GEORGE COLLINS, Deceased.

Pursuant to an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the 22nd and 23rd years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to further amend the Law of Property, and to relieve Trustees."

NOTICE is hereby given, that all creditors and other persons having any claim or demand on or against the estate of George Collins, late of Horsmonden, in the county of Kent, Bricklayer, deceased (who died at Horsmonden aforesaid, on the 8th day of April, 1872, and in respect of whose estate letters of administration were granted by the Principal Registry of Her Majesty's Court of Probate to Susan Collins, of Horsmonden aforesaid, the lawful widow and relict of the said intestate, on the 5th day of June, 1872, are, on or before the 7th day of April, 1874, to send in to the said administratrix particulars of their debts or claims, or in default thereof, the said administratrix will at the expiration of the above time distribute the assets of the said intestate among the parties entitled thereto, having regard to those debts and claims only of which she shall then have notice, and the administratrix will not be liable for the assets so distributed, or any part thereof, to any person or persons of whose debt, claim, or demand she shall not then have had notice.—Dated this 25th day of March, 1874.

GEORGE HINDS, Goudhurst, Solicitor to the said Administratrix.

Vice-Chancellor Hall.—Thursday, the 19th day of March, 1874.—Between George Linnell, Plaintiff; Thomas Heaton, Defendant.

UPON motion this day made unto this Court by Counsel for the plaintiff, who alleged that the plaintiff filed his Bill in this Court against the defendant, having an endorsement thereon in the form prescribed by the Act of Parliament in that behalf, requiring the said defendant to appear thereto, and that it appears by the affidavit of Joseph Stanger, filed the 16th of March, 1874, that the defendant has been within the jurisdiction of this Court within two years next before the filing of the said Bill, and that all due diligence has been used to serve the defendant with a printed copy of the said Bill, but without effect, and that the said defendant cannot be found, so as to be served with process, and from enquiries at the last known place of abode of the defendant, and at other places where it was probable the defendant might be, there is just ground to believe that the defendant has absconded, to avoid being served with process, and upon reading the said affidavit, the joint affidavit of George Linnell and Samuel Bates
