Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, MAY 28, 1875.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
March 4, 1875.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Birthday will be kept on Saturday, the 29th of May next.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
May 4, 1875.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Monday, the 31st of May, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at the Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulations that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, of his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at the Levee, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

HERTFORD,
Lord Chamberlain.

William James Harding.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

OUTWELL FAIR.

IN pursuance of the above-mentioned Act, I, the Right Honourable Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hereby notify as follows :

1. By Memorial, dated 24th May, 1875, a representation has been duly made to me by the Justices acting in the Clackclose Petty Sessional Division of the county of Norfolk, that a Fair has been annually held on the 1st and 2nd days of July, in the parish of Outwell, in the said division of the said county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that such Fair should be abolished :

2. On the 28th day of June, 1875, I shall take the aforesaid representation into consideration, and all persons are to intimate, before that day, any objection they may desire to offer to the abolition of the said Fair.

Richard Assheton Cross.

Whitehall, May 27, 1875.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1873.

SOUTHAMPTON (TRINITY) FAIR.

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Town Council of Southampton, as owners, that a Fair has been annually held in the parish of Southampton, in the Southampton Petty Sessional Division of the county of Hants, beginning at noon on the Saturday immediately before Trinity Sunday, and continued on the Monday and until the evening of the Tuesday next following, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be held on a less number of days than those on which such fair is heretofore used to be held ; and that of the days above-mentioned on which such fair has used to be held, such fair should cease to be held on any portion of the Saturday, and on the Tuesday, and should be held on Trinity Monday, and on that day only.

And whereas notice of the said representation, and of the time when I should take the same into consideration, has been duly given to the Justices acting in and for the said borough of Southampton, and otherwise duly published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1873:"

And whereas on such representation and consideration it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the time for the holding of the said Fair should be altered as proposed:

Now, therefore, I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1873," do hereby order that the Fair which has been annually held in the parish of Southampton, in the Southampton Petty Sessional Division of the county of Hants, beginning at noon on the Saturday immediately before Trinity Sunday, and continued on the Monday and until the evening of the Tuesday next following, shall be held on a less number of days than those on which such fair is heretofore used to be held, and that of the days above-mentioned on which such Fair has used to be held, such Fair shall cease to be held on any portion of the Saturday and on the Tuesday, and shall be held on Trinity Monday, and on that day only.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 25th day of May, 1875.

Richard Assheton Cross.

Basford Union.—Parish of Eastwood.

To the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the parish of Eastwood, in the county of Nottingham;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS the population of the parish of Eastwood, in the county of Nottingham, according to the last census, exceeded two thousand persons:

And whereas at a Meeting of the Vestry of the said parish, held at the Mechanics' Hall, Eastwood, pursuant to public notice in that behalf, on Thursday, the 4th day of February, 1875, it was resolved—

"That the Local Government Board be requested to issue an Order, under their Seal of Office, directing that the Act passed on the 5th August, 1850 (13 and 14 Vict, c. 57), entitled 'An Act to prevent the holding of Vestry or other Meetings in Churches, and for regulating the appointment of Vestry Clerks,' shall be applied to and put in force within this parish as regards that portion of it which relates to the providing accommodation for holding Vestry Meetings."

And whereas the Churchwardens of the said parish have made application in writing to the Local Government Board, pursuant to the above resolution:

Now therefore, we, the Local Government Board, in pursuance of the powers given by the Statutes in that behalf, hereby order as follows:—

ARTICLE I.—So much of the Act passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act to prevent the holding of Vestry or other Meetings in Churches, and for regulating the Appointment of Vestry Clerks," as relates to the providing of a room or suitable buildings for the purpose of holding vestry or other meetings, shall forthwith be applied to and be put in force within the said parish of Eastwood.

ARTICLE II.—A copy of this Order shall be published in the London Gazette.

Given under the Seal of Office of the Local Government Board, this twenty-seventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

G. Selater-Booth, President.

John Lambert, Secretary.
