

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, MAY 5, 1876.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
March 17, 1876.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Birthday will be kept on Saturday, the 27th of May next.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
April 29, 1876.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that The Queen will hold Drawing Rooms at Buckingham Palace, on Wednesday, the 10th of May, and on Friday, the 12th of May next, at three o'clock.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOMS AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Ladies, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Rooms, at Buckingham Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented to The Queen must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, not later than two clear days before the Drawing Room, a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Lady who is to make the presentation, of her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's Command, that no presentations shall be made at the Drawing Room, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

It is not expected that Gentlemen will present themselves at Drawing Rooms, except in attendance on the Ladies of their families.

Any Gentleman who, under these circumstances should desire to be presented to The Queen, will observe the same regulations as are in force for Her Majesty's Levees.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at two o'clock.

HERTFORD,
Lord Chamberlain.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
April 28, 1876.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold Levees at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Monday, the 15th, and on Monday, the 22nd of May next, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at these Levees shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEES TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levees, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulations that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, of his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at the Levee, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

HERTFORD,
Lord Chamberlain.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of April, 1876.

PRESENT,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the School Board of Camborne, appointed under the "Elementary Education Act, 1870," have, in virtue of the powers conferred upon them by the seventy-fourth section of that Act, with the approval of the Education Department, made certain Bye-laws, bearing date the twenty-second of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, numbered 595:

And whereas all the conditions in regard to the said Bye-laws, which are required to be fulfilled by the said Act, have been fulfilled, and the said Bye-laws have been submitted for the sanction of Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said Bye-laws (copy whereof is hereunto annexed) into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to declare, and doth hereby declare, Her sanction of the same.

C. I. Peel.

Bye-laws referred to in the foregoing Order.

No. DXCV.

THE ELEMENTARY EDUCATION ACT,
1870.

CAMBORNE SCHOOL PROPOSED BYE-LAWS.

Whereas by the 74th section of the Elementary Education Act, 1870, it is enacted that every School Board may from time to time, with the approval of the Education Department, make Bye-laws, for certain purposes therein specified, which Bye-laws, after receiving the sanction of Her Majesty in Council, shall have effect as if they were enacted in the said Act, and proceedings to enforce any Bye-law so sanctioned may be taken in a summary manner.

Now at a Meeting of the School Board for the parish of Camborne, duly holden on Thursday, the 22nd day of January, 1874 the said

Board do hereby, in pursuance of the aforesaid powers, and subject to the aforesaid approval and sanction, make and ordain the following Bye-laws:—

Interpretation of Terms.

1. The interpretation of terms as in Act.

Requiring Parents to cause Children to attend School.

2. Subject to the provisions of "The Elementary Education Act, 1870," and of these Bye-laws, the parent of every child residing within the parish of Camborne shall cause such child, if not less than five nor more than eleven years of age, to attend school, unless there is some reasonable excuse for absence.

A child shall not be required to attend school—

- (a.) If such child be under efficient instruction in some other manner.
- (b.) If such child be prevented by sickness or any unavoidable cause.
- (c.) If such child be under seven years of age and there is no Public Elementary School open, which the child can attend, within one mile, measured according to the nearest road from the residence of such child.
- (d.) If such child be under nine years of age, and there is no Public Elementary School open within one and a-half miles, measured according to the nearest road from the residence of such child.
- (e.) If such child be under eleven years of age, and there is no Public Elementary School open within two miles, measured according to the nearest road from the residence of such child.

Provided that in case one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools shall certify that any child between ten and eleven years of age has reached the fourth standard of education mentioned in the New Code of Regulations of the Education Department for the year 1873, such child shall be totally exempt from the obligation to attend school.

Determining time during which Children shall attend School.

3. The time during which every child shall attend school shall be the whole time for which the school shall be open for the instruction of children of similar age.

Provided that nothing in these Bye-laws—

- (a.) Shall prevent the withdrawal of any child during the time or times in which any religious observance is practised, or instruction in religious subjects is given.
- (b.) Shall require any child to attend school on any day exclusively set apart for religious observance by the religious body to which the parent belongs.
- (c.) Shall require any child to attend school on Sunday, Saturday, Christmas Day, Good Friday, or any day set apart for a Public Fast or Thanksgiving, or
- (d.) Shall require any child to attend school if such requirement would be contrary to anything contained in any Act for regulating the education of children employed in labour.

Providing for the remission of School Fees in case of poverty.

4. When the parent of any child attending any School provided by the Board, which is not a free school, satisfies the Board that he is unable from poverty to pay the whole or some part of the school fees of such child, and that the parent is not entitled to receive such fees from the Guardians under Section 3 of the Elementary Education Act, 1873, then the Board will remit the whole or such part of the fees, as, in the opinion of the Board, the parent is unable to pay, for a renewable period to be fixed by the Board, not exceeding six calendar months.

Provided that the amount of fees to be remitted shall not exceed the following scale:—

For any child under six years of age, one penny per week.

For any child exceeding six and under eight years of age, three halfpence per week.

For any child exceeding eight and under ten years of age, two pence per week.

For any child exceeding ten and under eleven years of age, three pence per week.

Penalty for breach of Bye-laws.

5. Any person committing a breach of these Bye-laws, or any of them, shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding five shillings, provided that all breaches of these Bye-laws by a parent in one and the same week shall be deemed one offence, and that no penalty imposed for the breach of any Bye-law shall exceed such a sum as with the cost, will amount to five shillings for each offence.

Date on which Bye-laws shall come into operation

6. These Bye-laws shall take effect from and after the day on which the same shall be sanctioned by Order in Council.

Sealed with the corporate common seal of the School Board of the parish of Camborne, this 22nd day of January, 1874.

W. Bickford Smith, Chairman.

James Hosking, Clerk.

THE ELEMENTARY EDUCATION ACT, 1870.

SCHOOL BOARD FOR DEEPING ST. NICHOLAS.

KNOW all men by these presents that—

At a Meeting of the School Board for the District of Deeping St. Nicholas, duly convened and held at the Middle Township Schoolroom, in the parish of Deeping St. Nicholas, on Monday, the 14th day of February, 1876, at which Meeting a quorum of the Members of the Board are present, the said Board do hereby, in pursuance of the powers to them given by the Elementary Education Act 1870, and subject to the approval of the Lords of the Committee of the Privy Council on Education, make and ordain the following

BYE-LAWS.

1. In these Bye-laws terms importing 'Males' include females.

The term "School" means either a Public Elementary School or any other school at which efficient elementary instruction is given.

The term "Public Elementary School" means a school or department of a school at which elementary education is the principal part of the education given, and at which the ordinary payments in respect of instruction do not exceed nine pence a week, and which is conducted in accordance with the regulations contain in the 7th section of the Elementary Education Act, 1870.

The term "Board" or "School Board" means the School Board for Deeping St. Nicholas.

2. The parent of every child residing in the district of the School Board, and of not less than five years nor more than twelve years of age, is required to cause such child to attend school, unless there be some reasonable excuse for non-attendance.

3. Subject to the provisions of the Elementary Education Acts, 1870-73, and of these Bye-laws, the time during which every such child is required to attend school is the whole time for which the school selected shall be opened for the instruction of children, not being less than twenty-five hours a week, except on Sundays, and except also that nothing herein contained shall prevent the withdrawal of any child from any religious observance or instruction in religious subjects, or shall require any child to attend school on any day exclusively set apart for religious observance by the religious body to which his parent belongs.

4. (1) A child of not less than ten years of age who has obtained from one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools a certificate that he has reached a standard equivalent to the fourth standard of the New Code of the Education Department of 1875, shall be altogether exempt from obligation to attend school, and

(2) A child of not less than ten years of age, who shows to the satisfaction of the Board that he is beneficially and necessarily at work shall be exempt from the obligation to attend school upon producing to the Board a certificate from the principal teacher of a school that such child has completed one hundred and fifty attendances at such school between the 1st day of November and the 1st day of May previous to the date of such certificate, and such exemption shall continue until the 1st day of November following the date of such certificate and no longer.

5. In addition to the reasonable excuses for the non-attendances of a child at school mentioned in the Elementary Education Act, 1870, viz.—

- (1) That the child is under efficient instruction in some other manner.
- (2) That the child has been prevented from attending school by sickness or any unavoidable cause.

It shall be

- (3) A reasonable excuse for his non-attendance that there is no Public Elementary School open which such child can attend within three miles, measured according to the nearest road, from the nearest residence of such child.

6. Nothing in the present Bye-laws shall have any force or effect in so far as it may be contrary to anything contained in any Act for regulating the education of children employed in labour.

7. If any parent whose child is or has been attending any school, or who has been required under these Bye-laws to cause his child to attend school, shall satisfy the Board that he is unable, from poverty, to pay the whole or some part of the the school fees of such child, the Board will at schools provided by the Board remit the whole of the fees, or such part thereof as in the opinion of the Board the parent is unable to pay, for such renewable period, not exceeding six calendar months, as shall be from time to time fixed by the Board.

8. Every parent who shall not observe, or shall neglect, or violate these Bye-laws, or any of them, shall upon conviction be liable to a penalty not exceeding five shillings, including costs, for each offence.

Adlard Millington, Chairman.

Geo. H. Dean, Clerk to the Board.

Dated this 14th day of February, 1876.

Bye-laws referred to in the foregoing Order.

No. DXCVII.

THE ELEMENTARY EDUCATION ACT,
1870.

BYE-LAWS OF THE SCHOOL BOARD FOR THE UNITED DISTRICT OF NORTH MUNDHAM, HUNSTON, AND MERSTON, SUSSEX.

At a Meeting of the North Mundham, Hunston, and Merston (U.D.) School Board, duly convened and held at North Mundham, in the county of Sussex, on the 6th day of January, 1876, at which Meeting a quorum of the Members are present, the Board do hereby, in pursuance of the powers given to them by the Elementary Education Act, 1870, and the Elementary Education Act, 1873, or one of them, and subject to the approval of the Education Department, make and ordain the following Bye-laws:—

Interpretation Clause.

1. In these Bye-laws (unless there is anything in the contents repugnant to or inconsistent with such construction),

Terms importing males include females; the term "Education Department" means the Lords of the Committee of the Privy Council on Education; the term "School" means a Public Elementary School, also any other school at which efficient Elementary Education is given; the term "Elementary School" means a school or department of a school at which elementary education is the principal part of the education there given, and does not include any school or department of a school at which the ordinary payments in respect of the instruction from each scholar exceed 9d. a week; and the term "Public Elementary School" means an elementary school which is conducted in accordance with the regulations contained in the 7th Section of the Elementary Education Act, 1870. The term "District" means the entire district of the North Mundham, Hunston, and Merston (U.D.) School Board, for which the said School Board are empowered under the aforesaid Acts to make the present Bye-laws.

The term "Parent" includes Guardian and every person who is liable to maintain, or has the actual custody of, any child.

Requiring Children to attend School.

2. The parent of every child of not less than five years, nor more than thirteen years of age, residing in the district of the School Board, is required to cause such child to attend school unless there be some reasonable excuse for non-attendance.

Any of the following reasons shall be a reasonable excuse:—

1. That the child is under efficient instruction in some other manner.
2. That the child has been prevented from attending school by sickness or any unavoidable cause.
3. That there is no Public Elementary School open which the child can attend within three miles, measured according to the nearest road, from the residence of such child.

Determining Times of Attendance.

3. Subject to the provisions of the Elementary Education Acts, 1870 and 1873, and of these Bye-laws, the time during which every child is required to attend school shall be the whole time for which the school selected shall be open for the instruction of children of a similar age, not being less than twenty-five hours a week, but no child shall be obliged by these Bye-laws to attend school on Sundays, and nothing in these Bye-laws contained shall prevent the withdrawal of any child from any religious observance or instruction in religious subjects, or shall require any child to attend school on any day exclusively set apart for religious observance by the religious body to which his parent belongs.

Providing for exemption from Attendance at School.

4. A child between ten years and thirteen years of age who has obtained from one of Her Majesty's Inspectors a certificate that he has reached a standard equivalent to the fourth standard of the New Code (1875) of the Education Department shall be totally exempt from the obligation to attend school.

Further provision for exemption from Attendance.

5. A child of not less than ten years of age, who shows to the satisfaction of the Board that he is necessarily and beneficially at work, shall be exempt from the obligation to attend school during the whole time for which he is otherwise hereby required to attend school, but every such child shall attend school for at least ten hours in every week—such attendance to be either at morning, afternoon, or evening school, and in computing such ten hours of attendance no time shall be counted which shall be in excess of three hours at any one time or in excess of five hours in any one day.

6. Nothing in the present Bye-laws shall have any force or effect in so far as it may be contrary to anything contained in any Act for regulating the education of children employed in labour.

Providing for the Remission or Payment of School Fees in certain cases.

7. Where the parent of any child shall satisfy the said School Board of his or her inability, from poverty, to pay the whole or any part of the fees of such child, the said School Board, in the case of a School provided by the Board, will remit the whole or such part of the fees as in the opinion of the Board the parent is so unable to pay, for a renewable period, to be fixed by the Board, not exceeding six calendar months; provided always that the amount hereby undertaken to be remitted shall not exceed the following:—

If the child is under seven years of age 1d. per week
 Seven and upwards... .. 2d. „
 And not to exceed per family ... 6d. „

8. Every parent who shall not observe or who shall neglect or violate these Bye-laws, or any of them, shall, upon conviction, be liable to a penalty not exceeding such an amount as with the costs will amount to 5s. for each offence.

Sealed with the Common Seal of the Board this 6th day of January, 1876.

Sealed in the presence of

C. D. Holland, Vice-Chairman.

Oliver Lloyd, Clerk.

THE ELEMENTARY EDUCATION ACTS, 1870, 1873.

Parish of St. David's.

BYE-LAWS OF THE ST. DAVID'S, SCHOOL BOARD.

AT a Meeting of the School Board for the said parish of St. David's, duly convened and held at the School Board Office, New Cross House, in the said parish of St. David's, on the the 1st day of February, 1876, at which Meeting a quorum of the Members of such Board are present, the said Board do hereby, in pursuance of the powers vested in them by "The Elementary Education Acts, 1870 and 1873," and subject to the approval of the Education Department, make and ordain the following Bye-laws:—

1. All terms are to be interpreted as the Elementary Education Act, 1870, directs.

2. Subject to the provisions of the Elementary Education Acts, 1870 and 1873, and of these Bye-laws, the parent of every child not less than five years of age, nor more than thirteen years of age, and residing within the district of the said Board, shall cause such child to attend a Public Elementary School, unless there is some reasonable excuse for non-attendance.

Any of the following reasons shall be a reasonable excuse, namely:—

- (a.) That the child is under efficient instruction in some other manner.
- (b.) That the child has been prevented from attending school by sickness or any unavoidable cause.
- (c.) That there is no Public Elementary School which such child can attend within three miles, measured according to the nearest road, from the residence of such child.

3. The time during which every child shall attend school, shall be the whole time for which the school shall be open for the instruction of children of similar age: Provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent the withdrawal of any child during the time or times in which any religious observance is practised, or instruction in religious subjects is given, and that no child shall be required.

- (a.) To attend school on any day exclusively set apart for religious observance by the religious body to which his or her parent belongs.
- (b.) To attend school on Sunday, Christmas Day, or Good Friday, or any day set apart for a day of Public Fast or Thanksgiving, or on Saturday after twelve o'clock at noon.
- (c.) To attend school on any day fixed for the examination of scholars therein, in respect of religious subjects.

4. Nothing in the present Bye-laws shall have any force or effect in so far as it may be contrary to anything contained in any Act for regulating the education of children employed in labour.

5. If the parent of any child satisfies the School Board that he is unable from poverty to pay the whole or some part of the school fees of such child, the School Board, in the case of a school provided by the Board, will remit the whole or such part of the school fees as, in the opinion of the Board, the parent is unable to pay, for a renewable period, to be fixed by the Board, not exceeding six calendar months.

6. In case one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools shall certify that any child between ten and thirteen years of age has reached the fifth standard of education mentioned in the New Code of Regulations of the Education Department, made on the 5th day of April, 1875, such child shall be totally exempt from the obligation to attend school, and any such child who has been so certified to have reached the fourth standard of education mentioned in the said Code, shall be exempt from the obligation to attend school more than fifteen hours in any one week.

7. Any person committing a breach of these Bye-laws, or any of them, shall be subject, on conviction, to a penalty not exceeding 2s. 6d., provided that any number of breaches of these Bye-laws in one and the same week shall be deemed one offence, and that no penalty imposed for the breach of any Bye-law shall exceed such a sum as, with the costs, will amount to 5s. for each offence.

8. These Bye-laws shall take effect from and after the day on which the same shall be sanctioned by Her Majesty by Order in Council.

(a.) To attend school on any day exclusively set apart for religious observance by the religious body to which his or her parent belongs.

(b.) To attend school on Sunday, Christmas Day, Good Friday, or any day set apart for a Public Fast or Thanksgiving, or on Saturday after twelve o'clock at noon.

(c.) To attend school on any day fixed for the inspection of the school, or the examination of the scholars therein in respect of religious subjects.

3. In case one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of schools shall certify that any child between ten and thirteen years of age has reached the fourth standard of education mentioned in the New Code of Regulations of the Education Department, made on the 7th day of February, 1871, such child shall be totally exempt from the obligation to attend school, and any such child who has been so certified to have reached the third standard of education mentioned in the said Code, shall be exempt from the obligation to attend school, more than ten hours in any one week.

4. A child shall not be required to attend school:—

(a.) If such child is under the efficient instruction in some other manner.

(b.) If such child has been prevented from attending school by sickness or any unavoidable cause.

(c.) If there be no Public Elementary School, which such child can attend within two miles, measured according to the nearest road from the residence of such child.

5. Nothing in the present Bye-laws shall have any force or effect in so far as it may be contrary to any thing contained in any Act for regulating the education of children employed in labour.

6. If the parent of any child satisfies the School Board that the reason that his or her child does not attend school is that he or she is unable from poverty to pay the school fees of such child, the School Board will, at any school provided by the Board, remit the whole or such part of the school fees as, in the opinion of the Board, the parent is unable to pay, for a renewable period, to be fixed by the Board, not exceeding six calendar months.

7. Any person committing a breach of these Bye-laws, or any of them, shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding five shillings, including costs, for each offence.

8. These Bye-laws shall take effect from and after the day on which the same shall be sanctioned by Her Majesty by Order in Council.

Sealed with the Common Seal of the School Board for the parish of Street, Somerset.

Bye-laws referred to in the foregoing Order.

No. DCIII

THE ELEMENTARY EDUCATION ACT,

BYE-LAWS OF THE SCHOOL BOARD FOR ALDING-
BOURNE, SUSSEX.

At a meeting of the Aldingbourne School Board, duly convened and held at Westergate in the parish of Aldingbourne, in the county of Sussex, on the 15th day of January, 1876, at which meeting a quorum of the members are present, the Board do hereby, in pursuance of the powers given to them by the Elementary Education Act, 1870, and the Elementary Education Act, 1873, or one of them, and subject to the approval of the Education Department, make and ordain the following Bye-laws:—

Interpretation Clause.

1. In these Bye-laws (unless there is anything in the contents repugnant to or inconsistent with such construction).

Terms importing males include females. The term "Education Department" means the Lords of the Committee of the Privy Council on Education; the term "School" means a Public Elementary School—also any other School at which efficient Elementary Education is given; the term "Elementary School" means a School or Department of a School at which Elementary Education is the principal part of the Education there given, and does not include any School or Department of a School at which the ordinary payments in respect of the instruction from each scholar exceed nine pence a week, and the term "Public Elementary School" means an Elementary School which is conducted in accordance with the regulations contained in the 7th section of the Elementary Education Act, 1870. The term "District" means the entire district of the Aldingbourne School Board, for which the said School Board are empowered under the aforesaid Acts to make the present Bye-laws.

The term "Parent" includes guardian and every person who is liable to maintain, or has the actual custody of, any child.

Requiring Children to attend School.

2. The parent of every child of not less than five years, nor more than thirteen years of age, residing in the district of the School Board, is required to cause such child to attend school, unless there be some reasonable excuse for non-attendance.

Any of the following reasons shall be a reasonable excuse:—

1. That the child is under efficient instruction in some other manner.
2. That the child has been prevented from attending school by sickness or any unavoidable cause.
3. That there is no Public Elementary School open which the child can attend within three miles, measured according to the nearest road from the residence of such child.

Determining Times of Attendance.

3. Subject to the provisions of the Elementary Education Acts, 1870, 1873, and of these Bye-laws, the time during which every child is required to attend school shall be the whole time for which the school selected shall be open for the instruction of children of a similar age, not being less than twenty-five hours a week, but no child shall be obliged by these Bye-laws to attend School on Sundays, and nothing in these Bye-laws contained shall prevent the withdrawal of any child from any religious observance or instruction in religious subjects, or shall require any child to attend school on any day exclusively set apart for religious observance by the religious body to which his parent belongs.

Providing for Exemption from Attendance at School.

4. A child between ten years and thirteen years of age who has obtained from one of Her Majesty's Inspectors a certificate that he has reached a standard equivalent to the fourth standard of the New Code (1875) of the Education Department, shall be totally exempt from the obligation to attend school.

Further Provision for Exemption from Attendance.

5. A child of not less than ten years of age, who shows to the satisfaction of the Board that he is necessarily and beneficially at work, shall be exempt from the obligation to attend school during the whole time for which he is otherwise hereby required to attend school, but every such child shall attend school for at least ten hours in every week, such attendance to be either at morning, afternoon, or evening school, and in computing such ten hours of attendance, no time shall be counted which shall be in excess of three hours at any one time, or in excess of five hours in any one day.

6. Nothing in the present Bye-laws shall have any force or effect, in so far as it may be contrary to anything contained in any Act for regulating the education of children employed in labour.

Providing for the Remission or Payment of School Fees in certain cases.

7. Where the parent of any child shall satisfy the said School Board of his or her inability, from poverty to pay the whole or any part of the fees of such child, the said School Board, in the case of a school provided by the Board, will remit, and in the case of any other Public Elementary School, will, for a child residing in the district of the Board, pay the whole, or such part of the fees as in the opinion of the Board the parent is so unable to pay, for a renewable period, to be fixed by the Board, not exceeding six calendar months, provided always that the amount hereby undertaken to be remitted or paid shall not exceed the following:—

If the child is under seven years of age, one penny per week;

Seven and upwards, two pence per week;

And not to exceed per family, six pence per week.

8. Every parent who shall not observe, or who shall neglect or violate these Bye-laws, or any of them, shall, upon conviction, be liable to a penalty not exceeding such an amount as with the costs will amount to five shillings for each offence.

Sealed with the Common Seal of the Board, this 15th day of January, 1876.

Sealed in the presence of Richard Denman, Chairman.

Oliver Lloyd, Clerk.

THE ELEMENTARY EDUCATION ACTS,
1870 AND 1873.

BYE-LAWS OF THE SCHOOL BOARD FOR THE PARISH OF FRAMWELLGATE, ST. OSWALD (EXTRA-MUNICIPAL), COUNTY OF DURHAM.

Know all Men by these Presents, that at a meeting of the School Board for the parish of Framwellgate, Saint Oswald (extra municipal), in the county of Durham, duly convened and held at the Clerk's office, on Friday, the 26th day of November, 1875, at which meeting a quorum of the members of the Board are present, the said Board do hereby, in pursuance of the powers given to them by the Elementary Education Act, 1870, and subject to the approval of the Lords of the Committee of the Privy Council on Education, make and ordain the following Bye-laws:—

1. In these Bye-laws,

Terms importing "males" include females.

The term "School," means either a Public Elementary School or any other school at which efficient elementary instruction is given.

The term "Public Elementary School" means a school or department of a school, at which elementary education is the principal part of the education given, and at which the ordinary payments, in respect of instruction, do not exceed ninepence a week, and which is conducted in accordance with the regulations contained in the 7th section of the Elementary Education Act, 1870.

The term "Board" or "School Board" means the School Board for the parish of Framwellgate, Saint Oswald (extra municipal).

The term "parent" includes guardian and every person who is liable to maintain, or has the actual custody of, any child, but does not include the mother when the father is residing within the district of the Board.

2. The parent of every child of not less than five years, nor more than twelve years of age, and residing in the district of the Board, is required to cause such child to attend school, unless there be some reasonable excuse for non-attendance.

3. Subject to the provisions of these Bye-laws, the time during which every such child is required to attend school is the whole time for which the school selected shall be opened for the instruction of children of similar age: and except, also, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the withdrawal of any child from any religious observance, or instruction in religious subjects, or shall require any child to attend school on any day exclusively set apart for religious observance by the religious body to which his parent belongs.

No. 24321

4. (1) A child of not less than ten years who has obtained from one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools a certificate that he has reached a standard equivalent to the fourth standard of the Education Department, in force at the date of such certificate, shall be altogether exempt from obligation to attend school; and

(2) A child of not less than ten years of age, who shows, to the satisfaction of the Board, that he is beneficially and necessarily at work, shall be exempt from the obligation to attend school during the whole time for which the school shall be so opened as aforesaid; but every such child is required to attend school for, at least, twenty hours in every two weeks in which the school is opened, as aforesaid; and in computing for the purpose of this section, the time during which a child has attended any school, there shall not be included any time during which such child has attended school, either:—

(a.) In excess of three hours at any one time, or in excess of five hours on any one day; or

(b.) On Sundays, or

(c.) Before 8 o'clock in the morning, or after 6 o'clock in the evening.

5. Nothing in the present Bye-laws shall have any force or effect in so far as it may be contrary to anything contained in any Act for regulating the education of children employed in labour.

6. In addition to the reasonable excuses for the non-attendance of a child at school mentioned in the Act, and which are as follows, namely:—

(1.) That the child is under efficient instruction in some other manner.

(2.) That the child has been prevented from attending school by sickness or any unavoidable cause.

It is hereby declared that it shall be a reasonable excuse for such non-attendance.

(3.) That there is no Public Elementary school open, which such child can attend, within two measured miles, according to the nearest road from the residence of such child.

7. If any parent, whose child is required under these Bye-laws to attend school, shall satisfy the School Board that he is unable from poverty to pay the school fees of such child, the Board will, at a school provided by the Board, remit, or at any other Public Elementary School, pay the whole or such part of the school fees of such child as in the opinion of the Board the parent is unable to pay, for such renewable period, not exceeding two calendar months, as shall from time to time be fixed by the Board.

8. Every parent who shall not observe, or shall neglect or violate these Bye-laws, or any of them, shall, upon conviction, be liable to a penalty not exceeding 5s., including costs, for each offence.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is being made to Parliament by or on behalf of the promoters of the above Bill for additional provision therein, for the purpose of authorising the Company proposed to be incorporated by the Bill, to make and maintain (in lieu of the wells and pumping stations proposed to be authorised by the Bill as introduced into Parliament, and of the reservoir firstly described in clause 32 of the said Bill), a well and pumping station (in this notice referred to as "the substituted well and pumping station"), and a reservoir to be situate in a piece of land in the parish of Bromsgrove, and county of Worcester, abutting towards the north-east on the main public road from Bromsgrove to Stourbridge, towards the south-west on Santridge-lane, towards the south-east on land in the occupation of Mr. Joshua Giles, and towards the north-west on land in the occupation of Robert Skey, and which piece of land was heretofore part of the field numbered 2368 on the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Bromsgrove, together with an aqueduct, conduit, or line of pipes commencing in the said parish of Bromsgrove, at the substituted well and pumping station, and terminating in the parish of Bell Broughton, in the county of Worcester, in the reservoir in that parish proposed to be authorised by and described in sub-paragraph (c) of Clause 32 of the said Bill as introduced into Parliament, and for authorising the said Company for the purposes of the proposed new and substituted works, to purchase lands in the said parishes of Bromsgrove and Bell Broughton, by agreement or otherwise, and to collect, take, and divert into the said works and therein impound and thence distribute the waters on any land so to be purchased.

Plans and sections of the proposed new and substituted works, showing the situation and levels thereof, together with books of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the lands to be so taken as aforesaid, and copies of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, have been or will be, on or before the 8th day of May instant, deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Worcester, at his office at Worcester, in that county, and with the parish clerks of the said parishes of Bromsgrove and Bell Broughton, at their respective residences.

Dated this 3rd day of May, 1876.

Proposed Abandonment of Portions of the Railways authorised by the Cowbridge Railway Act, 1862.

NOTICE is hereby given, that in pursuance of "The Abandonment of Railways Act, 1850," and "The Railway Companies Act, 1867," the Cowbridge Railway Company have made application to the Board of Trade in writing setting forth that the said Company are desirous that the following portions of the railways by the Cowbridge Railway Act, 1862, authorised to be made should be abandoned, that is to say,

All that portion of Railway No. 1, authorised by the Cowbridge Railway Act, 1862, lying between a point 45 chains or thereabouts to the south of the Llantrissant Station of the Great Western Railway, and the authorised termination under the said Act of the said Railway No. 1, near the said Llantrissant Station.

Of all that Railway No. 2, authorised by the said Cowbridge Railway Act, 1862.

And notice is hereby further given, that any person who may think himself aggrieved by such proposed abandonment, and who may desire to object thereto, may bring such objection before the Board of Trade by sending a written statement thereof by post, on or before the 6th day of June, 1876, addressed to the Assistant-Secretary, Railway Department, Board of Trade, Whitehall, S.W.

Signed this 19th day of April, 1876.

Fk. Marwood, Secretary.
