THIS day, the Right Honourable Charles John, Earl of Shrewsbury and Talbot, and Sir Henry Singer Keating, were, by Her Majesty's command, sworn of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took their places at the Board accordingly.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 4th day of February, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the General Treaty made between Her Majesty the Queen and the Sultan of Morocco, on the ninth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, it is agreed (among other things) to the effect following (Article XIV), that in all criminal cases, differences, disputes, or other causes of litigation arising between British subjects and the subjects or citizens of other foreign nations, no Moorish authority shall have a right to interfere unless a Moorish subject has received thereby injury to his person or property, in which case the Moorish authority, or one of his officers, shall have a right to be present at the tribunal of the Consul; such cases shall be decided solely in the tribunals of the Foreign Consuls, without the interference of the Moorish Government, according to the established usages which had theretofore been acted upon, or might thereafter be arranged between such Consuls:

And whereas it seems to Her Majesty the Queen in Council expedient to make provision for the effectual exercise of the jurisdiction in the said article mentioned:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty the Queen, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in this behalf by the Foreign Jurisdiction Acts, or otherwise, in Her Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

I. In either of the following cases (that is to say) where—

- (1.) A subject or citizen of or person enjoying the protection of a State in amity with Her Majesty the Queen other than Morocco (in this Order referred to as a foreigner) desires to institute or take before Her Majesty's Consul a suit or proceeding of a civil nature against a British subject, or he has before the passing of this Order instituted or taken such a suit or proceeding, and the same is then pending; or,
- (2.) A British subject desires to institute or take before Her Majesty's Consul a suit or proceeding of a civil nature against a foreigner, or he has before the passing of this Order instituted or taken such a suit or proceeding, and the same is then pending:

The Consul shall entertain the suit or proceeding, and shall hear and determine it.

Provided, that the Consul shall not proceed therein unless and until the foreigner obtains and files in the Court of the Consul, the consent, in writing, of the competent authority of the foreigner's own nation to his submitting, and does submit, to the jurisdiction of the Consul, and, if required by the Consul, gives security, to the satisfaction of the Consul, by deposit or otherwise, to pay fees, damages, costs, and expenses, and abide by and perform the decision of the Consul subject to the right of appeal.

II. Article X (relating to appeals) of the Order in Council regulating Consular Jurisdiction in Morocco, dated the twenty-seventh day of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, and all other provisions of that Order relating to civil suits and proceedings shall extend and apply to suits and proceedings within this Order, and this Order shall (as far as may be) be read as one with the Order of the twenty-seventh day of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven.

III. Nothing in this Order shall prejudicially affect the lawfulness or validity of any Order or thing made or done by any of Her Majesty's Consuls before the passing of this Order; and every such Order and thing shall be as lawful and valid, and may be enforced and acted on, in like manner in all respects, as if this Order had not been made.

And the Right Honourable the Earl of Derby, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein given.

Arthur Helps.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it was (amongst other things) enacted that Her Majesty might from time to time, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, fix the establishment to be maintained by each of the General Lighthouse Authorities on account of the services of lighthouses, buoys, and beacons, or the annual or other sums to be paid out of the Mercantile Marine Fund in respect of such establishments; and that no increase of any establishment or part of an establishment so fixed shall be made without the consent of the Board of Trade:

And whereas Her Majesty, by Orders in Council, dated respectively the twelfth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, the fourteenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, and the twenty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, was pleased to fix the establishments, as mentioned in each of those Orders in Council respectively, which might be maintained by the Commissioners of Irish Lights, the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses, and the Corporation of Trinity House of Deptford Strond (hereinafter called the Trinity House), respectively; and to fix that, in respect of such said establishments, the aggregate amount of the salaries which, under the provisions of the said Orders in Council, should for the time being be paid to the officers of the said establishments, should be paid out of the Mercantile Marine Fund:

And whereas by an Order in Council, dated the twentieth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, Her Majesty was pleased to revoke so much of the before-mentioned Order in Council of the fourteenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, as relates to the salary of the Secretary to the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses, and to fix that the personal salary of Mr. Alexander Cuningham, the then Secretary to the Commissioners, should, for such period as he might hold that office, be one thousand one hundred pounds per annum, to be paid out of the Mercantile Marine Fund:

And whereas Mr. Alexander Cuningham has ceased to hold the said office since the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, since which day there has been no existing provision for any salary to the said office:

And whereas it is expedient that the establishments by the said recited Orders fixed to be maintained as aforesaid by the Commissioners of Irish Lights, the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses, and the Trinity House respectively, on account of the services of lighthouses, buoys, and beacons, should be varied, and in part increased, in manner hereinafter appearing:

And whereas it has been made to appear that the increase to the several establishments mentioned herein has, in pursuance of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," been made with the consent of the Board of Trade:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the power vested in Her by "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to fix, and doth hereby fix, the establishments which may for the future be maintained by the Trinity House, the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses, and the Commissioners of Irish Lights respectively, as follows, that is to say:—

The establishment of the Trinity House shall, as from the twenty-fifth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, consist of the officers named in Schedule A to this Order, at the salaries of which the minimum annual increase and maximum are respectively mentioned in the same schedule; but the salaries of the officers who on the said twenty-fifth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, were on the establishment or in the service of the Trinity House, may, with the consent of the Board of Trade, be increased beyond the minimum, but shall not exceed the maximum, named in the same schedule.

The establishment of the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses shall, as from the first day of April, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, but subject to the proviso hereinafter mentioned, consist of the officers named in Schedule B to this Order, at the salaries of which the minimum annual increase and maximum are respectively mentioned in the same schedule; but the salaries of the officers who on the said first day of April one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, were on the establishment of the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses may, with the consent of the Board of Trade, be increased beyond the minimum, but shall not exceed the maximum, named in the same schedule: Provided that the minimum annual increment and maximum of the salary of the secretary, as mentioned in the said Schedule B to this Order, shall not come into operation until the appointment of the successor to the said Mr. Alexander Cuningham.

The establishment of the Commissioners of Irish Lights shall, as from the first day of April, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, consist of the officers named in Schedule C to this Order, at the salaries of which the minimum annual increase and maximum are respectively mentioned in the same schedule; but the salaries of the officers who on the said first day of April, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, were on the establishment of the Commissioners of Irish Lights, may, with the consent of the Board of Trade, be increased beyond the minimum, but shall not exceed the maximum, named in the same schedule; And the existing salary of the Cashier, though the office of Cashier is not included in Schedule C to this Order in Council, shall be continued to be paid to the present holder, Mr. Michael John O'Grady, during his tenure of the office.

And Her Majesty, by virtue and in further exercise of the power so vested in Her as aforesaid, and by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to fix, and doth hereby fix, that the entire amount of the salaries which, under the provisions of this present Order in Council, are for the time being payable to the officers of the establishments of the Trinity House, the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses, and the Commissioners of Irish Lights respectively, shall be paid out of the Mercantile Marine Fund.

And Her Majesty, by virtue and in further exercise of the power so vested in Her as aforesaid, said, and by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to fix, and doth hereby fix, that no person shall be appointed to the junior or assistant grade of the establishments of any of the said General Lighthouse Authorities whose age at the time of such appointment exceeds twenty-five years.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the first session of the Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to abridge the holding of benefices in plurality, and to make better provision for the residence of the clergy," after reciting that "Whereas, in some instances, tithings, hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong, with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may in some instances with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted "That when, with respect to his own diocese, it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said archbishop that any such titling, hamlet, chapelry, place or district within the diocese of such archbishop, or the diocese of such bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church, and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining titling, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes; and the said archbishop or bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such bishop to be transmitted to the said archbishop for his consideration), describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent-charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested; and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modification thereof as the said archbishop may approve, and the said archbishop shall, on full consideration and inquiry, be satisfied with any such scheme, or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid, by his report to Her Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make an Order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect."

And whereas by another Act of Parliament, passed in the second and third years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne; and for other purposes," it is, amongst other things, further enacted, "That when, by any Order of Her Majesty in Council as aforesaid, a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes is constituted, the same shall, on registration thereof, and with the consent in writing of the incumbent or incumbents of the benefice

“ or benefices to be thereby affected, become a perpetual curacy and benefice, and the minister thereof, duly nominated and licensed thereto, and his successors, shall be a body politic and corporate, with perpetual succession, and may receive and take to himself and his successors all such lands, tenements, tithes, rent-charges and hereditaments as shall be granted unto him or them, and such perpetual curate shall thenceforth have, within the limits of the district parish formed under the Church Building Acts, for the church of such perpetual curacy, sole and exclusive cure of souls, and shall not in anywise be subject to the control or interference of the incumbent or incumbents of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such Order, if he or they shall have consented to such Order as aforesaid; but if such incumbent or incumbents shall not have so consented thereto, this last-mentioned provision shall not come into operation until the next avoidance of the benefice by the incumbent objecting thereto, or by the surviving incumbent objecting, if more than one shall object thereto, and in such case the last-mentioned provision shall forthwith after such avoidance come into operation, and shall be binding on all persons whatsoever.”

And whereas the Lord Bishop of Durham hath made a representation, in writing, to his Grace the Lord Archbishop of the province of York, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“ To the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William, Lord Archbishop of the Province of York.

“ I, the Right Reverend Charles, Lord Bishop of Durham, do hereby represent to your Grace as follows:—

“ There is in the county of Durham, and my diocese of Durham, the rectory and parish church of Sunderland near the Sea.

“ According to the last census the population of the parish of Sunderland near the Sea was seventeen thousand five hundred and fifty.

“ There is situate within the said parish, and at a distance of about a quarter of a mile from the parish church of Sunderland near the Sea, a chapel known by the name of the chapel of Saint John, which has been augmented by the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty, and has thus become a perpetual curacy, but the minister or incumbent of such chapel has no legal cure of souls.

“ The gross annual value of the said rectory of Sunderland near the Sea, exclusive of the value of the rectory-house, and exclusive of certain glebe land at Stockton, is two hundred and thirty-eight pounds ten shillings and three pence, and the gross annual value of the perpetual curacy of Saint John, exclusive of certain glebe land at Stockton, is three hundred and ninety-seven pounds two shillings and seven pence; there are at Stockton, in the county of Durham, forty-seven acres and thirty-one perches of land, which have been agreed to be sold for seventeen thousand two hundred and fifteen pounds, until the conveyance is completed the purchaser pays interest at four pounds per cent. per annum thereon, when the purchase is completed the money will be invested in Three pounds per cent. Consols. Of such forty-seven acres and thirty-one perches of land, fourteen acres three roods and six perches belong to the rectory of Sunderland near the Sea, and the remaining thirty-one acres one rood and twenty-five perches to the perpetual curacy of Saint John.

“ The revenues of the said rectory of Sunderland near the Sea are charged under the provisions of the Incumbents' Resignation Act; one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, with a yearly pension of seventy-nine pounds, in favour of the Reverend Henry Peters, the late rector, and the revenues of the said perpetual curacy of Saint John are charged under the provisions of the same Act, with a yearly pension of one hundred and fifty pounds in favour of the said Henry Peters, the late perpetual curate.

“ The patronage both of the said rectory of Sunderland near the Sea and of the said perpetual curacy of Saint John is vested in the Lord Bishop of Durham for the time being, who consents to the scheme hereinafter proposed, the Reverend Field Flowers Goe, the rector of the said rectory of Sunderland near the Sea, and also the perpetual curate of the said perpetual curacy of Saint John, also consents to the said scheme.

“ It appears to me that under the provisions of the Act of Parliament passed in the session holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, cap. 106, and of the Act of Parliament passed in the session holden in the second and third years of the same reign, cap. 49, a portion of the parish of Sunderland near the Sea may be advantageously separated from the said rectory and parish church of Sunderland near the Sea and annexed to the said church or chapel of Saint John, so as that such separated portion may be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes, and a perpetual curacy and benefice, of which the said chapel of Saint John shall be the parish church.

“ Pursuant to the directions contained in the twenty-sixth section of the first-mentioned Act, I have prepared the following scheme, in writing, which, with the consents thereto of the said patron and incumbent, I do submit to your Grace, to the intent that your Grace may, if upon full consideration and enquiry you shall be satisfied with such scheme, certify the same and such consents as aforesaid by your report to Her Majesty in Council.”

And whereas the scheme and consents in the said representation are in the words and figures following:—

“ The SCHEME above referred to.

“ That portion of the parish of Sunderland near the Sea, which is shown on the plan hereto annexed, by the verge boundary line coloured green, shall be separated from the parish and parish church of Sunderland near the Sea, and annexed to the church or chapel of Saint John, so as that such separated portion may be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes, and a benefice under the style of ‘The Perpetual Curacy of St. John, Sunderland,’ of which the church or chapel of the perpetual curacy of Saint John, Sunderland, shall be the parish church.

“ Such proposed separate parish and benefice shall be subject to the same ecclesiastical jurisdiction as the said parish of Sunderland near the Sea, and the incumbent for the time being of such separate parish and benefice shall have exclusive cure of souls within the limits of the same.

“ Churchwardens shall be annually chosen in and for the said separate parish and benefice in the customary manner and at the time when churchwardens are usually appointed; and every person so chosen shall be duly admitted, and shall do all things pertaining to the office of churchwarden as to ecclesiastical matters within the said separate parish and benefice.

“ All the land and other endowments of whatsoever nature now belonging to the said perpetual curacy of Saint John, except those specified in the schedule hereunder written, shall be transferred from the said perpetual curacy of Saint John, and shall be annexed to and form part of the endowment of the rectory of Sunderland near the Sea, in addition to the present endowment of the said rectory.

"All ecclesiastical offices shall be performed in the church of the said separate parish and benefice of Saint John, Sunderland, and all the fees and payments for such offices performed within the limits of the said separate parish and benefice, and all such other ecclesiastical dues, offerings, and emoluments, usually payable to the incumbent of a parish or benefice, as shall arise within the said separate parish and benefice of Saint John, Sunderland, shall henceforth belong to and be received by the incumbent thereof for the time being.

"The fees now payable to the rector of Sunderland near the Sea, for interments in the cemetery provided by the Burial Board for the parish of Sunderland near the Sea, shall henceforth belong and be payable to the incumbent of the said separate parish church of Saint John, so far as regards the interment in the said cemetery of the bodies of deceased parishioners of the said separate parish of Saint John, and the incumbent of Saint John's shall be under obligation to officiate at all such funerals, all other fees of every kind now payable to the rector of Sunderland near the Sea, in respect of the consecrated portion of the said cemetery, shall continue to belong to such rector.

"The patronage or right of presentation or nomination of or to the said separate parish and benefice of Saint John, Sunderland, shall continue to belong to the Lord Bishop of Durham and his successors for the time being for ever.

"As between the rector of Sunderland near the Sea, and the perpetual curate of the new benefice of Saint John, Sunderland, the annual sum of one hundred pounds, part of the pension of one hundred and fifty pounds payable to the said Henry Peters, shall henceforth be payable by the rector of Sunderland near the Sea, in exoneration of the liability to that extent of the perpetual curate of Saint John, who shall be entitled to recover from the rector of Sunderland near the Sea, by action of debt, all moneys in excess of the annual sum of fifty pounds which may henceforth, from time to time, be paid by the said perpetual curate to the said Henry Peters, on account of the said pension of one hundred and fifty pounds.

"The SCHEDULE above referred to.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the first session of the Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to abridge the holding of benefices in plurality, and to make better provision for the residence of the clergy," after reciting that "Whereas, in some instances, tithings, hamlets, chapeltries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may in some instances with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "That when, with respect to his own diocese, it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said archbishop that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district within the diocese of such archbishop, or the diocese of such bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church, and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes; and the said archbishop or bishop shall draw up a scheme, in writing (the scheme of such bishop to be transmitted to the said archbishop for his consideration), describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent-charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested; and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent, in writing, under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modification thereof as the said Archbishop may approve, and the said Archbishop shall, on full consideration and inquiry, be satisfied with any such scheme, or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid, by his report to Her Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make an Order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect."

And whereas by another Act of Parliament, passed in the second and third years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes," after reciting the hereinbefore recited Act, and that it was expedient that the provisions thereof should be extended to cases notwithstanding the vacancy or vacancies of the benefice or benefices thereby to be effected, and also that when by such Order a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes is constituted, the same should become a perpetual curacy with cure of souls, it is amongst other things enacted, "That any such scheme or modification may be drawn up according to the regulations and directions in the said recited Act contained, subject to the consent, in writing, of the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected thereby, under his or their hand, notwithstanding the vacancy of such benefice or benefices, and that it should be lawful for Her Majesty in Council thereupon to make an Order for carrying such scheme or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect, and that such Order being registered in the registry of the diocese, as directed by the recited Act, should come into operation, and should be forthwith binding on all persons whatsoever, notwithstanding such vacancy or vacancies;" and it is thereby further enacted, "That when, by any Order of Her Majesty in Council as aforesaid, a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes is constituted, the same shall, on registration thereof, and with the consent, in writing, of the incumbent or incumbents of the benefice or benefices to be thereby affected, become a perpetual curacy and benefice, and the minister thereof, duly nominated and licensed thereto, and his successors, shall be a body politic and corporate, with perpetual succession, and may receive and take to himself and his successor all such lands, tenements, tithes, rent-charges and hereditaments as shall be granted unto him or them, and such perpetual curate shall thenceforth have, within the limits of the district parish formed under the Church Building Acts, for the church of such perpetual curacy, sole and exclusive cure of souls, and shall not in anywise be subject to the control or interference of the incumbent or incumbents of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such Order, if he or they shall have consented to such Order as aforesaid; but if such incumbent or incumbents shall not have so consented thereto, this last-mentioned provision shall not come into operation until the next avoidance of the benefice by the incumbent objecting thereto, or by the surviving incumbent objecting, if more than one shall object thereto, and in such case the last mentioned provision shall forthwith after such avoidance come into operation, and shall be binding on all persons whatsoever."

And whereas the Lord Bishop of Rochester hath made a representation, in writing, to the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"To the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Father in God, Archibald Campbell, by Divine Providence, Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury, Primate of all England and Metropolitan.

"I, the Right Reverend Thomas Legh, Lord Bishop of Rochester, do, in pursuance of the twenty-sixth section of the Act of Parliament of the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter one hundred and six, hereby represent to your Grace that there is in the county of Essex, in my diocese of Rochester, the vicarage of Clavering-cum-Langley, the parish whereof comprises (amongst other places) the chapelry of Langley, the limits and boundaries whereof are well known and defined.

"That the said chapelry contains a church or chapel, long since erected, which is distant from the parish church of Clavering three miles and a half, or thereabouts.

"That the population of the said parish (exclusive of the said chapelry) is, according to the last census, 1,077, and the population of the said chapelry is, according to the same census, 438.

"That the said chapelry appears to have been treated, from time immemorial, as a separate parish for all civil purposes, and that baptisms, churchings, marriages, and burials have heretofore been and are now performed in the church or chapel of the said chapelry.

"That the inhabitants of the said chapelry have from time immemorial resorted to the church or chapel of the said chapelry, have repaired it (save the chancel, which has been repaired by the patrons), by rates levied on the said chapelry, and have elected from amongst themselves churchwardens and other parish officers for the said chapelry, and the said inhabitants have not been liable to repair the parish church of Clavering.

"That it does not appear that any of the inhabitants of the parish of Clavering are entitled to accommodation in any of the pews or sittings in the church or chapel of the said chapelry, nor does it appear that any of the inhabitants of the said chapelry are entitled to accommodation in any pews or sittings in the parish church of Clavering.

"That the net annual value of the benefice of Clavering-cum-Langley, arising from tithe rent-charge, glebe land, and fees, amounts to five hundred and twenty-six pounds three shillings, or thereabouts, the particulars of which are as follows:—

"That there is a glebe house belonging to the parish of Clavering sufficient for the residence of the vicar, but there is no glebe house belonging to the said chapelry of Langley, but a portion of the glebe land in the parish of Langley is conveniently situated near the church, and would afford an eligible site for the erection thereon of a glebe house.

"That it appears to me that, under the provisions of the said Act of the first and second Victoria, chapter 106, and of the Act of the second and third years of the same reign, chapter 49, the said chapelry of Langley may be advantageously separated from the said parish of Clavering, and be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes and a perpetual curacy and benefice.

"That the Mayor, Commonalty, and Citizens of the city of London, Governors of the possessions, revenues, and goods of the Hospitals of Edward, late King of England the Sixth, of Christ, Bride-well, and St. Thomas the Apostle, as Governors of Christ's Hospital, hereinafter called 'the said Governors of Christ's Hospital,' are the patrons of the said benefice, and they consent to this representation and to the scheme hereinafter set forth. The said benefice is now vacant, by reason of the death of the late vicar, the Reverend Thomas William Henry Gurney, which took place on the nineteenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

"That pursuant to the directions of the first-mentioned Act of Parliament, I have drawn up a scheme, in writing, appended to this representation, describing the mode in which it appears to me the separation before proposed may be best effected, and how the changes consequent thereon in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, titles, dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested."

And whereas the scheme and consents in the said representation are in the words and figures following:—

"The SCHEME referred to in the foregoing Representation.

"It is proposed that the said chapelry of Langley shall be separated from the said parish of Clavering, to which it now belongs, and that the same shall be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes, and a benefice, by the name and style of 'The Perpetual Curacy of Langley,' of which the said church or chapel shall be the parish church.

"That the said separate parish and benefice of Langley shall henceforth be subject to the same ecclesiastical jurisdiction as the said parish of Clavering, and the incumbent of the said separate parish and benefice shall have sole and exclusive cure of souls within the limits of the same.

"That the incumbent of the said separate parish and benefice shall henceforth be entitled to the tithe rent-charge, glebe lands, and other profits (if any), and all ecclesiastical dues, offerings, and emoluments belonging to and arising from, or in respect of, the said separate parish and benefice of Langley.

"That the first fruits and yearly tenths chargeable upon the benefice of Clavering with the chapelry of Langley, shall be apportioned as follows, that is to say:—One-third part shall be charged to, or payable in respect of, the said separate benefice of Langley, and two-third parts thereof in respect of the vicarage of Clavering.

"That no change shall be made by this scheme in respect to the glebe lands, tithe rent-charges, or other endowments or emoluments of the said vicarage of Clavering, except as mentioned in the two preceding clauses, but that the incumbent thereof shall henceforth be entitled to the tithe rent-charge which comprises one-third of the great tithes, and the entirety of the small tithes, and also to the glebe land situate in the parish of Clavering, and also other profits (if any), and all ecclesiastical dues, offerings, and emoluments belonging to, and arising from or in respect of, the said parish and benefice of Clavering.

"That the patronage or right of nominating a minister or incumbent to each of the several parishes and benefices of Clavering and Langley shall be vested in and exercised by the said Governors of Christ's Hospital, the present patrons of Clavering-cum-Langley, and their successors or assigns for ever.

"That the parishioners of the said separate parish and benefice of Langley shall not be entitled to accommodation in the said church of Clavering, nor shall the parishioners of the said parish of Clavering be entitled to accommodation in the said church or chapel of Langley, except, nevertheless, any parishioner or parishioners of the said parish of Clavering (if such there be) possessing a legal right by faculty, or otherwise, to the exclusive use of any pew or sitting in the church or chapel of Langley aforesaid, and who may not be willing to relinquish the same.

"And I do hereby submit the foregoing representation and scheme to your Grace, and in case you shall, on full consideration and enquiry, be satisfied therewith, I request that your Grace will be pleased to certify the same and the consent of the patrons thereto, by your report to Her Majesty in Council.

"Given under my hand, this seventh day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

"Consent.

"We, the Mayor, Commonalty, and Citizens of the city of London, Governors of the possessions, revenues, and goods of the Hospitals of Edward, late King of England the Sixth, of Christ, Bridewell, and Saint Thomas the Apostle, as Governors of Christ's Hospital, the patrons or corporation entitled to present or nominate to the vicarage of Clavering-cum-Langley, the same being now vacant, do hereby signify our consent to the representation and scheme hereinbefore set forth.

"In testimony whereof we have hereunto caused our corporate seal to be affixed, this third day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four."

And whereas the said Lord Bishop hath transmitted the said scheme to the said Lord Archbishop, together with the said consents.

And whereas the said Lord Archbishop, being on full consideration and enquiry satisfied with such scheme, hath certified the same and such consents as aforesaid, by his report to Her Majesty in Council, dated the eleventh day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, which report is in the words and figures following.

"To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"We the undersigned, Archibald Campbell, Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury, do hereby report to your Majesty in Council, that the Right Reverend Thomas Legh, Lord Bishop of Rochester, has represented unto us (amongst other things) that there is in the county of Essex, and his diocese of Rochester, the vicarage of Clavering-cum-Langley, the parish whereof comprises (amongst other places), the chapelry of Langley, the limits and boundaries whereof are well known and defined; that the said chapelry contains a church or chapel which is distant from the parish church of Clavering three miles and a half or thereabouts; that it appears to the said Lord Bishop that under the provisions of the Acts of Parliament of the first and second years of your Majesty's reign, chapter 106, and of the second and third years of your Majesty's reign, chapter 49, the said chapelry of Langley may be advantageously separated from the said parish of Clavering, and be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes, and a perpetual curacy and benefice; that the said Lord Bishop has drawn up a scheme, in writing, describing the mode in which it appears to him that the proposed separation may best be effected, and how the changes consequent thereon in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction glebe lands, tithes, dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews may be made with justice to all parties interested, which scheme together with the consent thereto, in writing, of the patrons or corporation entitled to present or nominate to the said vicarage of Clavering-cum-Langley, (thesame being now vacant), has been transmitted by the said Lord Bishop tous for our consideration; the representation and scheme of the said Lord Bishop, and the consent before referred to are hereunto annexed; and we, the said Archbishop, being on full consideration and enquiry satisfied with the said scheme, do hereby, pursuant to the said Act of the first and second years of your Majesty's reign, certify the same and such consent as aforesaid, to the intent that your Majesty in Council may, in case your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do, make and issue an Order for carrying the said scheme into effect. As witness our hand this eleventh day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

"A. C. Cantuar."

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said scheme of the said Lord Bishop of Rochester be carried into effect.

Arthur Heips.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 4th day of February, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the first session of the Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to abridge the holding of benefices in plurality, and to make better provision for the residence of the clergy," after reciting that "Whereas, in some instances, tithings, hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong, with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may in some instances with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted "That when, with respect to his own diocese, it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said archbishop that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district within the diocese of such archbishop, or the diocese of such bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church, and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes; and the said archbishop or bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such bishop to be transmitted to the said archbishop for his consideration), describing the

"mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent-charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested; and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modification thereof as the said archbishop may approve, and the said archbishop shall, on full consideration and inquiry, be satisfied with any such scheme, or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid, by his report to Her Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make an Order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect."

"That the boundaries of the said hamlet or township of Spalford are well known and defined.

"That the population of the said hamlet or township of Spalford, according to the census of one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, consists of ninety-three persons.

"That the said hamlet or township of Spalford has no church or chapel in it, nor have any of the inhabitants thereof any exclusive right to any pew or sitting within either of the parish churches of North Clifton and Girton, by faculty or otherwise.

"That the population of the said parish of North Clifton, exclusive of the said hamlet or township of Spalford, according to the census of one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, consists of four hundred and eighty-nine persons.

"That there is one church in the said parish of North Clifton affording accommodation for two hundred and eighty persons, or thereabouts.

"That the parish church of North Clifton is distant from the said hamlet or township of Spalford one mile and a half, or thereabouts.

"That there is a good and sufficient house of residence belonging to the said vicarage of North Clifton, in which the incumbent resides,

"That the population of the said benefice of South Scarle with Girton and Besthorpe, according to the census of one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, exclusive of the said hamlet or township of Spalford, is as follows:—South Scarle one hundred and ninety-two persons,

"That the said vicarage of North Clifton and the said vicarage of South Scarle with Girton and Besthorpe are in my patronage by virtue of my bishoprick.

"That if the whole of the said hamlet or township of Spalford be legally placed within the cure of the vicar of South Scarle and its dependencies, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England propose to make to the incumbent of that benefice a grant of one hundred and twenty pounds per annum, conditionally upon the employment of a licensed assistant-curate to serve the outlying portions of the cure, and to receive a salary of not less than that amount.

"That the incumbent of the said vicarage of South Scarle with Girton and Besthorpe shall have exclusive cure of souls within the limits of the said hamlet or township of Spalford.

"That all fees, ecclesiastical dues, offerings, and other emoluments arising from or in respect of the said hamlet or township, and usually payable to the incumbent of a benefice, shall belong and be paid to the vicar of South Scarle with Girton and Besthorpe aforesaid, instead of the vicar of North Clifton.

"That the inhabitants of the said hamlet or township of Spalford shall be exonerated from all liability to repair the parish church of North Clifton, or any other church or chapel now or hereafter to be erected in that parish, but shall be liable (subject to the provisions of the Compulsory Church Rate Abolition Act, 1868) to repair the said parish church of Girton in common with the inhabitants of the said parish of Girton.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 4th day of February, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventh day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words following, that is say :—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and to the church and cure (which said church and cure are hereinafter called the said benefice) of Christ Church, Luton, in the county of Bedford, and in the diocese of Ely.

“Whereas the said advowson or perpetual right of patronage of the said benefice of Christ Church, Luton, is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession in Thomas Jones Lee, Clerk in Holy Orders, now incumbent of the same benefice.

“And whereas the said Thomas Jones Lee is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of the said benefice of Christ Church, Luton, now vested in him as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Ely.

“And whereas the Right Reverend James Russell, now Bishop of the said diocese of Ely, is willing to accept for himself and his successors in the Bishoprick of Ely, the said proposed transfer, and in token of such his willingness, and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese, which by the Acts in the hereinbefore-mentioned Act recited, or by some or one of them, is made necessary, he, the said James Russell, Bishop of Ely, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

“And whereas it appears to us that the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Christ Church, Luton, which is hereinbefore mentioned, and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the district chapelry or new parish of Christ Church, Luton (being the parish or district in or in respect of which the said right of patronage and advowson arises and exists), by rendering the said benefice more eligible than it is at present for augmentation out of funds under our control.

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Thomas Jones Lee (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said James Russell, Bishop of the said diocese of Ely (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we humbly recommend and propose that, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of the said benefice of Christ Church, Luton, now vested in the said Thomas Jones Lee, and his heirs and assigns as aforesaid, shall be transferred from the said Thomas Jones Lee; and from his heirs and assigns, to the said James Russell, Bishop of the said diocese of Ely, as such Bishop, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may, from time to time, be exercised by, the said James Russell, Bishop of the said diocese of Ely, and his successors, Bishops of the same diocese, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Ely.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter sixty; of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter sixty, of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation for altering the boundaries of the district parish of Saint James, Norlands, and of the consolidated chapelry of Saint Clement, Kensington, both in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London.

"And whereas by the authority of another Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twentieth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and published in the London Gazette upon the twenty-fourth day of the same month, portions of the said district parish of Saint James, Norlands, of the district parish of Saint Stephen, Hammersmith, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and of the new parish of Saint Mark, Notting Hill, in the same county and diocese, were assigned as a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Clement, situate in Lancaster-road West, in the district parish of Saint James, Norlands aforesaid, and such consolidated chapelry was named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Clement, Kensington.'

"And whereas it has been represented to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that the boundaries of the said district parish of Saint James, Norlands, and of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Clement, Kensington, should be re-arranged so as to affect the respective transfers of territory hereinafter set forth.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of London, as such bishop, and also as the patron in right of his See of the perpetual curacy of the said district parish of Saint James, Norlands, and of the perpetual curacy of the consolidated chapelry of Saint Clement, Kensington aforesaid, with the consent of the Reverend George Thomas Palmer, the incumbent of the perpetual curacy of the said district parish of Saint James, Norlands, and with the consent of the Reverend Arthur Dalgarno Robinson, the incumbent of the perpetual curacy of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Clement, Kensington (in testimony whereof they, the said consenting parties, have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that, in our opinion, it would be expedient that, from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this representation, all that portion of the district parish of Saint James, Norlands aforesaid, which is described in the first schedule hereunder written, and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto appended and is thereon coloured pink, shall be dissevered from such district parish and shall be annexed to, and shall form part of, and shall become and be, and be deemed to be, within the limits of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Clement, Kensington; and, also, that from and after the same day and date all that portion of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Clement, Kensington, which is described in the second schedule hereunder written, and is delineated and set forth upon the said map or plan hereunto appended and is thereon coloured green, shall be dissevered from such consolidated chapelry, and shall be annexed to, and shall form part of, and shall become and be, and be deemed to be, within the limits of the district parish of Saint James, Norlands aforesaid.

London, and to be annexed to the consolidated chapelry of Saint Clement, Kensington, in the same county and diocese, being :—

“All that portion of the said district parish of Saint James, Norlands, which is bounded on the west and on the north by the consolidated chapelry of Saint Clement, Kensington aforesaid, on the east by the district parish of Saint John, Notting Hill, in the said county and diocese, and on the remaining side, that is to say, on the south by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said district parish of Saint John, Notting Hill, from the district parish of Saint James, Norlands aforesaid, at the point where Pottery-lane is joined by William-street; and extending thence, westward, along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Saint Clement's-road; and extending thence, northward, along the middle of the last named road to its junction with Crescent-street; and extending thence, westward, along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Saint Ann's-road; and continuing thence, still westward, and in a direct line, across the last-named road to a point on the western side of the same road opposite to the eastern end of George-street, upon the boundary which divides the said district parish of Saint James, Norlands, from the consolidated chapelry of Saint Clement, Kensington aforesaid.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 4th day of February, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, and of the Act of the fifth year of Her Majesty (session two), chapter twenty-six, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the tenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners, for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, and of the Act of the fifth year of your Majesty (session two), chapter twenty-six, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorising certain further improvements at the episcopal residence belonging to the See of London, which is situate at Fulham, in the county of Middlesex, and is known as Fulham Palace.

"Whereas the Right Honourable and Right Reverend John, Bishop of the diocese of London, is desirous that certain further improvements should be made at the said episcopal residence, known as Fulham Palace, and has submitted to us the particulars of such proposed improvements, and we have approved the same.

"And whereas the said bishop is also desirous, and it appears to us to be expedient, that towards the cost of effecting the said proposed improvements a sum of two hundred and ten pounds (being a sum, which together with the several sums of six hundred and fifty pounds, four hundred and sixty pounds, and two hundred and fifty pounds already borrowed upon the same security by the said bishop, under the authority of the statutes hereinbefore-mentioned, does not exceed two years' income of the See), should be provided by borrowing the same by way of further mortgage upon the security of all and every part of the lands, tenements, and hereditaments or endowments which now belong or may hereafter belong to the Bishoprick of London.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said John, Bishop of the said diocese of London (testified by his having signed and affixed his episcopal seal to this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that the said bishop be authorised to borrow from the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and that the said Governors be empowered to lend under the provisions of the above-mentioned Acts the sum of two hundred and ten pounds, and that as a security for the same the said bishop do mortgage all and every part of the lands, tenements, and hereditaments and endowments which now belong, or may hereafter belong, to his said See, to the said governors by deed for the term of thirty-five years, or until the said sum of two hundred and ten pounds, with the interest for the same as hereinafter mentioned, and all costs and charges which may attend the recovery thereof, shall be fully paid and satisfied, and that such principal sum shall be repaid with interest in manner following, that is to say: during and in respect of the first period of twelve months of the said term, computed from the day of the date of the mortgage, no part of the said principal sum shall be repayable, but the said bishop, or his successors shall, yearly, at the end of the second period of twelve months so computed, and at the end of every such like period of twelve months, thereafter pay to the said governors, their successors, or assigns, one thirtieth part of the said principal sum until the whole thereof shall be repaid, and shall at the end of the first and each succeeding period of twelve months aforesaid, pay interest at the rate of four pounds per centum per annum on the said principal sum, or on so much thereof as shall from time to time remain unpaid, and if and when it shall happen that the principal and interest directed to be paid as hereinbefore mentioned shall be in arrear and unpaid for the space of forty days after the same shall have become due, it shall and may be lawful for the said governors, their successors and assigns, to recover the same, and the costs and charges attending the recovery thereof by distress and sale in the like manner as rents may be recovered by landlords or lessors from their tenants by the laws in force at the time of such distress and sale, and that such mortgage deed shall be in the form and to the effect to be approved by us, and shall bind as well the said John, now Bishop of the said diocese of London, as every succeeding bishop of the same diocese, until the principal money and interest, costs and charges, shall have been paid off and discharged.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the said sum of two hundred and ten pounds shall be paid to us, and that the receipt of our joint treasurers, for the time being, endorsed on the said mortgage deed shall be a good and sufficient discharge to the said governors and their successors for the same, who shall not be bound or required to see to the application thereof, and that upon the receipt of the said sum of two hundred and ten pounds the whole or any part or parts thereof shall be applied by us at such times and in such manner as shall appear to us to be expedient towards effecting the said proposed improvements at the episcopal residence aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the herein-named Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Public Schools Act, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of 'The Public Schools Act, 1868,' have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for relieving the Provost of Eton from the spiritual charge of the parish of Eton, and for constituting the same parish a distinct vicarage in the gift of the Provost and Fellows of Eton, and for providing an endowment for the same vicarage.

"We humbly recommend and propose as follows, that is to say :—

"1. From and after the approval and ratification of this scheme by an Order of your Majesty in Council, and the publication of the same Order in the London Gazette, the parish of Eton shall be severed from the Royal College of Eton, and the existing chapel of ease at Eton, dedicated to Saint John the Evangelist, shall thenceforth be the parish church of the parish of Eton, and the existing chapel at Eton Wick, dedicated to Saint John the Baptist, shall thenceforth be deemed to be a chapel of ease to such parish church, and the college chapel of the said college shall thenceforth cease to be the parish church of the parish of Eton, and shall be exempted from being used or dealt with as a parish church.

"2. From and after the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, the parish of Eton shall become and be a benefice, with cure of souls, and a distinct vicarage, and the advowson thereof, and perpetual right of presentation thereto, shall be, and the same is hereby, vested in the Provost and Fellows of the said college of Eton, and their successors.

"3. A duly qualified person shall be presented to the said vicarage within three calendar months from the date of such publication as aforesaid, and for the purposes of such presentation the said vicarage shall, from and after the lastly-mentioned date, be deemed to be a vacant benefice in the patronage of the said college, within the meaning of the twenty-eighth statute of the statutes now in force relating to the same college.

"4. The person who shall be nominated, presented, and instituted to the said vicarage, and his successors, shall be and be esteemed in law a vicar and vicars, and a body politic and corporate, with perpetual succession, and he and his successors may receive, take, and hold to himself and themselves the land and rent-charges hereby vested in him and them, and all such lands, tithes, and rent-charges as shall be hereafter granted unto or purchased for him or them, in the same manner as any other incumbent of a benefice with cure of souls is by law entitled to do, and such vicar and his successors shall (save and except only so far as is excepted by the thirty-first section of the hereinbefore-mentioned Act, and by the first clause of this scheme) have within and over the said parish of Eton sole and exclusive cure of souls, and the Provost of the said college and his successors shall thenceforth be relieved from the spiritual charge of the said parish, and from all liability to perform Divine service in the said chapel dedicated to Saint John the Evangelist, or in the said chapel at Eton Wick.

"5. The said vicarage shall be endowed out of the revenues of the said college in manner following, that is to say : the rent-charge payable to the said college in lieu of tithes, in respect of all titheable lands in the said parish of Eton (which said tithe rent-charge was apportioned at the sum of two hundred and forty-five pounds a-year, and after deduction for the expenses of collection and rates, calculated on an average of the last seven years, shall be taken to be of the net value of two hundred and ten pounds a-year) shall, upon and as from the institution of the vicar who shall first be instituted to the said vicarage, vest in him and his successors, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly published Order of your Majesty in Council as aforesaid, and there shall be paid to the said vicar and his successors by the bursar or bursars for the time being of the said college, out of the revenues thereof the annual sum of three hundred and ninety pounds, making up, together with the net value of the said tithe rent-charge, the annual sum of six hundred pounds ; the said annual sum of three hundred and ninety pounds to be a perpetual charge on the revenues of the said college, and to be paid by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of January and the first day of July in every year : Provided always, that on the first of such half-yearly days of payment which shall happen next after the institution of the vicar who shall first be instituted as aforesaid, an apportioned part only of the said annual sum of three hundred and ninety pounds shall be payable for the time which shall have elapsed from the institution of such vicar to such half-yearly day : and provided also, that as between the said college and the vicar who shall first be instituted as aforesaid, the said tithe rent-charge shall also be apportionable, so that the said vicar shall account to the Provost and Fellows of the said college for a fair apportioned part, up to the time of his institution as aforesaid, of the said rent-charge which may be accruing due but not payable until after the time of such institution : and provided also, that if and so often as in any half year the amount accrued due to the then vicar of the said parish of Eton, in respect of the said sum of three hundred and ninety pounds, so to be paid as aforesaid out of the revenues of the said college, shall remain unpaid by the space of forty days after the same shall have so become due, the said vicar shall, as against the Provost and Fellows of the same college, have, and be entitled to exercise, all such rights and remedies for enforcing payment thereof as by the laws then in force, may be had and exercised for the recovery of money by an action of debt.

"6. Nothing herein contained shall affect the right of the Provost and Fellows of the said college, or their successors, to sell or mortgage the college estates, or any part thereof, or any estate or interest therein (except the said tithe rent-charge vested in the said vicar as aforesaid), in such manner as they may otherwise be entitled to do, and the purchasers and mortgagees of any such estates, or any estate or interest therein, shall take and be entitled to hold the same free from all charge in respect of the said annual sum of three hundred and ninety pounds.

"7. All fees payable for the publication of banns of matrimony and the solemnization or performance of marriages, churchings, and burials, and the accustomed Easter dues and offerings arising in the said parish of Eton, shall, from and after the institution of the vicar who shall first be instituted as aforesaid, be payable and be paid to such vicar and his successors.

"8. The freehold of the said chapel of ease at Eton, dedicated to Saint John the Evangelist, which chapel of ease is to become, as aforesaid, the parish church of the said parish of Eton, and the freehold of the said chapel of Saint John the Baptist, at Eton Wick, and the freehold of the chapel yards or burial grounds belonging to the same chapels respectively, including the cemetery and the cemetery chapel, shall upon the institution of the vicar of the said parish of Eton who shall first be instituted as aforesaid, vest in him and his successors.

"9. Except as herein provided, all lands, property, and emoluments (if any) to which the said Provost and College are entitled under and by virtue of the statutes passed in the reign of King Henry the Sixth, whereby the parish church and benefice of Eton aforesaid were appropriated to the said Provost and College, or otherwise in respect of the said benefice, shall remain vested in the said Provost and College for their own use and benefit.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Oxford.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Anne, situate within the limits of the township of Clifton as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Eccles, which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the limits of the said township of Clifton, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Anne, situate within the limits of such township as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Anne, Clifton.'

"And with the like consent of the said James, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Anne, situate within the limits of the said township of Clifton as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that so long as the Reverend James Pelham Pitcairn, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Eccles, shall continue to be such vicar or incumbent, all the fees which may be received in respect of such publication, solemnization, or performance at the said church of Saint Anne, situate as aforesaid, shall be paid over by the minister thereof to the said James Pelham Pitcairn; And provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet."
