WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Saint Mary, Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, and in the diocese of Worcester, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and forty-two pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage of Saint Mary, Birmingham, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this seventeenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of nine hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the rectory or benefice of Saint Mary-le-More with All Hallows, Wallingford, in the county of Berks, and in the diocese of Oxford, and of a further benefaction, consisting of certain annual tithe commutation rent-charges, amounting together to thirty pounds five shillings and six pence, which have been permanently secured to the said rectory or benefice, do hereby, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant to the Incumbent of the said rectory or benefice of Saint Mary-le-More with All Hallows, Wallingford, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same rectory or benefice, to meet the aforesaid benefactions, one yearly sum or stipend of thirty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year. And we do also, in further consideration of the aforesaid benefactions, hereby grant and appropriate out of our said common fund to the said rectory or benefice of Saint Mary-le-More with All Hallows, Wallingford, one capital sum of six hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said rectory or benefice, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said rectory or benefice of Saint Mary-le-More with All Hallows, Wallingford: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend of thirty pounds, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said rectory or benefice, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.
