WHEREAS Her Majesty the Queen has power and jurisdiction within the Dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in this behalf by the Foreign Jurisdiction Acts or otherwise in Her vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order shall commence and have effect from and immediately after the expiration of thirty days from the date of its publication in the London Gazette.

2. Every Order in Council relating to the matters comprised in this Order is hereby repealed; but this repeal shall not affect any liability accrued under any such Order, or interfere with the institution or prosecution of any proceeding in respect of any such liability.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 13th day of May, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN’s Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the tenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled “An Act for the more easy recovery of small “debts and demands in England,” it is, among other things, enacted that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that the said Act be put in force in such county or counties as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, should seem fit, and to divide the whole or part of any such county (including all counties of cities, and counties of towns, cities, boroughs, towns, ports, and places, liberties, and franchises therein contained or thereunto adjoining) into districts; and to order that the County Court should be holden for the recovery of debts and demands, under the said Act, in each of such districts; and from time to time to alter such districts, as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, should seem fit; and from time to time, with the advice aforesaid, to declare by what name, and in what towns and places the County Court should be holden in each district:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by an Order in Council of the ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, to order that the said Act be put in force in the counties and places therein specified, and the same was put in force accordingly:

And whereas by certain other Acts made and passed in the thirteenth and fourteenth, in the sixteenth, in the twentieth, in the twenty-second, in the twenty-ninth, and in the thirty-first years of the reign of Her Majesty, the provisions of the said recited Act have been amended and extended:

And whereas it has been represented that it would be of advantage to the public, if the County Courts hereinafter mentioned were ordered to be holden at some place within their respective districts in addition to the place at which such Courts are now respectively holden:

Her Majesty, having taken the premises into consideration, is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five,

The County Court of Lancashire, holden at Ormskirk, shall be holden at Southport as well as at Ormskirk.

The County Court of Hampshire, holden at Christchurch, shall be holden at Bournemouth as well as at Christchurch.

The County Court of Norfolk, holden at Little Walsingham, shall be holden at Fakenham as well as at Little Walsingham.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 13th day of May, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN’s Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the twenty-fifth of April, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, in the words following, viz.:

“Whereas by the fifth section of an Act passed in the twenty-ninth year of your Majesty’s reign, chapter eighty-nine, entitled ‘An Act to provide for the better government of Greenwich Hospital,’ it is, amongst other things, enacted, it shall be lawful for your Majesty in Council, from time to time, by Order in Council, to appoint such pensions as seem fit to men of the Royal Navy and Marines, to be enjoyed by them so long as they are not on the establishment or inmates of Greenwich Hospital, but in addition to any half-pay, pension, or other allowances coming to them otherwise than under such Order in Council; and whereas by your Majesty’s regulations for the government of your Majesty’s Naval Service, the highest amount of naval pension which we can award for wounds and injuries on duty in the case of Seamen, is two shillings and three pence a-day, and in the case of Marines two shillings a-day; and whereas Nicholas Broad, when serving as leading seaman on board your Majesty's ship 'Valorous,' was severely injured on duty by the explosion of the charge of an Armstrong gun, whereby he lost his right arm, the entire sight of his left eye, and the sight of his right eye was much impaired, besides sustaining severe burns and other wounds; and whereas we are of opinion that the sum of two shillings and three pence a-day is insufficient compensation for such serious injuries, we do, therefore, beg leave to recommend that your Majesty will be graciously pleased, by your Order in Council, to sanction the award of a special pension of one shilling a-day from the funds of Greenwich Hospital to the said Nicholas Broad."

Her Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 13th day of May, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the three hundred and thirty-third section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted that, subject to the provisions contained in the fifth part of that Act, it shall be lawful for every Pilotage Authority, by Bye-law made with the consent of Her Majesty in Council, from time to time to do within its district all or any of the things specified in that behalf in the said section, and to "repeal or alter any Bye-law made in exercise of the above powers, and to make a new Bye-law in lieu thereof."

And whereas the Pilotage Board of the port of Newport, Monmouthshire, being the Pilotage Authority for the port of Newport within the meaning of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," have, in exercise of the powers in them vested by that Act, made and submitted for the consent of Her Majesty, certain Bye-laws and regulations which have been approved by Order in Council, dated the thirtieth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, two of which Bye-laws (No. 1 and No. 2) fix respectively the rates to be paid to pilots when piloting vessels from the port of Newport to Lundy Island, or vice versa, and the rates of remuneration to be paid to pilots for certain special duties:

And whereas the said Pilotage Board have made, and submitted, for the approval of Her Majesty, the repeal of the above-mentioned two Bye-laws No. 1 and No. 2, and the substitution therefor of two new Bye-laws, copies of which are set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed:

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that the said new Bye-laws are reasonable and proper:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in Her by the said "Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to approve, and doth hereby approve of, and signify Her consent to, the said new Bye-laws, in lieu of the Bye-laws No. 1 and No. 2 hereinbefore mentioned.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 13th day of May, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1855," it is enacted that accounts shall be kept of all sums expended in the construction, repair, or maintenance of any lighthouse, buoy, or beacon in the British possessions abroad, for which dues are levied under the said Act now in recital, and of the dues received in respect thereof, in such manner as the Board of Trade shall direct, and shall be laid before Parliament annually; and that the said accounts shall be audited in such manner as Her Majesty may by Order in Council direct:

And whereas by Order in Council, dated the sixth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, Her Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in Her by the said recited Act, was pleased to order and direct that the accounts of all sums expended in the construction, repair, or maintenance of any lighthouse, buoy, or beacon in the British possessions abroad, for which dues are levied under the authority of "The Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1855," and of the dues received in respect thereof, shall be audited and passed by the Board of Trade:

And whereas the Board of Trade have advised that it is expedient that the said accounts should in future be audited by the Comptroller and Auditor-General:

And whereas the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury have agreed to effect this same in the manner which audits by the Comptroller and Auditor-General of accounts other than appropriation accounts are effected, viz., by a Treasury Order under Section 33 of "The Exchequer and Audit Department Act, 1866:"

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order and direct, and it is hereby ordered and directed, that the said Order in Council, dated the sixth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, be, and the same is hereby, and from this date, cancelled.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 13th day of May, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the first session of the Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to abridge the holding of benefices in plurality, and to make better provision for the residence of the clergy," after reciting that, "Whereas from the increase of population, or from other circumstances, it may be expedient that two or more benefices which have been heretofore united or which may be hereafter united under the provisions of this Act should be disunited," it is amongst other things, enacted, "That when two or more benefices shall have been united, or may be hereafter united into one benefice, and with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or the bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop of the Province, that one or more of the benefices within his diocese, of which such united benefice

"shall consist, may be separated therefrom with advantage to the interests of religion, the said Archbishop shall enquire into the circumstances of the case; and if on such enquiry it shall appear to him that such union may be usefully dissolved, so far as respects such benefice or benefices, he shall six weeks at least before certifying such inquiry to Her Majesty as hereinafter directed, cause, with respect to his own diocese, a statement, in writing, of the facts, and in all other cases a copy, in writing, of the aforesaid representation to be affixed on or near the principal outer door of the church or in some public and conspicuous place in each of the benefices forming part of the united benefice, with notice to any person or persons interested that he, she, or they may within such six weeks show cause, in writing, under his, her, or their hands to the said Archbishop against any such disunion; and if no sufficient cause be shown within such time, the Archbishop shall certify the inquiry and consent, when the patron's consent is necessary, to Her Majesty in Council, and thereupon it shall be lawful for Her Majesty to issue an Order for separating such last-mentioned benefice or benefices from such united benefice, and for declaring the rights of patronage of the several patrons, if there be more than one patron, and such Order shall be registered in the registry of the diocese to which such united benefice shall belong, which Order the Registrar of such diocese, immediately, on the receipt thereof, is hereby required to register accordingly, and thereupon immediately if such united benefice shall be then vacant, otherwise on the first avoidance thereof, such union shall be ipso facto dissolved, so far only as regards such benefice or benefices so proposed to be separated from such united benefice, but in all other respects shall remain in full force and effect, and thenceforward such last-mentioned benefice or benefices shall be and be deemed and taken to be a separate and distinct benefice or benefices to all intents and purposes whatever as if no such union had taken place, and the patron or patrons thereof shall and may according to the terms of such Order present or nominate thereto respectively, and so from time to time upon each and every avoidance of the same: Provided always, that no benefices which have been united for more than sixty years before the passing of this Act shall be disunited without the consent, in writing, of the patron or patrons thereof."

And whereas the Lord Bishop of Chichester, on the fifteenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, made a representation to the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, in the words and figures following:—

"To the Most Reverend Father in God, Archibald Campbell, by Divine Providence, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury.

"The Representation of the Right Reverend Father in God, Richard, by Divine Permission, Lord Bishop of Chichester.

"1. That the parishes of Walberton and Yapton are situate in the diocese of Chichester, in the county of Sussex, and as shown by the sketch or plan traced from the ordnance map of the county of Sussex, adjoin each other.

"2. That the patron of the said parishes of Walberton and Yapton is the Lord Bishop of Chichester for the time being.

"3. That by a decree under the hand and seal of Matthias, Lord Bishop of Chichester, and dated the 11th day of October, 1753, the said parishes, with the consent and at the request of the then incumbent were thenceforth and for ever united, annexed, consolidated, and incorporated into one living or benefice, to be possessed and enjoyed as such by one and the same incumbent, to be in all future times thereafter collated or presented by the said Lord Bishop and his successors.

"4. That from thenceforth to the present time the said parishes have been held by one and the same incumbent.

"5. That the last incumbent of the said united parishes was the Reverend Thomas Stuart Lyle Vogan, D.D., who was collated thereto by the late Bishop of Chichester, the true and undoubted patron thereof, and who departed this life on the twenty-second day of December, 1874.

"6. That in consequence of the death of the said Thomas Stuart Lyle Vogan, the patronage thereof, and the presentation thereto, have fallen to Richard, Lord Bishop of Chichester.

"7. That the population of the said parish of Walberton, according to the last census, is 583, and that the population of the parish of Yapton, according to such census, is 608.

"8. That the income of the parish of Walberton, taking the commuted amount of the tithe rent-charge is £368 19s. 2d., exclusive of house of residence and glebe.

"9. That the income of the parish of Yapton is according to the commuted amount of the tithe rent-charge £188 6s. 9d., exclusive of glebe.

"10. That there is in each parish a good and commodious parish church, adapted in all respects to the wants of the parishioners.

"11. That adjoining to the said parish of Yapton is the parish of Ford, and which on the plan hereto annexed is coloured pink.

"12. That the said Richard, Lord Bishop of Chichester, is also patron of the said parish of Ford, and hath lately collated thereto the Reverend George Jackson, Clerk.

"13. That the population of the said parish of Ford, according to the last census is 73, and that the income thereof, according to the commuted amount of the tithe rent-charge, is £235 8s.

"14. That there is in the said parish of Ford a small parish church.

"15. That since the death of the said Thomas Stuart Lyle Vogan, the said Richard, Lord Bishop of Chichester, hath made careful enquiry into the circumstances and requirements of the said three parishes of Walberton, Yapton, and Ford, and the result of such enquiries is that he is of opinion that it will be to the advantage to the interests of religion that the said parishes of Walberton and Yapton should be disunited.

"16. That the said Lord Bishop is also of opinion that it will be of equal benefit to the interests of religion that the parishes of Yapton and Ford shall be united.

"17. That the said Lord Bishop is aware that before any step can be taken with regard to the union of Yapton and Ford, the disunion of Walberton and Yapton must be first accomplished, under the provisions of 1 and 2 Victoria, cap. 106, section 21.

"I, the said Lord Bishop of Chichester, therefore hereby represent to your Grace, that it appears to me that the disunion of the united parishes of Walberton and Yapton, in the county of Sussex, and my diocese of Chichester, by the separation of the said parish of Walberton from the said parish of Yapton may be made with advantage to the interests of religion; and I pray that your Grace will be pleased to take such action in the matter of my said representation as to you may seem meet.—Witness my hand this 15th day of January, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five."

"R. Cicestr."

And whereas the said Archbishop having enquired into the circumstances of the case, it, on such enquiry, appeared to him that the aforesaid disunion might be usefully directed, so far as regards the said benefices, and he therefore, six weeks before certifying such enquiry to Her Majesty in Council, caused a copy, in writing, of the aforesaid representation to be affixed to the principal outer door of the church in each of the said benefices, with such notice as required by the said Act, and no cause being shown within the said period against the disunion the said Archbishop hath, pursuant to the said Act of Parliament, certified the enquiry and consent to Her Majesty in Council, in the words following:—

"To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"We, the undersigned, Archibald Campbell, Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury, Primate of All England and Metropolitan, do hereby certify to your Majesty in Council that the Right Reverend Richard, Lord Bishop of Chichester, as Bishop of the diocese within which is situated the united benefice, consisting of the vicarage and parish of Walberton and the vicarage and parish of Yapton, in the county of Sussex, having represented unto us that the disunion of the said united benefice by the separation of the vicarage and parish of Walberton from the vicarage and parish of Yapton might be made with advantage to the interests of religion we inquired into the circumstances of the case; that on such inquiry it appeared to us that such union might be usefully dissolved; that the said Lord Bishop is the patron of the said united benefice by virtue of his bishoprick, and consents to the disunion of the said benefices; that six weeks and upwards before certifying such inquiry and consent to your Majesty in Council we caused a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation of the said Lord Bishop to be affixed on the principal outer door of each of the parish churches of the said united benefice, with notice to any person or persons interested that he, she, or they might within such six weeks show cause in writing under his, her, or their hand or hands to us, the said Archbishop, against such disunion, and no such cause has been shown; the representation of the said Lord Bishop of Chichester, and statement of circumstances of the case, and the copies of the representation and notice before-mentioned are hereunto annexed; and we do hereby certify the inquiry and consent aforesaid to your Majesty in Council to the intent that your Majesty in Council may, in case your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do, make and issue an Order for separating the said vicarage of Yapton from the said vicarage of Walberton. As witness our hand this ninth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

"A. C. Cantuar."

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of Her said Council, doth order and direct that the said benefice of Walberton shall henceforth be separated from the said benefice of Yapton, and that the said benefices shall be henceforth disunited and deemed and taken to be distinct benefices.

C. L. Peel."

AT the Court at Windsor, the 13th day of May, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the first session of Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to abridge the holding of benefices in plurality, and to make better provision for the residence of the clergy," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "That whenever it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, with respect to his own diocese, and whenever it shall be represented to him by the bishop of any diocese, or by the bishops of any two dioceses, that two or more benefices, or that one or more benefice or benefices, and one or more spiritual sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages, in his or their diocese or dioceses, being either in the same parish or contiguous to each other, and of which the aggregate population shall not exceed one thousand five hundred persons, and the aggregate yearly value shall not exceed five hundred pounds, may, with advantage to the interests of religion, be united into one benefice, the said Archbishop of the Province shall inquire into the circumstances of the case; and if on such enquiry it shall appear to him that such union may be usefully made, and will not be of inconvenient extent, and that the patron or patrons of the said benefices, sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages respectively, is or are consenting thereto, such consent being signified in writing under the hands of such patron or patrons, the said Archbishop shall, six weeks before certifying such inquiry and consent to Her Majesty, as hereinafter directed, cause, with respect to his own diocese, a statement in writing of the facts, and in other cases a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation, to be affixed on or near the principal outer door of the church, or in some public and conspicuous place in each of such benefices, sinecure rectories or vicarages, with notice to any person or persons interested, that he, she, or they, may, within such six weeks, show cause in writing under his, her, or their hand or hands, to the said Archbishop, against such union; and if no sufficient cause be shown within such time, the said Archbishop shall certify the inquiry and consent aforesaid to Her Majesty in Council, and thereupon it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make and issue an Order or Orders for uniting such benefices, sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages, into one benefice, with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes only; and it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to give directions for regulating the course and succession in which the patrons, if there be more than one patron, shall present or nominate to such united benefice, from time to time, as the same shall become vacant."

And whereas the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act, hath duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a certificate, in writing, bearing date the seventh day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

"To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"We, the undersigned, Archibald Campbell,

Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury, Primate of all England and Metropolitan, do hereby certify to your Majesty in Council—

"That the Right Reverend Frederick, Lord Bishop of Exeter, having represented unto us that the vicarage of Coleridge, in the county of Devon, and diocese of Exeter, and the rectory of Nymet Rowland, in the same county and diocese, being contiguous to each other, and of which the aggregate population does not exceed seven hundred persons, might with advantage to the interests of religion be united into one benefice, we inquired into the circumstances of the case.

"That on such inquiry it appeared to us that such union might be usefully made, and would not be of inconvenient extent, and that the said Right Reverend Frederick, Lord Bishop of Exeter, being, as such Bishop, the patron of the said vicarage of Coleridge, and the Reverend Frederick Emmanuel Gutierrez, Clerk, being the patron of the said rectory of Nymet Rowland, have signified their consent, in writing, to the union of the said benefices into one benefice with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes.

"That six weeks and upwards before certifying such enquiry and consent to your Majesty in Council, we caused copies, in writing, of the aforesaid representation of the said Lord Bishop to be affixed on the principal outer door of the church of each of the said parishes, with notice to any person or persons interested that he, she, or they might, within such six weeks, show cause, in writing, under his, her, or their hand or hands, to us, the said Archbishop, against such union, and no such cause has been shown.

"The representation of the said Lord Bishop of Exeter, our inquiry into the circumstances of the case, the statement of circumstances in reply thereto, the consent, in writing, of the patrons, and copies of the representation and notice before mentioned, are hereunto annexed.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme or representation, bearing date the fourth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting under the provisions of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Saint Gabriel, Hulme, within the original limits of the parish of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas, by the authority of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the seventh day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, and published in the London Gazette upon the tenth day of the same month, a part of the new parish of Saint George, Hulme (within the original limits of the parish of Manchester as aforesaid), was set out and constituted for and annexed to the church of Saint Gabriel, Hulme, situate within the limits of the new parish of Saint George, Hulme aforesaid, as a district for spiritual purposes, and such district was named 'The District of Saint Gabriel, Hulme.'

"And whereas the said district of Saint Gabriel, Hulme, has, under the provisions of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of your Majesty, chapter forty one, become a new parish of the character contemplated by that Act, and by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and by the said above-mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas it has been represented to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint Gabriel, Hulme, should be altered in the manner hereinafter described.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, recommend, and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation, the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint Gabriel, Hulme, shall be altered by way of extension, so that they shall include all that portion of territory (now or sometime part of the new parish of Saint Matthew, Stretford, also within the limits of the parish of Manchester aforesaid), which said portion of territory is described in the schedule hereunder written, and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto appended, and is thereon coloured pink; and that from and after the day of the same date, and without any other assurance in the law, the said portion of territory so to be included as aforesaid, shall be deemed to be within the limits of, and shall become, and be, and form part of, the said new parish of Saint Gabriel, Hulme.

"And we further represent, recommend, and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing, recommending, or proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference.

"The territory to be annexed to the new parish of Saint Gabriel, Hulme, within the original limits of the parish of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, being:—

"All that portion of the territory now or sometime part of the new parish of Saint Matthew, Stretford, also within the original limits of the parish of Manchester aforesaid, which territory, by the terms of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, dated the thirty-first day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and published in the London Gazette, on the thirteenth day of August, in the same year, was annexed or was purported to be annexed to the Church of Saint Thomas, at Old Trafford, and which was in the same Order named, 'The District of Saint Thomas, Old Trafford,' all which said portion of such territory is bounded on the north-east partly by the new parish of Saint George, Hulme (also within the original limits of the said parish of Manchester), and partly by the new parish of Saint Gabriel, Hulme aforesaid, and upon the south-east by the new parish of Saint Margaret, Whalley Range (also within the original limits of the said parish of Manchester), and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the territory designed for the district of Saint Thomas, Old Trafford aforesaid, from the said new parish of Saint Margaret, Whalley Range, at the point where Stretford New-road is joined by Union-street; and extending thence, north-westward, along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Chester-road; and, extending thence, northward, for a distance of eighteen chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named road to the boundary at or near to the centre of Cornbrook-bridge, which boundary divides the said territory designed for the district of Saint Thomas, Old Trafford, from the new parish of Saint George, Hulme aforesaid."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme or representation have been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the two cures affected by the arrangements which are contemplated by such scheme or representation, and such patrons and incumbents have respectively signified their assent to the said scheme or representation.

And whereas the said scheme or representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme or representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-four; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 13th day of May, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Stephen, situate at Eastwood, in the parish of Rotherham, in the county of York, and in the diocese of York.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Stephen, situate at Eastwood, as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William, Archbishop of York (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Rotherham, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Stephen, situate at Eastwood as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Stephen, Eastwood.'

"And with the like consent of the said William, Archbishop of York (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Stephen, Eastwood, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Rotherham, in the county of York, and in the diocese of York, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the east by the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Dalton, in the said county and diocese, on the north, partly by the said new parish, and partly by the new parish of Christ Church, Parkgate, in the same county and diocese, on the north-west by the new parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Masbrough, in the same county and diocese, and upon all other sides, that is to say: on the south-west, and on the south-east, by an imaginary line, commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Masbrough, from the parish of Rotherham aforesaid; at the centre of the foot bridge called Crinoline Bridge, over the River Don; at the north-western end of Drummond-street; and extending thence, south-eastward, along the middle of the said foot-bridge, and along the middle of Drummond-street aforesaid, and along the middle of Wharnccliffe-street, to the junction of the last-named street with the Tinsley and Doncaster Trust road; and extending thence, north-eastward, for a distance of one mile and two and a half furlongs, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said Trust-road, to the boundary, a little to the south-west of the Aldwark Turnpike Gate, which boundary divides the said parish of Rotherham from the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Dalton aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of York.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 13th day of May, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Willesden, out of the parish of Acton, out of the district parish of Saint Stephen, Hammersmith, and out of the consolidated chapelry of Saint John, Kensal Green, all in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion, that the particular portions of the said parish of Willesden, of the said parish of Acton, of the said district parish of Saint Stephen, Hammersmith, and of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint John, Kensal Green, which are hereinafter mentioned and described (such portions not at present containing within their limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship), should be constituted a separate district in the manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas certain hereditaments and premises, situate within the said parish of Willesden, have become vested in us, under the provisions of and for the purposes of the herein mentioned Acts, or of some of them, and we have, in respect of such hereditaments and premises, agreed to make and pay out of the common fund created by the firstly herein mentioned Act to the minister of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, when he shall have been duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the secondly herein mentioned Act, and to his successors, a grant of two hundred pounds per annum, and also so soon as a church shall have been erected within and for such district, and shall have been approved by us, and shall have been consecrated as the church of such district, and such district shall have thereupon become a new parish within the meaning of the secondly herein mentioned Act, to make and pay such further grant from the said fund as will suffice to raise the income of the incumbent of such new parish to three hundred pounds per annum.

"And whereas such grants as aforesaid will be made by an instrument or instruments to be executed by us under our common seal, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of London (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said parish of Willesden, of the said parish of Acton, of the said district parish of Saint Stephen, Hammersmith, and of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint John, Kensal Green, which are mentioned and described in the schedule hereunder written, and which are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of All Souls, Harlesden.'

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of All Souls, Harlesden, being:—

"All those several contiguous portions of the parish of Willesden, of the parish of Acton, of the district parish of Saint Stephen, Hammersmith, and of the consolidated chapelry of Saint John, Kensal Green, all in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, wherein the present incumbents of such respective cures now possess the exclusive cure of souls, which said portions are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing at a point upon the boundary which divides the new parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Wembley, in the said county and diocese, from the parish of Willesden aforesaid, at the centre of Stone Bridge, which carries the Harrow-road over the eastern branch of the River Brent; and extending thence, for a distance of sixty-five chains, or thereabouts, first south-eastward, then eastward, and then again south-eastward, along the middle of the said Harrow-road, thereby crossing the Midland and South-Western Junction Railway, to the junction of the same road, on the eastern side of the Willesden Police Station, with a certain new road now in course of construction, and called or known as Saint Mary's-road; and extending thence, for a distance of nineteen chains, or thereabouts, in a direction, at first north-eastward, along the middle of the last-named new road, and then in a direction rather more eastward, along the middle of the proposed continuation of the same road, to a boundary stone inscribed 'H. A. S. D., 1875, No. 1,' and placed on the eastern side of the footway called or known as Church-path; and extending thence, eastward, and in a direct line, for a distance of twenty-three chains, or thereabouts, to the extreme summit of Hanger Hill, situate a little to the north-east of the house and buildings called or known as Roundwood Farm; and extending thence, north-eastward, and in a direct line, for a distance of twenty-two and a half chains, or thereabouts, to a boundary stone inscribed 'H. A. S. D., 1875, No. 2,' and placed on the south-western side of Harlesden Green-lane, which leads from Harlesden Green to Willesden Green, at its junction with Pound-lane; and extending thence, for a distance of twenty-five and a half chains, or thereabouts, first north-eastward and then eastward, to and along the middle of the said Harlesden Green-lane, to a point on the northern side of the house called or known as 'The Grange,' where the same lane is joined by Chambers-lane, such point being on the boundary which divides the said parish of Willesden from the district chapelry of Christ Church, Brondesbury, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and extending thence, south-eastward, for a distance of sixty-eight and a half chains, or thereabouts, along the last-described boundary (thereby following in part the course of Chambers-lane aforesaid, and in part the course of the footpath or road which leads in continuation of the last-named lane to Kensal Green) to the point at or near to the northern end of the bridge which carries the last-described footpath or road over the line of the Hampstead Junction Railway where the said last-described boundary joins the northern boundary of the consolidated chapelry of Saint John, Kensal Green aforesaid, and continuing thence across the last-mentioned boundary, still, south-eastward, for a further distance of two chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the same footpath or road to a point at the centre of the said railway bridge at the eastern end of the Kensal Green Railway Station on the last-named line of railway; and, extending thence, for a distance of fifty chains, or thereabouts, first south-westward and then westward, along the middle of the line of the Hampstead Junction Railway aforesaid, to the centre of the bridge which carries Green-lane over the same line of railway; and extending thence, southward, for a distance of three chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named lane to its junction with the Harrow-road aforesaid; and, extending thence, for a distance of fourteen chains, or thereabouts, first north-westward and then westward, along the middle of the last-named road to the boundary at the junction of the same road with Scrub's-lane, which boundary divides the said consolidated chapelry of Saint John, Kensal Green, from the parish of Willesden aforesaid; and extending thence, for a distance of thirty-five chains, or thereabouts, southward, along the last-mentioned boundary, and along the boundary which divides the same consolidated chapelry from the district parish of Saint Stephen, Hammersmith aforesaid (thereby following the course of Scrub's-lane aforesaid) to the point on the northern bank of the Grand Junction Canal where the last-described boundary is joined by the boundary which divides the said district parish of Saint Stephen, Hammersmith, from the consolidated chapelry of Saint Clement, Kensington, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and extending thence, for a distance of three and a half chains, or thereabouts, first westward and then southward, along the last-mentioned boundary (thereby following in part the northern bank of the said canal, and in part the middle of the bridge which carries the line of the West London Junction Railway over the same canal) to a point at the centre of the last-described railway-bridge; and extending thence, for a distance of one mile and eleven and a half chains, or thereabouts, first westward and then north-westward, along the middle of the Grand Junction Canal aforesaid (thereby crossing the boundary which divides the said district parish of Saint Stephen, Hammersmith, from the parish of Acton aforesaid, and passing under the lines of the North and South-Western Junction Railway, and of the said Midland and South-Western Junction Railway) to the boundary a little to the west of the last-named line of railway which divides the said parish of Acton from the parish of Willesden aforesaid; and extending thence, for a distance of rather more than one mile, first south-westward, and then westward, along the last-mentioned boundary, thereby following in part the course of Norwood-lane) to the point at or near to the western end of the last-named lane where the said last-mentioned boundary joins the boundary dividing the said parish of Willesden from the territory called or known as Twysford, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and extending thence, for a distance of one mile and fifty-four chains, or thereabouts, first westward, then northward, then eastward, and then north-westward, along the last-mentioned boundary (thereby crossing the Grand Junction Canal aforesaid, and crossing also the main line of the London and North-Western Railway) to the point in the middle of the River Brent aforesaid, where the last-mentioned boundary joins the boundary which divides the said parish of Willesden from the new parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Wembley as aforesaid; and extending thence, for a distance of thirty-one chains, or thereabouts, first north-eastward, then south-eastward, and then again north-eastward, along the last-mentioned boundary (thereby following the course of the said River Brent, and of the eastern branch thereof as aforesaid) to the first-described point at the centre of Stone Bridge as aforesaid, at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the several cures out of which it is intended that the district in such scheme recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and such patrons and incumbents have respectively signified their assent to the said scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 13th day of May, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have, in pursuance of "The Ecclesiastical Commission Act, 1868," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fifteenth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of 'The Ecclesiastical Commission Act, 1868,' sections three and thirteen, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme relating to the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Salisbury.

"Whereas, under the provisions of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the eleventh day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and duly published in the London Gazette of the fifteenth day of the same month, the annual sum of four thousand and two hundred pounds is payable by us to the said Dean and Chapter, of which annual sum two thousand five hundred pounds is appropriated in providing stipends of five hundred pounds to each member of the said chapter, and the remainder thereof, together with the annual proceeds of the property retained by the said Dean and Chapter, under the provisions of the said Order, is applied in and towards the sustentation of the fabric of the said cathedral church, and in the maintenance of the services thereof.

"And whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the seventh day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, and duly published in the London Gazette of the nineteenth day of September, in the same year, it was provided that there should be paid by us every year to the Dean of the said Cathedral Church such an amount as should, together with the monies which upon enquiry and calculation should appear to have become due and payable to him in each year out of the corporate revenues of the chapter, be necessary to make up his income for the same year to one thousand pounds.

"And whereas the sum now payable in every year to the Very Reverend Henry Parr Hamilton, the present Dean of the said Cathedral Church, out of the corporate revenues of the said chapter, under and by virtue of the provisions contained in the Order of your Majesty in Council first hereinbefore-mentioned is five hundred pounds, and the said Dean is therefore entitled to receive from us, under the provisions of the Order of your Majesty in Council secondly hereinbefore-mentioned, and does so receive from us, accordingly the annual sum of five hundred pounds.

"And whereas the said Dean and Chapter have agreed with us that a scheme should be laid before your Majesty in Council for transferring to them, in lieu of the annual sums of four thousand two hundred pounds and five hundred pounds so payable by us to them and to the said Dean respectively as aforesaid, the lands and hereditaments which are particularly described in the Schedule hereunto annexed, marked 'A' together with the sum of five hundred pounds sterling, to be expended by them in such repairs or improvements as they may see fit, and that such scheme should contain the incidental provisions hereinafter set forth, and the said Henry

Parr Hamilton has also concurred in such agreement in his capacity of holder of the said deanery.

"And whereas the said lands and hereditaments are vested in us in fee simple and are sufficient to provide, after deducting rates, taxes, and other outgoings, and after providing for the payments specified in the schedule hereunto annexed, marked 'B' an annual income of four thousand and seven hundred pounds.

"And whereas the arrangement hereinafter set forth for the appropriation of the proceeds of the property hereby proposed to be transferred to the said Dean and Chapter will secure to the Dean and to each of the four canons, as nearly as may be, the incomes to which they are severally entitled under the provisions of the hereinbefore-mentioned Orders of your Majesty in Council, and of the Acts of Parliament under the authority of which the said Orders were made.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Salisbury, and with the consent of the Right Reverend George, Bishop of Salisbury, as Visitor of the said Dean and Chapter (testified by their having hereunto annexed their respective corporate seals), and with the consent of the Very Reverend Henry Parr Hamilton, as Dean of the said Cathedral Church (testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme) we humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or act in the law, the lands and hereditaments comprised in the schedule hereunto annexed marked 'A,' with their appurtenances, and all our right, title, estate, and interest therein shall, together with the benefit of the perpetual land tax thereon which has been redeemed, be transferred to the said Dean and Chapter in the manner contemplated in the said Act in lieu of the two several annual sums of four thousand two hundred pounds and five hundred pounds now payable by us as aforesaid to them and to the said Dean respectively, and that upon such publication we shall pay to the said Dean and Chapter the said sum of five hundred pounds sterling to be expended in such repairs or improvements as they shall see fit to make upon the property so proposed to be transferred to them.

"And we further recommend and propose that the payment by us of the said two annual sums of four thousand two hundred pounds and five hundred pounds shall cease and determine as from the first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, and that the said Dean and Chapter shall be entitled to the annual rents and proceeds which shall be then accruing from the property hereby proposed to be transferred to them.

"And we further recommend and propose that the annual income to be derived by the Dean and Chapter from the property hereby proposed to be transferred to them shall be appropriated in perpetuity as follows, that is to say, the sum of one hundred and thirty-one pounds nine shillings and eight pence per annum shall be applied to the payment of the three several annual sums which are specified in the schedule hereunto annexed and marked 'B,' and the remainder of the said income, after the payment of the last hereinbefore mentioned three annual sums, and of all outgoings and charges on such income, shall be annually divided into forty-seven equal parts, which forty-seven parts shall be appropriated in perpetuity as follows, that is to say, ten of such parts for the income of the Dean, twenty of such parts for the income of the four Canons, and the remaining seventeen of such parts, together with the income arising from the property now in the possession of the said Dean and Chapter, and from fees and any other source, shall be applied to defraying the expenses of maintaining the services of the said church, the repairs of the fabric thereof and the buildings belonging thereto, and the other expenses and liabilities chargeable upon the corporate revenues of the Dean and Chapter: Provided always, that if the whole of such seventeen parts and of the income arising from the property now in the possession of the said Dean and Chapter, and from fees and any other source, be not in any one year expended in the manner hereinbefore proposed with respect to the same, the surplus remaining in every such case shall be accumulated and be applicable to making good deficiencies, if any, in subsequent years, so that no portion of the said seventeen parts and of the income arising from the property now in the possession of the said Dean and Chapter and from fees and any other sources shall ever be appropriated to the personal use or enjoyment of any Dean or Canon of the said church.

“ And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore-mentioned Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"Payments to be made out of the proceeds of the property intended to be hereby transferred to the Dean and Chapter of Salisbury.

"The sum of seventy pounds per annum to be paid to the fabric fund of the cathedral, such payment to be in lieu of that now made by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England to the Dean and Chapter, for the purposes of the said fund, under the provisions contained in the fifty-third section of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty referred to in this scheme.

"The sum of eleven pounds nine shillings and eight pence per annum to be paid to the vergers and sextons of the said cathedral church, in lieu of the like payment heretofore made by the said Commissioners as holders of the estates which formerly belonged to the treasurer of the said cathedral.

"The sum of fifty pounds per annum to be paid to the vicar of the parish of Stratford Sub-Castle in the county of Wilts, and his successors, being the residue of the annual sum of one hundred and fifty pounds, formerly payable by the said Commissioners to the said vicar under the provisions of the Order of Her Majesty in Council first referred to in this scheme, of which payment a portion, namely, one hundred pounds, has been extinguished by the annexation to the said vicarage of certain tithe rent-charges by an instrument, dated the eighth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, and published in the London Gazette on the sixteenth day of the same month.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Salisbury.

C. L. Peel.

At the Court at Windsor, the 13th day of May, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eleventh day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for compensating two spiritual persons whose emoluments have been diminished by reason of proceedings under the said Acts or one of them.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that the fees, dues, or other emoluments of the two spiritual persons mentioned in the schedule to this scheme have been diminished by reason of the constitution, under the provisions of the said Acts or one of them, of certain districts which have since become new parishes, under the provisions of the same Acts or one of them, and that the payment to the said spiritual persons of the annual sums respectively specified in the schedule to this scheme would provide a just and reasonable compensation for such diminution.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that in respect of the new parishes mentioned in the first column of the said schedule to this scheme, there shall be paid by us to the two spiritual persons, vicars or incumbents, who are named and described in the second column of the same schedule, so long as they shall respectively continue to be the vicars or incumbents of the cures which they now hold respectively, and no longer, the annual sums mentioned and set opposite to their respective names in the third column of the same schedule, payment of such annual sums being in each case made in equal half yearly portions upon the first day of May and the first day of November, in each year, but with the right also in each case to a proportionate payment in respect of any period being less than half a year which may elapse between the first day of May or the first day of November (as the case may be) in any year, and the determination from whatever cause of the incumbency during his tenure, of which the spiritual person is entitled to an annual sum under the provisions of this scheme.

"And we further recommend and propose that the right of the said spiritual persons, as such vicars or incumbents as aforesaid, to receive the said annual sums respectively, shall in each case be held to have accrued, and that payment thereof shall accordingly be made, as from the day upon which the cure, in respect of the formation of which such compensation is made, became a new parish, that being the day upon which, in each case, the vicar or incumbent of the new parish became empowered to perform in the church thereof those offices, and became entitled to retain for his own benefit those fees, in consideration of the loss of which to the vicar or incumbent of the mother parish or cure the amount in each case of the compensation grant in this scheme recommended and proposed has been fixed by us.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

" SCHEDULE.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Durham.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 13th day of May, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of your Majesty chapter eighty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls within the district chapelry or new parish of Christ Church, Hatherden, sometime part of the new parish of Christ Church, Smannel-with-Hatherden, in the county of Southampton, and in the diocese of Winchester.

"Whereas, the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of the benefice of Christ Church, Hatherden aforesaid, is vested in the Bishop of the diocese of Winchester, for the time being, in right of his see, and the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of the benefice of Christ Church, Smannel-with-Hatherden aforesaid, is also vested in the Bishop of the same diocese of Winchester in right of his see.

"And whereas, there was paid to us, the said Commissioners, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, as a benefaction to be held (and the same is now held) by us in trust for the said benefice of Christ Church, Smannel-with-Hatherden, a capital sum of five hundred pounds, in respect of which capital sum there is payable by us to the incumbent of the said benefice of Christ Church, Smannel-with-Hatherden, an annual sum of sixteen pounds thirteen shillings and four pence.

"And whereas, the said benefaction of five hundred pounds was met by us with the grant of a perpetual annuity chargeable upon our common fund, consisting of a like sum of sixteen pounds thirteen shillings and four pence, and the same grant was secured to the said benefice of Christ Church, Smannel-with-Hatherden, by an instrument under our common seal bearing date the thirtieth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, and published in the London Gazette of the seventh day of August then next following.

"And whereas the said benefice of Christ Church, Hatherden, is insufficiently endowed, and it has been made to appear to us to be expedient that the arrangement hereinafter recommended for augmenting the income of the same benefice should be made and effected.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Archibald Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury, and of the Right Reverend Edward Harold, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, and of the Reverend George Allen Procter, Clerk in Holy Orders, incumbent of the said benefice of Christ Church, Smannel-with-Hatherden (in testimony whereof they, the said consenting parties, have respectively signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that upon and from the day of the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, the said capital sum of five hundred pounds shall cease to be held by us in trust for the said benefice of Christ Church, Smannel-with-Hatherden, and that the same shall thenceforth and thereafter be held by us in trust for the said benefice of Christ Church, Hatherden, and that the annual sum of sixteen pounds thirteen shillings and four pence, so as aforesaid payable by us to the incumbent of the said benefice of Christ Church, Smannel-with-Hatherden, in respect of such capital sum, and also the said perpetual annuity consisting as aforesaid of a like sum of sixteen pounds thirteen shillings and four pence, so as aforesaid granted to the same benefice of Christ Church, Smannel-with-Hatherden, out of our common fund, shall thenceforth and thereafter be payable by us to the incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Christ Church, Hatherden, in like manner as the same respectively are now paid by us to the incumbent of the said benefice of Christ Church, Smannel-with-Hatherden, that is to say, in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 13th day of May, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of the church and cure (which said church and cure are hereinafter called the said benefice) of Saint Mary, Plaistow, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury.

"Whereas the said advowson or perpetual right of patronage of the said benefice of Saint Mary, Plaistow, is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession in the Reverend George Hall, of Sextry House, in the city of Ely, Clerk in Holy Orders, Minor Canon of Ely Cathedral, and Incumbent of the vicarage or perpetual curacy of Stuntney, in the county of Cambridge, and his heirs and assigns.

"And whereas the said George Hall is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of the said benefice of Saint Mary, Plaistow, now vested in him as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being.

"And whereas the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Archibald Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury, is willing to accept for himself and his successors the said proposed transfer, and in token of such his willingness, and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which, by the Acts in the hereinbefore-mentioned Act recited, or by some or one of them, is made necessary, he, the said Archibald Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas it appears to us that the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Saint Mary, Plaistow, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the new parish of Saint Mary, Plaistow (being the parish or district in or in respect of which the said right of patronage and advowson arises and exists), by rendering the said benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said George Hall (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said Archibald Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme, and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of the said benefice of Saint Mary, Plaistow, now vested in the said George Hall, and his heirs and assigns, as aforesaid, shall be transferred from the said George Hall, and from his heirs and assigns, to the said Archibald Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury, and his successors, Archbishops of Canterbury, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become, and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may, from time to time, be exercised by the said Archibald Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury, and by his successors, Archbishops of Canterbury, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Canterbury.

"And whereas the said chapelry district of Saint Mary, Plaistow, has, under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, become a new parish of the character contemplated by that Act and by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and by the said above-mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas it has been represented to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint Mary, Plaistow, should be altered by way of extension, so that they shall include a certain additional portion of the said parish of West Ham.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Thomas Legh, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, recommend, and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation, the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint Mary, Plaistow, shall be altered by way of extension, so that they shall include all that part of the said parish of West Ham, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto appended, and is thereon coloured pink; and that from and after the day of the same date, and without any other assurance in law the said portion of the parish of West Ham, so to be included as aforesaid, shall become and be and form part of the said new parish of Saint Mary, Plaistow.

"And we further represent, recommend, and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing, recommending, or proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference.

"The territory to be annexed to the new parish of Saint Mary, Plaistow, sometime part of the parish of West Ham, in the county of Essex, and in the diocese of Rochester, being:—

"All that part of the said parish of West Ham which is bounded on the south-west, on the south, and on the south-east by the new parish of Saint Mary, Plaistow aforesaid, on the east by the parish of East Ham, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and upon all other sides, that is to say, on the north and on the north-west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of East Ham from the parish of West Ham aforesaid, at the point where Gipsy-lane is joined by Plashet-lane; and extending thence, westward, for a distance of forty-three and a half chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named lane, to its junction, at or near to Upton Cross, with the road or lane called or known as Portway, and with Pelly-road; and extending thence, southward, for a distance of seven chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named road (thereby passing along the eastern side of the house and grounds called or known as West Ham Vicarage), to a point opposite to the eastern end of the wall or fence which divides the said house and grounds from the houses and premises situate on the northern side of Brown's-road; and extending thence, westward, for a distance of seven and a quarter chains, to and along the said wall or fence, to its junction with the wall or fence forming the western boundary of the house and premises called or known as No. 51, Brown's-road; and extending thence, southward, along the last-described wall or fence, and across the western end of the said Brown's-road, and along the wall or fence forming the western boundary of the houses and premises situate on the western side of Brooks-road, to the boundary which divides the said parish of West Ham from the new parish of Saint Mary, Plaistow aforesaid."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme or representation have been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the two cures affected by the arrangements which are contemplated by such scheme or representation, and such patrons and incumbents have respectively signified their assent to the said scheme or representation.

And whereas the said scheme or representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme or representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-four; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Rochester.

At the Court at Windsor, the 13th day of May, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine; of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-four; of the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen; and of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-second day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine; of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of your Majesty, chapter eighty-four; of the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen; and of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls within the new parish of Egglestone (sometime part of the parish of Middleton-in-Teesdale), in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham.

"Whereas the advowson of the rectory and parish church (hereinafter called 'the benefice') of Middleton-in-Teesdale aforesaid is vested in your Majesty, your heirs and successors, in right of the Crown.

"And whereas the advowson of the vicarage and parish church (hereinafter called 'the benefice') of Egglestone aforesaid is vested in the rector or incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Middleton-in-Teesdale.

"And whereas the Reverend John Milner, Clerk in Holy Orders, is the present rector or incumbent of the said benefice of Middleton-in-Teesdale.

"And whereas the endowments of the said benefice of Middleton-in-Teesdale are of considerable amount.

"And whereas it has been proposed to us by the Right Honourable Benjamin Disraeli, the First Lord of your Majesty's Treasury, acting on behalf of your Majesty as such patron as aforesaid, and with the consent of the said John Milner, as such rector or incumbent as aforesaid, that the endowments of the said benefice of Middleton-in-Teesdale should be apportioned as hereinafter is recommended and proposed, between the rector or incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Middleton-in-Teesdale and the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Egglestone, and that, in order to render such apportionment legally possible, the transfer of patronage hereinafter recommended and proposed, should be effected.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us, that such apportionment is expedient, and, under the circumstances aforesaid, we are of opinion that the transfer of patronage hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage to be transferred arises or exists, that is to say, in the said new parish of Egglestone.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Right Honourable Benjamin Disraeli, the First Lord of your Majesty's Treasury, and as such acting as patron on behalf of your Majesty in right of the Crown of the said benefice of Middleton-in-Teesdale, and with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham, and with the consent of the said John Milner, who as aforesaid is the present rector or incumbent of the said benefice of Middleton-in-Teesdale (in testimony of which consent they, the said consenting parties, have respectively signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of the said benefice of Egglestone, and of the church thereof, shall be transferred from him, the said John Milner, and from his successors rectors or incumbents of the said benefice of Middleton-in-Teesdale, and shall thereupon become and be absolutely vested in your Majesty, your heirs and successors, in right of the Crown, and shall and may from time to time be exercised on behalf of your Majesty, and your successors, by the First Lord of your Majesty's Treasury for the time being.

"And we further recommend and propose that without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than as aforesaid, and as from the day aforesaid, all and singular the lands, tithes, rent-charges in lieu of tithes and other (if any other), endowments of the said benefice of Middleton-in-Teesdale, shall be charged and for ever thereafter be chargeable with one clear annual sum or yearly charge of one hundred pounds in favour of the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Egglestone and his successors to whom the same annual sum or yearly charge of one hundred pounds shall as from the same day be due and payable, the same annual sum or yearly charge of one hundred pounds to be apportionable between any outgoing vicar or incumbent of the said benefice of Egglestone, or his representatives and his successors in the same vicarage or incumbency, and to be receivable by each such vicar or incumbent by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in every year, and to be recoverable as against the person or persons who for the time being shall be beneficially entitled to the endowments of the said benefice of Middleton-in-Teesdale, in like manner as rent is recoverable at law; provided always, that if at any time the rector or incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Middleton-in-Teesdale shall by any deed, duly executed by him under his hand and seal in accordance with the provisions of any statute in that behalf enabling him, grant, convey, and annex to the said benefice of Egglestone any part or parts of the rectorial tithe rent-charge or glebe land now belonging to the said benefice of Middleton-in-Teesdale which shall, in the opinion of the patron or patrons for the time being of the said two benefices, be a just and fair equivalent, or not less than an equivalent for the said annual sum or yearly charge of one hundred pounds, the same annual sum or yearly charge of one hundred pounds shall thereupon and thenceforth cease and determine, and be no longer payable as hereinbefore recommended and proposed.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Durham.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, in the words and figures following, that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the new parish of Saint James, Bermondsey, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Winchester.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion, that the particular part of the said new parish of Saint James, Bermondsey, which is hereinafter mentioned and described (such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship) should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas a capital sum of three thousand pounds sterling has been contributed and paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England, by Sir Frederick Wellington John Fitzwygram, of No. 4, Portland-place, in the county of Middlesex, Baronet, a Colonel in your Majesty's Army, in aid of the endowment of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and of the maintenance of the minister thereof for the time being and we have, in respect thereof, agreed with the said Frederick Wellington John Fitzwygram, and have undertaken to provide and pay by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, to such minister as aforesaid, when duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act, the sum of one hundred pounds in each and every year during which the said capital sum shall continue in our hands.

"And whereas the said sum of three thousand pounds sterling has been contributed and paid as aforesaid, upon the understanding that we should make and pay out of the common fund created by the firstly herein-named Act, to the minister for the time being of the said district, when duly licensed as before mentioned, a grant of fifty pounds per annum, and upon the further understanding and condition that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said district, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, should be assigned in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas we have undertaken and agreed to make the said grant of fifty pounds per annum, as aforesaid, by an instrument, to be executed by us under our common seal, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Harold, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said new parish of Saint James, Bermondsey, which is mentioned and described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Crispin, Bermondsey.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Frederick Wellington John Fitzwygram, and by his heirs and assigns for ever.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 13th day of May, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the "The Ecclesiastical Commission Act, 1868," sections three and thirteen, and of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of 'The Ecclesiastical Commission Act, 1868,' sections three and thirteen, and of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme relating to the Prebend of Dunholme, in the cathedral church of Lincoln:

"Whereas certain lands and hereditaments situate in, and adjacent to, the city of Lincoln, and more particularly described in the schedule to this scheme, form part of the property of the said prebend, and the Reverend Francis Swan is at present the holder of the said prebend.

"And whereas by and under the provisions of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the whole of the endowments belonging to the said prebend (excepting any right of ecclesiastical patronage) will, upon the first avoidance of the said prebend, become absolutely vested in us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas the said Francis Swan has agreed to transfer to us his interest in the said lands and hereditaments particularly described in the schedule to this scheme, in consideration of our paying to him the sum hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the said lands and hereditaments are subject to the beneficial lease, the particulars whereof are mentioned in the said schedule, which lease produces only a small annual revenue, and partly on that account, and partly on account of the character and situation of the property, the same will be, when transferred to us as recommended in this scheme, unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the said Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands and hereditaments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the same lands and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof, as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should, after they shall have been transferred to us as hereinafter recommended, be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should then or at any time thereafter be empowered to dispose of our interests therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions, or the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Francis Swan (testified by his having signed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose that immediately upon the gazetting of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, all those the lands and hereditaments comprised and described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and all the estate, right, title, and in interest of the said Francis Swan, in the same lands and hereditaments shall be transferred to and become vested in us and our successors for the purposes of the said Acts by which our proceedings are governed, subject, nevertheless, to the lease by which the same lands and hereditaments are now held as aforesaid, and that we shall upon such gazetting as aforesaid be entitled to the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said lands and hereditaments as from the first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, and that in consideration of and for such transfer and conveyance, there shall be paid by us to the said Francis Swan, immediately upon such gazetting as aforesaid, the sum of four hundred and fifty pounds, provided that no lease of the said lands and hereditaments shall have been granted since the sixth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

"And we further recommend and propose that when the same lands and hereditaments shall have been so transferred to and become vested in us, in accordance with the recommendation hereinbefore contained, we may be authorised and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the respective holders (if any), to be testified by their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands and hereditaments with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and enquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale, from time to time as occasion may arise, in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or hereditaments, or of some estate or interest therein, convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some Government or Parliamentary stock or other public securities in England.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"SCHEDULE.

"All those the lands and hereditaments which, by a lease bearing date the sixth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, and made between the said Francis Swan, of the one part, and Frederick Burton, of the city of Lincoln, Esquire, of the other part, were demised to the said Frederick Burton, his heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, for the lives of Fanny Baker, Arthur Overton, and Elizabeth Ann Overton, and which lands and hereditaments are in the same lease particularly set forth and described as follows:—

NOTIFICATION.—ACCOUNTS.

Simla, the 13th May, 1875.

His Excellency the Right Honourable the Governor-General in Council has resolved to borrow two crores and fifty lacs of rupees for the public service, in the manner following :—

2. Promissory notes will be issued for the said amount, bearing interest at the rate of four per centum per annum. The form and conditions of these notes will be those of the notes of the transfer loan of 1st May, 1865, of which loan they will form a part. No note will be issued for less than five hundred rupees, or for any amount not being a multiple of one hundred rupees. The notes will be payable to order, and interest thereon will be paid half-yearly, on the 1st May and 1st November in each year.

3. Notice is hereby given, that tenders will be received by the Comptroller-General at Calcutta, from this date to noon of Wednesday, the 16th June next, for the whole or part of the above-named sum of two crores and fifty lacs of rupees.

4. Each tender must be addressed, in the form annexed to this notification, to the Comptroller-General, Treasury Buildings, Calcutta, and enclosed in a sealed cover, superscribed "Tender for loan."

5. Tenders will be opened at the Office of the Comptroller-General in Calcutta, at noon, on Wednesday, the 16th June next.

6. The amounts of accepted tenders must be paid, in five equal instalments, on the following dates :—

- One fifth on the 1st July, 1875,
- One fifth on the 2nd August, 1875,
- One fifth on the 1st September, 1875,
- One fifth on the 1st October, 1875,
- One fifth on the 1st November, 1875.

Payment of any instalment except the first will be accepted before the due date, but not before the 1st July next. Interest upon the amount of each instalment paid before the 1st November next will be paid in advance, from the date when such instalment is received to the 31st October next.

7. Payment may be made to the account of the Government in one of the Presidency Banks of Bengal, Madras, or Bombay, or into any Government Treasury or Treasuries in India that may be named in the tenders.

8. Each tender must be accompanied by a receipt from one of the Presidency Banks of Bengal, Madras, or Bombay, or from an officer in charge of some Government Treasury, or by a cheque on a Banker in Calcutta, Madras, or Bombay, or by Government Promissory Notes duly endorsed to the Comptroller-General, for a sum of not less than one per centum on the amount for which tender is made. This deposit of one per cent. will be considered as in part payment of the last instalment; it will be forfeited if the allotment is not fully taken up. A cash deposit may, after allotment, be exchanged for a Government Promissory Note.

9. Scrip receipts for instalments paid will be given by the Presidency Banks of Bengal, Madras, and Bombay, or by the officers in charge of the Government Treasuries at which payment is made. These receipts will be exchanged for promissory notes as soon as possible.

10. The minimum rate at which tenders will be accepted will be recorded under the signature of the Comptroller-General, and declared before any tender is opened. The rate stated in a tender must not contain a fraction of an anna; if a rate containing a fraction of an anna is inserted in any tender, such fraction will be struck out, and the tender treated as if the rate did not contain such fraction of an anna.

11. Tenders at the declared minimum rate, and at rates above the declared minimum, will be accepted in the order of the rates tendered, beginning with the highest rates. The amount allotted at the lowest rate at which tenders are accepted will be divided amongst those who have tendered at this rate, in proportion, as nearly as may be found convenient, to the amounts of their tenders.
