TUESDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1874.

By the QUEEN.
A PROCLAMATION.

VICTORIA, R.

WHEREAS Our Parliament stands prorogued to the twenty-third day of October instant: We, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, hereby issue Our Royal Proclamation, and publish and declare that the said Parliament be further prorogued to Wednesday, the sixteenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

Given at Our Court at Balmoral, this twentieth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, and in the thirty-eighth year of Our reign.

GOD save the QUEEN.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 20th day of October, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by Her Majesty in Council that the Convocations of the Provinces of Canterbury and York be prorogued from the day to which the same now stand prorogued to Thursday, the seventeenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four; and the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain is to cause Writs to be prepared and issued in the usual manner for proroguing the Convocations accordingly.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 20th day of October, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Royal Highness Prince Leopold George Duncan Albert was this day introduced into the Privy Council.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 20th day of October, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of your Majesty, chapter eighty-two, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Michael and All Angels, situate at Galleywood Common, in the parish of Great Baddow, in the county of Essex, and in the diocese of Rochester.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Great Baddow, of the parish of West Hanningfield, in the said county of Essex, and in the said diocese of Rochester, of the new parish of Saint John, Moulsham, in the said county of Essex, and in the said diocese of Rochester, and of the parish of Orsett, in the said county of Essex, and in the said diocese of Rochester, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parishes and new parish respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Great Baddow, of the said parish of West Hanningfield, of the said new parish of Saint John, Moulsham, and of the said parish of Orsett, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Michael and All Angels, situate at Galleywood Common.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Thomas Legh, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester, as such Bishop, and also as the patron in right of his see of the rectory of the said parish of Orsett, with the consent of the Reverend Abraham William Bullen, now vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Great Baddow, the patron of the same vicarage, with the consent of Alfred Southby Crowdey, of Torquay, in the county of Devon, Esquire, and Edward Wackerbath, of Dartmouth Park-road, Highgate-road, in the county of Middlesex, Esquire, the patrons of the rectory of the said parish of West Hanningfield, and with the consent of the Venerable Carew Anthony St. John Mildmay, Archdeacon of the Archdeaconry of Essex, and rector or incumbent of the rectory of the parish of Chelmsford, in the said diocese of Rochester, and, as such rector or incumbent, the patron of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint John, Moulsham (in testimony whereof they, the said consenting parties, have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Great Baddow, of the said parish of West Hanningfield, of the said new parish of Saint John, Moulsham, and of the said parish of Orsett, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Michael and All Angels, situate at Galleywood Common as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Michael, Galleywood Common.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Michael, Galleywood Common, being:—

"All those several contiguous portions of the parish of Great Baddow, of the parish of West Hanningfield, of the new parish of Saint John, Moulsham, all in the county of Essex, and in the diocese of Rochester, and also all that portion of the parish of Orsett, in the said county and diocese, which is known as the hamlet of Orsett, and which is detached from the said parish of Orsett, but is contiguous to the three parishes first above-named, all which said portions of the four parishes aforesaid are comprised within, and are bounded by, an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint John, Moulsham, from the parish of Widford, in the county and diocese aforesaid, crosses the centre of the bridge or culvert which carries the line of the Great Eastern Railway over the River Wid, such bridge or culvert being situate on the western side of Moulsham Thrift Wood; and extending thence, first generally southward, and then generally south-westward, along the said boundary, thereby following for the most part the course of the said stream to the point near the house called or known as Shensils or Killegrews, where the same boundary is joined by the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint John, Moulsham, from the parish of Margaretting, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and extending thence, first generally southward, then south-westward, and then south-eastward, along the last-described boundary, thereby following, in part, the course of the said river to the point on Mole Hill Common in the road leading from Galleywood to Thyrstlinge Hall, where the said last-described boundary is joined by the boundary which divides the said parish of Margaretting from that detached portion of the said parish of Orsett which is known as the hamlet of Orsett as aforesaid; and extending thence, south-westward, along the last-described boundary, thereby following the course of the last-described road to the point at the junction of the same road with the road leading past Tye Green to Stock Harward, where the said last-described boundary is joined by the boundary which divides the said hamlet of Orsett from the parish of Stock Harward, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and extending generally south-eastward along the last-described boundary to its junction, at the road which leads from Stock Harward to Galleywood, with the boundary which divides the said hamlet of Orsett from the parish of West Hanningfield aforesaid; and extending thence, north-eastward, along the last-described boundary, thereby following the south-eastern side of the last-described road to a boundary stone inscribed 'G. C., St. M. C. C., 1874, No. 1,' and placed at the junction of the said road with the road leading to Downham; and continuing thence, that is from the said boundary stone, still north-eastward, and in a direct line, for a distance of eighteen chains, or thereabouts, to a boundary stone inscribed 'G. C., St. M. C. C., 1874, No. 2,' and placed on the southern side of the road leading from Galleywood Common to Foxboro' Hall Farm, at a distance of four chains (measured along the last-described road to the east of the eastern side of the road which leads from Stock Harward to Galleywood as aforesaid); and continuing thence, i.e., from the last-described boundary stone in exactly the same direction, i.e., north-eastward, and in a direct line, for a distance of eighteen chains, or thereabouts, to a boundary stone, inscribed 'G. C., St. M. C. C., 1874, No. 3,' and placed at a point on the northern side of the road leading from the house, called or known as 'The Ship,' to West Hanningfield, at a distance of fifteen chains (measured along the last-described road) from the eastern side of the road leading from Stock Harward to Galleywood as aforesaid, which said point is at or near to the south-western end of the occupation road leading to Temple Farm; and continuing thence, that is, from the last-mentioned boundary stone in exactly the same direction, that is, north-eastward, and in a direct line for a distance of seventy-five chains, or thereabouts, thereby passing to the west of and close by the farm buildings called or known as Temple Farm aforesaid, and passing also to the east of and close by the house and buildings called or known as Hill House to a boundary stone inscribed 'G. C., St. M. C. C., 1874, No. 4,' and placed on or near to the boundary which divides the said parish of West Hanningfield from the parish of Great Baddow aforesaid, at the point near the eastern side of Hill House aforesaid, where the fence which divides the close numbered 23 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of West Hanningfield, and upon the map hereunto annexed, from the close numbered 567 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Great Baddow, and upon the map hereunto annexed as aforesaid, joins the fence dividing the last-mentioned close from the close numbered 573 upon the last-mentioned maps; and extending thence, that is, from the last-described boundary stone in a direct line nearly due north for a distance of one mile and five and a half chains, or thereabouts, to a boundary stone inscribed 'G. C., St. M. C. C., 1874, No. 5,' and placed on the southern side of the road leading from Galleywood to West Hanningfield at a distance of two chains (measured along such road) to the east of the eastern side of the road leading to Lower Galleywood, and continuing thence, that is from the last-described boundary stone, in exactly the same direction, that is nearly due north, and in a direct line for a distance of twelve chains, or thereabouts, to a boundary stone inscribed 'G. C., St. M. C. C., 1874, No. 6,' and placed on the south-eastern side of the road leading from Galleywood to Great Baddow, at a distance of six chains, to the north-east of the milestone on such road, indicating twenty-eight miles from London, and continuing thence, that is from the last-described boundary stone in exactly the same direction, that is nearly due north and in a direct line for a distance of eight chains, or thereabouts, to a boundary stone inscribed 'G. C., St. M. C. C., 1874, No. 7,' and placed at the northern angle of the triangular plot of land at the junction of the road leading from Galleywood to Great Baddow as aforesaid with Deadman's lane; and extending thence, that is from the last-described boundary stone, generally westward, to and along the middle of the last-named lane to its junction with the road leading from Galleywood, past Gravel Hall, to Chelmsford; and extending thence, south-westward, for a distance of one chain and a half, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-described road to a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'G. C., St. M. C. C., 1874, No. 8,' and placed on the north-western side of the same road at the south-eastern end of the fence which divides the close numbered 172 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Great Baddow, and upon the map hereunto annexed as aforesaid, from the close numbered 372 upon the same maps; and extending thence, north-westward, to such boundary stone, and along the last-mentioned fence and along the fence which divides the close numbered 171 upon the said last-mentioned maps from the closes numbered respectively 372 as aforesaid and 373 upon the same maps to a boundary stone inscribed 'G. C., St. M. C. C., 1874, No. 9,' and placed at the north-western end of the last-described fence on the boundary which divides the said parish of Great Baddow from the new parish of Saint John, Moulsham aforesaid, on the south-eastern side of the occupation road numbered 558 upon the tithe commutation map of the parish of Chelmsford, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and upon the map hereunto annexed as aforesaid, and continuing thence, still north-westward, and in a direct line to a point in the middle of the said occupation road; and extending thence, for a distance of twenty-seven chains or thereabouts, first south-westward, and then westward, along the middle of the same occupation road (thereby passing the house and buildings called or known as Tile Kiln Farm), to a boundary stone inscribed 'G. C., St. M. C. C., 1874, No. 10,' and placed at the junction of the said occupation road with the road which leads from Galleywood past the Chelmsford Union Workhouse to Chelmsford, and continuing thence, that is from the last-described boundary-stone, still westward, and in a direct line for a distance of fifty-two chains or thereabouts (thereby crossing Moulsham Thrift Wood aforesaid), to the first-described point where the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint John, Moulsham, from the parish of Widford aforesaid, crosses the centre of the bridge or culvert which carries the line of the Great Eastern Railway over the River Wid as aforesaid, at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council, now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Rochester.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 20th day of October, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to a certain benefice, namely, the church and cure (being a rectory) of Cliburn, in the county of Westmoreland, and in the diocese of Carlisle, by way of exchange for the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to certain other benefices, namely, the church and cure (being a perpetual curacy or a vicarage) of Embleton (Saint Cuthbert), and the church and cure (being a perpetual curacy or a vicarage) of Lorton (Saint Cuthbert), each of which two last-named benefices is in the county of Cumberland, and in the said diocese of Carlisle.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Cliburn is vested in the Bishop of the said diocese of Carlisle for the time being.

"And whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to each of the said two benefices of Embleton and Lorton is vested for an estate of inheritance in fee simple in possession without incumbrances in the Right Honourable Henry, Earl of Lonsdale and his heirs and assigns.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Harvey, now Bishop of the said diocese of Carlisle, and the said Henry, Earl of Lonsdale, have respectively signified to us their desire that the patronage of the said three benefices may be assigned and transferred by way of exchange in manner herein-after recommended and proposed.

"And whereas we have made due enquiry and calculation as to the circumstances and relative values of the said benefices and patronage, and we do hereby certify to your Majesty that the circumstances and present values of the said benefices respectively are as set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Harvey, Bishop of the said diocese of Carlisle, and of the said Henry, Earl of Lonsdale (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Cliburn, now vested in the said Harvey, Bishop of the said diocese of Carlisle, as such bishop as aforesaid, shall be transferred from him, the said Harvey, Bishop of the said diocese of Carlisle, and from his successors, bishops of the said diocese, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Henry, Earl of Lonsdale, and his heirs and assigns for ever, and that in exchange for the same the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said two benefices of Embleton and Lorton, and each of them now vested as aforesaid in the said Henry, Earl of Lonsdale, shall thereupon and thenceforth be transferred from him, the said Henry, Earl of Lonsdale, and from his heirs and assigns, and shall be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Harvey, Bishop of the said diocese of Carlisle, and his successors, Bishops of the same diocese for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 20th day of October, 1874.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King

George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the thirtieth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty, King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Mary, situate at Cloughton, in the parish of Scalby, in the county of York, and in the diocese of York.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Mary, situate at Cloughton as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William, Archbishop of York (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Scalby, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Mary, situate at Cloughton as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Mary, Cloughton.'

"And with the like consent of the said William, Archbishop of York (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient, that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Mary, Cloughton, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Scalby, in the county of York, and in the diocese of York, which consists for the most part of the townships of Cloughton and of Stainton Dale, all which said part is bounded on the east and on the north-east by the sea, on the west partly by the parish or parochial chapelry of Fylingdales, and partly by the chapelry of Harwood Dale, in the parish or parochial chapelry of Hackness, and on the remaining side, that is to say, on the south by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said chapelry of Harwood Dale from the parish of Scalby aforesaid, at the point where the stream called or known as the East Syme is joined by the stream called or known as Lindhead Beck; and extending thence, generally eastward, for a distance of about a mile along the middle of the last-named stream to a point in the middle of Stone Quarry-road; and extending thence, south-eastward, for a distance of twenty-two chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said road to its junction with Limestone-road; and extending thence, south-westward, for a distance of rather more than half a mile along the middle of the last-named road to the centre of the bridge or culvert which carries the same road over the stream called or known as Washy Cote Beck; and extending thence, in a direction generally south-eastward, for a distance of rather less than half a mile along the middle of the last-named stream to the centre of the bridge over the same stream which carries the footpath leading from the closes called or known as Ox Leys across the closes called or known respectively as High Toft Hills and Low Toft Hills into the High-street, Burniston; and extending thence, that is from the last-mentioned bridge, first north-eastward, then northward, and then north-eastward, along the middle of the said footpath for a distance of fifty-one chains, or thereabouts, to the junction of the same road or footpath with High-street, Burniston as aforesaid, near to the southern end thereof; and extending thence, north-westward, for a distance of three chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Chapel Garth-lane; and extending thence, north-eastward, for a distance of nine and a-half chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said lane to the centre of Prickybeck-bridge which carries the same lane over the stream called or known as Burniston Beck; and extending thence, generally north-westward, for a distance of a quarter of a mile, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named stream to the boundary which divides the township of Burniston, in the said parish of Scalby, from the township of Cloughton aforesaid; and extending thence, north-eastward, along the said township boundary to the eastern boundary of the said parish of Scalby, upon the seashore at or near to the point called or known as Long Nab Hole."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation; and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of York.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 20th day of October, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-one, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirtieth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words following, that is to say;

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of your Majesty, chapter forty-one, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for setting out and constituting a district for spiritual purposes, and annexing such district to the consecrated church of Saint Alban, situate at Cheetwood, within that part of the original parish of Manchester now remaining attached to the cathedral and parish church of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district for spiritual purposes should be set out and constituted for and annexed to the said church of Saint Alban, situate at Cheetwood as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said original parish of Manchester now remaining attached to the cathedral and parish church of Manchester, as aforesaid, all which part is described in the schedule hereunder written, and is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, be severed and disannexed from such parish, and shall be set out and constituted for and annexed to the said church of Saint Alban, situate at Cheetwood as aforesaid, and shall become and be a district for spiritual purposes, and shall be named 'The District of Saint Alban, Cheetwood.'

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or to any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the herein named Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Alban, Cheetwood, being:—

"All that part of the original parish of Manchester (now remaining attached to the cathedral and parish church of Manchester), in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, which is bounded on the south-east partly by the new parish of Saint Thomas, Redbank, and partly by the new parish of Saint Luke, Cheetham Hill, on the north-east partly by the new parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Cheetham, and partly by the new parish of Saint John, Broughton, on the north-west partly by the last-named new parish and partly by the new parish of Lower Broughton, on the south-west partly by the said new parish of Lower Broughton and partly by the new parish of Saint Simon, Salford (all which above-mentioned new parishes are situate within the limits of, and some time formed part of, the original parish of Manchester aforesaid), and on the remaining side, that is to say, on the south by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Simon, Salford, from that part of the said original parish of Manchester which now remains attached to the cathedral and parish church of Manchester as aforesaid, in the centre of Waterloo Bridge, which carries New Bridge-street over the River Irwell; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said street to the boundary at the junction of the same street with York-street, which boundary divides that part of the said original parish of Manchester which now remains attached to the cathedral and parish church of Manchester as aforesaid, from the new parish of Saint Thomas, Redbank aforesaid."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the said firstly-mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patron and to the incumbent of the parish out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and such patron and incumbent have respectively signified their assent to the said scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 20th day of October, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the thirtieth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of your Majesty, chapter eighty-two; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Michael-at-Bowes, situate within the limits of the new parish of Southgate, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Southgate, and of the new parish of Saint Michael, Wood Green, in the said county of Middlesex, and in the said diocese of London, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective new parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said new parish of Southgate, and of the said new parish of Saint Michael, Wood Green, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Michael-at-Bowes, situate within the limits of the said new parish of Southgate as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of London, as such Bishop, with the consent of the Reverend Reginald Edward Coplestone, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the parish of Edmonton, in the said diocese of London, and as such vicar or incumbent the patron of the vicarage of the said new parish of Southgate, and with the consent of the Reverend Alexander Wilson, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the parish of Tottenham, in the said diocese of London, and as such vicar or incumbent, the patron of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Michael, Wood Green (in testimony whereof they, the said consenting parties, have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Southgate, and of the said new parish of Saint Michael, Wood Green, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Michael-at-Bowes, situate within the limits of the said new parish of Southgate aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Michael-at-Bowes, Southgate.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Michael-at-Bowes, Southgate, being :—

"All that portion of the new parish of Southgate, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, wherein the present incumbent of such new parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the north-east by the new parish of Winchmore Hill, on the east by the new parish of Upper Edmonton, on the south partly by the parish of Tottenham and partly by the new parish of Saint Michael, Wood Green, on the west by the consolidated chapelry of Saint Paul, New Southgate, all in the county and diocese aforesaid, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, on the north and on the north-west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Southgate from the consolidated chapelry of Saint Paul, New Southgate aforesaid, at the point where Bounds Green Brook joins Pymmes Brook; and extending thence in a direction first northward, and then generally eastward, for a distance of nearly three quarters of a mile along the middle of the last-named brook, thereby passing along the northern side of the closes numbered 1058, 1057, 1092, 1094, and 1095, upon the $\frac{1}{2500}$ scale map of the ordnance survey of the parish of Edmonton (of which parish the said new parish of Southgate some time formed part), and upon the map hereunto annexed, and also passing under the line of the Enfield Branch of the Great Northern Railway to the centre of the aqueduct which carries the New River over the same brook; and extending thence for a distance of one mile, or thereabouts, first north-eastward, and then northward, along the middle of the said New River to the boundary at the centre of the bridge which carries Hedge-lane over the same New River, which boundary divides

the said new parish of Southgate from the new parish of Winchmore Hill aforesaid; and also all that contiguous portion of the new parish of Saint Michael, Wood Green aforesaid, which is bounded on the north by the above-described portion of the said new parish of Southgate, and upon all other sides, that is to say, on the east, on the south, on the south-west, and on the west by an imaginary line commencing at the point in the middle of the road called or known as the Green Lanes, upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Southgate from the new parish of Saint Michael, Wood Green aforesaid; and extending thence southward for a distance of twenty-three chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with Truro-road; and extending thence westward for a distance of seventeen and a half chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with Clarence-road; and extending thence, first north-westward, and then westward, along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with Bounds Green Lane; and extending thence north-westward for a distance of fourteen and a half chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named lane to its junction with Brownlow-road; and extending thence north-eastward for a distance of five chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with Maidstone-road; and extending thence north-westward for a distance of nine chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named road to the boundary a little to the west of Oak-lane, which boundary divides the said new parish of Saint Michael, Wood Green, from the new parish of Southgate aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the thirtieth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of your Majesty, chapter eighty-two, have prepared; and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Jude, situate within the limits of the parish of the Holy Trinity, Kingston-upon-Hull, in the town and county of the town of Kingston-upon-Hull, and in the diocese of York.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of the Holy Trinity, Kingston-upon-Hull, and of the new parish of Saint Stephen, Hull, in the said town and county of the town of Kingston-upon-Hull, and in the said diocese of York, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parish and new parish respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of the Holy Trinity, Kingston-upon-Hull, and of the said new parish of Saint Stephen, Hull, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Jude, situate within the limits of the said parish of the Holy Trinity, Kingston-upon-Hull as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William, Archbishop of York, with the consent of the Reverend John Casebow Barrett, of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Clerk in Holy Orders, of the Reverend Stephen Bridge, of Droxford, in the county of Southampton, Clerk in Holy Orders, of Theophilus Carrick, of Kingston-upon-Hull, Esquire, of William Dryden, of Kingston-upon-Hull, Solicitor, of Augustus William Gadsden, of Chambers-street, in the city of London, Esquire, of Samuel Talbot Hassell, of Kingston-upon-Hull, Esquire, of the Reverend John Jarratt, of North Cave, in the said county of York, Clerk in Holy Orders, of the Reverend Robert Jarratt, of Bourton-on-the-Hill, in the county of Gloucester, Clerk in Holy Orders, and of Charlotte Ann Scott, formerly Charlotte Ann Terry, Spinster, and now the wife of the Reverend John Scott, of Wisbeach, in the county of Cambridge, Clerk in Holy Orders, the joint patrons of the vicarage of the said parish of the Holy Trinity, Kingston-upon-Hull, and with the consent of the Reverend Richard England Brooke, the vicar or incumbent of the same vicarage, and as such vicar or incumbent the patron of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Stephen, Hull (in testimony whereof, they, the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of the Holy Trinity, Kingston-upon-Hull, and of the said new parish of Saint Stephen, Hull, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Jude, situate within the limits of the parish of the Holy Trinity, Kingston-upon-Hull, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Jude, Kingston-upon-Hull.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as, to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Jude, Kingston-upon-Hull, being:—

"All that portion of the parish of the Holy Trinity, Kingston-upon-Hull, in the town and county of the town of Kingston-upon-Hull, and in the diocese of York, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the north-east by the parish of Sculcoates, in the town, county, and diocese aforesaid, or, in other words, by the road called or known as Spring-bank, and on the east by the new parish of Saint Stephen, Hull, in the same town, county, and diocese, or, in other words, for the most part by Pinner's-lane, otherwise called or known as West-parade, on the south by the new parish of Saint Matthew, Kingston-upon-Hull, in the town, county, and diocese aforesaid, or, in other words, by the line of the Hull and Bridlington Branch of the North Eastern Railway, and on the remaining side, that is to say, on the west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the last-named new parish from the parish of the Holy Trinity, Kingston-upon-Hull aforesaid, at the point where the line of the said Hull and Bridlington Branch of the North Eastern Railway is joined by the line of the Victoria Docks Branch of the same railway; and extending thence, first north-westward, then northward, and then north-eastward, along the middle of the last-named branch line of railway to a point where the same branch line of railway crosses the road called or known as Spring-bank aforesaid, upon the boundary which divides the said parish of the Holy Trinity, Kingston-upon-Hull, from the parish of Sculcoates aforesaid.

"And, also, all that contiguous portion of the said new parish of Saint Stephen, Hull, which is bounded on the west by the above-described portion of the said parish of the Holy Trinity, Kingston-upon-Hull, or, in other words, by Pinner's-lane, otherwise called or known as West-parade as aforesaid, on the north-east by the parish of Sculcoates aforesaid, or, in other words, by the road called or known as Spring-bank as aforesaid, and upon all other sides, that is to say, on the east and on the south, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Sculcoates from the new parish of Saint Stephen, Hull aforesaid, at the point where the road called or known as Spring-bank as aforesaid, is joined by Sutton-street; and extending thence, southward, along the middle of the said street, and along the middle of Alexandra-street, to the junction of the last-named street with Londesborough-street; and extending thence, westward, along the middle of the last-named street to the boundary at the junction of the same street with Pinner's-lane, otherwise called or known as West-parade aforesaid, which boundary divides the said new parish of Saint Stephen, Hull, from the above-described portion of the parish of the Holy Trinity, Kingston-upon-Hull aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of York.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 20th day of October, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the sixth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the new parish of Christ Church, Battersea, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Winchester.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said new parish of Christ Church, Battersea, hereinafter mentioned and described (such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship), should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas, by a deed, bearing date on or about the sixth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, made under the authority of the 'New Parishes Acts, 1843, 1844, and 1856,' or some or one of them (which deed is intended to be enrolled in your Majesty's High Court of Chancery at Westminster), the Reverend John Erskine Clarke, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the parish of Battersea, in the said county of Surrey, and in the said diocese of Winchester, did, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Harold, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, and with the consent of the Right Honourable John Poyntz, Earl Spencer, the patron of the said vicarage of the parish of Battersea aforesaid, and with the approval of us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, grant and confirm unto and to the use of the minister or incumbent (so soon as a minister or incumbent should have been appointed and licensed thereto) of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and his successors, ministers or incumbents thereof, for the time being, certain vicarial tithe commutation rent-charges, or annual sums, amounting together to the sum of one hundred and forty-seven pounds seven shillings and ten pence, the particulars of which vicarial tithe commutation rent-charges, and of the lands in the said parish of Battersea, out of which the same respectively arise or are payable, are specified in the schedule annexed to the said deed.

"And whereas the said vicarial tithe commutation rent-charges or annual sums have been so given, granted, and confirmed as aforesaid, upon the understanding that we should make and pay out of the common fund created by the firstly herein mentioned Act to the minister or incumbent for the time being of the said district so recommended to be constituted, when he shall have been duly licensed according to the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act, a grant of thirty-seven pounds thirteen shillings and four pence per annum, and upon the further understanding and condition that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said district, and of the nomination of the minister thereto should be assigned in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas we have agreed and undertaken to make such grant of thirty-seven pounds thirteen shillings and four pence per annum as aforesaid, by an instrument to be executed by us under our common seal, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Edward Harold, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester (in testimony whereof, he has signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said new parish of Christ Church, Battersea, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, and which is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Peter, Battersea.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister thereto, shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to, and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the said parish of Battersea.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Peter, Battersea, being:

"All that part of the new parish of Christ Church, Battersea, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Winchester, which is comprised within and bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides that portion of the parish of Battersea, in the county and diocese aforesaid, which is situate on the southern side of the Wandsworth-road, from the new parish of Christ Church, Battersea aforesaid, at the point where the said Wandsworth-road is joined by Falcon-lane; and extending thence, northward, along the middle of the said Falcon-lane, thereby passing under the various lines of railway which converge on the eastern side of the Clapham Junction Railway Station, to the junction of such lane with Lavender-road; and extending thence, north-westward, for a distance of three hundred and eighty-five yards, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named road, to a point at or near to the junction of the same road with Currieroad, and opposite to the southern end of the wall or fence forming the western boundary of the house and premises situate on the northern side of Lavender-road aforesaid, and known as No. 104, Lavender-road; and extending thence, northward, to and along the said wall or fence, to its junction with the wall or fence which divides the house and premises now known as No. 23, Ingrave-street, from the house and premises now known as No. 24, Ingrave-street, and continuing thence, still northward, along the last-described wall or fence to its northern end on the southern side of Ingrave-street; and extending thence, first northward to and then westward, for a distance of ninety-eight yards, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with Verona-street; and extending thence, first northward and then north-westward, along the middle of the last-named street to the boundary at the junction of the same street with York-road, which divides the said new parish of Christ Church, Battersea, from that portion of the parish of Battersea aforesaid, which is situate on the northern side of the said York-road; and extending thence, first south-westward and then southward, along the middle of the last-named road, thereby following in part the last-mentioned boundary, and in part the boundary which divides the said new parish of Christ Church, Battersea, from the new parish of Saint John, Battersea, in the county and diocese aforesaid, to the point where the said York-road is joined by Plough-lane; and extending thence, south-eastward, along the middle of the last-named lane (following the easternmost branch thereof), thereby continuing in chief part along the last-mentioned boundary to the junction of the same lane with Wandsworth-road aforesaid; and extending thence, north-eastward, along the middle of the last-named road, thereby following the boundary dividing the said new parish of Christ Church, Battersea, from that portion of the parish of Battersea which is situate on the southern side of the Wandsworth-road as aforesaid, to the first-described point at the junction of the said Wandsworth-road with Falcon-lane as aforesaid, at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patron, and to the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said new parish of Christ Church, Battersea, out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such patron and vicar or incumbent have respectively signified their assent to the said scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

Edmund Harrison.

At the Court at Balmoral, the 20th day of October, 1874.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme or representation bearing date the sixth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting under the provisions of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Christ Church, Battersea, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Winchester.

"Whereas by the authority of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the eleventh day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and published in the London Gazette upon the fifteenth day of the same month, a part of the parish of Battersea, in the county and diocese aforesaid, was assigned as a district chapelry to the consecrated church called Christ Church, situate within the limits of such parish, and the same district chapelry was called 'The District Chapelry of Christ Church, Battersea.'

"And whereas the said district chapelry of Christ Church, Battersea, has, under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, become a new parish of the character contemplated by that Act, and by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and by the said above-mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas it has been represented to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that the boundaries of the said new parish of Christ Church, Battersea, should be altered by way of extension, so that they shall include an additional portion of the said parish of Battersea.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Harold, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, recommend, and propose that, from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation, the boundaries of the said new parish of Christ Church, Battersea, shall be altered by way of extension, so that they shall include all that portion of the said parish of Battersea which is described in the schedule hereunder written, and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto appended, and is thereon coloured pink, and that from and after the same day, and without any assurance in law other than such Order, and so published as aforesaid, the said portion of the parish of Battersea, so to be included as aforesaid, shall become and be, and form part of, the said new parish of Christ Church, Battersea.

"And we further represent, recommend, and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing, recommending, or proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference.

"The territory proposed to be annexed to the new parish of Christ Church, Battersea, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Winchester, being:

"All that portion of the parish of Battersea, in the said county and diocese, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the south by the new parish of Christ Church, Battersea, aforesaid, or in other words by Lower Wandsworth-road and York-road, and upon all other sides, that is to say, on the west, on the north, and on the east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Christ Church, Battersea, from the parish of Battersea aforesaid at the point where the said York-road is joined by Totteridge-road; and extending thence, northward, along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with Gwynn-road; and extending thence, eastward, along the middle of the last-named road to its junction at or near to the Battersea Station on the line of the West London Junction Railway with High-street; and extending thence, northward, along the middle of the last-named street, thereby passing under the said line of railway, to the junction of the same street with Castle-lane; and extending thence, first north-eastward, then south-eastward, and then again north-eastward, along the middle of the last-named lane to its junction with Surrey-lane South; and extending thence, south-eastward, along the middle of the last-named lane, to its junction with Battersea Bridge-road; and extending thence, southward, along the middle of the last-named road, to the boundary at the junction of the same road with Lower Wandsworth-road aforesaid and with Battersea-road, which boundary divides the said parish of Battersea from the new parish of Christ Church, Battersea aforesaid."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme or representation have been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the two cures affected by the arrangements which are contemplated by such scheme or representation; and such patrons and incumbents have respectively signified their assent to the said scheme or representation:

And whereas the said scheme or representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme or representation; and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-four; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

Edmund Harrison.

At the Court at Balmoral, the 20th day of October, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the sixth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of your Majesty, chapter eighty-two, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of All Saints, situate within the limits of the new parish of Saint Michael, Highgate, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Saint Michael, Highgate, of the new parish of Saint James, Muswell Hill, in the said county of Middlesex, and in the said diocese of London, and of the parish of Hornsey, also in the said county of Middlesex, and in the said diocese of London, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such new parishes and parish respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said new parish of Saint Michael, Highgate, of the said new parish of Saint James, Muswell Hill, and of the said parish of Hornsey, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes; and that the same should be assigned to the said church of All Saints, situate within the limits of the said new parish of Saint Michael, Highgate as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of London, as such Bishop, and also as the patron in right of his see of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Michael, Highgate, of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint James, Muswell Hill, and of the rectory of the said parish of Hornsey (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Saint Michael, Highgate, of the said new parish of Saint James, Muswell Hill, and of the said parish of Hornsey, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of All Saints, situate within the limits of the said new parish of Saint Michael, Highgate, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of All Saints, Highgate.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of All Saints, Highgate, being:

"All those several contiguous portions of the new parish of Saint Michael, Highgate, of the new parish of Saint James, Muswell Hill, and of the parish of Hornsey, all in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the district parish of Saint John, Upper Holloway, in the said county and diocese, from the new parish of Saint Michael, Highgate aforesaid, at a point on the south-eastern side of Highgate Archway, immediately over the middle of Archway-road; and extending thence, north-westward, for a distance of about a quarter of a mile, along the middle of the said Archway-road to its junction with the public footpath leading across the Cholmeley Park Estate into Southwood-lane; and extending thence, for a distance of twenty-six and three-quarter chains, or thereabouts, first south-westward, and then north-westward, along the middle of the said public footpath to its junction on the northern side of the house and grounds called or known as Southwood, with Southwood-lane aforesaid; and extending thence, northward, for a distance of twenty-seven yards, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named lane, to its junction near to Bank Point Cottage with Jackson's-lane, and with the public footway called or known as Park-walk, and which passes along the southern side of the grounds attached to the house called or known as the Park House Penitentiary, into the road called or known as North-hill; and extending thence, westward, along the middle of the last-mentioned public footway to its junction with the last-named road; and extending thence, north-westward, for a distance of six chains or thereabouts, along the middle of the said last-named road to its junction, opposite to Albion Cottage, with the public footpath leading across Baker's-fields into Bishop's Wood-road; and extending thence, south-westward, for a distance of eighteen chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-described footpath, to the centre of the culvert which carries the same footpath over the drain or water-course which flows from Hampstead-lane to the Great North-road; and extending thence, north-westward, and in a direct line for a distance of forty-four and a half chains, or thereabouts, to a boundary stone inscribed 'Hornsey Parish, 1859, Finchley Parish, 1864,' and placed upon the boundary, on or near to Lodge Hill, which divides the said new parish of Saint Michael, Highgate, from the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Finchley, in the county and diocese aforesaid, at or near to the fence forming the north-eastern boundary of Bishop's Wood; and extending thence, for a distance of forty-six chains, or thereabouts, in a direction generally north-eastward, along the last-mentioned boundary, thereby crossing the Great North-road aforesaid, and the line of the Edgware Branch of the Great Northern Railway, to the point where the same boundary is joined by the boundary dividing the said new parish of Saint Michael, Highgate, from the new parish of Saint James, Muswell Hill aforesaid; and extending thence, south-eastward, for a distance of three quarters of a mile, or thereabouts, along the last-mentioned boundary (thereby passing in a direction parallel to and distant one furlong to the north-east of the said Great North-road and of Archway-road aforesaid), to a point in the middle of Southwood-lane aforesaid and opposite to the southern end of the houses called or known as Fernee's-cottages; and extending thence, northward, for a distance of six and a half chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named lane to a point opposite to the western end of the fence forming the south-western boundary of Churchyard Bottom Wood; and extending thence, first eastward, to and along the last-described fence, and then southward, along the same fence (thereby crossing the north-eastern end of Wood-lane), to the point where the same fence is joined by the fence forming the southern boundary of the said wood, such point being at or near to the north-western angle of the grounds attached to the house called or known as the Priory, and situate on the northern side of Jackson's-lane aforesaid; and extending thence, eastward, along the last-described fence, thereby following the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint James, Muswell Hill, from a certain portion of the parish of Hornsey aforesaid which remains attached to the mother church of the same parish, to a point at a boundary stone inscribed 'H. Ch. Ch., D.C., 1862, No. 3,' and placed at the north-eastern angle of the grounds attached to the house called or known as the Priory as aforesaid, where the last-mentioned boundary is joined by the boundary dividing the said portion of the parish of Hornsey from the new parish of Christ Church, Hornsey, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and extending thence, south-eastward, along the last-mentioned boundary, thereby crossing the north-eastern end of Jackson's-lane aforesaid to the point a little to the east of the houses called or known as Francis-place, where the said last-mentioned boundary is joined by the boundary dividing the said new parish of Christ Church, Hornsey, from the new parish of Saint Michael, Highgate aforesaid; and continuing thence, still south-eastward, along the last-mentioned boundary, thereby passing in a direction parallel to and distant one furlong to the north-east of the Archway-road aforesaid, to the point on the south-eastern side of Hornsey-lane, where the said last-mentioned boundary is joined by the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Michael, Highgate, from the district parish of Saint John, Upper Holloway as aforesaid; and extending thence, south-westward, along the last-mentioned boundary, thereby following the south-eastern side of Hornsey-lane aforesaid to the first-described point on the south-eastern side of the said Highgate-archway, immediately over the middle of Archway-road as aforesaid, at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 20th day of October, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the sixth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty the following scheme for effecting an exchange of the patronage of the benefice (being a rectory) of Burton-le-Coggles, in the county and diocese of Lincoln, for the patronage of the rectory of Walton Lewes, in the county of Norfolk, and in the diocese of Norwich, which last-named rectory is the second mediety of the benefice of Walton West, in the same county and diocese, whereof the other or first mediety is known as the rectory of Walton Eliensis, and is in the patronage of your Majesty, your heirs and successors, the right of patronage thereof being exercised by the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain for the time being, acting on behalf of your Majesty in right of his office.

"Whereas under or by virtue of a certain indenture of settlement, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, and made between the Reverend Atwill Lake, of West Walton aforesaid, Clerk in Holy Orders, and Edward Lawford, of Drapers' Hall, in the city of London, Esquire, of the first part; John Hamilton Crook Ebrington, of Berkeley-square, in the county of Middlesex, Esquire, of the second part; the Reverend Chauncey Hare Townsend, then residing in Great Cumberland-street, in the county of Middlesex, Clerk in Holy Orders, of the third part; the Reverend Charles Townsend, of West Bromwich, in the county of Stafford, Clerk in Holy Orders, and Richard Henry Wigston, Esquire, of the fourth part; and the Reverend Charles Benjamin Tayler, of the city of Chester, Clerk in Holy Orders, the Reverend Jeremiah Bowen, of King's Lynn, in the county of Norfolk, Clerk in Holy Orders, the Reverend Thomas Pattison Ferguson, of Hodnet, in the county of Salop, Clerk in Holy Orders, and James Farish, of 8, Lancaster-place, Strand, in the county of Middlesex, Esquire, of the fifth part; and of an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made by his Honour the Vice-Chancellor Malins, on the fifth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, made in the matter of the trusts of the settlement made in pursuance of the directions contained in the will of Henry Hare Townsend, deceased, dated the twenty-fifth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, and in the matter of the Trustee Act, one thousand, eight hundred and fifty, the advowson or perpetual right of patronage, nomination, and presentation of and to the rectory of Walton Lewes aforesaid, now stands limited (with divers other hereditaments) to the use of Joseph Phipps Townsend, of Downhills, Tottenham, in the county of Middlesex, Esquire (in the said settlement called Joseph Townsend), for life, with divers remainders over, and in the indenture now in recital are contained powers for the trustees of the same indenture, with the consent of the person for the time being entitled beneficially in possession to the rents and profits of the hereditaments and premises comprised in the said indenture, to sell and convey or exchange the same hereditaments, or any part thereof, for other hereditaments in Great Britain, as in the same indenture is expressed, and under and by virtue of such settlement and order the present trustees of the said settlement are the said Charles Benjamin Tayler, Theodore Moilliet, of Brighton, in the county of Sussex, Esquire, George Burges, of 86, Inverness-terrace, in the county of Middlesex, Esquire, and Samuel Jones, of East Retford, in the county of Nottingham, Esquire.

"And whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage, nomination, and presentation of and to the rectory and parish church of Burton-le-Coggles aforesaid is vested in your Majesty, your heirs and successors, in right of the Crown, and the said right of patronage, nomination, and presentation is exercised by the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain for the time being, acting on behalf of your Majesty in right of his office.

"And whereas it has been proposed to us that the patronage of the rectory of Walton Lewes aforesaid, and the patronage of the benefice of Burton-le-Coggles aforesaid, shall be exchanged in manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas we have made due enquiry and calculation as to the circumstances and relative values of the said rectory of Walton Lewes and the said benefice of Burton-le-Coggles, and of the patronage thereof respectively, and we do hereby certify to your Majesty that such circumstances and values respectively are as set forth in the schedule hereto annexed, and it has been made to appear to us that the said exchange would be in conformity with the intentions of and expedient for the objects contemplated by the said recited Acts.

"And whereas, by an indenture already prepared and intended to be executed immediately after the publication in the London Gazette of this scheme, and an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and to bear date the day of the date of such publication as aforesaid, and expressed to be made between the said Charles Benjamin Tayler, Theodore Moilliet, George Burges, and Samuel Jones, of the first part, the said Joseph Phipps Townsend of the second part, and the Right Honourable Hugh McCalmont, Baron Cairns, now Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain of the third part, and your Majesty of the fourth part, the advowson and perpetual right of patronage, nomination, and presentation of and to the rectory of Walton Lewes (being as aforesaid, one mediety of the said benefice of Walton West), in the county of Norfolk, and in the diocese of Norwich, is intended and expressed to be conveyed to the use of your Majesty and your heirs and successors for ever in right of the Crown, to the intent that the said advowson, right of patronage, nomination, and presentation may from time to time and at all times be exercised by the said Hugh McCalmont, Baron Cairns, as such Lord High Chancellor as aforesaid, and by his successors, Lords High Chancellors of Great Britain, acting on behalf of your Majesty, in right of his and their office, such conveyance by the said deed being made in exchange for, and in consideration of, the transfer of the advowson of the said benefice of Burton-le-Coggles, and the church thereof, which is by this scheme recommended and proposed.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Hugh McCalmont, Baron Cairns (testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than the said duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage, nomination, and presentation of and to the said benefice of Burton-le-Coggles, in the said county and diocese of Lincoln, and the church thereof, shall be assigned and transferred from your Majesty and your heirs and successors to, and shall become and thenceforth be absolutely vested in, the said Charles Benjamin Tayler, Theodore Moilliet, George Burges, and Samuel Jones, and their heirs, nevertheless, to the uses upon the trusts, and to and for the ends, intents, and purposes, and with, under, and subject to the powers, provisoes, agreements, and declarations limited, created, declared, and contained by and in the said recited indenture of settlement of the twenty-fifth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, and the said Order of the fifth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, concerning (amongst other hereditaments) the said advowson and perpetual right of patronage of and to the rectory of Walton Lewes aforesaid, by such settlement settled, or to, upon, and for such of the same uses, trusts, ends, intents, purposes, powers, provisoes, agreements, and declarations, as are now subsisting and capable of taking effect, in exchange for the advowson or perpetual right of patronage, nomination, and presentation of and to the said rectory of Walton Lewes, which, as from the same day, is to be conveyed to the use of your Majesty, your heirs and successors, for ever as aforesaid, to the end and intent that the said last-mentioned advowson, right of patronage, nomination, and presentation, may, from time to time, and at all times, be exercised by the said Hugh McCalmont, Baron Cairns, as such Lord High Chancellor as aforesaid, and his successors, Lords High Chancellors as aforesaid.

"The SCHEDULE referred to in the foregoing Scheme."

Name and Quality of Benefice.	County.	Diocese.	Population (of the whole parish of Walton West).	Gross Income.	Residence.
1. Walton Lewes, a Rectory, being a Mediety of the Benefice of Walton West	Norfolk ...	Norwich ...	950	£ 828	No
2. Burton-le-Coggles, a Rectory ...	Lincoln ...	Lincoln ...	288	672	Yes, but subject to a mortgage to Queen Anne's Bounty"

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lincoln, and by the Registrar of the said diocese of Norwich.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 20th day of October, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the sixth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Yoxall, out of the parish of Abbots Bromley, out of the parish of Hamstall Ridware, and out of the new parish of All Saints, Newborough, all in the county of Stafford, and in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said parish of Yoxall, of the said parish of Abbots Bromley, and of the said parish of Hamstall Ridware, and of the said new parish of All Saints, Newborough, which are hereinafter mentioned and described (such portions not at present containing within their limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship) should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas by a certain deed, bearing date on or about the fourteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, and made, or expressed to be made, under the authority of the 'New Parishes Acts, 1843, 1844, and 1856,' or of some or one of them, and being under the hand and seal of Emily Charlotte Meynell Ingram, of Temple Newsam, in the county of York, and of Hoar Cross, in the said county of Stafford, Widow and Relict of Hugo Francis Meynell Ingram, late of Temple Newsam aforesaid, Esquire, and being also under the Common Seal of us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners (which deed is intended to be enrolled in your Majesty's High Court of Chancery at Westminster), the said Emily Charlotte Meynell Ingram did give, grant, and confirm unto us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and our successors, as an endowment for the said district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, one perpetual clear yearly rent-charge of one hundred and fifty pounds, to be for ever issuing and payable out of, and charged upon, a certain messuage, farm, closes, pieces, or parcels of land and hereditaments, situate in the parish of Laughton, in the county of Lincoln, and more particularly described in the first schedule which forms part of, and is referred to in, the said deed, and we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, did, in and by the same deed, declare that the said yearly rent-charge is accepted by us as an endowment for the said district, to the intent that, so soon as may be, the same rent-charge may become vested in the incumbent of the said district and his successors.

"And whereas the said rent-charge has been so given, granted, and confirmed, as aforesaid, upon the understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said district, and of the nomination of the incumbent thereto, should be assigned in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend George Augustus, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said parish of Yoxall, of the said parish of Abbots Bromley, and of the said parish of Hamstall Ridware, and of the said new parish of All Saints, Newborough, which said portions are described in the schedule hereunder written, and which are delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Hoar Cross.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the incumbent thereto, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to, and be absolutely vested in, the said Emily Charlotte Meynell Ingram, her heirs and assigns, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Hoar Cross, being:—

"All those several contiguous portions of the parish of Yoxall, of the parish of Abbots Bromley, of the parish of Hamstall Ridware, and of the new parish of All Saints, Newborough, all in the county of Stafford, and in the diocese of Lichfield; which said portions of such parishes and of such new parish are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the road leading from Newborough to Hoar Cross Hall is joined by Thorney-lane; and extending thence, northward, for a distance of ten chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said lane, to a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'H. C. D., 1874, No. 1,' and placed on the western side of the same lane, at the eastern end of the fence which divides the close numbered 462 upon the tithe commutation map of the township of Newborough, with Thorney Lanes, in the parish of Hanbury, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and upon the map hereunto annexed, from the close numbered 453 upon the same maps; and extending thence, westward, to such boundary stone, and along the said fence, and along the line of fences dividing the closes numbered respectively 461, 457, and 458 upon the said maps from the closes numbered respectively 453 as aforesaid, 454, and 455, upon the same maps, to the boundary, at the stream called or known as Purbrook, which divides the said new parish of All Saints, Newborough, from the parish of Abbots Bromley aforesaid; and extending thence, generally northward, along the said boundary, thereby following the course of the said stream, to the point a little to the north of Park-gate Bridge, and opposite to the north-eastern end of the fence which divides the close numbered 903 upon the tithe commutation map of the townships of Abbots Bromley and Bromley Hurst, in the parish of Abbots Bromley aforesaid, from the tithe-free district of Bromley Park, in the same parish; and extending thence, that is, from the last-described point, westward, and in a direct line, for a distance of seventy-two chains, or thereabouts, to the north-eastern corner of the enclosure of the premises called or known as Bromley Park Farm; and extending thence, first westward and then southward, along the northern and western sides of such enclosure, to the south-western corner thereof; and extending thence, first southward, to a point in the middle of the road or lane leading from the said Bromley Park

Farm towards Bromley Wood; and extending thence, for a distance of thirty-seven chains, or thereabouts, first south-westward and then southward, along the middle of the last-described road or lane, to a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'H. C. D., 1874, No. 2,' and placed on the western side of the said road or lane, at the western end of the fence which divides the said tithe-free district of Bromley Park from the closes numbered respectively 965, 966, and 972, upon the said last-mentioned maps; and extending thence, westward, to such boundary stone, and along the last-described fence, to a boundary stone inscribed 'H. C. D., 1874, No. 3,' and placed at the western end of the same fence, upon the eastern side of the road or footway which leads from Bromley Wood aforesaid towards Oakley's Plantation; and extending thence, that is, from the last-mentioned boundary stone, south-westward, and in a direct line, for a distance of thirty-five chains, or thereabouts, to a boundary stone inscribed 'H. C. D., 1874, No. 4,' and placed on the northern side of the road leading from Abbots Bromley to Hoar Cross, at a distance of eighteen chains to the west of the point where such road is joined by the road leading from Newborough towards Abbots Bromley; and extending thence, that is, from the last-mentioned boundary stone first southward to, and then eastward for a distance of twenty-two chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the road leading from Abbots Bromley to Hoar Cross, as aforesaid, to its junction with a certain lane leading towards Bromley Hurst; and extending thence, first southward, and then south-westward, along the middle of the last-described lane to the point where the same lane crosses, by a ford, the stream called or known as Ashbrook; and extending thence, generally southward, for a distance of one mile and fifty-two chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named stream to the boundary at the junction of the same stream with the stream forming the north-eastern branch of the River Blithe, which boundary divides the said parish of Abbots Bromley from the parish of Mavesyn Ridware, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and extending thence, south-eastward, along the last-mentioned boundary to its junction with the boundary which divides the said parish of Abbots Bromley from the parish of Hamstall Ridware aforesaid; and continuing thence, first south-eastward, and then generally north-eastward, along the last-described boundary to its junction with the boundary which divides the said parish of Hamstall Ridware from the parish of Yoxall aforesaid; and extending thence, first generally eastward, and then south-eastward, along the last-described boundary to the point at the north-western end of the wood called or known as New Coppice, where the same boundary bends sharply towards the north-east; and extending thence, from the said boundary still south-eastward, along the fence which forms the north-western side of a certain footpath leading from Cross Hayes past the south-western side of New Coppice aforesaid, and across Rowley-lane to Hadley End, to a point at the northern corner of the close numbered 745 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Yoxall, and upon the map hereunto annexed as aforesaid, upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Hamstall Ridware from the parish of Yoxall aforesaid; and extending thence, first south-eastward, along the last-described boundary to Hadley End aforesaid, and then north-eastward along the same boundary, thereby following the course of the road leading from Hadley End to Dunstall, to the point where the said boundary diverges towards the north-west along the road leading from Wood Lane Bridge to Hoar Cross; and continuing thence, from the same boundary still north-eastward, along the middle of the road leading from Hadley End to Dunstall, as aforesaid, to a point at the centre of Wood Mill Bridge, which carries the same road over the stream called or known as Swarbourne Brook, such point being upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Yoxall from a certain detached portion of the parish of Hamstall Ridware aforesaid; and extending thence, northward, along the last-described boundary, and along the boundary dividing the said parish of Yoxall from a certain detached portion of the parish of Scropton, in the diocese of Lichfield aforesaid, thereby following in part the course of the last-named stream, and in part the course of the mill stream supplying Wood Mill, to the point where the last-described boundary leaves the said mill stream, and continuing thence, still northward, along the same mill stream to the boundary which divides the said parish of Yoxall from the parish of Hamstall Ridware aforesaid, at or near to the point where the same mill stream diverges from Swarbourne Brook aforesaid; and continuing thence, still northward, along the last-mentioned boundary, thereby following the course of the said Swarbourne Brook, to the point at the ford where the same brook is crossed by the lane leading from Hoar Cross Gate towards Christ Church, in Needwood, and where the said last-mentioned boundary diverges towards the west; and extending thence, that is from the same boundary, first eastward, and then northward, along the middle of the said lane to a point at the junction of the same lane with the road leading from Hoar Cross to Christ Church, in Needwood, upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Yoxall from the new parish of All Saints, Newborough aforesaid; and extending thence, eastward, along the last-mentioned boundary, thereby following the course of the last-described road to the junction of the same boundary with the boundary dividing the said new parish of All Saints, Newborough, from the parish of Tutbury, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and extending thence, generally northward, for a distance of twelve chains or thereabouts, along the last-mentioned boundary to the point where it bends sharply towards the north-east, at which point it leaves the stream and fence forming the eastern boundary of the footpath leading from the village of Hoar Cross towards Moat Hall, and continuing thence, still northward, from the said last-mentioned boundary to and along the last-described fence, to a point on the southern side of Dolesfoot-lane; and extending thence, first northward to, and then south-westward along, the middle of the last-named lane, to its junction with Newborough End-lane; and extending thence, first north-westward, and then westward, along the middle of the last-named lane, to its junction with the road leading from Newborough to the village of Hoar Cross; and extending thence, southward, diagonally across the last-mentioned road to a boundary stone inscribed 'H. C. D., 1874, No. 5,' and placed on the south-western side of the same road, at the north-eastern end of the fence which divides the closes numbered 527 and 528 upon the said tithe commutation map of the township of Newborough with Thorney-lanes, and upon the map hereunto annexed as aforesaid, from the close numbered 526 upon the same maps; and extending thence, south-westward, along the last-described fence, to its junction with the line of the fences dividing the closes numbered respectively 529, 528 as aforesaid, and 530, upon the last-mentioned maps, from the closes numbered respectively 516 and 515 upon the same maps; and extending thence, first south-westward, and then north-westward, along the said line of fences, to a boundary stone inscribed 'H. C. D., 1874, No. 6,' and placed at the north-western end of the same line of fences, on the south-eastern side of the road leading from Newborough to Hoar Cross Hall as aforesaid; and extending thence, first north-westward to, and then south-westward, for a distance of eight chains or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-described road to the first described point where the same road is joined by Thorney-lane as aforesaid, at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore-mentioned Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the said parishes of Yoxall, Abbots Bromley, and Hamstall Ridware, and also to the patron and to the incumbent of the said new parish of All Saints, Newborough, out of which four cures it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken:

And whereas the patrons and the incumbents of the said parishes of Yoxall, Abbots Bromley, and Hamstall Ridware, do not object to the said scheme:

And whereas certain objections have been made to the said scheme by the patron and by the incumbent of the said new parish of All Saints, Newborough:

And whereas the said scheme has, notwithstanding such objections, been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lichfield.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 20th day of October, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the eleventh and twelfth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the sixth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words following; that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the eleventh and twelfth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of your Majesty, chapter eighty-two; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Augustine, situate within the limits of the consolidated chapelry or new parish of Christ Church, Pendlebury, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas, at certain extremities of the said consolidated chapelry or new parish of Christ Church, Pendlebury, and of the particular district or new parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Pendlebury, in the said county of Lancaster, and in the said diocese of Manchester, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective cures.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said consolidated chapelry or new parish of Christ Church, Pendlebury, and of the said particular district or new parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Pendlebury, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Augustine, situate within the limits of the said consolidated chapelry or new parish of Christ Church, Pendlebury, as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester, as such Bishop, and also as the patron in right of his see of the perpetual curacy or vicarage of the said consolidated chapelry or new parish of Christ Church, Pendlebury, and also as one of the joint patrons in the right of his said see of the perpetual curacy or vicarage of the said particular district or new parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Pendlebury, and with the consents of the Reverend James Pelham Pitcairn, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the parish of Eccles, in the said diocese of Manchester, of Oliver Heywood, of Claremont, Pendleton, near Manchester, in the said county of Lancaster, Esquire, of Alfred Barton, of Long Mead, Bishopstoke, in the county of Southampton, Esquire, and of Thomas Cooke, of Rusholme Hall, near Manchester aforesaid, Esquire, the remaining joint patrons of the said perpetual curacy or vicarage of the said particular district or new parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Pendlebury (in testimony whereof, they, the said consenting parties, have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said consolidated chapelry or new parish of Christ Church, Pendlebury, and of the said particular district or new parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Pendlebury, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Augustine, situate within the limits of the consolidated chapelry or new parish of Christ Church, Pendlebury as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Augustine, Pendlebury.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Augustine, Pendlebury, being :—

"All that portion of the consolidated chapelry or new parish of Christ Church, Pendlebury, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, which is bounded on the south-west by the new parish of Saint Peter, Swinton, on the south-east by the portion of the particular district or new parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Pendlebury, hereinafter mentioned and described, on the north-east by the township of Clifton, in the parish of Eccles, all in the county and diocese aforesaid, and on the remaining side, that is to say, on the north-west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said township of Clifton from the consolidated chapelry or new parish of Christ Church, Pendlebury aforesaid, at a point in the middle of New-street, where it crosses Slack Brook; and extending thence, south-westward, along the middle of the said street and across the Manchester and Bolton Turnpike-road, and along the middle of Union-street to its south-western end, and continuing thence, still south-westward, and in a direct line, to the boundary which divides the said consolidated chapelry or new parish of Christ Church, Pendlebury, from the new parish of Saint Peter, Swinton aforesaid; and also all that contiguous portion of the said particular district or new parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Pendlebury, hereinafter referred to, which said portion is bounded on the south-west by the said new parish of Saint Peter, Swinton, on the north-west partly by the above-described portion of the said consolidated chapelry or new parish of Christ Church, Pendlebury, and partly by the township of Clifton before referred to, on the north-east by the last-named township, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, on the east, on the south-east, and on the south, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said township of Clifton from the particular district or new parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Pendlebury aforesaid, at a point in the middle of Lumm's-lane; and extending thence, generally, southward, along the middle of the said lane to its junction with Agecroft-lane; and extending thence, south-westward, along the middle of the last-named lane to its junction (at or near to the house called or known as Springfield), with the Manchester and Bolton Turnpike-road aforesaid, and with the footpath leading through Fildes Fold towards Temple Lodge; and extending thence, first south-westward, across the said turnpike-road, and along the middle of the said footpath, and then westward along the middle of the same footpath, thereby passing through Fildes Fold aforesaid, to the boundary (near Fildes Fold), which divides the said particular district or new parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Pendlebury, from the new parish of Saint Peter, Swinton aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty; by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 20th day of October, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the sixth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the new parish of Attercliffe, and out of the new parish of Darnall, both in the county of York, and in the diocese of York.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said new parish of Attercliffe, and of the said new parish of Darnall, which are hereinafter mentioned and described (such portions not at present containing within their limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship), should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas by a certain deed or indenture, bearing date on or about the thirtieth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, and made, or expressed to be made, under the provisions of the New Parishes Acts, 1843, 1844, and 1856, or some or one of them, between Thomas Steade, of Sheffield, in the said county of York, Ironfounder, of the first part, Henry Wilson, of Westbrook, near Sheffield, in the said county of York, Esquire, of the second part, George Pringle, of Number 10, Whitehall-place, in the city of Westminster, Esquire, of the third part, and us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the fourth part (which deed or indenture is intended to be enrolled in your Majesty's High Court of Chancery at Westminster), the said Thomas Steade did, with the consent and by the direction of the said Henry Wilson, and in consideration of the sum of three thousand six hundred and fifty-four pounds sterling to the said Thomas Steade, paid by the said Henry Wilson, grant unto the said George Pringle, and his heirs, certain pieces or parcels of land situate in Montgomery-road, Crescent-road, and Upper Chipping House-road, in the parish of Sheffield, in the said county of York, which same pieces or parcels of land are more particularly described in the said deed or indenture, together with the messuages or tenements and buildings erected and built upon the said pieces or parcels of land, subject, nevertheless, to the several inindentures of lease, the particulars of which are set forth in the first schedule appended to such deed or indenture, but with the benefit of the several reserved rents, amounting in gross to the sum of one hundred and sixty-two pounds eight shillings and four pence per annum, payable under or by virtue of the said leases, to have and to hold the said several pieces or parcels of land, with the messuages or tenements and buildings thereon erected or built as aforesaid, unto the said George Pringle and his heirs, to the use of the said Henry Wilson and his assigns, until a minister shall have been appointed and licensed to the said district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and when and so soon as such minister shall have been appointed and licensed, then to the use of the minister of the said district, and his successors, ministers thereof, or, as the case may be, incumbents of the new parish (when the same district shall, under the provisions of the herein named Acts, have become a new parish) for the time being for ever.

"And whereas the said deed or indenture was made and entered into upon the understanding and condition that (such arrangement appearing to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said district or new parish, and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereto should be assigned in the manner herein-after-mentioned.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William, Archbishop of York (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said new parish of Attercliffe, and of the said new parish of Darnall, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, and are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Bartholomew Carbrook.'

And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district, and so soon as the same district shall have become a new parish as aforesaid, then of such new parish, and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and be vested in and shall and may, from time to time, be exercised by the said Henry Wilson, his heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Bartholomew, Carbrook, being :—

"All those two contiguous portions of the new parish of Attercliffe and of the new parish of Darnall, both in the county of York, and in the diocese of York, which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the stream, called or known as Carr Brook, strikes the south-eastern side of the Sheffield and Tinsley Trust-road, at which point the boundary dividing the said new parish of Attercliffe from the parish or parochial chapelry of Tinsley, in the county and diocese aforesaid, meets the boundary dividing the last-named parish or parochial chapelry from the new parish of Darnall aforesaid; and extending thence, alternately south-eastward and southward, for a distance of about half a mile along the last-described boundary (thereby following the course of Carr Brook aforesaid) to a point in the middle of the Sheffield Canal; and extending thence south-westward, for a distance of thirty chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said canal, to the boundary at the centre of Pot House Bridge, which divides the said new parish of Darnall from the new parish of Attercliffe aforesaid; and extending thence, first north-westward, for a distance of seventeen chains, or thereabouts, along the last-described boundary (thereby following the course of Pot House-lane), and then north-eastward for a distance of nine chains, or thereabouts, along the same boundary, thereby following the course of the Sheffield and Tinsley Trust-road aforesaid) to a point where the said Trust-road is joined by Amberley-street; and extending thence, from the said last-described boundary, north-westward for a distance of eleven chains, or thereabouts, to and along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Bold-street; and continuing thence, still in the same direction that is north-westward, and in a straight line for a distance of three chains, or thereabouts (thereby crossing the last-named street) to the boundary in the middle of the River Don which divides the said new parish of Attercliffe from the new parish of Brightside, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and extending thence, for a distance of fifty-three chains, or thereabouts, first north-eastward and then north-westward along the last-described boundary (thereby following the course of the River Don aforesaid), and then generally south-eastward for a distance of thirty-five chains, or thereabouts, along the same boundary (thereby following in part the south-western side of Mill-lane) to the point at the junction of the last-named lane with Bright-street where the said last-described boundary is joined by the boundary which divides the said new parish of Attercliffe from the parish or parochial chapelry of Tinsley aforesaid; and extending thence, first south-eastward, for a distance of six chains, or thereabouts, along the last-described boundary (thereby continuing along the south-western side of Mill-lane aforesaid), and then south-westward, for a distance of fifteen chains, or thereabouts, along the same boundary (thereby following the course of Carr Brook aforesaid along the south-eastern side of the Sheffield and Tinsley Trust-road aforesaid) to the first-described point where the said last-described boundary is joined by the boundary which divides the said parish or parochial chapelry of Tinsley from the new parish of Darnall aforesaid, and at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the herein-before firstly-mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the two cures out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such patrons and incumbents have respectively signified their assent to the said scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of York.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 20th day of October, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme or representation, bearing date the sixth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words following, that is to say;

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting under the provisions of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of the Trinity, Margate, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury.

"Whereas by the authority of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the eleventh day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, and published in the London Gazette upon the twenty-sixth day of April in the same year, a part of the parish of Saint John the Baptist, Thanet, otherwise called or known as Margate, in the county and diocese aforesaid, was assigned as a district chapelry to the consecrated church called Trinity Church, situate within the limits of the said parish of Saint John the Baptist, Thanet, otherwise called or known as Margate, and the same district chapelry was called 'The Trinity District Chapelry, Margate.'

"And whereas, by the authority of the foregoing Order of your Majesty in Council, in conjunction with a later Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the fifteenth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, and published in the London Gazette upon the eighteenth day of the same month, the performance of all the offices of the Church was authorized in the said church, called Trinity Church, situate within the limits of the parish of Saint John the Baptist, Thanet, otherwise called or known as Margate as aforesaid.

"And whereas, the said district chapelry of the Trinity, Margate, has under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, become a new parish of the character contemplated by that Act, and by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and by the said above-mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas it has been represented to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that the boundaries of the said new parish of the Trinity, Margate, should be altered as hereinafter mentioned.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Archibald Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly represent, recommend, and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation, the boundaries of the said new parish of the Trinity, Margate, shall be altered so as to dis sever therefrom all that part thereof which is described in the schedule hereunder written, and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto appended, and is thereon coloured pink, and that from and after the day of the same date, and without any other assurance in law, the said part of the said new parish of the Trinity, Margate, so to be dis severed therefrom as aforesaid, shall be re-annexed to and shall again become and be a form part of the said parish of Saint John the Baptist, Thanet, otherwise called or known as Margate as aforesaid.

"And we further represent, recommend, and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing, recommending, or proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore-mentioned Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference.

"The territory proposed to be dis severed from the new parish of the Trinity, Margate, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury, and to be re-annexed to the parish of Saint John the Baptist, Thanet, otherwise called or known as Margate, in the same county and diocese, being:—

"All that part of the said new parish of the Trinity, Margate, containing the farmhouses and buildings commonly called or known as Northdown, East Northdown, and West Northdown, which said part is bounded on the east by the parish of Saint Peter the Apostle, in Thanet, in the county and diocese aforesaid, on the north by the sea, on the west by the district chapelry of Saint Paul, Cliftonville, sometime part of the said new parish of the Trinity, Margate, and on the south-west by the parish of Saint John the Baptist, Thanet, otherwise called or known as Margate aforesaid, to which last-named parish the said territory herein described is to be re-annexed as aforesaid."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme or representation have been transmitted to the patron and to the incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Saint John the Baptist, Thanet, otherwise called or known as Margate, and also to the patrons and to the incumbent of the vicarage of the said new parish of the Trinity, Margate.

And whereas the patron and the incumbent of the said vicarage of the parish of Saint John the Baptist, Thanet, otherwise called or known as Margate, have respectively signified their assent to the said scheme or representation.

And whereas the patrons and incumbent of the said vicarage of the new parish of the Trinity, Margate, have made certain objections to the said scheme or representation.

And whereas the said scheme or representation has notwithstanding such objections, been approved by Her Majesty in Council, now therefore, Her Majesty by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme or representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-four, and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Canterbury.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 20th day of October, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the sixth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church called Christ Church, situate within the limits of the parish of Erith, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church called Christ Church, situate within the limits of the said parish of Erith.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Archibald Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Erith, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church called Christ Church, situate within the limits of such parish as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Christ Church, Erith.'

"And with the like consent of the said Archibald Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, should be solemnized or performed at the said church called Christ Church, situate within the limits of the said parish of Erith, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that so long as the Reverend Robert Long, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Erith shall continue to be such vicar or incumbent, all the fees which may be received in respect of such publication, solemnization, or performance at the said church called Christ Church, situate within the limits of the said parish of Erith, as aforesaid, shall be paid over by the minister thereof to the said Robert Long; and provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference:—

"The District Chapelry of Christ Church, Erith, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Erith, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the north by the county boundary in the middle of the River Thames, on the east and on the south by the parish of Crayford, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, on the north-west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the last-named parish from the parish of Erith aforesaid, at the point near Fossett Lodge, on Northumberland Heath, where Colyer's-lane joins Bexley-road; and extending thence, first north-eastward, and then eastward, along the middle of the last-named road to its junction on the eastern side of the North Kent Line of the South-Eastern Railway with Pier-road; and continuing thence, eastward, along the middle of the last-named road, and along the middle of Upper Randall-street, and along the middle of Lower Randall-street, to the junction of the last-named street with the street or road which leads, in continuation of Avenue-road, to the Erith Pier; and extending thence, north-eastward, along the middle of the last-described street or road, and along the middle of the said pier, to its north-eastern extremity; and continuing thence, in the same direction, and in a straight line, to the county boundary in the middle of the River Thames aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Canterbury.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 20th day of October, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the sixth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of your Majesty, chapter eighty-two, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Margaret, situate at Belmont-road, in the parish of Walton-on-the-Hill, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Chester.

"Whereas, at certain extremities of the said parish of Walton-on-the-Hill, of the parish of West Derby, in the said county of Lancaster, and in the said diocese of Chester, and of the new parish of Saint John, Fairfield, also in the said county of Lancaster, and in the said diocese of Chester, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parishes and new parish respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Walton-on-the-Hill, of the said parish of West Derby, and of the said new parish of Saint John, Fairfield, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Margaret, situate at Belmont-road as aforesaid.

"And whereas the major part in number of the patrons of the respective cures, out of which such consolidated chapelry is proposed to be formed as aforesaid, by virtue of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts concur as to the formation of such consolidated chapelry.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend William, Bishop of the said diocese of Chester, as such Bishop, and with the concurrence of John Gerard Leigh, of Luton Hoo, in the county of Bedford, Esquire, the patron of the rectory of the said parish of Walton-on-the-Hill, and also with the concurrence of the Reverend John Stewart, rector or incumbent of the rectory of the said parish of West Derby, the patron of the same rectory (in testimony whereof they, the said consenting and concurring parties, have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Walton-on-the-Hill, of the said parish of West Derby, and of the said new parish of Saint John, Fairfield, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Margaret, situate at Belmont-road as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Margaret, Belmont-road, Walton-on-the-Hill.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Margaret, Belmont-road, Walton-on-the-Hill, being:—

"All those several contiguous portions of the parish of Walton-on-the-Hill, of the parish of West Derby, and of the new parish of Saint John, Fairfield, all in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Chester, wherein the several incumbents of such parishes and of such new parish now respectively possess the exclusive cure of souls, which said portions are comprised within, and are bounded by, an imaginary line commencing at the point where Belmont-road joins Whitefield-road, and where the boundary dividing the said parish of Walton-on-the-Hill from the new parish of Saint Chrysostom, Everton, in the county and diocese aforesaid, is joined by the boundary dividing the last-named new parish from a certain detached portion of the parish of West Derby aforesaid; and extending thence, first south-westward for a distance of six hundred and four yards, or thereabouts, along the last-mentioned boundary, thereby following the course of Whitefield-road aforesaid, and then south-eastward for a distance of one hundred and eighty-seven yards, or thereabouts, along the same boundary, thereby following the course of Boundary-lane, to the point opposite to the north-eastern end of Severs-street, where the said last-mentioned boundary is joined by the boundary which divides the said detached portion of the parish of West Derby from the new parish of Emmanuel, Everton, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and continuing thence, first south-eastward, and then southward, for a distance of two hundred and seventy-two yards, or thereabouts, along the last-described boundary, thereby following, in one part, the course of Boundary-lane aforesaid, and in another part, the course of Heber-street, to the point at the junction of the last-named street with the West Derby-road, where the said last-described boundary is joined by the boundary which divides the said detached portion of the parish of West Derby from the new parish of Saint John, Fairfield aforesaid; and extending thence, north-eastward, for a distance of two hundred and fifty-seven yards, or thereabouts, along the last-described boundary, thereby following the course of the West Derby-road aforesaid, to a point opposite to the north-western end of the wall or fence forming the south-western boundary of Shiel Park; and extending thence, from the last-mentioned boundary, south-eastward, to and along the said wall or fence to its south-eastern end, on the north-western side of Boaler-street; and continuing thence, still south-eastward, and in a direct line, to a point in the middle of the last-named street; and extending thence, eastward, for a distance of five hundred and seventy-seven yards, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named street, thereby crossing Shiel-road to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint John, Fairfield, from the parish of West Derby aforesaid; and extending thence, north-westward, for a distance of ninety-two yards, or thereabouts, along the last-described boundary to its junction in Newsham Park with the boundary which divides the last-named parish from the parish of Walton-on-the-Hill aforesaid; and extending thence, eastward, for a distance of thirty-three yards, or thereabouts, along the last-mentioned boundary to its junction with the boundary which divides the last-named parish from the district chapelry of Saint John the Baptist, West Derby, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and extending thence, for a distance of one thousand and sixty-one yards, or thereabouts, first northward and then north-westward, along the last-mentioned boundary, thereby crossing the said Newsham Park and West Derby-road aforesaid, and following in part the course of Lower Breck-lane to the point at or near to Lower Breck House where the last-named lane is joined by the road called or known as Richmond Park; and extending thence, from the said last-mentioned boundary, south-westward, for a distance of two hundred and twenty-five yards, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named road to the angle where the same road turns off in a north-westerly direction towards Holy Trinity Church, Walton Breck, and continuing thence, that is from the said angle, still south-westward, and in a direct line for a distance of two hundred and fifty yards, or thereabouts, thereby crossing the grounds attached to the house called or known as Richmond Hill, to a point upon the boundary at the junction of Belmont-road aforesaid with Avon-street, which boundary divides the said parish of Walton-on-the-Hill from the new parish of Saint Chrysostom, Everton, as aforesaid; and extending thence, south-eastward, for a distance of one hundred and thirty-seven yards, or thereabouts, along the boundary last referred to, thereby following the course of Belmont-road aforesaid to the first-described point where the last-named road joins Whitefield-road as aforesaid, and where the said last-mentioned boundary is joined by the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Chrysostom, Everton, from a certain detached portion of the parish of West Derby as aforesaid, at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chester.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 20th day of October, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the sixth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes, partly out of the new parish of Thornes, and partly out of the particular district of the Holy Trinity, Wakefield, both sometime part of the original parish of Wakefield, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said new parish of Thornes, and of the said particular district of the Holy Trinity, Wakefield, which are hereinafter mentioned and described (such portions not at present containing within their limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship), should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas a sum of two thousand four hundred pounds Six Pounds per Centum Debenture Stock of the Metropolitan District Railway Company, has been provided by Frances Rebecca Robinson, of Frogmore, Torquay, in the county of Devon, Widow, and the said stock has been transferred into our name in the books of the same Company, to be held in trust by us, as and for a permanent endowment for the incumbent for the time being of the said district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and upon the understanding that the amount of the annual interest and dividends to accrue due on account of the said sum of stock shall be receivable by the said incumbent for the time being, when he shall have been duly licensed, and upon the further understanding that we should pay, out of the common fund created by the firstly herein-named Act, to the said incumbent for the time being of the said district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, when such incumbent shall have been duly licensed as before mentioned, the annual sum of fifty pounds, and upon the further understanding and condition that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said district, and of the nomination of the incumbent thereof, should be assigned in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas we have agreed and undertaken to make such grant of fifty pounds per annum as aforesaid, by an instrument to be executed by us under our common seal, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Robert, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said new parish of Thornes, and of the said particular district of the Holy Trinity, Wakefield, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district, for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Christ Church, Wakefield.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the incumbent thereof, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and become absolutely vested in, and shall and may be exercised by, the said Frances Rebecca Robinson, her heirs and assigns, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or to any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Christ Church, Wakefield; being:—

"All those contiguous portions of the new parish of Thornes, and of the particular district of the Holy Trinity, Wakefield, both sometime part of the original parish of Wakefield, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon, which said portions are bounded on the east by the new parish of Saint Mary, Wakefield, in the said county and diocese, and upon all other sides, that is to say, on the north-west and on the south-west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Mary, Wakefield, from the particular district of the Holy Trinity, Wakefield aforesaid, at the point where the street or road called or known as Kirkgate is joined by Ings-road; and extending thence, westward, along the middle of the last-named-road, to the centre of the bridge which carries the main line of the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway over the same road; and extending thence, south-westward, for a distance of twenty-two and a-half chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said main line of railway (thereby crossing the boundary which divides the said particular district of the Holy Trinity, Wakefield, from the new parish of Thornes aforesaid), to the centre of the bridge which carries the line of the West Riding and Grimsby Railway over the first-named line of railway; and extending thence, south-eastward, for a distance of thirty-nine chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said line of the West Riding and Grimsby Railway, to the boundary at the centre of the bridge which carries the last-named line of railway over the River Calder, which boundary divides the said new parish of Thornes from the new parish of Saint Mary, Wakefield aforesaid."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly-mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the cures out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such patrons and incumbents have respectively signified their assent to the said scheme:

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Ripon.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 20th day of October, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the sixth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Warrington, and out of the district parish of Saint Paul, Warrington, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Chester.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said parish of Warrington, and of the said district parish of Saint Paul, Warrington, which are hereinafter mentioned and described (such portions not at present containing within their limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship), should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas by a certain deed, bearing date on or about the sixteenth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, made under the authority of the 'New Parishes Acts, 1843, 1844, and 1856,' or some or one of them, and being under the hand and seal of William Beamont, of Orford Hall, in the said county of Lancaster, Esquire, and being also under the common seal of us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners (which deed is intended to be enrolled in your Majesty's High Court of Chancery at Westminster), the said William Beamont did grant and confirm unto, and to the use of the minister or incumbent (so soon as a minister or incumbent shall have been licensed or appointed thereto), of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and his successors, ministers or incumbents thereof for the time being, certain tithe commutation rent-charges or annual sums, amounting together to the sum of one hundred and ninety-eight pounds eight shillings and seven pence halfpenny, and arising or payable out of certain lands situate in the parish of Llangollen, in the county of Denbigh, the particulars of which tithe commutation rent-charges or annual sums, and of the lands in the said parish of Llangollen, out of which the same respectively arise or are payable, are specified in the schedule annexed to the said deed.

"And whereas the said tithe commutation rent-charges or annual sums have been so granted and confirmed as aforesaid, upon the understanding that we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, should make and pay out of the common fund created by the firstly herein-mentioned Act, to the minister or incumbent for the time being of the said intended district, when he shall have been duly appointed and licensed, according to the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act, a grant of fifty pounds per annum, and upon the further understanding and condition that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient), the whole right of patronage of the said district, and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereto, should be assigned in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas we have agreed and undertaken to make such grant of fifty pounds per annum as aforesaid, by an instrument to be executed by us under our common seal, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend William, Bishop of the said diocese of Chester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said parish of Warrington, and of the said district parish of Saint Paul, Warrington, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, and are delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Peter, Warrington.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereto, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to, and be absolutely vested in the then rector or incumbent for the time being of the rectory of the said parish of Warrington, and his successors, rectors or incumbents of the same rectory, and the then vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the said district parish of Saint Paul, Warrington, and his successors, vicars or incumbents of the said vicarage, such right of patronage and nomination to be exercised by the said rectors or incumbents of the rectory of the said parish of Warrington, and by the said vicars or incumbents of the vicarage of the said district parish of Saint Paul, Warrington, alternately for ever, the first turn of nomination being assigned to and vested in the rector for the time being of the said parish of Warrington.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Peter, Warrington, being:—

"All those two contiguous portions of the parish of Warrington, and of the district parish of Saint Paul, Warrington, both in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Chester, which said portions are comprised within, and are bounded by, an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Warrington from the consolidated chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Warrington, in the county and diocese aforesaid, at the point where Butter Market-street, Bridge-street, Sankey-street, and Horse Market-street, all meet; and extending thence, northward, for a distance of ten chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named street (thereby following in part the said boundary, and in part the boundary dividing the said parish of Warrington from the district parish of Saint Paul, Warrington aforesaid), to the junction of the same street with Bewsey-street; and extending thence, from the last-mentioned boundary, north-westward, for a distance of five chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named street, to its junction with Foundry-street; and extending thence, northward, for a distance of three chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named street, to its junction with Dallam-lane; and extending thence, north-westward, for a distance of nine chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named lane, to a point at the junction of the same lane with Tanner's-lane, upon the boundary which divides the said district parish of Saint Paul, Warrington, from the new parish of Saint Ann, Warrington, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and extending thence, in a direction generally north-eastward, along the last-mentioned boundary (thereby following the course of Tanner's-lane aforesaid, of Winwick-street, and of the street or road called or known as Pinner's-brow), to the point at the junction of the last-named street or road with Lythgoe's-lane where the said last-mentioned boundary is joined by the boundary dividing the said district parish of Saint Paul, Warrington, from the parish of Warrington aforesaid; and extending thence, south-eastward, along the middle of the last-named lane (thereby following in part the last-mentioned boundary), to the junction of the same lane with Battersby-lane and with Brick-street; and extending thence, southward, along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with the street called or known as School-brow with Fennel-street and with Cock Hedge-lane; and extending thence, first south-westward, then north-westward, and then again south-westward, along the middle of the last-named lane to its junction with Orford-street; and extending thence, south-eastward, along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Butter Market-street aforesaid; and extending thence, in a direction generally south-westward, along the middle of the last-named street to the first-described point upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Warrington from the consolidated chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Warrington aforesaid, where Butter Market-street, Bridge-street, Sankey-street, and Horse Market-street all meet as aforesaid, at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly mentioned Act been transmitted to the patron and to the incumbents of the two cures out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such patron and incumbents have respectively signified their assent to the said scheme:

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chester.

Whitehall, October 2, 1874.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto Thomas Algernon Smith-Dorrien, of Tresco Abbey, in the Isles of Scilly, and of Ashlyns Hall, in the parish of Great Berkhamstead, in the county of Hertford, Esquire, sometime a Lieutenant in Her Majesty's 10th (Prince of Wales's Own Royal) Regiment of Hussars, [eldest son of Robert Algernon Smith-Dorrien (formerly Robert Algernon Smith), of Haresfoot, in the said county of Hertford, Esquire, Her Royal licence and authority that he may, in compliance with a direction contained in the last will and testament of his paternal uncle, Augustus John Smith, late of Tresco Abbey, and of Ashlyns Hall aforesaid, Esquire, sometime representative in Parliament for the borough of Truro, deceased, the elder brother of the said Robert Algernon Smith-Dorrien, take and henceforth use the surname of Smith in addition to and after those of Smith-Dorrien, and be called and known by the name of Thomas Algernon Smith-Dorrien-Smith, and that such surnames may in like manner be taken and used by his issue:

And to command that the said Royal concession and declaration be recorded in Her Majesty's College of Arms, otherwise to be void and of none effect.

Whitehall, October 15, 1874.

The Queen, taking into Her Royal consideration that, upon the decease of Fox, late Earl of Dalhousie, in the peerage of that part of the United Kingdom called Scotland, and Baron Panmure, in that of the United Kingdom, K.T., G.C.B., without issue, which happened on or about the 6th day of July last, the title of Baron Panmure became extinct, but that the Earldom of Dalhousie devolved upon George, now Earl of Dalhousie, C.B., Vice-Admiral on the Retired List of Her Majesty's Fleet, as eldest surviving son and heir of John Ramsay, commonly called the Honourable John Ramsay, Lieutenant-General in the Army, deceased, fourth son of George, Earl of Dalhousie, and that, according to the ordinary rules of honour, the brothers and sister of the said George, now Earl of Dalhousie, cannot enjoy that place and precedence which would have been due to them in case their father, the said John Ramsay, had survived his nephew, the said Fox, Earl of Dalhousie, and had thereby succeeded to the title and dignity of Earl of Dalhousie. Her Majesty has been pleased to ordain and declare that Colonel Henry Ramsay, C.B., Bengal Staff Corps, Commissioner at Kumaon, North West Provinces Bengal, Lieutenant-Colonel Robert Anderson Ramsay, late Bengal Army, and Annie Finlay Anderson, wife of Colonel David Ewart, late of the Bengal Artillery, the only surviving brothers and sister of the said George, now Earl of Dalhousie, shall henceforth have, hold, and enjoy the same title, place, pre-eminence, and precedence as if their late father, the said John Ramsay, had survived his nephew, the said Fox, late Earl of Dalhousie, and had thereby succeeded to the title and dignity of Earl of Dalhousie.

And to command that the Royal order and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

NOTICE OF INTENDED DISTRIBUTION OF NAVAL SALVAGE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy and Comptroller of Navy Pay, Admiralty, October 15, 1874.

NOTICE is hereby given to the Officers, Seamen, and Marines, and to all persons interested therein, that the distribution of the amount awarded for salvage services rendered to the British barque "Foo-chow-foo," on the 1st and 2nd August, 1873, by Her Majesty's ship "Hornet," will commence on Tuesday, the 27th instant, in the Prize Branch of the Department of the "Accountant-General of the Navy and Comptroller of Navy Pay, Admiralty, New-street, Spring-gardens, S.W."

Agents and other persons holding powers of attorney, prize orders, assignments, or other instruments, by virtue of which they may be legally entitled to claim the share of any salvor serving in the above-named ship, are requested to present the same at this office.

Any Officer, Seaman, Marine, or other person, who may desire to receive his share from the Collector of Customs or of Inland Revenue within the United Kingdom, is required to intimate the same by letter to be addressed "On Prize Business, to the Accountant-General of the Navy and Comptroller of Navy Pay, Admiralty, London, S.W." (enclosing his certificate of service, or an attested copy thereof, excepting in the case of Commissioned Officers),—in which letter his own place of residence is to be precisely stated, as well as the place of the nearest Collector of Customs, or of Inland Revenue, from whom it would be convenient to receive such share of salvage money.

The following are the shares due to an individual in the several classes:—
