exceed such a sum as, with the costs, will amount to 5s. for each offence.

Date on which Bye-laws come into operation.

VIII. These Bye-laws shall take effect from and after the day on which the same shall be sanctioned by Order in Council.

Samuel J. Knight, Chairman.

G. Carter Morrison, Clerk.

12th January, 1874.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of March, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the School Board of Conisborough, appointed under "The Elementary Education Act, 1870," have, in virtue of the powers conferred upon them by the seventy-fourth section of that Act, with the approval of the Education Department, made certain Bye-laws, bearing date the twenty-eighth of November, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, numbered 278:

And whereas all the conditions in regard to the said Bye-laws which are required to be fulfilled by the said Act, have been fulfilled, and the said Bye-laws have been submitted for the sanction of Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said Bye-laws (copy whereof is hereunto annexed) into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to declare, and doth hereby declare, Her sanction of the same.

Arthur Helps.

Bye-laws referred to in the foregoing Order.

No. CCLXXVIII.

THE ELEMENTARY EDUCATION ACT, 1870.

Parish of Conisborough.

BYE-LAWS OF THE CONISBOROUGH SCHOOL BOARD.

(Under the 74th Section of the Elementary Education Act, 1870.)

At a Meeting of the School Board for the parish of Conisborough, held in the Board Room, on the 28th day of November, 1873, at which meeting four of the Members of the Board are present, the said Board do hereby, in pursuance of the powers to them given by the Elementary Education Act, 1870, and subject to the approval of the Education Department, make and ordain the following Bye-laws:—

Definition of Terms.

1. The terms hereinafter used, when they are the same as those defined in the third section of the Elementary Education Act, 1870, shall have the same definition as therein given to each of them respectively.

Attendance.

2. The parent of every child of not less than five years nor more than thirteen years of age, residing within the parish, shall cause such child to attend school unless there be a reasonable excuse for non-attendance.

Any of the following reasons shall be deemed to be a reasonable excuse:—

- (a.) That the child is under efficient instruction in some other manner.
- (b.) That the child has been prevented from attending school by sickness, or any unavoidable cause.
- (c.) That there is no Public Elementary School open which the child can attend within three miles, measured according to the nearest road, from the residence of such child.

Time of Attendance.

3. The time during which children subject to these Bye-laws shall attend school shall be the whole time during which the school shall be open for the instruction of children of the same sex, age, and class; provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent the withdrawal of any child from any religious observance or instruction in religious subjects, or shall require any child to attend school on any day exclusively set apart for religious observance by the religious body to which his parent belongs, or shall require any child to attend school if such requirement would be contrary to anything contained in any Act for regulating the education of children employed in labour.

Remission of Fees.

4. If the parent of any child satisfies the School Board that he or she is unable, from poverty, to pay the school fees of such child, the School Board will, in the case of a school provided by the Board, remit the whole or such part of the school fees as, in the opinion of the Board, the parent is unable from poverty to pay, for a renewable period, to be fixed by the Board, not exceeding six calendar months.

Penalty for Breach of Bye-laws.

5. Every parent who shall not observe or shall commit a breach of these Bye-laws, or any of them, shall, upon conviction, be liable to a penalty not exceeding five shillings, including costs, for each offence.

Provision for Total or Partial Exemption from Attendance.

6. Any child between ten and thirteen years of age, who has been certified by one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools to have reached a standard of education which would enable it to pass a public examination in the fifth standard of education of the Government Code of 1873, shall be totally exempt from the obligation to attend school; and any child of the like age, who has been in like manner certified as having reached a standard of education which would enable it to pass an examination in the fourth standard of the said Code, shall be exempt from the obligation to attend school more than one-half of the meetings in any one week.

Date on which Bye-Laws shall come into operation.

7. These Bye-laws shall take effect from and after the day on which the same shall be sanctioned by Her Majesty by Order in Council.

Sealed with the Common Seal of the School Board for the parish of Conisborough, this 28th day of November, 1873.

John Blyth, Vice-Chairman of the Board.

Charles William Ferdinand, Clerk to the Board.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of March, 1874.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the School Board of Worth, appointed under "The Elementary Education Act, 1870," have, in virtue of the powers conferred upon them by the seventy-fourth section of that Act, with the approval of the Education Department, made certain Bye-laws, bearing date the nineteenth of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, numbered 279 :

And whereas all the conditions in regard to the said Bye-laws, which are required to be fulfilled by the said Act, have been fulfilled, and the said Bye-laws have been submitted for the sanction of Her Majesty in Council : now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said Bye-laws (copy whereof is hereunto annexed) into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to declare, and doth hereby declare, Her sanction of the same.

Arthur Helps.

Bye-laws referred to in the foregoing Order.

No. CCLXXIX.

THE ELEMENTARY EDUCATION ACT,
1870.

WORTH SCHOOL BOARD.

BYE-LAWS

(Under the 74th Section of the Elementary Education Act, 1870.)

Definition of Terms.

In these Bye-laws, all words importing the masculine gender shall be deemed and taken to include females, and the singular to include the plural, and the plural the singular, unless the contrary as to gender or number is expressly provided.

The word "Parent" includes guardian, and every person who is liable to maintain, or has the actual custody of any child.

The definition of other terms contained in the Elementary Education Act, 1870, shall be deemed and taken to apply to these Bye-laws.

Bye-law 1.

The parent of every child, not less than five nor more than eleven years of age in the case of boys, and not less than five nor more than twelve years of age in the case of girls, residing within the parish of Worth, shall, in default of reasonable excuse, cause such child to attend school.

Any of the following reasons shall be a reasonable excuse :—

- (a.) That the child is under efficient instruction in some other manner.
- (b.) That the child has been prevented from attending school by sickness or any unavoidable cause, or any cause which to the Board shall seem satisfactory.
- (c.) That there is no Public Elementary School open which the child can attend within two miles, measured according to the nearest road, from the residence of such child.

Bye-law 2.

The time during which every child shall attend school shall be the whole time during which the school is open for the instruction of children of similar age :

Provided that nothing contained in these Bye-laws shall prevent the withdrawal of any child from any religious observance or instruction in religious subjects, or shall require any child to attend school on any day exclusively set apart for religious observance by the religious body to which his parent belongs, or shall require any child to attend school if such requirement would be contrary to anything contained in any Act for regulating the education of children employed in labour.

Bye-law 3.

In case one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools shall certify that any child has reached the fifth Standard of Education set out in the New Code of Regulations of the Education Department, 1871, such child shall be exempt from the obligation to attend school ; and any such child who has been so certified to have reached the fourth Standard of Education set out in the said Code, shall be exempt from the obligation to attend school more than fifteen hours in any one week.

Bye-law 4.

The School Board may, by order for any period not exceeding six calendar months, pay or remit the whole or any part of the school fees payable at any Public Elementary School by any child resident in their district whose parent may satisfy them that he is unable from poverty to pay the same ; but no such payment shall be made, or refused, on condition of the child attending any Public Elementary School other than such as may be selected by the parent ; such order may from time to time be renewed for a period not exceeding six calendar months at any one time, on the parent again satisfying the Board that he is unable from poverty to pay such school fees.

Provided always that no such school fees shall be paid or remitted in the case of any parent who is in receipt of permanent relief from any Board of Guardians.

Provided also that no such school fees shall be paid or remitted where such parent shall be an able-bodied person except in some or one of the following cases, viz. :—

- (a.) Where such parent shall be unable to pay such school fees on account of any sickness, accident, or bodily or mental infirmity, affecting such parent, or his wife, or children.
- (b.) Where such parent shall be a widow, or woman deserted by her husband, or compelled to live separate from him on account of his cruelty or adultery, or shall be a woman earning her own living within the meaning of the first section of the Married Woman's Property Act, 1870, or who may have obtained a protection order under Statute 20 and 21 Vic., c. 85, or any Act amending the same, or shall be a woman whose husband is confined in any prison, gaol, or place of safe custody.
- (c.) Where the person who is liable to maintain, or has the actual custody of any child, herein and in the Elementary Education Act, 1870, called the parent, is not the father or mother of such child.

Provided, nevertheless, that if any case shall arise not hereinbefore provided for, in which the said School Board shall consider it advisable to pay or remit such school fees, they may make an order for such payment or remission, to be in force for a period not exceeding one calendar month only, instead of six calendar months, with power from time to time to renew such order for a further period, not exceeding one calendar month at one time, on the parent again satisfying the Board that he is unable from poverty to pay such school fees, but in any case in which such order is made under this proviso, the reason for making the same shall be expressly entered in the minute book, or order book of the Board.

Bye-law 5.

Any person committing a breach of any of these Bye-laws shall, for each offence, be subject to a penalty not exceeding two shillings and sixpence, provided that no penalty shall exceed such amount as with the costs will amount to five shillings for each offence.

Bye-law 6.

These Bye-laws shall take effect from the day on which the same shall be sanctioned by Her Majesty's Order in Council.

Sealed with the Corporate Common Seal of the School Board of the said parish this 19th day of January, 1874.

THIS day the Right Honourable the Marquis of Salisbury, and a Deputation from the University of Oxford, waited upon Her Majesty to present the following Address, which was handed to Her Majesty:—

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Oxford, approach your Majesty with renewed expressions of loyal attachment to your Majesty's Crown and person, and with our hearty congratulations on the marriage of His Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh.

We rejoice sincerely at a matrimonial alliance thus happily contracted with a Princess of the Imperial House of Russia, and have observed with pleasure the indications of general satisfaction with which this event has been hailed throughout Europe.

A union so auspicious will, we trust, under Providence, be followed by many years of uninterrupted felicity, and cannot but contribute to your Majesty's own happiness, whilst it must tend, at the same time, to strengthen and perpetuate those feelings of good-will and amity which now subsist between your Majesty's faithful subjects and the people of Russia.

Given at our House of Convocation, under our Common Seal, this 24th day of February, in the year of our Lord 1874.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious answer:—

"I thank you most sincerely for your renewed expressions of loyal attachment to my Crown and person, and for the congratulations which you offer me on the auspicious matrimonial alliance which my son has contracted.

"Under Providence I trust that this union may strengthen and perpetuate the good-will already existing between my faithful subjects and the people of Russia."

Windsor Castle, March 18, 1874.

THIS day His Grace the Duke of Devonshire, K.G., and a Deputation from the University of Cambridge, waited upon Her Majesty to present the following Address, which was handed to Her Majesty:—

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Cambridge.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Cambridge, beg leave to express our continued devotion to your Majesty's Royal person and Government, and to offer our respectful and cordial congratulations to your Majesty on the happy occasion of the marriage of His Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh.

We regard with great interest and pleasure the choice which His Royal Highness has, with your Majesty's gracious approbation, made from the Imperial family of Russia of a consort who is so well suited to share in her husband's exalted position; and we earnestly and heartily wish the Royal pair every possible happiness.

We venture to hope that this auspicious event may contribute to the increase of your Majesty's domestic happiness, and that, by the blessing of Divine Providence, it may be an additional bond of amity between the two nations of England and Russia, and a new motive for friendly intercourse and kindly relations between them.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious answer:—

"I heartily thank you for your loyal and affectionate Address, and for the additional proof which you have afforded me on this happy occasion of the continued devotion to my person and Government ever evinced by the University of Cambridge.

"I fervently join in your prayer that, by the blessing of Divine Providence, the marriage of my son with the Grand Duchess Marie Alexandrovna, may prove an additional bond of amity and be a new motive for friendly intercourse and kindly relations between the two peoples now so happily connected."

Windsor Castle, March 18, 1874.

THIS day the Right Honourable Andrew Lusk, Mayor of London, Alderman and Sheriff Whetham, Alderman Sidney, Alderman Finnis, Alderman Sir Thomas Dakin, Alderman Sir Francis Wyatt Truscott, the Recorder, the Town Clerk, the Remembrancer, and some members of the Common Council, waited upon Her Majesty with the following Address, which was handed to Her Majesty:—

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble and Dutiful Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London in Common Council assembled:—

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the city of London, in Common Council assembled, desire to approach the Throne, to offer your Majesty our sincere and hearty congratulations on the marriage of His Royal Highness Alfred Ernest Albert, Duke of Edinburgh, your Majesty's second son, with Her Imperial Highness the Grand Duchess Marie Alexandrowna, only daughter of His Imperial Majesty the Emperor of all the Russias.

Ever entertaining a deep and affectionate interest in all that concerns the domestic happiness of the members of your Royal House, we cannot, on this auspicious occasion, be unmindful of the national importance of an alliance that must necessarily and happily tend to harmonise the sentiments and deepen the sympathies of two great and powerful empires.

That Almighty God may bless the union, and that your Majesty may for many years derive from it additional comfort and happiness, is our sincere and earnest prayer.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious answer :—

"I thank you very sincerely for your hearty congratulations on the marriage of the Duke of Edinburgh, and for your renewed expression of affectionate interest in all that concerns the domestic happiness of the members of my family.

"I fervently pray that this alliance may tend to harmonise the sentiments, and deepen the sympathies of the two countries now so closely united."

Windsor Castle, March 18, 1874.

THIS day, the Protestant Dissenting Ministers of the Presbyterian Denomination residing in and near the cities of London and Westminster, waited upon Her Majesty, to present the following Address, which was handed to Her Majesty :—

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the body of English Presbyterian Ministers resident in and near the cities of London and Westminster, desire to offer to your Majesty our loyal sympathy and congratulations on the occasion of the marriage of His Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh with Her Imperial Highness the Grand Duchess Marie Alexandrowna of Russia. That the Divine blessing may rest on your son and the wife of his choice, whom your Majesty will receive as a daughter, is the earnest prayer of the whole people of this nation, who feel as their own every joy and every sorrow of your Majesty and your Royal House. In the prayer that your Majesty's utmost wishes and hopes for your children may be fulfilled, we beg to assure your Majesty that none can join more heartily than we; and we cannot but cherish bright anticipations of a home to which His Royal Highness will carry, and in which he will preserve as a possession beyond all price, the memory and traditions of the home in which His Royal Highness himself was brought up.

While we rejoice in this auspicious event for the sake of the personal happiness we trust it will bring to a member of your Majesty's family, we have also sincere satisfaction in believing that the ties of affection which bind together the hearts of the Prince and Princess who have chosen each other as companions through life will tend to strengthen and increase the feelings of amity and good-will between the two great nations which are now united in one gladness and in one prayer.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious answer :—

"I accept with much satisfaction this assurance of your sympathy and congratulation on the occasion of the marriage of the Duke of Edinburgh with the Grand Duchess Marie Alexandrowna of Russia; and I most heartily join in your desire that the ties of affection which bind together the hearts of the Prince and Princess may tend to strengthen and increase the feelings of good-will between the two nations now united in one gladness and in one prayer."

Windsor Castle, March 18, 1874.

THIS day the Protestant Dissenting Ministers of the Three Denominations residing in and about the cities of London and Westminster, waited upon Her Majesty to present the following Address, which was handed to Her Majesty :—

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it pleased your Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's faithful subjects, the Protestant Dissenting Ministers of the Three Denominations residing in and about the cities of London and Westminster, approach your Majesty, to offer our congratulations on the marriage of His Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh, with the Grand Duchess Marie Alexandrowna of Russia.

In common with the other loyal subjects of your Majesty, remembering the great benefits which have accrued to the nation from your Majesty's rule and personal influence, we rejoice in every event which tends to increase your Majesty's happiness.

It has been our privilege and duty from time to time to acknowledge in loyal Addresses to your Majesty the relief which has been brought to us as Protestant Dissenters by the righteous and beneficent legislation which has been sanctioned by your Majesty's Royal Predecessors of the House of Brunswick.

We are, therefore, grateful for every event which strengthens the honourable alliances and extends the influence of your Majesty's family, esteeming the marriage which has united the Royal Houses of England and Russia as an event of this order; and so an augury of peace and of progress of civil and religious liberty, we regard it with peculiar satisfaction and pray that the blessing of Almighty God may rest upon it.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious answer :—

"I thank you very sincerely for your congratulations on this happy occasion.

"I cordially concur with you in the confident hope that the marriage of my son with the Grand Duchess Marie Alexandrowna of Russia, may, under God's blessing, conduce not only to their mutual and lasting happiness, but to the best interests of the English and Russian nations."

Windsor Castle, March 18, 1874.

THIS day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor of Dublin, accompanied by several members of the Corporation, waited upon Her Majesty with the following Address, which was handed to Her Majesty :—

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The Address of the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of Dublin.

May it please your Most Gracious Majesty,

WE, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of Dublin, humbly approach your Majesty, to express our cordial congratulations upon the happy occasion of the marriage of His Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh with Her Imperial Highness the Grand Duchess Marie Alexandrowna.

We assure your Majesty that the citizens of your ancient and loyal city sincerely unite in the universal joy of the nation, and in the heartfelt hope that the Royal union so auspiciously celebrated may be productive of unalloyed comfort and satisfaction to your Majesty, and of lasting advantage to the vast Empire over which your Majesty so happily reigns.

We devoutly pray that the Supreme Ruler of the Universe may grant your Majesty a long and prosperous reign over a contented and united people; and that the illustrious alliance between His Royal Highness and the partner of his choice may receive of Heaven all the blessings that your faithful subjects can desire.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious answer :—

"I thank you much for your loyal and dutiful Address.

"The cordial congratulations which you express on the happy marriage of my son I accept with very great satisfaction, and I pray that the illustrious alliance which he has contracted may receive of Heaven all the blessings you so affectionately desire."

Windsor Castle, March 18, 1874.

THIS day, the Right Honourable the Lord Provost of Edinburgh, accompanied by several Members of the Corporation, waited upon Her Majesty with the following Address, which was handed to Her Majesty :—

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and faithful subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the city of Edinburgh, desire to approach your Royal Person with the expression of our hearty congratulations to your Majesty on the occasion of the auspicious marriage of your son, his Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh, to the Grand Duchess Marie, the only daughter of Alexander the Second, Emperor of Russia.

Associated with this ancient city by residence, and by his title, your Majesty will understand how peculiarly interesting to us is this happy union, which we hope and believe, being founded on mutual affection, will, with the Divine blessing, contribute to the happiness and well-being of the wedded pair, and prove a source of lasting comfort and satisfaction to your Majesty.

We desire to avail ourselves of this opportunity of renewing, on behalf of ourselves and of the city we represent, the expressions of our devoted love and attachment to your Majesty's person and loyalty to your throne.

Signed in name and by appointment of the Lord

Provost, Magistrates, and Council, and the seal of the city affixed hereto, at Edinburgh, the twelve day of March, eighteen hundred and seventy-four years.

James Falshaw, Lord Provost.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious answer :—

"I thank you with much gratitude for your renewed expression of devotion and attachment to my person, and loyalty to my throne.

"Your congratulations on the marriage of the Duke of Edinburgh are most acceptable to me, and I firmly believe that, with Divine blessing, the union which he has contracted with the daughter of the Emperor of Russia will not only be attended with happiness to my son and his illustrious bride, but will prove a source of lasting satisfaction to myself and my people."

Whitehall, March 19, 1874.

THE Queen has been pleased to issue a Commission, under Her Majesty's Royal Sign Manual, to the effect following :—

VICTORIA, R.

VICTORIA, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith :—

To Our right trusty and well-beloved Councillor Sir Alexander James Edmund Cockburn, Bart., Knight Grand Cross of Our Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Chief Justice of Our Court of Queen's Bench; Our right trusty and well-beloved Councillor John, Baron Winmarleigh; Our right trusty and well-beloved Councillor Edward Pleydell Bouverie; Our right trusty and well-beloved Councillor Russell Gurney, one of Our Counsel learned in the Law, Recorder of Our City of London; Our right trusty and well-beloved Councillor Sir Montague Edward Smith, Knt., a Member of the Judicial Committee of Our Privy Council; Our trusty and well-beloved John Arthur Roebuck, Esq., one of Our Counsel learned in the Law; Our trusty and well-beloved Thomas Hughes, Esq., one of Our Counsel learned in the Law; Our trusty and well-beloved Gabriel Goldney, Esq.; and Our trusty and well-beloved Alexander Macdonald, Esq., greeting :

Whereas it has been represented unto Us that it is expedient that inquiry should be made into the several matters hereinafter mentioned :

Now know ye that We reposing great trust and confidence in your ability and discretion, have nominated, constituted, and appointed, and do by these presents nominate, constitute, and appoint you, the said Sir Alexander James Edmund Cockburn, John, Baron Winmarleigh, Edward Pleydell Bouverie, Russell Gurney, Sir Montague Edward Smith, John Arthur Roebuck, Thomas Hughes, Gabriel Goldney, and Alexander Macdonald, to be Our Commissioners to inquire into the working of the Master and Servant Act, 1867, and of the Criminal Law Amendment Act (34 and 35 Vict., cap. 32), and whether any, and if any, what amendment or alteration in the provisions of those Acts, or either of them, is desirable, and also to enquire whether it is expedient to limit or define the law relating to conspiracy, either generally, or as affecting the relation of masters and workmen. And for the better discovery of the truth in the premises, We do, by these presents, give and grant unto you, or any three or more of you, full power and authority, to call before you, or any three or more of you, such persons as you shall judge necessary by whom you may be the better informed of the truth in the premises, and to inquire of the premises, and every part thereof, by all other lawful ways and means whatsoever, and also to call for and examine all such books, documents, papers, and records as you shall judge likely to afford you the fullest information on the subject of this, Our Commission. And Our further will and pleasure is, that you, Our said Commissioners, do, with as little delay as possible, report to Us, in writing under your hands and seals, or under the hands and seals of any five or more of you, your several proceedings under and by virtue of this Our Commission, together with what you shall find touching or concerning the premises, in order to facilitate immediate legislation should any be required. And We do further will and command, and by these presents ordain, that this, Our Commission, shall continue in full force and virtue, and that you, Our said Commissioners, or any three or more of you shall and may from time to time proceed in the execution thereof, and of every matter and thing therein contained, although the same be not continued from time to time by adjournment.

And for your assistance in the due execution of this Our Commission, We have made choice of Our trusty and well-beloved Francis Henry Bacon, Esq., Barrister-at-Law, to be Secretary to this Our Commission, whose services and assistance We require you to use from time to time as occasion shall require.

Given at Our Court at St James's, the nineteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the thirty-seventh year of Our reign.

By Her Majesty's command,
Richd. Assheton Cross.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1873.

ELY FAIRS.

WHEREAS a representation was duly made on the 17th day of January last, to the Right Honourable Robert Lowe, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Magistrates acting in and for the Division of the Hundred of Ely and south part of the Hundred of Witchford, in the Isle of Ely, that Fairs have been annually held in the city of Ely, the Summer Fair commencing on Ascension Day and lasting nine days, and the Winter or St. Ethelreda Fair commencing on the 29th of October, and also lasting nine days, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the times for holding the said Fairs should be reduced from nine days to three days respectively, and that those days should be Thursday, Friday, and Saturday in each case.

That the Summer Fair should commence on the last Thursday in the month of May, except when Holy Thursday happens to fall on that Thursday, and then on the Thursday in the preceding week; and that the Winter Fair should commence on the last Thursday in the month of October.

And whereas notice of the said representation and of the time when I should take the same into consideration has been duly published, and also communicated to the owners of the said Fairs and the tolls thereof, in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1873:"

And whereas on such representation and consideration it appears to me, the Right Honourable Richard Assheton Cross, that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the times for holding said Fairs respectively should be altered as proposed :

Now, therefore, I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1873," do hereby order, that the times for holding the Fairs which have been annually held in the city of Ely, shall be altered respectively as follows, viz. :—The Summer Fair, which has hitherto commenced on Ascension Day, and lasted for nine days, shall in future commence on the last Thursday in the month of May, except when Holy Thursday happens to fall on that day, and then on the Thursday in the preceding week, and shall last for three days, namely, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday. The Winter Fair, which has hitherto commenced on the 29th day of October, and lasted for nine days, shall in future commence on the last Thursday in October, and shall last for three days, namely, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 17th day of March, 1874.

(Signed) Richard Assheton Cross.

NOTICE OF INTENDED DISTRIBUTION OF NAVAL PRIZE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy and Comptroller of Navy Pay, Admiralty, March 16, 1874.

NOTICE is hereby given to the Officers, Seamen, and Marines, and to all persons interested therein, that the distribution of the bounty awarded for a slave captured on the 18th July, 1872, by Her Majesty's ship "Magpie," will commence on Friday, the 27th instant, in the Prize Branch of the Department of the "Accountant-General of the Navy and Comptroller of Navy Pay, Admiralty, New-street, Spring-gardens, S.W."

In the Matter of the Estate of Joseph Henry White and others, in the Hamlet of Mile End Old Town, in the county of Middlesex.

TAKE Notice, that in pursuance of the fiat of Sir Henry James, Knight, Her Majesty's late Attorney-General, a writ directed to the Sheriff of Middlesex has been issued in the words following, that is to say—

“Victoria, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, to the Sheriff of Middlesex greeting, we command you that by the oath of honest and lawful men of your county, by whom the truth of the matter may be best known, you diligently inquire whether or no it will be to the damage or prejudice of us, or any other, if we should grant to Joseph Henry White, of Springfield, near Chelmsford, in the county of Essex, Gentleman; Henry Rose, of Chesham, in the county of Buckingham, Brush Manufacturer, and John Rose, of the same place, Brush Manufacturer, their heirs and assigns, license that they may stop up and destroy a certain footway being a footway leading from and out of a street called Johnson-street, at the distance of 102 feet or thereabouts from the north side of Emmott-street, at its junction with Johnson-street, proceeding thence in a north-easterly direction into Skidmore-street, at the distance of 18 feet or thereabouts from the east end of the said street, at its junction with Emmott-street; the land across which the footpath runs is bounded on the north by a certain street called Skidmore-street, on the south by the premises of the Commercial Gas Company, on the east by the Regent's Canal, and on the west by the said street called Johnson-street, the said footway being up to that point altogether of the length of 620 feet or thereabouts, and the same being in the hamlet of Mile End Old Town, in the said county of Middlesex, so as instead of the same footway they may make other ways as convenient for passengers through the same, and if it will be to the damage or prejudice of us or any other, then to what damage or to what prejudice of us, and to what damage or to what prejudice of any other, and of whom, and how, and what manner. And that you return the inquisition thereof distinctly and plainly made without delay into our Chancery, under your seal and the seals of those by whom it shall be taken, together with this writ.—Witness ourself at Westminster, the 25th day of February, in the 37th year of our Reign.

Jessel.

Murray.

And further take notice, that in pursuance of the said writ, the above inquisition will be held at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, on Monday, the 30th day of March, 1874, at the Royal Hotel, Mile End-road (near the Canal Bridge), in the said county of Middlesex.

Dated 11th day of March, 1874.

Richd. and W. B. Smith, 7, New-square, Lincoln's-inn, W.C.

COX and SONS, Solicitors for the said Executors, 4, Cloak-lane, London, E.C.

Vice-Chancellor Malins.—Thursday, the 12th day of March, 1874.—Between Richard Petch, Plaintiff; Joseph Burgin, Defendant.

UPON motion this day made unto this Court by Counsel for the plaintiff, who alleged that the plaintiff filed his Bill in this Court against the defendant, having an endorsement thereon in the form prescribed by the Act of Parliament in that behalf, requiring the said defendant to appear thereto, and that it appears by the affidavit of Richard Petch, filed the 12th day of March, 1874, that the defendant has been within the jurisdiction of this Court within two years next before the filing of the said Bill, and that all due diligence has been used to serve the defendant with a printed copy of the said Bill, but without effect, and the said defendant cannot be found, so as to be served with process, and from enquiries at the last known place of abode of the defendant, and at other places where it was probable the defendant might be, there is just ground to believe that the defendant has absconded, to avoid being served with process, and upon reading the said affidavit, this Court doth order that the defendant, Joseph Burgin, do appear to the plaintiff's Bill on or before the 2nd day of April next; and the plaintiff is, within fourteen days from the date hereof, to cause a copy of this Order, together with a notice thereof to the effect set forth at the foot of the 10th of the Consolidated Orders, Rule 6, to be inserted in the London Gazette and in two newspapers published in the city of London.

NOTICE.—Joseph Burgin, Take notice, that if you do not appear pursuant to the above Order, the plaintiff may enter an appearance for you, and the Court may afterwards grant to the plaintiff such relief as he may appear to be entitled to on his own showing.

Dated this 19th day of March, 1874.

SYMS and SON, 7, Furnival's-inn, London, E.C., Plaintiff's Solicitors.

In Chancery.

In the Matter of the Act 19 and 20 Victoria, chapter 120, intituled "An Act to facilitate Leases and Sales of Settled Estates;" and in the Matter of a Message, Buildings, and certain Pieces of Land, situate in the parish of St. James, Brackley, in the county of Northampton, lately in the occupation of the Reverend Hugh William Smith, forming part of the Lands settled by the Will of William King Malins, of Brackley aforesaid, deceased.

PURSUANT to the above-mentioned Act of Parliament and the Consolidated General Order of this Court in that behalf, notice is hereby given, that on the 10th day of March, 1874, Lucy Weston Malins, of St. James-place, Brackley, in the county of Northampton, Widow, Henry Bedford, of Amersham, in the county of Buckingham, Gentleman, and Mary Bedford, wife of the said Henry Bedford, by the said Lucy Weston Malins, her step-mother and next friend, presented their Petition to the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, to be heard before his Honour the Vice-Chancellor Sir Richard Malins, praying that a conditional contract for sale, dated the 2nd day of March, 1874, may be authorized and carried into effect, and that the purchase money for the said premises may be paid to the petitioners Lucy Weston Malins and Henry Bedford, to be applied by them pursuant to the provisions of the 23rd section of the above-mentioned Act, without any further application to the Court. And notice is also hereby given, that the petitioners may be served with any Order of the Court, or of the Judge in Chambers, or notice relating to the subject of the said Petition, at the office of Messrs. Allen and Edwards, situate at No. 8, Old Jewry, in the city of London.—Dated this 16th day of March, 1874.

ALLEN and EDWARDS, Solicitors to the said Petitioners.

In Chancery.

In the Matter of the Act 19 and 20 Victoria, chapter 120, intituled "An Act to facilitate Leases and Sales of Settled Estates;" and in the Matter of one equal undivided third part of a certain Message or Tenement, at Lane Head, with the Barns, Stables, Cowhouses, and other Buildings, Stack Yard and Garden thereto adjoining and belonging, and the several Closes or Parcels of Land thereto also belonging, and containing by estimation 118 acres or thereabouts, all which premises are respectively situated in the parish of Bolton, in the county of Cumberland, and now are, or late were in the occupation of Joseph Peel, and as to the said third part thereof, were settled by the Will of Frances Wane, Widow, deceased.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Petition in the above-mentioned matters was, on the 12th day of March 1874, presented to the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, by Joseph Bell, of Chapel, in the parish of Basenthwaite, in the county of Cumberland, Yeoman, praying that the sale of the one undivided third part of the above-mentioned hereditaments, which is subject to the limitations of the said will of the said Frances Wane aforesaid, upon the terms of a certain conditional agreement, dated the 3rd day of January, 1874, made between the petitioner Joseph Bell and one Joseph Smith, of the one part, and John Porter Foster, of the other part, particularly mentioned in the said Petition, might be authorized under the provisions of the above-mentioned Act of Parliament, and that with respect to the said one-third part of the same hereditaments, the said conditional agreement might receive the sanction of that Honourable Court, that the petitioner, Joseph Bell, might be directed to execute a deed of conveyance of the said one-third part of the same hereditaments in pursuance of the said agreement, and that directions might be given for payment of one-third part of the purchase moneys, payable under the said conditional agreement to the said Joseph Smith and John Hodgson, the present Trustees, or other the Trustees or Trustee for the time of the said will of the said Frances Wane, deceased, and that the same Trustees or Trustee might be authorised to apply the said third part of the said purchase money to some one or more of the purposes specified in the above-mentioned Act of Parliament, without any further application to that Honourable Court, and out of the said purchase moneys to be received by them or him in respect of the said third part of the said hereditaments, to pay the costs incurred in or in consequence of that application, or in carrying into effect the said agreement by the petitioners, and by the persons served with the said Petition. And notice is hereby further given, that the petitioner may be served with any Order of the Court or notice relating to the subject of the said Petition, at the offices of Messrs. Bischoff, Bompas, and Bischoff, situate at No. 4, Great Winchester-street-buildings, in the city of London, Agents for Edward Waugh, of Cuckermouth, in the county of Cumberland, Solicitor for the said petitioner.—Dated this 17th day of March, 1874.
