Portsmouth Street Tramways Act, 1870.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the following Bye-laws have been made by the council of the said borough, acting as the urban sanitary authority and the road authority, in that behalf, under the provisions of "The Portsmouth Street Tramways Act, 1870," and that a true copy of such Bye-laws has been sent to the Board of Trade, and another copy has been delivered to the Company, incorporated by the said Act, as required thereby.

1. The expression "carriage," in these Bye-laws, shall mean a carriage with flange wheels or wheels suitable only to run on rails used on tramways, and the expression "Company" shall mean the Company authorised by the "Portsmouth Street Tramways Act, 1870," or any Company or person licensed by the Board of Trade to use the tramways or any other Company or person entitled by contract with the Company to use the tramways.

2. No carriage shall run on the tramways without having a license in force for the same, granted by the road authority. A fee of 5s. shall be chargeable in respect of every license, and every such license shall be in force until the next annual licensing day, to be held on the third Thursday in the month of October in every year. For every breach of this Bye-law the Company shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding 40s.

3. Every carriage shall have painted or affixed upon some conspicuous place at each end of the carriage, and both inside and outside thereof, on a plate or in some other manner, to be approved by an officer of the road authority duly authorised in that behalf, the number of the carriage; and also a list of the rates or fares to be demanded and taken for every passenger travelling upon the tramways, and also the maximum number of inside and outside passengers which such carriage is constructed to carry, and all such numbers and particulars respectively shall at all times be kept legible, and shall be renewed by the Company from time to time when necessary. In determining such maximum as aforesaid, there shall be allowed for each passenger a space of not less than 18 inches; and whenever there shall be any passengers in or upon any carriage in excess of the number so painted or exhibited on such carriage as aforesaid, the conductor thereof shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding 40s., and for any breach or non-observance of the other conditions in this Bye-law contained, the Company shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding 40s.

4. Upon a requisition and certificate the road authority authorised as aforesaid may grant to any male person above the age of eighteen a license to act as driver or conductor of a carriage, which license shall remain in force until the next annual licensing day aforesaid, and a sum of 1s. shall be charged and payable for every such license, and 1s. for every renewal of the same. The road authority may refuse any such license, or renewal, or revoke or suspend any license, if the person applying for, or in possession of such license, is unfit to hold the same by reason of his having been convicted of theft, or drunkenness, or of a breach of any of these Bye-laws.

5. Except as hereinafter in the next Bye-law provided, no person shall act as a driver or conductor of a carriage without having a license in force so to do, and every licensed driver and conductor shall, when employed or acting as such, wear conspicuously on his breast a metal ticket or badge, to be provided by the road authority, with the words "Licensed Driver" or "Licensed Conductor," as the case may be, having thereon a number corresponding with the number of his license, and no licensed driver or conductor shall sell or exchange, or let for hire, or transfer, or permit his badge to be worn by any other person, and in case of the loss of such ticket or badge the same shall from time to time be renewed at his expense. Every driver or conductor offending against this Bye-law shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding 40s.

6. The Company shall not allow an unlicensed person to act either as a driver or conductor except in case of unavoidable necessity, such necessity to be proved by the Company to the satisfaction of the road authority, and every such temporary driver or conductor while so acting shall be subject to the provisions of these Bye-laws as fully as if he had been duly licensed. For every breach of this Bye-law the Company shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding 40s.

7. If the Company shall permit any driver or conductor of a carriage to act after any revocation or during any suspension of his license, they shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding 10s. for every day they shall so permit such driver or conductor.

8. A driver or conductor shall deliver up his license and badge to the road authority on the revocation or expiration of such license, and every person neglecting for three days so to do, and every person using or wearing or detaining a badge without having a license in force, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding 40s.

9. Every driver and conductor changing his place of abode shall, within 14 days, give notice in writing to the road authority, specifying the change made, and produce his license to the Town Clerk for endorsement, and in default shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding 20s.

10. On conviction of any driver or conductor for any offence under these Bye-laws, the convicting justices may endorse on such license a memorandum of such conviction, and a copy of such conviction shall be forthwith transmitted by such justices to the road authority.

11. In case a driver or conductor shall not, when required, produce his license on demand, he shall be liable on conviction, to a penalty not exceeding 40s.

12. If a conductor or other duly authorised person in the employ of the Company shall demand, exact, or take more than the authorised rate or fare, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding 40s.

13. All property found in a licensed carriage shall be restored by the conductor to the owner within four hours after the same shall have been left, or if the owner cannot be found, such property shall be left at the nearest Police Station. For any breach of this Bye-law such conductor shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding 40s.

14. The Company shall affix, and at all times keep exhibited in every licensed carriage and at their registered office a printed copy of these Bye-laws for public inspection, and in default they shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding 40s., and to a further penalty not exceeding 10s. for every day during which such default continues.

15. Every licensed carriage shall be furnished with a fit and properly lighted lamp or lamps for sufficiently lighting the interior of such carriage. Every carriage shall carry a red light at each end of the same, of such size and description as shall be approved by the road authority, and such lamps respectively as aforesaid shall be lighted after the expiration of one hour after sunset, and shall at all times be kept in good order and repair, and the Company for every default in any of the matters in this Bye-law contained, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding 40s., and to a further penalty not exceeding 10s. for every day during which such default continues.
