THOMAS JAMES SMITH, 6, Newington, Liverpool, Solicitor to the Executors.

In Chancery.

In the Matter of the Act 19th and 20th Victoria, chapter 120, intituled "An Act to facilitate Leases and Sales of Settled Estates;" and in the Matter of the Cramlington Colliery Wayleave and of certain adjoining Lands and Hereditaments, situate at Seghill, in the parish of Earsdon, in the county of Northumberland, being part of the Estate commonly called and known as the Seghill Estate, settled by the Will of Sir Francis Blake, late of Twizel Castle, in the said county of Northumberland, Baronet, deceased, who was the third Baronet of that name.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Petition in the above-mentioned matters was, on the 10th day of August, 1875, presented to the Right Honourable the Master of the Rolls by Martha Steele, Widow, and Mary Blake, Spinster, as the Committees of the estate of Frederick Blake, a lunatic (all of Worcester Park House, Worcester Park, in the county of Surrey), and in their own right respectively, and George Matthews Arnold, Edward John Fooks, of Gravesend, in the county of Kent, Gentlemen, and Augustus Alfred Arnold, of the Precinct, Rochester, in the said county of Kent, Gentleman, praying that the conditional contract in the Petition mentioned might be approved of and confirmed by his Honour (by which conditional contract the petitioners, the Committee of the said lunatic, had agreed to grant to Richard Westbrook Lamb, Robert Ormston Lamb, Archibald Gilchrist Potter, and Robert Herris Dudley Scott, the present owners of the said Cramlington Colliery, a lease of the said Wayleave, and all and singular other the premises described in and expressed to be devised by the draft proposed indenture of lease, set forth in the second schedule to the said Petition annexed, upon the terms and conditions mentioned and set forth in the same draft. A copy of the proposed plan referred to in the said conditional agreements accompanies and is annexed to the said Petition), and that an order may be made vesting in the petitioners, Martha Steele, Widow, and Mary Blake, Spinster, as such Committees as aforesaid, and on behalf of the said lunatic, power to grant to the said Richard Westbrook Lamb, Robert Ormston Lamb, Archibald Gilchrist Potter, and Robert Hennis Dudley Scott, their executors, administrators, and assigns a lease of the Wayleave and other hereditaments described in the draft proposed lease set forth in the said second schedule to the said Petition, for the term of years and subject to the payment of the rent or tolls, and other payments, and to the observance and performance of the covenants, provisions, and agreements in and by the said draft proposed lease expressed to be reserved and contained, and either with or without such modifications as his Honour might require, and as might be assented to by the petitioners, the Committees, and the intended lessees, and that the said draft proposed lease might be settled as his Honour should think fit, and that the petitioners, the said Committees, might be at liberty, with the approbation of the Masters in Lunacy, to execute such lease when so settled, and to deliver the same to the lessees upon the lessees duly executing and delivering to the Committees a counterpart of the said lease, and paying the costs referred to in the Order of the 31st July last, referred to in the said Petition.

2. That the costs of the petitioners, and of all other persons served or properly appearing as respondents of the Petition to the Lords Justices (upon which the said Order of the 31st July last, was made), and of this application and incident thereto, and of all proceedings consequent thereon, and preliminary thereto respectively, and of and incident to the preparation and execution of the said lease and counterpart if all necessary parties thereto, may be taxed in case the parties differ, and that the amount of such costs when taxed may be certified and paid by the said intended lessees to the Solicitors of the parties entitled thereto, or that such further or other orders may be made in the premises as to his Honour shall seem meet.

And notice is hereby also given, that the petitioners may be served with any Order of the Court, or notice relating to the subject of the said Petition, at the office of their Solicitor, Mr. Thomas Sismey, No. 11, Serjeant's-inn, Fleet-street, in the city of London.—Dated this 17th day of September, 1875.

THOS. SISMEY, Solicitor for the Petitioners.
