TUESDAY, MAY 2, 1876.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
March 17, 1876.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Birthday will be kept on Saturday, the 27th of May next.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
April 29, 1876.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that The Queen will hold Drawing Rooms at Buckingham Palace, on Wednesday, the 10th of May, and on Friday, the 12th of May next, at three o'clock.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOMS AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Ladies, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Rooms, at Buckingham Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented to The Queen must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, not later than two clear days before the Drawing Room, a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Lady who is to make the presentation, of her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's Command, that no presentations shall be made at the Drawing Room, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

It is not expected that Gentlemen will present themselves at Drawing Rooms, except in attendance on the Ladies of their families.

Any Gentleman who under these circumstances should desire to be presented to The Queen, will observe the same regulations as are in force for Her Majesty's Levees.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at two o'clock.

HERTFORD,
Lord Chamberlain.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
April 28, 1876.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold Levees at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Monday, the 15th, and on Monday, the 22nd of May next, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at these Levees shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEES TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levees, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulations that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, of his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at the Levee, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

HERTFORD,
Lord Chamberlain.

At the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of April, 1876.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the first session of Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to abridge the holding of benefices in plurality, and to make better provision for the residence of the clergy," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "That whenever it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, with respect to his own diocese, and whenever it shall be represented to him by the bishop of any diocese, or by the bishops of any two dioceses, that two or more benefices, or that one or more benefice or benefices, and one or more spiritual sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages, in his or their diocese or dioceses, being either in the same parish or contiguous to each other, and of which the aggregate population shall not exceed one thousand five hundred persons, and the aggregate yearly value shall not exceed five hundred pounds, may, with advantage to the interests of religion, be united into one benefice, the said Archbishop of the Province shall inquire into the circumstances of the case; and if on such inquiry it shall appear to him that such union may be usefully made, and will not be of inconvenient extent, and that the patron or patrons of the said benefices, sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages respectively, is or are consenting thereto, such consent being signified in writing under the hands of such patron or patrons, the said Archbishop shall, six weeks before certifying such inquiry and consent to Her Majesty, as herein after directed, cause, with respect to his own diocese, a statement in writing of the facts, and in other cases a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation, to be affixed on or near the principal outer door of the church, or in some public and conspicuous place in each of such benefices, sinecure rectories or vicarages, with notice to any person or persons interested, that he, she, or they, may, within such six weeks, show cause in writing under his, her, or their hand or hands, to the said Archbishop, against such union; and if no sufficient cause

"be shown within such time, the said Archbishop shall certify the inquiry and consent aforesaid to Her Majesty in Council, and thereupon it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make and issue an Order or Orders for uniting such benefices, sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages, into one benefice, with cure of souls, for ecclesiastical purposes only; and it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to give directions for regulating the course and succession in which the patrons, if there be more than one patron, shall present or nominate to such united benefice, from time to time, as the same shall become vacant."

And whereas the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury pursuant to the provisions of the said Act, hath duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a certificate in writing, bearing date the twenty-second day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"We the undersigned Archibald Campbell Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury Primate of all England and Metropolitan do hereby certify to your Majesty in Council.

"That the Honourable and Right Reverend Arthur Charles Lord Bishop of Bath and Wells as Bishop of the diocese within which are situate the rectory of Chilton Cantelo and the rectory of Ashington both in the county of Somerset having represented unto us that the said benefices being contiguous to each other and of which the aggregate population does not exceed one thousand five hundred persons might with advantage to the interests of religion be united into one benefice we enquired into the circumstances of the case.

"That on such inquiry it appeared to us that such union might be usefully made and would not be of inconvenient extent and that Charles Old Goodford, Clerk, D.D., Rector of Chilton Cantelo aforesaid being the patron or person entitled to present to the said rectory of Chilton Cantelo if the same were now vacant and also to the said rectory of Ashington the same being now vacant has signified his consent in writing to the union of the said benefices into one benefice with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes.

"That six weeks and upwards before certifying such inquiry and consent to your Majesty in Council we caused copies in writing of the aforesaid representation of the said Lord Bishop to be affixed on the principal outer door of the parish church of each of the said benefices with notice to any person or persons interested that he she or they might within such six weeks show cause in writing under his her or their hand or hands to us the said Archbishop against such union and no such cause has been shown.

"The representation of the said Lord Bishop of Bath and Wells our inquiry into the circumstances of the case the statement of circumstances in reply thereto the consent in writing of the patrons and the copies of the representation and notice before mentioned are hereunto annexed.

"And we do hereby certify the inquiry and consent aforesaid to your Majesty in Council to the intent that your Majesty in Council may in case your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do make and issue an Order for uniting the said benefices into one benefice with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes only.

"As witness our hand this twenty-second day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six.

“A. C. Cantuar.”

Now therefore Her Majesty in Council by and with the advice of Her said Council is pleased to order and doth hereby order that the said rectory of Chilton Cantelo and the rectory of Ashington be united into one benefice for the cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes only.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of April, 1876.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twentieth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, in the words following; that is to say,

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty chapter seventy of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty chapter ninety-seven of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty chapter fifty-five and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of your Majesty chapter eighty-two have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Matthew situate within the limits of the new parish of Christ Church Surbiton Hill in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Winchester.

“Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Christ Church Surbiton Hill and of the parish of Long Ditton in the said county of Surrey and in the said diocese of Winchester which said extremities lie contiguous one to another and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such new parish and parish respectively.

“And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said new parish of Christ Church, Surbiton Hill and of the said parish of Long Ditton should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Matthew situate within the limits of the said new parish of Christ Church Surbiton Hill.

“Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Harold Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester (in testimony whereof he the said Bishop has signed and sealed this representation) with the consent of William Henry Stone of Dulwich Hill in the said county of Surrey and of Leigh Park in the county of Southampton Esquire of Sir Thomas Fowell Buxton of Warlies in the county of Essex Baronet of the Reverend Stephen Bridge of Droxford in the said county of Southampton Clerk in Holy Orders and of James Alexander Strachan of Surbiton in the said county of Surrey Esquire the Patrons of the vicarage of the said new parish of Christ Church Surbiton Hill (in testimony whereof they the said William Henry Stone Sir Thomas Fowell Buxton Stephen Bridge and James Alexander Strachan have respectively signed and sealed this representation) and with the consent of the Warden and Scholars of Saint Mary College of Winchester in Oxford commonly called New College in Oxford, the patrons of the rectory of the said parish of Long Ditton (in testimony whereof they the said Warden and Scholars have set their Common or Corporate Seal to this representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Christ Church Surbiton Hill and of the said parish of Long Ditton which are described in the schedule hereunder written all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Matthew situate within the limits of the new parish of Christ Church Surbiton Hill as aforesaid and that the same should be named ‘The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Matthew, Surbiton.’

“We therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Matthew Surbiton being:—

“All that portion of the new parish of Christ Church Surbiton Hill, in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Winchester, which is bounded on the south-east partly by that detached portion of the parish of Long Ditton which is called or known as the hamlet of Talworth in the said county and diocese and partly by the particular district or new parish of Saint Paul Hook in the same county and diocese, and upon all other sides, that is to say, on the west on the north and on the east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said particular district or new parish of Saint Paul Hook from the new parish of Christ Church Surbiton Hill aforesaid at the point where the Ditton-road is intersected by the Leatherhead-road and extending thence northward for a distance of twenty-one and a half chains or thereabouts along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with Langley-lane and extending thence north-eastward for a distance of twelve chains or thereabouts along the middle of the said lane to its junction with Oakhill-road and extending thence eastward for a distance of five and a half chains or thereabouts along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with the Ewell-road, and extending thence south-eastward for a distance of sixteen and a half chains or thereabouts along the middle of the last-named road to a point opposite to the south-western end of the ditch on the northern side of the footpath leading into King Charles's-road and extending thence for a distance of seventeen chains or thereabouts first north-eastward and then eastward to and along the middle of the said ditch (thereby passing along the southern side of the house and grounds called or known as the Fishponds) to the point where the same ditch strikes the western side of King Charles's-road aforesaid and continuing thence still eastward to a point in the middle of the last-named road and extending thence south-eastward for a distance of two chains or thereabouts along the middle of the same road to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Christ Church Surbiton Hill from that detached portion of the parish of Long Ditton which is called or known as the hamlet of Talworth as aforesaid.

"And also all that said detached portion of the parish of Long Ditton comprising by admeasurement one thousand one hundred and ninety-eight and a half acres or thereabouts which is called or known as the hamlet of Talworth as aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of April, 1876.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the tenth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, in the words following; that is to say:

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of your Majesty chapter eighty-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in the new parish of Saint Barnabas Bradwell, in the county of Derby and in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Lichfield are patrons of the vicarage of Hope in the said county and diocese, and are also patrons of the said new parish and vicarage of Saint Barnabas Bradwell some time part of the parish of Hope aforesaid.

"And whereas it appears to us that the said new parish and vicarage of Saint Barnabas, Bradwell is insufficiently endowed and a desire has been expressed to us by the said Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Lichfield as such patrons as aforesaid, and by the Reverend Henry Buckston, the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Hope that a certain apportionment of income now belonging to the said vicarage of Hope should be made in favour of the said new parish and vicarage of Saint Barnabas Bradwell.

"And whereas there is payable by us to the incumbent of the said vicarage of Hope out of the common fund under our control a yearly sum or stipend of fifty-six pounds.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such an apportionment as is hereinafter specified and set forth should be made accordingly.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend George Augustus Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield (in testimony of which consent he has signed and sealed this scheme), of the said Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Lichfield as such patrons as aforesaid (in testimony of which consent to this scheme the said Dean and Chapter have hereunto affixed their common or corporate seal), of the said Henry Buckston, incumbent of the said vicarage of Hope (in testimony of which consent he has signed and sealed this scheme) we humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme a portion, amounting to a yearly sum of thirty pounds, of the yearly sum or stipend of fifty-six pounds now payable by us to the incumbent of the said vicarage of Hope as aforesaid shall be payable by us to the incumbent of the said new parish and vicarage of Saint Barnabas Bradwell and his successors incumbents of the same new parish and shall form part of the endowment thereof.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or either of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of April, 1876.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the second day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, in the words following; that is to say:

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of All Saints situate at Shooter's Hill in the parish of Plumstead in the county of Kent and in the diocese of Rochester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of All Saints situate at Shooter's Hill as aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Thomas Legh Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Plumstead which is described in the schedule hereunder written all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of All Saints situate at Shooter's Hill as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of All Saints Shooter's Hill Plumstead.'

"And with the like consent of the said Thomas Legh Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester (testified as aforesaid) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published and that marriages baptisms churchings and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of All Saints situate at Shooter's Hill as aforesaid and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always that so long as the Reverend James Adair McAllister the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Plumstead shall continue to be such vicar or incumbent all the fees which may be received in respect of such publication solemnization or performance at the said church of All Saints, situate at Shooter's Hill as aforesaid, shall be paid over by the minister thereof to the said James Adair McAllister and provided also that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of All Saints, Shooter's Hill, Plumstead, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Plumstead in the county of Kent and in the diocese of Rochester wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls which is bounded on the south by the particular district of Christ Church Shooters' Hill on the west partly by the parish of Woolwich and partly by the new parish of Saint John Woolwich all in the county and diocese aforesaid on the north-west by the last-named new parish and upon the remaining side, that is to say, on the east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said last-named new parish from the parish of Plumstead aforesaid at a point at or near to the middle of the northern end of Hanover-road and extending thence for a distance of thirteen chains or thereabouts first south-eastward and then southward along the middle of the said road to its junction with the street or road called or known as Brook-hill and extending thence eastward for a distance of eight chains or thereabouts along the middle of the last-named road and along the middle of Plumstead Common-road to the junction of the last-named road with Barnfield-road and extending thence southward for a distance of fourteen and a-half chains or thereabouts along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with the street or road called or known as Portland-place and extending thence westward for a distance of five chains or thereabouts along the middle of the last-named street or road thereby crossing Princes-road to the junction of the said last-named street or road with the lane or footpath leading from Herbert-road past the western side of the house and grounds called or known as Tower House into Shrewsbury-lane and extending thence for a distance of twenty-eight chains or thereabouts first southward and thence south-eastward along the middle of the said lane or footpath to its junction on the southern side of the said house and grounds with Shrewsbury-lane aforesaid and extending thence south-westward for a distance of twenty-seven chains or thereabouts along the middle of the last-named lane to the boundary which divides the said parish of Plumstead from the particular district of Christ Church Shooter's Hill aforesaid.

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Rochester.

C. L. Peel.

At the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of April, 1876.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Local Board for the district of Whitworth, in the county of Lancaster, have, under the provisions of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Burial Acts," presented a petition stating that the district of the said Local Board is co-extensive with the district for which it is proposed to provide a burial ground, that no Burial Board has been appointed for such district, and that an Order in Council has been made for closing, with certain exceptions, the burial grounds within the said district, and praying that the said Local Board may be appointed a Burial Board for the district of such Local Board:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such petition, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the ninth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be published in the London Gazette, and in one of the newspapers usually circulating in the district of the Local Board aforesaid, one month at least before the said ninth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of April, 1876.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Local Board of Health for the district of Hindley, in the county of Lancaster, have, under the provisions of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Burial Acts," presented a petition stating that the district of the said Local Board is co-extensive with the district for which it is proposed to provide a burial ground, that no Burial Board has been appointed for such district, that serious inconvenience has been experienced by the inhabitants of the district in consequence of the want of burial accommodation in the burial grounds that still remain open in the district, and that an Order in Council has been made for closing, with certain exceptions, the Churchyard of All Saints, Hindley, and for closing the Roman Catholic Burial Ground, Hindley, within the said district, and praying that the said Local Board may be appointed a Burial Board for the district of such Local Board:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such petition, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the ninth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be published in the London Gazette, and in one of the newspapers usually circulating in the district of the Local Board aforesaid, one month at least before the said ninth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of April, 1876.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act

(whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas Orders in Council have been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards hereinafter mentioned from the time specified in such Orders; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards be postponed:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards be postponed as follows, viz.:

In the parish cemetery or additional churchyard of All Saints, Wandsworth, to the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six.

In the churchyard of Llanvyllin to the thirtieth of September, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of April, 1876.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the School Board of the United District of Piddington, appointed under "The Elementary Education Act, 1870," have, in virtue of the powers conferred upon them by the seventy-fourth section of that Act, with the approval of the Education Department, made certain Bye-laws, bearing date the eleventh of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, numbered 584:

And whereas all the conditions in regard to the said Bye-laws, which are required to be fulfilled by the said Act, have been fulfilled, and the said Bye-laws have been submitted for the sanction of Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said Bye-laws (copy whereof is hereunto annexed) into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to declare, and doth hereby declare, Her sanction of the same.

Bye-laws referred to in the foregoing Order.

No. DLXXXIV.

THE ELEMENTARY EDUCATION ACTS,
1870 AND 1873.

United School District of Piddington.

BYE-LAWS OF THE UNITED SCHOOL DISTRICT OF PIDDINGTON

Under the 74th section of the Elementary Education Act, 1870, adopted at a Meeting of the School Board for the United District of Piddington, held at Piddington, in the County of Northampton, the 8th day of February, 1876.

BYE-LAWS.

Interpretation of Terms.

1. The term "School Board," or "Board," means the School Board of the United District of Piddington. The term "School," or "Public Elementary School," means a Public Elementary School as defined by the "Elementary Education Act, 1870." The term "Parent" includes guardian, and every person who is liable to maintain, or has the actual custody of any child, but does not include the mother of a child when the father is living, and is residing within the School District.

Parents shall cause Children between Five and Twelve Years of Age to attend School.

2. The parent of every child residing within the United School District of Piddington shall cause such child, not being less than five nor more than twelve years of age, to attend a Public Elementary School, unless there is some reasonable excuse for non-attendance.

Any of the following reasons shall be a reasonable excuse, namely:—

Reasonable Excuses for Non-Attendance.

- (a.) That the child is under efficient instruction in some other manner.
- (b.) That the child has been prevented from attending school by sickness, or any unavoidable cause, or cause which, in the opinion of the School Board, shall be deemed reasonable.
- (c.) That there is no Public Elementary School open, which the child can attend, within three miles, measured according to the nearest road, from the residence of such child.
- (d.) That such child having attained the age of ten years, has reached the fourth standard of the Government Code of February, 1875, and has obtained a certificate to that effect from one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools.

3. Whenever the parent of any child shall satisfy the School Board that he is unable, from poverty, to pay the school fees for such child, the School Board shall, for a renewable period, not exceeding six calendar months, remit or pay such part of the fees as the parent is unable to pay.

As to Time of Attendance, &c.

4. The time during which every child shall attend school, shall, except in the cases specified in Bye-law No. 2, be the whole time for which the school shall be open for the instruction of children of similar age, provided—

- (1.) That nothing herein contained shall prevent the withdrawal of any child from any religious observance or instruction, inspection, or examination in religious subjects.
- (2.) That no child shall be required to attend school (a) at any time or in any manner contrary to anything contained in any Act for regulating the education of children employed in labour, (b) or on any day exclusively set apart for religious observance by the religious body to which his or her parent belongs.

Penalty for Breach of Bye-laws.

5. Any parent who shall be guilty of a breach of any of these Bye-laws shall, for every such offence, be subject to a penalty, including costs, not exceeding five shillings.

6. These Bye-laws shall take effect from and after the day on which the same shall be sanctioned by Her Majesty in Council.

No. DLXXXV.

THE ELEMENTARY EDUCATION ACTS,
1870 AND 1873.

BYE-LAWS OF THE SCHOOL BOARD OF THE UNITED DISTRICT OF BODDINGTON.

THE said School Board, at a Meeting duly held in the United District of Boddington, on Friday, the 11th day of February, 1876, do hereby, in pursuance of the powers to them given by the Elementary Education Acts, 1870 and 1873, and subject to the approval of the Education Department, make the following Bye-laws:—

1. The parent of every child of not less than five nor more than ten years of age, and residing within the district of the said School Board, shall cause such child to attend school, unless there be some reasonable excuse for non-attendance. Any of the following reasons shall be a reasonable excuse, viz.:—

- (1.) That the child is under efficient instruction in some other manner.
- (2.) That the child has been prevented from attending school by sickness or any unavoidable cause.
- (3.) That there is no Public Elementary School open which the child can attend, within two miles, measured according to the nearest road from the residence of such child.

2. Every such child is required to attend school during the whole time for which the school selected shall be open for the instruction of children (except on Sundays).

3. Provided that any child under the age of ten years, who has obtained from one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools a certificate that such child has reached a standard of education equivalent to the Second Standard of the Government New Code of 1875, shall be exempt from the obligation to attend school during the whole time for which the school shall be open as aforesaid; but every such child is required to attend school for at least ten hours in every week in which the school is open as aforesaid; and in computing, for the purpose of this section, the time during which a child has attended any school, there shall not be included any time during which such child has attended either—

- (a) In excess of three hours at any one time, or in excess of five hours on any one day, or
(b) On Sundays.

4. Nothing in the present Bye-laws—

- (1) Shall prevent the withdrawal of any child from any religious observance, or instruction in religious subjects.
(2) Shall require any child to attend school on any day exclusively set apart for religious observance by the religious body to which his parent belongs; or
(3) Shall have any force or effect, in so far as it may be contrary to anything contained in any Act for regulating the education of children employed in labour.

5. If the parent of any child required by these Bye-laws to attend school, shall satisfy the said Board that he or she is unable, from poverty, to pay the school fees of such child, the said Board shall, for a renewable period, to be fixed by the Board, not exceeding six calendar months, remit at any school provided by the Board, or pay at any other Public Elementary School, the whole or such part of the fees as, in the opinion of the Board, the parent is unable to pay.

6. The penalty that shall be imposed for the breach of the present Bye-laws, or any of them, shall be a sum not exceeding, with the costs, five shillings for each offence.

In witness whereof the Common Seal of the said Board has hereunto been affixed on the 11th day of February, 1876.

Sealed in the presence of Thomas Purnell, Chairman.

H. A. Badham, Clerk to the Board.

No. DLXXXVI.

THE ELEMENTARY EDUCATION ACT,
1870.

BYE-LAWS OF THE WORSBROUGH SCHOOL BOARD
UNDER the 74th Section of the "Elementary Education Act, 1870," adopted at a duly convened Meeting of the Board, held on the 7th day of February, 1876.

Interpretation of Terms.

In these Bye-laws:—

The term "Education Department" means the Lords of the Committee of the Privy Council on Education.

The term "Her Majesty's Inspectors" means the Inspectors of Schools appointed by Her Majesty on the recommendation of the Education Department.

The terms importing males in these Bye-laws include females.

The term "School Board" or "Board" means the School Board of the district comprising the parish of Worsbrough.

The term "School" or "Public Elementary School" means a Public Elementary School as defined by the said Act, and includes a Free but not an Industrial School.

The term "Parent" includes Guardian and every person who is liable to maintain, or has the actual custody of any child.

BYE-LAWS.

Parents shall cause Children between five and thirteen years of Age to attend School.

1. The parent of any child residing within the parish of Worsbrough, shall cause such child, not being less than five nor more than thirteen years old, to attend a Public Elementary School, unless there be reasonable excuse for non-attendance.

Any of the following shall be deemed reasonable excuses:—

- (a.) Sickness or any unavoidable cause, or any cause, which in the opinion of the School Board, shall be deemed satisfactory.
- (b.) That there is no Public Elementary School open which the child can attend within one mile and a half, measured according to the nearest road, from the residence of such child.
- (c.) That such child is otherwise under efficient instruction.

2. If any child between ten and thirteen years of age has been certified by one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools, to have reached such a standard of education as would enable it pass in the fourth standard of the New Code, 1875, or can pass an examination in such standard to the satisfaction of the Board: such child shall be wholly exempt from the obligation to attend school, and any child between eleven and thirteen years of age who has been so certified to have reached such a standard of education as would enable it to pass in the third standard of the said Code, or can pass an examination in such standard to the satisfaction of the Board, shall be exempt from the obligation to attend more than one half of the meetings of the school selected in any one week.

Time of Attendance.

3. Subject to the provisions of the Elementary Education Acts, 1870, 1873, and of these Bye-laws, the time during which children shall attend school shall be the whole time that the school selected shall be open for the instruction of children of the same sex and class in the school; provided:

- (a.) That nothing herein contained shall prevent the withdrawal of any child from any religious observance or instruction in religious subjects.
- (b.) That no child be required to attend school on any day exclusively set apart for religious observance by the religious body to which his or her parent belongs.

- (c.) That no child be required to attend school on Sunday, Christmas Day, Good Friday, or on any day set apart for a day of Public Fast or Thanksgiving, or on Saturdays after twelve o'clock at noon.
- (d.) That no child be required to attend school on any day fixed for the inspection of the school, or the examination of the scholars therein, in respect of religious subjects.
- (e.) That nothing in the present Bye-laws shall have any force or effect in so far as it may be contrary to anything contained in any Act for regulating the education of children employed in labour.

Penalty for non-compliance with Bye-laws.

4. Any parent who shall commit a breach of any of these Bye-laws shall for each such offence be subject to a penalty not exceeding, with costs, five shillings.

Conviction to be for only one Offence per Child per Week.

5. No parent shall be proceeded against or convicted in respect of more than one offence with regard to one and the same child, in one and the same week.

Exemptions from Payment of School Fees.

6. When the parent of a child residing in the district of the Board is unable from poverty to pay the whole or part of the school fees payable by such child, the Board shall, in the case of a school provided by the Board, remit, and shall, in the case of any other Public Elementary School, pay, for a renewable period to be from time to time fixed by the Board, not exceeding six calendar months, the whole or such part of the fees as in their opinion the parent is unable from poverty to pay, provided that the amount of fees hereby undertaken to be paid shall not exceed the ordinary payment at the school selected by the parent, or the following scale:—

Boys' School	... ..	4d. per week.
Girls' and mixed Schools	... ..	do.
Infants' Schools and all Children under six years of age	... ..	2d. per week.

THE ELEMENTARY EDUCATION ACT, 1870.

Parish of St. Leonard, Devon.

BYE-LAWS OF THE SAINT LEONARD SCHOOL BOARD.

WHEREAS in pursuance of a requisition from the Education Department to the Clerk of the St. Thomas Union, in the county of Devon, a School Board for the district of the said parish was duly elected on the 22nd day of July, 1874.

And whereas by the Elementary Education Act, 1870, power is given to School Boards to enact Bye-laws, subject to the approval of the Education Department; now, therefore, at a Meeting of the said Board, held at the Board Room of the said Board, in Saint Leonard aforesaid, on the 8th day of February, 1876, at which meeting all the members of such Board are present, the said Board do hereby enact the following Bye-laws:—

1. Subject to the provisions of the Elementary Education Acts, 1870-1873, and of these Bye-laws, the parent of every child not less than five years of age nor more than thirteen years of age, residing within the district of the said School Board, shall cause such child (unless there is some reasonable excuse) to attend school; any of the following reasons shall be a reasonable excuse, viz:—

- (a.) That such child is under efficient instruction in some other manner.
- (b.) That such child has been prevented from attending school by sickness or any unavoidable cause.
- (c.) That there is no Public Elementary School which such child can attend within two miles (measured according to the nearest road) from the residence of such child.

2. The time during which every child shall attend school shall be the whole time for which the school shall be open for the instruction of children of similar age, provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent the withdrawal of any child during the time or times in which any religious observance is practised or instruction in religious subjects is given, and that no child shall be required—

- (a.) To attend school on any day exclusively set apart for religious observance by the religious body to which his or her parent belongs.
- (b.) To attend school on Sunday, Christmas Day, Good Friday, or any day set apart for a day of Public Fast or Thanksgiving.

3. In case one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools shall certify that any child between ten and thirteen years of age has reached the fifth standard of education mentioned in the New Code of Regulations of the Education Department, made on the 20th day of March, 1874, such child shall be totally exempt from the obligation to attend school, and any such child who has been so certified to have reached the fourth standard of education mentioned in the said Code, shall be exempt from the obligation to attend school more than ten hours in any one week.

4. Nothing in the present Bye-laws shall have any force or effect in so far as it may be contrary to anything contained in any Act for regulating the education of children employed in labour.

5. If the parent of any child residing in the district of the Board satisfies the School Board that he or she is unable, from poverty, to pay the school fees of such child, the School Board, in the case of a school provided by the Board will remit, and in the case of any other Public Elementary School will pay the whole or such part of the fees as, in the opinion of the Board, the parent is unable to pay, for a renewable period, to be fixed by the Board, not exceeding six calendar months.

6. Any person convicted of a breach of these Bye-laws, or any of them, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five shillings, inclusive of costs, for each offence.

7. These Bye-laws shall take effect from and after the day on which the same shall be sanctioned by Her Majesty by Order in Council.

No. DLXXXVIII.

THE ELEMENTARY EDUCATION ACT,
1870.

BYE-LAWS OF THE SCHOOL BOARD OF THE PARISH OF OFFHAM, IN THE COUNTY OF KENT.

WE, the School Board of the parish of Offham, in the county of Kent, under and by virtue of the power and authority given to and vested in us, by the Elementary Education Act, 1870, at a Meeting held at the School House, in the parish of Offham aforesaid, on Saturday, the twenty-sixth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, do, with the approval of the Education Department, make the following Bye-laws.

Interpretation of Terms.

1. The terms hereinafter used, when they are the same as those defined in the 3rd section of the Elementary Education Act, 1870, and the 27th section of the Elementary Education Act, 1873, shall have the same definition as therein given to each of them respectively.

Bye-laws subject to Elementary Education Acts.

2. These Bye-laws are subject to the clauses and provisions contained in the said Elementary Education Acts, 1870 and 1873, respectively.

Requiring Parents to cause Children to attend School.

3. Subject to the provisions of the said Elementary Education Acts, and of these Bye-laws, the parent of every child not less than five years of age, nor more than thirteen years of age, and residing within the said parish of Offham, shall cause such child to attend such school as the parent may select, unless there is some reasonable excuse for non-attendance.

Subject to the following exceptions :

4. A child shall not be required to attend school under these Bye-laws—

(a) If such child is under efficient instruction in some other manner.

(b) If such child is prevented attending school by sickness or any unavoidable cause.

(c) If there is no Public Elementary School which such child can attend within three miles, measured according to the nearest road, from the residence of such child.

Determining Time during which children shall attend School.

5. Subject as aforesaid, the time during which every child shall attend school, shall be the whole time for which the school selected shall be open for the instruction of children.

Provided that in case one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools shall certify that any child between ten and thirteen years of age has reached the fifth standard of education by reference to the Code of the Education Department in force at the date of such certificate, such child shall be exempt from the obligation to attend school, and any such child who has been so certified to have reached the fourth standard of education, mentioned in the said Code, shall be exempt from the obligation to attend school more than half the school meetings in any one week.

Provided also that nothing herein contained shall prevent the withdrawal of any child from any religious observance, or instruction in religious subjects, or inspection in such subjects, or shall require any child to attend school on any day exclusively set apart for religious observance by the religious body to which his or her parent belongs.

6. Nothing in the present Bye-laws shall have any force or effect in so far as it may be contrary to anything contained in any Act for regulating the education of children employed in labour.

Providing for remission or payment of School Fees in case of Poverty.

7. If the parent of any child satisfies the School Board that the reason his child does not attend school is that he is unable, from poverty, to pay the whole or any part of the school fees of such child, the said Board will, in the case of a school provided by the said Board, remit the whole or such part of the fees as, in the opinion of the said Board, the parent is unable to pay, for a renewable period, to be fixed by the said Board, not exceeding six calendar months.

Penalty for breach of Bye-laws.

8. Any parent committing an offence in breach of any of these Bye-laws, shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding such an amount as, with the costs, will amount to the sum of five shillings for each offence.

Date on which Bye-laws shall come into operation.

9. These Bye-laws shall take effect from and after the third day of April, one thousand eight hundred and seventy six, if the same shall then have received the sanction of Her Majesty in Council, or from and after any day after such last-mentioned day on which the same shall be sanctioned by Her Majesty by Order in Council.

Sealed with the Corporate Common Seal of the School Board of the Parish of Offham, this twenty-sixth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six.

No. DLXXXIX.

THE ELEMENTARY EDUCATION ACTS,
1870 AND 1873.

BYE-LAWS OF THE SCHOOL DISTRICT OF BEARD, OLLERSETT, WHITLE, AND THORNSETT.

WHEREAS, in pursuance of a requisition sent by the Education Department to the Clerk of the Hayfield Union, in the county of Derby, a School Board for the district of Beard, Ollersett, Whitle, and Thornsett, was duly elected on Saturday, the 2nd day of October, 1875.

Now, at a Meeting of the said School Board, held at the Public Hall, New Mills, on Thursday, the 13th day of January, 1876, at which a quorum of members are present, the said Board do hereby, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon them by the Elementary Education Acts, of 1870 and 1873, and subject to the approval of the Education Department, make and ordain the following Bye-laws :—

Preliminary.

In these Bye-laws—

The term "Her Majesty's Inspectors" means the Inspectors of Schools appointed by Her Majesty on the recommendation of the Education Department.

The term "District" or "School District," means the township of Beard, Ollersett, Whitle, and Thornsett.

The term "Board" or "School Board" means the School Board for the district of Beard, Ollersett, Whitle, and Thornsett ;—

The term "School" means a Public Elementary School.

The terms importing males include females.

The term "Parent" includes guardian, and every person who is liable to maintain or has the actual custody of any child residing within the district, but does not include the mother of a child, when the father is living, and residing within the district.

BYE-LAWS.

(1.) The parent of every child residing within the district shall cause such child, being not less than five, nor more than thirteen years old, to attend school, unless there be a reasonable excuse for non-attendance.

The following shall be deemed reasonable excuses :—

- (a.) Sickness or any unavoidable cause or any cause which, in the opinion of the Board, shall be deemed reasonable ;
- (b.) That such child is otherwise under efficient instruction ;
- (c.) That there is no Public Elementary School open which the child can attend, within three miles, measured according to the nearest road, from the residence of such child.

(2.) Any child having attained the age of ten years, who has reached such a standard of education as would enable it to pass a public examination according to the fifth standard of the Code of the Education Department of April, 1875, and has obtained a certificate to that effect from one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools, shall be wholly exempt from the obligation to attend school under these Bye-laws, and any such child who has been so certified to have reached such a standard of education as would enable it to pass a public examination according to the fourth standard of the said Code, shall be exempt from the obligation to attend more than one half of the meetings of the School selected in any one week.

(3.) Subject to the provisions of the Elementary Education Acts, 1870 and 1873, and of these Bye-laws, the time during which every child shall attend school, shall be the whole time for which the school selected shall be open for the instruction of children of similar age, provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent the withdrawal of any child from any religious observance, or instruction or examination in religious subjects, or shall require any child to attend school on any day exclusively set apart for religious observance by the religious body to which his parent belongs.

(4.) Nothing in the present Bye-laws shall have any force in so far as it may be contrary to anything contained in any Act for regulating the education of children employed in labour.

(5.) Every parent committing a breach of these Bye-laws, or any of them, shall, upon conviction, be liable to a penalty not exceeding such an amount as with the costs will amount to five shillings for each offence.

(6.) If the School Board be satisfied that the parent of any child residing within the district, is unable, from poverty, to pay the whole, or any part of the school fees, payable for such child, the Board shall remit, at their own schools, or pay at other Public Elementary Schools, the whole, or such part of the fees as, in the opinion of the Board, the parent is unable to pay, for a renewable period, to be from time to time fixed by the Board, not exceeding six calendar months.

(7.) These Bye-laws shall come into force immediately after receiving the sanction of Her Majesty in Council.

Dated the 13th day of January, 1876.

No. DXC.

THE ELEMENTARY EDUCATION ACT,
1870.

BYE-LAWS OF THE ST. KEVERNE SCHOOL BOARD, CORNWALL.

THE School Board of the parish of St. Keverne, at a Meeting held at the Vestry Room, in the said parish, on the 16th day of December, 1875, in pursuance of the powers to them given by the "Elementary Education Act 1870," and subject to the approval of the Education Department, do hereby make and enact the following Bye-laws:—

Interpretation of Terms.

I.—The term "Education Department" means the Lords of the Committee of the Privy Council on Education.

The term "Her Majesty's Inspectors" means the Inspector of Schools, appointed by Her Majesty, on the recommendation of the Education Department.

The term "School Board" or "Board" means the School Board of the district forming the parish of St. Keverne.

The term implying "Males" includes females, except where otherwise defined.

The term "School" means a Public Elementary School as defined by the "Elementary Education Act 1870," or any other school at which efficient elementary instruction is given.

The term "Parent" includes guardian and every person who is liable to maintain, or has the actual custody of any child; but does not include the mother of a child when the father is living, and residing within the district.

II.—Subject to the provisions of the "Elementary Education Act, 1870," and of these Bye-laws, the parent of every child of not less than five years nor more than thirteen years of age, and residing within the said parish, is required to cause such child to attend school, unless there be some reasonable excuse for non-attendance.

III.—The time during which every such child is required to attend school is the whole time for which the school shall be open for the instruction of children of similar age, provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent the withdrawal of any child from any religious observance, or instruction in religious subjects, or shall require any child to attend school on any day exclusively set apart for religious observance by the religious body to which his parent belongs.

IV.—1st. A child of not less than ten years of age, who has obtained from one of Her Majesty's Inspectors a certificate that he has reached a standard equivalent to the fifth standard of the Government New Code of 1871, shall be altogether exempt from obligation to attend school; and

2nd. A child of not less than ten years of age, who shows, to the satisfaction of the Board, that he is beneficially and necessarily at work, shall be exempt from the obligation to attend during the whole time for which the school shall be opened as aforesaid, but every such child is required to attend school for at least ten hours in every week in which the school is opened, as aforesaid; and in computing, for the purpose of this section, the time during which a child has attended any school, there shall not be included any time during which such child has attended either

(a) In excess of three hours at any one time, or in excess of five hours in any one day, or—

(b) On Sundays.

V.—In addition to the reasonable excuses for the non-attendance of a child at school, mentioned in the Act, viz:—

1st. That the child is under efficient instruction in some other manner.

2nd. That the child has been prevented from attending school by sickness or any unavoidable cause; it shall be—

3rd. A reasonable excuse for his non-attendance, that there is no Public Elementary School open where such child can attend within three miles, measured according to the nearest road, from the residence of such child; the Board reserving to themselves the power of allowing children under nine years of age, when they reside more than a mile from any Public Elementary School, to absent themselves upon a request, addressed to the Board by the parent, to that effect.

VI. Nothing in the present Bye-laws shall have any force or effect, in so far as it may be contrary to anything contained in any Act for regulating the education of children employed in labour.

VII.—If the parent of any child satisfies the School Board that the reason his child does not attend school, is that he is unable, from poverty, to pay the School fees of such child, the School Board, in the case of a school provided by the Board, will remit the whole or such part of the fees as in the opinion of the Board the parent is unable to pay, for a renewable period, to be fixed by the Board, not exceeding six calendar months.

VIII.—Every parent who shall not observe or shall neglect or violate these Bye-laws, or any of them, shall upon conviction, be liable to a penalty not exceeding five shillings, including costs, for each offence.

IX.—These Bye-laws shall take effect from and after the day on which the same shall be sanctioned by Her Majesty by Order in Council.

In witness whereof, we, the School Board for the parish of St. Keverne, have hereunto set our Common Seal, this 16th day of December, 1875.

Signed,

Edwd. P. Roskrige,
Chairman of the said Board.
John Smith,
Clerk to the said Board.

No. DXCI.

THE ELEMENTARY EDUCATION ACT,
1870.

THE BYE-LAWS OF THE BURNHAM OVERY SCHOOL BOARD.

At a Meeting of the School Board for Burnham Overy, in the county of Norfolk, duly convened and held in the School Room, Burnham Overy, on Friday, the 4th day of February, 1876, at which meeting a quorum of the members of the Board are present, the said Board do hereby, in pursuance of the powers to them given by "The Elementary Education Act, 1870," and subject to the approval of the Lords of the Committee of the Privy Council on Education, make and ordain the following Bye-laws:—

1. In these Bye-laws—

The term "School" means either a Public Elementary School, or any other school at which efficient elementary instruction is given.

The term "Public Elementary School" means a school or department of a school at which elementary education is the principal part of the education given, and at which the ordinary payments in respect of instruction do not exceed 9*d.* per week, and which is conducted in accordance with the regulations contained in the 7th section of the "Elementary Education Act, 1870."

The term "Board," or "School Board," means the School Board for Burnham Overy.

2. The parent of every child not less than five years, nor more than thirteen years of age, and residing in the district of the Board, is required to cause such child to attend school unless there be some reasonable excuse for non-attendance.

3. Subject to the provisions of the Elementary Education Acts, 1870, 1873, and of these Bye-laws, the time during which every such child is required to attend school, is the whole time for which the school selected shall be opened for the instruction of children, not being less than twenty-five hours a week, except on Sundays, and except also that nothing herein contained shall prevent the withdrawal of any child from any religious observance or instruction in religious subjects, or shall require any child to attend school on any day exclusively set apart for religious observance by the religious body to which his parent belongs.

4. (1) A child not less than ten years of age, who has obtained from one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools a certificate that he or she has reached a standard equivalent to the 4th Standard of the Code of the Education Department, in force at the date of such certificate, shall be altogether exempt from obligation to attend school,

(2) A boy not less than ten years of age, who shows to the satisfaction of the Board that he is beneficially and necessarily at work, shall be exempt from the obligation to attend school, during the whole time for which the school shall be opened as aforesaid; but every such boy is required to attend school for at least ten hours in every week, in which the school is opened as aforesaid, and in computing, for the purpose of this section, the time during which the child has attended any school, there shall not be included any time during which such child has attended either—

(a) In excess of three hours at any one time, or in excess of five hours on any one day.
Or

(b) On Sundays.

(3.) A boy of not less than ten years of age, who shows to the satisfaction of the Board that he is beneficially and necessarily at work, shall be exempt from the obligation to attend school, upon producing to the Board a certificate from the Master of a School, that such boy has completed one hundred attendances at such school, since the 1st day of November, or the 1st day of May, whichever day shall last have happened previous to the date of such certificate, and such exemption shall continue until the 1st day of May, or the 1st day of November, whichever shall first follow the date of such certificate, and no longer.

5. In addition to the reasonable excuses for the non-attendance of a child at school mentioned in the Act, viz:—

(1) That the child is under efficient instruction, in some other manner.

(2) That the child has been prevented from attending school by sickness, or any unavoidable cause.

It shall be—

(3) A reasonable excuse for his or her non-attendance, that there is no Public Elementary School open which such child can attend, within three miles, measured according to the nearest road from the residence of such child.

6. Nothing in the present Bye-laws shall have any force or effect in so far as it may be contrary to anything contained in any Act for regulating the education of children employed in labour.

7. Every parent who shall not observe, or shall neglect or violate these Bye-laws, or any of them, shall, upon conviction, be liable to a penalty not exceeding five shillings, including costs, for each offence.

8. If any parent whose child is or has been attending any school, or who has been required under these Bye-laws to cause his child to attend school, shall satisfy the Board that he is unable, from poverty, to pay the whole or some part of the school fees of such child, the Board will, at schools provided by the Board, remit the whole of the fees, or such part thereof as, in the opinion of the Board, the parent is unable to pay, for such renewable period, not exceeding six calendar months, as shall be from time to time fixed by the Board.

Signed,

F. A. Jickling, Presiding Chairman.

George Hudson, Clerk of the Board.

Dated this 4th day of February, 1876.

At the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of April, 1876.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the School Board of Keysoe, appointed under "The Elementary Education Act, 1870," have, in virtue of the powers conferred upon them by the seventy-fourth section of that Act, with the approval of the Education Department, made certain Bye-laws, bearing date the fourth of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, numbered 592:

And whereas all the conditions in regard to the said Bye-laws, which are required to be fulfilled by the said Act have been fulfilled, and the said Bye-laws have been submitted for the sanction of Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty having taken the said Bye-laws (copy whereof is herewith annexed) into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to declare, and doth hereby declare, Her sanction of the same.

No. DXCII.

THE ELEMENTARY EDUCATION ACT,
1870.

BYE-LAWS OF THE KEYSOE SCHOOL BOARD.

At a Meeting of the Keysoe School Board, holden at the Board Room, Keysoe, on the 4th day of January, 1876, the said Board, in pursuance of the powers given to them by the Elementary Education Act, 1870, and subject to the approval of the Education Department, hereby make and ordain the following Bye-laws:—

1. The parent of every child not less than five years of age nor more than twelve years of age, and residing within the District of the Board, shall cause such child to attend some Public Elementary School, within the meaning of the Elementary Education Act, 1870 (unless there is some reasonable excuse).

Any of the following reasons shall be a reasonable excuse:—

(a.) That the child is under efficient instruction in some other manner.

(b.) That the child has been prevented attending by sickness, or any unavoidable cause, or by any other cause which may appear satisfactory to the Board.

(c.) That there is no Public Elementary School open which the child can attend within the following distances, measured according to the nearest road, from the residence of such child, that is to say—

For a child between five and six years old, within one mile.

For a child between six and twelve years old, within two and a half miles.

2. Subject to the provisions of the Elementary Education Acts, 1870, 1873, and of these Bye-laws, the time during which every such child shall attend school is the whole time during which the school selected shall be open for the instruction of children of similar age.

Provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent the withdrawal of any child from any religious observance or instruction in religious subjects, or shall require any child to attend school on any day exclusively set apart for religious observance by the religious body to which the parent belongs; or on Saturday, Sunday, Christmas Day, Good Friday, or any day set apart for a day of Public Fast or Thanksgiving, or on any day fixed for the inspection of the school, or the examination of the scholars therein, in respect of religious subjects.

3. In case one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools shall certify that any child between the age of ten and twelve has reached the fourth standard of education set out in the Code of Regulations of the Education Department in force for the time being, such child shall be exempt from the obligation to attend school, and any such child who has been so certified to have reached the third standard of education set out in the said Code shall be exempt from the obligation to attend school more than fifteen hours in any one week.

4. Nothing in the present Bye-laws shall have any force or effect in so far as it may be contrary to anything contained in any Act for regulating the education of children employed in labour.

5. If any parent satisfies the School Board that he or she is unable from poverty to pay the school fees of such child, the School Board will remit at any school provided by the Board, the whole or such part of the fees as, in the opinion of the Board, the parent is unable to pay, for a renewable period to be fixed by the Board not exceeding six calendar months.

6. Every person committing a breach of these Bye-laws, or any of them, shall, upon conviction, be liable to a penalty not exceeding, with costs, five shillings for each offence, provided that all breaches of these Bye-laws by a parent in one and the same week shall be deemed to be one offence.

7. These Bye-laws shall take effect from and after the day on which the same shall be sanctioned by Her Majesty by Order in Council.

Sealed with the Common Seal of the School Board of Keysoe, this 4th day of January, 1876.

Bye-laws referred to in the foregoing Order.

No. DXCIII.

THE ELEMENTARY EDUCATION ACT,
1870.

Parish of Radford.

BYE-LAWS OF THE RADFORD SCHOOL BOARD.

Preliminary.

At a Meeting of the School Board of the parish of Radford, duly convened and held at the Offices of the Board, situate in Out Gang-lane, in the said parish, on Thursday, the 20th day of January, 1876, at which Meeting a quorum of the Members of such Board are present, the said Board do hereby, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon them by the Elementary Education Act, 1870, and subject to the approval of the Education Department, make and ordain the following Bye-laws:—

Interpretation of Terms.

In these Bye-laws the term "School" means either a Public Elementary School or any other school at which efficient elementary instruction is given.

The term "Public Elementary School" means a school or department of a school at which elementary education is the principal part of the education there given, and at which the ordinary payments in respect of the instruction from each scholar do not exceed nine pence a week, and which is conducted in accordance with the regulations contained in the 7th section of the Elementary Education Act, 1870.

The term "Parent" includes guardian, and every person who is liable to maintain or has the actual custody of any child.

The terms importing males include females.

Requiring Parents to cause Children to attend School.

I. The parent of every child of not less than five nor more than thirteen years of age, and residing within the district of the said parish of Radford, is required to cause such child to attend school, unless there be some reasonable excuse for non-attendance.

Defining Reasonable Excuses for Non-Attendance.

II. The following shall be deemed such reasonable excuses:—

- (a.) Sickness or some unavoidable cause.
- (b.) That such child is under efficient instruction in some other manner.
- (c.) That there is no Public Elementary School open which the child can attend within two miles, measured according to the nearest road from the residence of such child.

Determining Time during which Children shall attend School.

III. The time during which every child is required to attend school shall be the whole time for which the school selected shall be open for the instruction of children, not being less than twenty-five hours a week, except that nothing herein contained shall—

- (1) Prevent the withdrawal of any child from any religious observance or instruction in religious subjects, or shall
- (2) Require any child to attend school—
  - (a.) On any day exclusively set apart for religious observance by the religious body to which his parent belongs, or—
  - (b.) On Sunday, Christmas Day, Good Friday, or any day set apart for a day of Public Fast or Thanksgiving, or
  - (c.) On Saturday after twelve o'clock at noon, or
  - (d.) On any day fixed for the inspection of the school or examination of the scholars therein in respect of religious subjects.

Providing for total Exemption from Attendance if Child has reached certain Standard.

IV. A child of not less than ten years of age, who has obtained from one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools a certificate that he has reached a standard equivalent to the fifth standard of the Code of the Education Department for 1871, shall be totally exempt from the obligation to attend school.

Providing for partial Exemption from Attendance if Child is beneficially and necessarily at Work.

V. If it be shown, to the satisfaction of the Board, that any child not less than ten years of age is beneficially and necessarily at work, such child shall not be required to attend more than five morning or afternoon meetings of the school in any week.

VI. Nothing in the present Bye-laws shall have any force or effect in so far as it may be contrary to anything contained in any Act regulating the education of children employed in labour.

Providing for Remission or Payment of School Fees in case of Poverty.

VII. If the parent of any child residing in the district of the Board satisfies the School Board that the reason his child does not attend school is that he is unable, from poverty, to pay the whole or some part of the school fees of such child, the School Board, in the case of a school provided by the Board, will remit, and in the case of any other Public Elementary School will pay, the whole of the fees, or such part thereof as, in the opinion of the Board, the parent is unable to pay, for such renewable period, not exceeding six calendar months, as shall be from time to time fixed by the Board. Provided that the amount of fees to be paid shall not exceed either the usual fee charged at the school selected by the parent, or the following scale, namely:—

In boys', girls', and mixed schools for children over six years of age, four pence per week.

In infants' schools, and for children under six years of age, two pence per week.

Penalty for Breach of Bye-laws.

VIII. Every parent who shall not observe, or shall neglect, or violate these Bye-laws, or any of them, shall, upon conviction, be liable to a penalty not exceeding five shillings, including costs, for each offence.

Date on which Bye-laws shall come into operation.

These Bye-laws will come into force immediately after they have been sanctioned by Her Majesty by Order in Council.

Sealed with the Seal of the Radford School Board this 20th day of January, 1876.

THE ELEMENTARY EDUCATION ACT, 1870.

BYE-LAWS OF THE SCHOOL BOARD OF THE PARISH OF KENTON, DEVON.

At a Meeting of the School Board of the parish of Kenton, in the county of Devon, held at the Vestry Room of the said parish of Kenton, on Saturday, the 29th day of January, 1876, the said Board do hereby, in pursuance of the powers vested in them under the Elementary Education Act, 1870, and subject to the approval of the Education Department, make the following Bye-laws:—

1. The term "School Board" or "Board" means the School Board of the parish of Kenton. The term "School" or "Public Elementary School," means a Public Elementary School as defined by the said Act. The term "Parent" includes guardian and every person who is liable to maintain, or has the actual custody of any child.

2. Subject to the provisions of the Elementary Education Act, 1870, and of these Bye-laws, the parent of every child not less than five years of age, nor more than thirteen years of age, and residing within the said parish, shall cause such child to attend school.

3. The time during which every child shall attend school shall be the whole time for which the school selected shall be open for the instruction of children of similar age, but no child shall be required:—

- (a.) To attend on Sunday, or on any day exclusively set apart for religious observance by the religious body to which his parent belongs.
- (b.) To attend any religious observance, or any instruction in religious subjects.
- (c.) To attend school on any day fixed for the inspection of the school, or the examination of the scholars therein, in respect of religious subjects.

4. In case one of Her Majesty's of Schools shall certify that any child between ten and thirteen years of age has reached the fourth standard of education mentioned in the Code of Regulations of

BYE-LAWS OF THE NEWCASTLE-UNDER-LYME SCHOOL BOARD.

Recital of 74th Sec. of the Education Act authorizing School Boards to make Bye-laws as to Attendance at Schools.

WHEREAS by the 74th section of the Elementary Education Act of 1870, it was enacted, that every School Board may, from time to time, with the approval of the Education Department, make Bye-laws.

Recital of Election of School Board.

And whereas, in pursuance of a requisition sent by the Education Department, to the Mayor of borough of Newcastle-under-Lyme, in the county of Stafford, a School Board for the district of the said borough was duly elected on the 21st day of February, 1871.

Now, at a Meeting of the School Board of the said borough of Newcastle-under-Lyme, held at the Townhall, in the said borough of Newcastle-under-Lyme, on the 29th day of February, 1876, at which meeting a quorum of the members of such Board are present, the said Board do hereby, in pursuance of the aforesaid powers, and subject to the approval of the Education Department make and ordain the following Bye-laws :—

Requiring Parents to cause Children to Attend School.

1. The parent of every child residing within the municipal boundary of the borough of Newcastle-under-Lyme, shall, in default of reasonable excuse, cause such child, being not less than five nor more than thirteen years old, to attend a Public Elementary School, as defined by the 33 and 34 Vict., c. 75, sec. 7.

Interpretation Clause.

2. The word "Parent" in the foregoing Bye-law includes guardian, and every person who is liable to maintain, or has the actual custody of any child.

Defining Reasonable Excuse for non-Attendance.

3. The following shall be deemed reasonable excuses :—

- (a.) Sickness, or any unavoidable cause, or some other cause, which, in the opinion of the School Board, shall be deemed reasonable.
- (b.) That such child is otherwise under efficient instruction.
- (c.) If there is no Public Elementary School which such child can attend within one mile, measured according to the nearest road, from the residence of such child.

Determining Time during which Children shall Attend School. (See Sec. 7, sub-section 2.)

4. The time during which every child shall attend school, shall be the whole time for which the school selected shall be open for the instruction of children of a similar age, and not being less than 20 hours a week, provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent the withdrawal of any child from any religious observance or instruction in religious subjects, or shall require any child to attend school on any day exclusively set apart for religious observance by the religious body to which his or her parent belongs.

Proviso for Total or Partial Exemption from Attendance if Child has reached a certain Standard.

5. In case one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools shall certify that any child between ten and thirteen years of age has passed the fifth standard of the Code of the Education Department in force at the date of such certificate, such child shall be exempt from the obligation to attend school ; and any such child who has been so certified to have passed in the fourth standard of education mentioned in the said Code, shall be exempt from the obligation to attend school more than ten hours in any one week.

Proviso as to Attendance of Children employed in Labour.

6. Nothing in the present Bye-laws shall have any force or effect in so far as it may be contrary to anything contained in any Act for regulating the education of children employed in labour.

Penalty for Breach of Bye-laws.

7. Any person committing a breach of these Bye-laws, or any of them, shall, upon conviction, be liable to a penalty not exceeding such an amount as with the costs will amount to five shillings for each offence, provided always that no person shall be liable to be convicted more than once in respect of acts of negligence or non-observance occurring in one and the same week.

Revocation of former Bye-laws, &c.

8. All Bye-laws heretofore made by the said School Board are hereby wholly revoked, annulled, and made void, together with the schedule thereto annexed, as from the day herein specified in Bye-law 9.

Date on which Bye-laws shall come into Effect.

9. These Bye-laws shall take effect from and after the day on which they shall be sanctioned by Her Majesty by Order in Council.

Sealed with the Corporate Common Seal of the School Board of the borough of Newcastle-under-Lyme, this 29th day of February 1876.

EXPLOSIVES ACT, 1875 (38 Vic., c. 17).

WHEREAS by Section 68 of the above-named Act, it is provided as follows:—

“The Council of any Borough which is assessed to the county rate of any county by the Justices of such county, and the Commissioners of any Improvement District, may, by order of a Secretary of State made upon the application of such Council or Commissioners, and published in the London Gazette, be declared to be a Local Authority for the purposes of this Act, and thereupon shall become a Local Authority accordingly for such part of their borough or district as is not included in any harbour, to the exclusion of the Justices in Petty Sessions:”

And whereas an application has been made to me by the Council of the borough of Wrexham to be declared a Local Authority for the purposes of the said Act, in accordance with the provision aforesaid.

Now I, the Right Honourable Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, do hereby, in virtue of the powers contained in the said section, declare the said Council of the borough of Wrexham to be a Local Authority for the purposes of the said Act.

NAVAL PRIZE MONEY.

*Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy and Comptroller of Navy
Pay, Admiralty, April 26, 1876.*

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons interested therein, that preparations are now being made for the intended distribution of the tonnage bounty awarded for the slave dhow "Tende," captured on the 25th July, 1875, by Her Majesty's ship "Thetis."

Agents or other persons having any just and legal demand, unliquidated, against the said award, are required to transmit the particulars of any such demand to the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, in order that the same may be examined, taxed, and allowed by that Officer, and paid under the sanction of the Judge of the said Court.

Due notice will be given, by future advertisement in the London Gazette, of the date proposed for the commencement of distribution; and, at the same time, the amount of an individual's share in the respective classes will be announced.

Official Notice.

Proposal to Change a Ship's Name.

PATRICK GARDINER, of 155, Fen-church-street, London, hereby give notice, on behalf of the Antrim Iron Ore Company Limited, of Belfast, that in consequence of various reasons as already stated to the Board of Trade, it is my intention to apply to the Board of Trade, under Section 6 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1871, in respect of the screw steamer "Venus," of Hamburg, of gross tonnage 409.82 tons, of register tonnage 304.90 tons, heretofore owned by Peter Lindsay Henderson, of 6, East India-avenue, London, for permission to change her name to "Rathkenny," to be registered under the said new name at the Port of Belfast, as owned by the Antrim Iron Ore Company Limited.

Any objections to the proposed change of name must be sent to the Assistant-Secretary, Marine Department, Board of Trade, within fifteen days from the appearance of this advertisement.

Dated at London, this 29th day of April, 1876.
P. Gardiner.
