Notice of Dividend Meeting.

A Meeting of the Creditors of the Bankrupt hereinafter named will be held, pursuant to the 174th section of the said Act, at the time and place hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:—

At the County Court of Gloucestershire, holden at Bristol, before the Registrar:

William Hawkins, late of the Bank Tavern, John-street, in the city of Bristol, Licensed Victualler, now of Picton-street, in the said city of Bristol, out of business, adjudicated bankrupt on the 30th day of April, 1868. A Dividend Meeting will be held on the 16th day of November instant, at twelve o'clock noon precisely.

At the said Meeting the Assignee will, in pursuance of the 174th section of the said Act, submit statements of the Bankrupt's estate recovered and outstanding, and of all receipts and of all payments made or to be made thereout; and the creditors at the said meeting will, in pursuance of the said section, declare whether any and what allowance shall be paid to the said bankrupt. Proofs of Debts will be received, and creditors who have not proved, or do not then prove, will be excluded to the benefit of the Dividend. And all claims not proved will be disallowed.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the County Court of Lancashire, holden at Manchester. In the Matter of James William Burns, lately trading in copartnership with Michael Shea, at Molyneux-street, Stockport-road, Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, as Coach Builders, under the firm of Burns and Shea, previously thereto of 79, Church-street, Bradford, near Manchester aforesaid, Builder's Foreman, but now of No. 2, Harrison-street, Pollard-street, Ancoats, Manchester aforesaid, out of business, a Bankrupt.

UPON reading a report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 27th day of October, 1874, reporting that, as appears by the bankrupt's statement of affairs, and as he, the Trustee, verily believes, there is no property, estate, or effects whatsoever of the bankrupt to be collected or got in, and no money or effects had been received by him or for his use since the date of his appointment as Trustee, and that therefore it was needless and useless protracting the bankruptcy, the Court being satisfied that there is no property, estate, or effects of the bankrupt to be got in, and that no money or effects have been received by the Trustee since his appointment, and that therefore it is needless and useless protracting the bankruptcy, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said James William Burns has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 30th day of October, 1874.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.
