AT the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of December, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the eleventh day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of your Majesty chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and twenty-four have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting an exchange of the patronage of the benefice (being a vicarage) of Corringham in the county of Lincoln and in the diocese of Lincoln for the patronage of the benefice (being a vicarage) of Barton-upon-Humber in the said county of Lincoln and in the said diocese of Lincoln.

"Whereas the Right Reverend Christopher, Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln is seized in right of his see to him and his successors in fee of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and to the said benefice of Corringham and the church thereof:

"And whereas George Charles Uppleby, of Barrow Hall Ulceby, in the said county of Lincoln, Esquire, is seized in fee simple without incumbrances, of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and to the said benefice of Barton-upon-Humber and the churches thereof, being the parish church of Saint Peter and the church of Saint Mary:

"And whereas the said Christopher, Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln, and the said George Charles Uppleby have respectively signified to us their desire that the patronage of the said two benefices and of the churches thereof respectively may be re-arranged by way of exchange in manner hereinafter recommended and proposed:

"And whereas we have made due enquiry and calculation as to the circumstances and relative values of the said benefices and patronage, and we do hereby certify to your Majesty that the circumstances and present values of the said benefices respectively are as set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Christopher, Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln in testimony of which consent he hath set his hand and affixed his episcopal seal to this scheme), and with the consent of the said George Charles Uppleby (in testimony of which consent he has also set his hand and seal to this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Corringham and the church thereof shall be assigned and transferred from the said Christopher, Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln, and from his successors (in whom as aforesaid it is now vested) Bishops of the said diocese, and shall become and be absolutely vested in and shall may from time to time be exercised by the said George Charles Uppleby his heirs and assigns for ever, and that in exchange for the same the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Barton-upon-Humber and the churches thereof (being the two churches aforesaid) shall in like manner, upon and from the day aforesaid, be assigned and transferred from the said George Charles Uppleby and from his heirs and assigns (in whom as aforesaid it is now vested), and shall become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Christopher, Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln, and by his successors Bishops of the same diocese for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.
