SOLDIERS' BALANCES UNCLAIMED.

IN pursuance of the "Regimental Debts Act, 1863," notice is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department has available, for distribution amongst the Next of Kin or others entitled, the sum of money set opposite to the name of each of the deceased soldiers named in the list which is published with this notice in the London Gazette, and the "Army List," and is also to be seen at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Recruiting and Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.

Applications from persons supposing themselves entitled as Next of Kin should be addressed by letter to "The Under-Secretary of State, War Office, London, S.W.," and marked outside "Soldier's Effects."

No application can be attended to which does not state the date and place of the soldier's birth, enlistment, and death, and the name of his regiment; his regimental number should also be stated if known.

Should these particulars furnished by the applicant not agree with the facts recorded on the War Office documents relating to the deceased soldier, the applicant will be so informed; but should they agree therewith, then within three calendar months the Secretary of State will furnish the applicant with the usual requirements needed for the proof of the alleged relationship.

The application must be authenticated by the signature of the applicant, and his name should be affixed in the presence of the clergyman, or one of the churchwardens of the parish, or a Justice of the Peace; the applicant's address, with the name of the post town, must also be clearly stated. No personal application can receive attention.

Further lists will from time to time be published, and therefore it will facilitate the applicant's inquiries to give the number and date of the notice in which the deceased soldier's name appeared.—EFFECTS, 1874-5.

The joint estate of the said Thomas Richardson and John William Richardson shall remain vested in the said Trustee, and that he shall continue to carry on the works and business of the said partnership under the direction of the Committee of Inspection, and with the assistance of the said Thomas Richardson; 2. The said Trustee shall (if he shall in his discretion think fit so to do) continue to pay as he has hitherto done out of the said estate, the interest at 5 per cent. per annum on the first mortgage upon the said works, for the sum of £17,686 13s. 4d. down to the 1st October, 1876, and also (both down to and after that day) the premiums on the life assurance policies held by the second Mortgagees, and amounting to £1,155 per annum; 3. When the principal moneys secured by the said first mortgage shall become payable (which will be on the 1st October, 1876), the second Mortgagees of the said works shall pay off the said moneys, and add the amount to the debt secured by the second mortgage; 4. In order to induce the second Mortgagees to forbear from selling the works, and from requiring payment of their debt, the said Trustee shall (if he shall in his discretion think fit so to do) pay to them out of the said estate, on account of the principal of such debt in the year 1876, the sum of £7,500, and in the year 1877, the sum of £10,000, and in the year 1878, the sum of £15,000. Such several sums to be payable by equal quarterly payments on the 1st day of January, the 1st day of April, the 1st day of July, and the 1st day of October, the first to be made on 1st January, 1876; 5. The said Trustee shall also, on the 31st December, 1878 (if he shall in his discretion think fit so to do) pay out of the said estate, or by means of a transfer of mortgage, the balance of principal remaining due to the second Mortgagees on the said 31st of December, 1878, which balance shall be paid off in one sum; 6. The second Mortgagees shall accept payment of the said annual sums and balance at the times aforesaid, and shall, in consideration of such payments, forego all claim for interest on their said debt from the date of the institution of the said proceedings until the 31st December, 1878; 7. The said Trustee and the said second Mortgagees shall forthwith sign an agreement binding them respectively to the performance of the aforesaid conditions relative to the said mortgages; 8. Subject to the several payments aforesaid, and to the payment of the current expenses of the liquidation and of the carrying on of the said business, the moneys to arise from the carrying on of the said business as aforesaid, or otherwise from the said joint estate, shall be applied in payment of a dividend or dividends to the joint creditors until they shall have respectively received an aggregate dividend of five shillings in the pound upon the amount of their respective debts, on which a dividend would be properly payable in bankruptcy, and when such aggregate dividend shall have been received (of which fact the certificate of the Trustee under the said liquidation shall be conclusive evidence) the said Thomas Richardson shall be discharged from the joint debts (without any further resolution being passed for the purpose), and the surplus of the said joint estate shall be assigned and disposed of as the said Thomas Richardson and John William Richardson shall mutually agree upon and in writing direct; 9. The said John William Richardson shall be discharged from the said joint debts as from the date of the approval of the said scheme by the said Court; 10. The said Thomas Richardson shall, on or before the 1st day of March, 1876, obtain from his separate creditors (either by resolution or otherwise) a discharge from his separate debts, and if he shall fail to do so, it shall be lawful for the said Trustee, by writing under his hand, with the consent of the Committee of Inspection, or the majority of them, to declare this scheme of settlement to be at an end, and thereupon the same shall be absolutely at an end, but without prejudice to any payment or other act or thing which may previously have been made or done under or in pursuance of such scheme.—Dated this 10th day of December, 1875.
