1. An account of what is due to the plaintiff for principal and interest on his mortgage in the pleadings mentioned, and for his costs of this suit, such costs to be taxed by the Taxing Master.

2. An account of all sums of money laid out by the plaintiff in necessary repairs and lasting improvements on the hereditaments comprised in the said mortgage. And it is ordered that interest be computed on the sums which shall appear to have been so laid out in lasting improvements, at the same rate of interest as the said mortgage carries. And it is ordered that what shall appear to be due on the secondly-mentioned account, be added to what shall appear to be due to the plaintiff on the first-mentioned account. And it is ordered that the following further account be taken, namely:

3. An account of the rents and profits of the mortgaged hereditaments received by the plaintiff, or by any other person or persons by the order, or for the use of the plaintiff, or which, without the wilful default of the plaintiff might have been so received. And it is ordered that what shall appear to be due on the last-mentioned account, be deducted from what shall appear to be due to the plaintiff on the first and secondly-mentioned accounts. And it is ordered that upon the defendants, or any of them, paying to the plaintiff, what upon the balance of the said several accounts shall be certified to be due to him within six calendar months after the date of the Chief Clerk's certificate, at such time and place as shall be thereby appointed, the plaintiff do re-convey the hereditaments comprised in the said mortgage free and clear from all incumbrances done by him, or any person claiming by, from, or under him, or by those under whom he claims, and deliver up on oath all deeds and writings in his custody or power relating thereto to such defendants, or to whom they shall appoint, but in default of the said defendants, or any of them, paying the plaintiff what upon the balance of the said several accounts shall be so certified to be due to him as aforesaid, by the time aforesaid, the defendants do from thenceforth stand absolutely debarred and foreclosed of and from all right, title, interest, and equity of redemption of, in, and to the said mortgaged premises. But this Decree is as regards the defendants, Matthias Proctor, Harriet Proctor, Mary Proctor, and Mary Stainbank, subject to the provisions of the rules contained in the twenty-second of the Consolidated Orders, as to making absolute Decrees, founded on Bills taken pro confesso. And it is ordered that the plaintiff be at liberty to serve the said Decree and the summons to proceed under the same upon the defendants Matthias Proctor, Harriet Proctor, Mary Proctor, and Mary Stainbank, by advertising the same once in the London Gazette, twice in consecutive weeks in the Times newspaper published in London, and twice in consecutive weeks in the New York Herald published in New York, in the United States of America. And it is ordered that if the defendants Matthias Proctor, Harriet Proctor, Mary Proctor, and Mary Stainbank, desire permission to answer the plaintiff's Bill and set aside the Decree, application for that purpose is to be made to this Court within three calendar months after such advertisements shall have appeared in the said London Gazette, and within the like time after the last of the advertisements in each of the other newspapers. And this Court doth order that service of the warrants of taxation of the plaintiff's bill of costs upon the defendants Matthias Proctor, Harriet Proctor, Mary Proctor, and Mary Stainbank, be dispensed with. And it is ordered that the plaintiff be at liberty to advertise the Chief Clerk's certificate, to be made in pursuance of this Decree, when signed and approved, once in the London

TAKE notice, that if you, the above-named defendants, Matthias Proctor, Harriet Proctor, Mary Proctor, and Mary Stainbank, desire permission to answer the plaintiff's Bill, and to set aside the above Decree, application for that purpose must be made to this Court within three months after the last appearance of this notice, or otherwise you, the said defendants, will be absolutely excluded from making any such application.—Dated this 9th day of December, 1874.
