CHAPTER 1.—Discovery and Prevention of Disease.

5. Every person having in his possession or under his charge an animal (including a horse) affected with a contagious or infectious disease shall observe the following rules :

(1.) He shall, as far as practicable, keep that animal separate from animals not so affected.

(2.) He shall with all practicable speed give notice of the fact of the animal being so affected to a constable of the police establishment for the place where the animal is.

The constable shall forthwith give notice thereof to the Inspector of the Local Authority.

The Inspector shall forthwith report the same to the Local Authority and (except in the case of foot-and-mouth disease) to the Privy Council.

6. Where an Inspector of a Local Authority finds in his district cattle-plague, pleuro-pneumonia, sheep-pox, sheep-scab, glanders, or farcy, he shall forthwith make a return thereof to the Local Authority and to the Privy Council, on a form provided by the Privy Council, with all particulars therein required, and shall continue to so make a return thereof on the Saturday of every week until the disease has ceased.

7. Any dung, and any hay, straw, litter, or other thing commonly used for food of animals or otherwise for or about animals, may be moved out of an infected place in the Metropolis (but not out of the Metropolis) with a licence signed by an officer of the Local Authority appointed in that behalf certifying that the thing moved has been disinfected, but not otherwise.

8. An officer of a Local Authority authorized in this behalf, or a constable or police officer, may stop and detain an animal (including a horse) which is being moved, or which he has reasonable grounds for suspecting is being moved, in contravention of the Act of 1869 or any Order of Council, and may apprehend, without warrant, the person having charge thereof, and bring him before a Justice.

The Justice shall inquire into the case in a summary manner, and may, if satisfied that there are good grounds for so suspecting, by writing under his hand direct the animal to be detained, and the person having charge thereof to be brought before two Justices as soon as practicable.

On the person being brought before two Justices they shall adjudicate on the case in a summary manner, and if satisfied that the animal was being moved in contravention as aforesaid may direct it to be disposed of in conformity with the provisions of the Act of 1869 or any Order of Council.

9. An officer of a Local Authority authorized in this behalf, or a constable or police officer, may inspect a vehicle being a truck, horse-box, or van, within this Order, or a vessel used or intended for carrying animals (including horses) for hire, by sea, or on a canal, navigation, or river, or a vehicle or vessel used or intended for carrying hay, manure, litter, straw, or other article commonly used for food of animals, or otherwise for or about animals, and may examine the person having charge thereof, with a view to ascertain whether any animals or articles are being moved or carried in contravention of the Act of 1869 or any Order of Council; and may, if he has reasonable grounds for suspecting that any animals or articles are being moved or carried in contravention as aforesaid, apprehend, without warrant, the person having charge thereof, and bring him before a Justice.

The Justice shall inquire into the case in a summary manner, and may, if satisfied that there are good grounds for so suspecting, by writing under his hand direct the animals or articles to be detained, and the person having charge thereof to be brought before two Justices as soon as practicable.

On the person being brought before two Justices they shall adjudicate on the case in a summary manner, and if satisfied that the animals or articles were being moved or carried in contravention as aforesaid may direct them to be destroyed or otherwise disposed of in conformity with the provisions of the Act of 1869 or any Order of Council.

A person having charge of an animal (including a horse) or thing that is being moved, for the moving whereof a licence is requisite, shall, on being so required by an officer of a Local Authority authorized in this behalf, or by a constable or police officer, produce the licence (if any) for the moving of that animal or thing.

11. An officer or constable detaining an animal (including a horse) under the Act of 1869 or any Order of Council, shall cause it to be supplied with requisite food and water during its detention; and the expenses incurred by him in respect thereof may be recovered from the person having charge of the animal or from its owner.

12. An Inspector or other officer empowered to carry the Act of 1869 or any Order of Council into effect may, if authorized in this behalf by general or special order in writing of the Privy Council or Local Authority, enter, for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of the Act or Order, any field, stable, shed, or other premises within his district, where he has reasonable grounds for supposing that an animal affected with cattle-plague, pleuro-pneumonia, or sheep-pox has been, or that the carcass of such an animal has been buried or otherwise disposed of.

For providing for the cleansing and disinfection of places used by animals affected with a contagious or infectious disease.

CHAPTER 2.—Cleansing and Disinfection.

14. Every vessel used for carrying animals for hire, by sea, or on a canal, navigation, or river, shall, after the close of each voyage, and before the taking on board of any fresh animals or other cargo, be cleansed and disinfected in the mode following :

- (1.) By the sweeping of the hold and every other part of the vessel used for animals, and the effectual removal therefrom of all dung and litter, and of all ashes, sand, sawdust, and other matter with which animals or their droppings have come in contact :

20. Where an animal at a place of landing or place adjacent thereto is affected with a contagious or infectious disease, that place and every other place where the animal is or has been shall not be used for any animals other than animals brought thereto with that animal (in the same vessel or otherwise) unless and until the place has been cleansed and disinfected.

21. Where a Local Authority exercise the power of causing a place to be cleansed and disinfected, conferred on them by Section sixty-one of the Act of 1869 or by any Order of Council, the occupier thereof shall give all facilities for that purpose.

at their own expense, where, in the judgment of the Local Authority, the circumstances are such as to allow of such disinfection being reasonably required :

For prescribing the mode in which such cleansing and such disinfection are to be effected.

If the owner, lessee, or occupier of any such place does any act in contravention of the regulations of a Local Authority under this Article, or fails in any respect to observe the same, it shall not be lawful for him or any other person at any time thereafter, until further Order of the Privy Council, to hold a market, fair, exhibition, or sale of animals in that place, and the holding therein of any market, fair, exhibition, or sale of animals shall be and the same is hereby prohibited accordingly.

The sweepings of the place shall be well mixed with quicklime, or be treated in such other manner as the Privy Council direct or approve, and be effectually removed from contact with animals.

CHAPTER 3.—Carcases.

25. Where, under Section sixty of the Act of 1869, a Local Authority cause a horse or animal to be buried, they shall cause its skin to be first so slashed as to make it useless.

The Local Authority may, if they think fit, use for the purpose of such burial any place on the premises of the owner of the horse or animal.

26. A Local Authority authorized by licence from the Privy Council to destroy, under Section sixty of the Act of 1869, horses or animals that have died or been slaughtered as therein mentioned, shall cause the carcase of every such horse or animal to be destroyed in the mode following :

The carcase thereof shall be disinfected, and shall then be removed, in charge of an officer of the Local Authority, to a horse-slaughterer's or knacker's yard approved for the purpose by the Privy Council, or other place so approved, and shall be there destroyed by exposure to a high temperature, or by chemical agents.

In every such case the Local Authority shall report to the Privy Council the fact and mode of destruction.

27. A Local Authority may, from time to time, with the view of preventing the spreading of contagious or infectious disease, make regulations, in relation to carcases being within their district of animals (including horses) which have died of a contagious or infectious disease, for the following purposes, or either of them :

For prohibiting or regulating the removal of any such carcase :

For securing the burial of any such carcase as soon as possible in its skin in some proper place, the carcase being covered with a sufficient quantity of quicklime or other disinfectant, and with not less than six feet of earth, and the skin being first so slashed as to be useless :

and, where they are authorized in this behalf by licence from the Privy Council, but not otherwise, for the following purpose :

For securing the disinfection of any such carcase, and the removal thereof in charge of an officer of the Local Authority to a horse-slaughterer's or knacker's yard approved for the purpose by the Privy Council or other place so approved, and the destruction of the carcase there by exposure to a high temperature, or by chemical agents.

In every such last-mentioned case the Local Authority shall report to the Privy Council the fact and mode of destruction.

28. 29. If an animal (including a horse) on board a vessel in Great Britain, or within three miles of the shore thereof, dies of a contagious or infectious disease or is slaughtered in consequence of being affected with a contagious or infectious disease, the master of the vessel shall, with all practicable speed, cause the carcase thereof to be disinfected on board the vessel in such mode as the Privy Council from time to time direct or approve.

If without lawful excuse (proof whereof shall lie on him) he fails to do so, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against this Order.

30. It shall not be lawful for any person, except with the licence of the Privy Council, to dig up, or cause to be dug up, the carcase or any part of the carcase of an animal (including a horse) buried under a regulation of a Local Authority or under the direction of a Receiver of Wreck.

32. Every Local Authority shall cause all cattle affected with pleuro-pneumonia within their district to be slaughtered, and the following consequences shall ensue :

- (1.) The Local Authority shall, by way of compensation for every animal so slaughtered; pay to the owner thereof such sum not exceeding thirty pounds and not exceeding three-fourths of the value of the animal immediately before it was affected with pleuro-pneumonia, as to the Local Authority seems fit.
- (2.) They may require the value of the animal to be ascertained by their officers, or by arbitration, and generally they may impose conditions respecting evidence of the slaughter and value of the animal.
- (3.) They may, if they think fit, withhold compensation in respect of an animal; where the owner or person having charge thereof has in their judgment been guilty; in relation to the animal, of any act in contravention of the Act of 1869 or of any Order, regulation, or licence of the Privy Council or of a Local Authority, or has, in relation to the animal, failed to comply with the provisions of the Act of 1869, or of any such Order, regulation or licence, in respect of the giving of notice of disease, or in any other respect.

33. Where the Local Authority under this Chapter cause an animal to be slaughtered, the owner thereof shall not be entitled to recover in respect of the insurance thereof any sum which, together with the compensation which he receives for the animal under this Chapter from the Local Authority, would exceed the sum which he would have been entitled to receive in respect of the insurance.

34. Every Local Authority shall keep, in such manner and form as the Privy Council from time to time direct or approve, a record, stating the date of any order made by them for slaughter under this Chapter and the execution of the order, and other proper particulars.

That record shall be evidence if a question arises concerning an order for the slaughter of an animal, or concerning compensation in respect thereof.

35. A Local Authority authorized by the Privy Council to put in operation this Article, may, from time to time, with the view of preventing the spreading of pleuro-pneumonia, prohibit or regulate the holding of any specified market, fair, auction, sale, or exhibition, of cattle within their district.

CHAPTER 5.—Foot-and-Mouth Disease.

36. A Local Authority may, from time to time, with the view of preventing the spreading of foot-and-mouth disease, make regulations for the following purpose :

For prohibiting or regulating the movement out of a field, shed, or other premises in which foot-and-mouth disease has been found to exist, or from any land or building contiguous thereto in the same occupation, of an animal affected with foot-and-mouth disease, or that has been in contact with or in the same field, shed, or other premises with an animal affected with foot-and-mouth disease ;

but nothing in this Article, or in any regulation of a Local Authority thereunder, shall be deemed to authorize the movement of an animal in contravention of Section fifty-seven of the Act of 1869, or of any other provision of that Act.

37. Where an animal becomes affected with foot-and-mouth disease while exposed or placed or being carried, led, or driven, as in Section fifty-seven of the Act of 1869 mentioned, it may, notwithstanding anything in that Section, be, with a licence of an officer of the Local Authority authorized in this behalf, but not otherwise, moved for purposes of feeding, or watering, or other ordinary purposes connected with the breeding or rearing of animals, but not for any other purpose, to any land or building in the occupation of the owner of the animal, or for slaughter to the nearest slaughter-house or some other slaughter-house approved by the Local Authority.

The form of movement licence in the First Schedule, or a form to the like effect, with such variations as circumstances require, shall be used under this Article.

CHAPTER 6.—Sheep-Scab.

38. A Local Authority may, from time to time, with the view of preventing the spreading of sheep-scab, make regulations for the following purposes, or either of them :

For prohibiting or regulating the movement out of a field, shed, or other premises in which sheep-scab has been found to exist, of a sheep affected with sheep-scab, or that has been in contact with or in the same field, shed, or other premises with a sheep affected with sheep-scab ;

but nothing in this Article, or in any regulation of a Local Authority thereunder, shall be deemed to authorize the movement of a sheep in contravention of Section fifty-seven of the Act of 1869, or of any other provision of that Act.

CHAPTER 7.—Glanders.

39. Where a person having a horse in his possession or under his charge gives notice under Article 5 that the horse is affected with glanders, or any person is convicted of an offence against this Order by reason of his having failed to give such a notice, then, if at any time thereafter it appears to the Local Authority, on a special report of an Inspector, being a member of the Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons, that the horse is affected with glanders, and the horse is alive at the end of fourteen days after the receipt by the Local Authority of that special report, the Local Authority may serve on the owner of the horse a notice in writing requiring him to slaughter the horse, or to permit them to slaughter it, within a time specified in the notice.

If in any case the owner fails to comply with the requisition of the notice, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against this Order, unless he shews to the satisfaction of the Justices before whom he is charged that the horse is not affected with glanders, or that the slaughter thereof is for any reason unnecessary or inexpedient.

The provisions of this Article may be put in force, from time to time, as often as occasion requires, in relation to the same horse, on a further special report as aforesaid.

40. A Local Authority may, from time to time, with the view of preventing the spreading of glanders, make regulations for the following purpose :

For prohibiting or regulating the movement out of a field, stable, shed, or other premises in which glanders has been found to exist, of a horse affected with glanders, or that has been in contact with or in the same field, stable, shed, or other premises with a horse affected with glanders ; but nothing in this Article, or in any regulation of a Local Authority thereunder, shall be deemed to authorize the movement of a horse in contravention of Section fifty-seven of the Act of 1869, or of any other provision of that Act.

CHAPTER 8.—Farcy.

41. Farcy is a contagious disease for the purposes of the Act of 1869, and the provisions of Sections sixty and sixty-one of that Act specifying glanders shall extend to farcy.

42. A Local Authority may, from time to time, with the view of preventing the spreading of farcy, make regulations for the following purpose :

For prohibiting or regulating the movement out of a field, stable, shed, or other premises in which farcy has been found to exist, of a horse affected with farcy, or that has been in contact with or in the same field, stable, shed, or other premises with a horse affected with farcy ;

but nothing in this Article, or in any regulation of a Local Authority thereunder, shall be deemed to authorize the movement of a horse in contravention of Section fifty-seven of the Act of 1869, or of any other provision of that Act.

PART II.

TRANSIT OF ANIMALS.

CHAPTER 9.—Transit by Sea.

43. In this Part the term animals extends to all ruminating animals and to horses.

44. With respect to places used for animals on board vessels, the following regulations shall have effect :

- (2.) Each pen shall not exceed nine feet in breadth, or fifteen feet in length.
- (3.) The floor of each pen shall have proper battens or other foot-holds thereon.

46. Where sheep are carried on the deck of a vessel, proper gangways shall be provided either between or above the pens in which they are carried.

47. Animals landed from a vessel shall, on a certificate of an Inspector of the Privy Council, certifying to the effect that the foregoing regulations, or some or one of them, have not or has not been observed in the vessel, be detained, at the place of landing, or in lairs adjacent thereto, until the Privy Council otherwise direct.

CHAPTER 10.—Shipping and Unshipping Places.

48. At every place where animals are put on board of or landed from vessels, provision shall be made, to the satisfaction of the Privy Council, for a supply of water for animals ; and water shall be supplied there, gratuitously, on request of any person having charge of any animal.

49. At every place where animals are landed from vessels, provision shall be made, to the satisfaction of the Privy Council, for the speedy and convenient unshipment of animals, and for a supply of food for them ; and food shall be supplied there, on request of any person having charge of any animal, at such price as the Privy Council, from time to time, approve.

CHAPTER 11.—Transit by Railway.

50. Every truck shall be provided with spring buffers, and the floor thereof shall have proper battens or other foot-holds thereon.

51. A railway company shall not allow any truck to be overcrowded so as to cause unnecessary suffering to the animals therein.

52. Between each first day of November and the next following thirtieth day of April (both days inclusive) trucks used for carrying sheep freshly shorn and unclotted shall be covered and inclosed so as to protect the sheep from the weather, but shall be properly ventilated.

CHAPTER 12.—Offences.

53. If anything is done or omitted to be done in contravention of any of the foregoing provisions of this Part, the owner and the master of the vessel in which,—and the owner and the occupier of the place where animals are put on board of or landed from vessels at which,—and the railway company carrying animals on or owning or working the railway on which,—and also, in case of the overcrowding of a truck on a railway, or of the carrying on a railway of sheep freshly shorn and unclotted, the consignor of the animals in respect of which,—(as the case may be,) the same is done or omitted, shall each be deemed guilty of an offence against this Order :

But no person shall be liable to a penalty under this Part in respect of sheep as freshly shorn, where it is proved that the sheep have not been shorn within sixty days before the time of the commission of the alleged offence.

CHAPTER 13.—Water Supply on Railways.

54. The railway companies working the railways named in the Second Schedule shall make a provision of water, to the satisfaction of the Privy Council, at each of the stations therein named, for animals carried or about to be or having been carried on those railways.

PART III.

FOREIGN ANIMALS.

CHAPTER 14.—Foreign Animals Generally.

55. This Part shall have effect subject and by way of supplement to Parts I. and II. ; and nothing in this Part shall interfere with the execution or discharge by a Local Authority, or by an Inspector or other officer of a Local Authority, or by a constable, or by any person, of any power or duty conferred or imposed on them or him by the Act of 1869, or by Part I. or Part II., or by any other Order of Council, or relieve them or him from the obligation to execute and discharge the same.

56. This Chapter applies to all foreign animals.

57. In Regulation 5 of the Fourth Schedule to the Act of 1869 the words Privy Council shall be deemed to be substituted for the words Commissioners of Customs.

58. Where a vessel comes into port having on board foreign animals maimed or injured on the voyage, the owner, consignee, or other person in charge thereof, or the master of the vessel, shall, if directed by the Inspector of the Privy Council, or may if he thinks fit, slaughter those animals or any of them immediately on their being landed ;

but the carcase, hide, skin, hair, wool, horn, hoof, or offal of any such animal or any part thereof is not to be moved from the place of landing, or some lair or slaughter-house adjacent thereto approved by the Privy Council, without a certificate from the Inspector certifying that it is not likely to introduce or spread contagious or infectious disease.

59. Where any regulation relating to foreign animals is in operation, the Local Authority and all constables and police officers shall assist the Inspector of the Privy Council to carry the same into effect and to enforce the same, and shall do or cause to be done all things from time to time necessary for the effectual execution of the same.

60. If a vessel arriving has on board the carcase of a foreign animal (including a horse) which was taken on board for the purpose of importation, but has died on the voyage, the master of the vessel shall, immediately on arrival, report the fact to the Principal Officer of Customs at the port.

The carcase shall not be landed or discharged from the vessel without the permission in writing of the Principal Officer.

61. Where it appears to the Principal Officer of Customs with respect to any foreign animal, (including any animal not within the definition of animal in this Order,) or any hay, straw, fodder, or other article, brought by sea, that contagious or infectious disease may be thereby conveyed to animals, he may seize and detain the same, and he shall forthwith report the facts to the Commissioners of Customs, who may give such directions as they think fit, either for the slaughter or destruction or the further detention thereof or for the restoration thereof to the owner on such conditions, if any, (including payment by the owner of expenses incurred by them in respect of detention thereof,) as they think fit.

62. A defined part of a port for cattle shall be deemed a defined part of the same port for animals.

63. Foreign animals shall not be landed at any place except the ports following :

Barrow-in-Furness.	Leith.
Bristol.	Littlehampton.
Cardiff.	Liverpool.

65. Foreign animals shall be detained in some lair or other proper place adjacent to the place of landing, and shall be inspected by an Inspector of the Privy Council.

The detention shall continue for at least twelve hours reckoned from the time of the landing of the last animal of the cargo, whether the whole cargo is landed continuously without intermission at one place, or part thereof is landed at one place and part at another place, or parts thereof are landed at different times at the same place.

If a contagious or infectious disease is detected in any animal of the cargo, every animal in each separate part of the cargo shall be dealt with as if that disease had been detected in an animal in each separate part.

If more contagious or infectious diseases than one are detected in an animal or animals of the cargo, every animal in each separate part of the cargo shall be slaughtered, destroyed, or otherwise dealt with in accordance with instructions from time to time given by the Privy Council.

This Article is subject to the provisions of Chapter 20.

66. Where a foreign animal forming part of one cargo has not been kept separate from a foreign animal forming part of another cargo, all the animals forming those cargoes shall be treated as forming one cargo.

67. An Inspector of the Privy Council may detain, for any period that he thinks necessary or proper, a foreign animal (including an animal not within the definition of animal in this Order) which he has reason to suspect is affected with or may introduce a contagious or infectious disease.

68. If any foreign sheep or swine are found to be affected with a contagious or infectious disease, (not being cattle-plague,) they shall be kept separate from those of the same cargo not found to be affected with a contagious or infectious disease; and notwithstanding Article 65 the slaughter of those not found to be so affected may, with the permission of an Inspector of the Privy Council, be begun at any time before the expiration of the twelve hours detention, and be continued without intermission.

69. No animal, carcase, hide, meat, or offal, and no hay, straw, litter, or other thing commonly used for food of animals, or otherwise for or about animals, and no dung, shall be removed from the lair or other place adjacent to the place of landing where foreign animals are detained, except with the permission of an Inspector of the Privy Council.

If the Inspector is of opinion that any such animal or thing as aforesaid may introduce a contagious or infectious disease, the same shall be slaughtered, destroyed, or otherwise dealt with in accordance with instructions from time to time given by the Privy Council.

CHAPTER 17.—Animals landed out of Defined Parts of Ports.

74. The landing of foreign cattle elsewhere than in a defined part of a port shall be subject to the following conditions :

First. That the vessel in which they are imported has not, within three months before taking them on board, had on board any cattle exported or carried coastwise from a port or place in any country which at the time of that exportation or carrying coastwise was scheduled in Article 70 or from a port or place in the dominions of the Emperor of Russia.

Second. That the vessel has not, since taking on board the cattle imported, entered any such port or place.

Third. That the cattle imported have not, while on board the vessel, been in contact with any cattle exported or carried coastwise from any such port or place, or with any sheep or goats exported or carried coastwise from a port or place in the dominions of the Emperor of Russia.

And those foreign cattle shall not be landed elsewhere than in a defined part of a port, unless and until—

(1.) The owner or charterer of the vessel in which they are imported, or his agent in Great Britain, has entered into a bond to Her Majesty the Queen, in a sum not exceeding one thousand pounds, with or without a surety or sureties, to the satisfaction of the Commissioners of Customs, conditioned for the observance of the foregoing conditions in relation to cattle to be landed under this Chapter from the vessel ; and

(2.) The master of the vessel has on each occasion of importation of cattle therein satisfied the Commissioners of Customs or their proper officer, by declaration made and signed or otherwise, that none of the cattle then imported therein have been exported from a port or place in any of the countries scheduled in Article 70 or from a port or place in the dominions of the Emperor of Russia, and that the foregoing conditions have been observed in relation to all the cattle then imported therein.

75. Foreign animals landed elsewhere than in a defined part of a port shall not be moved therefrom or be allowed to come in contact with any other animals until they have been examined by an Inspector of the Privy Council ; and according to the result of that inspection the following consequences shall ensue :

(1.) If the Inspector certifies that all the animals landed from the same vessel are free from contagious or infectious disease, they shall thereupon cease to be deemed foreign animals.

(2.) If the Inspector certifies, with respect to any one or more of the animals landed from the vessel, that it or they is or are affected with a contagious or infectious disease, all the animals then imported in the vessel shall be slaughtered or otherwise dealt with in accordance with instructions from time to time given by the Privy Council.

CHAPTER 18.—Cattle from Schleswig and Holstein.

76. This Chapter applies to cattle brought from a port or place in either of the parts of the German Empire respectively known as Schleswig and as Holstein, and to no other cattle.

77. This Chapter shall take effect from and immediately after the twenty-third day of June in each year, and shall cease to have effect from and immediately after the seventh day of December following, and for and in respect of that period in each year Schleswig and Holstein shall not, for the purposes of Article 70, be deemed parts of the German Empire.

78. Notwithstanding Article 70 the regulations of the Fourth Schedule to the Act of 1869 shall not apply to cattle brought in conformity with the provisions of this Chapter.

79. All the provisions of Chapter 17 shall apply to the landing elsewhere than in a defined part of a port of cattle brought under this Chapter from a port of Schleswig or of Holstein, and, in addition, the landing thereof shall be subject to the following conditions :

First. That the owner, agent, or charterer of the vessel in which they are brought has in the year of importation received the special permission of the Privy Council to employ the vessel in the trade of importation of cattle from ports of Schleswig and of Holstein, or of either of them, under this Chapter.

Second. That the cattle imported are accompanied by a declaration and certificates, such as are indicated in the forms in the Third Schedule or to the like effect.

80. If an Inspector of the Privy Council is of opinion, on the examination of any cattle imported under this Chapter, that the declaration accompanying them required by Article 79 is untrue in any particular, as regards any one of the cattle in the vessel, then all the animals in the vessel shall be detained and dealt with in accordance with instructions from time to time given by the Privy Council.

81. If the declaration accompanying any cattle imported under this Chapter, required by Article 79, is untrue in any particular, as regards any one of the cattle to which it relates, the master of the vessel shall be deemed guilty of an offence against this Order with respect to all the cattle to which the declaration relates, unless he shews to the satisfaction of the Justices before whom he is charged, that he did not know of the same being so untrue, and that he could not with reasonable diligence have obtained that knowledge.

CHAPTER 19.—Animals and Articles from Russia.

86. The following articles brought from a port or place in the dominions of the Emperor of Russia shall not be landed in Great Britain, except at a port named in Article 63, and shall not be removed from the place where they are landed except with a certificate of an Inspector of the Privy Council, certifying that they are not likely to introduce contagious or infectious disease :

Meat ; hides ; fat ; hoofs ; horns.

CHAPTER 20.—Milch Cows and Surplus Ships' Stores.

87. Notwithstanding Chapters 15 and 19 the regulations of the Fourth Schedule to the Act of 1869 shall not apply to a milch cow brought from a port or place in one of the countries scheduled in Article 70 or from a port or place in the dominions of the Emperor of Russia, provided the Commissioners of Customs are, on each occasion of the same being so brought, satisfied that it has been taken from Great Britain to that port or place, and has not been landed at that port or place, or at any other port or place in any of those countries or in those dominions, and has not been in contact with any other foreign animal (not being an animal coming under the provisions of this Chapter).

In relation to the landing, on any occasion, elsewhere than in a defined part of a port, of any such milch cow, the condition that the vessel has not, since taking on board the cattle imported, entered a port or place in any of those countries or in those dominions, shall not operate, provided the Commissioners of Customs are, on each occasion, satisfied as aforesaid.

Every such milch cow shall, if landed, be detained for at least twelve hours in some lair or other proper place adjacent to the place of landing, unless accompanied with a certificate of an Inspector of the Privy Council, certifying that it is free from contagious or infectious disease.

88. A foreign animal which is brought from a port or place in a country other than one of the countries scheduled in Article 70 or the dominions of the Emperor of Russia, but which was not taken on board for importation into Great Britain, and has not been in contact with any other foreign animal (not being an animal coming under the provisions of this Chapter), shall if landed be detained for at least twelve hours in some lair or other proper place adjacent to the place of landing, unless accompanied with a certificate of an Inspector of the Privy Council, certifying that it is free from contagious or infectious disease.

98. If any animal (including a horse) or any thing is moved or dealt with in contravention of this Order or of any order or regulation of a Local Authority thereunder, the owner thereof and the person directing or permitting the moving thereof or dealing therewith, and the person or company having charge of or removing or conveying the same, shall each be deemed guilty of an offence against this Order.
