AT the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of March, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the twenty-sixth of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, in the words following, viz.:

"Whereas by the fifth section of an Act passed in the twenty-ninth year of your Majesty's reign, cap. eighty-nine, entitled 'An Act to provide for the better government of Greenwich Hospital,' it is, amongst other things, enacted, it shall be lawful for your Majesty in Council, from time to time, by Order in Council, to appoint such pensions as seem fit to men of the Royal Navy and Marines, to be enjoyed by them so long only as they are not on the establishment or inmates of Greenwich Hospital, but in addition to any half-pay, pension, or other allowances coming to them otherwise than under any such Order in Council; and whereas by your Majesty's regulations for the government of your Majesty's Naval Service, the highest amount of naval pension which we can award for wounds and injuries received on duty is, in the case of seamen, two shillings and three pence a-day, and in the case of marines two shillings a-day; and whereas Thomas Jesse Hill, when serving as able-bodied seaman in your Majesty's ship 'Royal Adelaide,' was severely injured on duty by the explosion of a gun cartridge, whereby he lost his right arm, the sight of one eye, and almost the sight of the other, besides being much disfigured; and whereas we are of opinion that the sum of two shillings and three pence a-day is insufficient compensation for such serious injuries, we do, therefore, beg leave to recommend that your Majesty will be graciously pleased, by your Order in Council, to sanction the award of a special pension of one shilling a-day from the funds of Greenwich Hospital to the said Thomas Jesse Hill, which is nevertheless most humbly submitted."

Her Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

To the Churchwardens and Overseers of the several Parishes comprised in the said Unions, and of the said separate Parishes;

And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS by certain General and other Orders addressed to the Guardians of the Poor of the several unions and separate parishes in the Metropolis, the Poor Law Commissioners and the Poor Law Board, respectively, prescribed regulations relating to the appointment of officers and assistants by Boards of Guardians of the said unions and separate parishes, and defining the duties of such officers;

And whereas it is expedient with regard to any officer who has been or may be appointed to take charge of and distribute the stores for outdoor relief in kind, that the duties of such officer should be prescribed, and other regulations made in respect of his office:

Now therefore, we, the Local Government Board, in pursuance of the powers given by the statutes in that behalf, hereby order that with respect to all officers now or hereafter appointed by Boards of Guardians in the several unions and separate parishes in the Metropolis to take charge of and to distribute the stores for outdoor relief in kind, the following regulations shall be observed:

The Clerk shall report to the Guardians at the said meeting the result of his examinations.

Art. 3. The Auditor shall, at the close of each audit of the accounts of the union or parish, transmit to the Local Government Board a statement in the form (G) in the schedule to this Order, showing which is not kept, or is imperfectly kept, or kept in a form different from that prescribed by the Local Government Board, and shall deliver a copy thereof to the Guardians, and if he find that there has been no default, shall report to that effect to the Local Government Board in the manner required with reference to the accounts of the other officers of the union or parish.
