With the sign manual of His Majesty the Emperor,

VISCOUNT DO RIO BRANCO.

REGULATION for putting in execution the Law No. 2,348 of the 25th August, 1873, Art. 11, sec. 5, to which Decree No. 5,585 of this date refers.

CHAPTER I.

Of Brazilian Vessels.

ART. 1. No merchant vessel shall be declared to be Brazilian unless the same be competently registered as the exclusive property of a Brazilian citizen, or of Brazilian citizens, even though they may reside out of the Empire; the condition of Art. 457, last part, of the Commercial Code (Law No. 2,348 of the 25th August, 1873, Act. 11, sec. 5, No. 8), being thus abrogated.

Sec. 1. Should the vessel have been constructed in a foreign country, the registry shall be made on view of the extraordinary passport treated of in Art. 147 of the Consular Regulation, No. 4,968 of the 24th May, 1872, and which ought to contain the specifications required by Art. 462 of the Commercial Code.

Sec. 2. The captains, masters, and mates may be either natives or foreigners, provided that one-third, at least, of the whole crew be Brazilians (Law cited, Art. 11, sec. 5, No. 9). The Brazilian merchant vessels are not subject to the payment of anchorage dues in the ports of the Empire; and those vessels that are employed in the coasting trade shall enjoy, besides this, the following favours:—

Sec. 1. Exemption from certificates of discharge, and from all instruments of security and responsibility, of which Arts. 458, sec. 2, 501, and 645 of the Regulation of the Customs treat.

On verifying the fact that the said vessels did not discharge all or part of the goods of national produce and manufacture in the port of their destination, the respective commanders shall incur a fine of from 5 to 20 dollars per package for not discharging them, and of from 5 to 20 per cent. on the value of the goods which are missing, should they have come loose in bulk—besides the export duty—as if they were to leave the country.

Sec. 2. Exemption from clearance in the Customs and Revenue Departments of the merchandize which they may carry to ports which have no Custom-house. A simple pass shall be given to shippers, signed by the Chief of the Department, or by the employé authorized by him, of the Fiscal Department of the port from whence the vessels took their departure, furnished with which they may take their goods on board.

Sec. 2. The formalities of entry and departure, of which Arts. 18 and 19 of the Regulation of the Captaincies of the Ports, No. 447 of the 19th May, 1846, treats (Law cited, Art. 11, sec. 5, No. 3), will be dispensed with.

Sec. 3. Exemption from military recruitment in favour of Brazilians belonging to the effective crew, who, only in case of war, shall be obliged to serve in the navy of the State (Law and Articles cited, No. 10).

ART. 3. The captains or masters may freely engage the individuals who ought to compose their crews, save the limitations of Art. 1, sec. 3, of this Regulation, and that of Art. 499 of the Commercial Code.

The Captaincies of Ports will not take cognizance of the disputes that may arise on such agreements between the parties interested; the latter should have recourse to the Commercial Judge.

ART. 4. On the departure of the vessel, the captain or master shall deliver to the Registering Officer of the port the list of his crew, which shall be dealt with as Art. 19 of the cited Regulation of the Captaincies of the Ports appoints.

CHAPTER 2.

Of the Building Yards.

ART. 5. Naval building yards are not subject to the impost on industries and professions; but they should be inscribed in the proper Departments with the declaration of their being exempt (Law No. 2,843 of 1873, Art. 11, sec. 5, No. 7).

ART. 6. The shipwrights and workmen who are constantly employed in those establishments shall be exempt from all National Guard service in time of peace (Law cited, Art. 11, sec. 5, No. 5).

ART. 7. The first sale or equivalent act of a vessel built in a national yard is exempt from the duty on transmission of property (Law cited, Art. 11, Sec. 5, No. 2).

ART. 8. The proprietors of ships built in the Empire, and of which the measurement is more than 100 metric tons, shall be entitled to a premium of 50 dollars per ton (Law cited, Art. 11, Sec. 5, No. 2).

Sec. 1. The said premium shall be granted by the Minister of Finance, and paid in the National Treasury when the ships shall have been built in yards in the municipality of the capital, or that of the Province of Rio de Janeiro, and in the Treasuries of Finance Department when they shall have been built in the other provinces.

Sec. 2. For the granting of the premium the proprietor must present, besides the register, a certificate from the builder of the ship, and from the Fiscal Authority of the place where she was built, or, in default of this functionary, the municipal chamber of the district, stating that the hull and masts of the ships were prepared in the Empire. When the builder is also the proprietor of the ship, the second of the above documents will be sufficient.

ART. 9. The following are entirely exempt from transference dues:—

1. The purchase of "Jangadas" and national fishing boats (Alvará of 20th October, 1842, sec. 4).

2. The purchase of steamers intended for the service of navigation companies authorized by law, and existing in the Empire, whether they are or are not built in national yards (Law No. 243 of 30th November, 1841, Article 27).

CHAPTER 3.

On Foreign Vessels.

ART. 10. Foreign vessels may continue freely to carry on the coasting trade of merchandize of national or foreign production between the ports of the Empire in which there may be a Custom-house, or a Customs' Revenue Department (Decree No. 3,631 of 29th March, 1866, Law No. 2,848 of the 25th August, 1873, Art. 11, sec. 5).

Excepting, as far as concerns the ports in which are Revenue Officers, the transport of foreign merchandize which has not yet paid duties on consumption.

ART. 11. The owners or consignees of foreign ships which may conduct the coasting trade, shall sign an instrument of responsibility, in conformity with Art. 645 of the Regulation of the Customs, binding himself to pay the export duty of the national produce or manufacture which they may carry. For the calculation of the respective duty, the value given in the weekly tariff will serve as a basis.

The Fiscal Department in which the clearance paper is made, may insist on the said instrument of guarantee being also signed by a responsible bondsman, who will be personally answerable for the obligation contracted.

ART. 12. For the annulling the instrument of which the preceding Article treats, the owner or consignee of the ship shall present a certificate of its having been actually discharged, passed by the Fiscal Department of the port of destination of the goods. That document shall be written by the Department which received it, on the margin of the said instrument.

Sole paragraph. The said certificate should be exhibited within the term of four months, which may be prolonged, should the motive be considered a sufficient one to be attended to, in the judgment of the Chief of the Department, to which Art. 11 refers, for two months longer; under penalty of the signers of the instrument of responsibility being subject to pay the export duty.

ART. 13. The foreign vessels employed in the coasting trade shall be freed from visit, prescribed in Art. 457 of the Regulation of 19th September, 1860, on proving by certificate that they were visited in the port of the Empire where they had to complete the discharge of the merchandise arrived from foreign ports, and subject to the duties on consumption.

Sole paragraph. The said vessels shall also be exempt from the security required in Art. 501 of the cited Regulation of the Customs.

ART. 14. Foreign vessels may report their entries in maritime ports, or those in the interior where there may not happen to be a Custom-house, or a Customs' Revenue Department, first obtaining the permit, of which Art. 318 of the Regulation of the Customs treats.

This permit may be granted by the Inspector of the Customs, under whose jurisdiction is the port of destination of the vessel, under the following circumstances:—

Firstly. For the discharge of foreign merchandise, which shall have already paid consumption duty.

Secondly. For loading, with destination to foreign ports, merchandise the produce or manufacture of the country.

ART. 15. In the second case of the preceding article foreign vessels should clear for export in the Custom-house which granted them the permit the merchandise which is the produce or manufacture of the country.

The respective Inspector will take such measures as will best suit the fiscal interests in the manner of verifying the clearance referred to; he can appoint one or more employés to assist in loading, and in taking the account of the quantity as well as the quality of the merchandise shipped.

ART. 16. Save the modifications made by the present regulation all other dispositions in force respecting this service shall be applicable to the foreign vessels employed in the coasting trade.

General Dispositions.

ART. 17. The captains or masters of sailing vessels employed in the coasting trade shall be exempted from the obligation of making known the day of departure to the Administrations of the Post Offices, when they may be destined to ports at which the mail transport service is effected regularly by steamers or couriers.

ART. 18. The captains and masters of vessels in the coasting trade in general are likewise excused from soliciting the bill of health, of which Art. 42 of the Decree, No. 2,409 of the 27th April, 1859, treats, save in the case of a special order to the contrary, which may be issued by the Health Department of the port in cases of epidemic disorders.

ART. 19. The clearance of merchandise in transitu for re-exportation, reloading, or transportation coastwise shall continue to be made according to the instructions, No. 133 of 24th May, 1870, whether the vessels are foreign or national.

ART. 20. The Inspectors of Customs and of Revenue Departments will take such measures as may be most fit in order that the captains and masters of ships that perform the coast service shall return to the said Department the duplicates of the clearance papers of the merchandise shipped, with the proper receipt, in time for them to be sent, without fail, by the same ships to the Chief of the Fiscal Department of the port of destination, under a penalty, to the said captain or master, of subjecting himself to the fine incurred according to Art. 382 of the 19th September, 1860.

ART. 21. All depositions to the contrary are revoked.
