In the Matter of the Estate of Joseph Henry White and others, in the Hamlet of Mile End Old Town, in the county of Middlesex.

TAKE Notice, that in pursuance of the fiat of Sir Henry James, Knight, Her Majesty's late Attorney-General, a writ directed to the Sheriff of Middlesex has been issued in the words following, that is to say—

“Victoria, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, to the Sheriff of Middlesex greeting, we command you that by the oath of honest and lawful men of your county, by whom the truth of the matter may be best known, you diligently inquire whether or no it will be to the damage or prejudice of us, or any other, if we should grant to Joseph Henry White, of Springfield, near Chelmsford, in the county of Essex, Gentleman, Henry Rose, of Chesham, in the county of Buckingham, Brush Manufacturer, and John Rose, of the same place, Brush Manufacturer, their heirs and assigns, license that they may stop up and destroy a certain footway being a footway leading from and out of a street called Johnson-street, at the distance of 102 feet or thereabouts from the north side of Emmott-street, at its junction with Johnson-street, proceeding thence in a north-easterly direction into Skidmore-street, at the distance of 18 feet or thereabouts from the east end of the said street, at its junction with Emmott-street; the land across which the footpath runs is bounded on the north by a certain street called Skidmore-street, on the south by the premises of the Commercial Gas Company, on the east by the Regent's Canal, and on the west by the said street called Johnson-street, the said footway being up to that point altogether of the length of 620 feet or thereabouts, and the same being in the hamlet of Mile End Old Town, in the said county of Middlesex, so as instead of the same footway they may make other ways as convenient for passengers through the same, and if it will be to the damage or prejudice of us or any other, then to what damage or to what prejudice of us, and to what damage or to what prejudice of any other, and of whom, and how, and what manner. And that you return the inquisition thereof distinctly and plainly made without delay into our Chancery, under your seal and the seals of those by whom it shall be taken, together with this writ.—Witness ourself at Westminster, the 25th day of February, in the 37th year of our Reign.

Jessel.

Murray.

And further take notice, that in pursuance of the said writ, the above inquisition will be held at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, on Monday, the 30th day of March, 1874, at the Royal Hotel, Mile End-road (near the Canal Bridge), in the said county of Middlesex.

Dated 11th day of March, 1874.

Richd. and W. B. Smith, 7, New-square, Lincoln's-inn, W.C.

In Chancery.

In the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1862 and 1867, and in the Matter of the Patent Gas Company Limited.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition for the winding up of the above-named Company by the Court of Chancery, or subject to the supervision of the said Court, was, on the 19th day of March, 1874, presented to the Lord Chancellor by Augustus Albert Smith, of Northwick House, Upper Norwood in the county of Surrey, Gentleman, a contributory of the said Company; and that the said petition is directed to be heard before the Vice-Chancellor Sir Richard Malins, on Friday, the 17th day of April, 1874; and any creditor or contributory of the said Company desirous to oppose the making of an Order for the winding up of the said Company, under the above Acts, should appear at the time of hearing by himself or his counsel for that purpose; and a copy of the petition will be furnished to any creditor or contributory of the said Company requiring the same by the undersigned, on payment of the regulated charge for the same.

Frederick Heritage, 28, Nicholas-lane, E.C., Petitioner's Solicitor.
