AT the Court at Balmoral, the 26th day of October, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty the Queen, having power and jurisdiction within the Dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte, by an Order of Her Majesty in Council, made at Windsor the 12th day of December, 1873, was pleased to make provision for regulation of the power and jurisdiction aforesaid, the Third Schedule to which Order contained a Table of Fees to be paid in Her Majesty's Consular Courts, and it has seemed good to Her Majesty that those fees should in some particulars be altered :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in this behalf, by the Foreign Jurisdiction Acts, or otherwise, in Her vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :

1. The Order in Council made at Windsor the 12th day of December 1873, for the regulation of Consular jurisdiction in the Dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte shall, from and after the commencement of this Order, be read and have effect as if for the Third Schedule to that Order there were substituted the Schedule to this Order.

2. Notwithstanding anything in the said Order, where any money received before the commencement of this Order in respect of fees under the said Third Schedule is in excess of the amount that would be payable in the like case under this Order, the same may be remitted or repaid, in whole or in part, or be otherwise dealt with, as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury think fit.

3. This Order shall commence and have effect from and immediately after the 31st day of December, 1875.

And the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable the Earl of Derby, and the Right Honourable the Earl of Carnarvon, and the Most Honourable the Marquis of Salisbury, three of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 26th day of October, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the "Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862," it is enacted that whenever it is made to appear to Her Majesty that the rules concerning the measurement of tonnage of merchant ships for the time being in force under the principal Act have been adopted by the Government of any foreign country, and are in force in that country, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty by Order in Council to direct that the ships of such foreign country shall be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in their certificate of registry or other national papers and thereupon it shall no longer be necessary for such ships to be remeasured in any port or place in Her Majesty's dominions; but such ships shall be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in their certificates of registry or other papers in the same manner to the same extent and for the same purposes, in, to, and for which the tonnage denoted in the certificate of registry of British ships is to be deemed the tonnage of such ships:

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that the rules concerning the measurement of tonnage of merchant ships now in force under "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," have been adopted by the Government of His Majesty the King of the Netherlands with the exception of a difference in the mode in certain steamers of estimating the allowance for engine room, and such rules are now in force in that country having come into operation on the 1st day of January 1876 Her Majesty is hereby pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to direct as follows:—

1. As regards sailing ships, that merchant sailing ships of the said Kingdom of the Netherlands, the measurement whereof after the said day of January 1876 has been ascertained and denoted in the registers and other national papers of such sailing ships, testified by the date thereof, shall be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in such registers and other national papers in the same manner and to the same extent, and for the same purpose, in, to, and for which the tonnage denoted in the certificate of registry of British sailing ships is deemed to be the tonnage of such ships.

2. As regards steam ships, that merchant ships belonging to the said Kingdom of the Netherlands which are propelled by steam or any other power requiring engine room, the measurement whereof shall after the said 1st day of January 1876 have been ascertained and denoted in the registers and other national papers of such steam ships, testified by the dates thereof, shall be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in such registers or other national papers in the same manner and to the same extent, and for the same purpose, in, to, and for which the tonnage denoted in the certificate of registry of British ships is deemed to be the tonnage of such ships: Provided nevertheless that if the owner or master of any such Dutch steam ship desires the deduction for engine room in his ships to be estimated under the rules for engine room measurement and deduction applicable to British ships instead of under the Dutch rule, the engine room shall be measured and the deduction calculated according to the British rules.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the 333rd Section of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, it is enacted that, subject to the provisions contained in the fifth part of that Act, it shall be lawful for every pilotage authority by byelaw made with the consent of Her Majesty in Council from time to time to do within its districts all or any of the things specified in that behalf in the said section:

And whereas the Wexford Harbour Commissioners, being the pilotage authority for the port of Wexford within the meaning of the said recited Act, have in exercise of the powers in them vested by that Act, made and submitted for the consent of Her Majesty certain byelaws and regulations with respect to pilots, pilotage, and pilotage dues within their district, a copy of which is set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed:

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that the said byelaws and regulations so set forth as aforesaid are reasonable and proper:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in Her by the said "Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to approve, and doth hereby approve, of and signify Her consent to the said byelaws and regulations of the said Wexford Harbour Commissioners with respect to pilotage within their district and under their jurisdiction.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the first session of the Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to abridge the holding of benefices in plurality, and to make better provision for the residence of the clergy," after reciting that "Whereas, in some instances, tithings, hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong, with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may in some instances with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted "That when, with respect to his own diocese, it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said archbishop that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place or district within the diocese of such archbishop, or the diocese of such bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church, and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes; and the said archbishop or bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such bishop to be transmitted to the said archbishop for his consideration), describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent-charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested; and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modification thereof as the said archbishop may approve, and the said archbishop shall, on full consideration and inquiry, be satisfied with any such scheme, or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid, by his report to Her Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make an Order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect."

And whereas by another Act of Parliament, passed in the second and third years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne; and for other purposes," it is, amongst other things, further enacted, "That when, by any Order of Her Majesty in Council as aforesaid, a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes is constituted, the same shall, on registration thereof, and with the consent in writing of the incumbent or incumbents of the benefice

"or benefices to be thereby affected, become a perpetual curacy and benefice, and the minister thereof, duly nominated and licensed thereto, and his successors, shall be a body politic and corporate, with perpetual succession, and may receive and take to himself and his successors all such lands, tenements, tithes, rent-charges and hereditaments as shall be granted unto him or them, and such perpetual curate shall thenceforth have, within the limits of the district parish formed under the Church Building Acts, for the church of such perpetual curacy, sole and exclusive cure of souls, and shall not in anywise be subject to the control or interference of the incumbent or incumbents of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such Order, if he or they shall have consented to such Order as aforesaid; but if such incumbent or incumbents shall not have so consented thereto, this last-mentioned provision shall not come into operation until the next avoidance of the benefice by the incumbent objecting thereto, or by the surviving incumbent objecting, if more than one shall object thereto, and in such case the last-mentioned provision shall forthwith after such avoidance come into operation, and shall be binding on all persons whatsoever."

And whereas the Lord Bishop of Saint Davids hath made a representation in writing to his Grace the Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury, in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

"To the Most Reverend Archibald Campbell, Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury.

"I the Right Reverend William Basil Lord Bishop of Saint Davids do hereby represent to your Grace that there is in the county of Carmarthen and my diocese of Saint Davids the vicarage of Llanfairybryn which is held as an united benefice with the vicarage of Llandingat also in the same county and diocese.

"That the parish of Llanfairybryn comprises amongst other places a hamlet known by the name of Rhandir-Abbot the boundaries whereof are well known and defined.

"That the said hamlet contains an ancient church or chapel called Ystradffin and which by virtue of an augmentation received from the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty has become a perpetual curacy without cure of souls and which chapel is distant from the parish church of Llanfairybryn ten and a half miles, or thereabouts.

"That the population of the said hamlet of Rhandir-Abbot amounts according to the last census to 515 persons.

"That there is also in the same county of Carmarthen and my diocese of Saint Davids the vicarage of Cilycwm the parish whereof adjoins on the north and north-east the aforesaid parish of Llanfairybryn the parish church of which parish of Cilycwm is distant from the said chapel of Ystradffin six and a half miles, or thereabouts.

"That according to the census of 1871 the population of the said parish of Llanfairybryn inclusive of the said hamlet of Rhandir-Abbot amounts to 1421 and the population of the said parish of Cilycwm to 1229.

"That the net annual value of the said vicarage of Llanfairybryn with Llandingat is two hundred and fifty-four pounds and of the said vicarage of Cilycwm is one hundred and seventy-four pounds arising partly from rent-charges given in commutation of tithes and partly from surplice fees.

"That the said perpetual curacy of Ystradffin is of the gross annual value of seventy-seven pounds derived partly from farm lands partly from augmentation from Queen Anne's Bounty and to the extent of ten pounds annually from the rent-charge of the hamlet of Rhandir-Abbot.

"That it appears to me that the whole of the said hamlet of Rhandir-Abbot may under the provisions of the Acts of Parliament of the first and second [years of Her present Majesty, c. 106 and the second and third years of Her said Majesty c. 49, be advantageously separated from the said parish of Llanfairybryn. Also that a certain portion of the said parish of Cilycwm being the north-eastern corner or point of such parish and next adjacent to the before-named hamlet of Rhandir-Abbot containing by estimation a population of 286 and capable of being well defined by boundaries the greater part whereof are natural boundaries may be advantageously separated from the said parish of Cilycwm and that the last-mentioned portion of the said parish of Cilycwm and the said hamlet of Rhandir-Abbot be together constituted a separate parish of which the said chapel of Ystradffin shall be the parish church.

"That pursuant to the direction contained in the 26th section of the said first mentioned Act of Parliament I the said Lord Bishop have drawn up a scheme in writing appended to this representation describing the mode in which it appears to me that the alteration above proposed may be best effected and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction glebe lands tithes rent-charges and other ecclesiastical dues rates and payments and in respect to patronage and rights to pews may be made with justice to all parties interested. And I do submit the same to your Grace together with the consents in writing of myself the said Bishop, the patron of the said vicarage of Llanfairybryn of William Harries Campbell Davys Esquire the patron of the said vicarage of Cilycwm and of the Right Honourable John Frederick Vaughan Earl of Cawdor the patron of the said chapel of Ystradffin that your Grace may if on full consideration and inquiry you shall be satisfied with the said scheme certify the same and such consents to Her Majesty in Council.

"Given under my hand this eighth day of September one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

"W. Basil St. David's."

And whereas the scheme and consents in the said representation are in the words and figures following:—

"Scheme.

"That the said Hamlet of Rhandir-Abbot be separated from the parish of Llanfairybryn to which it belongs.

"That so much and such part of the said parish of Cilycwm as lies at the north-eastern angle or point of the said parish of Cilycwm and is contained within the boundaries shown and defined on the map or plan annexed to this scheme by the colour pink and as to the part of the parish of Cilycwm also defined by the description of boundaries set forth in the schedule hereunder written (and on which map or plan is also shown the said hamlet of Rhandir-Abbot as defined by a boundary line coloured green) be separated from the said parish of Cilycwm and that such hamlet and part of the parish of Cilycwm be united together and constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes and a perpetual curacy of which the chapel within the limits of the said hamlet and known as Ystradffin shall be the parish church.

"That such perpetual curacy shall be subject to the same ecclesiastical jurisdiction as the said vicarages of Llanfairarybryn and Cilycwm.

"That baptisms churchings marriages and burials in respect of the inhabitants of the parish so to be constituted shall hereafter be performed in the church of Ystradffin. And that the fees for all such offices and all ecclesiastical dues offerings and other emoluments arising from or in respect of the said parish and benefice and usually payable to the incumbent of a benefice shall belong to the incumbent of the said intended perpetual curacy or benefice of Ystradffin.

"That, the incumbent of the said intended perpetual curacy shall have exclusive cure of souls within the limits of the parish thereof.

"That the right of nominating a minister to the church of such perpetual curacy and benefice shall be for ever vested and be in the Right Honourable John Frederick Vaughan Earl of Cawdor (the patron of the said perpetual curacy of Ystradffin) and his heirs executors administrators or assigns for ever.

"That the inhabitants of the parish so to be constituted shall be exonerated from all liability to repair the parish churches of Llanfairarybryn and Cilycwm or either of them or any other church or chapel now or hereafter to be erected in the said parishes respectively but shall be exclusively liable to the repairs of the said church at Ystradffin or any church hereafter erected in substitution for that church.

Provided that nothing contained in these Bye-laws shall prevent the withdrawal of any child from any religious observance or instruction in religious subjects, or shall require any child to attend school on any day exclusively set apart for religious observance by the religious body to which his parent belongs, or shall require any child to attend school if such requirement would be contrary to anything contained in any Act for regulating the education of children employed in labour.
