PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the first session of Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to abridge the holding of benefices in plurality, and to make better provision for the residence of the clergy," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "That whenever it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, with respect to his own diocese, and whenever it shall be represented to him by the bishop of any diocese, or by the bishops of any two dioceses, that two or more benefices, or that one or more benefice or benefices, and one or more spiritual sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages, in his or their diocese or dioceses, being either in the same parish or contiguous to each other, and of which the aggregate population shall not exceed one thousand five hundred persons, and the aggregate yearly value shall not exceed five hundred pounds, may, with advantage to the interests of religion, be united into one benefice, the said Archbishop of the Province shall inquire into the circumstances of the case; and if on such enquiry it shall appear to him that such union may be usefully made, and will not be of inconvenient extent, and that the patron or patrons of the said benefices, sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages respectively, is or are consenting thereto, such consent being signified in writing under the hands of such patron or patrons, the said Archbishop shall, six weeks before certifying such inquiry and consent to Her Majesty, as herein-after directed, cause, with respect to his own diocese, a statement in writing of the facts, and in other cases a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation, to be affixed on or near the principal outer door of the church, or in some public and conspicuous place in each of such benefices, sinecure rectories or vicarages, with notice to any person or persons interested, that he, she, or they, may, within such six weeks, show cause in writing under his, her, or their hand or hands, to the said Archbishop, against such union; and if no sufficient cause be shown within such time, the said Archbishop shall certify the inquiry and consent aforesaid to Her Majesty in Council, and thereupon it "shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make and issue an Order or Orders for uniting such benefices, sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages, into one benefice, with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes only; and it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to give directions for regulating the course and succession in which the patrons, if there be more than one patron, shall present or nominate to such united benefice, from time to time, as the same shall become vacant."

And whereas the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act, hath duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a certificate, in writing, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words following; that is to say:—

"To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"We, the undersigned, Archibald Campbell, Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury, Primate of all England and Metropolitan, do hereby certify to your Majesty in Council, that the Right Reverend Charles John, Lord Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol (as Bishop of the diocese within which are situate the perpetual curacy or vicarage of Ampney Saint Peter, in the county of Gloucester, and the perpetual curacy or vicarage of Ampney Saint Mary, in the same county), having represented unto us that the said benefices, being contiguous to each other, and of which the aggregate population does not exceed two hundred and eighty-four persons, and the aggregate yearly value of which does not exceed one hundred and forty pounds, might with advantage to the interests of religion be united into one benefice, we inquired into the circumstances of the case; that on such inquiry it appeared to us that such union might be usefully made, and would not be of inconvenient extent, and that the said Lord Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, being the patron or person entitled in right of his see to nominate or present to the said perpetual curacy or vicarage of Ampney Saint Peter (if the same were now vacant), and Sir Michael Edward Hicks Beach, Baronet, being the patron or person entitled to present to the said perpetual curacy or vicarage of Ampney Saint Mary (if the same were now vacant), have signified their consent, in writing, to the union of the said benefices into one benefice, with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes; that six weeks and upwards before certifying such inquiry and consent to your Majesty in Council, we caused a copy, in writing, of the aforesaid representation of the said Lord Bishop to be affixed on the principal outer door of the church of each of the said benefices, with notice to any person or persons interested that he, she, or they might, within such six weeks, show cause, in writing, under his, her, or their hand or hands to us, the said Archbishop, against such union, and no such cause has been shown. The representation of the said Lord Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, our inquiry into the circumstances of the case, the statement of circumstances in reply thereto, the consents, in writing, of the said patrons, and the copies of the representation and notice before mentioned, are hereunto annexed; and we do hereby certify the inquiry and consent aforesaid to your Majesty in Council, to the intent that your Majesty in Council may, in case your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do, make and issue an Order for uniting the said benefices into one benefice with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes only, and for declaring that the course and succession in which the respective patrons for the time being shall collate, present, or nominate to the said benefices, after the same shall be united into one benefice, from time to time as the same shall become vacant, shall be as follows, namely, in case the benefice of Ampney Saint Peter shall become vacant before that of Ampney Saint Mary (in which event, according to the provisions of the Act of Parliament, of the 1st and 2nd Victoria, chapter 106, in this behalf the said Charles John, Lord Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, would be bound to present or nominate to the vacant benefice the present Incumbent of Ampney Saint Mary), the first turn or right of presentation or nomination to the said united benefice which shall then next happen shall belong to the said Sir Michael Edward Hicks Beach, his heirs and assigns; but in case the benefice of Ampney Saint Mary shall become vacant before that of Ampney Saint Peter (in which event, according to the provisions of the Act of Parliament of the 1st and 2nd Victoria, chapter 106, in this behalf, the said Sir Michael Edward Hicks Beach would be bound to present or nominate to the vacant benefice the present Incumbent of Ampney Saint Peter), the first turn or right of presentation or nomination to the said united benefice shall belong to the said Charles John, Lord Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, and, subject as aforesaid, the right of presentation to the said united benefice shall be alternately in the said Sir Michael Edward Hicks Beach, his heirs and assigns, and of the said Charles John, Lord Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, and his successors for ever. As witness our hand this twenty-eighth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

"A. C. Cantuar."

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of the said Council, is pleased to order, and doth hereby order, that the said perpetual curacy or vicarage of Ampney Saint Peter, and the perpetual curacy of Ampney Saint Mary, both in the county of Gloucester, and diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, shall be united into one benefice, with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes only. And Her Majesty is pleased to direct that the course and succession in which the respective patrons for the time being of the perpetual curacies shall present or nominate to the said united benefices from time to time, as the same shall become vacant, shall be as in the said certificate of the said Archbishop is set out.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of November, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the first session of the Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to abridge the holding of benefices in plurality, and to make better provision for the residence of the clergy," after reciting that "Whereas, in some instances, tithings, hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong, with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may in some instances with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted "That when, with respect to his own diocese, it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said archbishop, that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place or district within the diocese of such archbishop, or the diocese of such bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church, and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes; and the said archbishop or bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such bishop to be transmitted to the said archbishop for his consideration), describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent-charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested; and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modification thereof as the said archbishop may approve, and the said archbishop shall, on full consideration and inquiry, be satisfied with any such scheme, or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid, by his report to Her Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make an Order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect."

And whereas by another Act of Parliament, passed in the second and third years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels

“ augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne; and for other purposes,” it is, amongst other things, further enacted, “ That when, by any Order of Her Majesty in Council as aforesaid, a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes is constituted; the same shall, on registration thereof, and with the consent in writing of the incumbent or incumbents of the benefice or benefices to be thereby affected, become a perpetual curacy and benefice, and the minister thereof, duly nominated and licensed thereto, and his successors, shall be a body politic and corporate, with perpetual succession, and may receive and take to himself and his successors all such lands, tenements, tithes, rent-charges and hereditaments as shall be granted unto him or them, and such perpetual curate shall thenceforth have, within the limits of the district parish formed under the Church Building Acts, for the church of such perpetual curacy, sole and exclusive cure of souls, and shall not in anywise be subject to the control or interference of the incumbent or incumbents of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such Order, if he or they shall have consented to such Order as aforesaid; but if such incumbent or incumbents shall not have so consented thereto, this last-mentioned provision shall not come into operation until the next avoidance of the benefice by the incumbent objecting thereto, or by the surviving incumbent objecting, if more than one shall object thereto, and in such case the last-mentioned provision shall forthwith after such avoidance come into operation, and shall be binding on all persons whatsoever.”

And whereas the Right Reverend George, Lord Bishop of Sarum, hath made a representation to His Grace the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, and hath drawn up a scheme, in writing, bearing date the sixteenth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, and hath forwarded the said scheme to his Grace, such representation and scheme with the consent, in writing, of the said Bishop of Sarum, and the Reverend Robert Sparke Hutchings, Clerk, the Incumbent of the vicarage and parish church of Alderbury, with the chapels of Farley and Pitton annexed, in the county of Wilts, and diocese of Sarum, being in the words and figures following:—

“ To the Most Reverend Archibald Campbell,
Lord Archbishop of Canterbury.

“ We, the Right Reverend George, Lord Bishop of Sarum, do hereby represent to your Grace that to the vicarage and parish or mother church of Alderbury, in the county of Wilts, and our diocese of Sarum, belong two ancient parochial chapelries, contiguous to each other, but separated from the parish of Alderbury aforesaid, by the liberty of Clarendon Park, and known by the respective names of Farley and Pitton, the boundaries whereof respectively are well known and defined.

“ That according to the last census the population of the parish of Alderbury was six hundred and fifty-eight, of the chapelry of Farley two hundred and eighty-two, and of the chapelry of Pitton three hundred and fifty-seven.

“ That the parish church of Alderbury affords accommodation for four hundred and fifty persons, the parochial chapelry of Farley for one hundred and eighty, and the parochial chapel of Pitton for two hundred.

“ That each of the said chapels is distant four miles, or thereabouts, from the mother church aforesaid, and about one mile and a half from each other; that each chapelry is treated as a separate and distinct parish for all civil purposes; and baptisms, churchings, marriages, and burials, have heretofore been, and now are performed, in each of the said chapels, and in the burial grounds thereto respectively belonging.

“ That the inhabitants of the said parish of Alderbury (exclusive of the said chapelries), and the inhabitants of the said chapelries respectively, have from time immemorial resorted to their respective churches and chapels and repaired the same exclusively, and have elected from themselves exclusively church and chapel-wardens, as if the same chapelries were respectively distinct and separate parishes, and it does not appear that any of the inhabitants or landowners of the said parish of Alderbury possess any legal right, by faculty or otherwise, to the exclusive use of any pews or sittings in either of the said chapels, or that any of the inhabitants or landowners of either of the said chapelries possess any such right to the exclusive use of any pews or sittings in the aforesaid parish church, or in the chapel not belonging to their chapelry.

“ That the gross annual value of the said vicarage of Alderbury (exclusive of the emoluments arising from the said chapelries) is two hundred and fifty-five pounds, or thereabouts, chiefly derived from eighty pounds rent-charge in commutation of vicarial tithes, one hundred and forty-six pounds grants by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, twenty-seven pounds sixteen shillings and eight pence, interest on monies in the hands of the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and from surplice fees; and in addition thereto there is a good house of residence with suitable offices and grounds.

“ That the gross annual income derivable from the said chapelry of Farley is one hundred and fifty-three pounds, or thereabouts, chiefly arising from one hundred and three pounds rent-charge in commutation of tithes arising within the said chapelry, thirty-two acres two roods and nine perches of glebe land, worth forty-four pounds a-year, or thereabouts, a rent-charge of five pounds charged upon a farm belonging to the Right Honourable the Earl of Radnor, and from surplice fees; there is not, however, a glebe house of residence within the chapelry.

“ That the gross annual income derivable from the said chapelry of Pitton is six pounds, or thereabouts, arising from a rent-charge of five pounds charged upon a farm belonging to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and leased to the Warden and Scholars of Saint Mary College, of Winton, near Winchester, and from surplice fees; there is not, however, a glebe house of residence or any vicarial glebe land within the chapelry.

“ That the said vicarage of Alderbury, with the chapelries of Farley and Pitton, is discharged from the payment of first fruits and tenths.

“ That by an indenture, dated the second day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, made between the Reverend Newton Smart, Clerk, then Vicar of Alderbury with Farley and Pitton aforesaid, of the one part, and the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, of the other part, in consideration of the sum of one thousand pounds, paid by the said Governors, as therein mentioned, all the glebe lands, tithes, rents, rent-charges, moduses, stipends, fees, and all other emoluments of and belonging to the said benefice were (in pursuance of the Acts of Parliament therein mentioned) granted and demised unto the said Governors, their successors and assigns, for the term of thirty-five years; nevertheless, by way of mortgage, and for securing unto the said Governors, their successors and assigns, the repayment of the said sum, with interest at the rate and times and in manner therein mentioned, and which sum was borrowed for the purpose of rebuilding the parsonage house and other necessary offices upon the glebe at Alderbury aforesaid, and in respect of which there is now remaining due to the said Governors three hundred pounds, with interest on the said last-mentioned sum from the fourth day of June last.

"That if the said chapelries of Farley and Pitton are separated from the mother church of Alderbury aforesaid, and united and constituted a separate benefice, and the emoluments arising within such chapelries are assigned and appropriated to the incumbent of such new benefice, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England are prepared, in respect of the local claim on certain property to them belonging, situate and arising within the same chapelries, and formerly parcel of the estates of the Treasurer of our Cathedral Church of Sarum, to raise the net income of the incumbent of such new benefice to the sum of three hundred pounds per annum, also to increase the net annual income of the said vicarage of Alderbury to the like sum of three hundred pounds; to make a grant of one thousand five hundred pounds towards the cost of providing a suitable house of residence for the incumbent of such new benefice; and to discharge the balance due to the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne in respect of the mortgage hereinbefore referred to.

"That the patronage or right of presentation or collation of or to the said vicarage of Alderbury, with the chapelries of Farley and Pitton, is vested in us and our successors, Bishops of Sarum, and the Reverend Robert Sparke Hutchings, Clerk, is the present incumbent thereof.

"That it appears to us that under the provisions of the Acts of Parliament 1 and 2 Victoria, chapter 106, and 2 and 3 Victoria, chapter 49, the said chapelries may be advantageously separated from the said vicarage and parish or mother church of Alderbury and be constituted a separate benefice.

"That pursuant to the direction contained in the 26th section of the said first-mentioned Act we have prepared the following scheme which, together with our consent thereto, as the patron of the said benefice, and the consent of the incumbent of the said benefice to the same, we do submit to your Grace, to the intent that you may, if on full consideration and inquiry your Grace shall be satisfied with such scheme, certify the same, and such consent by your report to Her Majesty in Council.

The Scheme above referred to.

"That the said parochial chapelries of Farley and Pitton shall be separated from the said vicarage and parish or mother church of Alderbury, and together be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes, and a perpetual curacy and benefice by the name or style of 'The Perpetual Curacy of Farley with Pitton,' of which the chapel at Farley shall be the mother church.

"That the proposed new benefice shall be subject to the same ecclesiastical jurisdiction as the said vicarage of Alderbury; and the incumbent thereof shall have exclusive cure of souls within the limits of the same.

"That the glebe lands situate in the chapelry of Farley aforesaid, containing thirty-two acres two roods and nine perches, or thereabouts, and the rent-charge of five pounds payable by the said Earl of Radnor in respect of the chapel of Farley aforesaid, together with all rent-charges or other payments in lieu or commutation of vicarial tithes accruing within or in respect of the said chapelry of Farley, and also within or in respect of the said chapelry of Pitton (if any), and the rent-charge of five pounds, payable by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, or their lessees aforesaid, in respect of the said chapel of Pitton, and also the herbage of the chapelyards and the surplice fees for baptisms, churchings, marriages, and burials, or other ecclesiastical offices solemnized or performed within the same chapelries, and all dues, offerings, and other emoluments arising within or in respect of the said chapelries, or either of them, and usually payable to the incumbent of a benefice, shall belong and be attached to the said proposed separate benefice of Farley with Pitton for ever, and be held, received, and enjoyed by the incumbent thereof for the time being accordingly.

"That the patronage or right of nomination or appointment of or to the said proposed new benefice of Farley with Pitton shall be vested in us and our successors, Bishops of Sarum, for ever.

"That the inhabitants of the said chapelries respectively shall continue and be liable to the repairs and maintenance of the chapel of their own chapelry, but shall not be liable to contribute to the repairs and maintenance of the parish church of Alderbury aforesaid, nor of any church or chapel now or hereafter built elsewhere than within the limits of such chapelry, neither shall the inhabitants of the same chapelries respectively be entitled, as such inhabitants, to any pews or sittings within the said parish church of Alderbury; nor shall the inhabitants of Alderbury, as such inhabitants, be entitled to any accommodation within either of the said chapels of Farley or Pitton.

"Given under our hand this sixteenth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

"George Sarum.

"The Consent above referred to.

"We, the Right Reverend George, Lord Bishop of Sarum, the patron in right of our see of the vicarage and parish church of Alderbury, with the chapels of Farley and Pitton annexed, in the county of Wilts, and diocese of Sarum, and the Reverend Robert Sparke Hutchings, Clerk, the incumbent of the same benefice, do hereby respectively signify our consent to the scheme above proposed for separating the chapelries of Farley and Pitton aforesaid from the said vicarage and parish or mother church of Alderbury, and constituting the said chapelries a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes, and a perpetual curacy and benefice.

"Witness our hands this sixteenth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

"George Sarum.

"R. S. Hutchings."

And whereas His Grace the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury hath, pursuant to the provisions of the said Acts, certified the said scheme and such consents as aforesaid, by his report to Her Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words and figures following (that is to say):—

“To the QUEEN’s Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

“We, the undersigned, Archibald Campbell, Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury, do hereby report to your Majesty in Council, that the Right Reverend George, Lord Bishop of Salisbury, has represented unto us (amongst other things) that to the vicarage and parish or mother church of Alderbury, in the county of Wilts, and diocese of Sarum, belong two ancient parochial chapelries, contiguous to each other but separated from the parish of Alderbury aforesaid by the liberty of Clarendon Park, and known by the respective names of Farley and Pitton, the boundaries whereof respectively are well known and defined. That the chapels of the said chapelries are each distant from the mother church four miles, or thereabouts, and about one mile and a half from each other. That it appears to the said Lord Bishop that under the provisions of the Acts of Parliament of the first and second years of your Majesty’s reign, chapter 106, and of the second and third years of your Majesty’s said reign, chapter 49, the said chapelries of Farley and Pitton may be advantageously separated from the said vicarage and parish or mother church of Alderbury, and together be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes, and a perpetual curacy and benefice of which the chapel at Farley shall be the parish church. That the said Lord Bishop has drawn up a scheme, in writing, describing the mode in which it appears to him the proposed alterations may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alterations in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews may be made with justice to all parties interested, which scheme, together with the consents thereto of the patron of the said vicarage and parish church of Alderbury, with the chapels of Farley and Pitton annexed, and of the incumbent of the said parish church has been transmitted by the said Lord Bishop to us for our consideration. The representation and scheme of the said Lord Bishop and the consents before referred to are hereunto annexed. And we, the said Archbishop, being on full consideration and enquiry satisfied with the said scheme, do hereby, pursuant to the said Act of the first and second years of your Majesty’s reign, certify the same and such consents as aforesaid, to the intent that your Majesty in Council may, in case your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do, make and issue an Order for carrying the said scheme into effect. As witness our hand this twenty-eighth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

“A. C. Cantuar.”

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of Her Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said scheme of the said Lord Bishop of Sarum be carried into effect.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of November, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN’s Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the thirtieth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words following; that is to say:

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of your Majesty, chapter eighty-two, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Thomas, situate within the limits of the new parish of Saint Matthew, Nottingham, in the town and county of the town of Nottingham, and in the diocese of Lincoln.

“Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Saint Matthew, Nottingham, of the parish of Saint Nicholas, Nottingham, in the said town and county of the town of Nottingham, and in the said diocese of Lincoln, and of the parish of Saint Peter, Nottingham, also in the said town and county of the town of Nottingham, and in the said diocese of Lincoln, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such new parish and parishes respectively.

“And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said new parish of Saint Matthew, Nottingham, of the said parish of Saint Nicholas, Nottingham, and of the said parish of Saint Peter, Nottingham, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Thomas, situate within the limits of the said new parish of Saint Matthew, Nottingham.

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Christopher, Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln, with the consent of the Honourable and Right Reverend John Thomas, Bishop of the Diocese of Norwich, of the Reverend Edmund Hollond, of Benhall Lodge, Saxmundham, in the county of Suffolk, Clerk in Holy Orders, of the Reverend Charles Kemble, of the city of Bath, Clerk in Holy Orders, of William Long, of Hurt’s Hall, Saxmundham aforesaid, Esquire, and of Charles James Bevan, of Bryanston-square, in the county of Middlesex, Esquire, the patrons of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Matthew, Nottingham, with the consent of the Reverend Henry Wright, of Heath House, Hampstead, in the said county of Middlesex, Clerk in Holy Orders, of Francis Butcher Gill, of the city of Bath aforesaid, Esquire, of Rowland Smith, of

Duffield, in the county of Derby, Esquire, of William Windley, of Nottingham aforesaid, Esquire, of the said Edmund Hollond, and of the said Charles Kemble, the patrons of the rectory of the said parish of Saint Nicholas, Nottingham, and with the consent of the Right Honourable Hugh MacCalmont, Baron Cairns, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the patron, on behalf of your Majesty in right of the Crown, of the rectory of the said parish of Saint Peter, Nottingham (in testimony whereof they, the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Saint Matthew, Nottingham, of the said parish of Saint Nicholas, Nottingham, and of the said parish of Saint Peter, Nottingham, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Thomas, situate within the limits of the said new parish of Saint Matthew, Nottingham, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Thomas, Nottingham.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of November, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the sixth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of your Majesty, chapter eighty-two; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Andrew, situate in Fulham Fields, in the new parish of Saint Mary, North End, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Saint Mary, North End, of the new parish of Saint John, Walham Green, in the said county of Middlesex, and in the said diocese of London, and of the parish of All Saints, Fulham, also in the said county of Middlesex, and in the said diocese of London, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such new parishes and parish respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said new parish of Saint Mary, North End, of the said new parish of Saint John, Walham Green, and of the said parish of All Saints, Fulham, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Andrew, situate in Fulham Fields as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of London, as such Bishop, and also as the patron in right of his see of the vicarage of the said parish of All Saints, Fulham, with the consent of the Reverend Sparks Beaumont Byers, Clerk in Holy Orders, vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Mary, North End, and of Charles Hopkin Byers, a Colonel in your Majesty's Army, the joint patrons of the lastly-mentioned vicarage, and with the consent of the Reverend Frederick Horatio Fisher, Clerk in Holy Orders, the vicar or incumbent of the said vicarage of the parish of All Saints, Fulham aforesaid, and as such vicar or incumbent the patron of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint John, Walham Green, (in testimony whereof they, the said consenting parties, have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Saint Mary, North End, of the said new parish of Saint John, Walham Green, and of the said parish of All Saints, Fulham, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Andrew, situate in Fulham Fields as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Andrew, Fulham Fields.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

the said West Brompton Railway Station, where the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Matthias, Earl's Court, from the new parish of Saint John, Walham Green aforesaid, meets the boundary dividing the last-named new parish from the new parish of Saint Luke, South Kensington; as aforesaid, at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of November, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the sixth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Spalding, and out of the parish of Pinchbeck, both in the county of Lincoln, and in the diocese of Lincoln.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said parish of Spalding, and of the said parish of Pinchbeck, which are hereinafter mentioned and described (such portions not at present containing within their limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship), should be constituted a separate district in the manner hereinafter recommended and set forth.

"And whereas Mary Ann Johnson, of Fairfax House, in the said parish of Spalding, Spinster, has, in addition to certain other benefactions, contributed and transferred into our name in the books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, the sum of three thousand four hundred pounds three pounds per centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, in aid of the endowment of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and when such district shall have become a new parish under the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly-mentioned Act, then of such new parish, and of the maintenance of the minister or incumbent thereof for the time being; and we have, in respect of such sum, agreed with the said Mary Ann Johnson, and have undertaken to provide and pay, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, to such minister or incumbent as aforesaid, when duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the herein secondly-mentioned Act, and to his successors, the yearly sum of one hundred and two pounds.

"And whereas the said sum of three thousand four hundred pounds three pounds per centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, has been so contributed and transferred as aforesaid, upon the understanding and condition that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said district, and of the said new parish when the same district shall have become a new parish as aforesaid, and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof, should be assigned in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas we have also determined to make and pay out of the common fund created by the firstly herein mentioned Act to the incumbent for the time being of the said district or new parish, when duly licensed as aforesaid, the yearly sum of fifty pounds, the payment whereof will be secured by an instrument to be executed by us under our common seal, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Christopher, Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said parish of Spalding, and of the said parish of Pinchbeck, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint John the Baptist, Spalding.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the said new parish, if and when such district shall have become a new parish as aforesaid, and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to, and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may be exercised by the said Mary Ann Johnson during her life, and that from the day of the date of her death the whole remaining right of patronage of the said district or new parish, and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof, shall, in like manner, be assigned to and become absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the said Christopher, Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln, and by his successors, bishops of the same diocese for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"All those several portions of the parish of Spalding, and of the parish of Pinchbeck, both in the county of Lincoln, and in the diocese of Lincoln, which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line, commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Pinchbeck from the parish of Spalding aforesaid, at or near to the point where the loop line of the Great Northern Railway crosses the Spalding and Boston-road; and extending thence, that is from the said parish boundary, first southward, to the middle of the said loop line of railway, and then south-westward, for a distance of nearly three-quarters of a mile along the middle of the same loop line of railway (thereby passing through the Spalding Railway Station), to the point where the same loop line of railway is joined by the line of the Spalding and March Railway; and extending thence, south-eastward, for a distance of rather more than half a mile, along the middle of the last-named line of railway to the centre of the bridge which carries the same line of railway over the River Welland; and extending thence, generally southward, for a distance of about four and a half miles, along the middle of the said river (thereby following in part the boundary which divides the said parish of Spalding from the parish or chapelry of Cowbit, in the county and diocese aforesaid), to the point near Four Mile Corner, where the last-described boundary is joined by the boundary dividing the said parish of Spalding from the particular district of Saint Nicholas, Deeping Fen, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and extending thence, first north-westward, and then south-westward, and then northward, along the last-described parish boundary (thereby passing for the most part along the south-western side of Four Mile Corner Cradge Bank-road, and crossing South Drove Drain), to the point where the same parish boundary again strikes the said drain, at or near to Spear Point, at which point the said last-described parish boundary is joined by the boundary dividing a certain detached portion of the said parish of Pinchbeck from the particular district of Saint Nicholas, Deeping Fen aforesaid; and extending thence, north-westward, for a distance of about two miles and a quarter, along the last-described parish boundary (thereby passing in part along the south-western side of Jordan's Cradge Bank-road), to the junction of the same parish boundary with the boundary which divides the said parish of Spalding from the particular district of Saint Nicholas, Deeping Fen aforesaid; and continuing thence, for a distance of about half a mile, first north-westward and then westward, along the last-described parish boundary to its junction on the south-eastern side of the North Drove Drain with the boundary which divides the said parish of Spalding from the parish of Pinchbeck aforesaid; and extending thence, first generally north-eastward, along the last-described parish boundary (thereby following in part the course of the last-named drain; and in part the course of Horseshoe-road), then north-westward along the same parish boundary (thereby following the course of South Drove Drain aforesaid); then eastward and northward along the same parish boundary (thereby following for the most part the course of Westlode Drain) to the point in the Bourn Turnpike-road, where the said last-described parish boundary meets the boundary which divides the said parish of Spalding from the new parish of West Pinchbeck, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and extending thence, northward, along the last-described boundary to its junction at or near to Vernati's Drain with the boundary dividing the said parish of Spalding from the parish of Pinchbeck aforesaid; and extending thence, alternately eastward and northward, along the last-mentioned parish boundary for a distance of nearly two miles to the first-described point where the said imaginary line commenced, at or near to the point where the loop line of the Great Northern Railway crosses the Spalding and Boston-road as aforesaid, save and except from the territory comprised within and bounded by the imaginary line above described, all those two isolated and detached portions of the parish or chapelry of Cowbit aforesaid, one of which said detached and isolated portions is situate between the River Welland, Cradge Bank-road, and Park's Drain, and the other between the South Drove Drain aforesaid and Jordan's Drain."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have been in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly-mentioned Act, transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the said parishes of Spalding and Pinchbeck, out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken; and whereas six persons out of the seven who are the patrons of the said parish of Spalding, and the incumbent of the same parish, and the patron and incumbent of the said parish of Pinchbeck, have respectively signified their assent to the said scheme; and whereas the seventh patron of the said parish of Spalding has offered certain objections to the said scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has, notwithstanding such objections, been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lincoln.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of November, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the sixth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of West Lavington (otherwise and hereinafter called Bishop's Lavington), out of the parish of East Lavington (otherwise and hereinafter called Market Lavington), and out of the parish of Urchfont, all which said parishes are situate in the county of Wilts, and in the diocese of Salisbury.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said parishes of Bishop's Lavington, Market Lavington, and Urchfont, which are hereinafter mentioned and described, and which do not as yet contain within their limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship, should be constituted a separate district in the manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas the Reverend George Bourdieu Rogers, Clerk in Holy Orders, late a resident in the hamlet or tithing of Easterton, in the said parish of Market Lavington, by his last will and testament, dated the twenty-seventh day of February, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, and by two codicils thereto, dated respectively the said twenty-seventh day of February, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, and the nineteenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, which will and codicils respectively are duly executed and attested, did devise and bequeath all his freehold, copyhold, chattel, real, and leasehold estates to certain trustees in his said will named and appointed, and to their heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, upon trust (as by the said two codicils to the same will appears) that after the happening of certain contingencies in the first of the said two codicils specified, which contingencies have now happened, and in case the hamlet or tithing of Easterton aforesaid, or any portion thereof, comprising his, the said testator's, dwelling-house, either with or without any other part or parts of the said parish of Market Lavington, or of any adjoining parish or parishes, should either in his lifetime, or within four years next after his decease, under or pursuant to the before-mentioned Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, or other legal authority, be formed into and duly constituted a new parish, chapelry, or separate district for spiritual purposes, then the trustees, for the time being, of that his will should, when and so soon after the expiration of one year next after his decease, as such new parish, chapelry, or district should have been duly constituted, at the expense of his residuary personal estate, duly and effectually convey and assure all his freehold, copyhold, chattel, real, and personal estate (thereinafter and hereinafter called his real estate) unto, and to the use of us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, or as we should direct, for all his estate and interest therein respectively, to the intent that his said dwelling-house might be used and effectually appropriated as the parsonage house or place of residence for the perpetual curate, or other minister of such new parish, chapelry, or district, and all other his said real estate might become and be effectually appropriated as the glebe of such new parish or district, or otherwise, for or towards the endowment or augmentation of the income of such perpetual curate or other minister, in such manner as we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, should think fit, and by the second of the said two codicils to his said will the said testator declared that in case his real estate should be applied as aforesaid for the endowment of such new parish, chapelry, or district as is hereinbefore mentioned, and should be less than the amount or value lawfully required by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, for the endowment of a new parish or chapelry to which a district is assigned, the trustees or trustee, for the time being, of his said will, should, out of his personal estate, raise and apply towards the endowment of such new parish, chapelry, or district, such sum of money, free of legacy duty, as might be lawfully required by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, to make up the endowment thereof, in such manner as we should think fit, to the amount required by law for the purpose aforesaid, provided that the total annual value of the endowment to be so provided out of his real and personal estate together should not exceed one hundred and fifty pounds per annum, reckoning the income of the money to be so applied out of personal estate to be the annual dividend it would produce if invested in three pounds per cent. Bank Annuities, and provided further, and the said testator made his said bequest out of his personal estate upon this express condition, that no part of the glebe, tithes, or tithe rent-charge, or other endowment or stipend or income of the respective vicars of Market Lavington aforesaid, and of West Lavington, or either of them, be appropriated or applied for or towards the endowment or augmentation of the income of such perpetual curate or other minister as aforesaid.

"And whereas no part of the hereinbefore recited provisions of the said will and two codicils was revoked by the said codicils, or either of them, or by any subsequent will or codicil of the said testator.

"And whereas no new parish, chapelry, or district was formed comprising the hamlet or tithing of Easterton aforesaid during the lifetime of the said testator, and none such has yet been formed.

"And whereas the said testator departed this life on or about the first day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, and his said will and codicils have since then been duly proved.

"And whereas a survey and valuation have been made by a competent valuer of the said testator's real estate, whereby it appears that (excluding the said testator's said dwelling-house and the outbuildings, garden, and other ground held and occupied therewith, all which comprise together three acres two roods and twenty-one perches, or thereabouts), the net annual value of the same real estate is seventy-nine pounds and eleven pence sterling.

"And whereas Philip Twells, of 54, Lombard-street, in the city of London, Banker, a Member of your Majesty's Commons House of Parliament, and the Reverend John Vaughan, of Richmond-grove, Lansdown-hill, in the city of Bath, Clerk in Holy Orders, being the present trustees of the said will of the said testator, are prepared and have undertaken to convey and assure to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, the whole of the real estate of the said testator, and to pay over to us, under the provision to that effect contained in the said second codicil to the said will of the said testator such sum as will, in our opinion, suffice when the same shall have been invested in the purchase of three pounds per centum Consolidated Annuities, to make up the difference in point of income between the said sum of seventy-nine pounds and eleven pence sterling, and the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds per annum, which said last-mentioned sum is the amount that may lawfully be required as the primary endowment for a district to be constituted under the Acts firstly and secondly hereinbefore mentioned.

"And whereas, in order to testify that they are so prepared, and have so undertaken as aforesaid, the said Philip Twells and John Vaughan have become parties to and have executed this scheme.

"And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have for our part undertaken to receive and to secure, in conformity with law, for the benefit of the cure hereinafter recommended to be constituted as aforesaid, the several items of endowment which, as hereinbefore mentioned, are to be conveyed and assured to us as aforesaid.

"And whereas, by the said first codicil to his said will, the said testator declared it to be his wish that the advowson or right of presentation of or to the incumbency of such new parish, chapelry, or district, as in the same will and codicil and hereinbefore is mentioned, should belong to and be vested in the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Christ in Oxford, and, for better effectuating such his desire, he gave and devised to the said Dean and Chapter all such right or claim in or to such advowson or right of presentation as might otherwise belong or attach to himself, or his representatives or estate by reason or in respect of the endowment which is, by his said will and codicils provided for such incumbency. Provided always, and the said testator expressly declared that it was not his intention to make such endowment in any manner contingent or conditional upon the vesting of such advowson or right of presentation in the said Dean and Chapter, but that the provisions thereinbefore and hereinbefore contained in respect of such endowment should take effect notwithstanding that such advowson or right of presentation might become vested either wholly or partially in any person or persons whomsoever other than the said Dean and Chapter.

"And whereas no such right or claim as last aforesaid belongs or attaches to the said testator, or his representatives or estate by reason or in respect of the endowment aforesaid.

"And whereas, Louisa Hay, of Clyffe Hall, in the said parish of Market Lavington, widow and relict of the Honourable Samuel Hay, deceased, has made to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, an offer and proposal to the effect that if and when such a separate district as is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter proposed to be constituted shall be constituted at Easterton aforesaid, and shall be endowed as is hereinbefore and hereinafter mentioned, she, the said Louisa Hay, will provide and pay over to us a sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds (being such a sum as will, in our opinion, suffice to produce a permanent income of fifty pounds per annum), as a further endowment for such district, and that she will also provide to our satisfaction, upon a site to be duly conveyed to us, a church which we, under the Acts hereinbefore mentioned, may approve as and for the church (when the same shall be consecrated) of the same district.

"And whereas the said offer and proposal made by the said Louisa Hay is made by her upon condition that the patronage of the district hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter proposed to be constituted, shall be assigned to her, the said Louisa Hay, and her heirs and assigns.

"And whereas the said Louisa Hay has paid over to our account at the Bank of England the said sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds, and has, to our satisfaction, undertaken to provide the said church as aforesaid.

"And whereas the said Dean and Chapter of the said Cathedral Church of Christ in Oxford are willing that the patronage of the district hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended to be constituted should be assigned to the said Louisa Hay, and her heirs and assigns as aforesaid, and in testimony of this their willingness they have become parties to and have executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas, under the circumstances aforesaid, we deem it expedient that the patronage of the district hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and of the church thereof, should be assigned to the said Louisa Hay, and her heirs and assigns.

"And whereas the said district hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended to be constituted includes within its limits the said dwelling-house of the said testator, which will, as aforesaid, be conveyed and assured to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, as the parsonage house or place of residence for the minister of the same district.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend George, Bishop of the said diocese of Salisbury (in testimony of which consent he has to this scheme set his hand and his episcopal seal), and with the consent of the said Philip Twells and John Vaughan (in testimony of which consent they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme), and with the approval of the Very Reverend Henry George Liddell, the Dean and the Chapter of the said Cathedral Church of Christ in Oxford (in testimony of which approval they, the said Dean and Chapter, have affixed their common or capitular seal to this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that all that portion of the said parish of Market Lavington, which is mentioned and described in the schedule to this scheme annexed (within which portion is included, inter alia, the hamlet or tithing of Easterton aforesaid, or some part thereof), and also all that portion of the said parish of Bishop's Lavington, and also all that portion of the said parish of Urchfont, which are mentioned and described in the said schedule to this scheme annexed, all which portions of the said three parishes are delineated and set forth upon the map or plan to this scheme also annexed, shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Easterton.'

"And with such consents, and so testified as aforesaid, we further recommend and propose that the patronage and right of nomination of and to the said district of Easterton, and the church thereof, and of and to the new parish of Easterton, when the said district shall have become a new parish by the approval and consecration of the church so to be provided as aforesaid, shall, without any assurance in the law other than the duly gazetted Order aforesaid, and as from the date of the publication of the same Order in the London Gazette, be assigned to and be vested in the said

Louisa Hay, of Clyffe Hall, in the said parish of Market Lavington, and her heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Easterton, being :—

"All that portion of the parish of West Lavington, otherwise called or known as Bishop's Lavington, in the county of Wilts, and in the diocese of Salisbury, which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the limits of the tithing of Fiddington.

"And also all that contiguous portion of the parish of East Lavington, otherwise called or known as Market Lavington, in the county and diocese aforesaid, which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the limits of the hamlet or tithing of Easterton.

"And also all that contiguous portion of the parish of Urchfont, in the said county and diocese, which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the limits of that part of the tithing of Eastcott, which is bounded on the north-east and on the north by the tithing of Urchfont, in the said parish of Urchfont, on the south-west by the hamlet or tithing of Easterton aforesaid, and on the remaining side, that is to say, on the south-east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said hamlet or tithing of Easterton from the tithing of Eastcott aforesaid, such boundary also dividing the said parish of East Lavington, otherwise called or known as Market Lavington, from the parish of Urchfont aforesaid), at a point in the middle of the back road or lane which leads from the southern end of the village of Easterton to Urchfont; and extending thence, generally north-eastward, for a distance of sixty-seven and a half chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said back road or lane to the boundary which divides the said tithing of Eastcott from the tithing of Urchfont aforesaid."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore firstly-mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the several parishes out of which it is intended that the district in such scheme recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and such patrons and incumbents have respectively signified their assent to the said scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Salisbury.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight; and of another Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, sections two, three, and twenty-four; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fifth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight; and of another Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, sections two, three, and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorising the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the Bishoprick of Saint David's, and now vested in us.

"Whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the seventh day of July last, and made under the provisions of 'The Bishop's Resignation Act, 1869,' the Bishoprick of Saint David's was declared to be vacant, and upon such vacancy all the lands, hereditaments, and emoluments then belonging to the said Bishoprick (except rights of patronage or presentation and the episcopal house of residence), became actually vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands and hereditaments aforesaid consist to a considerable extent of reversions expectant upon grants and leases for lives and years, and produce during the subsistence of such grants and leases only small annual revenues, and on that account, and in some instances on account of the character or situation of the property, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be assigned as an endowment for the said Bishoprick, or to be held or applied for the other purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by the said Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions, or for the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas it is expedient that such of the aforesaid lands and hereditaments formerly belonging to the See of Saint David's (either with or without other property vested in us, as the case may require), as in the judgment of our Estates Committee, and subject to the approbation of the bishop for the time being, may be deemed convenient to be held as an endowment for the said see, and as will secure a net annual income of four thousand and five hundred pounds, being the income named for the Bishop of Saint David's and his successors, by the Order made by your Majesty in Council, on the twenty-fifth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, which Order was duly published in the London Gazette on the nineteenth day of September following, should be assigned as the endowment of the said see, and that for that purpose, as well as with a view to the more advantageous appropriation of the remainder of the said lands and hereditaments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, and in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorised and empowered by instrument or instruments, in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the respective owners (if any), to be testified by their being made parties to such instruments heretofore belonging to the said Bishoprick of Saint David's, and so vested in us by the vacation of the said Bishoprick as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds thereof, from time to time as occasion may arise, in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or hereditaments, or of some estate or interest therein, convenient to be assigned as the endowment for the said see, or to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some Government or Parliamentary stock, or other public securities in England.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advise of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Saint David's.

In the London Bankruptcy Court.

In the Matter of James Spicer Kennard, of No. 230, Cable-street, St. George's East, in the county of Middlesex, Corn Merchant, lately carrying on business at No. 230, Cable-street aforesaid, in partnership with James Croucher Hill, under the firm of Hill and Kennard, a Bankrupt.

Before Mr. Registrar Pepys.

UPON reading a report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 9th day of November, 1874, reporting that so much of the joint property of the bankrupt, and his late partner, the said James Croucher Hill, as can, according to the joint opinion of the Trustee and the Committee of Inspection, be realized without needlessly protracting the bankruptcy, has been realized, and that two dividends, amounting together to one shilling and eleven pence in the pound, have been paid to the joint creditors, and that the statement of affairs of the separate estate of the said bankrupt, James Spicer Kennard, filed by him, does not disclose any property which could be realized for the benefit of his creditors, and that it has not been brought to the Trustee's knowledge that, at the date of adjudication, he was possessed of any property which could be so realized, or that he has since acquired any property, and that in the joint opinion of the Trustee and the Committee of Inspection, it is expedient that the bankruptcy be closed. Upon the application of the said Trustee, and upon reading the report of the Official Assignee, dated the 26th day of November, 1874, the Court being satisfied that so much of the property of the bankrupt as can, be realized without needlessly protracting the bankruptcy has been realized, doth order and declare that this bankruptcy hath closed, both as regards the joint estate of the said Hill and Kennard, and the separate estate of the said James Spicer Kennard.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 26th day of November, 1874.
