NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 116.)—Canelling Notice to Mariners, No. 111, dated 8th August, 1875.

ENGLAND, SOUTH COAST—SPITHEAD.

Buoys Marking Torpedo Ground.

INFORMATION has been received that the following mark buoys have been placed in the vicinity of No Man's Land Bank and Kickerick Point, at Spithead, for the purpose of indicating the ground used for torpedo experiments:—

Four buoys, painted green and white in horizontal bands to the south-eastward of No Man's Land Fort:

1. North Buoy in 15 fathoms. St. Jude Church over Southsea Castle N. by E.  $\frac{3}{4}$  E.; and Kickerick Tower over west end of Fort Monkton N. by W.  $\frac{3}{4}$  W.
2. East Buoy in 16  $\frac{1}{2}$  fathoms. Coast Guard Flagstaff at Eastney, open eastward of Horse Fort N.E. easterly, and Kickerick Tower just within the west end of Fort Monkton N. by W.  $\frac{3}{4}$  W.
3. South Buoy, a conical buoy in 5 fathoms. Coast Guard Flagstaff at Eastney well open eastward of Horse Fort N.E. northerly, and Kickerick Fort open east of Horse Fort N. by W.  $\frac{1}{2}$  W.
4. West Buoy in 4 fathoms. Milton Church open east of Lumps Fort N.E.  $\frac{1}{2}$  N., and Kickerick Fort in line with No Man's Land Fort, N. by W.  $\frac{3}{4}$  W.

These four mark buoys will be removed when the season for operations is over.

Three buoys, painted green and white in horizontal bands near Kickerick Point:

1. West Buoy, in 11  $\frac{1}{2}$  fathoms. The Inner West Beacon of the measured mile in line with the Coast Guard Flagstaff at Stokes Bay N. by W., and the whole of Lumps Fort in sight south of Southsea Castle E.  $\frac{1}{2}$  S.
2. Middle Buoy, a conical buoy in 8 fathoms. North side of Southsea Assembly Rooms in line with the north angle of Pier Hotel E.N.E., the flagstaff on the west end of Fort Monkton in line with the inner east beacon of the measured mile N.  $\frac{1}{2}$  W., and West Buoy W. by N.  $\frac{3}{4}$  N.
3. East Buoy, in 3 fathoms. North corner of the Old Gun Wharf seen south of Blockhouse Fort N.E.  $\frac{1}{4}$  N., Lumps Fort just showing to southward of Southsea Castle E.  $\frac{3}{4}$  S., the middle buoy W.S.W., and the east end of the stone wall running from the east side of Fort Monkton, N.  $\frac{3}{4}$  W.

These three mark buoys will be permanent.

All these buoys are marked Torpedo Ground, in black and white letters.

Caution.—Mariners are recommended not to pass within the space marked by these buoys, for although no danger is to be apprehended from explosions—as the buoys used in torpedo experiments are not loaded—yet inconvenience would arise from fouling the electric cables attached thereto, and boats and slightly-built vessels striking violently against either the torpedo buoys, or current closers, which would sometimes be under water, might receive damage in consequence.

[All bearings are magnetic. Variation 19  $\frac{1}{2}$ ° Westerly in 1875.]

By command of their Lordships,

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—Owers to Christchurch, No. 2045; and Spithead, &c., 2051: Also, The Channel Pilot, Part I, 4th Edition, pages 178 and 166.

NAVAL PRIZE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy and Comptroller of Navy Pay, Admiralty, August 16, 1875.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons interested therein, that preparations are now being made for the intended distribution of the tonnage bounties, &c., awarded for two slave dhows, names unknown, captured on the 7th and 8th December, 1874, respectively, by Her Majesty's ship "Rifleman."

Agents or other persons having any just and legal demand, unliquidated, against the said proceeds, are required to transmit the particulars of any such demand to the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, in order that the same may be examined, taxed, and allowed by that Officer, and paid under the sanction of the Judge of the said Court.

Due notice will be given, by future advertisement in the London Gazette, of the date proposed for the commencement of distribution: and at the same time, the amount of an individual's share in the respective classes will be announced.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage or benefice of Saint Mark, South Shields, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage or benefice, all that piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, with the appurtenances thereto belonging, particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and now vested in us: To have and to hold the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments with their appurtenances, to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twelfth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

Schedule.

All that piece or parcel of land, situate in the township of Westoe, in the parish of Jarrow, in the county of Durham (part of a close numbered 344a on the Ordnance Survey), containing by estimation one acre, bounded on the north by Dean-lane, leading from Tyne Dock to Westoe, on the south-east and south-west by land belonging to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and on the north-east by an intended new street over land belonging to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and which said piece or parcel of land is more particularly delineated on the plan hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured pink.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Strubby, in the county of Lincoln, and in the diocese of Lincoln, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, all and singular the annual tithe commutation rent-charges, which are particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and are now vested in us, to have and to hold the said annual tithe commutation rent-charges to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever: Provided always, that the said tithe commutation rent-charges expressed to be hereby granted and conveyed, shall be, and be taken to be, in lieu of, and in full substitution for, the annual sum or stipend of ten pounds, heretofore payable by us, the said Commissioners, or by our lessee, to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Strubby, in respect of the said and other tithe commutation rent-charges, to which substitution the Reverend William David Sheard, Clerk, the present Incumbent of the said vicarage, is consenting, and in token thereof has signed this Instrument: And provided also, that the Incumbent for the time being of the same vicarage shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the profits and proceeds of the said annual tithe commutation rent-charges for and in respect of the period intervening between the twenty-fourth day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, and the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-ninth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

William David Sheard, Vicar.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Saint John the Evangelist, Dukinfield, in the county of Chester, and in the diocese of Chester, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of thirty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the ninth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twelfth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of a clear annual rent-charge of thirty pounds on the revenues of the vicarage of Kirby Moorside, in the county and diocese of York, and of a further benefaction, consisting of a piece of land comprising two acres one rood and nineteen perches (or thereabouts), heretofore forming part of the glebe belonging to the vicarage of Lastingham, in the same county and diocese, both of which benefactions have been permanently secured to the consolidated chapelry and benefice of Bransdale-cum-Farndale, also in the same county and diocese, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said consolidated chapelry and benefice of Bransdale-cum-Farndale, and to his successors, to meet the said benefactions, one yearly sum or stipend of twelve pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said consolidated chapelry and benefice, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twelfth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the united vicarage of Sutton-cum-Seaford, in the county of Sussex, and in the diocese of Chichester, one capital sum of six hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said united vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said united vicarage of Sutton-cum-Seaferd.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twelfth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the vicarage of Christ Church, Somers Town, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, one capital sum of one hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of executing certain works approved by us for the improvement of the parsonage or house of residence belonging to the said vicarage, and to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Christ Church, Somers Town.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twelfth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the vicarage of Hartlip, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury, one capital sum of two hundred and ninety-five pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of repairing and otherwise improving the parsonage or house of residence belonging to the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Hartlip.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twelfth day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.
