Board of Trade (Harbour Department), Whitehall Gardens, June 29, 1874.

THE Board of Trade have received through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs a Despatch from Her Majesty's Agent and Consul-General in Egypt, stating that a disease, supposed to be plague, had broken out at Merdj, in the Province of Benghazi. The Egyptian Government have consequently subjected all arrivals from the infected country to a quarantine of ten days. A Sanitary Commission has been sent from Benghazi to report on the matter, and in the event of the disease proving to be the plague, it is probable that a resolution will be passed by the Egyptian authorities to repel all arrivals by land and sea from the coast as far as Tripoli.

[Extract from the Dublin Gazette, May 15, 1874.]

TO ALL PERSONS CONCERNED.

WHEREAS, by Lease dated the 19th day of May, 1794, the Honorable John Chambre Brabazon (afterwards Earl of Meath) demised to Thomas Manning, his heirs and assigns, that part of the town and lands of Upper and Lower Anghrim, situate in the barony of Ballinacor, manor of Knockrath, and county of Wicklow, then in the occupation of the said Thomas Manning, containing eighty-seven acres and thirty-four perches, more or less, for three lives, by a covenant for the perpetual renewal thereof, on payment of the sum of twenty-five pounds as a renewal fine on the fall of each life : And whereas the last renewal of the said lease, bearing date the 12th day of August, 1843, was made by the said John Chambre, Earl of Meath, to Elizabeth Manning and Lucinda Manning, in whom the lessee's interest was then vested, for the lives of the said Elizabeth Manning and of William Manning and John Wolsley Fetherston-H., therein named : And whereas the said Elizabeth Manning died in or about the month of December, 1845, and the said Lucinda Manning left this country several years ago, and the said William Manning is believed to be dead : And whereas the reversion expectant on the said lease is now vested in me, William, Earl of Meath : And whereas large sums are due to me for renewal and septennial fines in respect of the premises comprised in the said lease, and I am unable to discover in what person or persons the Lessee's interest therein is now vested : Now, I hereby demand payment of all sums payable to me for renewal and septennial fines, by virtue of the said lease ; and I give notice to all persons concerned, that in case of the non-payment thereof within a reasonable time after the making of this demand, the right to a renewal of the said lease will be forfeited, and I shall refuse to execute a renewal or fee-farm grant thereof.

Dated this 18th day of April, 1874.

Meath.

A demand of the renewal and septennial fines claimed by the above notice, has been made on the lands from the occupiers of same.

W. H. COUSINS, Registrar of Bank Returns.

Inland Revenue Office, June 27, 1874.

Wye Valley Railway.

(Application is intended to be made to the Board of Trade for authority to construct a Railway Bridge across the River Wye, situate partly in the parish of Woolastone, in the county of Gloucester, and partly in the parish of Tintern Parva, in the county of Monmouth.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application has been made to the Board of Trade by the Wye Valley Railway Company (hereinafter called "the Company") for authority to construct and maintain:

A bridge for carrying the Wye Valley Railway across the River Wye, commencing in a brake belonging to the Company, numbered 14 on the tithe commutation map for the parish of Woolastone, in the county of Gloucester, crossing the River Wye in a north-easterly direction, and terminating at a point 110 yards, or thereabouts, westward of the fence dividing a pasture field, numbered 47 on the tithe commutation map for the parish of Tintern Parva, in the county of Monmouth, from another pasture field, numbered 49 on the said tithe commutation map.

To construct, in connection with the proposed bridge, all necessary dredgings, moorings, piers, stages, slips, and other works and conveniences in the said river or waters, or on the foreshore adjoining the same, and in connection with the intended bridge above mentioned.

And notice is hereby given, that plans and sections of the proposed bridge have been deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Gloucester, at his office in Gloucester; with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Monmouth, at his office in Newport; with the parish clerks of the parishes of Tidenham and Woolastone, in the county of Gloucester, at their residences; with the parish clerk for the parish of Tintern Parva, in the county of Monmouth, at his residence; and at the office of the Board of Trade, Whitehall-gardens, London, S.W.

And notice is hereby further given, that all persons desirous of making any representation to the Board of Trade, or of bringing before them any objection respecting the proposed Bridge, may do so by letter addressed to the Assistant-Secretary of the Harbour Department of the Board of Trade at Whitehall-gardens, London, S.W., on or before the 15th day of July next, and that copies of any such objections must at the same time be sent to the Solicitors of the Company, at their offices at No. 80, Coleman-street, London, E.C.

Dated this 12th day of June, 1874.

Sutton and Ommanney, 80, Coleman-street, London, E.C., Solicitors to the Company.

In the Matter of Letters Patent for the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, granted to John Henry Johnson, of 47, Lincoln's-inn-fields, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, for the invention of "improvements in the treatment of wool and other animal textile materials, whether in a raw or manufactured state."—A communication from abroad by Jean Baptiste Frezon the elder, of Paris, in the Empire of France, Chemist.—Dated the 25th day of March, 1867 (No. 961).

NOTICE is hereby given, that the said John Henry Johnson has applied by petition to the Commissioners of Patents, according to the statute in that case made and provided, for leave to enter a Disclaimer and Memorandum of Alteration of certain parts of the title and specification of the said Letters Patent, and any person intending to oppose such application must leave notice thereof, at the office of the Attorney-General, No. 10, Old-square, Lincoln's-inn, London, within ten days from the date hereof.—Dated this 30th day of June, 1874.

J. Henry Johnson, 47, Lincoln's-inn-fields, London.

In Chancery.

In the Matter of the Act 19th and 20th Victoria, chapter 120, intituled "An Act to facilitate Leases and Sales of Settled Estates." And in the Matter of two Messuages or Tenements, with the Out-buildings and Appurtenances thereto respectively belonging, situate in Lichfield-street, in the borough and parish of Wolverhampton, in the county of Stafford, devised by the Will of Joseph Tarratt, Esq., deceased, and now in the respective occupations of Mansell and Jones.

PURSUANT to the above-mentioned Acts of Parliament and the Consolidated General Order of this Court in that behalf, notice is hereby given, that on the 11th day of June, 1874, Henry Worthington Tarratt, of Bushbury Lodge, Leamington, in the county of Warwick, E-q., presented his Petition to the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, to be heard before his Honour the Vice-Chancellor Sir Richard Malins, praying that an agreement, dated 15th of April, 1874, and entered into by the said Henry Worthington Tarratt, on behalf of himself and all persons interested in remainder in the said messuages and premises above-mentioned, for a sale thereof to the Wolverhampton and Staffordshire Banking Company, for such a sum of Consolidated £3 per cent. Bank Annuities, as will produce the clear annual sum of £55 (being the present gross rental of the premises) which said agreement provides (amongst other things), that all the costs of obtaining or endeavouring to obtain the approbation of this Honourable Court shall be borne and paid by the said Banking Company, may be confirmed and ordered to be carried into execution under the direction of this Honourable Court, and that John Ford and Daniel Rowland Williams, in the said Petition mentioned, may be appointed Trustees for the purpose of accepting a transfer of the said £3 per cent. Bank Annuities, forming the consideration for the said sale, and that any of the persons interested therein, or the Trustees or Trustees for the time being, may be at liberty from time to time to apply in Chambers for the appointment of a new Trustee or new Trustees as there shall be occasion, that the said Trustees may be at liberty to sell the said Bank Annuities and apply the proceeds of such sale to some one or more of the purposes mentioned in the 23rd section of the above-mentioned Act, without any application to the Court, and that until the said Bank Annuities shall be sold the Trustees may apply the dividends thereof upon the same trusts as are declared by the will of the said Joseph Tarratt, deceased, concerning the rents and profits of the said settled premises, and that your petitioner may be appointed to convey the said premises to the said Banking Company. And notice is also hereby given, that the petitioner may be served with any Order of the Court, or of the Judge in Chambers, or notice relating to the subject of the said Petition, at the offices of Messrs. Wedlake and Letts, situate at 3, Mitre-court, Temple, in the city of London.—Dated this 26th day of June, 1874.
