Official Notice.Proposal to Change a Ship's Name.

I MUNGO CAMPBELL GIBSON, of Leith, hereby give notice, that in consequence of my steamers being named after the works of Sir Walter Scott, and preferring a Scotch to a foreign name, it is my intention to apply to the Board of Trade, under Section 6 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1871, in respect of my ship "Maddaloni," of London, official number 70,630, of gross tonnage 2,817·37 tons, of register tonnage 2,223·12 tons, heretofore owned by Charles Thomas Glanville, of London, for permission to change her name to "Guy Mannering," to be registered under the said new name at the Port of Leith, as owned by Mungo Campbell Gibson.

Any objections to the proposed change of name must be sent to the Assistant-Secretary, Marine Department, Board of Trade, within fifteen days from the appearance of this advertisement.

Dated at Leith, this 3rd day of November, 1874.

M. C. Gibson.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Conservators of the River Thames propose to make the following Bye-laws for the Regulation of the Navigation of the River Thames:—

Vessels under sail below London Bridge to exhibit side lights.

1. All vessels under sail east of London Bridge shall exhibit, between sunset and sunrise, two lights, namely, a green light on the starboard side, so fixed and fitted with an inboard screen as to throw the light from direct ahead to two points abaft the beam on the starboard side; and a red light on the port side, so fixed and fitted with an inboard screen as to throw a light from direct ahead to two points abaft the beam on the port side, such lights to be visible on a dark night with a clear atmosphere at a distance of at least one mile.

Barges not in tow below Charlton Pier to have a white light ready, and to exhibit it on the approach of any vessel.

2. Every person in charge of a dumb-barge, when under way and not in tow, shall, between sunset and sunrise, when below or to the eastward of a line drawn from the upper part of Silver-town, in the county of Essex, to Charlton Pier, in the county of Kent, have a white light always ready, and exhibit the same on the approach of any vessel.

The sternmost barge of a line of barges when towed to exhibit a stern light.

3. The person in charge of the sternmost or last of a line of barges, when being towed, shall exhibit, between sunset and sunrise, a white light from the stern of his barge.

Vessels at anchor to exhibit a riding light.

Vessels when marking wrecks, &c., to exhibit horizontal lights.

5. All vessels when employed to mark the positions of wrecks or other obstructions, shall exhibit two bright lights placed horizontally, not less than six feet apart.

At boat races, &c., vessels not to obstruct, but to observe directions of Officers of the Conservators.

6. On the occasion of any boat race, regatta, public procession, or ship's launch in the River Thames below Staines, or on any other occasion when large crowds assemble thereon, no vessel shall pass on the river so as to obstruct, impede, or interfere with the boat race, regatta, procession, or launch, or to endanger the safety of persons assembling on the river, or to prevent the maintenance of order thereon, and the master of every vessel shall on all such occasions observe the directions of the Harbour Master, or other officer of the Conservators of the Thames engaged in superintending the execution of this Bye-law.

Vessels not to moor at the piers, &c., of the Conservators without permission.

7. No vessel shall be moored to or remain at any pier or vessel of or to or at any premises belonging to the Conservators of the River Thames, without the permission of their officer in charge of such pier, vessel, or premises, being first had and obtained, and shall move away when ordered so to do.

Interpretation of the word "burden" when applied to the tonnage of a barge in the 16th Bye-law, 1872.

8. In construing the 16th Bye-law of the Rules and Bye-laws for the regulation of the Navigation of the River Thames, allowed by Her Majesty in Council at a Court held on the 5th day of February, 1872, the word "burden" shall mean the burden or burthen of a barge as registered at Waterman's Hall.

Penalty.

9. Any master or person in charge of any vessel or barge failing in any respect to comply with or committing any breach of, or in any way infringing any of these Bye-laws shall be liable to a penalty of and shall forfeit a sum not exceeding £5 for each offence, which penalties shall be recovered, enforced, and applied according to the provisions of the "Thames Conservancy Acts, 1857 and 1864."
