TUESDAY, AUGUST 11, 1874.

Her Majesty's Most Gracious Speech, delivered by the Lords Commissioners to both Houses of Parliament, on Friday, August 7, 1874.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THE time has arrived when I am enabled to release you from your attendance in Parliament.

In so doing, my first wish is to thank you for the readiness with which you have made provision for my son Prince Leopold on his attaining his majority.

My relations with all Foreign Powers continue to be friendly, and the influence arising from those cordial relations will be employed, as heretofore, in maintaining the obligations imposed by Treaties, and in promoting and consolidating the Peace of Europe.

The Emperor of Russia having made proposals for a Conference to be held at Brussels, the object of which is to lessen, by judicious regulations, the severities of war, I have, in common with other Powers, authorised a delegate to attend that Conference; but, before doing so, I have thought it right to obtain assurances from all the Powers thus represented, that no proposal shall be brought forward calculated either to alter the recognised rules of international law, or to place restrictions on the conduct of naval operations. The recommendations which may issue from the Conference will have my careful consideration, but I have reserved to myself full freedom of action in regard to their acceptance or rejection.

Negotiations have been undertaken for the renewal of the Reciprocity Treaty formerly in force between the Dominion of Canada and the United States of America. These negotiations, commenced at the desire and in the interest of the Dominion, have been temporarily suspended by the adjournment of the American Senate. They will be revived at an early date, and it is my hope that they may lead to an increase of commercial intercourse between my colonial subjects and the citizens of the United States.

I deeply lament the continuance in Spain of disturbances which form a single exception to the general tranquillity of Europe; but, while earnestly desiring the restoration of peace and civil order in that country, I believe that this result will be most surely brought about by a rigid abstinence from interference in the internal affairs of an independent and friendly State.

The Treaty recently concluded with the Sultan of Zanzibar, having for its object the suppression of East African Slave Trade, has been faithfully observed, and has already done much to put an end to that traffic as carried on by sea. The exertions of my Naval and Consular servants, in that part of the world, will not be relaxed until complete success has been obtained.

I am thankful to say that the famine in India has, as yet, been attended with little mortality, a result mainly attributable, under Providence, to the precautions taken by my Indian Government. The strenuous exertions of my Viceroy, and of the officers serving under him, merit my high approbation.

Since the close of hostilities on the Gold Coast, steady progress has been made in the task of pacifying the country and of organising its administration. Treaties of Peace have been concluded with important tribes, and the King of Ashanti has persevered in the discharge of his obligations to this country.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I acknowledge the liberality with which you have provided for the charges of the State.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I have seen with pleasure the considerable reductions which you have been able to make in taxation. The total abolition of the sugar duties will not only confer a benefit on the consumers of an article in universal demand, but will also prove of much commercial advantage to the nation. The removal of the duty on horses is another measure well calculated to encourage the trade and industry of the country. Concurrently with these remissions, and with a further reduction of the Income Tax to a rate which is little more than nominal, you have been enabled to make important grants from the general revenue towards services which, though of Imperial concern, have hitherto been defrayed, either exclusively or in an undue proportion, out of local rates. I trust that these measures, when their full effect shall have been felt, will conduce to the general prosperity of the country, and will impart increased elasticity to the revenue.

Although your Session has been unavoidably curtailed of a third of its usual duration, I observe with satisfaction that you have been able to carry measures of general interest and importance.

I have cordially given my assent to the Act "for improving the health of women, young persons, and children employed in manufactures." By this measure I anticipate that not only will the health and education of the classes affected by it be promoted, but that the relations between the employers and employed in those important branches of industry will be maintained on a footing of enduring harmony and mutual good-will.

I have readily sanctioned the Act for the reform of the system of Patronage in the Church of Scotland. I trust that the removal of this ancient cause of controversy may both strengthen the Church and conduce to the religious welfare of a large number of my subjects.

The Act for the better regulation of Public Worship in the Church of England, will, I hope, tend to prevent or allay the unhappy controversies which sometimes arise from the difficulty experienced in obtaining an early decision on doubtful points of law, and a definitive interpretation of the authorised form of public worship. Such controversies, even when they occur between persons loyally desirous to conform to the doctrine and discipline of the Established Church, beget serious evils, and their speedy termination by competent authority is a matter of grave importance to the interests of religion.

The legal measures which you have passed with reference to the Limitation of Actions for real property, the Law of Vendors and Purchasers, and Land Rights and Conveyancing in Scotland, as well as the Acts for regulating the sale of Intoxicating Liquors, and for carrying forward Sanitary Legislation in the United Kingdom, may be expected to be productive of public advantage and satisfaction.

The Commission issued by me for inquiring into the state and working of the law as to offences connected with trade has been unable to complete its labours in time to admit of legislation during the Session now about to terminate; and I regret that the pressure of business in the House of Commons has made it necessary to suspend the consideration of the measures for facilitating the transfer of land in England, for re-arranging the Judicature of England and Ireland, and for establishing an Imperial Court of Appeal. These subjects will naturally claim your earliest attention in a future Session.

In returning to your counties and constituencies, you will have the opportunity of beneficially exercising that influence which is the happy result of our local institutions, and I pray that the blessing of the Almighty may accompany you in the discharge of all your duties.

Then a Commission for proroguing the Parliament was read; after which the Lord Chancellor said:

My Lords and Gentlemen:

By virtue of Her Majesty's Commission, under the Great Seal, to us and other Lords directed, and now read, we do, in Her Majesty's name, and in obedience to Her commands, prorogue this Parliament to Friday, the twenty-third day of October next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Friday, the twenty-third day of October next.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 6th day of August, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HER Majesty in Council was this day pleased, on a representation of the Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Council on Education, to appoint Isaac Saunders Leadham, Esquire, M.A., Fellow of Brasenose College, Oxford, and Edmund Mackenzie Sneyd-Kynnersley, Esquire, M.A., Fereday Fellow of Saint John's College, Oxford, to be two of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 6th day of August, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the fifty-seventh year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend training, and to regulate the quotas of Militia," it is, amongst other things, enacted "that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the Militia of the United Kingdom, or any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewartry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised, in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the Militia of the United Kingdom, or of any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewartry or stewartries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year; anything contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the Militia to the contrary notwithstanding."

And whereas it has seemed fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to suspend the calling out of the Fife Artillery Regiment of Militia, for the purpose of being trained and exercised, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by the advice of Her Privy Council, doth hereby suspend the calling out of the Fife Artillery Regiment of Militia, for the purpose of being trained and exercised, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four; and it is further ordered that this Order be published in the London Gazette.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 6th day of August, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the law respecting the Office of County Coroner," it is (amongst other things) enacted that when and as often as it shall seem expedient to the Justices of any county that such county should be divided into two or more districts for the purposes of that Act, or that alteration should be made of any division theretofore made under that Act, it shall be lawful for the said Justices in Quarter Sessions assembled to resolve that a Petition shall be presented to Her Majesty praying that such division be made, and thereupon to adjourn the further consideration of such Petition until notice thereof shall be given to the Coroner or Coroners of such county as thereafter provided; and further, that the Clerk of the Peace shall give notice of any such resolution to every Coroner for such county, and of the time when the Petition shall be taken by the said Justices into consideration, and the Justices shall confer with every such Coroner who shall attend the meeting of the Justices for that purpose touching such Petition, having due regard to the size and nature of each proposed district, the number of the inhabitants, the nature of their employments, and such other circumstances as shall appear to the Justices fit to be considered in carrying into execution the provisions of the said Act. And that such Petition, with a description of the several proposed districts and of the boundaries thereof, with the reasons upon which the Petition is founded, shall be certified to Her Majesty under the hands and seals of two or more of the Justices present when such Petition shall have been agreed to, and that the Clerk of the Peace for such county shall forthwith give or send a true copy of such Petition certified under his hand to every Coroner of each county. And further, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty if she shall think fit with the advice of Her Privy Council, after taking into consideration any such Petition, and also any Petition which may be presented to her by any Coroner of the same county concerning such proposed division, or whenever it shall seem fit to Her Majesty to direct the issue of a Writ De Coronatore Eligendo for the purpose of authorizing the election of an additional Coroner above the number of those who have been theretofore customarily elected in such county, to Order that such county shall be divided into such and so many Districts for the purposes of that Act as to Her Majesty with the advice aforesaid shall seem expedient, and to give a name to each of such districts and to determine at what place within each district the Court for the Election of Coroner for such district should be holden as thereinafter provided, and every such Order shall be published in the London Gazette. And whereas the county of Montgomery was by an Order in Council dated the twenty-eighth November, A.D. one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, divided into three districts under the hereinafore recited Act called the Machynlleth District, the Newtown District and the Welshpool District. And whereas the Justices of the Peace in and for the said county of Montgomery, in Quarter Sessions assembled, on the first day of July, A.D. one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, resolved that a Petition should be presented to Her Majesty, praying that alteration should be made of the division of the said county into Coroners' districts; theretofore made, as aforesaid, by dividing the said Welshpool District, and forming the same into two Coroners' Districts, and by making certain variations hereinafter mentioned in the said Newtown District. And whereas the said justices did thereupon adjourn the further consideration of such Petition to the second day of July, A.D. one thousand eight hundred and seven-four. And whereas the Clerk of the Peace of the said county, did on the first day of July give notice of the said resolution to the respective Coroners of the said Machynlleth District, and of the said Newtown District, and of the time when the said Petition should be taken by the said Justices into consideration. And whereas the late Coroner of the said Welshpool District had died shortly before the said first of July, and the office of Coroner of the said District then became and still remains vacant.

And whereas the said Coroners of the said Machynlleth District and of the said Newtown District did not attend the meeting of the said Justices on the second of July, but an acknowledgment from each of the said Coroners of having received the said notice was laid before the said Justices at the said meeting. And whereas at the said meeting of the second of July the said

Justices took the matter into their further consideration, and having due regard to the size and nature of the proposed Districts, the numbers of the inhabitants, the nature of their employments and such other circumstances as appeared to the said Justices fit to be considered in carrying into execution the provisions of the hereinafore recited Act, did resolve that it would be desirable and expedient that the said Welshpool District so originally appointed, as aforesaid, should be divided and form two districts to be called respectively the Welshpool and Llanfyllin Coroners' Districts, and that the said Newtown District should be altered as hereinafter mentioned. And whereas in pursuance of the said resolutions a Petition with a description of the several proposed districts and of the boundaries thereof with the reasons upon which the Petition is founded hath been certified to Her Majesty under the hands and seals of two of the Justices present when the said Petition was so agreed to as aforesaid.

And whereas the Clerk of the Peace of the said county did forthwith send to each of the said Coroners of the said Machynlleth and Newtown Districts a true copy of the said Petition certified under his hand.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council having taken the said Petition into consideration is pleased by and with the advice of Her Privy Council to grant the prayer thereof, and to declare, order, and determine—

That alteration shall be made of the division heretofore made of the county of Montgomery under the Act passed in the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty's reign intituled "An Act to amend the law respecting the office of county Coroner" in the following respects:

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 6th day of August, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the session of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign (chapter eighty), and intituled "An Act for the better government of Her Majesty's subjects resorting to China," it was enacted (among other things) that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, by any Order or Orders made with the advice of Her Privy Council to ordain for the government of Her Majesty's subjects being within the dominions of the Emperor of China, or being within any ship or vessel at a distance of not more than 100 miles from the coast of China, any law or ordinance which to Her Majesty in Council might seem meet, as fully and effectually as any such law or ordinance could be made by Her Majesty in Council, for the government of Her Majesty's subjects being within Her Majesty's island of Hong Kong:

And whereas by another Act of Parliament passed in the same session (sixth and seventh Victoria, chapter ninety-four), and intituled "An Act to remove doubts as to the exercise of power and jurisdiction by Her Majesty within divers countries and places out of Her Majesty's dominions, and to render the same more effectual," the short title of which is (in accordance with twenty-ninth and thirtieth Victoria chapter eighty-seven) "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1843," it was enacted (among other things) that it was and should be lawful for Her Majesty to hold, exercise and enjoy any power or jurisdiction which Her Majesty then had or might at any time thereafter have within any country or place out of Her Majesty's dominions, in the same and as ample a manner as if Her Majesty had acquired such power or jurisdiction by the cession or conquest of territory:

And whereas Her Majesty has had and now has power and jurisdiction in the dominions of the Emperor of China and in the dominions of the Mikado of Japan:

And whereas, by "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1873," thirty-sixth and thirty-seventh Victoria chapter eighty-five (which is to be construed as one with the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, and the Acts amending the same, and which with the said Acts may be cited collectively as the Merchant Shipping Acts, 1854 to 1873,) it was enacted, among other things, that where, in accordance with the Foreign Jurisdiction Acts, Her Majesty should exercise jurisdiction within any port out of Her Majesty's dominions, it should be lawful for Her Majesty by Order in Council to declare such port a port of registry (in the Act now in recital referred to as a foreign port of registry), and by the same or any subsequent Order in Council to declare the description of persons who should be the registrars of British ships at such foreign port of registry, and to make regulations with respect to the registry of British ships thereat; and that upon such Order coming into operation it should have effect as if it were enacted in the Merchant Shipping Acts, 1854 to 1873, and should, subject to any exceptions and regulations contained in the Order, apply in the same manner, as nearly as might be, as if the port mentioned in the Order were an ordinary port of registry:

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that it is expedient to declare the port of Shanghai in the empire of China a foreign port of registry, and to declare the description of persons who shall be the registrars of British ships thereat, and to make regulations with respect to the registry of British ships thereat:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in her in this behalf by the hereinbefore recited Acts, or some or one of them, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to declare and order as follows:—

The person so appointed shall during the continuance of his appointment have all the power and authority of the registrar.

Tenure of Office of Registrar.

7. The registrar shall hold office during the pleasure of Her Majesty, but any warrant of appointment to the office of registrar shall not be vacated by reason only of a demise of the Crown.

In case at any time Her Majesty thinks fit by warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual to revoke the warrant appointing any person to be registrar, or, while there is a registrar in office, thinks fit by warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual to appoint another person to be registrar, then and in every such case, until the warrant of revocation or of new appointment is notified by Her Majesty's minister in China to the person holding office, all powers and authorities vested in that person shall continue and be deemed to have continued in as full force, and he shall continue and be deemed to have continued entitled to all the privileges and emoluments of the office as fully, and all things done by him shall be and be deemed to have been as valid in law, as if such warrant of revocation or new appointment had not been made.

11. The registrar of shipping at Shanghai shall have the same powers as any registrar of shipping appointed under the Merchant Shipping Acts; and for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of the said Acts and of this Order, the said registrar shall have the same powers as by the said Acts are conferred for the purposes of registration and measurement on any officer of Customs or on any officer of the Board of Trade.

Mode of Transfer of Ship from Foreigner to British Subject at Consular Port.

14. On the transfer of a foreign ship to a British subject at any port in Japan or at any port in China other than Shanghai, should the purchaser be desirous of registering the said ship at Shanghai, the said consular officer of such port shall, if requested so to do by the purchaser or transferee or other duly authorized person, forward to the registrar at Shanghai the bill of sale, the declaration of ownership, and a certificate of any survey of the said ship that may be required for the purposes of registry under the Merchant Shipping Acts; and upon receiving the same the said registrar shall grant a certificate of registry for the said ship, and shall either retain the said certificate, or forward the same to the consular officer or to the registrar of shipping at such port or place as such purchaser or transferee or other authorized person shall require; and on such request the said certificate shall be forwarded by any consular officer or registrar, into whose hands the same may come, to any other consular officer or registrar, to be handed by him to the master of the said ship when the requirements of the Merchant Shipping Acts as to marking the said ship shall have been complied with.

come to any other consular officer or registrar, to be handed by him to the master of the said ship, when the requirements of the Merchant Shipping Acts as to marking the said ship shall have been complied with.

Passes how granted, and in what cases void.

16. On any such transfers, whether from one British subject to another, or from a foreigner to a British subject, or on the first arrival of any ship provided with a sailing letter or other document as aforesaid, at any port in Japan, or at any port in China other than Shanghai, where there is a surveyor, the consular officer of such port shall grant to the master of such ship, upon his application, a pass containing the particulars required by schedule A. to this Order. The pass so granted shall within the China and Japan seas, including the waters of the island of Hong Kong, possess the same force as a certificate of registry, until the expiration of four months, or until such earlier time as the new certificate of registry, shall be delivered to the master of the said ship by a consular or other duly authorised officer, or until notice of the cancellation of such pass has been given to the master of the said ship by the registrar at Shanghai, but upon the expiration of such period, or upon such delivery, or upon receipt of such notice of cancellation, shall be void to all intents and purposes; and the said pass on becoming so void, shall be at once delivered by the master of the said ship to a consular or other duly authorised officer, and in default of delivery, the said master shall incur a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds.

Powers of Minister in China respecting Ship Registered at Shanghai.

17. Her Majesty's minister in China shall, with regard to the performance of any act or thing relating to the registry of a ship registered at Shanghai, or of any interest therein, be considered in all respects as occupying the place of the Board of Trade and the Commissioners of Customs.

Her Majesty's minister in China shall at any port or place in China, and Her Majesty's minister in Japan shall at any port or place in Japan, have the same power to appoint fit and proper persons to be surveyors under the Merchant Shipping Acts as are possessed by the Board of Trade in the United Kingdom, and the persons so appointed shall have the same powers as are conferred on the surveyors appointed as aforesaid by the Board of Trade.

Commissioners of Customs or Governor may grant pass to a ship unregistered to proceed to Shanghai.

19. In cases where it appears to the Commissioners of Customs, or to the Governor or other person administering the government of any British possession, that by reason of special circumstances it would be desirable that permission should be granted to any British ship to pass without being previously registered from any port or place in Her Majesty's Dominions to the port of Shanghai in the Empire of China; it shall be lawful for such Commissioners or Governor or other person to grant a pass accordingly, and such pass shall for the time and within the limits therein mentioned have the same effect as a certificate of registry.

Her Majesty's Minister in China may grant pass to a ship unregistered to proceed to any port in Her Majesty's Dominions.

20. In cases where it appears to Her Majesty's minister in China that by reason of special circumstances it would be desirable that permission should be granted to any British ship to pass without being previously registered from the port of Shanghai, in the empire of China, to any port or place within Her Majesty's dominions, it shall be lawful for such minister to grant a pass accordingly, and such pass shall for the time and within the limits therein mentioned have the same effect as a certificate of registry.

21. Lorchas and other Chinese and Japanese rigged ships registered at Shanghai shall be exempted from that portion of the Merchant Shipping Acts which relates to the shipment and discharge of seamen, so far as applies to the employment of natives of China and Japan on board these ships.

Minister in China may amend present instructions or issue others.

22. Her Majesty's minister in China may, with the approval of one of Her Majesty's Secretaries of State, amend the instructions to consuls which accompany this Order, and issue any further instructions with reference to the performance of any act or thing relating to the registry of a ship registered at Shanghai, or of any interest therein, that may seem to him necessary or advisable.

Fees.

23. Fees not exceeding the amounts named in schedule B. to this Order may be taken in respect of the matters mentioned in the same schedule.

Commencement of Order.

24. This Order shall commence and have effect as follows:—

- (1.) As to the making of any warrant or appointment under this Order, immediately from and after the making of this Order:
- (2.) As to all other matters and provisions comprised and contained in this Order, immediately from and after the expiration of one month after this Order is first exhibited in the public office of Her Majesty's consul at Shanghai; for which purpose Her Majesty's consul at Shanghai is hereby required forthwith, on receipt by him of a copy of this Order, to affix and exhibit the same conspicuously in his public office, and he is also hereby required to keep the same so affixed and exhibited during one month from the first exhibition thereof; and of the time of such first exhibition notice shall, as soon thereafter as practicable, be published in every consular district in China and Japan, in such manner as Her Majesty's ministers there respectively direct; and, notwithstanding anything in this Order, the time of the expiration of the said month shall be deemed to be the time of the commencement of this Order.

Publication of Order.

25. A copy of this Order shall be kept exhibited conspicuously in each consulate in China and in Japan.

Printed copies shall be provided and sold at such reasonable price as Her Majesty's minister in China directs.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the first session of the Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to abridge the holding of benefices in plurality, and to make better provision for the residence of the clergy," after reciting that "Whereas, in some instances, tithings, hamlets, chapeltries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong, with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may in some instances with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for

"ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted "That when, with respect to his own diocese, it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said archbishop that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place or district within the diocese of such archbishop, or the diocese of such bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church, and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes; and the said archbishop or bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such bishop to be transmitted to the said archbishop for his consideration), describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent-charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested; and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modification thereof as the said archbishop may approve, and the said archbishop shall, on full consideration and inquiry, be satisfied with any such scheme, or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid, by his report to Her Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make an Order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect."

And whereas by another Act of Parliament, passed in the second and third years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne; and for other purposes," it is, amongst other things, further enacted, "That when, by any Order of Her Majesty in Council as aforesaid, a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes is constituted, the same shall, on registration thereof, and with the consent in writing of the incumbent or incumbents of the benefice or benefices to be thereby affected, become a perpetual curacy and benefice, and the minister thereof, duly nominated and licensed thereto, and his successors, shall be a body politic and corporate, with perpetual succession, and may receive and take to himself and his successor all such lands, tenements, tithes, rent-charges and hereditaments as shall be granted unto him or them, and such perpetual curate shall thenceforth have, within the limits of the district parish formed under the Church Building Acts, for the church of such perpetual curacy, sole and exclusive cure of souls, and shall not in anywise be subject to the control or interference of the incumbent or incumbents of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such Order, if he or they shall have consented to such Order as aforesaid; but if such incumbent or incumbents shall not have so consented thereto, this last-mentioned provision shall not come into opera"tion until the next avoidance of the benefice by the incumbent objecting thereto, or by the surviving incumbent objecting, if more than one shall object thereto, and in such case the last-mentioned provision shall forthwith after such avoidance come into operation, and shall be binding on all persons whatsoever."

And whereas Archibald Campbell, Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury, hath made a report to Her Majesty in Council in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"We, the undersigned, Archibald Campbell, Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury, do, in pursuance of the 26th section of the Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the first and second years of your Majesty's reign, chapter 106, hereby report to your Majesty in Council:—

"That there is in the county of Kent, and diocese of Canterbury, the vicarage of Kemsing, the parish whereof comprises, amongst other places, a portion of the ancient parochial chapelry of Seal, out of which chapelry a district known by the name of the district of St. Lawrence, Seal, was constituted by an Order of your Majesty in Council, dated the fourth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and published in the London Gazette the fifth day of the same month.

"That the population attached to the said parish church of Kemsing, exclusive of the said chapelry, amounts to nearly four hundred and eight, and the population of the said chapelry, exclusive of the said district of St. Lawrence, amounts to one thousand or thereabouts.

"That there is within the portion of the said chapelry hereinafter proposed to be separated an ancient church or chapel, affording sufficient accommodation for the inhabitants of such portion, and distant one mile and a half or thereabouts from the parish church of Kemsing, and the inhabitants of the said chapelry have from time immemorial resorted to the said church or chapel.

"That the said chapelry appears to have been from time immemorial treated as a separate and distinct parish for all civil purposes, and that baptisms, churchings, marriages, and burials have been, from the year one thousand six hundred and fifty-five, and are now solemnized and performed in the said church or chapel of the said chapelry and the burial-ground thereto belonging.

"That the net annual value of the said rectory of Kemsing, with the said chapelry of Seal, is six hundred and thirty pounds or thereabouts, of which one hundred and twenty-four pounds is derived in respect of the said parish of Kemsing, and five hundred and six pounds in respect of the said chapelry of Seal.

"That there is a good and sufficient house of residence belonging to the said chapelry of Seal, but there is no house of residence belonging to the said vicarage of Kemsing, but in the event of the separation hereinafter proposed taking effect, steps will forthwith be taken to provide one.

"That the Honourable Mortimer Sackville West is the patron of the said vicarage of Kemsing with the said chapelry of Seal, and the Reverend Thomas Offspring Blackall is the present vicar thereof.

"That it appears to us, the said Archbishop, that the portion of the said chapelry of Seal now remaining to the said vicarage of Kemsing may, under the provisions of the Act of Parliament passed in the first and second years of your Majesty's reign, chapter 106, and of the Act of Parliament passed in the second and third years of your Majesty's reign, chapter 49, be advantageously separated from the parish of Kemsing, and be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes, and a perpetual curacy and benefice.

"That pursuant to the provisions contained in the 26th section of the said first-mentioned Act of Parliament, we, the said Archbishop, have prepared a scheme, in writing, appended to this report, describing the mode in which it appears to us that the alteration above proposed may be best effected, and how the changes consequent thereon in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent-charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews may be made with justice to all parties interested, and being, on full consideration and enquiry, satisfied with such scheme, we, do, by this our report to your Majesty in Council, certify the same to your Majesty, together with the consents, in writing, to the said scheme of the patron and incumbent of the benefice to be affected, to the intent that your Majesty in Council, in case it should be thought expedient and proper so to do, may make an Order for carrying such scheme into effect.

And whereas the scheme and consents appended to the said report are in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"The SCHEME referred to in the foregoing Report.

"That the portion of the said chapelry of Seal, now belonging to the parish of Kemsing, that is to say, the whole of the said chapelry, except the portion thereof which is comprised in the ecclesiastical district of St. Lawrence, Seal, shall be separated from the parish of Kemsing, and be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes, and a perpetual curacy and benefice by the name of the perpetual curacy of Seal, of which the church or chapel belonging to the said chapelry shall be the parish church.

"That the said proposed separate parish and benefice shall be subject to the same ecclesiastical jurisdiction as the benefice of Kemsing, and the incumbent of such proposed separate benefice shall have exclusive cure of souls within the limits of the same.

"That all tithe, tithe rent-charges, rents, fruits, and other profits arising, accruing, or payable in respect of the said chapelry of Seal shall belong to and be held, received, and enjoyed by the incumbent of the said proposed separate benefice for the time being for ever.

"That all ecclesiastical offices shall be performed in the church of the said separate parish and benefice of Seal and the burial-ground belonging thereto, and that all fees and payments for such offices performed within the limits of the said separate parish and benefice, and all such other ecclesiastical dues, offerings, and emoluments usually payable to the incumbent of a parish or benefice as shall arise within the said separate parish and benefice of Seal shall henceforth belong to and be received by the incumbent for the time being of the said proposed separate parish and benefice.

"That the patronage of the said proposed separate benefice shall belong to the said Mortimer Sackville West, or the person or persons who, under the limitations contained in the settlement of the estates of the late Lady Amherst, dated the 2nd day of August, 1871, would, for the time being, be entitled to the patronage of the united vicarage and chapelry, if the same had not been severed, or his or their heirs or assigns.

"That the inhabitants of the said proposed separate parish of Seal shall be exclusively entitled to accommodation in the church or chapel of that proposed parish, and they shall not be entitled to any accommodation in the parish church of Kemsing, or in any other church or chapel situate elsewhere than within the limits of the said proposed parish and benefice of Seal, saving nevertheless the right of any persons possessing a right by faculty, or otherwise, to the exclusive use of any pews or sittings, either in the parish church of Kemsing, or in the church of the proposed parish of Seal, and who may not be willing to relinquish the same.

"Given under the hand of us, the said Archbishop, the fourth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

"A. C. Cantuar.

"Consents.

"I, the Honourable Mortimer Sackville West, of Knole, in the county of Kent, the patron or the person entitled to present or nominate to the vicarage of Kemsing, in case the same were now vacant, and I, the Reverend Thomas Offspring Blackall, the vicar of the said vicarage of Kemsing, do hereby respectively assent to the foregoing report and scheme.

"Dated this twenty-ninth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

"Mortimer Sackville West.

"Thomas Offspring Blackall."

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said scheme of the said Lord Archbishop of Canterbury be carried into effect.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 6th day of August, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the first session of Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to abridge the holding of benefices in plurality, and to make better provision for the residence of the clergy," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "That whenever it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, with respect to his own diocese, and whenever it shall be represented to him by the bishop of any diocese, or by the bishops of any two dioceses, that two or more benefices, or that one or more benefice or benefices, and one or more spiritual sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages, in his or their diocese or dioceses, being either in the same parish or contiguous to each other, and of which the aggregate population shall not exceed one thousand five hundred persons, and the aggregate yearly value shall not exceed five hundred pounds, may, with advantage to the interests of religion, be united into one benefice, the said Archbishop of the Province shall inquire into the circumstances of the case; and if on such inquiry it shall appear to him that such union may be usefully made, and will not be of inconvenient extent, and that

"the patron or patrons of the said benefices, sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages respectively, is or are consenting thereto, such consent being signified in writing under the hands of such patron or patrons, the said Archbishop shall, six weeks before certifying such inquiry and consent to Her Majesty, as herein after directed, cause, with respect to his own diocese, a statement in writing of the facts, and in other cases a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation, to be affixed on or near the principal outer door of the church, or in some public and conspicuous place in each of such benefices, sinecure rectories or vicarages, with notice to any person or persons interested, that he, she, or they, may, within such six weeks, show cause in writing under his, her, or their hand or hands, to the said Archbishop, against such union; and if no sufficient cause be shown within such time, the said Archbishop shall certify the inquiry and consent aforesaid to Her Majesty in Council, and thereupon it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make and issue an Order or Orders for uniting such benefices, sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages, into one benefice, with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes only; and it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to give directions for regulating the course and succession in which the patrons, if there be more than one patron, shall present or nominate to such united benefice, from time to time, as the same shall become vacant."

And whereas the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act, hath duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a certificate, in writing, bearing date the sixteenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"We, the undersigned, Archibald Campbell, Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury, Primate of all England and Metropolitan, do hereby certify to your Majesty in Council, that the Right Reverend Christopher Lord Bishop of Lincoln (as Bishop of the diocese within which are situate the rectory of Wilksby, in the county of Lincoln, and the rectory of Claxby Pluckacre, in the same county), having represented unto us that the said benefices, being contiguous to each other, and of which the aggregate population does not exceed one hundred and twenty-four persons, and the aggregate yearly value does not exceed three hundred and sixty pounds, might, with advantage to the interests of religion, be united into one benefice, we inquired into the circumstances of the case.

"That on such inquiry it appeared to us that such union might be usefully made, and would not be of inconvenient extent, and that James Banks Stanhope, of Revesby Abbey, in the said county of Lincoln, Esquire, being the patron or person entitled to present to the rectory of Wilksby, in case the same were now vacant, and to the rectory of Claxby Pluckacre, (the same being now vacant), has signified his consent, in writing, to the union of the said benefices into one benefice, with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes.

"That six weeks and upwards before certifying such inquiry and consent to your Majesty in Council, we caused copies, in writing, of the aforesaid representation of the said Lord Bishop to be affixed on the principal outer door of the parish church of the said benefice of Wilksby, and in the most public position in the parish of Claxby Pluckacre (there being no church in that parish), with notice to any person or persons interested that he, she, or they might, within such six weeks, show cause, in writing, under his, her, or their hand or hands, to us, the said Archbishop, against such union, and no such cause has been shown.

"The representation of the said Lord Bishop of Lincoln, our inquiry into the circumstances of the case, the statement of circumstances in reply thereto, and the copies of the representation and notice before mentioned, are hereunto annexed.

And we do hereby certify the inquiry and consent aforesaid to your Majesty in Council, to the intent that your Majesty in Council may, in case your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do, make and issue an Order for uniting the said benefices into one benefice, with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes only.

"As witness our hand, this sixteenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

"A. C. Cantuar."

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased to order, and doth hereby order, that the said rectory of Wilksby and the said rectory of Claxby Pluckacre, both in the county of Lincoln, and diocese of Lincoln, shall be united into one benefice, with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes.

And whereas the Lord Bishop of Lichfield hath made a representation, in writing, to his Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"To the Most Reverend Archibald Campbell, by Divine Providence, Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury.

"I, the Right Reverend George Augustus Lord Bishop of Lichfield, do hereby represent to your Grace that there is in the county of Salop, and my diocese of Lichfield, the vicarage of Wellington, the parish whereof comprises, amongst other places, a township known by the name of Aston, the boundaries whereof are well known and defined; that contiguous to the said township of Aston is the parish of Uppington, in the same county and diocese, the church of which parish is distant from the said township one mile, or thereabouts.

"That there is no church or chapel within the said township of Aston, the inhabitants whereof are distant from the parish church of Wellington three miles, or thereabouts.

"That the population of the said township of Aston amounts, according to the latest returns of population made under the authority of Parliament, to 101 persons, for whom the church of the said parish of Uppington affords sufficient accommodation, and that the inhabitants of the said township appear to have been in the habit of resorting to the said church of Uppington for Divine service from time immemorial.

"That the population of the said parish of Wellington, exclusive of the said township of Aston, amounts, according to the latest returns of the population made under the authority of Parliament, to 13,399 persons.

"That the net annual value of the said parish of Uppington is £73, or thereabouts, arising partly from glebe and partly from rent-charges given in commutation of tithes.

"That it appears to me that the said township of Aston may, under the provisions of the Act of Parliament passed in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter 106, be advantageously separated from the said parish of Wellington and united to the adjoining parish of Uppington for ecclesiastical purposes.

"That pursuant to the directions contained in the 26th section of the said Act of Parliament, I, the said Lord Bishop, have drawn up a scheme, in writing, appended to this representation, describing the mode in which it appears to me that the alteration above proposed may be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent-charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested, and I do submit the same to your Grace, together with the consents, in writing, of Thomas Slaney Eyton, of Walford Hall, in the county of Salop, Esquire, the patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said vicarage of Wellington if the same were now vacant, of the Most Noble Harry George, Duke and Marquess of Cleveland, K.G., the patron, donor, or person entitled to appoint to the donative vicarage of Uppington, and the consents, in writing, of the Reverend Benjamin Banning, Clerk, M.A., and of the Reverend John Meredith, Clerk, the incumbents of the said vicarages of Wellington and Uppington aforesaid, respectively, to the intent that your Grace may, if on full consideration and inquiry you shall be satisfied with the said scheme, certify the same, and such consents, to Her Majesty in Council.

"Given under my hand, this ninth day of July, in the year of our Lord, 1874.

"G. A. Lichfield."

And whereas the scheme and consents in the said representation are in the words and figures following:—

"The Scheme referred to.

"That the inhabitants of the said township of Aston shall not in the future be entitled to any accommodation in the said parish church of Wellington, and shall be exonerated from all liability to repair the said parish church, but shall be entitled to accommodation in the said church of Uppington, and shall be liable, subject to the provisions of the Compulsory Church Rates Abolition Act, 1868, to the repairs of the said church.

"That the Most Noble Harry George, Duke and Marquess of Cleveland, the donor or patron of the donative of Uppington aforesaid, has signified his intention (provided the proposed annexation of the township of Aston to the said benefice of Uppington, be legally carried into effect), to make the said benefice a benefice presentative, instead of a donative as it is understood to be at present, and to pay over to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England a capital sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds, such capital sum to be expended in or towards the provision of a parsonage house or house of residence for the incumbent of the said benefice, and his successor, incumbents of the said benefice for the time being.

"In witness whereof, we have hereunto respectively set our hands this fourth day of July, in the year of our Lord 1874.

And whereas the said Lord Archbishop being, on full consideration and enquiry, satisfied with such scheme, hath certified the same and such consents as aforesaid by his report to Her Majesty in Council, dated the twentieth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, which report is in the words and figures following:—

"To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"We, the undersigned, Archibald Campbell,

Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury, do hereby report to your Majesty in Council, that the Right Reverend George Augustus, Lord Bishop of Lichfield, has represented unto us (amongst other things):—That there is in the county of Salop and diocese of Lichfield, the vicarage of Wellington, the parish whereof comprises, amongst other places, a township known by the name of Aston, the boundaries whereof are well known and defined. That contiguous to the said township of Aston, is the parish of Uppington, in the same county and diocese, the church of which parish is distant from the said township one mile or thereabouts. That it appears to the said Lord Bishop that the said township of Aston may be advantageously separated from the parish of Wellington, and be united for ecclesiastical purposes to the parish of Uppington. That the said Lord Bishop has drawn up a scheme, in writing, describing the mode in which it appears to him the proposed alterations may best be effected, and how the changes consequent upon such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested, which scheme, together with the consents thereto of the patrons and incumbents of the said benefices of Wellington and Uppington, has been transmitted by the said Lord Bishop to us for our consideration. The representation and scheme of the said Lord Bishop, and the consents before referred to, are hereunto annexed. And we, the said Archbishop, being, on full consideration and inquiry, satisfied with the said scheme, do hereby, pursuant to the Act of the first and second years of your Majesty's reign, chapter 106, certify the same and such consents as aforesaid, to the intent that your Majesty in Council may, in case your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do, make and issue an Order for carrying the said scheme into effect. As witness our hand, this twentieth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

"A. C. Cantuar."

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said scheme of the said Lord Bishop of Lichfield be carried into effect.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 6th day of August, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words and figures following, that is to say;

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Dunkerton, out of the parish of Camerton, and out of the parish of Wellow, all in the county of Somerset, and in the diocese of Bath and Wells.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said parishes of Dunkerton, of Camerton, and of Wellow, hereinafter mentioned and described (such portions not at present containing within their limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship), should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas a sum of three thousand pounds three pounds per centum Consolidated Bank Annuities has been contributed and transferred to our account, and into our name, in the books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, by Anna Mary Jarrett, of Camerton Court, in the said parish of Camerton, Spilster, in aid of the endowment of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and of the maintenance of the minister thereof for the time being, and when such district shall have become a new parish under the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act, then of the maintenance of the incumbent of such new parish for the time being, and we have in respect thereof agreed with the said Anna Mary Jarrett, and have undertaken to provide and pay, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, to such minister or incumbent as aforesaid, when duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the lastly mentioned Act, the yearly sum of ninety pounds.

"And whereas a capital sum of four hundred pounds sterling has been contributed and paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England by the Reverend George William Horton, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Wellow, in aid of the endowment of the district or new parish aforesaid, and of the maintenance of the minister or incumbent thereof for the time being, and we have in respect thereof agreed and have undertaken to provide and pay, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, to such minister or incumbent as aforesaid, when duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act, the yearly sum of thirteen pounds six shillings and eight pence.

"And whereas the said sum of three thousand pounds three pounds per centum consolidated bank annuities has been contributed and transferred as aforesaid, and the said sum of four hundred pounds, sterling, has been contributed and paid as aforesaid, upon the understanding that we should pay out of the common fund, created by the firstly herein-named Act, to the minister or incumbent, for the time being, of the said district or new parish when such minister or incumbent shall have been duly licensed as before-mentioned, the annual sum of fifty pounds.

"And whereas we have agreed and undertaken to make such grant of fifty pounds per annum as aforesaid, by an instrument to be executed by us under our common seal, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

"And whereas, under and by the will of John Jarrett, late of Camerton Court aforesaid, Esq., who died on the twenty-fifth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, which said will was proved in your Majesty's Court of Probate, on the seventh day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, certain messuages, lands, and other hereditaments in the said will mentioned and described now stand limited (after the expiration or other sooner determination of a certain term of sixty years, and subject thereto, and to the trusts thereof, and after the determination of a certain other use now determined) to the use of his (the said John Jarrett's) daughter; the said Anna Mary Jarrett, and her assigns, during her life without impeachment of waste, and from and after the decease of the said Anna Mary Jarrett: to the use of the first and every other son of her body lawfully to be begotten severally and successively, according to their several and respective seniorities in tail and for default of such issue: to the use of all and every the daughters and daughter of the said Anna Mary Jarrett, lawfully to be begotten as tenants in common; in tail with cross remainders over between or among them in tail, and if there shall be but one such daughter, or if all such daughters, except one, shall die without issue, the whole to be to the use of such one or only daughter in tail, and for default of such issue: to the use of his (the said John Jarrett's) daughter, Emily Elizabeth Jarrett, and her assigns, during her life, without impeachment of waste, and from and after the decease of the said Emily Elizabeth Jarrett: to the use of the first and every other son of her body, lawfully to be begotten, severally and successively, according to their several and respective seniorities, in tail, and for default of such issue, to the use of all and every the daughters and daughter of the said Emily Elizabeth Jarrett, lawfully to be begotten as tenants, in common; in tail, with cross remainders over between or amongst them in tail. And if there shall be but one such daughter, or if all such daughters, except one, shall die without issue, the whole to be to the use of such one or only daughter, in tail, and for default of such issue: to the use of Sir Thomas Wathen Waller Baronet and Herbert Newton Jarrett, Esq., two of the executors named in the said will, their heirs and assigns for ever, upon the trusts, and to and for the ends, intents, and purposes expressed and declared in the said will of or concerning the same; and subject thereto, in trust, for his, the said testator's, own right heirs for ever.

"And whereas the said Anna Mary Jarrett has expressed to us her wish that the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district or new parish, and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof should be assigned, so as to stand limited in the same manner as that in which the said messuages, lands, and other hereditaments now stand limited as aforesaid under the said recited will.

"And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, have agreed that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of the patronage of the said proposed district or new parish, and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof should be assigned in manner desired.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Arthur Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Bath and Wells (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said parishes of Dunkerton, of Camerton, and of Wellow which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The district of Saint John the Baptist, Peasedown.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district, and so soon as the same district shall have become a new parish, then of the same new parish and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof, shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned, and shall go remain and be to the uses upon the trusts, and to and for the ends, intents, and purposes, and with, under, and subject to the powers, provisoes, agreements, and declarations, limited, declared, and contained as aforesaid, in and by the said recited will of the said John Jarrett, deceased.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or to any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint John the Baptist, Peasedown; being:—

"All those several contiguous portions of the parish of Dunkerton, of the parish of Camerton, and of the parish of Wellow, all in the county of Somerset, and in the diocese of Bath and Wells, which said portions of such parishes are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Wellow from the parish of Camerton aforesaid, at a point in the middle of the Bath and Wells turnpike-road opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'P. St. J. D., 1874, No. 1,' and placed near to the entrance gates to Camerton Park, on the north-western side of the said turnpike-road, and at the south-eastern end of the wall or fence which forms the north-eastern boundary of the said park; and extending thence, generally north-westward, to such boundary stone, and along the said park wall or fence, to a boundary stone inscribed 'P. St. J. D., 1874, No. 2,' and placed at the point where the same park wall or fence abuts upon the south-western side of White Brooks-lane; and extending thence, that is, from the last-mentioned boundary stone, first northward, to a point in the middle of the last-named lane, and then north-westward and northward, for a distance of forty-seven chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the same lane, to a point a little to the south of Wick's-lane, and opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'P. St. J. D., 1874, No. 3,' and placed on the eastern side of the White Brooks-lane aforesaid, upon the boundary which divides a certain detached portion of the said parish of Dunkerton from the parish of Camerton aforesaid, at the south-western end of the fence which divides the close numbered 367 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Dunkerton, and upon the map hereunto annexed, from the close numbered 269 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Camerton, and upon the map hereunto annexed, as aforesaid; and extending thence, north-eastward, to such boundary stone, and along the said parish boundary, thereby following the course of the last-described fence, to the point at the north-eastern end of the same fence, where the same parish boundary bends sharply towards the south-east, and continuing thence, in exactly the same direction, that is north-eastward, and in a direct line for a distance of four chains or thereabouts, to a boundary stone inscribed 'P., St. J. D., 1874, No. 4,' and placed on the south-western side of Wick's-lane aforesaid, at a distance of rather more than one chain to the west of the point where the same lane is joined by the road or foot-way leading to Tunley, and continuing thence, that is from the last-described boundary stone, first in the same direction, that is north-eastward, to a point in the middle of Wick's-lane aforesaid, and then eastward, for a distance of five and a half chains or thereabouts, along the middle of the same lane to a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'P., St. J. D., 1874, No. 5,' and placed on the north-western side of the same road, upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Camerton from a certain other detached portion of the parish of Dunkerton aforesaid, at the south-eastern end of the fence which divides the close numbered 265 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Camerton, and upon the said map hereunto annexed, from the close numbered 368 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Dunkerton, and upon the map hereunto annexed as aforesaid; and extending thence, that is from the middle of the last named lane, north-westward, to such last-mentioned boundary stone, and along the last-described parish boundary, thereby following the course of the last-described fence, to the north-western end of the same fence on the southern bank of the River Cam, and continuing thence, first north-westward, to a point in the middle of the said river, and then in a direction generally eastward, for a distance of three quarters of a mile, or thereabouts, along the middle of the same river, thereby following in parts the boundary which divides the said parish of Dunkerton from the parish of Camerton as aforesaid, to a point in the centre of Splatt Bridge which carries the road leading from Carnicut, otherwise called or known as Credlincote, to Bath over the River Cam aforesaid; and extending thence, southward, for a distance of two and a half chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-described road to its junction with the road leading to the house called or known as Splatt; and extending thence, north-eastward, for a distance of one chain, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-described road to the point on the western side of the house called or known as Splatt as aforesaid, where the same road crosses a certain stream flowing in a northerly direction into the River Cam aforesaid, close to Splatt Bridge aforesaid (which said stream in part forms the boundary dividing a certain detached portion of the said parish of Camerton from the parish of Dunkerton aforesaid, and also divides the closes, numbered respectively 339 and 338 upon the said tithe commutation map of the said parish of Camerton, and upon the said map hereunto annexed, from the closes numbered respectively 43, 42, and 41 upon the said tithe commutation map of the said parish of Dunkerton, and upon the map hereunto annexed as aforesaid); and extending thence, first south-eastward and then eastward to and along the last-described parish boundary (thereby following in part the course of the same stream, and in part the course of the fence which divides the close, numbered 337, upon the said Tithe Commutation map of the said parish of Camerton, and upon the said map hereunto annexed from the close, numbered 41, as aforesaid, and from the close, numbered 40, upon the said tithe commutation map, of the parish of Dunkerton aforesaid, and upon the map hereunto annexed as aforesaid) to the point where the same parish boundary bends sharply towards the south, and where the said last-described fence is joined by the fence which divides the close, numbered 305, upon the last-mentioned maps from the close, numbered 40, as aforesaid; and continuing thence, still eastward, along the last-described fence to the boundary which divides a certain other detached portion of the said parish of Camerton from the parish of Dunkerton aforesaid; and continuing thence, first eastward, and then southward, along the last-mentioned boundary (thereby following the line of fences dividing the closes, numbered respectively 329, 326, 328, and 327, upon the said tithe commutation map of the said parish of Camerton, and upon the said map hereunto annexed, from the closes, numbered respectively 40 as aforesaid, 25, 24, 22, 20, and 21, upon the said tithe commutation map of the said parish of Dunkerton, and upon the map hereunto annexed, as aforesaid) to the point near the houses, called or known as Dunkerton Hill Houses, where the last-mentioned boundary joins the boundary dividing the last-named parish from the parish of Wellow aforesaid; and extending thence first eastward, then north-eastward, and then again eastward, along the last mentioned boundary, thereby passing along the backs of the last named houses to a point in the middle of the old Roman road known as the 'Fosse-road'; and extending thence south-westward for a distance of thirteen chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said old Roman road to the point where it joins the Bath and Wells turnpike-road aforesaid, at or near to which point a boundary stone, inscribed 'P., St. J. D., 1874, No. 6,' has been placed; and continuing thence still south-westward for a further distance of twenty and a half chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said turnpike-road to its junction with Eckwick-lane; and extending thence south-eastward for a distance of sixty-six chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named lane to the point where it joins Wellow-lane, at or near to which point a boundary stone, inscribed 'P., St. J. D., 1874, No. 7,' has been placed; and extending thence westward for a distance of eighteen chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last named lane to its junction with the cross-road which connects the same lane with the road or lane leading from Crick-lane to Writhlington; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said cross-road to the point where it joins the road or lane leading from Crick-lane to Writhlington as aforesaid, at or near to which point a boundary stone, inscribed 'P., St. J. D., 1874, No. 8,' has been placed; and extending thence, for a distance of seventy-six chains, or thereabouts, first southward, then south-westward, and then westward, along the middle of the said road or lane to the boundary a little to the north of the bridge which carries the same road or lane over the stream flowing from Radstock, past Writhlington, to Wellow, which boundary divides the said parish of Wellow from the parish of Camerton aforesaid; and extending thence, first northward, then westward, then north-westward, and then north-eastward, along the last-described boundary, thereby passing to the west of Woodborough Farm, and to the east of Woodborough House, and following in the latter part the course of the Bath and Wells Turnpike-road aforesaid to the first described point opposite to the boundary stone inscribed 'P. St. J. D., 1874, No. 1,' as aforesaid, at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly mentioned Act, been transmitted to the respective patrons and incumbents of the said parishes of Dunkerton, Camerton, and Wellow, out of which it is intended that the district in such scheme recommended to be constituted shall be taken:

And whereas the respective patrons of the three said parishes, and the respective incumbents of the said parishes of Dunkerton and Wellow, have signified their assent to the said scheme, but the incumbent of the said parish of Camerton, has objected to the said scheme:

And whereas the said scheme has, notwithstanding such objection, been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Bath and Wells.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty, and of the Acts therein mentioned, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and to the church and cure (which said church and cure are hereinafter called the said benefice) of Christ Church, Smannel-with-Hatherden, in the county of Southampton, and in the diocese of Winchester.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of the said benefice of Christ Church, Smannel-with-Hatherden, is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession in the Warden and Scholars, Clerks of Saint Mary's College of Winchester, near Winchester, in the said county of Southampton.

"And whereas a certain benefaction is intended to be made in augmentation of the endowment of the said benefice of Christ Church, Smannel-with-Hatherden, upon the understanding and condition that a transfer of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of the same benefice from the said Warden and Scholars, Clerks of Saint Mary's College of Winchester, their successors and assigns, to the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Winchester, and his successors shall be effected by the agency of us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and that we should thereupon make a certain grant in further augmentation of the endowment of the said benefice of Christ Church, Smannel-with-Hatherden, which grant we have agreed to make accordingly.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Edward Harold, now Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness, and also in token of his consent as diocesan to the said proposed transfer (which consent is by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act mentioned, or by some or one of them made necessary), he, the said Edward Harold, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, has executed this scheme, as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas it appears to us that the transfer of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of the said benefice of Christ Church, Smannel-with-Hatherden, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will, under, and in consequence of the circumstances hereinbefore set forth, tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the new parish, in respect of which the same right of patronage or advowson arises or exists, that is to say, in the new parish of Christ Church, Smannel-with-Hatherden.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Warden and Scholars, Clerks of Saint Mary's College of Winchester (in testimony whereof they have set their common or corporate seal to this scheme), and with the consent of the said Edward Harold, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme, and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon, and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of the said benefice of Christ Church, Smannel-with-Hatherden, now vested in the said Warden and Scholars, Clerks of Saint Mary's College of Winchester as aforesaid, shall be transferred from them, the said Warden and Scholars, Clerks of Saint Mary's College of Winchester, to the said Edward Harold, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, and to his successors, bishops of the same diocese, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may, from time to time be exercised by the said Edward Harold, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, and by his successors, bishops of the same diocese for ever.

of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Winchester.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for assigning certain lands and hereditaments as the permanent endowment of the see of Ely.

"Whereas the Right Reverend James Russell, Bishop of Ely, succeeded to the said see, on an avoidance which happened after the passing of the hereinbefore mentioned Act, and all the lands, hereditaments, and emoluments belonging to the said see of Ely (except all rights of patronage or presentation and the residences of the Bishop), are vested absolutely in us for the purposes, and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands and hereditaments particularly described in the schedule hereto annexed which are now vested in us, are, in the judgment of our Estates Committee, convenient to be held as the endowment for the said see, and are approved by the said Bishop as suitable for that purpose, and will secure to the holder of the said see, as nearly as may be after deducting costs of management, a net annual income of five thousand and five hundred pounds, and no more, being the amount named for the Bishop of the said see by the Order of your Majesty in Council of the twenty-fifth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, which Order is now in force.

"Now, therefore, with the consent and approbation of the said James Russell, Lord Bishop of Ely, testified by his having signed this scheme, and sealed the same with his episcopal seal, we humbly recommend and propose that upon the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly published Order, the lands and hereditaments particularly described in the schedule hereto annexed, with their appurtenances, and all our right, title, and interest therein, save only as is hereinafter saved and excepted, together with the benefit of the perpetual land tax, if any, charged upon the same premises, which has been redeemed, shall be assigned as the endowment of the said Bishopric of Ely, and shall, subject always and nevertheless to the liabilities and charges to which the said lands and hereditaments are now specifically liable, become and be absolutely vested in the said Bishop in as full and ample a manner as if the same had formed part of the ancient possessions of the said see, save and except, and always reserved unto us, our successors, and our and their lessees, tenants, and assigns, all and singular, the mines, quarries, and beds of coal, stone, clay, sand, minerals, and metalliferous substances of all descriptions therein or thereunder, with full and exclusive authority to sink, win, work, get up, and carry away the same, in, under, out of, and from the said lands and hereditaments, or any other lands and hereditaments, according to the course and practice at present or hereafter to be used or adopted in the counties wherein the said lands and hereditaments are situate, or according to the most approved mode which may from time to time be used or invented, and to enter upon, take, use, and occupy, from time to time, and for such time, and in such manner, as we, our successors, and our and their lessees, tenants, and assigns shall think fit, so much of the said lands and hereditaments as we or they shall deem necessary, proper, or convenient for all or any of the aforesaid purposes, making full compensation for any injury thereby occasioned, and save and except, and always reserved, full and exclusive authority for us, our successors, and our and their lessees, tenants, and assigns, or persons acting under our or their authority, and whether in reference or respect to lands held by or under us, or any other property, to make, grant, and use any way or ways, upon, across, under, or through the said lands and hereditaments, for the purposes aforesaid: Provided always, and we hereby further recommend and propose that nothing in the foregoing exception and reservation shall operate in any manner to prevent the said James Russell, Bishop of Ely, and his successors, from taking and using from off or under the said lands and hereditaments all such stone, clay, sand, and gravel, as may be required hereafter for repairing and amending the buildings, fences, roads, or ways, now being in, upon, or about the said lands and hereditaments, or any part thereof, and also for erecting, making, and repairing any buildings, fences, roads, or ways, which may require hereafter to be erected or made in, upon, or about the said lands and hereditaments:

"And we further recommend and propose that the said Bishop shall become entitled to the rents, profits, and proceeds of the lands and hereditaments hereby proposed to be assigned as the endowment of the said see, as from the first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provision of the said hereinbefore mentioned Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 6th day of August, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the second day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of your Majesty, chapter eighty-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls within the consolidated chapelry or new parish of Gunhouse-with-Burringham, in the county of Lincoln, and in the diocese of Lincoln.

"Whereas the Honourable and Right Reverend John Thomas, Bishop of the diocese of Norwich, is, in right of his see, patron both of the rectory or incumbency of the said consolidated chapelry or new parish of Gunhouse-with-Burringham, and also of the rectory or incumbency of the parish of West Halton, with the chapelry of Conisby annexed, in the said county and diocese of Lincoln.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us, that the benefice of Gunhouse-with-Burringham aforesaid is at present ill-endowed, and that the benefice of West Halton-with-Conisby aforesaid is at present more than competently endowed, and it has been represented to us by the said John Thomas, Bishop of the said diocese of Norwich, and we are of opinion that it is desirable that additional provision should be made for the cure of souls within the said consolidated chapelry or new parish of Gunhouse-with-Burringham, by means of the apportionment of the endowments of the said benefice of West Halton-with-Conisby, which is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Archibald Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury, and with the consent of the Right Reverend Christopher, Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln, and with the consent of the said John Thomas, Bishop of the said diocese of Norwich, and with the consent of the Reverend James Murray, Clerk, the Rector or Incumbent of the said rectory of West Halton-with-Conisby (in testimony whereof the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose that without any assurance in the law, other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and as from the day of the date at which the same Order shall be so published in the London Gazette, all the tithes or rent-charges in lieu of tithes now belonging to, or forming part of, the endowment of the said benefice of West Halton-with-Conisby, and all (if any) other, the endowments of the same benefice, shall be charged, and for ever thereafter chargeable, with one clear annual sum or yearly charge of one hundred pounds, in favour of the rector or incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Gunhouse-with-Burringham, and his successors, to whom the same annual sum or yearly charge of one hundred pounds, shall as from the same day be due and payable, the same annual sum or yearly charge of one hundred pounds to be apportionable between any out-going rector or incumbent of the said benefice of Gunhouse-with-Burringham, or his representatives and his successor in the same rectory or incumbency, and to be receivable by each such rector or incumbent by equal half yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November, in every year, and to be recoverable as against the person or persons who for the time being shall be beneficially entitled to the endowments of the said benefice of West Halton-with-Conisby, in like manner as rent is recoverable at law.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lincoln.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 6th day of August, 1874,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the second day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the new parish of Saint Mary Magdalene, Holmwood, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Winchester.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion, that the particular part of the said new parish of Saint Mary Magdalene, Holmwood, which is hereinafter mentioned and described (such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship) should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes in the manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas a sum of two thousand five hundred pounds of four pounds per centum Debenture Stock of the London and South Western Railway Company has been contributed by certain persons and transferred to our name in the books of the said Company in aid of the endowment of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and of the maintenance of the minister thereof for the time being, when such minister shall have been duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act, and when the same district shall have become a new parish under the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act then of the maintenance of the incumbent of the same new parish for the time being; and we have in respect thereof agreed with the several persons so contributing the said sum of two thousand five hundred pounds of four pounds per centum Debenture Stock, that the annual interest and dividends to accrue due from the said Company, on account of the said stock, shall be paid over to the said minister or incumbent.

"And whereas the said sum of two thousand five hundred pounds of four pounds per centum Debenture Stock has been so contributed and transferred as aforesaid, upon the understanding that we should pay out of the common Fund created by the firstly herein named Act to the minister for the time being of the said district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, when such minister shall have been duly licensed as before mentioned, or as the case may be to the incumbent for the time being of the said new parish the annual sum of fifty pounds, and upon the further understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said district or new parish, and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof should be assigned in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas, such grant of Fifty pounds per annum will be made and secured by an instrument, to be executed by us under our Common Seal, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Harold, Bishop of the said Diocese of Winchester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this Scheme), we humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said New Parish of Saint Mary, Magdalene, Holmwood, which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, and which is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London

Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme become, and be constituted a separate District for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint John the Evangelist, North Holmwood.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said District so recommended to be constituted, and so soon as such District shall have become a new parish as aforesaid, then of such new parish and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof, shall without any assurance in the law other than this Scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Edward Harold, Bishop of the said Diocese of Winchester, and by his successors Bishops of the same Diocese for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing scheme has reference.

"The district of Saint John the Evangelist, North Holmwood, being :

"All that part of the new parish of Saint Mary Magdalene, Holmwood, in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Winchester, which is bounded on the west partly by the new parish of Coldharbour and partly by the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Westcott ; on the north partly by the new parish of Saint Paul, Dorking, and partly by the parish of Dorking ; on the east by the particular district or new parish of Christ Church, Brockham Green, all in the county and diocese aforesaid ; and on the remaining side, that is to say, on the south by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said particular district or new parish of Christ Church, Brockham Green, from the new parish of Saint Mary Magdalene, Holmwood aforesaid, at a point in the middle of Redlane, at or near to the south-eastern angle of the wood, called or known as Kiln Copse ; and extending thence generally westward for a distance of forty-eight chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said lane (thereby crossing the Dorking, Horsham, and Shoreham line of the London, Brighton, and South-Coast Railway, and following the northern branch of the said lane) to the point on Holmwood Common, where the same lane joins the road leading from Newdigate to Dorking ; and extending thence north-westward for a distance of twelve chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last described road to a point on the western side of the houses called or known as Blackbrook, at the centre of the bridge which carries the said last described road over the stream called or known as Blackbrook ; and extending thence south-westward for a distance of four chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said stream to the point where it forms part of the northern boundary of Holmwood Common aforesaid ; and continuing thence first south-westward, then north-westward, and then generally westward for a distance of sixty-three chains, or thereabouts, along the said northern boundary of the said common (thereby following in part the course of the same stream, and passing to the west of the house called or known as Brook Meadow, and passing also to the south of the houses called or known respectively as Bellevue Cottage, Laurel Cottage, and Ivy Porch Cottage) to a boundary stone, inscribed 'N. H. St. J. D., 1874, No. 1,' and placed at or near to the gate forming the entrance to Ivy Porch cottage aforesaid ; and extending thence south-westward for a distance of twenty-three chains, or thereabouts, and in a direct line across part of Holmwood Common aforesaid to a boundary stone, inscribed 'N. H. St. J. D., 1874, No. 2,' and placed on the eastern side of the Horsham-road, opposite to the middle of the eastern end of Redlands-lane ; and continuing thence still south-westward for a distance of twenty-four chains, or thereabouts, across the said Horsham-road and along the middle of Redlands-lane aforesaid to the junction of such lane at Redlands Farm with the footpath which leads through Redlands Wood direct to Robin Gate ; and continuing thence still south-westward for a distance of thirty-five chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last described footpath to the boundary at the point at Robin Gate aforesaid, where the same footpath joins Coldharbour-lane, which boundary divides the said new parish of Saint Mary Magdalene, Holmwood, from the new parish of Coldharbour aforesaid."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patron and incumbent of the said new parish of Saint Mary, Magdalene, Holmwood, out of which it is intended that the district in such Scheme recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and such patron and incumbent have respectively signified their assent to the said Scheme :

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council : now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in Law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Winchester.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 6th day of August, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four ; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine ; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the second day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words following, that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four ; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint James, situate within the limits of the parish of the Holy Trinity, Kingston-upon-Hull, in the town and county of the town of Kingston-upon-Hull, and in the diocese of York.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint James, situate within the limits of the parish of the Holy Trinity, Kingston-upon-Hull aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William, Archbishop of York (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of the Holy Trinity, Kingston-upon-Hull, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint James, situate within the limits of such parish as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint James, Kingston-upon-Hull.'

"And with the like consent of the said William, Archbishop of York (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint James, situate within the limits of the parish of the Holy Trinity, Kingston-upon-Hull aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always that so long as the Reverend Richard England Brooke, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of the Holy Trinity, Kingston-upon-Hull, shall continue to be such vicar or incumbent, all the fees which may be received in respect of such publication, solemnization, or performance at the said church of Saint James, situate within the limits of such parish as aforesaid, shall be paid over by the minister thereof to the said Richard England Brooke; and provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint James, Kingston-upon-Hull, being:

"All that part of the parish of the Holy Trinity, Kingston-upon-Hull, in the town and county of the town of Kingston-upon-Hull, and in the diocese of York, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is comprised within and is bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of the Holy Trinity, Kingston-upon-Hull, from the district chapelry of Saint Barnabas, Kingston-upon-Hull, in the town, county, and diocese aforesaid, at the point where the street or road called or known as Humber Bank is joined by Ropery-street; and extending thence north-westward along the said boundary, thereby following the middle of the last-named street to a point in the middle of Hesse-road; and extending thence from the same boundary north-eastward for a distance of eleven and a half chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named road, to its junction with Walker-street; and extending thence northward for a distance of twelve chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named street to the boundary at the junction of the same street with Adelaide-street, which divides the said parish of the Holy Trinity, Kingston-upon-Hull, from the new parish of Saint Luke, Kingston-upon-Hull, in the town, county, and diocese aforesaid; and extending thence, first eastward, along the last described boundary, thereby following the middle of Adelaide-street aforesaid, to its intersection by Great Thornton-street, and then south-eastward along the same boundary, thereby following the middle of the last-named street to the point where it is intersected by Porter-street, at which point the said boundary turns off from Great Thornton-street aforesaid, to William-street; and continuing thence, that is from the last described boundary, still south-eastward for a distance of seven chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of Great Thornton-street aforesaid to its junction with Waverley-street; and extending thence for a distance of nine chains, or thereabouts, first north-eastward and then eastward along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Cogan-street; and extending thence southward for a distance of eleven and a half chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with the street or road called or known as Belle Vue-terrace; and extending thence south-westward for a distance of twenty-seven chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last described street or road and along the middle of the street or road called or known as Humber Bank aforesaid, to the junction of the last-named street or road with Ropery-street aforesaid, at the point upon the boundary which divides the said parish of the Holy Trinity, Kingston-upon-Hull, from the district chapelry of Saint Barnabas, Kingston-upon-Hull as aforesaid, at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of York.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 6th day of August, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme bearing date the sixteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and to the church and cure (which said church and cure are hereinafter called the said benefice) of Leytonstone, in the county of Essex, and in the diocese of Rochester.

"Whereas the said advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and to the said benefice of Leytonstone, is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession in the Reverend John Pardoe, Clerk, of the Manor House, in the parish of Leyton, in the county of Essex, and his heirs and assigns.

"And whereas the said John Pardoe is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and to the said benefice of Leytonstone now vested in him as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Right Reverend Thomas Legh, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester, and his successors, bishops of the same diocese for ever.

"And whereas the said Thomas Legh, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester, is willing to accept for himself and his successors the said proposed transfer, and in token of such his willingness, and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the bishop of the diocese, by which the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited, or by some or one of them is made necessary, he the said Thomas Legh, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas it appears to us that the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Leytonstone, which is hereinbefore mentioned, and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the district parish of Leytonstone (being the parish or district in or in respect of which the said right of patronage and advowson arises and exists) by rendering the said benefice more eligible for augmentation, out of funds under our control.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said John Pardoe (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said Thomas Legh, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme, and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and to the said benefice of Leytonstone now vested in the said John Pardoe and his heirs and assigns as aforesaid, shall be transferred from the said John Pardoe and from his heirs and assigns, to the said Thomas Legh, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester, and his successors, bishops of the same diocese for ever, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Thomas Legh, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester, and by his successors bishops of the same diocese for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of your Majesty, chapter eighty-two, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Peter, situate within the limits of the parish of Saint Margaret, Leicester, in the county of Leicester, and in the diocese of Peterborough.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Saint Margaret, Leicester, and of the district parish of Saint George, Leicester, in the said county of Leicester, and in the said diocese of Peterborough, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parish and district parish respectively.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Peter, Leicester, being:—

"All those two contiguous portions of the parish of Saint Margaret, Leicester, and of the district parish of Saint George, Leicester, both in the county of Leicester, and in the diocese of Peterborough, wherein the several incumbents of such parish and of such district parish now respectively possess the exclusive cure of souls, which said portions are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the new parish of Saint John, Leicester, in the said county and diocese, from the district parish of Saint George, Leicester aforesaid, at the centre of the bridge which carries the London-road over the line of the Midland Railway; and extending thence, from the said boundary, north-eastward, for a distance of rather more than three-quarters of a mile, to and along the middle of the said line of railway, thereby passing through the Leicester Railway Station, and following in part the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Margaret, Leicester, from the consolidated chapelry of Saint Luke, Leicester, in the county and diocese aforesaid, to the point at the centre of the bridge which carries the same line of railway over the Humberstone-road, where the last-mentioned boundary is joined by the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Margaret, Leicester, from the district chapelry of Saint Matthew, Leicester, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and extending thence, eastward, for a distance of twenty-four and a-half chains, or thereabouts, along the last-described boundary, thereby following the course of Humberstone-road aforesaid, to the point at or near to the junction of the last-named road with Spinney Hill-road, where the said last-described boundary is joined by the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Margaret, Leicester, from the parish of Belgrave, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and extending thence, southward, for a distance of ten chains, or thereabouts, along the last-mentioned boundary, to its junction with the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Margaret, Leicester, from the parish of Evington, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and continuing thence, for a distance of fifty-seven chains or thereabouts, first southward, then south-westward, and then again southward, along the last-described boundary to its junction with the boundary which divides the said district parish of Saint George, Leicester, from the parish of Evington aforesaid; and extending thence, for a distance of thirty-five chains or thereabouts, first south-eastward, and then south-westward, along the last-described boundary, thereby crossing Evington-lane, to the point in the footpath leading from Evington to Leicester, where the said last-described boundary is joined by the boundary which divides the said district parish of Saint George, Leicester, from the parish of Saint Mary, Leicester, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and extending thence, north-westward, for a distance of eighteen and a half chains or thereabouts, along the last-mentioned boundary, thereby following the course of the last-described footpath, to the point in the middle of the London-road aforesaid, where the said last-mentioned boundary is joined by the boundary dividing the said district parish of Saint George, Leicester, from the new parish of Saint John, Leicester as aforesaid, and continuing thence, still north-westward, but in a more northerly direction, for a distance of thirty-three chains or thereabouts, along the last-mentioned boundary, thereby following the course of the London-road aforesaid, to the first-described point at the centre of the bridge which carries the said London-road over the line of the Midland Railway as aforesaid, at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council, now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Peterborough.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 6th day of August, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of "The Ecclesiastical Commission Act, 1868," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the sixteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of 'The Ecclesiastical Commission Act, 1868,' section three, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme relating to the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Ripon.

"Whereas the said Dean and Chapter have agreed with us that a scheme should be laid before your Majesty in Council for carrying into effect a transfer to us of part of the property belonging to them, for the considerations and upon the terms hereinafter set forth, which terms are, in our opinion, fair and reasonable, and the said Dean and Chapter have further agreed with us that such scheme should also comprise the incidental provisions hereinafter set forth, such provisions being necessary for carrying into effect the said transfer.

"And whereas the lands and hereditaments which are particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed are vested in us, in fee simple, subject, as to part thereof, to the leases in the said schedule mentioned.

"And whereas, by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the fifteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, duly published in the London Gazette of the twenty-fifth day of February in the same year, and made under the authority of certain Acts of the third and fourth and of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty, as therein mentioned, provision was made for securing to the then Dean and Canons of the said cathedral church the respective average annual incomes of one thousand pounds for the Dean, and five hundred pounds for each Canon, and for enabling the Chapter of the said church to provide for the efficient performance of all the duties thereof, and the maintenance of the fabric thereof, it being, by the same Order, provided that, in order to carry into effect the enactments contained in the said Acts of the third and fourth and of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty, so far as they applied to the said cathedral church, we should make an annual payment of three thousand three hundred pounds to the Treasurer of the said church, in augmentation of its revenues.

"And whereas, by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, duly published in the London Gazette of the tenth day of December in the same year, and made under the authority of the said Acts of the third and fourth and of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty, provision was made for securing to the Dean and Canons of the said cathedral church, appointed subsequently to the date of the said Order, the respective annual incomes of one thousand pounds for such Dean, and five hundred pounds for every such Canon, it being by the said Order provided that the surplus decanal or canonical income, calculated in the manner therein specified, shall be paid over to us, and that any deficiency in the amount of such income shall be made up by means of payments out of our funds.

"And whereas the Chapter of the said cathedral church now consists of a Dean and four Canons.

"And whereas the Reverend Pennyman Worsley, one of the said Canons, was appointed previously to the date of the Order of your Majesty in Council first hereinbefore mentioned, and is in receipt of the share of capitular income to which he is entitled under the provisions of the same Order.

"And whereas the Dean and the three remaining Canons were appointed subsequently to the date of the Order of your Majesty in Council secondly hereinbefore mentioned, and payments are now accordingly made by or to us, from time to time, to or from the said Dean and three Canons under the provisions of the same Order.

"And whereas the annual payment hereinafter proposed to be made by us to the said Dean and Chapter, and the income to arise from the real estates intended to be hereafter transferred to them in lieu of such annual payment as herein-after mentioned, will, after the appropriation of a certain part of such annual payment or income, as the case may be, in the manner hereinafter recommended, to the maintenance of the fabric and the establishment and services of the said church, provide for the present and future Dean and Canons the incomes to which they are respectively entitled under the provisions of the hereinbefore recited Orders of your Majesty in Council, and of the Acts hereinbefore mentioned, and we are of opinion that the arrangement hereinafter set forth will be the most convenient mode of effecting for the future the purposes contemplated in the said Orders.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Ripon, and with the consent of the Right Reverend Robert, Lord Bishop of Ripon, as visitor of the said Dean and Chapter (testified by their having hereunto affixed their respective corporate seals), we humbly recommend and propose that all the property of the said Dean and Chapter (excepting the cathedral church and the graveyard, and buildings belonging thereto, and the deanery with the land belonging thereto, and the leasehold interest of the said Dean and Chapter in the two small pieces or parcels of land, particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and excepting also the croft, called the Dean's Croft, and the canonical residence with the land belonging, and immediately adjoining thereto, and excepting also any right of ecclesiastical, educational or other like patronage), shall together with the benefit of the perpetual land tax charged upon the said property, which has been redeemed upon and from the day on which any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be duly published in the London Gazette, be transferred to us in the manner contemplated by the Act first hereinbefore mentioned, and that we shall be entitled to the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said property so to be transferred to us as from the twenty-fifth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, and that in consideration of and for such transfer to us as aforesaid, and in substitution for the hereinbefore mentioned annual payment of three thousand three hundred pounds, there shall be paid by us to the said Dean and Chapter by equal half yearly payments, on the twenty-fourth day of June and the twenty-fifth day of December, in every year, the annual sum of six thousand pounds, and that the first half yearly payment in respect of the said annual sum for the period which elapsed between the said twenty-fifth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, and the twenty-fourth day of June, now last past, shall be made immediately on the publication as aforesaid, of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and that the receipt or receipts of the said Dean and Chapter under their chapter seal, or of their treasurer for the time being, shall be a good and valid discharge to us, for all, or any, and every such sum or sums of money as shall therein be expressed to have been paid to them or him by us under the authority of this scheme when ratified as aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose that the payment of the said annual sum of six thousand pounds shall continue until the said Dean and Chapter shall have been under the authority provided by the said Act first hereinbefore mentioned, put into possession in fee simple of real estates, sufficient to secure to them a clear annual income therefrom, after deducting rates, taxes, the cost of agency, and other outgoings, amounting to the said annual sum of six thousand pounds, and that in further consideration of and for such transfer as aforesaid, all our estate and interest in the lands and hereditaments particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, shall upon and from the day of such publication as aforesaid of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, be transferred to the said Dean and Chapter in the manner contemplated by the said first hereinbefore mentioned Act.

"And we further recommend and propose that upon and from the day of such publication as aforesaid of an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, the annual payment of three thousand three hundred pounds now made by us to the said Dean and Chapter under the provisions of the first hereinbefore mentioned Order of your Majesty in Council shall cease and determine, and shall be held to have ceased and determined as from the date up to which the accounts have been rendered to us by the said Dean and Chapter under the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Order of your Majesty in Council for the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, and that the operation of the provisions of the last-mentioned order shall also for the purposes of such accounts be held to have ceased and determined as from the same date.

"And we further recommend and propose that the sum of six thousand pounds per annum, which is hereby proposed to be paid by us to the said Dean and Chapter shall be divided into two equal moiety, and that the net income which the said Dean and Chapter shall, after they shall have been put in possession of real estates as hereinbefore proposed, calculated to secure to them the clear yearly income of six thousand pounds, derive from such estates, shall also be divided into two equal moiety, and that one of such respective moiety shall be appropriated for the incomes of the Dean and Canons, namely, two equal sixth parts of such moiety for the income of the Dean, and four equal sixth parts of such moiety for the income of the four Canons, and that the remaining moiety, together with all receipts arising from time to time from interments in the graveyard of the said cathedral church, and from any other sources, and together with the balance remaining in the hands of the treasurer of the said Dean and Chapter on the closing of the capitular account for the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, and all rents and proportions of rents received by or due to the said Dean and Chapter in respect of the property hereby proposed to be transferred to us for any period preceding the said twenty-fifth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, shall be appropriated to the maintenance of the services and fabric of the said cathedral church, and to the payment of all other the expenses and liabilities charged upon the corporate revenue of the said Dean and Chapter: provided always that if the whole of such last-mentioned moiety and receipts from interments, and from any other sources, be not in any one year expended in the manner hereinbefore proposed with respect to the same, the surplus thereof shall be accumulated and be applicable to making good deficiencies, if any, in subsequent years, so that no portion of the said moiety, or of such receipts from interments, and from any other sources, shall ever be appropriated to the personal use or enjoyment of any dean or canon of the said church.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid in conformity with the provisions of the Acts hereinbefore-mentioned, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for assigning the right of patronage of the new parish of Burnmoor, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham.

"Whereas the district of Burnmoor was constituted out of the parish of Penshaw (sometime part of the parish of Houghton-le-Spring), in the county and diocese aforesaid, by virtue of a scheme prepared by us, and ratified by an Order of your Majesty in Council, which Order bears date the twenty-eighth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and was published in the London Gazette on the second day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, and of the Act of the fifth year of Her Majesty (session two), chapter twenty-six, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-third day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty, King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven; and of the Act of the fifth year of your Majesty (session two), chapter twenty-six, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme, for authorizing certain improvements at the episcopal residence belonging to the

See of London, which is situated at Fulham, in the county of Middlesex, and is known as Fulham Palace.

"Whereas, the Right Honourable and Right Reverend John, Bishop of the diocese of London, is desirous that certain improvements should be made at the said episcopal residence, known as Fulham Palace, and has submitted to us the particulars of such proposed improvements, and we have approved the same.

"And whereas the said Bishop is also desirous, and it appears to us to be expedient that towards the cost of effecting the said proposed improvements a sum of two hundred and fifty pounds (being a sum which, together with the several sums of six hundred and fifty pounds, and four hundred and sixty pounds already borrowed upon the same security by the said Bishop, under the authority of the statutes hereinbefore mentioned, does not exceed two years income of the See), should be provided by borrowing the same by way of further mortgage upon the security of all and every part of the lands, tenements, and hereditaments or endowments, which now belong or may hereafter belong to the Bishopric of London.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said John, Bishop of the said diocese of London, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose that the said bishop be authorized to borrow from the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and that the said Governors be empowered to lend, under the provisions of the above-mentioned Acts, the sum of two hundred and fifty pounds, and that as a security for the same, the said bishop do mortgage all and every part of the lands, tenements, and hereditaments and endowments which now belong, or may hereafter belong, to his said see, to the said Governors, by deed, for the term of thirty-five years, or until the said sum of two hundred and fifty pounds, with the interest for the same, as hereinafter mentioned, and all costs and charges which may attend the recovery thereof, shall be fully paid and satisfied, and that such principal sum shall be repaid, with interest, in manner following, that is to say, during and in respect of the first period of twelve months of the said term, computed from the day of the date of the mortgage, no part of the said principal sum shall be repayable, but the said bishop, or his successors, shall yearly, at the end of the second period of twelve months so computed, and at the end of every such like period of twelve months thereafter pay to the said Governors, their successors or assigns, one-thirtieth part of the said principal sum, until the whole thereof shall be repaid, and shall at the end of the first and each succeeding period of twelve months aforesaid, pay interest at the rate of four pounds per centum per annum, on the said principal sum, or on so much thereof as shall from time to time remain unpaid, and if and when it shall happen that the principal and interest directed to be paid as hereinbefore mentioned, shall be in arrear and unpaid for the space of forty days after the same shall have become due, it shall and may be lawful for the said Governors, their successors and assigns, to recover the same, and the costs and charges attending the recovery thereof by distress and sale, in the like manner as rents may be recovered by landlords or lessors from their tenants by the laws in force at the time of such distress and sale, and that such mortgage deed shall be in the form and to the effect to be approved by us, and shall bind as well the said John, now Bishop of the said diocese of London, as every succeeding bishop of the same diocese, until the principal money and interest, costs, and charges shall have been paid off and discharged.

"And we further recommend and propose that the said sum of two hundred and fifty pounds shall be paid to us, and that the receipt of our joint treasurers for the time being endorsed on the said mortgage deed shall be a good and sufficient discharge to the said Governors and their successors for the same, who shall not be bound or required to see to the application thereof, and that upon the receipt of the said sum of two hundred and fifty pounds, the whole or any part or parts thereof, shall be applied by us at such times and in such manner as shall appear to us to be expedient towards effecting the said proposed improvements at the episcopal residence aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the herein-named Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

"And whereas we have undertaken and agreed to make the said grant of fifty pounds per annum as aforesaid by an instrument to be executed by us under our common seal, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.
