

Dorset, and upon all other sides, that is to say, on the south-west, on the south-east, on the north-east, and on the north, by an imaginary line commencing upon the said county boundary at a point on the western boundary of the new parish of Saint Peter, Bournemouth aforesaid, in the middle of New Talbot-road; and extending thence south-eastward for a distance of rather more than half a mile along the middle of the said road to its junction, at Malmesbury Farm with the Wimborne-road; and extending thence for a distance of fifty-two chains or thereabouts, first south-westward and then south-eastward along the middle of the last-named road to the boundary at the junction of the said last-named road with Throop-road, which divides the said new parish of Saint Peter, Bournemouth, from the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Bournemouth, in the first-named county and diocese; and extending thence north-eastward for a distance of one mile and three quarters or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named road (thereby following in part the last-described boundary) to the junction of the same road with the Christ Church and Wimborne-road; and extending thence north-westward for a distance of fifty-five chains or thereabouts along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with the Muscliff-road; and extending thence north-eastward for a distance of thirty-five chains or thereabouts along the middle of the last-named road to its junction at Muscliff with the road which leads past the eastern side of Muscliff aforesaid to the River Stour; and extending thence north-westward for a distance of eleven chains or thereabouts along the middle of the last-described road to the southern bank of the said river; and continuing thence still north-westward, and in a direct line to a point in the middle of the same river; and extending thence westward for a distance of thirty-five chains or thereabouts along the middle of the said river to the county boundary aforesaid, which at this point forms the western boundary of the said parochial chapelry of Holdenhurst."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly-mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patrons and incumbents of the cures out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and such patrons and incumbents have respectively signified their assent to the said scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of March, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King

George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Paul, commonly called Peel Chapel, situate in the township of Little Hulton, in the parish of Deane, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Paul, situate in the township of Little Hulton as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Deane, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Paul, commonly called Peel Chapel, situate in the township of Little Hulton as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Paul, Peel.' And, with the like consent of the said James, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Paul, situate in the township of Little Hulton as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received, in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that so long as the Reverend William Bashall, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Deane, shall continue to be such vicar or incumbent, all the fees which may be received in respect of such publication, solemnization, or performance at the said church of Saint Paul, situate as aforesaid, shall be paid over by the minister thereof to the said William Bashall; and provided also that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.
