AT the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of March, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled an Act for the appointment of convenient places for the holding of Assizes in England and Wales, it was declared and enacted that His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Most Honourable Privy Council, should have power from time to time to order and direct at what place or places in any county in England or Wales the assizes and sessions under the commissions of gaol delivery and other commissions for the dispatch of civil and criminal business shall be holden, and to order and direct such assizes and sessions for the dispatch of criminal and civil business to be holden at more than one place in the same county on the same circuit, and to order and direct the assizes and sessions under such commissions for the dispatch of criminal business to be holden for the whole county at one place, and for the dispatch of civil business at one or more place or places in such county on the same circuit; and further to order and direct any special commissions of oyer and terminer and gaol delivery to be holden at any one or more places in any such county.

And whereas the assizes and sessions under the commissions of gaol delivery, and other commissions for the dispatch of criminal and civil business held in and for the county of Sussex, are usually holden at Lewes, in the said county.

And whereas it is desirable and convenient that the holding of the Lent assizes and sessions for the present year in and for the said county, should be holden at Brighton, in the said county.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, in exercise of the powers vested in Her under and by virtue of the said Act, and of every other power in that behalf, doth hereby order and direct that the Lent assizes and sessions for the present year under the commissions of gaol delivery, and other commissions for the dispatch of criminal business, shall be held in and for the said county of Sussex, at Brighton aforesaid, in the said county, instead of at Lewes.

And the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of March, 1875.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the tenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act for the more easy recovery of small debts and demands in England," it is, among other things, enacted that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that the said Act be put in force in such county or counties as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, should seem fit, and to divide the whole or part of any such county (including all counties of cities, and counties of towns, cities, boroughs, towns, ports, and places, liberties, and franchises therein contained or thereunto adjoining) into districts; and to order that the County Court should be holden for the recovery of debts and demands, under the said Act, in each of such districts; and from time to time to alter such districts, as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, should seem fit; and from time to time, with the advice aforesaid, to declare by what name, and in what towns and places the County Court should be holden in each district:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by an Order in Council of the ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, to order that the said Act be put in force in the counties and places therein specified, and the same was put in force accordingly:

And whereas by certain other Acts made and passed in the thirteenth and fourteenth, in the sixteenth, in the twentieth, in the twenty-second, in the twenty-ninth, and in the thirty-first years of the reign of Her Majesty, the provisions of the said recited Act have been amended and extended:

And whereas it has been represented that it would be of advantage to the public if certain alterations were made in some of the districts of the Courts specified and set forth in the aforesaid Order:

Her Majesty, having taken the premises into consideration, is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five,

The parishes of Lodsworth and Selham, now in the district of the County Court of Sussex, holden at Petworth, shall be in the district of the County Court of Sussex, holden at Midhurst.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of March, 1875.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, by "The Thames Conservancy Act, 1857," it is enacted that the Conservators of the River Thames shall have power and authority, from time to time, to make bye-laws for the regulation, management, and improvement of the River Thames, and the navigation thereof, in the manner thereby provided, and to impose penalties, not exceeding five pounds, for the breach or non-performance of such bye-laws:

And whereas, by the forty-seventh section of the said Act, it is enacted that no such bye-laws shall be in force until the same have been sent to the Lord Chief Justice of the Court of Queen's Bench, the Lord Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas, and the Lord Chief Baron of the Court of Exchequer, and shall have been approved by one of them:

And whereas, by the thirty-first section of "The Thames Conservancy Act, 1864," it is enacted that from and after the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, section forty-seven of "The Thames Conservancy Act, 1857," shall be repealed, and that bye-laws made after the commencement of such repeal, under the authority of either of the said recited Acts, shall not have any force unless and until they are allowed by Order of Her Majesty in Council:

And whereas by the forty-first section of "The Thames Navigation Act, 1866," it is enacted that from the passing of the said Act the Conservators of the River Thames shall have the same or the like powers and authorities over and with respect to the Thames and Isis from Staines to Cricklade as they have, by virtue of the Thames Conservancy Acts, 1857 and 1864, over and with respect to the Thames below Staines :

And whereas by the forty-second section of the same Act it is enacted that the provisions of the said Conservancy Acts of 1857 and 1864 respecting bye-laws shall extend and apply to bye-laws for the purposes of the Upper Navigation Acts, or the said Thames Navigation Act, 1866 :

And whereas by the twelfth section of "The Thames Conservancy Act, 1867" (which is to be read as one with the Thames Conservancy Acts, 1857 and 1864, and the Navigation Act of 1866), it is enacted that the said Conservators shall have full power and authority to make, such rules, regulations, and bye-laws as to them may seem necessary for the purpose of regulating the passage of steamers and other vessels and boats on the River Thames on the occasion of any regatta, boat race, public procession, or ship launch, or any other occasion when large crowds may assemble thereon :

And whereas the said Conservators have, in exercise of the powers conferred upon them by the said recited Acts, made and submitted for the allowance of Her Majesty in Council, certain rules and bye-laws for the regulation of the navigation of the River Thames, and for regulating boat races in the River Thames below Staines :

And whereas the said bye-laws have been duly published in accordance with the said recited Acts, and it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that the said bye-laws (as set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed) are reasonable and proper.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in Her by "The Thames Conservancy Act, 1864," and of every other power enabling Her in that behalf, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to allow the said bye-laws.

Edmund Harrison.

Schedule referred to in the above Order.

1. All vessels under sail east of London Bridge shall exhibit, between sunset and sunrise, two lights, namely, a green light on the starboard side, so fixed and fitted with an inboard screen, as to throw the light from direct ahead to two points abaft the beam on the starboard side; and a red light on the port side, so fixed and fitted with an inboard screen, as to throw a light from direct ahead to two points abaft the beam on the port side, such lights to be visible on a dark night, with a clear atmosphere, at a distance of at least one mile.

2. Every person in charge of a dumb-barge when under weigh and not in tow shall, between sunset and sunrise, when below or to the eastward of a line drawn from the upper part of Silvertown, in the county of Essex, to Charlton Pier, in the county of Kent, have a white light always ready, and exhibit the same on the approach of any vessel.

3. The person in charge of the sternmost or last of a line of barges, when being towed, shall exhibit, between sunset and sunrise, a white light from the stern of his barge.

4. All vessels and barges, when at anchor in the fairway of the river shall exhibit the usual riding light.

5. All vessels when employed to mark the position of wrecks or other obstructions shall exhibit two bright lights placed horizontally not less than six feet apart.

6. On the occasion of any boat race, regatta, public procession, or ship launch in the River Thames below Staines, or on any other occasion when large crowds assemble thereon, no vessel shall pass on the river so as to obstruct, impede, or interfere with the boat race, regatta, procession, or launch, or to endanger the safety of persons assembling on the river, or to prevent the maintenance of order thereon, and the master of every vessel shall, on all such occasions, observe the directions of the Harbour Master or other officer of the Conservators of the Thames engaged in superintending the execution of this bye-law.

7. No vessel shall be moored to or remain at any pier or vessel of or to or at any premises belonging to the Conservators of the River Thames, without the permission of their officer in charge of such pier, vessel, or premises being first had and obtained, and shall move away when ordered so to do.

8. In construing the sixteenth bye-law of the rules and bye-laws for the regulation of the navigation of the River Thames, allowed by Her Majesty in Council at a Court held on the fifth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, the word "burden" shall mean the burden or burthen of a barge as registered at Waterman's Hall.

9. Any master or person in charge of any vessel or barge failing in any respect to comply with or committing any breach of or in any way infringing any of these bye-laws, shall be liable to a penalty of, and shall forfeit a sum not exceeding, five pounds for each offence, which penalties shall be recovered, enforced, and applied according to the provisions of the Thames Conservancy Acts, 1857 and 1864.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of March, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the four hundred and tenth section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted, that upon the completion of any new lighthouse (in which term are included floating and other lights exhibited for the guidance of ships), Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, fix such dues in respect thereof to be paid by the master or owner of every ship which passes the same, or derives benefit therefrom, as Her Majesty may deem reasonable, and may from time to time alter the amount thereof, and that such dues shall be paid and collected in the same manner, by the same means, and subject to the same conditions in, by, and subject to which the light dues authorized to be levied by the same Act are paid and collected :

And whereas the Corporation of Trinity House of Deptford Strond, are about to place a light-vessel on the Royal Sovereign Shoal, off Beachy Head, on the south-east coast of England, and to exhibit a light therefrom :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers vested in her by the said recited Act, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to direct, that upon the exhibition of the said light there shall be paid in respect of the said light-vessel for every ship, whether British or foreign, which may pass or derive benefit from such light-vessel, the toll of ten-sixteenths of a penny per ton of the burthen of every such ship as aforesaid for each time of passing or deriving benefit therefrom if on an oversea voyage, and sixpence per vessel for each time of passing or deriving benefit therefrom if on a coasting voyage.

The said toll shall be levied by the Corporation of Trinity House of Deptford Strond, subject to the regulations and exceptions contained in the New Consolidated Tables of Light Dues, sanctioned by Orders in Council, dated respectively the twenty-fourth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, and the sixteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, and in an Order in Council, dated the twenty-first day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, and subject also to the gross abatement or discount of sixty per centum mentioned in the last-named Order in Council.

Edmund Harrison.

At the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of March, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, by "The Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862," it is enacted, that whenever it is made to appear to Her Majesty that the rules concerning the measurement of tonnage of merchant ships for the time being in force under the principal Act, have been adopted by the Government of any foreign country and are in force in that country, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Order in Council, to direct that the ships of such foreign country shall be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in their certificates of registry or other national papers, and thereupon it shall no longer be necessary for such ships to be re-measured in any port or place in Her Majesty's dominions, but such ships shall be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in their certificates of registry or other papers, in the same manner, to the same extent, and for the same purposes in, to, and for which the tonnage denoted in the certificates of registry of British ships is to be deemed the tonnage of such ships :

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that the rules concerning the measurement of tonnage of merchant ships now in force under "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," have been adopted in Sweden, by the Government of His Majesty the King of Sweden and Norway, and are to come into force in Sweden on the 1st day of April, 1875.

Her Majesty is hereby pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to direct that the ships of Sweden, the certificates of Swedish nationality and registry, or the certificates of measurement of which are dated on or after the first day of April, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, shall be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in the said certificates of Swedish nationality and registry, or certificates of measurement.

Edmund Harrison.

At the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of March, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, by "The Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862," it is enacted that whenever it is made to appear to Her Majesty that the rules concerning the measurement of tonnage of merchant ships, for the time being in force under the principal Act, have been adopted by the government of any foreign country and are in force in that country, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Order in Council, to direct that the ships of such foreign country shall be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in their certificate of registry or other national papers, and thereupon it shall no longer be necessary for such ships to be re-measured in any port or place in Her Majesty's dominions, but such ships shall be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in their certificates of registry or other papers, in the same manner, to the same extent, and for the same purposes in, to, and for which the tonnage denoted in the certificate of registry of British ships is to be deemed the tonnage of such ships :

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that the rules concerning the measurement of tonnage of merchant ships now in force, under "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," have been adopted by the Government of His Majesty the King of Spain, with the exception of a difference in the mode in certain steamers of estimating the allowance for engine room, and such rules are now in force in that country, having come into operation on the second day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

Her Majesty is hereby pleased by and with the advice of Her Privy Council to direct as follows :—

1. As regards sailing ships, that merchant sailing ships of the said Kingdom of Spain, the measurement whereof, after the said second day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, has been ascertained and denoted in the registers and other national papers of such sailing ships, testified by the date thereof, shall be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in such registers and other national papers in the same manner, and to the same extent, and for the same purpose in, to, and for which the tonnage denoted in the certificate of registry of British sailing ships is deemed to be the tonnage of such ships.

2. As regards steam ships, that merchant ships belonging to the said Kingdom of Spain, which are propelled by steam or any other power requiring engine room, the measurement whereof shall, after the said second day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, have been ascertained and denoted in the registers and other national papers of such steam ships, testified by the dates thereof, shall be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in such registers, or other national papers in the same manner, and to the same extent, and for the same purpose, in, to, and for which the tonnage denoted in the certificate of registry of British ships is deemed to be the tonnage of such ships : Provided, nevertheless, that if the owner or master of any such Spanish steam ship desires the deduction for engine room in his ships to be estimated under the rules for engine room measurement and deduction applicable to British ships instead of under the Spanish rule, the engine room shall be measured and the deduction calculated according to the British rules.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of March, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Harbours and Passing Tolls, &c., Act, 1861," it is, among other things, enacted as follows; viz. :—

"All rates, dues, duties, and imposts (hereinafter included in the term Shipping Dues) leviable by any of the Charitable Authorities named in the first schedule annexed hereto, on ships or on goods carried in ships, shall, except so far as the same may be required for the execution of such shipping purposes as have hitherto been executed by means of the said dues, cease to be levied on and after the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two."

And whereas by the same Act it is further enacted as follows; viz. :—

"During the period prior to the said first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, the shipping dues levied by each of the authorities named in the said first schedule shall, subject to the execution of any shipping purposes to which the same or any part thereof may be applicable, be applied in payment of any pensions which have been lawfully granted, or in which a vested interest, absolute or contingent, has been lawfully created before the fifteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one; and any surplus arising from the said dues during the said period, after providing for the said shipping purposes and payment of the said pensions for the time being, and such payments for charitable or other purposes as have heretofore ordinarily been made by the said authority out of the said dues, shall, with the interest thereon, after the termination of the said period, be applied in payment of such, if any, of the said pensions as have not then ceased; and, subject to such payment, the said surplus shall become part of the charitable funds of the said authority, and shall be held and administered by them upon the same trusts and for the same purposes upon and for which the said dues would have been held and applied if this Act had not passed. If at any time after the expiration of the said period it is made to appear to Her Majesty in Council that any of the said pensions are still in existence, and that after duly accounting for the surplus aforesaid, the authority by which such pensions were granted is unable, either out of the said surplus or out of their other funds applicable to charitable purposes, to pay the said pensions, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, from time to time by Order in Council, to declare that the shipping dues theretofore levied by the said authority shall continue for such time and to such extent as may by such Order be declared to be necessary for payment of the said pensions; and thereupon the said shipping dues shall continue to be leviable according to the terms of such Order. Provided that nothing in this Act contained shall enable any of the said authorities to apply any part of the said dues to any purposes to which they could not lawfully have applied the same if this Act had not passed :"

And whereas, during the period prior to the said first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, the shipping dues levied by the Fraternity of Masters and Seamen in Dundee (one of the authorities named in the said schedule to the said Act, and hereinafter called the Dundee Trinity House), have, subject to the execution of certain shipping purposes to which part of the same had, before the first day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, been applicable, been applied in payment of certain pensions which had been lawfully granted, or in which a vested interest, absolute or contingent, had been lawfully created before the said fifteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one :

And whereas by Order in Council, dated the sixteenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three (renewing a previous Order in Council, dated the twenty-first day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two), Her Majesty was pleased to declare that the shipping dues theretofore levied by the Dundee Trinity House should, so far as the same were not required for the execution of such shipping purposes as had before the first day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, been executed by means of the same, continue until the thirty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, and no longer, unless further continued by Order in Council :

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that some of the pensions so lawfully granted by the Dundee Trinity House are still in existence, and that in certain other pensions a vested interest, absolute or contingent, has been lawfully created before the said fifteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in favour of certain persons who had before the last-mentioned date been admitted members of the Dundee Trinity House, and of their widows and certain relatives, and that, after duly accounting for the surplus before referred to, the Dundee Trinity House are unable either out of the said surplus, or out of their other funds applicable to charitable purposes, to pay the said pensions.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to declare that the shipping dues heretofore levied by the Dundee Trinity House, shall, so far as the same are not required for the execution of such shipping purposes as had before the first day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, been executed by means of the same, further continue until the thirty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, and no longer, unless further continued by Order in Council; and the said dues shall, subject as aforesaid, be applied only for the purposes following, that is to say :—

1. For the purpose of paying to the persons named in their first schedule annexed thereto, during their respective lives the pensions set forth in the same schedule.
2. For the purpose of paying any pension which may hereafter be lawfully granted to to any of the persons named in the second schedule annexed hereto.

3. For the purpose of paying any pension which may hereafter be lawfully granted in pursuance of the charter of the Dundee Trinity House, to the widows or relatives of any decayed and reduced members admitted into the Incorporation before the fifteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

And Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased to direct, that the Dundee Trinity House shall, on or before the first day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, furnish to the Board of Trade a full statement of their accounts for the year ended the third Tuesday in December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, showing all sums received by them, and all payments made by them, during such year; and shall, on or before the first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, furnish to the Board of Trade, a statement, showing—

1. What pensions (if any) have been lawfully granted since the commencement of the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, with names and ages of pensioners, and amount of pensions.
2. Which of the persons named in the first and second schedules annexed hereto, are living, and the dates upon which any of them may have died.
3. Whether any of such persons who may have died, have left a widow, children, or grandchildren, and the respective ages of such widow, children, or grandchildren, if any.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of March, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the first session of Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to abridge the holding of benefices in plurality, and to make better provision for the residence of the clergy," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "That whenever it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, with respect to his own diocese, and whenever it shall be represented to him by the bishop of any diocese, or by the bishops of any two dioceses, that two or more benefices, or that one or more benefice or benefices, and one or more spiritual sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages, in his or their diocese or dioceses, being either in the same parish or contiguous to each other, and of which the aggregate population shall not exceed one thousand five hundred persons, and the aggregate yearly value shall not exceed five hundred pounds, may, with advantage to the interests of religion, be united into one benefice, the said Archbishop of the Province shall inquire into the circumstances of the case; and if on such enquiry it shall appear to him that such union may be usefully made, and will not be of inconvenient extent, and that the patron or patrons of the said benefices, sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages respectively, is or are consenting thereto, such consent being signified in writing under the hands of such patron or patrons, the said Archbishop shall, six weeks before certifying such inquiry and consent to Her Majesty, as herein-after directed, cause, with respect to his own diocese, a statement in writing of the facts, and in other cases a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation, to be affixed on or near the principal outer door of the church, or in some public and conspicuous place in each of such benefices, sinecure rectories or vicarages with notice to any person or persons interested, that he, she, or they, may, within such six weeks, show cause in writing under his, her, or their hand or hands, to the said Archbishop, against such union; and if no sufficient cause be shown within such time, the said Archbishop shall certify the inquiry and consent aforesaid to Her Majesty in Council, and thereupon it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make and issue an Order or Orders for uniting such benefices, sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages, into one benefice, with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes only; and it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to give directions for regulating the course and succession in which the patrons, if there be more than one patron, shall present or nominate to such united benefice, from time to time, as the same shall become vacant."

And whereas the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act, hath duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a certificate, in writing, bearing date the twentieth day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

"To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"We, the undersigned, Archibald Campbell,

Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury, Primate of all England and Metropolitan, do hereby certify to your Majesty in Council—

"That the Right Reverend John Fielder, Lord Bishop of Oxford, having represented unto us that the rectory of Saint Mary the More, Wallingford, in the county of Berks, and diocese of Oxford, and the sinecure rectory of All Hallows, Wallingford, with the liberty of Clapcot, in the same county and diocese, being contiguous to each other, and of which the aggregate population does not exceed one thousand five hundred persons, and the aggregate yearly value does not exceed two hundred pounds, might, with advantage to the interests of religion, be united into one benefice, we inquired into the circumstances of the case;

"That on such inquiry it appeared to us that such union might be usefully made, and would not be of inconvenient extent, and that the said Right Reverend John Fielder, Lord Bishop of Oxford, being, as such Bishop, the patron of the said rectory of Saint Mary the More, and the Master, Fellows, and Scholars of Pembroke College, in the University of Oxford, being the patrons of the said sinecure rectory of All Hallows, Wallingford, with the liberty of Clapcot, have signified their consents in writing to the union of the said benefices into one benefice, with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes, and that the patronage and right of collation to such united benefice shall belong to and be exercised by the Bishop of Oxford for the time being;

"That six weeks and upwards before certifying such enquiry and consent to your Majesty in Council, we caused copies in writing of the aforesaid representation of the said Lord Bishop to be affixed on the notice-boards near the principal outer door of the church of Saint Mary the More, Wallingford aforesaid, and on the gate of the burial-ground of the parish of All Hallows, Wallingford (there being no church in that parish), with notice to any person or persons interested, that he, she, or they might, within such six weeks, show cause, in writing, under his, her, or their hand or hands, to us, the said Archbishop, and no such cause has been shown;

"The representation of the said Lord Bishop of Oxford, our enquiry into the circumstances of the case, the statement of circumstances in reply thereto, the consents, in writing, of the patrons, and copies of the representation and notice before mentioned, are hereunto annexed.

"And we do certify the enquiry and consents aforesaid to your Majesty in Council, to the intent that your Majesty in Council may, in case your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do, make and issue an Order for uniting the said benefices into one benefice, with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes, and for declaring that the patronage and right of collation to the united benefice, whenever the same shall become vacant, shall belong to and be exercised by the Bishop of Oxford for the time being.

"As witness our hand this twentieth day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

"A. C. Cantuar."

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased to order, and doth hereby order, that the said rectory of Saint Mary the More, Wallingford, and the sinecure rectory of All Hallows, in Wallingford, both in the county of Berks, and diocese of Oxford, shall be united into one benefice, with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes only.

And Her Majesty is pleased to give directions and declare that the patronage and right of collation to the united benefice, whenever the same shall become vacant, shall belong to, and be exercised by, the Bishop of Oxford for the time being.

Edmund Harrison.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the first session of Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to abridge the holding of benefices in plurality, and to make better provision for the residence of the clergy;" it is, amongst other things, enacted, "That whenever it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, with respect to his own diocese, and whenever it shall be represented to him by the bishop of any diocese, or by the bishops of any two dioceses, that two or more benefices, or that one or more benefice or benefices, and one or more spiritual sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages, in his or their diocese or dioceses, being either in the same parish or contiguous to each other, and of which the aggregate population shall not exceed one thousand five hundred persons, and the aggregate yearly value shall not exceed five hundred pounds, may, with advantage to the interests of religion, be united into one benefice, the said Archbishop of the Province shall inquire into the circumstances of the case; and if on such inquiry it shall appear to him that such union may be usefully made, and will not be of inconvenient extent, and that the patron or patrons of the said benefices, sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages respectively, is or are consenting thereto, such consent being signified in writing under the hands of such patron or patrons, the said Archbishop shall, six weeks before certifying such inquiry and consent to Her Majesty, as herein-after directed, cause, with respect to his own diocese, a statement in writing of the facts, and in other cases a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation, to be affixed on or near the principal outer door of the church, or in some public and conspicuous place in each of such benefices, sinecure rectories or vicarages, with notice to any person or persons interested, that he, she, or they, may, within such six weeks, show cause in writing under his, her, or their hand or hands, to the said Archbishop, against such union; and if no sufficient cause be shown within such time, the said Archbishop shall certify the inquiry and consent aforesaid to Her Majesty in Council, and thereupon it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make and issue an Order or Orders for uniting such benefices, sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages, into one benefice, with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes only; and it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to give directions for regulating the course and succession in which the patrons, if there be more than one patron, shall present or nominate to such united benefice, from time to time, as the same shall become vacant."

And whereas the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act, hath duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a certificate, in writing, bearing date the twentieth day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, in the words following; that is to say:

"To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"We, the undersigned, Archibald Campbell, Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury, Primate of all England and Metropolitan, do hereby certify to your Majesty in Council:

"That the Right Reverend Richard, Lord Bishop of Chichester, as Bishop of the diocese within which are situate the rectory of Clapham, in the county of Sussex; and the rectory of Patching, in the same county, having represented unto us that the said benefices, being contiguous to each other, and of which the aggregate population does not exceed one thousand five hundred persons, might, with advantage to the interests of religion, be united into one benefice, we enquired into the circumstances of the case;

"That on such enquiry it appeared to us that such union might be usefully made and would not be of inconvenient extent, and that we, the said Archbishop, being, as such Archbishop, the patron or person entitled to present to the said rectory of Patching, in case the same were now vacant, and Dame Henrietta Katherine Burrell, Wife of Sir Percy Burrell, of West Grinstead Park, in the county of Sussex, Baronet, being the patron or person entitled to present to the said rectory of Clapham, in case the same were now vacant, had consented in writing to the union of the said benefices into one benefice, with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes.

"That six weeks and upwards before certifying such enquiry and consents to your Majesty in Council we caused copies, in writing, of the aforesaid representation of the said Lord Bishop to be affixed on the principal outer door of the parish church of each of the said benefices, with notice to any person or persons interested that he, she, or they, might within such six weeks, show cause, in writing, under his, her, or their hand or hands to me, the said Archbishop, against such union, and no sufficient cause has been shown.

"The representation of the said Lord Bishop of Chichester, our enquiry into the circumstances of the case, the statement of circumstances in reply thereto, the consent, in writing, of the patrons, and the copies of the representation and notice before mentioned are hereunto annexed.

"And we do hereby certify the enquiry and consent aforesaid to your Majesty in Council, to the intent that your Majesty in Council, may in case your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do, make and issue an order for uniting the said two benefices into one benefice, with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes only, and for declaring that the patronage of the said united benefice whenever the same shall become vacant shall be exercised alternately by the Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, and the said Dame Henrietta Katherine Burrell and her successors in estate and her and their assigns, the first turn or right of presentation to be exercised by the Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being.

"As witness our hand, this twentieth day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

"A. C. Cantuar."

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased to order, and doth hereby ordered, that the said rectory of Clapham, in the county of Sussex, and the rectory of Patching, in the same county, and diocese of Chichester, shall be united into one benefice, for the cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes only. And Her Majesty in Council is pleased to give directions for and declare that the patronage of the said united benefice, whenever the same shall become vacant, shall be exercised, alternately, by the Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, and the said Dame Henrietta Katherine Burrell and her successors in estate and her and their assigns; the first turn or right of presentation or nomination to be exercised by the Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of March, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHĒREĀS by an Act passed in the first session of the Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to abridge the holding of benefices in plurality, and to make better provision for the residence of the clergy," after reciting that "Whereas, in some instances, tithings, hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong, with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may in some instances with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted "That when, with respect to his own diocese, it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said archbishop that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district within the diocese of such archbishop, or the diocese of such bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church, and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes; and the said archbishop or bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such bishop to be transmitted to the said archbishop for his consideration), describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent-charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested; and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modification thereof as the said archbishop may approve, and the said archbishop shall, on full consideration and inquiry, be satisfied with any such scheme, or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid, by his report to Her Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to "make an Order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect."

Whereas the Lord Bishop of Lichfield hath made a representation, in writing, to the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"To the Most Reverend Archibald Campbell, by Divine Providence, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury.

"I, the Right Reverend George Augustus, by Divine permission, Lord Bishop of Lichfield, do hereby represent to your Grace that there is in the county of Salop, and my diocese of Lichfield, the vicarage of Saint Mary the Virgin, within the town of Shrewsbury, the parish whereof comprises, amongst other places, a portion of a township known by the name of Harlescott, the boundaries of which township are well known and defined. That there is also in the same county of Salop, within my diocese of Lichfield, the vicarage of Saint Alkmund, within the town of Shrewsbury aforesaid, the parish whereof comprises, amongst other places, the remainder of the said township of Harlescott, and a township known by the name of Allbrightlee, the boundaries whereof are well known and defined.

"That contiguous to the said townships of Harlescott and Allbrightlee respectively, is the parish of Battlefield, in the same county and diocese, the church of which parish is distant from the said township of Harlescott one hundred and fifty yards, or thereabouts, and from the said township of Allbrightlee six hundred yards, or thereabouts.

"That there is no church or chapel within either of the said townships of Harlescott and Allbrightlee. The inhabitants of that portion of the said township of Harlescott which lies within the said parish of Saint Mary the Virgin, Shrewsbury, are at a distance of two and a half miles, or thereabouts, from the parish church of Saint Mary the Virgin, Shrewsbury, and the inhabitants of the remainder of the said township of Harlescott and of the said township of Allbrightlee are at a distance of from one and a half to three miles, or thereabouts, from the said parish church of Saint Alkmund, Shrewsbury aforesaid.

"That the population of the said township of Harlescott amounts to eighty persons, or thereabouts, and the population of the said township of Allbrightlee amounts to forty-four persons, or thereabouts.

"That the church of the said parish of Battlefield affords sufficient accommodation for the parishioners of Battlefield and for the inhabitants of both the said townships, the greater part of whom have been in the habit of resorting to the said church of Battlefield for Divine service from time immemorial."

"That the net annual value of the said vicarage of Saint Mary the Virgin, Shrewsbury, is three hundred and sixty pounds, or thereabouts, arising partly from an annual stipend paid by the governing body of Shrewsbury Schools, and partly from surplice fees.

"That the net annual value of the said vicarage of Saint Alkmund, Shrewsbury, is two hundred and twenty pounds, or thereabouts, arising partly from tithe rent-charges and other rents, Easter dues, and partly from surplice fees.

"That the net annual value of the said parish of Battlefield is two hundred and fourteen pounds, or thereabouts, arising partly from the rent of a farm at Whixall, in the said county of Salop, partly from the dividends of a sum of mooney standing in the names of the Governors of Queen Annes' Bounty, and partly from surplice fees.

"That it appears to me that the said townships of Harlescott and Allbrightlee, may, under the provisions of the Act of Parliament passed in the session of Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter 106, be advantageously separated from the said parishes of Saint Mary the Virgin, Shrewsbury, and Saint Alkmund, Shrewsbury, respectively, and united to the adjoining parish of Battlefield.

"That pursuant to the directions contained in the 26th section of the said Act of Parliament, I, the said Lord Bishop, have drawn up a scheme, in writing, appended to this representation, describing the mode in which it appears to me that the alterations above proposed may be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alterations in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebelands, tithes, rent-charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested, and I do submit the same to your Grace, together with the consents, in writing, of the Right Honourable Edward James, Earl of Powis, the Right Honourable Orlando George Charles, Earl of Bradford, John Ralph Ormsby Gore, of Brogyntyn, near Oswestry, in the county of Salop, Esquire, M.P., John Edmund Severne, of Wallop Hall, Westbury, in the county of Salop aforesaid, Esquire, and of myself, the said Bishop of Lichfield, the patrons or persons entitled to present or nominate to the said vicarage of Saint Mary the Virgin, Shrewsbury, if the same were now vacant, of myself, the said Bishop of Lichfield, the patron or person entitled to collate to the said vicarage of Saint Alkmund, Shrewsbury, if the same were now vacant, of the Reverend John Dryden Corbet, of Sundorne Castle, in the county of Salop aforesaid, Clerk, the patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said vicarage of Battlefield, if the same were now vacant, and the consents, in writing, of the Reverend Thomas Bucknall Lloyd, Clerk, M.A., the incumbent of the said vicarage of Saint Mary the Virgin, Shrewsbury, of the Reverend Charles Edward Leopold Wightman, Clerk, M.A., the incumbent of the said vicarage of Saint Alkmund, Shrewsbury aforesaid, and of the Reverend Thomas Bainbridge, Clerk, B.A., incumbent of the said vicarage of Battlefield, to the intent that your Grace may, if on full consideration and enquiry you shall be satisfied with the said scheme, certify the same and such consents to Her Majesty in Council.

"Given under my hand this twelfth day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

G. A. Lichfield."

And whereas the scheme and consents in the said representation are in the words and figures following:—

"The SCHEME referred to.

"That the portion of the township of Harlescott which is situate within and forms part of the parish of Saint Mary the Virgin, Shrewsbury, be separated from the said parish of Saint Mary the Virgin, Shrewsbury, and that the portion of the said township which is situate within and forms part of the said parish of Saint Alkmund, Shrewsbury, and the township of Allbrightlee, which is also situate within and forms part of the same parish, be respectively separated from the said parish of St. Alkmund, Shrewsbury, and be together united to the parish of Battlefield, in the county of Salop, and diocese of Lichfield.

"That such townships shall be subject to the same ecclesiastical jurisdiction as the said vicarage of Battlefield.

"That subject, as hereinafter-mentioned, the inhabitants of the said townships of Harlescott and Allbrightlee shall not in the future be entitled to any accommodation in the said parish church of Saint Mary the Virgin, Shrewsbury, or in the said parish church of Saint Alkmund, Shrewsbury, and shall be exonerated from all liability to repair the said parish churches, or either of them, but shall be entitled to accommodation in the said church of Battlefield, and shall be liable, subject to the provisions of 'The Compulsory Church Rates Abolition Act, 1868,' to the repairs of the said church.

"Provided, nevertheless, that during the continuance of the Act of Parliament, made and passed in the 34th year of the reign of his late Majesty, King George III, cap. 88, intituled 'An Act for taking down and rebuilding the parish church of Saint Alkmund, in the town of Shrewsbury, in the county of Salop,' and which Act is still in force, the aforesaid provision relating to the withdrawal of the existing right of the inhabitants of such part of the said township of Harlescott, as lies within the said parish of Saint Alkmund, Shrewsbury, and of the inhabitants of the said township of Allbrightlee, to accommodation in the said parish church of Saint Alkmund, Shrewsbury, and to the exoneration of such inhabitants from liability to repair the said parish church of Saint Alkmund, Shrewsbury, and to the substituted right of accommodation in and liability to the repair of the said parish church of Battlefield, shall not take effect, but, during the continuance of the said Act, the right of such inhabitants to accommodation in, and their liability to the repair of, the said parish church of Saint Alkmund, Shrewsbury, shall continue and remain in force, in manner, and to the extent provided for and imposed by the said Act.

"That the incumbent of Battlefield shall have exclusive cure of souls within the limits of the said townships of Harlescott and Allbrightlee.

"That the right of nominating an incumbent to the parish church of Battlefield with the said townships of Harlescott and Allbrightlee annexed, shall, as heretofore, be vested in and exercised by the said Reverend John Dryden Corbet, Clerk, or other the person or persons in whom the right of nominating an incumbent to the said parish church of Battlefield shall be vested.

"That the first fruits and tenths now charged upon the vicarages of Saint Mary the Virgin and Saint Alkmund, Shrewsbury aforesaid, respectively, shall remain a charge upon the same.

"Consents of the Patrons and Incumbent of the Vicarage of Saint Mary the Virgin, Shrewsbury."

"We, the undersigned, the Right Honourable Edward James, Earl of Powis, the Right Honourable Orlando George Charles, Earl of Bradford, John Ralph Ormsby Gore, of Brogyntyn, near Oswestry, in the county of Salop, Esquire, M.P., John Edmund Severne, of Wallop Hall, Westbury, in the county of Salop aforesaid, Esquire, and the Right Reverend George Augustus, Lord Bishop of Lichfield, the patrons or persons entitled to present or nominate to the vicarage of Saint Mary the Virgin, within the town of Shrewsbury aforesaid, if the same were now vacant; and I, the Reverend Thomas Buck-nall Lloyd, Clerk, Master of Arts, the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Saint Mary the Virgin, Shrewsbury, do hereby respectively signify to your Grace our consents to the scheme above proposed, for separating a portion of the township of Harlescott from the said vicarage of Saint Mary the Virgin, within the town of Shrewsbury, and the remainder of the said township of Harlescott and the township of Allbrightlee, from the vicarage of Saint Alkmund, Shrewsbury aforesaid, and for uniting the said two townships to the vicarage of Battlefield, in the same county and diocese, and to every matter and thing therein contained.

"In witness whereof, we have respectively hereunto set our hands, this twelfth day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

"In witness whereof, we have hereunto respectively set our hands, this fourth day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

"J. D. Corbet, Patron.

"Thomas Bainbridge, Incumbent."

And whereas the said Lord Bishop hath transmitted the said scheme, together with the said consents, to the said Lord Archbishop.

And whereas the said Lord Archbishop, being, on full consideration and enquiry, satisfied with such scheme, hath certified the same and such consents as aforesaid, by his report to Her Majesty in Council, dated the twenty-fourth February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, which report is in the words and figures following:—

"To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"We, the undersigned, Archibald Campbell, Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury, do hereby report to your Majesty in Council, that the Right Reverend George Augustus, Lord Bishop of Lichfield, has represented unto us (amongst other things)—

"That there is in the county of Salop and diocese of Lichfield, the vicarage of Saint Mary the Virgin, within the town of Shrewsbury, the parish whereof comprises amongst other places, a portion of a township known by the name of Harlescott, the boundaries of which township are well known and defined.

"That there is also in the same county and diocese the vicarage of Saint Alkmund, within the town of Shrewsbury aforesaid, the parish whereof comprises, amongst other places, the remainder of the said township of Harlescott, and a township known by the name of Allbrightlee, the boundaries whereof are well known and defined.

"That contiguous to the said townships of Harlescott and Allbrightlee respectively, is the parish of Battlefield, in the same county and diocese, the church of which parish is distant from the said township of Harlescott one hundred and fifty yards or thereabouts, and from the said township of Allbrightlee six hundred yards or thereabouts.

"That there is no church or chapel within either of the said townships.

"That it appears to the said Lord Bishop that the said townships of Harlescott and Allbrightlee may be advantageously separated from the said parishes of Saint Mary the Virgin, Shrewsbury, and Saint Alkmund, Shrewsbury respectively, and united to the parish of Battlefield.

"That the said Lord Bishop has drawn up a scheme, in writing, describing the mode in which it appears to him that the proposed alterations may best be effected, and how the changes consequent upon such alterations in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent-charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews may be made with justice to all parties interested, which scheme, together with the consents thereto of the patrons and incumbents of the said benefices to be affected, has been transmitted by the said Lord Bishop to us for our consideration.

"The representation and scheme of the said Lord Bishop and the consents before referred to are hereunto annexed.

"And we, the said Archbishop, being, on full consideration and enquiry, satisfied with the said scheme do hereby, pursuant to the Act of the first and second years of your Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and six, certify the same and such consents as aforesaid, to the intent that your Majefty in Council may, in case your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do, make and issue an Order for carrying the said scheme into effect.

"As witness our hand this twenty-fourth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

"A. C. Cantuar."

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said scheme of the said Lord Bishop of Lichfield be carried into effect.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of your Majesty, chapter eighty-two, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Paul, situate at Marston, in the parish of Great Budworth, in the county of Chester, and in the diocese of Chester.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Great Budworth, and of the new parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Lostock Gralam, in the said county of Chester, and in the said diocese of Chester, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parish and new parish respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Great Budworth, and of the said new parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Lostock Gralam, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Paul, situate at Marston as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend William, Bishop of the said diocese of Chester (in testimony whereof the said bishop has signed and sealed this representation), with the consent of the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Christ at Oxford, the patrons of the vicarage of the said parish of Great Budworth (in testimony whereof they, the said Dean and Chapter, have affixed their common or corporate seal to this representation), and with the consent of the Reverend George Gibbons, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the parochial chapelry of Witton, in the said diocese of Chester, and, as such vicar or incumbent, the patron of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Lostock Gralam (in testimony whereof he, the said George Gibbons, has signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Great Budworth, and of the said new parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Lostock Gralam, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Paul, situate at Marston as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Paul, Marston.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Paul, Marston, being:

"All that portion of the parish of Great Budworth, in the county of Chester, and in the diocese of Chester, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the limits of the main portion of the township of Marston, and also all that contiguous portion of the new parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Lostock Gralam, in the said county and diocese, which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the limits of that part of the township of Wincham which is bounded on the south and on the south-west by the parochial chapelry of Witton-cum-Twambrook, in the parish of Great Budworth aforesaid, on the north-west partly by the township of Marbury, in the said parish, and partly by the main portion of the township of Marston aforesaid, and on the remaining side, that is to say, on the east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said township of Marston from the township of Wincham aforesaid, at a point in the middle of the road leading from Marston to Lostock Gralam; and extending thence, south-eastward, for a distance of twenty-two and a half chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said road to its intersection by Wincham-lane; and extending thence, southward, for a distance of fifteen and a half chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named lane to its junction with the footpath leading past Cranage Mill, and communicating with the road leading from Lostock Gralam to Northwich; and extending thence, for a distance of fifty-four and a half chains, or thereabouts, first eastward, and then generally southward, along the middle of the said footpath (thereby crossing the Trent and Mersey Canal, and passing to the west of the buildings and premises called or known as Cranage Mill aforesaid) to the boundary at the centre of Cranage Mill Bridge which carries the same footpath over Wincham Brook, which boundary divides the said new parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Lostock Gralam, from the parochial chapelry of Wittoncum-Twambrook aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chester.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of March, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of your Majesty, chapter eighty-two, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Michael, situate at Ditton, in the new parish of Farnworth, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Chester.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Farnworth, of the new parish of Saint Nicolas, Whiston, in the said county of Lancaster, and in the said diocese of Chester, and of the new parish of Saint Nicolas, Halewood, in the said county of Lancaster, and in the said diocese of Chester, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective new parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said new parish of Farnworth, of the said new parish of Saint Nicolas, Whiston, and of the said new parish of Saint Nicolas, Halewood, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Michael, situate at Ditton as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend William, Bishop of the said diocese of Chester, with the consent of the Reverend Lewis William Sampson, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the parish of Prescott, in the said diocese of Chester, and, as such vicar or incumbent, the patron of the vicarage of the said new parish of Farnworth, and also of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Nicolas, Whiston, and with the consent of the Reverend George Winter Warr, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the parish of All Saints, Childwall, in the said diocese of Chester, and, as such vicar or incumbent, the patron of the rectory of the said new parish of Saint Nicolas, Halewood (in testimony whereof, they, the said consenting parties, have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Farnworth, of the said new parish of Saint Nicolas, Whiston, and of the said new parish of Saint Nicolas, Halewood, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Michael, situate at Ditton as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Michael, Ditton.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Michael, Ditton, being:—

"All those several contiguous portions of the new parish of Farnworth, of the new parish of Saint Nicolas, Whiston, and of the new parish of Saint Nicolas, Halewood, all in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Chester, which said portions of such cures are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line, commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Nicolas, Whiston, from the new parish of Saint Nicolas, Halewood aforesaid, at the point near Tan House Farm, where Prescott-lane, Brunt Boggart-lane, Alder-lane, and Sandy-lane all meet; and extending thence, for a distance of fifty-six chains, or thereabouts, first southward, then south-westward, and then again southward, along the middle of the last-named lane, to its junction with Ditton-lane, and extending thence, westward, for a distance of thirteen chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named lane to its junction at or near to Yew Tree Farm, formerly called Cross Hillocks Farm, with the occupation-road which leads to and past the farm house and buildings called or known as Big Spring; and extending thence, generally south-westward, for a distance of thirty-five chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said occupation-road (thereby passing the said farm house and buildings), to the point where the same occupation-road is joined by the accommodation-road leading from the said occupation-road past the northern side of the farm house and buildings called or known as Little Spring, into Boscow-lane; and extending thence, south-eastward, for a distance of thirty-one chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said accommodation-road, thereby crossing the line of the Manchester, Sheffield, and

Lincolnshire Railway, to the boundary at the junction of the same accommodation-road with Boscov-lane aforesaid, which boundary divides the said new parish of Saint Nicholas, Halewood, from the new parish of Farnworth aforesaid; and extending thence, south-westward, for a distance of twenty-nine chains, or thereabouts, along the last-described boundary (thereby following the middle of the last-named lane, and of the footpath leading therefrom into Lower-lane), to the point at the centre of the bridge which carries the said footpath over Ditton Brook, where the said last-described boundary is joined by the boundary which divides the last-named new parish from the district chapelry of Hale, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and extending thence, generally south-eastward, along the last-mentioned boundary, and along the boundary which divides a detached portion of the said new parish of Saint Nicholas, Halewood, from the district chapelry of Hale aforesaid (thereby following for the most part the old course of Ditton Brook aforesaid, and crossing the line of the Manchester, Warrington, and Garston Branch of the London and North-Western Railway), to the point on the northern bank of the River Mersey, where the boundary which divides the said now parish of Farnworth from the district chapelry of Hale as aforesaid is joined by the boundary dividing the said new parish of Farnworth from the new parish of Saint Mary, Widnes, in the county and diocese aforesaid, such point being at the junction of the said Ditton Brook with Steward's Brook; and extending thence, generally north-eastward, along the last-mentioned boundary (thereby following the boundary which divides the township of Ditton from the township of Widnes, and following also the course of Steward's Brook aforesaid, and recrossing the last-mentioned branch line of railway), to the point where the said new parish boundary diverges from the said township boundary, and from the last-named brook in an easterly direction; and extending thence, for a distance of two miles, or thereabouts, first north-eastward, then northward, and then north-westward, along the same township boundary (thereby following for the most part the course of Steward's Brook aforesaid), to the centre of the bridge or culvert which carries the line of the Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway aforesaid over the said brook; and extending thence, south-westward, for a distance of twenty-eight chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said line of railway to the centre of the bridge which carries Broad Heath-lane over the same line of railway; and extending thence, generally northward, for a distance of one mile and three furlongs, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named lane, and along the middle of the lanes called or known as Lock's Nook, Little Heath-lane, Cronton-lane, and Smithy-lane, to the point at Cronton Cross where the last-named lane is joined by Tua-lane; and extending thence, for a distance of forty-three chains, or thereabouts, first westward and then south-westward, along the middle of the last-named lane to its junction at or near to Cronton Farm with Cronton-lane aforesaid; and extending thence, north-westward, for a distance of forty-three chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named lane (thereby following in part the boundary which divides the said new parish of Farnworth from the new parish of Saint Nicolas, Whiston aforesaid), to the point at or near to the south-eastern angle of Halsnead Park, where the said last-named lane is joined by Prescott-lane aforesaid; and extending thence, southward, for a distance of forty-nine chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named lane (thereby following in part the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Nicolas, Whiston, from the new parish of Farnworth aforesaid), to the first-described point upon the last-mentioned boundary near Tan House Farm, where the said last-named lane, Brunt Boggart-lane, Alder-lane, and Sandy-lane, all meet as aforesaid, at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chester.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of March, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of your Majesty, chapter eighty-two, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Paul, situate at Wood Green, in the parish of Wednesbury, in the county of Stafford, and in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Wednesbury, and of the parish or parochial chapelry of West Bromwich, in the said county of Stafford, and in the said diocese of Lichfield, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective cures.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Wednesbury, and of the said parish or parochial chapelry of West Bromwich, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Paul, situate at Wood Green as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend George Augustus, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield, as such Bishop, and also as the patron in right of his see of the vicarage of the said parish of Wednesbury, and with the consent of the Right Honourable William Walter, Earl of Dartmouth, the patron of the vicarage of the said parish or parochial chapelry of West Bromwich (in testimony whereof they, the said consenting parties, have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Wednesbury, and of the said parish or parochial chapelry of West Bromwich, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Paul, situate at Wood Green as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Paul, Wood Green, Wednesbury.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Paul, Wood Green, Wednesbury, being :

"All those two contiguous portions of the parish of Wednesbury, and of the parish or parochial chapelry of West Bromwich, both in the county of Stafford, and in the diocese of Lichfield, wherein the present incumbents of such parishes now respectively possess the exclusive cure of souls, which said portions of such parishes are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the consolidated chapelry of All Saints, Darlaston, in the said county and diocese, from the parish of Wednesbury aforesaid, at a point in the middle of Sparrow's Forge-road, formerly called or known as Forge-road, opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'D. A. S. C. C., 1872, No. 3,' and placed on the south-western side of the said road at the north-eastern end of the wall or fence forming the south-eastern boundary of the building and premises called or known as the Four Hopes Inn ; and extending thence, southward, for a distance of fifty-five chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the same road, to its junction at the house called or known as Hobb's Hole with the road leading from Hall End, Wednesbury, to Wood Green ; and extending thence, eastward, for a distance of eight chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-described road to its junction with a certain road or footpath leading into Vicarage-road ; and extending thence, for a distance of seventeen chains, or thereabouts, first southward, then eastward, then south-eastward, and then again southward, along the middle of the last-described road or footpath to its junction with Vicarage-road aforesaid ; and extending thence, for a distance of fifteen chains, or thereabouts, first eastward and then south-westward, along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with Walsall-road, in the town of Wednesbury, and continuing thence, first south-westward and then westward, along the middle of the last-named road, for a distance of twenty-four and a half chains, or thereabouts, to its junction with the street or road called or known as Spring Head ; and extending thence, south-westward, along the middle of the last-named street or road to its junction at the Wednesbury Market-place with Ridding-lane ; and extending thence, south-eastward, for a distance of twelve chains and a half, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said lane (thereby crossing the line of the South Staffordshire Railway) to the junction of the same lane with the road leading towards Hill Top ; and continuing thence, still south-eastward, along the middle of the last-described road to the centre of the bridge which carries the same road over a branch of the River Tame, upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Wednesbury from the new parish of Saint James, Hill Top, in the county and diocese aforesaid ; and extending thence, first north-eastward, along the last-mentioned boundary (thereby following the course of the said branch of the River Tame), and then, south-eastward, along the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint James, Hill Top, from the parish or parochial chapelry of West Bromwich aforesaid (thereby following in the last-named direction the course of Ridding-lane aforesaid), to the centre of the aqueduct which carries the Tame Valley Canal over the last-named lane ; and extending thence, for a distance of one mile and a half, or thereabouts, first north-eastward, and then eastward, along the middle of the said canal, to the centre of the aqueduct which carries the same canal over the River Tame aforesaid, where the boundary dividing the said parish or parochial chapelry of West Bromwich from the parish of Great Barr, in the county and diocese aforesaid, joins the boundary which divides the said parish of Wednesbury from the parish of Great Barr aforesaid ; and extending thence, first north-eastward, and then northward, along the last-described boundary (thereby crossing and recrossing the Birmingham Navigation Canal) to the point in one of the branches of the said River Tame, where the said last-described boundary joins the boundary which divides the said parish of Wednesbury from the parish of Walsall, in the county and diocese aforesaid ; and extending thence, in a direction generally westward, for a distance of upwards of three miles, along the last-described boundary, and along the boundary which divides the said parish of Wednesbury from the new parish of Saint Michael and All Angels, Caldmore, and from the new parish of Pleck and Bescot, both which last-mentioned new parishes are in the county and diocese aforesaid (thereby following the course of the said branch of the River Tame and recrossing the line of the South Staffordshire Railway), to the point where the boundary dividing the said parish of Wednesbury from the new parish of Pleck and Bescot aforesaid meets the boundary which divides the said parish of Wednesbury from the consolidated chapelry of All Saints, Darlaston aforesaid ; and extending thence, first north-westward, and then alternately south-westward and south-eastward, along the last-described boundary to the first-described point in the middle of Sparrow's Forge-road, formerly called or known as Forge-road as aforesaid, and opposite to the boundary stone inscribed 'D. A. S. C. C., 1872, No. 3,' as aforesaid, at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council, now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lichfield.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of March, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Thomas, situate at Bourne, in the parish of Farnham, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Winchester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Thomas, situate at Bourne aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Harold, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Farnham, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Thomas, situate at Bourne as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Thomas, Bourne.'

"And with the like consent of the said Edward Harold, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Thomas, Bourne, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Farnham, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Winchester, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the south-west by the new parish of Saint Peter, Wrecclesham, on the south-east partly by the parish or parochial chapelry of Frensham and partly by the new parish of Tilford, all in the county and diocese aforesaid, and on all other sides, that is to say, on the north-east and on the north-west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the last-named new parish from the parish of Farnham aforesaid, at the point upon Red Hill where the road leading from Compton to the Bourne is intersected by the road leading from Tilford to Farnham; and extending thence, north-westward, for a distance of rather more than one mile, along the middle of the last-described road, to the centre of the level crossing over the Guildford, Alton, and Winchester Line of the London and South-Western Railway; and extending thence, south-westward, for a distance of rather more than half-a-mile, along the middle of the said line of railway (thereby passing through the Farnham Railway Station), to the centre of Weydon Hill Bridge, which carries the road leading from Farnham to Wrecclesham over the same line of railway; and extending thence, for a distance of rather more than a quarter of a mile, first southward and then south-westward, along the middle of the last-described road, to the boundary at the junction of such road with Green-lane, which boundary divides the said parish of Farnham from the new parish of Saint Peter, Wrecclesham aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of March, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of your Majesty, chapter eighty-two; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Andrew and Saint Mary Magdalen, situate within the limits of the new parish of Saint Luke, Maidenhead, in the county of Berks, and in the diocese of Oxford.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Saint Luke, Maidenhead, and of the parish of Bray, in the said county of Berks, and in the said diocese of Oxford, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such new parish and parish respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said new parish of Saint Luke, Maidenhead, and of the said parish of Bray, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Andrew and Saint Mary Magdalen, situate within the limits of the said new parish of Saint Luke, Maidenhead.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John Fielder, Bishop of the said diocese of Oxford, as such Bishop, and also as the patron in right of his see both of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Luke, Maidenhead, and of the vicarage of the said parish of Bray (in testimony of which consent he, the said Bishop, has signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Saint Luke, Maidenhead, and of the said parish of Bray, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Andrew and Saint Mary Magdalen, situate within the limits of the new parish of Saint Luke, Maidenhead as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Andrew and Saint Mary Magdalen, Maidenhead.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Andrew and Saint Mary Magdalen, Maidenhead, being:—

"All those contiguous portions of the new parish of Saint Luke, Maidenhead, and of the parish of Bray, both in the county of Berks, and in the diocese of Oxford, which said portions are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the new parish of All Saints, Boyne Hill, in the said county and diocese, from the parish of Bray aforesaid, at the point where such boundary meets the boundary dividing the last-named parish from the new parish of Saint Luke, Maidenhead aforesaid, at the point in the town of Maidenhead, where King-street is joined by High-street; and extending thence, eastward, for a distance of three hundred and nine yards, or thereabouts, along the last-mentioned boundary, thereby following the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Market-street; and extending thence, from the same boundary, northward, for a distance of one hundred and fifteen yards, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with the passage or entry leading to the fields, called or known as 'The Stable Close'; and extending thence, eastward, and in a direct line for a distance of five hundred and twenty-seven yards, or thereabouts (thereby passing along the northern side of the houses called or known as Turrell's-buildings) to a point in the middle of the main stream, called or known as the Moor Water; and extending thence, south-westward, for a distance of one hundred and thirty-one yards, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said main stream to a point on the northern side of the bridge, called or known as the Moor Arches, which carries Bridge-street over the same main stream; and extending thence, eastward, for a distance of forty-seven yards, or thereabouts, along the northern side of the last-named street to its junction with Moorgate-street; and extending thence for a distance of four hundred and twenty-five yards, or thereabouts, first north-eastward, then eastward, and then northward, along the middle of the last-named street (thereby crossing Ray-street) to the point where the said Moorgate-street is joined by Ray-street aforesaid, and by Ray-road; and extending thence, for a distance of six hundred and twelve yards, or thereabouts, first eastward and then south-eastward, along the middle of the last-named road to its junction on the western bank of the River Thames with the road leading from Cookham to the western end of Maidenhead-bridge; and continuing thence, still south-eastward, and in a direct line across the last-described road and across the said river to the boundary on the eastern bank thereof which divides the said new parish of St. Luke, Maidenhead, from the parish of Taplow, in the county of Buckingham, and in the said diocese of Oxford; and extending thence, for a distance of three hundred and three yards, or thereabouts, first south-westward and then southward along the last-mentioned boundary, thereby following for the most part the said eastern bank of the River Thames aforesaid, to the point at the south-western angle of the house, called or known as 'The Orkney Arms Hotel,' where the said last mentioned boundary is joined by the boundary which divides the said parish of Bray from the parish of Taplow aforesaid; and, extending thence, southwestward, for a distance of three hundred and seventy yards, or thereabouts, along the last-mentioned boundary (thereby following in part the eastern bank of the river aforesaid) to a point in the middle of the eastern end of the bridge which carries the line of the Great Western Railway over the same river; and extending thence, westward, for a distance of one thousand five hundred and ninety yards, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said line of railway, to a point at the centre of the bridge which carries the same line of railway over King-street aforesaid, upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Bray from the new parish of All Saints, Boyne Hill as aforesaid; and extending thence, northward, for a distance of five hundred and thirteen yards, or thereabouts, along the last-mentioned boundary, thereby following the middle of the last-named street to the first-described point where the same street is joined by High-street aforesaid, and where the said last-mentioned boundary meets the boundary dividing the said parish of Bray from the new parish of Saint Luke, Maidenhead as aforesaid, at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Oxford.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of March, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Claines, in the county of Worcester, and in the diocese of Worcester.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said parish of Claines, which is hereinafter mentioned and described (such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship), should be constituted a separate district in the manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas under and by virtue of the will of Mary Gutch, of Barbourne, in the said parish of Claines, widow, deceased, which will bears date on or about the eighth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, and has been duly proved, a sum of sixty pounds per annum will be available towards the endowment of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted.

"And whereas certain lands and hereditaments, situate within the said parish of Claines, have become vested in us under the provisions of and for the purposes of the herein-mentioned Acts, or of some of them, and we have, in respect of such lands and hereditaments, agreed to make and pay, out of the common fund created by the firstly herein-mentioned Act, to the minister of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, when he shall have been duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the secondly herein-mentioned Act, and to his successors, a grant of one hundred and forty pounds per annum; and also, so soon as a church shall have been erected within and for such district, and shall have been approved by us, and shall have been consecrated as the church of such district, and such district shall have thereupon become a new parish within the meaning of the secondly herein-mentioned Act, to make and pay such further grant from the said fund as will suffice to raise the income of the incumbent of such new parish to three hundred pounds per annum.

"And whereas such grants as aforesaid will be made by an instrument or instruments to be executed by us under our common seal, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

"And whereas a sum of three thousand pounds sterling has been contributed and paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England, by certain persons, to be applied in and towards the provision of a church for the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted.

"And whereas the said sum of three thousand pounds sterling has been paid to us as aforesaid upon the understanding and condition that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) we should recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council that the whole right of the patronage of the said district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereto, should be assigned in the manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Henry, Bishop of the said diocese of Worcester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose, that all that part of the said parish of Claines, which is mentioned and described in the schedule hereunder written, and which is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of The Tything; Worcester.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted as aforesaid, and of the nomination of the incumbent thereto, or (as the case may be), of the incumbent of the new parish which such district will or may hereafter become, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and be vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the said Henry, Bishop of the said diocese of Worcester, and his successors, bishops of the same diocese, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of the 'The Tything Worcester,' being:—

"All that portion of the parish of Claines, in the county of Worcester, and in the diocese of Worcester, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which forms part of the northern suburbs of the city of Worcester; all which said portion of such parishes comprises a part of the tything of Whistones, and is bounded on the south-west by the parish of Saint Nicholas, Worcester, on the south and on the east by the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Worcester, and on the north and on the west by the new parish of Saint George, Claines, all in the county and diocese aforesaid."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly-mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patron and incumbent of the parish out of which it is intended that the district in such scheme recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and such patron and incumbent have respectively signified their assent to the said scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Worcester.

Edmund Harrison.

At the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of March, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of

Her Majesty, chapter ninety-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme or representation, bearing date the fourth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting under the provisions of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Saint Fagan, Aberdare, in the county of Glamorgan, and in the diocese of Llandaff.

"Whereas, by the authority of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, and published in the London Gazette upon the first day of August following, a part of the parish of Aberdare, in the county and diocese aforesaid, was assigned as a district to the consecrated church of Saint Fagan, situate within the limits of the said parish of Aberdare, and the same district was called 'The District Chapelry of Saint Fagan, Aberdare.'

"And whereas the said district chapelry of Saint Fagan, Aberdare, has, under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, become a new parish of the character contemplated by that Act, and by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and by the said above-mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas it has been represented to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint Fagan, Aberdare, should be altered in the manner hereinafter set forth.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Alfred, Bishop of the said diocese of Llandaff (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, recommend, and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation, the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint Fagan, Aberdare, shall be altered so as to include within such new parish all that part of the said parish of Aberdare which is described in the first schedule hereunder written, and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto appended and is thereon coloured green; and also that from and after the day of the same date the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint Fagan, Aberdare, shall be further altered so as to dis sever from such new parish all that part thereof which is described in the second schedule hereunder written, and is delineated and set forth upon the said map hereunto appended and is thereon coloured pink; and that from and after the day of the same date, and without any other assurance in law, the said part of the parish of Aberdare so to be included within the said new parish of Saint Fagan, Aberdare as aforesaid, shall become, and be, and be deemed to be within the limits of and to form part of such new parish; and also that from and after the day of the same date, and without any assurance in law other than as aforesaid, the said part of the new parish of Saint Fagan, Aberdare, so to be dis severed therefrom as aforesaid, shall become, and be, and be deemed to be within the limits of and to form part of the said parish of Aberdare.

"And we further represent, recommend, and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing, recommending, or proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULES to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference.

"SCHEDULE No. 1.

"The territory to be annexed to the new parish of Saint Fagan, Aberdare, in the county of Glamorgan, and in the diocese of Llandaff, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Aberdare, in the said county and diocese, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the west, on the north-west, and on part of the north-east by the new parish of Saint Fagan, Aberdare aforesaid, and on all other sides, that is to say, on the remaining part of the north-east, on the south-east, and on the south-west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish from the parish of Aberdare aforesaid, at the point near to the south-western end of the bridge which carries the line of the Aberdare Canal Company's Tramway over the River Cynon, where the said line of tramway joins the line of the Gadly's tramway; and extending thence, south-eastward, for a distance of four chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named line of tramway to a point at the north-eastern end of Meirion-street; and extending thence, generally south-westward, along the middle of the said street to its junction with the street or road called or known as Mount Pleasant; and extending thence, first westward, and then south-westward, along the middle of the last-named street or road (thereby passing along the north-western side of the buildings and premises called or known as the Aberdare British Schools) to the junction of the same street or road with Hirwaen-road; and extending thence, north-westward, for a distance of eight and a half chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named road to the boundary at the junction of the same road with Mill-street which divides the said parish of Aberdare from the new parish of Saint Fagan Aberdare aforesaid.

"SCHEDULE No. 2.

"The territory to be dissevered from the said new parish of Saint Fagan, Aberdare, and to be reannexed to the parish of Aberdare aforesaid, being:—

"All that portion of the said new parish of Saint Fagan, Aberdare, which is situate on the south-western bank of the River Cynon aforesaid, at or near to Robert's Town, which said portion of such new parish consists for the most part of the enclosure numbered 562 upon the 1865 scale ordnance map of the said parish of Aberdare and upon the map hereunto annexed, and is bounded on the west, on the south-west, and on the south-east, by the parish of Aberdare aforesaid, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, on the north-east, by an imaginary line commencing at a point on the eastern bank of the said River Cynon, where the boundary which divides the said parish of Aberdare from the new parish of Saint Fagan, Aberdare aforesaid crosses such river, a little to the north-west of the bridge which carries the road or footway leading from the house called or known as Cwm Du Uchaf to Robert's Town aforesaid over the said river; and extending thence, that is, from the said point on the eastern bank of the river aforesaid, north-westward, for a distance of six chains, or thereabouts, along the said eastern bank of the same river, to the point where the said parish boundary recrosses the river, such point being at or near to the junction of the said river with the stream or watercourse which flows past the north-eastern side of the houses and premises called or known as Cynon Side."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme or representation have been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the two cures affected by the arrangements in such scheme or representation recommended or proposed, and such patrons and incumbents have respectively signified their assent to the said scheme or representation.

And whereas the said scheme or representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme or representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-four; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Llandaff.

Edmund Harrison.

At the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of March, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Mark, situate at North End, in the parish of Saint Mary, Portsea, in the county of Southampton, and in the diocese of Winchester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Mark situate, at North End as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Harold, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Saint Mary, Portsea, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Mark, situate at North End as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Mark, North End, Portsea.'

"And with the like consent of the said Edward Harold, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Mark, situate at North End as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that so long as the Reverend John Vanderstegen Stewart, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Saint Mary, Portsea, shall continue to be such vicar or incumbent, all the fees which may be received in respect of such publication, solemnization, or performance at the said church of Saint Mark, situate at North End as aforesaid, shall be paid over by the minister thereof to the said John Vanderstegen Stewart; and provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Mark, North End, Portsea, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Saint Mary, Portsea, in the county of Southampton, and in the diocese of Winchester, which is bounded on the east by the new parish of Saint James, Milton, in the said county and diocese; on the north partly by the said new parish, partly by the united parishes of Widley and Wymering, in the same county and diocese, and partly by Portsmouth Harbour; on the west by the same harbour; on the south partly by the district chapelry of All Saints, Portsea, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and upon the remaining part of the south by an imaginary line commencing at the point in the middle of the street or road called or known as Kingston-crescent, upon the boundary which divides the said district chapelry of All Saints, Portsea, from the parish of Saint Mary, Portsea aforesaid, and extending thence, eastward, from the said boundary, along the middle of the street or road called or known as Kingston-crescent as aforesaid, to its junction with Kingston-road, otherwise called or known as Buckland-road, and extending thence, southward, for a distance of thirty chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-mentioned road, to its junction with New-road, and extending thence, north-eastward, for a distance of twenty-four chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named road to the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Mary, Portsea, from the new parish of Saint James, Milton aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of March, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the twenty-eighth and twenty-ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter twenty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the twenty-eighth and twenty-ninth years of your Majesty, chapter twenty-seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Botolph, situate within the limits of the ancient or reputed parish of Heene, in the ecclesiastical district or parish of West Tarring, in the county of Sussex, and in the diocese of Chichester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Botolph, situate within the limits of the ancient or reputed parish of Heene as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Richard, Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said ecclesiastical district or parish of West Tarring, which is comprised within, and is co-extensive with, the limits of the said ancient or reputed parish of Heene, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Botolph, situate within the limits of the said ancient or reputed parish of Heene as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Botolph, Heene.'

"And with the like consent of the said Richard, Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chichester.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the eleventh day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of All Saints, situate within the limits of the parish of Alton, in the county of Southampton, and in the diocese of Winchester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of All Saints, situate within the limits of the parish of Alton aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Harold, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Alton, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of All Saints, situate within the limits of such parish as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of All Saints, Alton.'

"And with the like consent of the said Edward Harold, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of All Saints, situate within the limits of the said parish of Alton and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that so long as the Reverend William Durst, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Alton, shall continue to be such vicar or incumbent, all the fees which may be received in respect of such publication, solemnization, or performance at the said church of All Saints, situate as aforesaid, shall be paid over by the minister thereof to the said William Durst; and provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of All Saints, Alton, being:—

All that part of the parish of Alton, in the county of Southampton, and in the diocese of Winchester, which is bounded on the south-west partly by the parish of Chawton, in the said county and diocese; on the west partly by the last-named parish, and partly by the parish of Faringdon, in the same county and diocese; on the south-east by the parish of Hartley Mauditt, in the same county and diocese; on the east partly by the parish or parochial chapelry of West Worldham, and partly by the parish of East Worldham, both in the county and diocese aforesaid, and upon all other sides, that is to say, on the north, and on the remaining part of the south-west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides a certain detached portion of the said parish or parochial chapelry of West Worldham from the parish of Alton aforesaid, at a point at the centre of Great Caker Bridge, which carries the road leading from East Worldham to Turk-street, in the town of Alton, over Caker-stream, and extending thence, for a distance of three quarters of a mile, or thereabouts, alternately westward and north-westward, along the middle of the said road (thereby passing over Great Caker Hill and Windmill Hill, and crossing over the line of the Alton Branch of the London and South Western Railway) to the junction of the same road with Turk-street aforesaid, and continuing thence, still north-westward, along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with High-street, and extending thence, south-westward, for a distance of three and a-half chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Little Market-street; and extending thence, first north-westward, and then northward, along the middle of the last-named street, to the point where it enters the south-eastern corner of the Market-place; and extending thence, north-westward, and in a direct line diagonally across the said Market-place to the point at its north-western corner, where it is joined by the high road leading from Alton to Basingstoke (which road at this point was formerly called or known as Lenten-lane, and now is called West-street); and extending thence, for a distance of sixty-seven chains, or thereabouts, first westward, and then south-westward, along the middle of the said high road, to its junction with Whitedown-lane; and extending thence, for a distance of twenty-one chains, or thereabouts, first eastward, and then south-eastward, along the middle of the last-named lane, to the boundary which divides the said parish of Alton from the parish of Chawton aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of March, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the first and second years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and seven; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the eighteenth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the first and second years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and seven; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint James, situate within the limits of the district parish of Saint Mark, Kennington, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Winchester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint James, situate within the limits of the district parish of Saint Mark, Kennington as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Harold, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, and with the consent of the Reverend Edmund Henry Fisher, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarge of the said district parish of Saint Mark, Kennington (in testimony whereof they, the said consenting parties, have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said district parish of Saint Mark, Kennington, which is described in the the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint James, situate within the limits of such district parish as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint James, Kennington.'

"And with the like consents of the said Edward Harold, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, and of the said Edmund Henry Fisher (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint James, Kennington, being:—

"All that part of the district parish of Saint Mark, Kennington, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Winchester, wherein the present Incumbent of such district parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the south-east partly by the parish of Saint Mary Newington, in the said county of Surrey, and in the diocese of London, on the north-west partly by the last-named parish, and partly by the new parish of Saint Philip, Lambeth, in the said county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Winchester aforesaid, on the west partly by the district chapelry of Saint Mary, Lambeth, in the last-named county and diocese, and on all the remaining sides, that is to say: on the remaining part of the west, on the south-west, and on the remaining part of the south-east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said district chapelry of Saint Mary, Lambeth, from the district parish of Saint Mark, Kennington aforesaid, at the point at Kennington-cross where Upper Kennington-lane joins Kennington-road; and extending thence, first southward, and then south-eastward, along the middle of the last-named road to its junction at the Horns Tavern with Kennington Park-road; and extending thence, north-eastward, for a distance of nine chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named road, to the boundary at or near to the northern extremity of Kennington Park, which boundary divides the said district parish of Saint Mark, Kennington, from the parish of Saint Mary, Newington aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

"All that part of the parish of Hornsey, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the south-west partly by the new parish of Saint Mary, Hornsey-rise, partly by the new parish of Saint Mark, Tollington Park, partly by the new parish of Saint Anne, Tollington Park, partly by the new parish of Christ Church, Highbury, and partly by the new parish of Saint Augustine, Highbury New Park, all in the county and diocese aforesaid, on the south-east partly by the district of All Saints, Stoke Newington, and partly by the parish of Stoke Newington, both in the said county and diocese, on the north-east by the last-named parish, and on the remaining side, that is to say on the north, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said last-named parish from the parish of Hornsey aforesaid, at the point at or near to the eastern angle of Finsbury Park, where the road called or known as Green Lanes is intersected by Seven Sisters'-road; and extending thence, south-westward, for a distance of forty-two chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named road, to a point opposite to the southern angle of Finsbury Park aforesaid; and extending thence, north-westward, to and along the wall or fence forming the south-western boundary of the same park, to the point where such wall or fence strikes the footpath on the eastern side of the line of the eastern branch of the Edgware, Highgate, and London Railway; and continuing thence, still north-westward, across the said footpath, to a point in the middle of the said line of railway; and extending thence, for a distance of fifty-one chains, or thereabouts, first northward, and then north-westward, along the middle of the same line of railway (thereby passing over the main line of the Great Northern Railway), to the point where the said Edgware, Highgate, and London Railway crosses over the line of the Tottenham and Hampstead Junction Railway; and extending thence, south-westward, for a distance of fourteen chains, to and along the middle of the last-named line of railway, to the boundary at or near to the north-eastern end of the Crouch Hill Station on the same line of railway, which boundary divides the said parish of Hornsey from the new parish of Saint Mary, Hornsey-rise aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of March, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Town Council of the city and borough of Canterbury, in the county of Kent, have, under the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make further provision for the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the metropolis," presented a petition to Her Majesty in Council, stating that an Order in Council has been issued for closing, with certain exceptions, the burial-grounds within the city and borough of Canterbury; and representing that there is difficulty and inconvenience in providing requisite places of burial for the inhabitants of the parishes in the said city and borough, under the powers of the Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Laws concerning the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the metropolis," and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis," and praying that powers may be vested in the said Town Council for providing places of burial for the parishes, precincts, and places lying within and forming part of the said city and borough of Canterbury.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such petition, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the twenty-eighth day of April next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be published in the London Gazette, and in one of the newspapers usually circulating in the city and borough of Canterbury, one month at least before the said twenty-eighth day of April.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of March, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas Orders in Council have been made, directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyard hereinafter mentioned, from the time specified in such Orders; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in such churchyard be postponed:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyard be postponed as follows:—

In the churchyard of All Saints, Chorlton, in the parish of Manchester, to the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, and in the meantime that interments be limited to those in family vaults and walled graves, existing on the seventh of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, in which each coffin shall be embedded in charcoal, and separately entombed in an air-tight manner, and in earthen graves not less than five feet deep, which can be opened without the exposure of coffins or of remains, for the burial only of widowers or widows of those already interred, on condition that the Sanitary Inspector for the borough of Manchester be informed the day preceding of the time fixed for any intended funeral.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of March, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Hertford College Act, 1874, section two, certain persons therein mentioned were incorporated, under the name of "The Principal, Fellows, and Scholars of Hertford College, in the University of Oxford," with perpetual succession and a common seal; and by such section it was provided that such persons so incorporated, should possess and enjoy all such rights and privileges as are possessed or enjoyed or can be exercised by other Colleges in the University of Oxford:

And whereas by the fifth section of the same Act, it is enacted that, subject to any Act for the time being in force for the government of the said University or of the Colleges therein, the Principal and Fellows for the time being of the said College may from time to time make, rescind, and vary such regulations, ordinances, and statutes for the government of the said College and the good discipline thereof, and the election of the Fellows and Scholars thereof, as to them shall seem meet; provided that no such regulations, ordinances, or statutes shall alter the trusts, intents, purposes, conditions, powers, or provisions mentioned in the third section of this Act; or shall have any effect until the same have been confirmed by the Chancellor of the said University, as Visitor of the College, and shall also have received the approbation of Her Majesty, to be signified by an Order in Council, and forthwith published in the London Gazette, and shall have been laid before Parliament:

And whereas the Principal and Fellows have, in pursuance of the power conferred on them by the said Act, made certain regulations, ordinances, and statutes (hereunto annexed), and such regulations, ordinances, and statutes have been duly confirmed by the Chancellor of the said University. And whereas the said Principal and Fellows have humbly prayed Her Majesty's approbation of the said regulations, ordinances, and statutes.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council, having taken the same into consideration, is pleased to declare, and doth hereby declare, Her approbation of the same.

Edmund Harrison.

STATUTES OF HERTFORD COLLEGE.

Interpretation.

1. "The College" means Hertford College.
- "The Act" means the "Hertford College Act, 1874."
- "The Statutes" and "the Bye-laws" mean the Statutes and Bye-laws respectively of the College in force for the time being.
- "The Principal" means the Principal of the College for the time being.
- "The Fellows" means the Fellows of the College for the time being.
- "College Living" means and includes a Living in the gift of the College, and a Living in respect of the presentations to which the Fellows of the College, or any of them, as such, have any right, interest, or priority.

Words importing the singular number, only, include the plural number.

Words importing the plural number, only, include the singular number.

The Governing Body.

2. The Principal and Fellows shall constitute the Governing Body, and shall, except as in the Statutes or in the Act is otherwise provided, exercise all the powers of the Corporation constituted by the Act, and have control over all matters concerning the College, and shall, in particular—

- (1.) Regulate the administration and discipline of the College;
 - (2.) Control the expenditure and property thereof;
 - (3.) Fix the payments to be made by the members thereof;
 - (4.) Regulate the election of Fellows and Scholars and Exhibitioners, and the appointment of the Officers of the College;
- and shall have power to make, alter, and annul from time to time Bye-laws relating thereto.

3. All matters shall be decided by the Governing Body at meetings summoned by the Principal, or, in case of his absence, or incapacity to act, or if the Principalship be vacant, by the Vice-Principal, if there be one, and if there be no Vice-Principal, by the Senior Fellow in residence.

The Principal, or the Vice-Principal, or the Senior Fellow in residence, as the case may be, shall summon such meetings whenever the interests of the College shall require, or whenever any two Fellows shall so request.

At such meetings the Principal, Vice-Principal, or Senior Fellow present, as the case may be, shall be the Chairman. All questions shall be decided by a majority of those present and voting, and if the votes be otherwise equal, the Chairman shall be entitled to an additional vote.

4. The Governing Body may enforce observance of the Statutes and Bye-laws by such reasonable penalties as they shall think fit.

5. Three members of the Governing Body constitute a quorum.

6. Notice shall be given to all the members of the Governing Body of any meeting at which it is intended to transact business of importance, and also whenever notice is required by the Statutes; and such notice shall be deemed to be given by a letter, addressed to the last known address of each member, at least seven clear days before the day of meeting.

The Principal.

7. The office of Principal shall be tenable for life.

8. The Principal shall reside in the College at least seven weeks in each Term, Easter and Trinity Terms being for this purpose considered as one Term, provided that, in case of his sickness or for any other urgent cause, it shall be lawful for the Visitor to dispense with his residence for such period as may seem to the Visitor to be required by the necessities of the case.

9. If at any time it shall appear that the Principal has become, and will for a considerable period continue to be, incapable of performing the duties of his office, the senior Fellow in residence shall, upon the request of any three or more Fellows, convene a meeting of the Governing Body, after notice, for the consideration of the matter; and it shall be lawful for a majority of the Fellows present at such meeting to present a petition to the Visitor setting forth the circumstances of the case, and praying the Visitor to inquire into the truth of them, and the Visitor shall institute such enquiry accordingly; and, if upon such enquiry, or upon a petition presented by the Principal (as the case may be), it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Visitor that the Principal has become, and will for a considerable period continue to be, incapable of performing his duties, then the Visitor shall nominate one of the resident Fellows to be Vice-Principal of the College, and shall assign to him, in addition to his Fellowship, such part, not exceeding one-third of the Principal's emoluments as the Visitor may think fit, provided that the Principal be at liberty to retain his lodgings. And such Vice-Principal shall, so long as the Principal shall retain his office and be incapable of performing its duties, be entitled to receive the proportion so assigned to him, and shall exercise and perform all the functions and duties, and have all the powers and authorities of Principal, except the power of consenting to any diminution of the Principal's emoluments, and shall be bound to residence in the same manner, and shall be liable to deprivation for the same causes and in the same manner as if he were Principal. If any Vice-Principal shall die, resign his office, vacate or be deprived of his Fellowship, or become incapable, the Visitor shall forthwith appoint another resident Fellow to be Vice-Principal in his room. It shall be lawful for the Visitor, if at any time he shall be satisfied that the Principal's incapacity has ceased, and that he is capable of performing the duties of his office, to reinstate him in his powers and functions and in the receipt of his whole emoluments.

10. If the Principal shall be guilty of conduct which in the judgment of two-thirds of the Fellows renders his deprivation necessary to the welfare of the College, it shall be lawful for the Visitor, upon petition signed by two-thirds of the Fellows, and after due enquiry, to deprive him of his office, and the decision of the Visitor upon such petition shall be final.

11. The Governing Body may at any time hereafter, if they shall think fit, commute the emoluments of the Principalship wholly or partially for a stipend or annual sum of money payable in any other manner out of the available revenues of the College, or for a certain proportion of such revenues; and may fix the time at which such commutation shall take effect, and may also from time to time regulate, increase, or diminish the Principal's emoluments, whether commuted or uncommuted, as they shall think proper; provided that no exercise of this power shall affect the person then being Principal without his consent; provided also that the Visitor, upon petition of any two members of the Governing Body, presented within three months after the exercise of such power by the Governing Body, may disallow any such commutation, regulation, increase or diminution, if he shall think fit.

12. The Principal shall, subject to the veto of three-fourths of the members of the Governing Body (other than the Principal), nominate the Tutors of the College: provided that this veto shall not be applicable until after the next vacancy in the office of Principal.

13. The Principal shall appoint and dismiss the servants of the College.

14. The Principal shall superintend the education and discipline of the College, and, in conjunction with the Bursar, the property and expenditure thereof.

15. The Principal shall keep the common seal of the College, and also all records, documents, and muniments (other than books of account and other documents in ordinary use) belonging to the College, which it shall be desirable to preserve, provided that such records, documents, and muniments shall be open to the inspection of any Fellow at his reasonable request.

The Fellows.

16. The sum of £30,000 transferred to the College under the provisions of the Act, shall be considered as the endowment of five Fellowships, and the income derived from such sum shall be divided equally between the holders for the time being of such Fellowships.

17. The provisions contained in the fourteen following sections of these Statutes shall apply to the Fellowships already founded, and also to all Fellowships which may be hereafter founded, so far as such provisions shall not be expressly modified by the terms on which the endowments of such Fellowships shall be accepted by the Governing Body.

18. The annual day of election to Fellowships shall be the twenty-first day of December.

19. The Governing Body shall elect such persons to be Fellows as, after examination in such subjects as the Governing Body shall with reference to each vacancy determine, the Governing Body shall deem to be the most deserving to be Fellows of the College, and best qualified to promote its interests as a place of Religion, Learning, and Education; provided that if two-thirds of the total number of the Governing Body, other than the Principal at a meeting convened after notice at least thirty days before the day of election, shall, with the consent of the Principal, determine to elect any person to be a Fellow without examination, the Governing Body shall elect such person.

20. Persons elected as Fellows shall be persons who have never been married, or widowers, and shall have passed all the examinations required for the degree of B.A. in the Universities of Oxford, Cambridge, or Dublin.

21. If there shall be no candidate for a vacant Fellowship who in the judgment of the Governing Body is qualified to be elected to a Fellowship of the College, the election to such vacant Fellowship shall be postponed for such time, not less than three calendar months as the Governing Body shall determine.

22. The Governing Body shall not be required to elect more than two Fellows in any one year.

23. A Fellowship shall be vacated only on one of the following occurrences, that is to say—

(1.) On marriage;

(2.) On acceptance of a College living of greater value than £450 per annum (nett), such value in case of question to be determined by the Principal with appeal to the Visitor;

(3.) On acceptance of the Principalship of the College, or of a Fellowship or Senior Studentship in, or a place on the Governing Body of, any other College in a University;

(4.) If any fellow shall be guilty of conduct which in the judgment of two-thirds of the remainder of the Governing Body, subject to the right of appeal to the Visitor as hereinafter provided, renders him unfit to remain a Fellow of the College.

24. Such conditions as to residence and participation in College work may be imposed at the election of future Fellows as the Governing Body may in each case determine.

25. A Fellow elect shall be on probation for one year, during which time he shall receive the emoluments of his Fellowship, but shall not be a member of the Governing Body; upon the expiration of such period it shall be lawful for two-thirds of the other Fellows, with the consent of the Principal, to declare that it is not desirable that such election should be confirmed, and thereupon the Fellowship shall be vacated; provided that when, in accordance with the provisions of Section 19 of these Statutes, a Fellow shall be elected without examination, the Governing Body may, if they think fit, admit him without probation.

26. In case of vacation of a Fellowship by acceptance of a College living, the Fellow vacating shall continue to receive the emoluments of his Fellowship for one year from the date of such acceptance, and shall at any time during such period, on resignation of such living, be entitled to resume his position as a Fellow, provided that in any case on marriage a Fellowship shall be vacated, and all rights to the emoluments thereof shall thereupon cease and determine.

27. During the period which may elapse between the vacation of a Fellowship and the election of a person to fill the same the emoluments of such Fellowship shall be carried to the Domus Fund.

28. The Governing Body shall give at least thirty days notice of every intended election, and of the conditions thereof, provided that when the Governing Body determine to elect to a vacant Fellowship without examination no such notice need be given.

29. If a Fellowship shall be vacated within thirty days before the annual day of election the election to such Fellowship shall be postponed for such time, not less than three calendar months, as the Governing Body shall determine.

30. It shall be lawful for the Governing Body, at a meeting convened after notice, to elect distinguished persons to Honorary Fellowships within the College. Persons so elected shall be deemed Honorary Fellows, and shall not be members of the Governing Body, or receive any emoluments whatever; but shall be entitled to enjoy such other privileges and advantages as the Governing Body shall from time to time determine. The conditions of eligibility to, and tenure of, Honorary Fellowships, and the mode of election thereto, shall be determined by the Governing Body from time to time. Honorary Fellows shall not in the construction of these Statutes be counted among the Fellows of the College, nor Honorary Fellowships among the Fellowships of the College.

31. Fellows and Honorary Fellows respectively shall inter se take seniority according to the date of their election.

Scholarships and Exhibitions.

32. The provisions contained in the nine following sections shall apply to existing Scholarships and Exhibitions and the holders thereof, so far as is not otherwise provided by the terms of their foundation, or by any Act, Statute, or Ordinance in force relating thereto, and shall also apply to Scholarships and Exhibitions which may be hereafter founded and the holders thereof, so far as such provisions shall not be expressly modified by the terms on which the endowment of such Scholarships and Exhibitions shall be accepted by the Governing Body.

33. The election to Scholarships and Exhibitions shall as far as possible be held once in each year on such day as may from time to time be determined by the Governing Body.

34. The Governing Body shall elect such persons to be Scholars or Exhibitioners as shall, after examination in such subjects as the Governing Body shall with reference to each vacancy prescribe, be in their judgment best qualified to be Scholars or Exhibitioners of the College.

35. If there be no candidate in the judgment of the Governing Body qualified to be elected to a Scholarship or Exhibition of the College, there shall be no election to such Scholarship or Exhibition.

36. Candidates for Scholarships and Exhibitions shall satisfy the Governing Body by testimonial or otherwise as to their moral character.

37. The limit of age of such candidates and the conditions of residence and study to be observed by them, if elected, shall be such as shall in each case be prescribed by the Governing Body.

38. A Scholarship or Exhibition shall be vacated on marriage, or on the election of the Scholar or Exhibitioner to a Fellowship in the College, or to a place on the foundation of any other College in a University, and if the name of any Scholar or Exhibitioner shall be removed from the Books of the College, the Scholarship or Exhibition held by him shall be thereupon vacated.

39. It shall be lawful for the Governing Body, subject to the right of appeal to the Visitor as hereinafter provided, to declare any Scholarship or Exhibition vacant, if in their judgment, the conduct of the Scholar or Exhibitioner holding the same has rendered such a course just and desirable.

40. If the emoluments of any Scholarship or Exhibition shall accrue to any elected Scholar or Exhibitioner before his coming into residence, such emoluments, or such part thereof as the Governing Body may in each case determine, shall not be payable to such Scholar or Exhibitioner unless and until he shall have come into residence as a member of the College.

41. During the period which may elapse between the vacation of a Scholarship or Exhibition and the election of a person to fill the same, the emoluments of such Scholarship or Exhibition shall be carried to the Domus Fund.

Tutors.

42. The number and remuneration of the Tutors of the College shall be such as the Governing Body shall from time to time determine, provided that the exercise of this power shall not affect the income of any person then being a Tutor without his consent.

43. The Principal, with the consent of the Governing Body at a meeting convened after notice, shall have power to dismiss any Tutor of the College.

44. The Tutors shall superintend the studies and conduct of the pupils committed to them, and shall, in conjunction with the Principal and the Dean, be charged with the discipline of the College.

Dean, Bursar, Lecturers.

45. The Dean, Bursar or Bursars, Lecturers, and other officers of the College, not herein otherwise mentioned shall (subject to the conditions attached to any endowments affecting the same) be appointed and removed by the Governing Body, and shall, in addition to the duties herein elsewhere mentioned, perform such duties and receive such remuneration (subject as aforesaid) as the Governing Body shall from time to time prescribe.

46. The Dean shall reside within the College, if required to do so by the Governing Body. He shall present for degrees, and shall in conjunction with the Principal and Tutors be charged with the discipline of the College.

47. The Bursar or Bursars shall in conjunction with the Principal have the care of the property and expenditure of the College, and shall once in each year lay before the Governing Body a statement in such form as the Governing Body may from time to time determine of the revenue and expenditure of the College during the last preceding year, to be audited by the Governing Body or by such persons or persons as the Governing Body may appoint in that behalf. Such statement shall be preserved among the records of the College.

Commoners.

48. Commoners shall be admitted by the Principal or, in his absence, by the Dean, subject to the veto of the Governing Body. Each candidate for admission shall present satisfactory testimonials of moral character; and none shall be admitted to matriculation but such as shall have been examined and approved in respect of intellectual sufficiency by the Educational Committee.

49. All Scholars, Exhibitioners, and Commoners shall on their admission to the College deposit reasonable caution money, and pay such reasonable fees as the Governing Body shall from time to time appoint.

50. The Governing Body shall have the power of removing from the College books, the name of any member of the College not being on the Foundation.

The Visitor.

51. It shall be lawful for the Visitor once in every ten years (or oftener if and whenever it shall appear to him expedient for enforcing the due observance of the Statutes to do so), without any request or application by the College or any of its members, to visit the College, and to exercise at such visitation all the powers which are by law incident to the office of Visitor of a College. The Governing Body shall, so often as they may be required to do so, answer in writing touching any matter as to which the Visitor may deem it expedient to enquire, for the purpose of ascertaining whether the Statutes are duly observed.

52. As often as any question shall arise, on which the Governing Body shall be unable to agree, depending wholly or in part on the construction of any Statute or Bye-law, it shall be lawful for any three members of the Governing Body to submit the same to the Visitor, and it shall be lawful for him to declare what is the true construction of such Statute or Bye-law, with reference to the case submitted to him, and his judgment shall be final.

53. It shall be lawful for the Principal or for any Fellow, if he shall conceive himself aggrieved by any act or decision of the Governing Body, and for any Scholar or Exhibitioner who may have been deprived of his Scholarship or Exhibition, to appeal against such act or decision, or sentence, to the Visitor, and it shall be lawful for the Visitor to adjudicate on such appeal, and to reverse or vary such act, decision, or sentence, as he shall deem just, and the judgment of the Visitor shall be final.

Domus Fund.

54. All sums standing to the credit of the Domus Fund, shall be at the disposal of the Governing Body, for any purpose calculated for the benefit of the College, but no part of such sums shall be applied in augmentation of any Fellowship in the College, or of the Principalship.

Divine Service.

55. Divine Service, according to the Liturgy of the Church of England, shall be daily performed in the College Chapel during full Term, at such hour or hours as the Governing Body shall from time to time prescribe.

Date.

56. These Statutes shall be construed to speak and take effect as if framed immediately before the same shall have been laid before Parliament, according to the provisions of the Act.

The above fifty-six Statutes have been made by us, the Principal and Fellows of Hertford College, under the powers conferred on us by "The Hertford College Act, 1874."

Given under our Common Seal, this 6th day of February, 1875.

Confirmed by me, as Visitor of Hertford College, according to the provisions of "The Hertford College Act, 1874."

(Signed) Salisbury,
Chancellor of the University of Oxford.

Council Office, March 17, 1875.

WHEREAS the Governing Body of Westminster School, in virtue of the powers conferred upon them by "The Public Schools Act, 1868," and of every other power enabling them in that behalf, did, on the sixteenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, make a Statute relating to the constitution of the said Governing Body of that School.

And whereas the said Statute has been this day laid before Her Majesty in Council, the same is published in the London Gazette, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act.

And notice is hereby given, that it is lawful for the bodies or persons authorized so to do, in that Act, within two months from the date of the publication of this notification, to petition Her Majesty in Council to withhold Her approval from the whole or any part of such Statute.

We, the Governing Body of St. Peter's College, Westminster, commonly called Westminster School, by virtue of the powers conferred by the eleventh Section of "The Public Schools Act, 1868," do by means of a Statute (a copy of which is hereto annexed marked A), alter the Statute approved by Her Majesty in Council, the seventh day of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, and entitled "A Statute for determining and establishing the constitution of the Governing Body of Saint Peter's College, Westminster, commonly called Westminster School," and we humbly pray that Her Majesty in Council will be graciously pleased to approve the alterations so made.

STATUTE A.

I. This Statute shall take effect from and after the approval thereof by Her Majesty in Council.

II. The clauses mentioned in the first column of the Schedule hereto, shall be read and construed as if the words set forth in the second column were inserted in the stead of the words mentioned in the third column, or were inserted in the place specified in the third column, as the case may be.

SCHEDULE.

No. of Clause.	Words to be inserted.	Place of Insertion.
1	"Not less than three, and not more than five." "One Member to be elected from time to time, under regulations to be made by the Governing Body, by such Masters of Westminster School as are Graduates of any English University, and have been on the regular staff of the School for at least one whole year immediately preceding the election of such Member."	Instead of the words "not less than two, and not more than four." At end of clause after "Governing Body for the time being."
3	"Not being a Master of Westminster School."	After "any person."
6	"Five."	Instead of the word "seven."

Given under the Common Seal of the Governing Body of Westminster School, this sixteenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

(Signed)

A. P. STANLEY,
Chairman of the Governing Body of Westminster School.

786. To William Thomas Sugg, of Vincent Works, Vincent-street, in the city of Westminster, for the invention of "improvements in lamp burners."
788. To Charles Tallis, Wine Merchant, and Elias Cave, Aerated Water Manufacturer, both of the parish of Saint Helier, in the Island of Jersey, for the invention of "improvements in bottles for containing aerated or other liquids, and in closing or stopping the same and extracting the liquids therefrom, and in machinery or apparatus for filling such bottles."
790. To John Collier, Carpet Manufacturer, and John Marsden, Mechanic, both of Halifax, in the county of York, for the invention of "improvements in looms."
794. And to Thomas Dobson, of 6, Lord-street, Liverpool, for the invention of "improvements in machinery for cutting and paring linseed oil cakes and other similar substances."
- On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners, on the 3rd day of March, 1875.
796. To Eliza Lawrance, of Broadlist, in the county of Devon, Widow, for the invention of "a new medicinal compound or preparation for the cure or removal of corns or other callosities on the feet."
798. To Robert Adams, of 25, Falmouth-road, Great Dover-street, Southwark, in the county of Surrey, for the invention of "improvements in spring hinges or door springs."
800. To Henry Burton Fare, of Bolton, in the county of Lancaster, for the invention of "an improved cap for feeding or other bottles."
802. To George Lauson, of Crowton, Northwich, in the county of Cheshire, Contractor, for the invention of "new or improved modes and means of constructing rails for railways."
806. To Marshall Arthur Wier, of No. 33, Abchurch-lane, in the city of London, for the

- invention of "improvements in the means of igniting gas, and in apparatus employed therein."
808. To Richard George, of Alma-road, Kentish Town, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improvements in stoves."
810. To Samuel Henry Johnson, of Lea Bank Works, Warton-road, Stratford, in the county of Essex, for the invention of "improvements in the method of and apparatus for the manufacture of glucose."
814. And to Robert Hadfield, of Drummond-street, London, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of railway and other wheels."
- On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 4th day of March, 1875.
816. To Michael Scott, of No. 4, Sardinia-terrace, Glasgow, in the county of Lanark, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of cast steel ingots, and in apparatus for casting and rolling the same, parts of which are applicable to rolling iron."
817. To Ernest George Cooke Bomford, of Fladbury, near Pershore, in the county of Worcester, Farmer, for the invention of "new or improved machinery or apparatus to be attached to certain kinds of reaping machines, for the purpose of binding into sheaves or bundles wheat or other grain cut by the said machines."
818. To Edmund Chiverton, of Middle-street, Southsea, in the county of Hants, Gas Inspector, for the invention of "improved means of and apparatus for lighting gas lamps and burners."
819. To Walter Parker Smith, of Lostwithiel, in the county of Cornwall, Engineer, for the invention of "improved apparatus or mechanism for interlocking railway signalling switch and facing point apparatus."
820. To William Lloyd Wise, of Chandos-chambers, Buckingham-street, Adelphi, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "an improved continuous horizontal apparatus for washing or absorbing gas or vapours, or for distilling liquids."—A communication to him from abroad by Ernest Solvay, of Brussels, in the Kingdom of Belgium, Manufacturer.
822. To Thomas McGrah, of 42, Church-street, Sheffield, in the county of York, Sewing Machine and Sewing Machine Attachment Maker, for the invention of "improvements in sewing machines and sewing machine stands."
823. To George Beaumont, of the city of Manchester, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in the fittings of window sashes for railway and other carriages, and for other purposes."
824. To William Lupton, Henry Edward Lupton, and John Clegg Lupton, of Grange-lane Iron Works, Accrington, in the county of Lancaster, for the invention of "improvements in self-acting side temples used in looms for weaving textile fabrics."
825. To Robert Chapman Anderson, of Finchley, in the county of Middlesex, Civil Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for generating steam."
826. To John Henry Johnson, of 47, Lincoln's-inn-fields, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, for the invention of "improvements in traps or apparatus for separating liquids from vapours or gaseous fluids."—A communication to him from abroad by Paul Eugène Geneste, Junior, Charles Georges Herscher, and Ernest Herscher, all of Paris, in the Republic of France, Engineers.

827. And to John Scoffern, of the Canal Bank Works, Willesden Junction, in the county of Middlesex, Bachelor of Medicine, and George Tidcombe, Junior, of Watford, in the county of Hertford, Paper Maker's Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture and treatment of paper and mill board."

On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 5th day of March, 1875.

828. To Edme Augustin Chamero, of Faubourg St. Martin, No. 162, Paris, Manufacturer, for the invention of "an improved registering, controlling, and weighing machine."

829. To Frederick Edward Blacket Beaumont, of No. 2, Westminster-chambers, Victoria-street, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improvements in percussive rock drills."

830. To William Hilton and Francis Rowland Clarke, both of Heaton Norris, in the county of Lancaster, for the invention of "an improved steam trap."

831. To Alfred Moore, of No. 356, Euston-road, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for applying a liquid coating to flexible metallic fabrics or sheets."

832. To Thomas Christy, jr., of No. 155, Fenchurch-street, London, for the invention of "a new or improved process for accelerating tanning."—A communication to him from abroad by Theodore Rampacher, 82, Boulevard St. Marcel, Paris.

833. To Samuel Farnsworth, of Mansfield, in the county of Nottingham, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in valve apparatus for controlling the passage of water or other fluids."

834. To James Alfred Balshaw, of Whitchurch, in the county of Salop, for the invention of "improvements in gloves & other hand-coverings."

835. To James Pilbrow, of Tunbridge Wells, in the county of Kent, for the invention of "a new or improved construction of skate or apparatus adapted for use upon artificial ice or other smooth surface."

836. To George Llewellyn Brown, of Glasgow, in the county of Lanark, North Britain, for the invention of "improvements in piling cloths and soft goods, and in the means employed therefor."

837. To George Livingstone, of Pimlico, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improvements in carts for the collection and removal of slop, mud, or dust, and for the conveyance of other materials."

838. To John Raper Humphries, of Middlesborough-on-Tees, in the county of York, Plumber, for the invention of "improved apparatus for preparing the joints of leaden and other soft metal pipes."

839. To John Cooke, of Langley Old Hall, in the county of Durham, Mining Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in the construction of rotary engines and pumps."

840. To Edmund Shackleton, Overlooker, and John Peel, Overlooker, both of Bradford, in the county of York, for the invention of "improvements in looms for weaving."

841. To Alexander Parkes, of Gravelly-hill, Erdington, in the county of Warwick, Manufacturer, for the invention of "improvements in furnaces for metallurgical operations, which improvements may also be applied to steam boiler and other furnaces."

842. To William Robert Lake, of the firm of Haseltine, Lake, & Co., Patent Agents, Southampton-buildings, London, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of metal dies."—A communication to him from abroad by George F. Champney, of Berlin, Prussia.

844. And to Stephen Cotton, of Belfast, in the county of Antrim, Ireland, Ironfounder, for the invention of "improvements in machinery for preparing flax and other similar fibrous substances."

On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 6th day of March, 1875.

846. To Howard John Kennard, of No. 67, Upper Thames-street, in the city of London, for the invention of "improvements in stoves and flue pipes."

847. To Frederick William Stoker, of the Moor Iron Works, Stockton-on-Tees, in the county of Durham, for the invention of "improvements in mechanical puddlers."

848. To Enoch Openshaw Taylor, of Marsden, in the county of York, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in looms for weaving."

London Assurance Office.

No. 7, Royal Exchange, London,
March 17, 1875.

THE Court of Directors of the London Assurance Corporation do hereby give notice, that a General Court will be held (by adjournment) at their offices in the Royal Exchange, on Wednesday, the 24th day of March instant, from half-past twelve till half-past one o'clock in the afternoon, for determination by ballot of the following question, viz.:—

"That this Corporation do divide forty-five shillings per share, free of income tax, to the Proprietors of the Consolidated Capital Stock for the half-year ending at Lady-day, 1875."

N.B. By an Act of Parliament passed in the seventh year of His late Majesty George the Third, no person will be permitted to vote at the said ballot who has not been possessed of his or her stock six calendar months preceding, except in the cases provided for in the said Act.

J. P. Laurence, Secretary.

The Governor and Company of Copper Miners in England, A.D. 1691.

No. 27, Martin's-Lane, Cannon-Street,
London, E.C., March 18, 1875.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Annual General Court of this Company will be held at the Terminus Hotel, Cannon-street, in the city of London, on Tuesday, the 6th April next, at twelve o'clock, noon, precisely.

The following gentlemen,

Thomas Barkworth, Esq., Assistant,

James Whatman, Esq., Assistant,

will retire from the Court of Assistants, in pursuance of the provisions of the Company's Charters and Acts of Parliament, but are eligible for re-election.

And notice is hereby further given, that at the conclusion of the Annual General Court, an Extraordinary General Court of the Company will be held for the election of a Governor in the room of Alexander Beattie, Esq., who has been permitted, in accordance with the terms of the Charter, to surrender and resign his office, which he holds only until his successor be appointed; and also for the election of one or more Assistants.

The Transfer Books will be closed from Tuesday, the 23rd instant, to Tuesday, the 6th proximo, both days inclusive.

By order of the Court of Assistants,
Thos. R. Steer, Secretary.

Briton Medical and General Life Association.
Chief Offices, 429, Strand, London.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Twenty-first Annual General Meeting of the Briton Medical and General Life Association will be held at the Chief Offices, No. 429, Strand, London, on Wednesday, the 31st day of March instant, at twelve o'clock, for the purpose of receiving the Directors' report and balance sheet for the past year, the election of Directors and Auditors, the declaration of a Dividend, and for the transaction of the ordinary business of such meetings.

And notice is hereby further given, that the Transfer Books and Register of Members of the said Association will be closed from the 22nd instant to the 3rd April inclusive.

Dated this 16th day of March, 1875.

By order of the Board,
John Messent, Actuary and Secretary.

West New Jersey Society.

A GENERAL Court of Proprietors is to be held at the chambers of F. Wickings Smith, Esq., No. 63, Lincoln's-inn-fields, on Thursday, the 25th March instant, at four o'clock precisely, for examining the accounts for the year preceding, and electing a President, Vice-President, Treasurer, Secretary, and Committeemen for the year ensuing.

Wm. Whiteside, Secretary.

Lead Office, March 9, 1875.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a General Court of the Corporation of the Governor and Company for Smelting down Lead with Pit Coal and Sea Coal will be held at the Company's House, in Martin's-lane, Cannon-street, on Tuesday, the 6th April, at twelve o'clock at noon precisely, being a Half-yearly Court. The Governor and Court of Assistants regret that the accounts for the past year do not justify them in recommending a Dividend. The Transfer Book will be shut on Thursday, the 25th instant, and opened again on Wednesday, the 7th April following.
