TUESDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1875.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of November, 1875.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty chapter fifty-five, and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of your Majesty chapter eighty-two, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church situate at Scotton in the parish of Worksop in the county of Nottingham, and in the diocese of Lincoln.

“Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Worksop of the parish of Carlton in Lindrick in the said county of Nottingham and in the said diocese of Lincoln, of the parish of Blyth in the same county and diocese and of the parish of Babworth also in the same county and diocese which said extremities lie contiguous one to another and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective parishes.

“And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Worksop of the said parish of Carlton in Lindrick of the said parish of Blyth and of the said parish of Babworth should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes and that the same should be assigned to the said church situate at Scotton aforesaid.

“Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Christopher Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln with the consent of the Right Honourable William Ewart Gladstone, of Number

11, Carlton House-terrace in the city of Westminster a Member of the Commons House of Parliament and the Right Honourable George Warren Baron de Tabley the patrons of the vicarage of the said parish of Worksop with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William Archbishop of York the patron in right of his see of the rectory of the said parish of Carlton in Lindrick with the consent of the Master Fellows and Scholars of Trinity College in the University of Cambridge, the patrons of the vicarage of the said parish of Blyth and with the consent of Frances Emily Bridgeman Simpson of Babworth Hall Retford in the said county of Nottingham Widow the patron of the rectory of the said parish of Babworth (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Worksop, of the said parish of Carlton in Lindrick, of the said parish of Blyth and of the said parish of Babworth which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church situate at Scotton as aforesaid and that the same should be named ‘The Consolidated Chapelry of Scotton with Osberton.’

“We therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“The Consolidated Chapelry of Scotton with Osberton, being:—

“All those several contiguous portions of the parish of Worksop of the parish of Carlton in Lindrick, of the parish of Blyth, and of the parish of Babworth all in the county of Nottingham and in the diocese of Lincoln wherein the several incumbents of such parishes now respectively possess the exclusive cure of souls which said portions of such parishes are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the road leading from Blyth to Worksop is joined by Thieves Dale-lane and by Forest-lane, at which point the boundary dividing the said parish of Carlton in Lindrick from the parish of Worksop aforesaid meets the boundary dividing the last-named parish from the new parish of Saint John Worksop in the county and diocese aforesaid and extending thence for a distance of about one mile and a quarter first south-westward and then southward along the last-described boundary (thereby following in part the course of the road leading from Blyth to Worksop and in part the course of Kilton-lane) to the centre of the bridge which carries the line of the Manchester Sheffield and Lincolnshire Railway over the last-named lane and extending thence south-eastward for a distance of nearly one mile along the middle of the said line of railway to the boundary which divides the townships of Worksop and Radford in the said parish of Worksop from the townships of Osberton, Scotton and Rayton in the same parish and extending thence first southward then north-eastward then south-eastward and then again north-eastward along the said township boundary for a distance of about three and a half miles to the point on the western side of the road commonly called or known as the Blyth-road which leads from Ollerton to Blyth at which point such township boundary joins the boundary which divides the said parish of Worksop from the parish of Babworth aforesaid and extending thence northward for a distance of about one mile and a half along the last-described boundary (thereby following for the most part the course of the last-described road) to a point in the middle of the Chesterfield Canal and extending thence that is from the said parish boundary for a distance of nearly half a mile first south-eastward then northward and then north-westward along the middle of the said canal to a point on the south-western side of the bridge which carries the road commonly called or known as the Blyth-road which leads from Ollerton to Blyth as aforesaid over the same canal and extending thence north-westward for a distance of three and a half chains or thereabouts along the south-western side of the last mentioned road to the boundary which divides the said parish of Babworth from the parish of Worksop as aforesaid and extending thence northward for a distance of about one mile and three quarters along the last described boundary and along the boundary which divides the said parish of Babworth from the parish of Blyth aforesaid (thereby continuing to follow the course of the road commonly called or known as the Blyth-road which leads from Ollerton to Blyth as aforesaid) to the point at the south-eastern angle of Law Hill Wood where the last mentioned boundary is joined by the boundary which divides the township or district of Bilby in the said parish of Blyth from the township or lordship of Hodsock in the same parish and extending thence westward for a distance of half a mile or thereabouts along the last mentioned boundary to a point in the middle of the River Ryton and extending thence for a distance of about one mile and a half first north-westward then northward and then again north-westward along the middle of the said river to the centre of the bridge called or known as Hodsock Dyke Bridge which carries the road leading from Blyth to Worksop as aforesaid over the same river and extending thence south-westward for a distance of about two miles and three quarters along the middle of the last mentioned road (thereby crossing the boundary which divides the said parish of Blyth from the parish of Carlton in Lindrick aforesaid) to the first described point where the said last mentioned road is joined by Thieves Dale-lane and by Forest-lane as aforesaid and where the boundary which divides the said parish of Carlton in Lindrick from the parish of Worksop aforesaid meets the boundary dividing the last named parish from the new parish of Saint John Worksop aforesaid at which point the said imaginary line commenced All which territory so comprised within and bounded by the imaginary line above described is to a great extent though not altogether conterminous with the tract of land commonly called or known as the Osberton Estate."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lincoln.

C. L. Peel.

At the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of November, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, in the words following; that is to say:

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty chapter fifty-five have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Paul situate within the limits of the township of Helsby in the parish of Frodsham in the county of Chester and in the diocese of Chester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Paul situate within the limits of the township of Helsby as aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend William Bishop of the said diocese of Chester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Frodsham which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the limits of the said township of Helsby all which part together with the boundaries thereof is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Paul situate within the limits of the said township and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Paul Helsby.'

"And with the like consent of the said William Bishop of the said diocese of Chester (testified as aforesaid) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published and that marriages baptisms churchings and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Paul situate within the township of Helsby as aforesaid and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chester.

At the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of November, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the eleventh day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church called Christ Church, situate in the Stockton-road, in the parish of Bishopwearmouth in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church called Christ Church situate in the Stockton-road as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles Bishop of the said diocese of Durham (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Bishopwearmouth which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church called Christ Church situate in the Stockton-road as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Christ Church, Bishopwearmouth.'

"And with the like consent of the said Charles Bishop of the said diocese of Durham (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings, should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Christ Church, Bishopwearmouth, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Bishopwearmouth in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the south partly by the new parish of Saint Matthew Silksworth and partly by the new parish of Ryhope and on the east by the new parish of Hendon all within the original limits of the parish of Bishopwearmouth aforesaid and upon the remaining sides that is to say on the north and on the west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Hendon from the parish of Bishopwearmouth aforesaid at the centre of the bridge which carries Toward-road over the line of the Pensher Branch of the North Eastern Railway and extending thence westward for a distance of thirty-three chains and a half or thereabouts along the middle of the said branch line of railway to the centre of the bridge which carries Tunstall-road over the same line of railway and extending thence southward for a distance of one mile or thereabouts along the middle of the last-named road to the boundary near Red House which divides the said parish of Bishopwearmouth from the new parish of Saint Matthew Silksworth aforesaid.

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Durham.

NOTICE is hereby given, that in the copy of the above Order, which was published in the London Gazette of the 30th November, 1875, the words "ship or," which occur in the last line of regulation (p.), were inserted in error, and do not form part of such Order.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

EAST RUDHAM FAIRS.

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Justices acting in the Gallow Petty Sessional Division of the county of Norfolk, that Fairs have been annually held on the 17th day of May and on the 14th day of October, respectively, in the parish of East Rudham, in the said Division of the said county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fairs should be abolished :

And whereas notice of the said representation, and of the time when I should take the same into consideration, has been duly published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1871."

And whereas, on such representation and consideration, it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fairs should be abolished :

And whereas the Marquess of Townshend, as lord or owner of the said Fairs and the tolls thereof, has consented in writing that the said Fairs should be abolished ;

Now, therefore, I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1871," do hereby order that the Fairs which have been annually held in the parish of East Rudham, in the Gallow Petty Sessional Division of the county of Norfolk, on the 17th days of May and on the 14th day of October, respectively, shall be abolished as from the date of this order.

SOLDIERS' BALANCES UNCLAIMED.

IN pursuance of the "Regimental Debts Act, 1863," notice is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department has available, for distribution amongst the Next of Kin or others entitled, the sum of money set opposite to the name of each of the deceased soldiers named in the list which is published with this notice in the London Gazette, and the "Army List," and is also to be seen at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Recruiting and Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.

Applications from persons supposing themselves entitled as Next of Kin should be addressed by letter to "The Under-Secretary of State, War Office, London, S.W.," and marked outside "Soldier's Effects."

No application can be attended to which does not state the date and place of the soldier's birth, enlistment, and death, and the name of his regiment; his regimental number should also be stated if known.

Should these particulars furnished by the applicant not agree with the facts recorded on the War Office documents relating to the deceased soldier, the applicant will be so informed; but should they agree therewith, then within three calendar months the Secretary of State will furnish the applicant with the usual requirements needed for the proof of the alleged relationship.

The application must be authenticated by the signature of the applicant, and his name should be affixed in the presence of the clergyman, or one of the churchwardens of the parish, or a Justice of the Peace; the applicant's address, with the name of the post town, must also be clearly stated. No personal application can receive attention.

Further lists will from time to time be published, and therefore it will facilitate the applicants' inquiries to give the number and date of the notice in which the deceased soldier's name appeared.—EFFECTS, 1874-5.

By order of the said Principal Secretary,
J. C. W. VIVIAN.

NOTE.—A copy of this Notice is to be seen at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Recruiting and Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.

SOLDIERS' BALANCES UNCLAIMED.

IN pursuance of the "Regimental Debts Act, 1863," notice is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department has available, for distribution amongst the Next of Kin or others entitled, the sum of money set opposite to the name of each of the deceased soldiers named in the list which is published with this notice in the London Gazette, and the "Army List," and is also to be seen at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Recruiting and Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.

Applications from persons supposing themselves entitled as Next of Kin should be addressed by letter to "The Under-Secretary of State, War Office, London, S.W.," and marked outside "Soldier's Effects."

No application can be attended to which does not state the date and place of the soldier's birth, enlistment, and death, and the name of his regiment; his regimental number should also be stated if known.

Should these particulars furnished by the applicant not agree with the facts recorded on the War Office documents relating to the deceased soldier, the applicant will be so informed; but should they agree therewith, then within three calendar months the Secretary of State will furnish the applicant with the usual requirements needed for the proof of the alleged relationship.

The application must be authenticated by the signature of the applicant, and his name should be affixed in the presence of the clergyman, or one of the churchwardens of the parish, or a Justice of the Peace; the applicant's address, with the name of the post town, must also be clearly stated. No personal application can receive attention.

Further lists will from time to time be published, and therefore it will facilitate the applicant's inquiries to give the number and date of the notice in which the deceased soldier's name appeared.—EFFECTS, 1874-5.

By order of the said Principal Secretary,

J. C. W. VIVIAN.

NOTE.—A copy of this Notice is to be seen at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Recruiting and Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.

LIST LXXV of the Names of Soldiers deceased since 1865, whose Personal Estate is held by the Secretary of State for War for distribution amongst the Next of Kin or others entitled.

Official Notice.

Proposal to Change a Ship's Name.

THE Royal Mail Steam Packet Company hereby give notice, that in consequence of its being the practice of the Company to name their steam ships after rivers, it is their intention to apply to the Board of Trade, under Section 6 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1871, in respect of their steam ship "Corcovado," of London, official number 69,227, of gross tonnage 3,805 tons, of register tonnage 2,406 tons, heretofore owned by the Pacific Steam Navigation Company, of Liverpool, for permission to change her name to "Don," to be registered under the said new name at the Port of London, as owned by the said Royal Mail Steam Packet Company.

Any objections to the proposed change of name must be sent to the Assistant-Secretary, Marine Department, Board of Trade, within fifteen days from the appearance of this advertisement.

Dated at 55, Moorgate-street, London, this 2nd day of December, 1875.

J. M. Lloyd, Secretary.

Barnstaple and Ilfracombe Railway.

THE London and South-Western Railway Company and the Barnstaple and Ilfracombe Railway Company, by this writing under their respective Common Seals, hereby give notice that it is their intention that the provisions contained in the "South-Western Railway (General) Act, 1874," for the transfer and amalgamation of the undertaking of the Barnstaple and Ilfracombe Railway Company with the undertaking of the London and South-Western Railway Company shall have effect.

Given under the respective Common Seals of the Companies this 26th day of November, 1875.

Sealed with the Common Seal of the Barnstaple and Ilfracombe Railway Company, in the presence of Robert Sawle, Secretary.

Sealed with the Common Seal of the London and South-Western Railway Company, in the presence of Fred. J. Macaulay, Assistant-Secretary.

In the Matter of Letters Patent granted to Charles John Galloway, of the Knott Mill Iron Works, Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Engineer, and Charles Herbert Holt, of Manchester aforesaid, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in steam boilers," bearing date at Westminster the 13th July, 1875 (No. 2514).

In the Matter of Edward Burnand, of 518, Mile End-road, Middlesex, Pianoforte and Furniture Dealer, a Bankrupt.

Before Mr. Registrar Pepps, acting as Chief Judge.

UPON reading a report of the Registrar-Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 19th day of November, 1875, reporting that according to the accounts rendered to the Comptroller in Bankruptcy by the late Trustee he appears to have realised from the estate as follows:—Sale of stock £20; that it does not appear that there is any further property that can be realized for the benefit of the creditors, and that in his opinion it is expedient that the bankruptcy should be closed. Now, upon reading the proceedings in the bankruptcy, and the affidavit of William Humphreys, sworn the 25th day of November, 1875, and upon hearing Mr. Aldridge, the Official Solicitor acting on behalf of the Registrar-Trustee, and no creditor appearing to oppose, the Court being satisfied that according to the accounts rendered to the Comptroller in Bankruptcy by the late Trustee he appears to have realized from the estate as follows:—by sale of stock £20;—that it does not appear there is any further property that can be realised for the benefit of the creditors, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said Edward Burnand has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 3rd day of December, 1875.

In the Matter of George Meallin, of 144, New Kent-road, Surrey, Wine Merchant, a Bankrupt.

Before Mr. Registrar Pepps, acting as Chief Judge.

UPON reading a report of the Registrar-Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 16th day of November, 1875, reporting that the statement of affairs filed by the bankrupt does not disclose any property which could be realized for the benefit of the creditors; that it has not been brought to the knowledge of the said Registrar-Trustee that the bankrupt was possessed of any property at the date of the adjudication other than some furniture, which produced the sum of £5, or that he has since acquired any property which could be realized for the benefit of the creditors, and that in his opinion it is expedient that the bankruptcy should be closed; now, upon reading the proceedings in the bankruptcy and the affidavit of Archibald Reid, sworn the 24th day of November, 1875, and upon hearing Mr. Aldridge, the Official Solicitor acting on behalf of the said Registrar-Trustee, and no person appearing to oppose, the Court being satisfied that the statement of affairs filed by the bankrupt does not disclose any property which could be realized for the benefit of the creditors, that it has not been brought to the knowledge of the said Registrar-Trustee that the bankrupt was possessed of any property at the date of the adjudication other than some furniture which produced the sum of £5, or that he has since acquired any property that could be realized for the benefit of the creditors, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said George Meallin has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 27th day of November, 1875.

In the County Court of Somersetshire, holden at Bath. In the Matter of Sir Simeon Stuart, late of No. 22, Brock-street, Bath, in the county of Somerset, but now of No. 29, Saint James's-square, Bath aforesaid, a Bankrupt.

UPON reading a report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 30th day of November, 1875, reporting that so much of the property of the bankrupt as could according to the joint opinion of himself and the Registrar of the Court acting in lieu of a Committee of Inspection be realized without needlessly protracting the bankruptcy had been realized, and the Court being satisfied that such property has been so realized, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said Sir Simeon Stuart has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 2nd day of December, 1875.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the County Court of Yorkshire, holden at Dewsbury. In the Matter of George Wade, of Leeds and Morley, both in the county of York, Rag and Mungo Merchant, a Bankrupt.

UPON reading a report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 2nd day of December, 1875, reporting that the whole of the property of the bankrupt has been realized for the benefit of the creditors, and dividends to the amount of one shilling and nine pence and one-eighth of a penny in the pound, have been paid to the creditors of the said bankrupt, the Court being satisfied that the whole of the property of the bankrupt has been realized for the benefit of his creditors, and dividends to the amount of one shilling and nine pence and one-eighth of a penny in the pound have been paid, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said George Wade has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 2nd day of December, 1875.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the County Court of Westmorland, holden at Kendal. In the Matter of Robert Abbotson, of Burton in Kendal, in the county of Westmorland, Gardener, a Bankrupt.

UPON reading a report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 23rd day of November, 1875, reporting that since the adjudication of the said bankrupt he had not nor had any person by his order or for his use received or paid any sum of money on account of the bankrupt's estate, that the reason why he had not received any sum of money on account of the said estate was that there never was any sum of money due to the said estate from any person whatsoever, or any property or effects belonging to the said estate, and that there was no prospect of any ever vesting in him, and that it was useless protracting the bankruptcy, the Court, being satisfied that no property or effects have ever vested in the Trustee, and that there is no prospect of any so doing, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said Robert Abbotson has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 4th day of December, 1875.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the County Court of Kent, holden at Canterbury.

In the Matter of George Burgess, of Ramsgate, in the county of Kent, Bank Manager, a Bankrupt.

UPON reading a report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 2nd day of December, 1875, reporting that the whole of the property of the bankrupt has been realized for the benefit of his creditors, and a dividend to the amount of eleven pence farthing in the pound has been paid, and the Court being satisfied that the whole of the property of the bankrupt has been realized for the benefit of his creditors, and that a dividend of eleven pence farthing in the pound has been paid, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said George Burgess has closed.—Given under the Seal of Court this 4th day of December, 1875.
