In the London Bankruptcy Court.

In the Matter of James Spicer Kennard, of No. 230, Cable-street, St. George's East, in the county of Middlesex, Corn Merchant, lately carrying on business at No. 230, Cable-street aforesaid, in partnership with James Croucher Hill, under the firm of Hill and Kennard, a Bankrupt.

Before Mr. Registrar Pepys.

UPON reading a report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 9th day of November, 1874, reporting that so much of the joint property of the bankrupt, and his late partner, the said James Croucher Hill, as can, according to the joint opinion of the Trustee and the Committee of Inspection, be realized without needlessly protracting the bankruptcy, has been realized, and that two dividends, amounting together to one shilling and eleven pence in the pound, have been paid to the joint creditors, and that the statement of affairs of the separate estate of the said bankrupt, James Spicer Kennard, filed by him, does not disclose any property which could be realized for the benefit of his creditors, and that it has not been brought to the Trustee's knowledge that, at the date of adjudication, he was possessed of any property which could be so realized, or that he has since acquired any property, and that in the joint opinion of the Trustee and the Committee of Inspection, it is expedient that the bankruptcy be closed. Upon the application of the said Trustee, and upon reading the report of the Official Assignee, dated the 26th day of November, 1874, the Court being satisfied that so much of the property of the bankrupt as can, be realized without needlessly protracting the bankruptcy has been realized, doth order and declare that this bankruptcy hath closed, both as regards the joint estate of the said Hill and Kennard, and the separate estate of the said James Spicer Kennard.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 26th day of November, 1874.
