FRIDAY, MAY 29, 1874.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
March 26, 1874.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Birthday will be kept on Saturday, the 30th of May next.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
May 15, 1874.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Monday, the 1st of June next, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at the Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulations that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, of his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at the Levee, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

HERTFORD,
Lord Chamberlain.

NOTICE OF ADOPTION OF THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858, IN THE PARISH OF NORTH-FLEET, KENT.

WHEREAS a resolution for the adoption of the Local Government Act, 1858, was, on the 9th day of April, 1874, passed by the owners and ratepayers of the parish of Northfleet, in the county of Kent, and notice of such adoption has been given, in writing, to the Local Government Board by the persons required to give the same :

Now, therefore, we, the said Local Government Board, do hereby consent to such adoption, and give notice, that the Local Government Act, 1858, has been adopted in the said parish of Northfleet.

Given under the Seal of Office of the said Board, this 27th day of May, 1874.

(Signed) Fras. Fletcher,
Assistant-Secretary.

Acting on behalf of the said Board, under the authority of a General Order, dated the 13th day of August, 1873.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Ogle Hay, in the county of Stafford, and in the diocese of Lichfield, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and thirteen pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, and to be receivable, in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of nine hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Dovercourt, in the county of Essex, and in the diocese of Rochester, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Dovercourt, to meet such benefaction, one other capital sum of nine hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Dovercourt.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of one thousand five hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the consolidated chapelry and benefice of the Holy Trinity, Charing Heath, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same consolidated chapelry and benefice, and to his successors, a yearly sum of fifty pounds, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said consolidated chapelry and benefice of the Holy Trinity, Charing Heath, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one other yearly sum or stipend of fifty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the yearly sum or stipend so payable out of our common fund as lastly herein mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said consolidated chapelry and benefice, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter, cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of five hundred and eighty pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Saint Frideswide, New Osney, in the county of Oxford, and in the diocese of Oxford, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same vicarage, and to his successors, a yearly sum of nineteen pounds six shillings and eight pence, and in consideration also of a further benefaction, consisting of certain annual tithe commutation rent-charges, amounting in the aggregate to twenty-two pounds and seventeen shillings, which have been permanently secured to the same vicarage, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Saint Frideswide, New Osney, and to his successors, to meet such benefactions, one yearly sum or stipend of thirty-three pounds and ten shillings, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the yearly sum or stipend, so payable out of our common fund, as lastly herein mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

[Extract from the Dublin Gazette, May 15, 1874.]

TO ALL PERSONS CONCERNED.

WHEREAS, by Lease dated the 19th day of May, 1794, the Honorable John Chambre Brabazon (afterwards Earl of Meath) demised to Thomas Manning, his heirs and assigns, that part of the town and lands of Upper and Lower Aughrim, situate in the barony of Ballinacor, manor of Knockrath, and county of Wicklow, then in the occupation of the said Thomas Manning, containing eighty-seven acres and thirty-four perches, more or less, for three lives, with a covenant for the perpetual renewal thereof, on payment of the sum of twenty-five pounds as a renewal fine on the fall of each life: And whereas the last renewal of the said lease, bearing date the 12th day of August, 1843, was made by the said John Chambre, Earl of Meath, to Elizabeth Manning and Lucinda Manning, in whom the lessee's interest was then vested, for the lives of the said Elizabeth Manning and of William Manning and John Wolsley Fetherston-H., therein named: And whereas the said Elizabeth Manning died in or about the month of December, 1845, and the said Lucinda Manning left this country several years ago, and the said William Manning is believed to be dead: And whereas the reversion expectant on the said lease is now vested in me, William, Earl of Meath: And whereas large sums are due to me for renewal and septennial fines in respect of the premises comprised in the said lease, and I am unable to discover in what person or persons the Lessee's interest therein is now vested: Now, I hereby demand payment of all sums payable to me for renewal and septennial fines, by virtue of the said lease; and I give notice to all persons concerned, that in case of the non-payment thereof within a reasonable time after the making of this demand, the right to a renewal of the said lease will be forfeited, and I shall refuse to execute a renewal or fee-farm grant thereof.

Dated this 18th day of April, 1874.

Meath.

A demand of the renewal and septennial fines claimed by the above notice, has been made on the lands from the occupiers of same.

Octavius O'Brien, Solicitor for William, Earl of Meath, 23, Kildare-street, Dublin.

In the London Bankruptcy Court.

In the Matter of William Gardener, of the Crescent, Stamford Hill, and of 192, Hackney-road, both in the county of Middlesex, Timber Merchant and Box and Packing-case Maker, a Bankrupt. Before Mr. Registrar Spring-Rice.

UPON reading a report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 4th day of May, 1874, reporting that the whole of the property of the bankrupt has been realised, as shown by the statement herewith annexed, and the reason of there not having been any dividend paid to the creditors is that the estate did not realise a sufficient sum to pay the Solicitors' taxed costs, and that in the joint opinion of myself and the Committee of Inspection it is desirable to close the bankruptcy, and upon hearing Mr. M. Banes, the Trustee, and reading the affidavit of Harry Egerton Knight, sworn the 14th day of May, 1874, and the report of the Official Assignee, dated the 16th day of May, 1874, the Court being satisfied that the whole of the property of the bankrupt has been realised, as shown by the statement hereunto annexed, and the reason of there not having been any dividend paid to the creditors is that the estate did not realise a sufficient sum to pay the Solicitor's taxed costs, and that in the joint opinion of the trustee, and the Committee of Inspection, it is desirable to close the bankruptcy, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said William Gardener has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 27th day of May, 1874.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.
