Whitehall, September 16, 1874.

THE Queen has been pleased to direct Letters Patent to be passed under the Great Seal granting the dignity of a Knight of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland unto George Campbell Anderson, Esq., Attorney-General of the Bahama Islands.

By virtue of an Act passed in the twenty-fourth year of the reign of His Majesty King George III, intituled "An Act to repeal so much of two Acts made in the tenth and fifteenth years of the reign of His present Majesty, as authorizes the Speaker of the House of Commons to issue his Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown for making out writs for the election of Members to serve in Parliament, in the manner therein mentioned, and for substituting other provisions for the like purposes;" and of an Act passed in the twenty-sixth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to further limit and define the time for proceeding to Election during the Recess:"

I do hereby give notice, that the death of Charles Gilpin, Esq., late a Member serving in this present Parliament for the borough of Northampton, hath been certified to me in writing, under the hands of two Members serving in this present Parliament; and that I shall issue my Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown to make out a new writ for the electing of a Member to serve in this present Parliament for the said borough of Northampton, at the end of six days after the insertion of this notice in the London Gazette.

Given under my hand this sixteenth day of September, 1874.

being one of the Members nominated, appointed, and authorized by Mr. Speaker, by an instrument in writing under his hand and seal, dated the thirtieth day of March, 1874, pursuant to the said Act of George III, to execute all and singular the powers given to the Speaker of the House of Commons for the time being, for issuing warrants to the Clerk of the Crown in cases as in the said Act specified, during the recess of the House of Commons, and Mr. Speaker being at this present time absent from the realm.

By virtue of an Act passed in the twenty-fourth year of the reign of His Majesty, King George III, intituled "An Act to repeal so much of two Acts, made in the tenth and fifteenth years of the reign of His present Majesty, as authorizes the Speaker of the House of Commons to issue his Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown for making out writs for the election of Members to serve in Parliament, in the manner therein mentioned, and for substituting other provisions for the like purposes;" and of an Act passed in the twenty-sixth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled an "An Act to further limit and define the time for proceeding to Election during the Recess:"

I do hereby give notice, that the death of Lord George John Manners, late a Member serving in this present Parliament for the county of Cambridge, hath been certified to me in writing, under the hands of two Members serving in this present Parliament; and that I shall issue my Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown to make out a new writ for the electing of a Member to serve in this present Parliament for the said county of Cambridge at the end of six days after the insertion of this notice in the London Gazette.

Given under my hand this seventeenth day of September, 1874.

JOHN GEORGE DODSON,

being one of the Members nominated, appointed, and authorized by Mr. Speaker, by an instrument in writing under his hand and seal, dated the thirtieth day of March, 1874, pursuant to the said Act of George III, to execute all and singular the powers given to the Speaker of the House of Commons for the time being, for issuing warrants to the Clerk of the Crown in cases as in the said Act specified, during the recess of the House of Commons, and Mr. Speaker being at this present time absent from the realm.
