JOHN MORTIMER, 17, Clifford's-inn, in the city of London, Solicitor for the said Executors.

ROGER CROCKER, Deceased.

Notice, pursuant to the Statute 22nd and 23rd Victoria, cap. 35, intitled "An Act further to amend the Law of Property, and to relieve Trustees."

ALL parties having claims against the estate of Roger Crocker, formerly of Saint Stephen's by Launceston, in the county of Cornwall, Assistant Overseer, but late of Wadfield, in the parish of West Putford, in the county of Devon (who died on the 4th day of October, 1875, and whose will was proved in the Principal Registry of Her Majesty's Court of Probate at London, on the 24th day of December, 1875, by Richard Chubb, the sole executor named in the said will), are hereby required to send particulars of such claims and demands, on or before the 25th day of March next, to Messrs. White and Dingley, Launceston, Cornwall, Solicitors to the said executor; and that the said executor will, on and after the said 25th day of March next, proceed to distribute the assets of the said deceased among the parties entitled thereto; having regard to the claims only of which he shall then have had notice; and will not be liable for the said assets, or any part thereof, so distributed to any person of whose claim or demand the said executor shall not then have had notice. All persons indebted to the deceased at the time of his death are requested to pay the same to the undersigned forthwith.—Dated this 5th day of January, 1876.

WHITE and DINGLEY, Solicitors for the said Executor.

To the Defendant, José Ventura Espinach.

In the High Court of Justice.—Chancery Division.—Vice-Chancellor Malins.

In the Matter of an Act of Parliament passed in the Session holden in the 19th and 20th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to facilitate Leases and Sales of Settled Estates," and in the Matter of an Act of Parliament passed in the Session holden in the 25th and 26th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to confirm certain Sales, Exchanges, Partitions, and Entrancements by Trustees and others," and in the Matter of certain Lands and Hereditaments containing 93A. Or. 8p. or thereabouts (with the mines and minerals therein, and thereunder), situate at and near Cringle Dykes, in the township of Hunwicks and Helmington, in the county of Durham, and devised by the Will of the late Reverend George Fielding, deceased (the surface of which Lands, with the exception of certain portions of a field called Low Coal Flats, which were sold by the said George Fielding as Building Sites, is in the occupation of William Hedley, and the said Mines and Minerals are in the occupation of the North Bitchburn Coal Company).

PURSUANT to the above-mentioned Acts of Parliament, and the Consolidated General Orders of this Court in that behalf, notice is hereby given, that on the 2nd day of December, 1875, the Reverend George Hanbury Fielding, of No. 17, Hereford-square, in the county of Middlesex, Clerk in Holy Orders, Mary Rebecca Fielding, of the same place, Widow, and Henry Johnes Fielding, of the same place, Esquire, presented their Petition to Her Majesty's High Court of Justice, Chancery Division (to be heard before his Lordship the Vice-Chancellor Malins), praying that a renewal of the lease, dated the 15th day of June, 1857, of the aforesaid mines and hereditaments at or near Cringle Dykes, in the township of Hunwicks and Helmington, in the county of Durham, may be approved and confirmed by this Honourable Court, upon the terms and conditions in the said Petition mentioned, and that a proper lease of the said mines and premises, with such powers and such exceptions and reservations as in the said lease contained, and a power of working the said mines and premises by instroke from adjoining royalties for the term of twenty-one years from the 1st day of July, 1873, to the parties in the said Petition named may be executed, and for power to enable the petitioner, George Hanbury Fielding or the Trustees or Trustee for the time being of the will of the said George Fielding, deceased, to grant agricultural and occupation and mining and building leases respectively of all or any portion or portions of the said lands and hereditaments at or near Cringle Dykes aforesaid, and the mines and minerals therein and thereunder for the time being remaining subject to the trusts of the said will of the said George Fielding, deceased, and for directions as to the payment and application of the rents and sums of money to be reserved by the said lease, and all rents or payments to be reserved by any lease granted under the aforesaid power, without any further application to this Court. Also for power to enable the Petitioner, George Hanbury Fielding, and other the trustees or trustees for the time being of the will of the said George Fielding, deceased, from time to time to sell all or any portion of the said lands and hereditaments, at or near Cringle Dykes aforesaid, with an exception or reservation of any minerals in or under the same respectively, and with or without rights and powers of or incidental to the working, getting, or carrying away of such minerals, and to sell any such minerals with or without such rights or powers separately from the residue of such lands and hereditaments, or any part thereof, and that the costs, charges, and expenses of the said Petition, and of all proceedings incidental thereto and consequent thereon may be provided for. And notice is also hereby given that the Petitioners may be served with any Order of the Court or of the Judge in Chambers, or notice relating to the subject of the said Petition, at the office of Messrs. James Crowdy and Son, situate at No. 17, Serjeant's-inn, Fleet-street, London, E.C.—Dated this 3rd day of January, 1876.
