THE FAIRS ACT, 1873.

HORSHAM FAIR.

IN pursuance of the above-mentioned Act, I, the Right Honourable Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hereby notify as follows:

1. A representation has been duly made to me by the Justices sitting in Petty Sessions for the Bramber Division of the county of Sussex, that a Fair has been annually held in the town of Horsham, in the said division of the said county, on the 18th day of July, and continued to the following Saturday, unless the said 18th day of July happen to fall on a Friday or Saturday, in which cases the Fair is continued until the Saturday week, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the time for the holding the said Fair should be shortened, and the said Fair should be annually held on the 18th day of July, and wholly confined to that day, and in the event of the 18th day of July falling on a Sunday, that the Fair should be held on Saturday, the 17th day of July, and wholly confined to that day.

2. On the 2nd day of November, 1874, I shall take the aforesaid representation into consideration, and all persons are to intimate, before that day, any objection they may desire to offer to the said alteration in the time for holding the said Fair.

(Signed) Richard Assheton Cross.

Whitehall, October 2, 1874.

*Office of the Railway Commissioners,
West Front Committee Rooms, House of Lords,
September 24, 1874.*

AMENDED GENERAL ORDERS, Forms, and Table of Fees made and issued by the Railway Commissioners pursuant to ss. 29 and 32 of "The Regulation of Railways Act, 1873."

INTERPRETATION.

1. In the construction of these orders and the forms herein referred to, words importing the singular number shall include the plural, and words importing the plural number shall include the singular number, and the following terms shall (if not inconsistent with the context or subject matter) have the respective meanings herein-after assigned to them; that is to say, "application" shall include complaint under this Act, "applicant" shall include any complainant under this Act, and "defendants" shall mean the persons or company against whom the application or complaint is made.

APPLICATION OR COMPLAINT TO THE COMMISSIONERS.

Proceedings how commenced, and form of application generally.

2. Every proceeding before the Commissioners under this Act shall be commenced by an application made to them, which shall be in writing, and signed by the applicant or his solicitor, or in the case of a corporate body, or company, or local or harbour board being applicants, shall be signed by their manager, secretary, or solicitor. It shall contain a clear and concise statement of the facts, the grounds of application, and of the relief or remedy to which the applicant claims to be entitled. It shall be divided into paragraphs, each of which, as nearly as may be, shall be confined to a distinct portion of the subject, and every paragraph shall be numbered consecutively. It shall be indorsed with the name and address of the applicant, and if there be a solicitor acting for him in the matter, with the name and address of such solicitor, and if he be an agent for another solicitor in the matter, then also with the name and address of such other solicitor. The application shall be according to Form No. 1 in the Schedule hereto, or to the like effect.

Under ss. 6 and 13 of this Act.

3. Every application made to the Commissioners under sections 6 and 13 of this Act, shall be for an order enjoining the company complained of to do or to desist from doing the acts therein specified.

Under s. 8.

4. Every application made to the Commissioners under section 8 of this Act (unless both parties consent to refer the difference to the Commissioners), shall be for an order to refer the difference to the Commissioners for their decision, in lieu of being referred to arbitration. The applicant shall state whether or not it is a case in which any arbitrator has in any general or special Act been designated by his name or by the name of his office, or in which a standing arbitrator has been appointed under any general or special Act.

Under s. 9.

5. Every application made to the Commissioners under section 9 of this Act shall be signed by all the parties to the difference, or their solicitors, and shall be for permission to refer the difference to the Commissioners for their decision.

Under s. 10, sub-sec. 1.

6. Every application made to the Commissioners under section 10, sub-section 1 of this Act, shall be for the approval by the Commissioners of any working agreement between railway companies, whereof they desire to have the Commissioners approval, or shall be for the exercise of any other powers (to be specified in the said application) transferred by the said sub-section to the Commissioners with respect to the approval of such working agreement.*

Under s. 11, sub-sec. 4.

7. Every application made to the Commissioners under section 11, sub-section 4 of this Act, shall be for an order allowing the through rate or route, or through rate and route proposed by the applicant and objected to by the forwarding company.

* Directions have been issued by the Commissioners prescribing the steps to be taken in order to obtain their approval of working agreements. It is printed at length at the end of these Orders.

Under s. 11, sub-sec. 6.

8. Every application made to the Commissioners under section 11, sub-section 6 of this Act, shall be for an order allowing the apportionment of the through rate proposed by the applicant and objected to by the forwarding company.

Under s. 14.

9. Every application made to the Commissioners under section 14 of this Act, shall be for an order upon the railway company or canal company, against whom the application is made, to distinguish in the book or books therein mentioned how much of the rate in respect whereof the application is made is for the conveyance of the particular description of traffic therein named on the railway or canal in question, including therein tolls for the use of the railway or canal, for use of carriages or vessels, or for locomotive or other tractive power, and how much is for other expenses, specifying the nature and detail of such other expenses. The applicant in such case shall state that he is interested in the matter, and show how he is interested therein.

Under s. 15.

10. Every application made to the Commissioners under section 15 of this Act, shall be for them to hear and determine the question or dispute therein mentioned with respect to the terminal charges of the company against whom the application is made, and to decide what is a reasonable sum to be paid to such company for loading and unloading, covering, collection, delivery, and other services of a like nature. The application in such case shall state the actual amount of such charges, and the amount which the applicant contends that they ought to be.

Under s. 16.

11. Every application made to the Commissioners under section 16 of this Act, shall be for them to sanction the agreement therein mentioned, such sanction to be signified by certificate under their seal.

Under s. 17.

12. Every application made to the Commissioners under section 17 of this Act, shall be for an order upon the railway company, against whom the application is made, restraining them from permitting and suffering the canal therein mentioned, or parts thereof, or such works belonging thereto, to remain unrepaired, or in want of dredging, or not in good working condition, or without proper supplies of water thereto; and also enjoining them to keep and maintain the said canal or such parts thereof, or such works thereto belonging, thoroughly repaired or dredged or in good working condition, or to preserve the supplies of water to the same. The application in such case shall specify the obstruction, non-repair, or other defect sought to be remedied, and show in what part of the canal or works such obstruction, non-repair, or other defect exists.*

How left at the Commissioners' office.

13. The application so written and signed as aforesaid shall be left with the registrar to the Commissioners at their office, and (except in cases under sections 10, 14, and 16 of this Act,) three copies of the application shall also be left with the registrar, together with any documents, maps, plans, time-tables, and special Acts referred to therein or which may be useful in explaining or supporting the same. The registrar shall make out a list of the applications so left according to the order in which they are received by him, and such list may be inspected at the office during office hours, and shall for that purpose be put upon a notice board appropriated to proceedings under this Act. The applications shall be heard by the Commissioners so far as it may in their judgment be practicable according to the order in which they are so entered upon the list.

* Other applications under this Act, and statements of cases under the Board of Trade Arbitrations Act, 1874, Part II, will be made, as nearly as may be, in accordance with the above Orders.

Indorsement upon application.

In all proceedings under this Act (except under sections 9, 10, and 19, and subject to General Order number 18 hereinafter mentioned) a copy or copies of the application for the purpose of service shall be indorsed with a notice to the defendants to put in an answer to the application within ten days from the service thereof, and that the same will be heard at the hour and place therein mentioned in twenty days from the service thereof, and in default of the defendants then and there appearing the Commissioners may hear and determine the application ex parte. Such indorsement shall be sealed by the registrar to the Commissioners with their seal.

Time for answer and hearing may be abridged or enlarged.

15. The Commissioners may abridge the periods for putting in the answer and for hearing the application, and in that case the shorter periods shall be indorsed upon the application accordingly, and they may from time to time enlarge the periods for putting in the answer or for hearing the application.

Service of application.

16. A copy of the application so indorsed as aforesaid shall in all cases (except under sections 9, 10, and 19 of this Act and subject to General Order number 18 hereinafter mentioned) be served by leaving the same with the manager, secretary, or chief clerk of the defendants at their principal office in any part of the United Kingdom or in such manner as the Commissioners by special order may direct.

Affidavit of service.

17. The person serving the application shall forthwith make an affidavit thereof stating the day on which service was made and shall leave the same with the registrar to the Commissioners at their office.

SUSPENSION OF PROCEEDINGS.Communication by Commissioners to company complained of.*

18. If the Commissioners think fit, in pursuance of section 7 of this Act, to communicate the application to the company against whom it is made, so as to afford them an opportunity of making observations thereon before requiring or permitting the same to be served or any formal proceedings to be taken thereon, they shall give notice thereof to the applicant within five days from the date of the application having been left at their office, and thereupon all formal proceedings thereon shall be suspended until further notice from the Commissioners to the applicant.

Commissioners requiring further information.

19. The Commissioners may also within the said period of five days require further information or particulars or documents from the applicant, and may suspend all formal proceedings upon the application until satisfied in this respect.

Inquiries under this Act and the Act of 1854.

20. If the Commissioners at any stage of the proceedings think fit to direct inquiries to be made under section 25 of this Act or under section 3 of the Railway and Canal Traffic Act, 1854, they shall give notice thereof to the parties to the application, and may stay proceedings or any part of the proceedings thereon until further notice from the Commissioners.

CONSENT CASES.Parties dispensing with formal proceedings.

21. In all cases the parties may by consent in writing dispense with the formal proceedings hereinafter mentioned, or some portion of them, and orders by consent may be drawn up, and, if approved of by the Commissioners, may be sealed with their seal.

ANSWER.Time for delivery and form of.

22. Within ten days from the service of the application or within such shorter or extended time as may be fixed by the Commissioners, the defendants shall deliver to the applicant or to his solicitor a written statement containing in a clear and concise form their answer to the application, and shall also leave four copies thereof with the registrar to the Commissioners at their office, together with any documents that may be useful in explaining or supporting it. The answer may admit the whole or any part of the facts stated in the application. It shall be divided into paragraphs, which shall be numbered consecutively, and it shall be signed by the person actually making the same, and who is acquainted with the facts stated therein. It shall be indorsed with the name and address of the defendants, and if there be a solicitor acting for them in the matter, with the name and address of such solicitor, and if he be an agent for another solicitor in the matter, then also with the name and address of such other solicitor. It shall be in Form No. 2 in the said schedule, or to the like effect.

REPLY.Time for delivery and form of.

23. Within four days from the delivery of the answer to the applicant, or within such further or extended time as may be fixed by any special order of the Commissioners, he shall deliver a reply thereto to the defendants, and four copies thereof to the registrar to the Commissioners, and may object to the said answer as being insufficient, stating the grounds of such objection or deny the facts stated therein, or may admit the whole or any part of such facts. The reply shall be signed by the applicant, and be according to Form No. 3 in the said schedule, or to the like effect.

VERIFICATION OF PROCEEDINGS.

24. The Commissioners may at any time require the whole or any part of the application, answer, or reply, to be verified by affidavit upon giving a notice to that effect to the party from whom the affidavit is required, and if such notice be not complied with the application, answer, or reply, may be set aside, or such part of it as is not verified according to the notice may be struck out.

POWER TO DIRECT AND SETTLE ISSUES.Commissioners may direct issues.

25. If it appear to the Commissioners at any time that the statements in the application or answer or reply do not sufficiently raise or disclose the issues of fact in dispute between the parties, they may direct them to prepare issues, and such issues shall, if the parties differ, be settled by the Commissioners.

PRELIMINARY QUESTIONS OF LAW.Power of Commissioners to raise and decide.

26. If it appear to the Commissioners at any time that there is a question of law which it would be convenient to have decided before further proceeding with the case, they may direct such question to be raised for their opinion either by special case or in such other manner as the Commissioners may deem expedient, and all such further proceedings as the decision of the question of law may render unnecessary may thereupon be stayed.

PRELIMINARY MEETING.Commissioners may hold at any time before hearing.

27. If it appear to the Commissioners at any time before the hearing of the application that it will be to the advantage of the parties to hold a preliminary meeting for the purpose of fixing or altering the place of hearing, determining the mode of conducting the inquiry, the admitting of certain facts or the proof of them by affidavit, or for any other purpose, they shall have power to hold such meeting upon giving notice thereof to the parties, and may thereupon make such order as shall seem to them fit under the circumstances.

PRELIMINARY COMMUNICATION WITH THE PARTIES.Commissioners may communicate with parties.

28. The Commissioners may, if they think fit, instead of holding such meeting as in the 27th General Order mentioned, communicate with the parties in writing, and may require answers to such inquiries as they may think fit to make.

PRODUCTION AND INSPECTION OF DOCUMENTS.Documents referred to in statements.

29. Either party shall be entitled at any time before or at the hearing of the case to give a notice in writing to the other party in whose application or answer or reply reference is made to any document to produce it for the inspection of the party giving such notice, or of his attorney, and to permit him to take copies thereof, and any party not complying with such notice shall not afterwards be at liberty to put any such document in evidence on his behalf in such proceeding unless he satisfy the Commissioners that he had sufficient cause for not complying with such notice.

NOTICE TO PRODUCE.How to be given.

30. Either party may give to the other a notice in writing to produce such documents as relate to any matters in difference (specifying the said documents), and which are in the possession or control of such other party, and if such notice be not complied with secondary evidence of the contents of the said documents may be given by or on behalf of the party who gave such notice.

NOTICE TO ADMIT.How to be given and effect of.

31. Either party may give to the other party a notice in writing to admit any documents saving all just exceptions, and in case of neglect or refusal to admit after such notice, the costs of proving such documents shall be paid by the party so neglecting or refusing, whatever the result of the application may be, unless at the hearing the Commissioners certify that the refusal to admit was reasonable, and no costs of proving any document shall be allowed unless such notice be given except where the omission to give the notice is in the opinion of the taxing master a saving of expense.

WITNESSES.

Attendance, how enforced, and rules applicable to.

32. The attendance of witnesses with or without documents, shall be enforced in the same manner as it is now enforced in a superior court of law, and the proceedings for that purpose shall be in the same form, mutatis mutandis, and they shall be sealed by the registrar to the Commissioners with their seal, and may be served in any part of the United Kingdom. The witnesses shall be entitled to the same protection as when subpoenaed or cited to attend a superior court of law, and the laws and practice now in force relating to witnesses in a superior court of law shall apply to them in proceedings before the Commissioners.

THE HEARING.

Power of Commissioners to proceed ex parte.

33. If the applicant does not appear at the time and place appointed for the hearing, the Commissioners may dismiss the application, and if the defendants do not appear at such time and place and the Commissioners are satisfied that the application was duly served, they may hear and determine the application ex parte, and if at any adjournment of the hearing the parties or either of them do not appear, the Commissioners may decide the case in their absence.

EVIDENCE AT THE HEARING.

To be vivâ voce except in certain cases.

34. In the absence of any agreement between the parties the witnesses at the hearing shall be examined vivâ voce, but the Commissioners may at any time for sufficient reason order that any particular facts may be proved by affidavit, or that the affidavit of any witness may be read at the hearing on such conditions as they may think reasonable, or that any witness, whose attendance ought for some sufficient cause to be dispensed with, be examined by interrogatories or otherwise before a person to be appointed by them for that purpose, provided that when it appears to the Commissioners that the other party bonâ fide desires the production of a witness for cross-examination and that such witness can be produced, an order shall not be made authorising the evidence of such witness to be given by affidavit.

Depositions taken before an Assistant Commissioner or other person authorised to take them may be read at the hearing without calling the deponents unless the Commissioners otherwise order.

Commissioners may require further evidence.

35. The Commissioners may require further evidence to be given either vivâ voce, or by affidavit, or by deposition taken before an Assistant Commissioner or other person appointed by them for that purpose.

Hearing to proceed from day to day.

36. The hearing of the case when once commenced shall proceed, so far as in the judgment of the Commissioners may be practicable, from day to day.

JUDGMENT OF COMMISSIONERS.

Form of.

37. After hearing the case the Commissioners may dismiss the application, or make an order thereon in favour of the defendants, or reserve their decision, or (subject to the right of appeal in this Act mentioned) make such other order upon the application as may be warranted by the evidence, and may seem to them just.

May be in writing and sent or delivered to the parties.

38. The Commissioners may give their decision in writing, signed by them, and it may be sent or delivered to the respective parties, and it shall not be necessary to hold a court merely for the purpose of giving such decision.

COSTS.

How taxed and recovered.

39. Costs shall be taxed upon the order of the Commissioners by which they are payable, and when taxed may be recovered by making such order a rule of any superior court in the ordinary way, and issuing execution upon such rule, or may be recovered in any other manner according to the practice of the said court.

ALTERATION OR RESCINDING OF ORDERS.

When application for, to be made.

40. Any application to the Commissioners to review and rescind or vary any decision or order previously made by them, and not being a decision or order upon an interlocutory application, shall be made within 28 days after the said decision or order shall have been communicated to the parties unless the Commissioners think fit to enlarge the time for making such application.

APPEAL.

To a superior court.

41. If either party desire to appeal to a superior court from the decision of the Commissioners upon any question which, in the opinion of the Commissioners, is a question of law, he shall give notice thereof to the other party and to the registrar within 14 days from the time when the decision was communicated to the parties, and shall therein state what the question of law is and express his intention to apply to the Commissioners on a certain day to be therein named (not exceeding 14 days from the date of the notice) to state a case in writing for the opinion of a superior court, to be determined by the Commissioners upon such security being given as they may direct.

To all the Commissioners from one or two of them.

42. If either party desire a re-hearing by all the Commissioners of any decision or order made by any one or two of their number, he shall give notice thereof to the other party and to the registrar within 14 days from the time when the decision or order was communicated to the parties, and shall therein express his desire to have the same re-heard wholly or in part, and his intention to apply to the Commissioners on a certain day to be therein named (not exceeding 14 days from the date of the notice) to re-hear the same, specifying the questions upon which he requires such re-hearing.

INTERLOCUTORY APPLICATIONS.

How heard.

43. Interlocutory applications may be heard by the Commissioners upon summons duly served on the person called upon to answer the application, and may be determined in a summary way. Evidence in such cases may be given by affidavit, but the Commissioners may order the attendance for cross-examination of the person making any such affidavit. Any application to the Commistioners to review and rescind or vary any decision or order previously made by them upon an interlocutory application shall be made within the time limited for taking the next step in the proceeding.

AFFIDAVITS.

How framed.

44. Affidavits shall be confined to such facts as the witness is able of his own knowledge to prove, except on interlocutory motions, on which statements as to his belief with the grounds thereof may be admitted. The costs of every affidavit which shall unnecessarily set forth matters of hearsay or argumentative matter or copies of or extracts from documents shall be paid by the party using or filing the same.

Before whom sworn.

45. Any affidavit used in any proceeding before the Commissioners may be sworn as follows:—

In the United Kingdom before any of the said Commissioners or their registrar, or the officer appointed by the Commissioners to administer oaths before them (and in these cases without the payment of any fee), or before a person authorised to administer oaths in any of the superior courts of law or equity, or before a Commissioner empowered to take or receive affidavits, or before a justice of the peace for the county or place where it is sworn or made.

In any place in the British dominions out of the United Kingdom, before any court, judge, or justice of the peace, or any person authorised to administer oaths there in any court.

In any place out of the British dominions, before a British minister, consul, vice-consul, or notary public, or before a judge or magistrate, his signature being authenticated by the official seal of the court to which such judge or magistrate is attached.

Filing of affidavits, &c., and giving office copies.

46. Affidavits left with the registrar or used before the Commissioners shall be filed in their office, and applications, answers, and replies, together with documents left therewith at the said office, shall also be there filed, and office copies of the same shall be given by the registrar upon request of the parties.

COMPUTATION OF TIME.

How computed.

47. In all cases in which any particular number of days, not expressed to be clear days, is prescribed by this Act or by these orders, the same shall be reckoned exclusively of the first day and inclusively of the last day, unless the last day shall happen to fall on a Sunday, Christmas Day, or Good Friday, or a day appointed for a public fast or thanksgiving, in which case the time shall be reckoned exclusively of that day also.

What days to be excluded.

48. The days between Thursday next before and the Wednesday next after Easter Day and Christmas Day, and the three following days shall not be reckoned or included in any proceedings under this Act.

REGISTRAR'S OFFICE, WHEN OPEN.

The hours and days when open.

49. The registrar's office shall be open from ten o'clock in the forenoon till five o'clock in the afternoon daily, except between the 10th day of August and the 24th day of October, when it is to be open from eleven in the forenoon till two in the afternoon, and except on Good Friday, Easter Eve, Monday and Tuesday in Easter Week, Christmas Day, and the three following days, the Queen's birthday, and Whit Monday and Whit Tuesday, when the office shall be closed.

ADJOURNMENT.

Power of Commissioners to adjourn.

50. The Commissioners may from time to time adjourn any proceedings before them.

AMENDMENT.

Power of Commissioners to amend.

51. The Commissioners may at any stage of the proceedings allow them to be amended, or may order to be struck out any matters which may tend to prejudice, embarrass, or delay the fair hearing of the case, and all such amendments shall be made as may be necessary for the purpose of determining the real questions in controversy between the parties.

FORMAL OBJECTIONS.

Not to prevail.

52. No proceedings under this Act shall be defeated by any formal objection.

COMMISSIONERS ACTING SEPARATELY.

In what cases.

53. The Commissioners may, if they think it necessary so to do, exercise their jurisdiction by any one or two of their number in cases under ss. 6, 8, 9, 13, 14, 15, 17, and 19 of this Act, and on all interlocutory applications.

PRACTICE OF SUPERIOR COURTS, WHEN APPLICABLE.

Discretion of Commissioners in cases not expressly provided for.

54. In any case not expressly provided for by this Act or by these orders, the general principles of practice in the superior courts may be adopted and applied at the discretion of the Commissioners to proceedings before them.

TABLE OF FEES.

What fees may be taken.

55. The fees, a table whereof is in the schedule hereunto annexed, may be demanded and taken in respect of the proceedings before the Commissioners.

DIRECTIONS OF THE RAILWAY COMMISSIONERS relating to working agreements between two or more Railway Companies.

1. Care should be taken that at least 28 days from the date of the newspaper containing the first insertion of the notice to the public of the intention of the companies to enter into a working agreement are allowed for bringing objections before the Railway Commissioners.

2. At the expiration of the period specified in the notices for bringing objections before the Railway Commissioners, and together with the application for their approval there should be sent to their office:

- a. The Act or Acts of Parliament authorising such agreement.
- b. Copies of the newspapers containing the notices of the intention of the two companies to enter into such agreement which are required by the 24th section of the Railway Clauses Act, 1863.
- c. Copies of the newspapers containing the advertisements of each company, required by the 23rd section of the same Act, convening the special meetings at which the agreement was assented to.
- d. A copy of the circular which was addressed to each shareholder.
- e. The agreement, sealed by the companies, together with a certificate given under the hands of the chairman at the meeting; and of the secretary of each company, stating that such agreement was duly assented to by the required proportion of the votes of the shareholders and stockholders entitled to vote in that behalf at meetings of the company, present (personally or by proxy) at a general meeting of each of the companies specially convened for that purpose, pursuant to the 23rd section of the same Act.

3. The application to the Commissioners for their approval should be made in the manner prescribed by their General Orders of August, 1874, Nos. 2 and 6.

The agreement, when approved by the Commissioners, will be returned with their approval signified thereon, and the copy lodged at their office will be retained by them.

NOTE.—Where the Special Act or Acts authorising the agreement do not incorporate the Railway Clauses Act, 1863, Part 3, or are of an earlier date, the course of proceeding will be that indicated in the Special Acts.

NAVAL PRIZE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy and Comptroller of Navy Pay, Admiralty, October 1, 1874.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons interested therein, that preparations are now being made for the intended distribution of the tonnage bounty awarded for two slave dhows, names unknown (Nos. 26 and 27), captured on the 14th of August, 1873, by Her Majesty's ship "Daphne."

Agents or other persons having any just and legal demand, unliquidated, against the said award, are required to transmit the particulars of any such demand to the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, in order that the same may be examined, taxed, and allowed by that Officer, and paid under the sanction of the Judge of the said Court.

Due notice will be given, by future advertisement in the London Gazette, of the date proposed for the commencement of distribution; and at the same time, the amount of an individual's share in the respective classes will be announced.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named the Congregational Church, situated at Harnes Nest, in the parish of Rugeley, in the county of Stafford, in the district of Lichfield, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 25th day of September, 1874, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of 6th and 7th Wm. IV., cap. 85; being substituted for the building known as Providence Chapel, at Rugeley aforesaid, now disused.

Witness my hand this 28th of September, 1874.
John Thomas Parker, Superintendent Registrar.
