"To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty
in Council

"We the undersigned Archibald Campbell Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury Primate of All England and Metropolitan do hereby certify to your Majesty in Council

"That the Right Reverend William Basil Lord Bishop of Saint David's having represented unto us that the vicarage of Llanerchaeron in the county of Cardigan and diocese of Saint David's and the vicarage of Dihewid in the same county and diocese being contiguous to each other and of which the aggregate population does not exceed one thousand five hundred persons might with advantage to the interests of religion be united into one benefice we inquired into the circumstances of the case.

"That on such enquiry it appeared to us that such union might be usefully made and would not be of inconvenient extent and that the Honourable George Vaughan of Cwmmwydion in the county of Cardigan and Mary Ashby Lewis of Llanayron in the county of Cardigan Widow being the patrons or persons entitled to present in alternate turns to the said vicarage of Llanerchaeron if the same were now vacant and also to the said vicarage of Dihewid the same being now vacant have signified their consent in writing to the union of the said benefices into one benefice with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes.

"That six weeks and upwards before certifying such enquiry and consents to your Majesty in Council we caused copies in writing of the aforesaid representation of the said Lord Bishop to be affixed on the principal outer door of the church of each of the said parishes with notice to any person or persons interested that he she or they might within such six weeks show cause in writing under his her or their hand or hands to us the said Archbishop against such union and no such cause has been shown.

"The representation of the said Lord Bishop of Saint David's our enquiry into the circumstances of the case the statement of circumstances in reply thereto the consents in writing of the patrons and copies of the representation and notice before mentioned are hereunto annexed.

"And we do hereby certify the enquiry and consents aforesaid to your Majesty in Council to the intent that your Majesty in Council may in case your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do make and issue an Order for uniting the said benefices into one benefice with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes and for declaring that the course and succession in which the respective patrons for the time being shall present to the said benefices after the same shall be united into one benefice from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall be as follows (that is to say) the first third and every alternate turn shall be in the said Mary Ashby Lewis her heirs and assigns for ever and the second fourth and every other alternate turn shall be in the said George Vaughan his heirs and assigns for ever. As witness our hand this sixteenth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

"A. C. Cantuar."

Now therefore Her Majesty in Council by and with the advice of Her said Council is pleased to order and doth hereby order that the said vicarage of Llanerchaeron in the county of Cardigan and diocese of Saint David's and the vicarage of Dihewid in the same county and diocese shall be united into one benefice for the cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes only And Her Majesty in Council is pleased to give directions for and declare that the patronage of the said united benefice whenever the same shall become vacant shall be exercised as follows (that is to say) the first third and every alternate turn shall be in the said Mary Ashby Lewis her heirs and assigns for ever and the second fourth and every other alternate turn shall be in the said George Vaughan his heirs and assigns for ever.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 5th day of August, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fifteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, in the words and figures following; that is to say,

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church called Christ Church situate within the limits of the parish of Mitcham in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Winchester

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church called Christ Church situate within the limits of the parish of Mitcham as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Harold Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Mitcham which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church called Christ Church situate within the limits of such parish as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Christ Church Mitcham.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Edward Harold Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings and burials should be solemnized or per-
