

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference :—

"The District Chapelry of Saint Paul, Peel, being :—

"All that part of the parish of Deane, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which consists of a portion of the township of Little Hulton, and is comprised within, and is bounded by, an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the new parish of Saint James, New Bury, in the said county and diocese, from the parish of Deane, aforesaid, at the point at Buckley-lane End, where Buckley-lane, Spa-lane, and Clegg's-lane all meet; and extending thence south-westward for a distance of forty-seven chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named lane to the centre of the bridge which carries the same lane over the line of the Little Hulton Extension Branch of the London and North-Western Railway; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said branch line of railway to a point at the centre of the bridge which carries Hulton or Hilton-lane over the same branch line of railway, upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Deane from the consolidated chapelry of Saint Paul, Walkden Moor, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and extending thence first south-westward, and then south-eastward along the last-described boundary (thereby following the course of Hulton or Hilton-lane aforesaid) to the point at or near to Burgess's Farm, where the same boundary is joined by the boundary which divides the said parish of Deane from the new parish of Saint Mark, Worsley, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and extending thence, first south-westward, and then generally westward along the last-described boundary to its junction near Shude Hill with the boundary which divides the said parish of Deane from the district parish of Tyldesley-cum-Shakerley, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and extending thence generally north-westward along the last-described boundary to its junction, a little to the north of the house called or known as Hurst's, with the boundary which divides the township of Little Hulton, in the said parish of Deane, from the township of Middle Hulton, in the same parish; and extending thence, first generally north-eastward, and then eastward along the said township boundary to its junction with the boundary which divides the said parish of Deane from the new parish of Saint James, New Bury, aforesaid; and continuing thence generally eastward along the last-described boundary, to the first-described point at Buckley-lane End, where Buckley-lane, Spa-lane, and Clegg's-lane all meet as aforesaid, at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of March, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church situate within the limits of the ancient chapelry of Hollinfare, in the parish of Warrington, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Chester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church, situate within the limits of the said ancient chapelry of Hollinfare.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend William, Bishop of the said diocese of Chester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Warrington, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church, situate within the limits of the ancient chapelry of Hollinfare as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Hollinfare.'

"And with the like consent of the said William, Bishop of the said diocese of Chester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being; Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order with respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet."
