

1874, reporting that previous to the date of adjudication the above-named bankrupt absconded from England, and that the whole of the property of the bankrupt, as far as discovered, has been realized for the benefit of his creditors, and a first and final dividend of two pence in the pound has been declared (and the greater portion thereof paid), as shown by the statement thereunto annexed, the Court being satisfied that previous to the date of adjudication the bankrupt did abscond from England, and that the whole of the property of the bankrupt, as far as discovered, has been realized for the benefit of his creditors, and that a first and final dividend, to the amount of two pence in the pound, has been declared (and a greater portion thereof paid), as shown by the statement annexed to the Trustee's report, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said Llewellyn Davies has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 18th day of August, 1874.

THE estates of John Archibald, Baker, in Earls-ton, were sequestrated on the 28th day of August, 1874, by the Sheriff-Substitute of Berwick.

The first deliverance is dated 28th August, 1874.

The meeting to elect the Trustee and Commissioners is to be held at twelve o'clock, noon, on Saturday, the 12th September, 1874, within the Red Lion Hotel, Earls-ton.

A composition may be offered at this meeting; and to entitle creditors to the first dividend, their oaths and grounds of debt must be lodged on or before 28th December, 1874.

A Warrant of Protection has been granted to the bankrupt.

All future advertisements relating to this sequestration will be published in the Edinburgh Gazette alone.
